The committee appointed to prepare an address to the inhabitants of the United States, reported a draught, which was read.

To the inhabitants of the United States.

FRIENDS AND FELLOW CITIZENS—

In free States an unreserved Communication of Sentiments, as well as an Union of Interests should always subsist between those who direct, and those who delegate to them the Direction of public Affairs. That your Interests and ours are inseparable, is a Truth of which we are clearly convinced; and our Conduct is, we trust an uniform Testimony of this clear Conviction. We wish that, upon every Occasion, you may have the fullest and most perfect Views of the Situation in which you stand; but we look upon it as peculiarly our Duty, at this Time when a new Campaign is opening, to address you upon some important Subjects, with which your Freedom and Happiness are very intimately connected.¹

¹In the margin is written “Congress ought not to suppose a necessity for Expressing this. It ought not to appear that the Negative of it could ever suggest itself to Congress.” These marginal notes are by Thomas Burke.
Let us begin with contemplating in Retrospect, the Scenes, which are already passed. Entitled to the Character of Freemen you saw a system formed for debasing you to the Condition of Slaves. Vested by bounteous Heaven with the Right of being governed by yourselves, or by those, upon whom you devolved the Powers of Government, you saw others, avow a Claim of governing you, without your Consent in all Cases whatever. Alarmed at Pretensions, to which Submission would have been Treason, you did, what a free and temperate People ought to do,—you petitioned and remonstrated against your Grievances; but you petitioned and remonstrated in a Tone which evinced your Determination never to bear them. Your Oppressors turned a deaf ear to your Supplications. Your Wrongs were multiplied, and [their Severity was] increased. To feel, and to say that you felt them, were accounted Crimes. Arms were employed to punish you for not surrendering your Birth-right; and to wrest from you what you would not relinquish. What remained on your Part to be done? To oppose Force by Force. The Sword that is drawn in the Defence of Liberty is consecrated.

Though War had been commenced by your Enemies, yet did not you nor your Representatives desist from applying, in the most respectful Manner, for Redress? It was deemed inconsistent with the Dignity of those, who assumed the Rule over you; to vouchsafe you an Answer. The ill founded Claim of governing you was the Injury offered; and you could not be heard till that ill-founded Claim was admitted. The War was prosecuted against you with unremitting Violence, and, on many Occasions, with Circumstances of Cruelty, disavowed by the Maxims and the Practice of civilized Nations. Though, at no Time, you had transgressed the Bounds of your Duty as subjects, and though your Resistance to illegal Government ought to have had peculiar Merit with a Prince whose Family [had been by a similar] Resistance had led [elevated] to the Throne, yet this virtuous Principle was pronounced Rebellion, and you were excluded from the Protection of the British Crown.

* Now the political Bande Connexion between you and Great Britain was burst asunder; the Compact was on her Part dissolved, and you ceased to be [was dissolved, and she would not consider you as] Subjects, because you would not be Slaves. But the Means of Freedom will never be wanting to those, who resolve to be free. Liberty was, in happier Times, enjoyed under the British Constitution: It will grow however with proper Culture, in every Soil. The [transplanted] Branch which is transplanted will flourish, though the Root be rotten. By your Authority your Delegates, in Congress assembled declared that you were free and Independent States.

Much Industry has been employed, on this and on the other Side of the Atlantic to misrepresent this Declaration, and the Principles and Motives, on which it was founded. It has been considered as forming a new Æra in the Contest; as a Departure from the Maxims, on which you originally set out, and as the only Bar to an Accommodation with Great Britain: This Matter deserves to be placed in a clear and proper Point of View.

Was it necessary for you to enter into this Controversy? An Attention to its Importance will discover the true Answer. It was not a Dispute about Affairs of trivial Consequence—about Claims or Rights which might have been admitted or given up, without materially affecting you. Your Property and your Lives—your Liberties and those of your Posterity—every Thing on Earth worth contending for—all were involved in the Decision of the momentous Conflict.

If it was necessary to enter into the Controversy, at what Stage in its Progress, ought you to have stopt? Are there certain Lengths, to which Freemen may go, in asserting their Freedom, and no farther? Does the sacred Blessing deserve a Petition or a Remonstrance, and nothing more? If Arms may be taken up in its Defence, when should they be laid down? When the Attack upon it is abandoned, or effectually repulsed.

The Truth is, that Independence was the natural, and when it was declared, the necessary Result of your Determination to defend and of the Determination of your Enemies to destroy your Liberties; that the Support of it is now become essential to the Success of your Cause; and that every Bar to an Accommodation with Great Britain which existed before it, exists still. Every Principle, which justified your Opposition at its Commencement, justifies it at its present Height.

The Claim of Great Britain was to bind you, by her Laws, in all Cases whatever: Your Right was to be bound only by Laws made by yourselves, or your Representatives. Is your Right less certain, or of less Importance now, than it was at the Beginning of the Controversy? Has any Thing happened to shew the Propriety of receding from it? Is the Claim of Great Britain less pertinaciously prosecuted now than formerly? Has any thing happened to shew the Propriety of admitting it? What Change, then, can be pointed out, in the Merits and Principles of the Contest? A fond Hope long lingered in your Breasts, that your Enemies would give up their unjust Pretensions; and that a Reconciliation, on the Principles of the British Constitution, would take Place. But Experience shewed the Hope to be vain. Determined never to part with your Liberties; and convinced that Great Britain would not suffer you to enjoy them in Connexion with her, you took the only Course left—you separated.

This is a true and undisguised State of the Matter. Upon that Part of it, which relates to you, it is unnecessary for us to enlarge; because you know your own Rights, your own Principles, your own Conduct, and your own Determinations. What relates to Great Britain, her Prince, her Ministers and her Emissaries deserves a farther Illustration, in the Course of which we shall discover that the Disingenuousness of the Arts has been equal to the Cruelty of the Arms employed against you.

Commissioners, at the Head of Fleets and Armies were sent to restore Peace to America. After their Arrival, they issued a Proclamation, containing a Promise of Pardon. A Pardon implies a precedent Crime. What Crime was it, which the Pardon so graciously preferred, was meant to extinguish? That of refusing to surrender your Birthright and to be bound, in all Cases, by the Acts of the British Parliament. To receive a Pardon was to acknowledge that asserting the essential Rights of Freemen was criminal; and to promise never to assert them any more. And yet in the same Proclamation, mention is made of constitutional Liberty. What Meaning did those, stiled Commissioners intend to convey by these Expressions? What Meaning where they empowered to convey? Those Questions are far from being of the same Import. By an Art, unknown to Openness and Candour, the Commissioners insinuated that the Plea of Independence was the only one, that was inadmissible, when they were conscious, that though that Plea had been relinquished, they must have refused to admit every other; for till an absolute Submission was made on your Part, they had no Authority to enter into any Negotiation on theirs. This appears beyond all Contradiction from the Declarations of the Ministers and from the Debates in the Houses of Parliament. We descend not to the Animadversions, which such Duplicity merits.

No middle Line can now be drawn. Absolute and unconditional Submission to their Power is the End, long intended, and now avowed on the Part of the King and Parliament of Great Britain. Freedom and Independence, now the necessary Guard and Instrument of Freedom, are the Ends Objects proposed by you. Which ought a wise and virtuous People to chuse? Absolute and unconditional Submission! These are Terms, to which your Ears have been unaccustomed. It behoves you now fully to understand their Meaning. Absolute and unconditional Submission! The Horrors of Asiatic Slavery rush into your View. Behold a Wretch—the Property of his Lord and Master—without any Thing that he can call his own—without Lands—without a Wife—without Children—without Enjoyment—without Hope—doomed to be subservient to the Luxury, the Pride, the Caprice, and the Ambition of another—that Wretch is under absolute and unconditional Submission. What would be the Consequences of your absolute and unconditional Submission? You would be degraded from the Rank of Freemen which you now possess: You would be numbered among Slaves. You might plow and plant and sow; but you would not plow or plant or sow for yourselves: Your haughty Masters would reap the Harvest of your Labours. The Expence of subjecting you, and of keeping you in Subjection would be required from your Hands: And it would be imputed to you as a Crime, that the Ambition and Jealousy of your Tyrant obliged him to be at that Expence. What would be the Lot of your Children? Your Feelings will not permit you to trace the Subject. Let us turn our Eyes from the dismal Scene; and direct them to the most delightful Prospects.

What will be the Result of your Freedom and Independence? You will sit under your own Vine, and under your own Fig-tree, none being permitted to make you afraid. All political Power will be derived from you; and will be exercised only by such Persons, during such Terms in such Manner and for such Purposes as you shall appoint. Those who shall be entrusted with the Management of public Affairs, will be the Servants, and not the Masters of the States. Laws made by yourselves, or by your Representatives, will be the Rule of your Conduct. In those Laws Virtue will find Protection, and Vice will meet with her proper Punishment. Your Property will be secure; and Justice will be regularly and impartially executed. An honest Industry will have every Encouragement: Commerce will be extended to every Quarter of the Globe: Learning and the Arts will flourish: All Circumstances will combine to render you free and good and happy: And you will have the best founded Hopes, that your Posterity will be free and good and happy after you.

But are you able to establish and to support your Independence? This is an interesting Question; and as, from our Situation and the Trust, which you have been pleased to repose in us, it is in our Power to furnish you with Materials for an Answer to it, we shall with the utmost Plainness and Candour lay before you, on one Hand, the Dangers, to which you are exposed; and on the other, the Expectations, which you may reasonably entertain of Success.

The first, and indeed the chief Danger, which we wish to point out to you, is that of forgetting and forsaking the Principles and Maxims by which your Hearts were animated, and your Conduct was directed, at the Commencement of the present Controversy. While the Struggle shall continue, the Virtues necessary for supporting it must be cultivated. These are Industry, Economy, Patriotism, Vigour and Disinterestedness. Ease and Opulence will naturally follow, but will never produce a prosperous Issue of the Conflict.

Another Danger arises from Dissensions and Animosities about Matters of Government. We are far from wishing you to be indifferent about the Constitutions, under which you and your Posterity are to live. What we mean to recommend is, that the Differences which arise concerning them should be conducted in such a Manner as not to withdraw or exclude your Attention, your Zeal or your Services from the great Cause, in which we are all engaged, and on the Decision of which the Freedom and Happiness, or the Slavery and Wretchedness of all depend. Above all, let not private or party Interest rise superior to that of the public: No Symptom forebodes more fatal Consequences than this.

A third Danger proceeds from the secret Arts and Machinations of Emissaries sent among you by the Enemy, and of the Disaffected among yourselves. They gain and transmit Intelligence: They invent and propagate false and injurious Reports: They create and foment Jealousies between States and Individuals: They magnify the Power, Numbers, and Resources of the Enemy: They undervalue yours. By these Means, the timid are dismayed; and the honest but unsuspicious, are misinformed and misled.

Let us now consider the Expectations of Success, which you may reasonably entertain: Your Troops are animated with the Love of Freedom: They have fought and bled, and have often been victorious in the Discharge of their Duty as good Citizens, as well as brave Soldiers. Regardless of the Inclemency of Seasons, and of the Length and Fatigue of Marches, they have gone and acted, with Cheerfulness, wherever the cause of Liberty and their Country has required their Service: They have not, we confess, enjoyed the Advantages arising from Experience and Discipline: But Facts have shewn that native Courage, warmed with Patriotism, are sufficient to counterbalance those Advantages. Their Experience and Discipline will daily increase: Their Patriotism will receive no Diminution: The longer those who forced you into this War, oblige you to continue it, the more formidable you will become.

The Army is now put upon a very respectable Footing; whether we regard its Numbers, or the Term of its Inlistment. The most liberal Establishments are made for procuring Relief and Assistance for the sick and the wounded. Arms, Ammunition, Artillery and military Stores are amply provided. Cloathing has been imported and manufactured in very large Quantities: The increasing Industry and Skill of the Inhabitants; and the growing Commerce and Connexion with foreign Countries promise still larger Supplies. The Fertility of your Fields and Pastures, and the little Labour necessary for cultivating them ensure Plenty of Provisions of every Kind.

But your Strength and your Resources are not confined to the Operations by Land. You can exert yourselves likewise by Sea. Your Sailors are hardy and brave: You possess, beyond any Nation on Earth, all the Materials for Shipbuilding: Your Artificers can work them into Form. You cannot yet vie with the Navy of England; though that Navy too had its Beginnings: But you may nevertheless be able to defend your own Coasts; and in Time—a much shorter Time, perhaps than the most sanguine now imagine—may control that haughty maritime Power, which has so long spread her Terrors to the most remote Regions of the Globe. Your Fleet will soon be in a Situation to perform important Services. Your Privateers have already given a severe Blow to the British Commerce; and have enriched you, at the same Time that they have distressed your Enemies.
Along with these Advantages on your Side, many Disadvantages on that of the Enemy should be taken into the Account. The War is carried on by them at a very great Distance from the Seat of their Power. Their Troops, and the Stores and Provisions necessary for them, must be transported, with much Cost and Risque, by Sea. The Number of Men employed in their Shipping is almost equal to that of those serving in the Field. This enhances the Ex pense of their Armaments. Add to all those Circumstances, the Delays and Losses, which must be occasioned by the long Voyages of numerous Fleets.

It is in your Power to avoid every Danger, and to check the Progress of every Evil, which threatens you. The Advantages on your Side, and the Disadvantages on that of the Enemy are continually increasing. You entered into the War without Money, without Arms, without Ammunition, without Experience, without Preparations of any Kind. You have sustained it during two Campaigns against the most vigorous Efforts of a Kingdom, which has been long the Dread of the Nations in Europe; and you are more powerful now, than you were at its beginning.

Is there, then, any reason to doubt of your being able to establish and to support your Independence. None, if you are not wanting to yourselves.

Let Sobriety, Vigilance, Fortitude, Disinterestedness, and firmness form your Character and regulate your Conduct. Join together, with Emulation, but without Jealousy, in the Prosecution of the great Cause, with which all must stand or fall. Watch suspicious Persons: Detect and punish disaffected ones. Let Devotion to the Public invigorate your Actions. Do what it is in your Power to do; and you have the greatest Reason to rest assured that, under the gracious Protection of divine Providence, your virtuous Struggles will be crowned with abundant Success.

That Mr. Commissary proposes to repair to head quarters without delay.

The Committee on the Treasury beg leave to report that on a Conference, according to order, with the Committee appointed to devise ways and means for defraying the Expences of the Current Year, the following Plan was agreed to and directed to be presented for the Consideration of Congress:²

Whereas, by the oppressive Councils and hostile operations of the British King and Parliament, the United States of America, at a time when they were totally unprovided with Fleets or Armies, Military Stores or Finances, have been forced into a War solely for the Defence of their Natural and Political Liberties, a War on their parts, therefore the most just and righteous!

And, Whereas, notwithstanding all the disadvantages of their unprepared situation, the United States thro' the gracious protection of Divine Providence, have not only been enabled to oppose the progress, and set bounds to the Devastations, of their powerful and implacable Enemies, and to maintain their own righteous cause with Spirit, Vigour and firmness, but have now the fairest Prospect of driving away the Invaders of their Country, and Compelling, even those to acknowledge its freedom and Independance who aim'd to establish for its domination a System of Despotism and Tyranny.

¹This report is in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 136, I, folio 225.
²This preamble is in the writing of James Duane.
And, Whereas, to secure the great and inestimable Blessings, which are the objects of our present struggle, no means ought to be neglected which are Consistant with Honour Justice and good Policy.

And, Whereas, it is the Universal Practice of Nations while they are engaged in the extraordinary exertions and expensive operations incident to War, to supply their Exigencies by borrowing such sums of Money as they may stand in need of, from friendly Nations which, enjoying the Blessings of Peace and tranquility, have the means of contributing to their Assistance.

And, Whereas, the American Commissioners at the Court of France, have been directed by Congress to Negotiate a Loan in Europe on the Credit of the United States, the Success of which cannot reasonably be doubted; not only from the favourable disposition of most of the States in Europe towards these States; but more especially because the said Commissioners, on their own Credit, and without any authority to pledge the faith of Congress for repayment, have already actually obtained the Loan of a very considerable sum of Money for the use of the United States.

And, Whereas, Congress are determined to establish the Credit and Currency of the Bills emitted by their Authority, and on the Faith of the United States, on such a Basis as shall effectually Baffle and defeat the Wicked Arts to injure it which have been practiced by our open and secret Enemies, with unremitted Assiduity. And with this View to put it in the Power of Individuals to exchange the Continental Paper Money now in their Possession, for Gold and Silver in Europe at the Value stamped on such Paper Money agreeable to its original Emission.

For Accomplishing, therefore, all the Valuable Purposes before enumerated,

Resolved, That Bills of Exchange to the amount of Five Millions of Spanish or Mexican silver Dollars be drawn on the American Commissioners at the Court of France, by the President of this Congress, in favour of the several Continental Loan Officers, That is, to each of them, the proportion of the above sum herein after alotted.

That the form of the said Bills be as follows:

To The Honorable
In Congress, Philadelphia,
For
Spanish or Mexican Silver Dollars.

Ninety days after sight of this my first Bill, second, third, fourth nor fifth of same tenor number and date, paid, pay unto or order Spanish or Mexican Silver Dollars, or the Value thereof in other Specie, Value here received, for the use of the United States of America, which stand Bound to discharge this Bill agreeable to Resolutions of Congress passed the Day of 1777; in Consequence of which it is drawn with this Express Condition, That if not paid in Ninety days, after presentation for acceptance, an Interest of five per Cent per Ann: shall be paid Annually thereon in Paris from the day of presentation for payment, until redeemed by a full discharge of Principal and Interest.

By order of Congress,

President.

That there be five Bills to each Sett.

That the Treasury Board do procure the same to be forthwith engraved on a Copper Plate with a suitable Margin for Indenting and such other devices as they may judge best to guard against Forgery, the said Plate to be kept by the Board under several Locks, (except when in use) and the President to keep one Key, the Members of the Board the rest.

That said Board, number and fill up all the blanks in said Bills, none of them to be for a less sum than 500 Dollars.

That the said Board deliver the Bills so numbered and filled to the President of Congress for signing, taking his receipt for what they deliver.

That the President sign the same with all convenient dispatch and return them signed to the Treasury Board, taking the Receipt of the Auditor General for the same, expressing therein the Number of Setts, the Numbers they bear, the sums drawn for, the dates and Persons payable to, such receipts to be kept by the President amongst the Public Papers.

That the Treasury Board Transmit of said Bills to the Continental Loan Officer in New Hampshire the amount of Dollars

To the Loan Officer of Massachusetts Bay
To the Loan Officer of Rhode Island
To the Loan Officer of Connecticut
To the Loan Officer of New York

To the Loan Officer of Pennsylvania
To the Loan Officer of Delaware
To the Loan Officer of Maryland
To the Loan Officer of Virginia
To the Loan Officer of North Carolina
To the Loan Officer of South Carolina
To the Loan Officer of Georgia
That the Treasury Board keep a perfect Record of all the Bills so transmitted and require Receipts from each Loan Officer for what he receives charging him in the Treasury Books for the same.

That each of the Continental Loan Officers shall return to the Treasury Board a Receipt for the Bills of Exchange he receives wherein shall be specified the Numbers, dates, and sums, obliging himself to redeliver the said Bills if demanded or any part thereof that may remain undisposed of, and to account for the balance in Continental Dollars, Dollar for Dollar.

That the several Continental Loan Officers endorse and deliver the said Bills of Exchange to any person or Persons that shall require them in lieu of Continental Dollars, Dollar for Dollar, keeping a fair account of the Bills they deliver, wherein shall be specified the Number, Sum, date of each Bill, the Persons Name it is endorsed to, and the sum received for it, duplicates of which accounts shall be transmitted to the Treasury Board every three Months or oftener if required.

That the Money received by the Loan Officers for Bills of Exchange be subject to the same Drafts and Regulations as that borrowed on Continental Loan Office Certificates.

That such Loan Officer be allowed a Commission of 1/16th per Cent for receiving and paying the amount of the Bills he Negotiates, and no more.

That the American Commissioners at the Court of France or any one on behalf of the rest, shall accept upon presentation all the Bills drawn on them by the President agreeable to Resolves of Congress specifying in the acceptance, the place where payment of said Bills or the Interest that may arise thereon is to be made, unless they shall procure some responsible Bank or Banker or other suitable Person or Persons to come under such acceptance, and in that case, they are to direct all such Bills to the place or Person where such acceptance is to be had.

That the said Commissioners or other Persons procured by them for this purpose shall pay off and discharge the said Bills as fast as they fall due if they have in hand sufficient Funds. That they keep fair records of the Bills they accept specifying the Numbers, dates, Sums, date of acceptance and when due, in order that they may be paid off in course.

That said Commissioners or other Persons appointed to pay the said Bills keep fair and regular accounts with the Dates of their Receipts and payments on account of the United States, transmitting several Copies thereof to the President of Congress annually, and that they cut into Quarters all the Bills they shall pay, sending three Quarters of every Bill by separate Conveyances with said accounts and keep the other Quarter themselves.

That the American Commissioners at the different Courts of Europe use their utmost endeavours to establish the Credit of these Bills at all the Banks and with all the Bankers in Europe, so that the same may be discounted for the emolument of the Possessors, should the American Funds not be at hand to discharge them as they fall due, and to the end that these Bills may obtain such Credit.

Resolved, That the Faith, Honor and Property of the United States of New Hampshire, &c. Be and they are hereby pledged to [such Princes, nations, States, Bodies corporate, Companies and Individuals as shall in pursuance of these Resolutions, respectively become Creditors of the said united States]¹ for payment and discharge of all the Bills of Exchange now ordered to be drawn by the President of Congress on the American Commissioners at the Court of France together with all such Interest as may arise or become due thereon, agreeable to the Tenor of said Bills, the Interest to be paid Annually as it falls due and the Principal as Fast as funds can be Lodged or borrowed for that purpose.

IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY FOR THE STATE OF PENNSYLVANIA,

Tuesday, 10th June, 1777.

The House resumed the consideration of the report of the committee respecting the assignment of the troops of this state to the Congress; and it was, thereupon,

Resolved, That this House do heartily concur with his Excellency the President and Council, that it will be expedient to transfer to the honorable the Continental Congress, the Pennsylvania state regiment, commanded by Colonel Bull, the regiment of artillery, commanded by Colonel Proctor, and Captain Pugh's company, raised for the purpose of guarding the powder-mills. That his Excellency the President and Council be, and they are hereby, authorized and empowered, to negotiate and settle the said transfer or assignment with the Congress, on such terms and conditions as to them shall seem most proper, so as to have the said troops credited to the quota of men to be furnished by this state:

A letter, from T. Wharton, president of the State of Pennsylvania, dated 19, was read, containing the following resolve of the general Assembly of the said State passed:

"In General Assembly Thursday, June 10, 1777. On motion, Resolved, That the President and council be authorized and impowered to borrow from Congress any sum of money not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars, to answer the immediate exigencies of the State, and to be repaid in a very short time out of the monies now issuing by virtue of the two hundred thousand pounds act Enacted at the last sitting of this house."

Wherein, "agreeable to a resolution of the general assembly of the said State, passed the 19th, and at the request of the council, he requests Congress to lend to the State of Pennsylvania the additional sum of 50,000 dollars, to be repaid in a very short time;"² Whereupon,

Resolved, That 50,000 dollars be advanced to the State of Pennsylvania on account, the said State to be accountable.

The Board of War report,

That they have taken into consideration the case of Peter Pickman Frye, a soldier in the Massachusetts regiment, now under sentence of death for deserting, with an intention to go over to the enemy, and have perused and considered a certificate of the committee of correspondence, inspection and safety, at Salem, in the said State, wherein the said committee set forth, "That the said Frye is a person, who, they think, from their knowledge of him, is not possessed of a common share of understanding, and that he is really incapable of committing a crime, maliciously and with design, deserving so severe a punishment as that to which he is now sentenced;" and that, therefore, they are of opinion, that however base the crime of desertion may be, and, more especially, when blackened by an intention to assist our inveterate and cruel enemies, yet, if it be true, that the person now condemned for the commission of this crime is in a state of idiocy or insanity, the articles of war, in this case made, can have no operation as to him:

Whereupon,

Resolved, That General Heath be directed to enquire into the fact set forth by the committee, who, no doubt, certify the matter as it appears to them, and if he shall find the culprit of unsound mind, or incapable, from natural defect of understanding, to judge of what is right or wrong, that a free pardon be granted him for this reason only, and by no means on account of friends or connexions, who should never be considered when public justice demands vicious men to suffer. Congress considers simple desertion as a crime the most atrocious and detestable, but when coupled with an intention to desert to the enemy, the offence becomes doubly heinous and wicked, the person committing it being guilty of both perjury and treason; therefore, that it be recommended to General Heath, to be cautious in his enquiries into the circumstances of the present case, and if he be not fully satisfied, as to the said Peter Pickman Frye's incapacity, that he be empowered and directed to order immediate execution.

Resolved, That the petition of William Field, and Matthias Sappenfield, and of John Smith, and James

This corps to be employed in garrisons, and for guards in cities and other places, where magazines or arsenals, or hospitals are placed; as also to serve as a military school for young gentlemen, previous to their being appointed to marching regiments; for which purpose, all the subaltern officers, when off duty, shall be obliged to attend a mathematical school, appointed for the purpose, to learn geometry, arithmetic, vulgar and decimal fractions, and the extraction of roots; and that the officers of this corps shall be obliged to contribute one day's pay in every month, and stoppages shall be made of it accordingly, for the purpose of purchasing a regimental library of the most approved authors on tactics and the petite guerre: That some officers from this corps be constantly employed in the recruiting service in the neighbourhood of the places they shall be stationed in; that all recruits so raised, shall be brought into the corps and drilled, and afterwards draughted into other regiments as occasion shall require.

Congress proceeded to the election of a colonel of the said corps of invalids; and, the ballots being taken, use of the army, all the beef, pork, flour, spirits, liquor, &c. not necessary for the subsistence of the inhabitants, and if not to be otherwise obtained, to use force for that purpose; that he accordingly collected considerable quantities, for most of which, greater prices were asked by the proprietors than he thought proper to give;—upon due consideration whereof, your committee recommend, that Captain Francis Wade be directed to pay the following prices for such articles by him taken in the Jerseys, the forepart of January last, which were not paid for to the satisfaction of the owners, viz:

Pork at seven pounds ||18 2-3ds dollars|| per barrel; West India rum, twenty shillings ||2 2-3ds dollars|| per gallon; French and country rum, fifteen shillings ||2 dollars|| per gallon; Salt, thirty shillings ||4 dollars|| per bushel; Sugar, nine pounds ||24 dollars|| per hundred; Cheese, fifteen pence ||15/90ths dollar|| per pound, and Hogs-lard, one shilling ||12/90ths dollar|| per pound.

That they have enquired into Captain Wade's conduct as a public officer, and are of opinion, that he governed himself as nearly by the Principles of Justice and moderation acted with as little severity as might be expected in the execution of such an office, ever disagreeable to a free people to have exercised among them, and which nothing but pure necessity could authorize.

The committee farther report, in addition to their report of the 14 April last, that having in the course of their enquiry into the conduct of the commissaries, received sundry informations respecting the misconduct of Mr. Carpenter Wharton, and, at his request, furnished him with the charges brought against him, which were sent by a messenger of this house, and are as follows, viz.

1. That during the last campaign, he neglected his duty in not seasonably supplying the army with provisions, and put the general under the necessity of appointing a commissary in his stead.

2. That in the fall of the last year, he brought to Fort Lee, such a large number of cattle (by his own acknowledgment, not less than 700, others say more,) at a time, that they suffered greatly for want of proper keeping, and became unfit for beef, many of them in such state when delivered, and from the largeness of their numbers many were lost; and upon the retreat of our army across Delaware river, droves of cattle by his direction were brought in, out of one of which droves, 254 cattle were taken as unfit for killing, and sent to his farm to winter, which he acknowledges were afterwards sold, the loss upon which, it is supposed, the public are charged with.

3. That he purchased large quantities of flour to supply the magazines and army, at extravagant prices, much beyond what the same might have been procured for, employing persons to purchase, either wholly unacquainted with business, or such as designedly raised the prices with a view to increase their profits, under the idea of receiving commissions.

4. That he raised the price of pork by bidding either by himself or agents, much greater prices than people he purchased from had agreed to sell the same for, to other commissaries; that he also purchased rum at prices higher than the same might have been obtained for.

5. That so far from endeavouring to serve the public faithfully, he refused to confer with other commissaries for concerting a mode for preventing the extravagant rise of provisions, by their bidding upon each other, said he would take his own method of purchasing, and others might do the same.

6. That he neglected his duty in not purchasing larger quantities of pork, in the proper season, when the same might have been had on reasonable terms.
June, 1777

That since sending the above charges, the committee have, till this time, delayed any further proceedings therein, that Mr. Wharton might have sufficient time to offer what he thought proper in vindication of his conduct, but have not heard any thing further from him: they are therefore of opinion, that Mr. Carpenter Wharton ought to be immediately required to settle all his commissary accounts with the commissioners for auditing accounts now sitting at Philadelphia; and that the said commissioners be furnished with the above charges, and such other information as the committee may think proper to give, the better to enable them to detect frauds if attempted, and do justice in the premises.¹

The Committee of Treasury reported, That they have had under consideration the request of the commissary general referred to them for supplying Mr. Matthew Irwin with 80,000 dollars, to enable him to pay for the magazines of provisions laid up in Pennsylvania; that they have been attended by Mr. Irwin, and in answer to their enquiry how this money was intended to be disposed of, were informed, that Joseph Pennel last winter purchased, in Lancaster and York Town, about 20,000 barrels of flour, 11,000 bushels of wheat and 15,000 gallons of whiskey, which are still stored at those places and Valley Forge, and that a balance of 20,000 dollars remains due to Mr. Pennel, and that Mr. Dunham wants 12,000 dollars to pay for cattle sent to head quarters. the printed paper referred to them; and, after some time spent thereon, the president resumed the chair, and Mr. [Benjamin] Harrison reported, that the committee have had under consideration the letters and papers to them referred, and have come to sundry resolutions thereupon, which he was ready to report, when the Congress would receive it.

Ordered, That it be now received.

The report from the committee on the whole ||Congress|| was read, and agreed to, as follows:

Resolved, That Congress is composed of delegates chosen by, and representing the communities respectively inhabiting the territories of New Hampshire, Massachusetts bay, Rhode Island and Providence Plantations, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Georgia, as they respectively stood at the time of its first institution; that it was instituted for the purposes of securing and defending the communities aforesaid against the usurpations, oppressions, and hostile invasions of Great Britain; and that, therefore, it cannot be intended that Congress, by any of its proceedings, would do or recommend or countenance any thing injurious to the rights and jurisdictions of the several communities which it represents.

Resolved, That the independent government attempted to be established by the people stiling themselves inhabitants of the New Hampshire Grants, can derive no countenance or justification from the act of Congress declaring the United Colonies to be independent of the crown of Great Britain, nor from any other act or resolution of Congress.

Resolved, That the petition of Jonas Fay, Thomas Chittenden, Heman Allen and Reuben Jones, in the name and behalf of the people stiling themselves as aforesaid, praying that "their declaration, that they would consider themselves as a free and independent State may be received; that the district in the said petition described may be ranked among the free and independent States, and that delegates therefrom may be admitted to seats in Congress," be dismissed.

Resolved, That Congress, by raising and officering the regiment commanded by Colonel Warner, never meant to give any encouragement to the claim of the people aforesaid, to be considered as an independent State; but that the reason which induced Congress to form that corps was, that many officers of different States, who had served in Canada, and alleged that they could soon raise a regiment, but were then unprovided for, might be reinstated in the service of the United States.

Whereas, a printed paper, addressed to the inhabitants of the district aforesaid, dated Philadelphia, April 11, 1777, and subscribed Thomas Young, was laid before Congress by one of the delegates of New York, to which address is prefixed the resolution of Congress of the 15th May, 1776, and in which are contained the following paragraphs: "I have taken the minds of several of the leading members of the honorable the Continental Congress, and can assure you, that you have nothing to do, but to send attested copies of the recommendation to take up government, to every township in your district, and invite all the freeholders and inhabitants to meet and choose members for a general convention, to meet at an early day to choose delegates for the general Congress and committee of safety, and to form a constitution for yourselves. Your friends here tell me that some are in doubt, whether delegates from your district would be admitted into Congress. I tell you to organize fairly, and make the experiment, and I will ensure you success at the risque of my reputation, as a man of honor or common sense. Indeed, they can by no means, refuse you: you have as good a right to choose how you will be governed, and by whom, as they had.’’

Resolved, That the contents of the said paragraphs are derogatory to the honour of Congress, are a gross misrepresentation of the resolution of Congress therein referred to, and tend to deceive and mislead the people to whom they are addressed.\(^1\)

First form of this report.

Whereas certain Persons within the State of New York, stiling themselves Inhabitants of the New Hampshire Grants, have published, and circulated a paper dated the 15\(^{th}\) day of Jan\(^{7}\) last, in which it is asserted that by the Resolution of Congress of the 4\(^{th}\) day of July last, declaring the United Colonies in America to be free and independant of the Crown of Great Britain the Jurisdiction granted by the Crown to the Government of New York over the Inhabitants of the said Grants is totally dissolved, that they are without Law or Government, and in a State of Nature, and consequently have a Right to form a Government for themselves.

And, Whereas, in persuance of such Declaration a Petition was on the 8\(^{th}\) day of April last presented to Congress signed in behalf of the Inhabitants aforesaid by Jonas Fay and others, and praying that their Declaration of Independance may be received, and the District therein described be rank’d by Congress among the free and Independant States, and Delegates therefrom admitted to Seats in Congress.

And, Whereas, a Representation from the State of New York was on the day of presented setting forth among other things that the Convention of that State had contemplated the Misconduct of a Part of its Inhabitants in the District aforesaid with Silent Concern, being restrain’d from giving it suitable Opposition, lest at so critical a Juncture it might weaken their Exertions in the common Cause; that Advantage had been taken of their patient Forbearance, and the Spirits of Dissatisfaction artfully fomented by misconstruing certain Resolutions of Congress into an Approbation of their Proceedings, and by propagating Reports that particular Members had advis'd, and were resolved to justify, and support their Scheme of Separation.

And as under this Delusion some of the said Inhabitants had proceeded so far as to claim the Protection of Congress in their proposed Independence and a Seat for their Delegates, so on the other hand the State of New York requested Congress, by a public Declaration, to undeceive the said Inhabitants, with respect to any of their Resolutions which had been construed to imply an Approbation of their establishing a Government distinct from the rest of their Fellow Citizens, and independant of the Authority of the State of which they are Members.

[Here followed the extract from the printed paper.]

Resolved, Therefore, 1 That the Separation from the State of New York and the Independent Government attempted to be establish'd by the said Inhabitants can derive no Countenance, or Justification from the Resolution of Congress, declaring the United Colonies to be free and Independent of the Crown of Great Britain, and that such Separation, and Indepedance have not been countenanced, or encouraged, or intended to have been countenanced or Encouraged, by any other Act, or Resolution of Congress.

II Resolved, That the Principle upon which such intended Separation is asserted to be grounded (to wit) "That by the Declaration of Independence of the United Colonies the Jurisdiction granted by the Crown of Great Britain to the Government of New York is dissolved, and the said Inhabitants possessed of a Right to form a Government for themselves," is unwarrantable in itself, and highly dangerous in its Consequences; since if it should prevail, and be carried into practice, it must inevitably destroy all Order, Stability and good Government, in particular States and entail Disunion, Weakness, and Insecurity on the United States.

III Resolved, That it be recommended to the aforesaid Inhabitants who have attempted such Separation to desist therefrom, and to Submit themselves quietly and peaceably to the Jurisdiction of New York, to which it appears from their own Representation they were subject before, and at the Time of the Declaration of Independence of the United Colonies.
IV Resolved, That the said Printed Paper, signed Thomas Young, is a false scandalous and malicious Libel, calculated to foment a Spirit of Jealousy, and Distrust between the Congress and the State of New York, and to deceive, and mislead the people to whom it is addressed.¹

Whereas this Congress is, and from its first Institution has been, composed of Delegates chosen by the Communities inhabiting the several Territories of New Hampshire, Massachusetts Bay, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, &c. as they then stood, and there the said Congress could not do any act which should be binding on any persons other than the said Inhabitants and being Instituted for the Purposes of securing and defending the said Territories against the Usurpations, Oppressions and Hostile Invasions of Great Britain, can not be intended by their Recommendations to mean any thing Injurious to the Rights and Jurisdictions of the several Communities which they represent [and not being by their Constituents Invested with Power or Authority to consider or decide any Disputes relative to the particular Bounds or Jurisdiction of these States, nothing in the Resolutions of Congress contained can be construed to have any Effect upon such Disputes,] therefore

Resolved, That the paper signed of the following Tenor is a gross Misrepresentation of the Resolution of Congress of the day of recommending to each State to form Constitutions of Civil Government for their Internal Police which Misrepresentation tends to mislead many of the Inhabitants of these United States into unwarrantable Separation from and Opposition to the Jurisdiction of the several Communities of which they were Members at the Time when the Congress was first Instituted.

Resolved, That the Contents of the said paper are highly Injurious to the Honor and Dignity of Congress.²

The Committee on the Treasury reported, that they have taken into consideration the letters referred to them, from Governor Henry, of Virginia, Mr. Aylett, deputy commissary general, and Mr. Finnie, deputy quarter master general, and an account of provisions purchased in Virginia, for the use of the United States; and find, that besides twenty cargoes of flour, amounting to 10,282 barrels, shipped from different parts in Virginia, on continental account, by order of the commissary general, there remains stored in different places of that commonwealth, 10,676 barrels of flour, 1,100 barrels of pork, and 5,790 barrels of Indian corn, which, exclusive of several cargoes and expenditures not accounted for, amount to £48,107 9 3½, of which Mr. Aylett has received £23,727 2 8, and he claims a balance in his favour of £24,383 6 7½; that this state of his accounts is collected from a rough estimate transmitted by Mr. Aylett, unattended by proofs or vouchers; that they cannot but express their apprehensions that the flour and corn which remain stored in Virginia, are in great danger of perishing, and being lost to the public from the heat of the weather, and the difficulty of transportation, unless some effectual means should be speedily adopted for their preservation: Whereupon,

Resolved, That the accounts of provisions shipped from, and stored in Virginia, for the use of the United States, be referred to the Board of War, in order

That the proper enquiry be made into the state of these provisions, and the most effectual means be adopted to prevent their perishing, or being lost to the public:

That a warrant be drawn by the president on Benjamin Harrison, Esq: deputy pay master general, in Virginia, in favour of Mr. Aylett, deputy commissary general in the southern department, for the sum of sixty thousand dollars, on account of his present demands, and that Mr. Aylett be informed by the Treasury Board, that agreeable to the late regulations of the commissary general’s department, no money can be furnished in future for the use of his department, but through the commissary general of purchases, to whom he must apply.

The Board of Treasury further reported, That William Finnie, Esq: deputy quarter master general in the southern department, should have leave, agreeable to his request, to repair to Philadelphia, in order to settle his account with the commissioners of accounts holding their office at the treasury, under the direction of the Board of Treasury:

Another commission to William Lee, esquire, commissioner to his majesty the king of Prussia, in the same terms, mutatis mutandis.

A commission to Ralph Izard, esquire, of the state of South Carolina, commissioner to his royal highness the grand duke of Tuscany, similar to that to William Lee, mutatis mutandis.

INSTRUCTIONS TO WILLIAM LEE, ESQUIRE.

Sir, Herewith you will receive commissions from the Congress of the United States of North America, authorizing and appointing you to represent the said Congress as their commissioner at the courts of Vienna and Berlin. You will proceed with all convenient expedition to those courts; visiting that first, which, on consultation with the commissioners at the court of France, shall be judged most proper. You will lose no time in announcing in form to those courts, the declaration of Independence made in Congress on the fourth day of July, 1776. The reasons of this act of Independence are so strongly adduced in the declaration itself, that further argument is unnecessary. As it is of the greatest importance to these states, that Great Britain be effectually obstructed in the plan of sending German and Prussian troops to North America, you will exert all possible address and vigour to cultivate the friendship and procure the interference of the emperor and of Prussia. To this end you will propose treaties of friendship and commerce with these powers, upon the same commercial principles as were the basis of the first treaties of friendship and commerce proposed to the courts of France and Spain, by our commissioners, and which were approved in Congress the seventeenth day of September, 1776, and not interfering with any treaties which may have been proposed to, or concluded with, the courts abovementioned. For your better instruction herein, the commissioners at the court of Versailles will be desired to furnish you, from Paris, with a copy of the treaty originally proposed by Congress, to be entered into with France, together with the subsequent alterations that have been proposed on either side.

You are to propose no treaty of commerce to be of longer duration than the term of twelve years from the date of its ratification by the Congress of the United States. And it must never be forgotten, in these commercial treaties, that reciprocal and equal advantages to the people of both countries be firmly and plainly secured.

There being reasons to suppose that his Prussian majesty makes commerce an object, you will not fail to place before him, in the clearest light, the great advantages that may result from a free trade between the Prussian dominions and North America.

You will seize the first favourable moment to solicit, with decent firmness and respect, an acknowledgment of the independence of these states, and the publick reception of their commissioner as the representative of sovereign states. The measures you may take in the premises, and the occurrences of your negotiation, you will communicate to Congress by every opportunity.

It may not be improper to observe, that these instructions, and all others which you may receive from time to time, should be kept as secret as circumstances will admit.

INSTRUCTIONS TO RALPH IZARD, ESQUIRE.

Sir, Herewith you will receive a commission from the Congress of the United States of North America, authorizing and appointing you to represent the said Congress as their commissioner at the court of the grand duke of Tuscany. You will proceed with all convenient expedition to the court of the grand duke; and will lose no time in announcing in form the declaration of Independence made in Congress the fourth day of July, 1776. The reasons of this act of Independence are so strongly adduced in the declaration itself, that further argument is unnecessary.

As it is of the greatest importance to these states that Great Britain be effectually obstructed in the plan of sending German and Prussian troops to North America, you will exert all possible address to prevail with the grand duke to use his influence with the emperor and the courts of France and Spain to this end.
July, 1777

You will propose a treaty of friendship and commerce with the said grand duke upon the same commercial principles as were the basis of the first treaties of friendship and commerce proposed to the courts of France and Spain by our commissioners, and which were approved in Congress the seventeenth day of September, 1776, and not interfering with any treaties which may have been proposed to or concluded with the courts abovementioned. For your better instruction herein, the commissioners at the court of Versailles will be desired to furnish you, from Paris, with a copy of the treaty originally proposed by Congress to be entered into with France, together with the subsequent alterations that have been proposed on either side.

You are to propose no treaty of commerce to be of longer duration than the term of twelve years from the date of its ratification by the Congress of the United States. And it must never be forgotten in these commercial treaties, that reciprocal and equal advantages to the people of both countries be firmly and plainly secured.

There being reason to suppose that his royal highness makes commerce an object of his attention, you will not fail to place before him, in the clearest light, the great advantages that may result from a free trade between Tuscany and North America.

You will seize the first favourable moment to solicit, with firmness and respect, an acknowledgment of the independence of these states, and the publick reception of their commissioner as the representative of sovereign states.

The measures you may take in the premises, and the occurrences of your negotiation, you will communicate to Congress by every opportunity.

It may not be improper to observe, that these instructions, and all others which you may receive from time to time, should be kept as secret as circumstances will admit.¹

Providence Plantations, to the delegates in Congress from that state, was laid before Congress:

Ordered, That it be referred to the Board of Treasury.

Congress took into consideration the letter from General Sullivan; Whereupon;

Resolved, That the president inform General Sullivan that Congress have not been accustomed to be controled by their officers in the measures which they are about to take in discharge of the important trust committed to them by the United States; that they mean not to be controled by his letter in their proceedings respecting Mons' du Coudray; for that whatever those proceedings may be, General Sullivan's resignation will be accepted by Congress whenever he shall think it proper to transmit it to them.

The Committee to whom the letter from David Hall and others, with the papers accompanying the same, was referred, reported "that they have attended to the business given them in charge, and have received the following information. That a considerable part of the inhabitants of Sussex county, in the State of Delaware, have ever since the commencement of the present controversy with great Britain acted as enemies to the American cause, and are now unfriendly and disaffected to the constitution and government of that State, and to the independence of the United States; that an open and avowed intercourse has been kept up by the disaffected in the county aforesaid with the British ships of war, by means of which intelligence has from time to time been given, and frequent supplies of provisions have been afforded to the enemies of the United States; that the disaffected in the said county keep up a constant correspondence with those of the same character in the counties of Worcester and Somerset in the State of Maryland; that some of them have promised to conduct British sailors to the houses of the well affected that they might be taken; that it is probable that enterprizes of this kind will be attempted to be put in execution; that one person has already been taken in this way and put in irons; that considerable numbers of men have been recruited for the enemy in Sussex county, and have been sent to New York; that the militia officers in that county have generally resigned, and the laws of the State of Delaware for punishing treason and disaffection are rendered altogether ineffectual by the insolence and the numbers of the disaffected; that a very large sum of counterfeit continental money has been brought from the enemy's ships into the said county, part of which has been circulated among the inhabitants; that there is the greatest reason to apprehend, that if the enemy were to gain the smallest advantage over the army of the United States, and the English fleet should appear upon the coast, there would be a general insurrection in that county in favour of the British king; that in May last the president of the State of Delaware sent commissioners to inquire into the state of the county of Sussex, and ordered them to make report of any treasonable practices they might be able to discover among the inhabitants of the said county; that a report mentioning the disaffection and treasonable practices, which the said commissioners, from the best information they could receive, and such observations as they had an opportunity of making, believed to prevail in the said county, was accordingly made; that the Assembly of the State of Delaware met a few days after the said report was made, but adjourned without any proceedings being held thereupon."

Whereupon

Resolved, That the regiment of continental troops now in the State of Maryland under the command of Colonel
Richardson be immediately ordered to march into the county of Sussex in the State of Delaware, to overawe and disarm the disaffected in that county, to put a stop to the intercourse which they carry on with the enemy by securing all the water craft and by every other measure which Colonel Richardson shall deem necessary, and to execute such further measures as shall be directed by the President of the State of Delaware, or other Persons acting under the authority of that State apprehend, detain and secure the leaders in such highly criminal practices.

That the Governor of the State of Maryland be requested to order the Militia of that State who now do Duty with Colonel Richardson’s Regiment, to march with that Regiment, and assist it in performing this service.

That the President of the State of Delaware be requested to order two hundred of the Militia of that State, to join and cooperate with Colonel Richardson’s Regiment and the Militia from the State of Maryland.

That it be earnestly recommended to the Legislative or Executive authority of the State of Delaware, to adopt and pursue the most vigorous and effectual measures, for checking the [dangerous and] spreading of Disaffection in the County of Sussex and particularly for discovering, apprehending, securing and punishing the Leaders of the highly criminal Designs and Enterprises which have been carried on in that County that part of the State.

That for accomplishing this important End Congress will afford to the State of Delaware, every Assistance by the Continental Troops ordered into the County of Sussex, and by all such other Measures as may be found to be necessary.

Resolved, That the Board of War be directed to take effectual measures for Compleatly arming as speedily as possible Colonel Richardsons Battalion which is ordered into Sussex County in the State of Delaware.

1. That the director general of the continental hospital be desired to give directions to the Physicians and surgeons, in the different departments at a reasonable distance from Philadelphia, that, before they discharge any serjeants, corporals, or private men from the hospitals as unfit for service, they consider, whether such men are actually, or likely soon to be, capable of doing garrison duty; and, if thought so, to mention it in the discharge, that they may not be entirely discharged from the service, but transferred from the regiment to which they actually belong, to that of invalids; and that in case such men are at a distance from their respective regiments, that the director or steward of each hospital send such men to Philadelphia, in the best manner circumstances will admit:

2. That notice be sent, by the Board of War, to the generals commanding the armies, of the raising a corps of invalids, and that they be desired to give orders to the officers commanding regiments, that, in case they have any serjeants, corporals, drummers, or private men, deemed incapable of doing field duty, such men should be examined by the director of the hospital or some other physician or surgeon, and, if judged fit for garrison duty, that they be not discharged, but transferred to the invalid corps, and sent to Philadelphia as soon as possible.

Men having only one leg or one arm each, if otherwise capable of doing garrison duty, are to be deemed proper recruits for this corps.

3. That the following advertisement be published in the several newspapers as soon as possible, viz.

"War-Office, June, 1777: The Congress, being desirous to make provision for such men as suffer in the military service of the United States, have directed a regiment of invalids to be immediately raised for the reception of such as have already been, or may, in future, be rendered, by wounds or disorders, incapable of doing field duty, but are yet fit for garrison service. Notice is hereby given, that all persons in Philadelphia, or within twenty miles round, who are under continental half-pay, on account of incapacities contracted in the service, must, within fifteen days, repair to Philadelphia and shew themselves to Colonel Nicola, in Front street, four doors below the Coffee house, that, if judged capable of duty, they may be put on full pay. All other persons, who have served in the armies of the United States, within the above description, though not on half-pay, may present themselves, and, if judged capable, they will be immediately received. All such as are above twenty miles from Philadelphia must apply to the nearest continental general, field officer, physician or surgeon, who are desired to forward such as they judge fit for the corps of invalids. Officers who, from wounds or disorders contracted in the service, are rendered unfit for field duty, must signify their pretensions, with certificates from continental physicians or surgeons to the Board of War. As this corps is intended, not only as a provision for disabled officers and soldiers, but as a school for propagating military knowledge and discipline, no officers need apply but such as produce ample certificates of their having served with reputation, and having supported good characters, both as citizens and soldiers. Officers and soldiers who have engaged during the war will be preferred."

A deposition of John Barret, 1st lieutenant of the armed brig Raleigh, late commanded by Edward Travis, Esq' fitted out by and belonging to the State of Virginia, was read:

Ordered, That it be referred to the committee last appointed.

The Committee on Foreign Applications brought in a report, which was taken into consideration; Whereupon,

Resolved, That the Chevalier de Failly have the rank and pay of major in the army of the United States.
The committee appointed to repair to the camp, brought in a report, which was read.

The Committee appointed to inquire into the State of the Army under the Command of General Washington, "and particularly into the Causes of Complaints in the Commissary's Department," having proceeded to the Camp in New Jersey and at Peekskill, and conferred with Generals Washington and Putnam, and also with the principal officers of the Staff beg Leave to report,

That by the Adjutant General's Return herewith delivered, the army appears to consist of

17,568 Men rank and File
193 privates of the Corps of Artillery
188 privates of the Cavalry.

That of the above number there are fit for duty
14,089 privates
1,247 commiss'd officers
1,584 Serjeants and corporals.

making in the whole 16,920 Combatants.

That there are sick in the Hospitals and Army 3,745 soldiers, the number of which has been greatly increased by the Use of bad Bread, and the Want of Vinegar, Vegetables and Soap as particularly set forth in General Washington's Letter to the Committee.

That several of the States have prohibited or discouraged the recruiting Officers of some of the Battalions appointed by the General from enlisting Soldiers therein; which if not remedied will defeat the Intention of Congress with respect to the raising such Battalions.

That some Difficulties have arisen in the mind of the Commissary General of issues, relative to the number and pay of his Deputy Commissaries General, and pay of his Clerk, and the Apprehensions of the issuing Commissaries that by the new regulations, they must account for all the Stores they may receive without reasonable allowances for Leakage and Wastage. The remarks of each of the Commissaries
General relative to their respective Departments are herewith reported to Congress.

That some Difficulties have taken place in the Paymaster General's Department from the Want of timely supplies of Money, an establishment for his Deputies, and Authority to appoint an additional Clerk.

In the Muster Master General's, from the pay of the officers, and the returns of Muster Rolls made to the Paymaster and Deputy Paymasters General.

In the Cloathier General's from the Want of Assistants in the several Camps and detached posts and of sundry Articles of Cloathing mentioned by the general.

In the Hospital Department from the Want of Authority in the Director and Deputy Directors General to draw Supplies from the Commissary's Stores.

That the General officers as well as the Staff complain of their not receiving regularly the resolutions of Congress relative to their several offices.

That the Complaint of the General upon the bestowing of rank on the inferior officers of the civil Departments of the Army, corresponds with the Opinion of the Officers in general, and there is too much Reason to apprehend great inconveniences from such Measures if not rectified in future.

That an Auditor of accounts for each Army and also a travelling Press for the army under the Command of General Washington appears to be necessary.

That the appointment of Brigade Chaplains has in some measure been suspended until the Sense of Congress is more fully known on the Matter.

Your Committee beg Leave further to report as their Opinion on the preceding State of Facts,

That the Deputy Commissaries General of purchases be respectively directed forthwith to appoint one or more assistants to procure or manufacture Vinegar, a suitable Number to procure Vegetables, and others to procure or manufacture Soap in each Department, until the Board of War shall have contracted for supplying the said Articles, and the several issuing Commissaries are respectively directed to deliver to the Order of the Commissary General of purchases or of his Deputy Commissaries General in their respective Districts, such Quantities of the Molasses in their possession, for manufacturing Vinegar, and of Tallow for making Soap, as the said Commissary or several Deputy Commissaries General of purchases shall judge necessary, who are also authorized to make further purchases of Molasses for this and other purposes.

That reasonable Allowances be made to the issuing Commissaries for Wastage and Leakage, and that the Commissaries General be severally directed to inform themselves as soon as may be, by Experiment of the average Loss that attends the issuing each Article which compose a ration, and report the same to Congress.

That a Warrant issue in Favor of the Board of War for 500,000 Dollars to be delivered to the Paymaster General for the Use of the army, he to be accountable.

That the Reports of the Board of Treasury relative to the Appointment of an additional Clerk for the Paymaster General, the pay of his Deputies, and the Mode of Sending the resolutions of Congress to the Departments or persons who are to carry them into execution be as soon as may be considered by Congress.

That the Commissary General of Musters be hereafter allowed the pay and Rations of a Colonel, that the pay of his Deputy Commissaries General be increased to 60 dollars per Month and of the Muster Masters to 45 dollars per Month.

That the several Muster Masters be directed to omit making the returns to the Paymaster and Deputy Paymasters General, which have been heretofore ordered by Congress.

The Committee appointed to enquire into the state of the Army under the Command of General Washington beg Leave further to report,

That the Commissary General of Purchases be furnished with a Copy of Mr. Trumbull's Letter to this Committee, dated the 29th of July last, at Newborough, so far as it respects the procuring of Salt, fat Beef and Pork, Cakes, &c. for the next Campaign.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 9, 1777

Congress took into consideration the report of the Medical Committee which was read, as follows:

"The Medical Committee to whom the memorial of Dr. John Morgan to Congress was referred, beg leave to report, that they find from the journals of Congress, that Dr. Morgan was appointed director general and chief physician of the hospital, in the room of Dr. B. Church, October 17, 1775; that, on the 9 January, 1777, he was dismissed from said appointment; that though no cause is assigned for his discharge, yet, your committee on enquiry, find, that the general complaints of persons of all ranks in the army, and not any particular charges against him, together with the critical state of affairs at that time, rendered it necessary for the public good and the safety of the United States, that he should be displaced, and were the reasons of his dismissal; that the doctor's memorial appears to your committee to be a hasty and intemperate production; notwithstanding which, as he conceives himself injured, and requests an enquiry into his conduct, your committee are of opinion that he ought to be heard, and that a committee of Congress should be appointed for that purpose:"

Resolved, That Congress concur in the said report.

The Medical Committee, to whom was referred the letter from Dr. William Rickman, also report, "that as the establishment of the military hospital in Virginia, by a resolution of Congress of the 18th of May, 1776, is entirely distinct from, and independent of, the general establishment of hospitals in the other States, they are of opinion, the same was not affected by the new regulations of the 7th day of April last, and that Dr. Rickman still continues director of that hospital;"

³ “The inclosed is a copy of General Lincoln’s letter to General Schuyler and the Resolution of Congress on receiving it, which was the 19th Instant. Some of the southern Gentlemen made themselves very warm on the occasion, threw out many illiberal reflections on General Stark, and some on the Legislative authority of the State of New Hampshire, which made your delegates sit very uneasy in their chairs even to give them time to go through. But in our turn we informed Congress that we had no information from the State of New Hampshire to inform us what the reasons were that induced them to give such orders to General Stark; but that we had rec’d a letter from the Honble. Josiah Bartlett, a member of the Council of that State and lately a member of Congress, which had given us some of their reasons, and were such in our opinion as were conclusive, and would justify the conduct of that State in the eyes of the whole world: That, in the first place, the Militia of that State had lost all confidence in the General Officers who had the command at Tyconderoga when it was evacuated and given up to our enemies; that they would not turn out nor be commanded by such officers; that the preservation of the lives of the inhabitants on our frontiers and the cause in which we were all engaged, made such orders at that critical time absolutely necessary; that we were not about to justify General Stark for making a demand of rank in the army at that critical time, but we well knew he had a great deal to say for himself on that head, and that he had been in almost all the engagements to the northward, and distinguished himself, while others were advanced over his head. Yesterday a motion was made by Maryland and seconded, that a Resolve of Congress might be passed to censure his conduct in refusing to submit to the Rules and Regulations of the Army; on which a large debate ensued, in which we were supported by all the New England Delegates and Some of the Virginians: On motion being made, it was agreed it should lie on the table and carried by a great majority. We inform'd Congress that a motion of that sort came with a very bad grace from Maryland who, only, of the thirteen United States had seen fit to make laws directly in opposition to Congress, by refusing that their militia should be subjected to the rules and regulations of the army when joynd; And we informed Congress that we had not the least doubt but the first battle they heard of from the North, would be fought by Stark and the troops commanded by him, * * * and that I should not be afraid to risque my honor nor my life, they would do as much towards the defence of that part of the country and the common cause, as the same number of any of the troops in that department.

"I will leave you, Sir, to judge of our feelings, when the very next day we had a confirmation of what we had asserted by an express from General Schuyler, giving an Account of the victory obtained by General Stark and the troops under his command. We believe this circumstance only will make those easy who have been trying to raise a dust in Congress." The Delegates of New Hampshire in Congress 22 August, 1777. So it was resolved in the affirmative.

The report as amended [and agreed to], is as follows:

Resolved, That a committee of three members of Congress be appointed and authorized to correspond with public bodies or private persons, by letter or otherwise, in this and the neighbouring states, in order to collect the clearest and fullest evidence of the state of the army in the northern department, and also of the state of the troops, military stores and provision, at the said posts, before and at the time when the evacuation was determined upon:

To call for and examine the minutes of the council of war, to enquire what orders were given, from time to time, by the commander in chief of that department:

To enquire particularly if the barracks and stores were destroyed or left standing:

To enquire of the quarter master general and commissary general what quantity of provision had been laid up at Ticonderoga, or near it, for the use of the garrison, and what measures were taken or taking for throwing in farther supplies:

To inform themselves, as fully as possible, of the number, appointment and movements of the enemy, from the time of their landing to the time of evacuating the fort, and also of the number, quality and condition of the garrison; [and the manner in which the retreat was conducted] and if any and what measures were taken to gain intelligence of the strength of the enemy by the commander in chief, or the commanding officer at Ticonderoga:

To enquire of the clothier general what clothing, from time to time, had been issued for the use of the northern department, and from other public officers, into the expenditure of such general issues:

To enquire into the number, equipment and behaviour of the militia, and the term of service for which they were engaged, at and before the time of the evacuation; into the situation and condition of the lines at Ticonderoga, and the fortifications upon Mount Independence; what works had been thrown up by the enemy, what posts they had taken, and the distance of their works [from Mount Independence, Mount Hope and the Lines at Ticonderoga]; what orders had been given by the commanding officer for directing and regulating a retreat, [where the General Officers marched, in the Retreat, whether in Front, Center or Rear] and the manner in which the retreat was conducted; what orders were given relative to the sick, what care taken of them; whether any continental troops, and what number were at Albany or in the neighbourhood, how long they had been there, and why they were not ordered to Ticonderoga:

To enquire into the number and size of cannon, and whether any were removed before the evacuation; the quantity and species of military stores; the state of the arms, both of the continental soldiers and militia, whether the troops were furnished with bayonets, and whether there were any and what number of pikes or spears proper for defending lines:

7. That if upon such Enquiry a well grounded suspicion shall arise that the Loss of those Important Posts was owing to neglect or misconduct of any Officer or Officers in said Department, Congress may give the necessary direction for bringing such Officer or Officers to Tryal according to the Rules and Articles of War.¹

That, upon such enquiry and collection of facts, a copy of the whole be transmitted by the said committee to General Washington, and that, thereupon, he appoint a court martial for the trial of the general officers who were in the northern department, when Ticonderoga and Mount Independence were evacuated, agreeable to the rules and articles of war.

The committee to whom the letter from General Sullivan, with the papers enclosed, was referred, reported,

That the several testimonies which have been published since the commencement of the present contest betwixt Great Britain and America, and the uniform tenor of the conduct, and conversation of a number of persons of considerable wealth, who profess themselves to belong to the society of people commonly called Quakers, render it certain and notorious, that those persons are, with much rancour and bitterness, disaffected to the American cause: that, as these persons will have it in their power, so there is no doubt it will be their inclination, to communicate intelligence to the enemy, and, in various other ways, to injure the councils and arms of America:

That when the enemy, in the month of December, 1776, were bending their progress towards the city of Philadelphia, a certain seditious publication, addressed "To our friends and brethren in religious profession in these and the adjacent provinces," signed "John Pemberton, in and on behalf of the meeting of sufferings held at Philadelphia for Pensylvania and New Jersey, the 20th of the 12th month, 1776," was published, and, as your committee is credibly informed, circulated amongst many members of the society called Quakers, throughout the different states:

That, as the seditious paper aforesaid originated in the city of Philadelphia, and as the persons whose names are under mentioned, have uniformly manifested by their general conduct and conversation a disposition highly inimical to the cause of America, therefore,

Resolved, That it be earnestly recommended to the supreme executive council of the State of Pennsylvania, forthwith to apprehend and secure the persons of Joshua Fisher, Abel James, James Pemberton, Henry Drinker, Israel Pemberton, John Pemberton, John James, Samuel Plessants, Thomas Wharton, Sen. Joseph Pemberton, James Fisher, Thomas Fisher, son of Joshua, Henry Lisle and Samuel Fisher, son of Joshua, together with all such papers in their possession as may be of a political nature.

And, whereas, there is strong reason to apprehend that these persons maintain a correspondence and connection highly prejudicial to the public safety, not only in this State but in the respective states of America,

1 This phrase was inserted by John Hancock.
2 This name was entered by John Hancock.
Resolved, That it be recommended to the executive powers of the respective states, forthwith to apprehend and secure all persons, as well among the people called Quakers as others, who have, in their general conduct and conversation, evidenced a disposition inimical to the cause of America; and that the persons so seized be debar'd of all correspondence and connection with Persons of the same persuasion; and that they be confined in such places, and treated in such manner, as shall be consistent with their respective characters and security of their persons:

That the records and papers of the Meetings of Sufferings in the respective states be forthwith secured and carefully examined, and that such parts of them as may be of a political nature, be forthwith transmitted to Congress:

Your committee beg leave further to report that amongst the persons in the city of Philadelphia, whom they recommend to be apprehended, the persons of Henry Drinker and Abel James together with their Papers, ought in their Opinion to be first and immediately apprehended and secured.¹

charge of another bill, without date, drawn in favour of the said David Nesbit by the said public treasurer of North Carolina on the continental treasurer; the two last bills being expressed to be for the use of the said State of North Carolina; the whole of the said sums amounting to 875 dollars, for which the said State is to be accountable; these sums being in part of the 500,000 dollars ordered to be advanced to that State.

The Committee on the Treasury having taken into consideration the letter from General Gates, of the 28 August, respecting clothing for the army under his command referred to them by Congress, report;

¹This report is in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 136, I, folio 417.
That it appears from the cloathier general's report, that he has ordered considerable supplies of cloathing to be forwarded to the army in the northern department from Boston, and that he has little doubt of being able to furnish, in the course of the year, the specific articles of cloathing directed to be given, as a bounty to the troops; and as it will be equally disadvantageous to the soldiers and to the service, should they receive money instead of such cloathing, the Board disapprove of the stoppages made by the deputy pay master general in the northern department, out of the pay of the troops in that department on account of cloathing, and direct the money to be returned, except in cases where a regiment shall have been furnished with more cloathing than the bounty; that the greatest care ought to be taken to do justice to the soldiers, as well as the public, in this essential article. It is not sufficient, in the opinion of this Board, that the cloathier general charges the regiment with the articles delivered and takes the receipt of the colonel or commanding officer, and that the colonel, or commanding officer, on delivering the cloathing to the captains or commanding officers of each respective company, takes his receipt; every commanding officer of a company ought, moreover, strictly to be required to keep a clothing account with his company, distinguishing the several articles delivered to each non-commissioned officer and private, and taking receipts for the same as his vouchers; and when each non-commissioned officer and private respectively shall have received his bounty of cloathing, the commanding officer of the company to which he belongs shall deliver the account and receipts to the commanding officer of the regiment, to enable him to settle the cloathing account with the cloathier general, as well as to discover whether equal justice has been done to the company:
That such troops as have not been supplied with cloathing, ought to be furnished their full bounty without delay, which the Board have earnestly recommended to the attention of the cloathier general, and he, on his part, has engaged to exert every means in his power to accomplish:

That such of the troops as, at their own expences, shall have provided themselves with any of the articles of cloathing allowed as a bounty, or shall not draw their cloathing in the course of the year, shall be entitled to receive the full value thereof at the average price which the cloathing of the army shall cost the public.

And, whereas, when the bounty of cloathing was provided by Congress, it was conceived, that it might be impracticable to obtain a sufficient quantity of cloth for regimental coats for the troops, and, for that reason, two hunting shirts were substituted; but, in the event, so considerable a supply has been procured, that the cloathier general has been enabled to furnish most of the troops with regimental coats instead of hunting shirts, and experience has shewn that a further alteration of the articles of cloathing, allowed as bounty, may be made to the advantage of the soldiers, and without loss to the public; and, therefore, it is the opinion of the committee, that it be

Resolved, That the cloathier general be directed, as far as he shall have it in his power, to furnish all the non-commissioned officers and privates in the service of the United States, who have not yet received their bounty of cloathing, at their election, either with the several articles allowed by Congress, in the resolution of 8 October, 1776, or in lieu thereof, the following articles, viz.

One regimental coat, averaged at 8 60/90 dollars; one jacket, without sleeves, 2 60/90 dollars; one pair buckskin and two pair linen or woollen breeches, 8 dollars; one hat or leathern cap, 2 60/90 dollars; two shirts, 8 dollars; one hunting shirt, 4 dollars; two pair overalls, 6 dollars; two pair of stockings, 4 dollars; two pair of shoes, 6 dollars; one blanket, 6 dollars; making in all 56 dollars:

But, as the cost of the articles, last specified, exceeds that of the cloathing allowed as a bounty to the troops by 8 30/90 dollars, so much shall be stopped out of the pay of every non-commissioned officer and private, who shall be supplied in the manner last directed, as will make the amount of cloathing he shall receive equal to the value of the bounty of cloathing, which, upon an average of the price of the several articles, is estimated at 47 60/90 dollars:¹

The said report being read twice, on the question put,

Resolved, That Congress agree to the foregoing report and resolves.

Resolved, That there be allowed to Michael Hillegas, Esq: treasurer of the United States, from the sixth day of August, 1776, when Mr. Clymer resigned the office of joint treasurer, a salary after the rate of three thousand two hundred dollars per annum, for discharging the duties of that office.²

Congress took into consideration the report of the Committee of Foreign Applications, which is as follows:

That, besides a number of officers who are come from Europe and the West Indies of their own accord, to solicit for rank and employment in the American army, there are others who have proceeded upon the encouragement of conventions made and signed at Paris, by Silas Deane, Esq' as "Agent for the United States of North America."

That Mr. Deane had no authority to make such conventions, and that Congress, therefore, are not bound to ratify or fulfil them:

Your committee further report, that the Baron de Kalb and the Viscount de Mauroy, with a number of officers who came with them from France, have offered their service, provided their engagements with Mr. Deane, in respect to rank, are fulfilled; but that the American army having been arranged before the arrival of these gentlemen in America, their expectations cannot be complied with without deranging it, and thereby injuring, at so critical a juncture, the American cause; that the zeal, however, of these gentlemen, and their consequent expenses, merit the attention of Congress; wherefore, your committee report the following resolve:

Resolved, That the thanks of Congress be given to the Baron de Kalb and the Viscount de Mauroy, with the officers who accompany them, for their zeal in passing over to America to offer their service to these United States,

1 In the original report this paragraph read: "That Mr. Deane derived all his Powers on the 29th Day of November, 1775, for the sole Purpose of corresponding with our Friends in Great Britain, Ireland and other Parts of the World, and did not receive any Instruction even from them nor any Authority whatever from Congress to make such Conventions. Congress, therefore, are not by any Means bound to fulfill the Terms thereof."

The said report and resolve being read, and the question put severally thereon, were agreed to.

Ordered, That the Baron de Kalb and the Viscount de Mauroy be furnished with a copy of the foregoing report and resolution, attested by the secretary; also, that any of the officers accompanying them, who may desire it, be furnished with such a copy.\(^2\) before council, that of embodying the militia is not the least part, they have not leisure to undertake it; and that, as much injury will ensue to their commonwealth if council, at present, yield any further attention to it, therefore they earnestly request that Congress may hear and dispose of the gentlemen prisoners in the Mason's Lodge, and also of those who are on promise or parole, in such manner as to their wisdom shall seem best, and that, for this purpose, a list of the prisoners is therewith sent; Whereupon,

Resolved, That it would be improper for Congress to enter into any hearing of the remonstrants or the other prisoners in the Lodge, they being inhabitants of Pennsylvania; and, therefore, as the council decline giving them a hearing for the reasons assigned in their letter to Congress, that it be recommended to the said council to order the immediate departure of such of the said prisoners as yet refuse to swear or affirm allegiance to the State of Pennsylvania, to Staunton, in Virginia.

The committee to whom was referred a report from the \footnote{2} respecting the officers receiving their rations in messes "to consider under what regulations and restrictions regimental officers shall for the future receive their rations," brought in a report, which was taken into consideration:

Whereas, by the 24 article of the regulations of the department of the commissaries, it is provided, "That no provision be issued to any persons but by the written order of the commander in chief, the commander of any department, the quarter master general, any of his deputy or assistants, the commanding officer of a party, describing the person in whose favour such order shall be given, or upon a return signed by the commanding officer of a corps or detachment thereof, whether commissioned or non-commissioned officer, or by the regimental quarter master:" and whereas, by the last clause of the said article, the issuing commissaries, upon receiving such returns, have considered themselves authorized or obliged to issue provisions indiscriminately to the officers and privates therein contained, and many inconveniences have arisen therefrom:

Resolved, That the officers of each regiment, corps and detachment, be empowered to divide themselves, as often as they shall think proper, into messes, not exceeding six to a regiment, and to signify the same to the officer signing the provision returns, who shall thereupon distinguish in each return the names of the officers so divided into improper: that to import types for the purpose of setting up an entire edition of the bible, and to strike off 30,000 copies, with paper, binding, &c. will cost £10,272 10, which must be advanced by Congress, to be reimbursed by the sale of the books:

"That, your committee are of opinion, considerable difficulties will attend the procuring the types and paper; that, afterwards, the risque of importing them will considerably enhance the cost, and that the calculations are subject to such uncertainty in the present state of affairs, that Congress cannot much rely on them: that the use of the Bible is so universal, and its importance so great, that your committee refer the above to the consideration of Congress, and if Congress shall not think it expedient to order the importation of types and paper, your committee recommend that Congress will order the Committee of Commerce to import 20,000 Bibles from Holland, Scotland, or elsewhere, into the different ports of the states in the Union."

Whereupon, the Congress was moved, to order the Committee of Commerce to import twenty thousand copies of the Bible;

army, which availing itself of the provisions and other necessary supplies now in it, may be enabled to prosecute with vigour the war in which they are now engaged; and whereas it is absolutely essential to the liberties of the United States, that the most effectual and speedy means should be adopted for securing, for the use of the American army, every article which may be necessary for their equipment and subsistence; and whereas, from the near approach of the enemy's army, and by the wicked arts of extortioners, engrossers and others, enemies to the liberties of America, it may be impracticable to collect in time, and by way of regular purchase, a competent supply; and whereas it may be essential to the public welfare, that Congress should adjourn to some place more remote than this city from the scene of action, in order that its deliberations may be conducted without interruption; therefore,

Resolved, That General Washington be authorized and directed to suspend all officers who shall misbehave, and to fill up all vacancies in the American army, under the rank of brigadiers, until the pleasure of Congress shall be communicated; to take, wherever he may be, all such provisions and other articles as may be necessary for the comfortable subsistence of the army under his command, paying or giving certificates for the same: to remove and secure, for the benefit of the owners, all goods and effects which may be serviceable to the enemy; provided, that the powers hereby vested shall be exercised only in such parts of these states as may be within the circumference of 70 miles of the head quarters of the American army, and shall continue in force for the space of 60 days, unless sooner revoked by Congress.

Resolved, That the public faith be pledged for the payment of the provisions or other articles to be taken, and for which certificates shall have been given, at such
