TREATY OF AMITY AND COMMERCE.

The most christian king and the thirteen United States of North America, viz. New Hampshire, Massachusetts Bay, Rhode Island,
Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia, willing to fix in an equitable and permanent manner the rules which ought to be followed relative to the correspondence and commerce which the two parties desire to establish between their respective countries, states, and subjects; his most christian majesty and the said United States have judged that the said end could not be better obtained, than by taking, for the basis of their agreement, the most qu’en prenant pour base de leur arrangement l’égalité et la réci-procité la plus parfaite, et en observant d’éviter toutes les préfé-rences onéreuses, source de discussions, d’embarras et de mécon-tentements, de laisser à chaque partie la liberté de faire relative-ment au commerce et à la navigation, les règlements intérieurs, qui seront à sa convenance, de ne fonder les avantages du commerce que sur son utilité réciproque et sur les loix1 d’une juste concurrence, et de conserver ainsi de part et d’autre la liberté de faire participer, chacun selon son gré, les autres Nations aux mêmes avantages.

C’est dans cet esprit, et pour remplir ces vues, que sa dite Majesté ayant nommé et constitué
pour son Plénipotentiaire le Sr.
Conrad Alexandre Gérad, Sindic
roial de la Ville de Strasbourg, Secrétaire du Conseil d’État de sa Majesté, et les États-unis à sa de leur côté, munis de leurs pleins-pouvoirs les Srs. Benjamin Franklin, Député au Congrès général de la part de l’État de Pen-sylvania, et Président de la Convention du dit État, Silas Deane, ci-devant Député de l’État de Connecticut, et Arthur Lee, Con-seiller de loiz, les dits Pléniпотentiaires respectifs, après l’échange de leurs pouvoirs, et après mure déliberation, ont conclu et arrêté les points et articles suivants.

ART. 3. Les sujets du Roi Très Chrétien ne paieront dans les Ports, havres, rades, contrées, îles, cités et lieux des États-unis ou d'aucun d'entre eux d'autres ni plus grands droits ou impôts, de quelque nature qu'ils puissent

ART. II. The most christian king and the United States engage, mutually, not to grant any particular favour to other nations in respect to commerce and navigation, which shall not immediately become common to the other party, who shall enjoy the same favour freely, if the concession was freely made, or, on allowing the same compensation, if the concession was conditional.

ART. III. The subjects of the most christian king shall pay in the ports, havens, roads, countries, islands, cities or towns of the United States, or any of them, no other greater duties or imposts, of what nature soever they may

Art. 4. But it is understood that the said United States, or any of them, are at liberty when they shall judge it proper to establish a duty equivalent in the same case.

Art. 14. Les Navires Marchands des deux parties qui seront destinés pour des Ports appartenants à une Puissance ennemie de l’autre allié, et dont le volage ou la nature des marchandises dont ils seront chargés donnerait de justes soupçons, seront tenus d’exhiber, soit en haute mer, soit dans les Ports et Havres, non seulement leurs passeports, mais encore les Certificats qui constateront expressément que leur chargement n’est pas de la qualité de ceux qui sont prohibés comme contrabande.

Art. 15. Si l’exhibition des dits Certificats conduit à découvrir que le Navire porte des marchandises prohibées et reçues contrabande, consignées pour un Port ennemi, il ne sera pas permis de briser les écouteilles des dits navires, d’ouvrir aucune Caisse, Coffre, Malle, Ballots, Tonneaux et autres Caisses qui s’y trouveront, ou d’en déplacer et détourner la moindre partie des marchandises, soit que le Navire appartienne aux sujets du Roi it is at the same time agreed, that its contents shall not affect the laws made, or that may be made hereafter in France, against emigrations, which shall remain in all their force and vigour; and the United States, on their part, or any of them, shall be at liberty to enact such laws, relative to that matter, as to them shall seem proper.

Art. XIV. The merchant ships of either of the parties which shall be making into a port belonging to the enemy of the other ally, and concerning whose voyage and the species of goods on board them, there shall be just grounds of suspicion, shall be obliged to exhibit, as well upon the high seas as in the ports and havens, not only their passports, but likewise certificates, expressly showing that their goods are not of the number of those which have been prohibited as contraband.

Art. XV. If by the exhibiting of the above said certificates the other party discovers there are any of those sorts of goods which are prohibited and declared contraband, and consigned for a port under the obedience of his enemy, it shall not be lawful to break up the hatches of such ship, or to open any chest, coffers, packs, casks, or any other vessels found therein, or to remove the smallest parcels of her goods, whether such ship

Dans le cas où une partie seulement, et non la totalité du chargement, consisteroit en marchandises de Contrebande, et que le Commandant du Vaisseau consentant à les délivrer au Corsaire, qui les aura découvertes, alors le Capitaine, qui aura fait la prise après avoir reçu ces marchandises doit incontinent relâcher le Navire et ne doit l'empêcher, en aucune manière, de continuer son voyage. And his majesty and the said United States, having resolved, in that case, to join their counsels and efforts against the enterprises of their common enemy, the respective plenipotentiaries empowered to concert the clauses and conditions proper to fulfil the said intentions, have, after the most mature deliberation, concluded and be directed to pass along the different stages where the said provisions may be lodged, as at Georgetown, Alexandria, Dumfries, Cave’s ware-house, Fredericksburgh, Hob’s Hole, Frazier’s, Williamsburgh, &c. &c. and examine into the conduct of all deputy commissaries, deputy quarter masters, and deputy waggon masters, on the said route: and where he shall discover any misconduct in the said officers, either by neglecting to forward the provisions to the camp, or by suffering the same to be damaged, or by misconducting the waggonage to the public injury, that he report the result of such enquiry to the heads of the respective departments, and to the governor of Virginia, together with the state and condition in which he shall find the provisions; and that he cause necessary cooperage, fresh brine, or smoking, and other necessary precautions to be taken, for the preservation of the public provisions; and that he cause all prudent expedition to be used in forwarding the sound provisions quickly to the army.

Mr. P[hillip] Livingston, a delegate from the State of New York, attended, and took his seat.

Resolved, That the commissioners, or any one of them, representing these states at the court of France, be instructed to inform that court that, although Congress have readily ratified the treaties of amity and commerce, and treaty of alliance, and the act, separate and secret, between his most Christian majesty and these United States, in order to evince more clearly their sense of the magnanimity and goodness of his most Christian majesty, evidenced in the said treaties; yet, Congress are of opinion that dissentions may hereafter arise from the imposition of duties upon the exportation of the produce and manufactures of the dominions of his most Christian Majesty to these states, whilst similar duties on the prod-use of these states might be prevented by means of the prohibition contained in the 12 Article of the said treaty; wherefore relying on the same magnanimity and desire of permanent friendship and mutual advantage between the two countries which have strongly marked the councils of France in this treaty, and sincerely desirous of establishing the most permanent and perpetual friendship and alliance founded on equal interest and convenience have no doubt but that it will be agreed that the from a sincere desire of rendering the friendship and alliance, so happily begun, permanent and perpetual, and being apprehensive that differences may arise from the 11 and 12 articles in the treaty of amity and commerce, Congress are desirous that the said 11 and 12 articles may be revoked and utterly expunged:

The commissioners, or any of them, are therefore instructed to use their best endeavours to procure the abolition of the said 11 and 12 articles of the said treaty.

DECLARATION

Le Congrès général des États unis de l'Amérique Septentrionale ayant représenté au Roi que l'exécution de l'Article onze du Traité d'amitié et de commerce signé le six du mois de février dernier pourrait entrainer des inconvenients après soi, et ayant désiré en conséquence que cet article demeurât supprimé, consentant en échange que l'Article douze soit également regardé comme non à venu, Sa Majesté, pour donner aux États unis de l'Amérique Septentrionale une nouvelle preuve de son affection, ainsi que de son désir de consolider l'union et la bonne correspondance établies entre les deux États, a bien voulu avoir égard à leurs représentations; en conséquence Sa M°. a déclaré et déclare par les présentes qu'elle consent à la Suppression des articles

1 This declaration is the formal paper by which the King complied with the representations of Congress. It is in the Department of State, with a translation made by John Pintard. There is no letter in the Diplomatic Correspondence of the Revolution (Wharton) to show when this paper was sent to Congress; nor is there any reference in the Journals to its reception or any further action by Congress. I have therefore inserted it at this point, to complete the history of the treaty. In the Department of State is to be found a paper which is doubtless the form of the declaration submitted by the American commissioners:

M. ayant consenti en Conséquence que le d. Article demeurât supprimé à Condition que l'Article 12 du même Traité fût également regardé comme non à venu; le Congrès général a déclaré et déclare de son côté qu'il consent à la suppression des Articles 11 et 12 susmentionnés, et son intention est qu'ils soient regardés comme n'ayant jamais été compris dans le Traité signé le 6 Fev° d.

Now know ye, that we, the said Congress, have unanimously ratified and confirmed, and by these presents do ratify and confirm the said treaty, and every part, article, and clause thereof, on our part concluded and signed as aforesaid; and further do authorize and direct our commissioners at the court of France, or any of them, to deliver this our act of ratification in exchange for the ratification of the said treaty on the part of his most Christian majesty the king of France and Navarre.

The committee to whom was re-committed the draught for publication, brought in another draught, which was taken into consideration, and agreed to as follows:

Whereas, Congress have received from their commissioners at the court of France, copies of a treaty of amity and commerce, and of a treaty of alliance, between the crown of France and these United States, duly entered into and executed at Paris, on the 6th day of February last, by a minister properly authorized by his most Christian majesty on the one part, and the said commissioners on the other part: and whereas, the said treaties have been maturely considered and unanimously ratified and confirmed by Congress;

It is recommended to the Inhabitants of these United States, that they regard and treat the subjects of France as those of a magnanimous and generous Ally. For it is with pleasure that Congress inform the Public that his most Christian Majesty, declining to avail himself of the situation of these United States, engaged in a war with a powerful and cruel Enemy, hath with a magnanimity becoming a great Prince, generously treated on terms of perfect equality and mutual benefit. And to the end that all proper alacrity may be shewn in giving aid and protection to the commerce, property and persons, of the subjects of his Most Christian Majesty, the following extracts from said Treaties are published for the information of all, and for regulating the conduct of those whom it may more immediately concern.¹

In which said treaty of amity and commerce are the articles following, to wit: (here insert Art. 6, 7, 14, 15, 16, 17, 20, 21, 25, 26, 27, and 29, with the form of the passports.) Now, therefore, to the end, that the said treaty may be well and faithfully performed and kept on the part and behalf of these United States:

¹To this point the report, in the writing of Francis Dana, is in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 29, folio 303. What follows is based upon rough notes in the writing of Gouverneur Morris, on folio 301.
May, 1778

Resolved, That all captains, commanders, and other officers and seamen belonging to any of the vessels of war of these United States, or any of them, or of any private armed vessels commissioned by Congress, and all other the subjects of these United States, do govern themselves strictly in all things according to the above recited articles; and that they do afford the same aid and protection to the persons, commerce and property of the subjects of his most Christian majesty, as is due to the persons, commerce and property of the inhabitants of these United States;

And further it is recommended to all the inhabitants of these states to consider the subjects of his most Christian majesty as their brethren and allies, and that they behave towards them with the friendship and attention due to the subjects of a great prince, who, with the highest magnanimity and wisdom hath treated with these United States on terms of perfect equality and mutual advantage, thereby rendering himself the protector of the rights of mankind.

Sundry resolutions being moved, relative to the mode of trying naval officers, Congress took the same into consideration; Whereupon,

Resolved, That when any ship or vessel of war in the service of the United States shall be lost by capture or otherwise, a court of enquiry, consisting of that continental navy board which shall by the Marine Committee of Congress be directed to proceed therein, or any three persons that such navy board may appoint, be held to enquire into the cause of such loss; and if it shall appear that the same was occasioned by the negligence or misconduct of the captain or any other commissioned officer belonging to the ship or vessel of war so lost, that then a court martial be held for the trial of the officer so offending, to consist of such officers, if conveniently to be collected, as by the rules and regulations of the navy constitute a court martial, otherwise of five such persons, as the said navy board shall for that purpose appoint; and if such loss should be by capture, and it shall appear on trial that the same was occasioned by the cowardice or treachery of the commanding officer, then and in that case such commanding officer shall suffer death; and if the loss, whether by capture or otherwise, should be occasioned by any other mal-conduct, such commanding officer shall be by such court martial cashiered.

Resolved, That when two or more ships or vessels of war in the service of these states are in company, and any or either of them shall be lost by capture or otherwise, a court of enquiry, so constituted as aforesaid, shall be held to enquire into the causes thereof; and if it should appear that such loss was occasioned by the mal-conduct or negligence of any captain or commanding officer of any other ship or vessel in company as aforesaid, then a court martial, constituted as before-mentioned, shall be held for the trial of the officer so offending; and if the loss should be by capture, and it should appear on trial that such capture was occasioned by the cowardice or treachery of such captain or commanding officer by withholding his assistance from the ship or vessel of war so captured, then and in that case such captain or commanding officer shall suffer death; but if it shall appear that the loss happened through any other mal-conduct of such captain or commanding officer, then he shall be by such court martial cashiered.

Resolved, That if, upon enquiry as aforesaid into the conduct of any officer or officers in the service of these states, it shall appear that they or any of them shall have offended in any instance mentioned in these resolutions, it shall be in the power of the navy board to suspend such

Resolved, That these resolves continue in force one year from the date hereof, and no longer.

The committee appointed to prepare an address to the inhabitants of the United States of America, brought in a draught, which was read, and sundry amendments being made therein, was agreed to as follows:

AN ADDRESS OF THE CONGRESS TO THE INHABITANTS OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

FRIENDS AND COUNTRYMEN: Three years have now passed away, since the commencement of the present war: a war without parallel in the annals of mankind. It hath displayed a spectacle, the most solemn that can possibly be exhibited. On one side, we behold fraud and violence laboring in the service of despotism; on the other, virtue and fortitude supporting and establishing the rights of human nature.

¹ This report is in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 138, II, folio 273.

You cannot but remember how reluctantly we were dragged into this arduous contest; and how repeatedly, with the earnestness of humble intreaty, we supplicated a redress of our grievances from him who ought to have been the father of his people. In vain did we implore his protection: in vain appeal to the justice, the generosity, of Englishmen; of men, who had been the guardians, the assertors and vindicators of liberty through a succession of ages: Men, who, with their swords, had established the firm barrier of freedom, and cemented it with the blood of heroes. Every effort was vain. For, even whilst we were prostrated at the foot of the throne, that fatal blow was struck, which hath separated us for ever. Thus spurned, contemned, and insulted; thus driven by our enemies into measures, which our souls abhorred; we made a solemn appeal to the tribunal of unerring wisdom and justice: to that Almighty Ruler of Princes, whose kingdom is over all.

We were then quite defenceless. Without arms, without ammunition, without clothing, without ships, without money, without officers skilled in war; with no other reliance but the bravery of our people and the justice of our cause. We had to contend with a nation great in arts and in arms, whose fleets covered the ocean, whose banners had waved in triumph through every quarter of the globe. However unequal this contest, our weakness was still farther increased by the enemies which America had nourished in her bosom. Thus exposed, on the one hand, to external force and internal divisions; on the other, to be compelled to drink of the bitter cup of slavery, and to go sorrowing all our lives long; in this sad alternative, we chose the former. To this alternative we were reduced by men, who, had they been animated by one spark of generosity, would have disdained to take such mean advantage of our situation; or, had they paid the least regard to the rules of justice, would have considered with abhorrence a proposition to injure those, who had faithfully fought their battles, and industriously contributed to rear the edifice of their glory.

But, however great the injustice of our foes in commencing this war, it is by no means equal to that cruelty with which they have conducted it. The course of their armies is marked by rapine and devastation. Thousands, without distinction of age or sex, have been driven from their peaceful abodes, to encounter the rigors of inclement seasons; and the face of Heaven hath been insulted by the wanton conflagration of defenceless towns. Their victories have been followed by the cool murder of men, no longer able to resist; and those who escaped from the first act of carnage, have been exposed, by cold, hunger, and nakedness, to wear out a miserable existence in the tedious hours of confinement, or to become the destroyers of their countrymen, of their friends, perhaps, dreadful idea! of their parents or children. Nor was this the outrageous barbarity of an individual, but a system of deliberate malice, stamped with the concurrence of the British legislature, and sanctioned with all the formalities of law. Nay, determined to dissolve the closest bonds of society, they have stimulated servants to slay their masters in the peaceful hour of domestic security. And, as if all this were insufficient to slake their thirst of blood, the blood of brothers, of unoffending brothers, they have excited the Indians against us; and a general, who calls himself a Christian, a follower of the merciful Jesus, hath dared to proclaim to all the world, his intention of letting loose against us whole hosts of savages, whose rule of warfare is promiscuous carnage, who rejoice to murder the infant smiling in its mother’s arms, to inflict on their prisoners the most excruciating torments, and exhibit scenes of horror from which nature recoils.

Were it possible, they would have added to this terrible system; for they have offered the inhabitants of these states to be exported by their merchants to the sickly baneful climes of India, there to perish; an offer not accepted of, merely from the impracticability of carrying it into execution.

Notwithstanding these great provocations, we have treated such of them as fell into our hands with tenderness, and studiously endeavored to alleviate the afflictions of their captivity. This conduct we have pursued so far as to be by them stigmatized with cowardice, and by our friends with folly. But our dependence was not upon man; it was upon Him who hath commanded us to love our enemies, and to render good for evil. And what can be more wonderful than the manner of our deliverances? How often have we been reduced to distress, and yet been raised up? When the means to prosecute the war have been wanting to us, have not our foes themselves been rendered instrumental in providing them? This hath been done in such a variety of instances, so peculiarly marked, almost by the direct interposition of Providence, that not to feel and acknowledge his protection would be the height of impious ingratitude.

At length that God of battles, in whom was our trust, hath conducted us through the paths of danger and distress to the thresholds of security. It hath now become morally certain, that, if we have courage to persevere, we shall establish our liberties and independence. The haughty prince, who spurned us from his feet with contumely and disdain, and the parliament which proscribed us, now descend to offer terms of accommodation. Whilst in the full career of victory, they pulled off the mask, and avowed their intended despotism: but having lavished in vain the blood and treasure of their subjects, in pursuit of this execrable purpose, they now endeavor to ensnare us with the insidious offers of peace. They would seduce you into a dependence, which necessarily inevitably leads to the most humiliating slavery. And do they believe that you will accept these fatal terms? Because you have suffered the distresses of war, do they suppose that you will basely lick the dust, before the feet of your destroyers? Can there be an American so lost to the feelings which adorn human nature? to the generous pride, the elevation, the dignity of freedom! Is there a man who would not abhor a dependence upon those who have deluged his country in the blood of its inhabitants? We cannot suppose this; neither is it possible that they themselves can expect to make many converts. What, then, is their intention? Is it not to lull you with the fallacious hopes of peace, until they can assemble new armies to prosecute their nefarious designs? If this is not the case, why do they strain every nerve to levy men throughout their islands? Why do they meanly court every little tyrant of Europe to sell them his unhappy slaves? Why do they continue to embitter the minds of the savages against you? Surely this is not the way to conciliate the affections of America. Be not, therefore, deceived. You have still to expect one severe conflict. Your foreign alliances, though they secure your independence, cannot secure your country from desolation, your habitations from plunder, your wives from insult or violation, nor your children from butchery. Foiled in their principal design, you must expect to feel the rage of disappointed ambition. Arise then! to your tents, and gird you for the battle! It is time to turn the headlong current of vengeance upon the head of the destroyer. They have filled up the measure of their abominations, and, like ripe fruit, must soon drop from the tree. Although much is done, yet much remains to do. Expect not peace, whilst any corner of America is in possession of your foes. You must drive them away from this land of promise, a land flowing indeed with milk and honey. Your brethren at the extremities of the continent, already implore your friendship and protection. It is your duty to grant their request. They hunger and thirst after liberty. Be it yours to dispense to them the heavenly gift. And what is there now to prevent it?

After the unremitted efforts of our enemies, we are stronger than before. Nor can the wicked emissaries who so assiduously labor to promote their cause, point out any one reason to suppose that we shall not receive daily accessions of strength. They tell you, it is true, that your money is of no value, and your debts so enormous they can never be paid; but we tell you that, if Britain prosecutes the war another campaign, that single campaign will cost her more than we have hitherto expended. And yet these men would prevail upon you to take up that immense load, and for it to sacrifice your dearest rights. For, surely, there is no man so absurd as to suppose that the least shadow of liberty can be preserved in a dependent connexion with Great Britain. From the nature of the thing, it is evident, that the only security you could obtain, would be the justice and moderation of a parliament who have sold the rights of their own constituents. And this slender security is still farther weakened by the consideration that it was pledged to rebels (as they unjustly call the good people of these states) with whom they think they are not bound to keep faith by any law whatsoever. Thus would you be cast bound among men whose minds, by your virtuous resist-ence, have been sharpened to the keenest edge of revenge. Thus would your children, and your children’s children, be by you forced to a participation of all their debts, their wars, their luxuries, and their crimes. And this mad, this impious system, they would lead you to adopt because of the derangement of your finances.

It becomes you deeply to reflect on this subject. Is there a country on earth which hath such resources for the payment of her debts as America? such an extensive territory? so fertile, so blessed in its climate and productions? Surely there is none. Neither is there any to which the wise Europeans will sooner confide their property. What, then, are the reasons that your money hath depreciated? Because no taxes have been imposed to carry on the war: because your commerce hath been interrupted by your enemy’s fleets: because their armies have ravaged and desolated a part of your country: because their agents have villainously counterfeited your bills: because extortioners among you, inflamed with the lust of gain, have added to the price of every article of life; and because weak men have been artfully led to believe that it is of no value. How is this dangerous disease to be remedied? Let those among you who have leisure and opportunity, collect the moneys which individuals in their neighborhood are desirous of placing in the public funds. Let the several legislatures sink their respective emissions, that so, there being but one kind of bills, there may be less danger of counterfeits. Refrain a little while from purchasing those things which are not absolutely necessary, that so those who have engrossed commodities may suffer (as they deservedly will) the loss of their ill-gotten hoards, by reason of the commerce with foreign nations, which their fleets will protect. Above all, bring forward your armies into the field. Trust not to appearances of peace or safety. Be assured that, unless you persevere, you will be exposed to every species of barbarity. But, if you exert the means of defence which God and nature have given you, the time will soon arrive when every man shall sit under his own vine and under his own fig-tree, and there shall be none to make him afraid.

The sweets of a free commerce with every part of the earth will soon reimburse you for all the losses you have sustained. The full tide of wealth will flow in upon your shores, free from the arbitrary impositions of those, whose interest and whose declared policy it was to check your growth. Your interests will be fostered and nourished by governments, that derive their power from your grant, and will therefore be obliged, by the influence of cogent necessity, to exert it in your favor.

It is to obtain these things that we call for your strenuous, unremitting exertions. Yet do not believe that you have been, or can be saved merely by your own strength. No! it is by the assistance of Heaven, and this you must assiduously cultivate, by acts which Heaven approves. Thus shall the power and the happiness of these sovereign, free and independent states, founded on the virtue of their citizens, increase, extend and endure, until the Almighty shall blot out all the empires of the earth.

Resolved, That it be recommended to ministers of the gospel of all denominations to read or cause to be read, immediately after divine service, the above address to the inhabitants of the United States of America, in their respective churches and chapels, and other places of religious worship.

A petition from Jacob Gerhard Dercks was read.

"That they have made as full an examination into that business as the evidence they were able to obtain would permit, and, on the whole, have no proof of any guilt in Mr. Folger:"

Whereupon,

Resolved, That Mr. Folger be permitted to go home, and that his expences be paid him, as well such as have been already incurred as such as may necessarily accrue on his journey home.

Congress resumed the consideration of the report of the committee of the whole, on a provision for officers after the war; Whereupon, a motion was made to add,

"Provided, also, that the foregoing resolutions shall not extend to any foreign officers, who now are or hereafter may be in the service of the United States:"

SaturDAy, May 9, 1778

A letter, of the 8, from the Board of War, was read:

Ordered, That it be referred to the Board of Treasury.
The Committee on the Treasury brought in a report;
Whereupon,

¹This letter is in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 78, XIII, folio 71.
Ordered, That 200 dollars be paid to Charles Cist and James Claypoole, towards defraying their expenses on their employment by the treasurer in superintending the making of paper for loan office certificates and bills of exchange; they to be accountable.

Ordered, That 20,000 dollars be advanced to the Marine Committee, for the use of the navy board in the middle district; the said Committee to be accountable.

That 24,000 dollars be advanced to the Committee of Commerce, to be by them paid to Mons. de Francey, for the use of the house of Messrs. Roderique Hortales & Co. and to be charged them by the said Committee of Commerce, who are to be accountable. 1

Resolved, That a member be elected for the navy board in the middle district, in the room of John Nixon, Esq: resigned; the ballots being taken, William Smith, Esq: of Baltimore, was elected.

The Marine Committee, to whom the letter from Baron Steuben, recommending Captain Landais was referred, report, "That they have had a conference with Captain Landais; that he produced brevet commissions of his being a lieutenant and captain in the navy of France, also a continental commission dated 1 March, 1777, appointing him captain of the ship Heureux, or Flamand, which commission is accompanied with these words in a letter from Silas Deane, Esq: "I give you a commission to use in case of necessity or the advantage of making a prize; but you are not to go out of your course for that purpose; you will keep an account of your expences, which will be paid you on your arrival in America. I shall write to the Congress by other conveyances, and assure them that you have received nothing but your expence, and your generous confidence in them will not pass unnoticed.” That Mr. Deane, in letters to the Marine Committee, recommends Mr. Landais in the strongest terms; that it appears to the committee that Captain Landais hath performed the business he was employed on with zeal and activity; that by his spirited behaviour a mutiny was quelled on board the ship Flamand, and she and her lading brought safely into port; Whereupon,

Resolved, That a sum of money be paid to Captain Landais, and that the Marine Committee be directed to report a pecuniary consideration, adequate to his services.

Resolved, That Captain Landais be continued as a captain in the navy of the United States.

Whereas there are more captains in the navy than there are ships provided for them:

Ordered, That the Committee for Foreign Affairs be directed to write to the commissioners of the United States at foreign courts, and inform them, that Congress expect they will not recommend any foreign sea officers, nor give any of them the least expectation of being employed as captains in the navy of the United States.

Congress resumed the consideration of the report of the committee of the whole, on a provision to be made for officers after the war, and some time being spent thereon, the farther consideration thereof was postponed to Monday next.

Ordered, That on Saturday next Congress take into consideration the articles of confederation, and that on or before Wednesday next, the delegates of the several states lay on the table for the perusal of the members, any objections made or amendments proposed to the confederacy by their states.
Whereas Congress have received information and complaints, "that violences have been done by American armed vessels to neutral nations, in seizing ships belonging to their subjects and under their colours, and in making captures of those of the enemy whilst under the protection of neutral coasts, contrary to the usage and custom of nations;" to the end, that such unjustifiable and piratical acts, which reflect dishonour upon the national character of these states, may be in future effectually prevented, the said Congress hath thought proper to direct, enjoin and command, and they do hereby direct, enjoin and command, all captains, commanders and other officers and seamen belonging to any American armed vessels, to govern themselves strictly in all things agreeably to the tenor of their commissions, and the instructions and resolutions of Congress; particularly that they pay a sacred regard to the rights of neutral powers and the usage and custom of civilized nations, and on no pretence whatever presume to take or seize any ships or vessels belonging to the subjects of princes or powers in alliance with these United States, except they are employed in carrying contraband goods or soldiers to our enemies, and in such case that they conform to the stipulations contained in treaties subsisting between such princes or powers and these states; and that they do not capture, seize or plunder any ships or vessels of our enemies, being under the protection of neutral coasts, nations or princes, under the penalty of beingcondignly punished therefor, and also of being bound to make satisfaction for all matters of damage and the interest thereof by reparation, under the pain and obligation of their persons and goods. And further, the said Congress doth hereby resolve and declare, that persons willfully offending in any of the foregoing instances, if taken by any foreign powers in consequence thereof, will not be considered as having a right to claim protection from these states, but shall suffer such punishment as by the usage and custom of nations may be inflicted upon such offenders.

Given in Congress at York, in the State of Pennsylvania, this ninth day of May, Anno Domini 1778.1

Adjourned to 10 o’Clock on Monday.

1 This proclamation, in the writing of Francis Dana, is in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 24, folio 436.
MONDAY, MAY 11, 1778

A letter, of the 1, from Governor Henry, of Virginia, and one of the 30 April, from B. Harrison, deputy pay master general in Virginia, with his monthly account, were read:

Ordered, That they be referred to the Board of Treasury.

A letter, of 1st, from W. Aylett, Esq: deputy commissary general of purchases in Virginia, was read, respecting the pork bought of Hewes & Co. and damages recovered of them on account of its bad quality.¹

Whereas, it hath been represented unto us that a certain snow, called Our Lady of Mount Carmel and St. Anthony, said to be the property of Messrs. John Ignatius de Oliveria Pereira and Anthony dias dos Santos, subjects of his most faithful majesty the king of Portugal, and bound from the Brazils to Fayal, was taken on the high seas by a private armed vessel, commissioned by these United States, and sent as a prize into the State of Massachusetts bay; that the said vessel, being duly libelled in the courts of the said State, was acquitted; and that no owner hath appeared to claim the said snow and her cargo, the master of the said snow having, as is said, been sent home in another vessel, at his own request, by the master of the said armed vessel; and whereas it hath been further represented unto us, that divers of the commodities in the said snow contained are perishable; that damage may arise from permitting the vessel and cargo to continue in their present situation, and that it would be dangerous to send the said snow to the place of her former destination, as she might be made prize of by ships in the service of the king of Great Britain.

Now, therefore, to the end that right may in this behalf be done,

Resolved, That the Board of War of the said State of Massachusetts bay be requested to make sale, with all convenient speed, in the best manner, and for the most money possible, of the said snow and her cargo, to deposit the net proceeds thereof, after deducting all costs and charges, which shall then be due thereon, in the public funds of these United States; and to transmit an exact account thereof to the Committee of Foreign Affairs:

That the said committee do transmit such account, and a copy of the proceedings of the court of admiralty relative to said snow, together with these resolutions, to the commissioner or commissioners of these states, who may then be and reside at the court of his most Christian majesty; and

That the said commissioner or commissioners do inform the ambassador or resident of his most faithful majesty at the said court, of the premises, in order that the lawful and rightful owners of the said snow and her cargo, may obtain proper certificates, and authentic proof of their property in the same, and thereby be enabled, either personally or by their lawful attorney, to appear, demand, and receive the moneys so deposited as aforesaid, together with the interest thereof.

It is nevertheless provided, that nothing in the foregoing resolutions contained, shall be construed to bar the lawful and rightful owners of the said snow, and of her cargo, from their action or actions against the master or owners of the said private armed vessel, or any of them, for damages sustained beyond the money so to be deposited by reason of the capture aforesaid; any clause or article thereof to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding:

Resolved, That Monsr. de la Neuville's pay as inspector be 105 dollars a month, and six rations a day; his pay and rations to commence from the time of his entering into the service of the United States, as well from the consideration of the great delay he has met with, in waiting the determination of Congress, and of his heavy expences, occasioned by a long and perilous voyage to and sejour in a foreign and very dear country, as from the nature of the office it is proposed he shall execute, which requires unremitting assiduity, and will be attended with great fatigue both of body and mind.\(^1\)

Resolved, That Monsr. la Neuville be informed, that Congress will be disposed, after an experience of his services of an inspector to the army under General Gates, for the space of three months, to confer on him such rank as his merits may justly entitle him to.

The committee to whom was referred the memorial from divers persons, late inhabitants of Nova Scotia, report as their opinion,

"That the wresting of Nova Scotia from the British power and uniting the same to these States is for many weighty reasons a very desirable object; but that the propriety of making this attempt at the present crisis seems doubtful; and upon the whole, it appears most wise to wait a while, until the event of a war taking place between France and Great Britain, and the consequences that [it] may have upon the British force on this continent, shall render an attempt upon Nova Scotia more likely to succeed. If however any concurrence of circumstances should sooner render success in this undertaking probable, it is the opinion of the committee, that the honourable council of Massachusetts bay should be empowered at continental expence to furnish the inhabitants of Nova Scotia with a force, not exceeding two regiments, to assist in accomplishing the purpose proposed in the said memorial."

Resolved, That Congress agree to the said report.

The committee to whom was referred the letter from Colonel F. Johnston, brought in a report; Whereupon,

The committee to whom were referred the letter of the 11th, from General Washington, enclosing a copy of a letter of the 10th from General Howe, respecting the exchange of prisoners, report,

"That the propositions of General Sir William Howe, for an exchange of prisoners, in his letter of the 10th May, appear so ambiguously expressed and so liable to misconception, that, in their opinion, it is expedient that Congress should, on their part, make proposals for an exchange on principles of equality, and expressed in clear and explicit terms:" Whereupon,

Resolved, That General Washington be desired to inform General Sir William Howe, that Congress, ever anxious to alleviate the calamities of war, are willing to make an exchange of prisoners on the following principles, viz:

That an exchange be made of all officers in the possession of either party, whether on parole or otherwise, as far as rank and number will apply:

That, as General Sir William Howe has the power of exchanging the officers made prisoners under the convention of Saratoga, Congress cannot think of agreeing to an equivalent in privates for officers, but are willing to extend this exchange to the officers of General Burgoyne's army:

That an exchange, as far as numbers will apply, be made of all soldiers in the actual possession of either party; and also of all who, having been released on parole,\(^1\) are, in the opinion of General Washington, proper objects of exchange:

That the officers and soldiers so to be exchanged be mutually delivered at such places in the states of Rhode Island, New York, and Pensylvania, and at such periods of time as the said generals may determine on:

That in case the proposed exchange should unhappily not take place, General Washington be directed to inform General Sir William Howe, that Congress expect that he will, from a regard to the prisoners in the power of these states, take effectual measures that the American prisoners may not suffer any distresses from the approaching hot season, which it is in his power to prevent,\(^2\) as the present possession of Long Island and Rhode Island, afford him an opportunity of extending humanity towards prisoners, without a breach of duty to the power under which he acts.\(^3\)

SATURDAY, MAY 23, 1778

A letter, of 22, from Colonel F. Johnston, was read, informing, that "as it never was his wish to give up his rank in the line, he therefore begs leave to decline the acceptance of his late appointment of commissary general of prisoners;" Whereupon,

Ordered, That it be referred to the Board of Treasury.

The Board of War, to whom was referred the letter of the 17th, from John Connolly and others, prisoners, brought in a report, which was read;

AT A BOARD OF WAR, 22d May, 1778

The board taking into consideration the letter from Doctor John Conolly, and the other prisoners of war, most of whom have been lately removed from Carlisle goal into the prison of the county of York, beg leave to report to Congress,

That, forbearing to remark upon the indecency of the terms in which the said letter is conceived, and which is calculated for other purposes than merely to relate their pretended grievances, The Board will lay before Congress the facts which they have collected from Major Wilson, commanding at Carlisle during the residence of Major Stockton and other officers of his party in the goal of that place; from M' T. Peters, Deputy Commissary of prisoners, who has had the charge during the winter of the prisoners at Carlisle and York; from Doctor Henry, employed to attend the British prisoners when sick; and from Col' Pickering one of the Board, who visited the goal of this place. From the concurrent testimony of all which Gentlemen, the account given by the prisoners in their said letter appears to be founded in falsehood Misrepresentations.

Major Wilson, who was frequently called in by the Officers themselves to examine into their situation at Carlisle, agrees with the Commissary of prisoners, That as often as either of these Gentlemen 1This letter is in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 78, XIII, folio 83.

visited the goal at Carlisle, the officers, being six in number, had the privilege of the whole goal, except such part as the goaler occupied, and one room entirely to themselves, and, altho' the criminals were under the same roof, yet they were so far from being crowded, that there were not in the said goal more than six or seven prisoners at a time (and the most of these Tories) on an average, during the confinement of the officers at that place. That the goal was as clean as such places can be kept, and if it had not been so, the fault would have lain with the officers who were indulged with two servants to attend them for the purposes of cleansing their apartment and waiting on their persons. These officers too were confined by order of the Commissary General of prisoners as a retaliation for those of our army, suffering every degree of insult and cruelty which British haughtiness and inhumanity could inflict, in the provost and dungeons of New York and Philadelphia. This being the reason of their confinement, and the foregoing the situation of it, the Board conceive their imprisonment was of the mildest nature, when compared with the rigours of that of our own officers. But the goal at Carlisle not being secure, the deputy Commissary of prisoners removed them to the prison of this place, wherein was also confined Doctor John Conolly, for the same causes which induced and continued their present imprisonment, and for other reasons of policy and prudence. Doctor Conolly having also sundry times behaved amiss while on parole.

In the goal of York these prisoners (seven only in number) have two airy rooms, the one fifteen by twenty feet, and the other something less, besides the privilege of the whole goal and yard, which is sixty yards long, and eighteen wide—frequently swept, and kept as clean as possible, and by no means "polluted with filth, &c."
there being a privy at the extreme end of the yard. These Gentlemen too have three servants to attend them. Their complaints then, of being confined in a loathsome crowded prison, infected with a contagious fever, and polluted with noisome smells thro' every part are not warranted by facts. The goal is made a place of temporary confinement for passing prisoners, but is never crowded, and there are now only nine privates therein, and three of them are the officers' servants, altho' it is capable of holding conveniently one hundred and sixty prisoners.

There was some time ago an apprehension in a part of the goal distant from the officers' apartments, that a contagious fever had broke out among the soldiers, but the diseased were immediately removed to hospitals, and a Surgeon and nurses provided for them, and every assistance afforded them the nature of our affairs would admit. The goal is now clean and healthy, save that there are five soldiers who have fevers from want of exercise and other causes common to places of confinement, but the disorders are not contagious or dangerous.

M' Conolly, altho' indulged with every thing a prisoner could reasonably wish, has repeatedly represented his own, and the situation of the goal, in similar terms with the letter now under consideration, and the former, and this Board, have often had consequent examinations, in all of which they found the complaints groundless. Once particularly, when M' Conolly represented himself as at the point of death from the severity of his confinement, the board directed Doctor Shippen to visit him, who reported that his situation was directly opposite to his representation, his indisposition slight and merely of an Hippochandric Nature.

The Board have been so particular for several reasons, one whereof is, to sunder the necessity of future enquiries, and are upon the whole of opinion, that these Gentlemen should be more strictly confined, as from the indulgence now given them there is a probability of some of them at least making their escape.

By order of the Board

||Whereupon, Congress passed the following:||

Whereas, it appears probable that attempts are making to misrepresent the conduct of these United States towards the prisoners in their possession, in some degree to wipe off or counterbalance the just reproach that has fallen upon our enemies for their barbarity:

Resolved, That the letter from John Connolly and others, dated Yorktown gaol, May 17, 1778, together with the report of the Board of War upon it, be published.

A motion being made, that the resolution of the 19 August, 1777, relative to Lieutenant Colonel Carrington be expunged from the journals, an amendment was moved in lieu thereof, as follows:

Whereas Congress are fully satisfied that Lieutenant Colonel Carrington, from a sense of the impropriety of his conduct to his excellency Patrick Henry Esqr, Governor of Virginia, had, before he knew of any resolution having been past by Congress, relative to him, made a suitable and satisfactory apology to Governor Henry,

Resolved, That Lieutenant Colonel Carrington stands in the opinion of Congress in as favourable a point of view as if the resolution of Congress, of the 19th August, 1777, had not been entered into—which was agreed to.

To this an addition was moved, "And that the same be not published in the printed Journals". A motion was made to amend the addition so as to read "and that the present and former resolution of the 19th August, 1777, be not published in the printed Journals."

Ordered, That all the linen, shirts, stockings, shoes, and blankets, lately imported on account of these United States now in Boston, Portsmouth, or in any other places in the State of Massachusetts bay or New Hampshire, in whose hands soever the same may be, be immediately sent forward to the cloathier general or his order, to be by him delivered out, if necessary, for the use of the main army; and that the other articles of imported cloathing only, whether they should have been delivered out to any persons in the cloathing department, or others, or not, be removed with all convenient speed, to Springfield, in the county of Hampshire, in the State of Massachusetts bay, there to be stored, if practicable, under the constant care of a suitable store keeper, who shall see that they be properly aired and otherwise attended to, so that they receive no damage by being stored; and the person or persons in whose care the same cloathing shall be, is hereby strictly forbidden to deliver out any part of the same without the special order of Congress or the Board of War.

A memorial from William Tisdale, Esq. judge of the court of admiralty in and for the port of Beaufort, in the State of North Carolina, and John Cooke, Esq. proctor and advocate in the said court, in behalf of John Cochran, Cornelius Anible, Isaac M’Key, and Nathaniel Moore, who brought into the said port, and libelled in the said court of admiralty, a sloop called the Tryptal, which was condemned in the said court, and two-thirds of the net proceeds adjudged to the use of the United States, and the other third to the use of the said libellants, was read, praying, for sundry special reasons therein set forth, that the two-thirds adjudged to the use of the United States, may be given up to the use of the said libellants:²

Resolved, That the prayer of the said memorial be granted.

Resolved, That the cloathier general and his agents continue to make up and issue the cloathing which they have already purchased, and now have in their stores, any thing in the resolution of the 28 instant to the contrary notwithstanding.

Resolved, That a committee of four be appointed to report a plan for regulating continental expresses, and to enquire into and rectify abuses in the general post office:

Congress resumed the consideration of the report of the committee lately sent to camp, relative to the establishment of the army; Whereupon,

Ordered, That so much thereof as relates to rations, be re-committed.

Congress took into consideration the report of the committee lately at camp, on the letter of the 6 from Governor Caswell: Whereupon,

Resolved, That the non-commissioned officers and other men belonging to the battalions of the State of North Carolina, now in camp, be forthwith reduced and formed by the Commander in Chief into as many battalions as they will complete, according to the number composing the old battalions; and that such new formed battalions be officered agreeably to the new arrangement of the battalions; and that all the supernumerary officers be immediately ordered to return to the State of North Carolina, to officer the men raised by that State to complete their quota of the continental battalions, there to remain for the further order of Congress.

Resolved, That the State of North Carolina be required to fill up four battalions, and no more, upon the new establishment, in addition to those now at camp, and to officer the same with such of their continental officers, as may be ordered from camp as supernumeraries of the batallions there, or as are within the State of North Carolina, or with such other persons as they shall think proper; and that the said four batallions remain within the State of North Carolina, at such places as the governor shall direct, until the farther order of Congress.

Resolved, That the officers, who have been appointed by the State of North Carolina to batallions raised by that State, and who shall not be annexed either to their batallions in camp, or to one of the said four batallions, shall not be considered in the service of these United States, but as dismissed therefrom.

Resolved, That 100,000 dollars, be paid to Captain Reading Blount, in lieu of Governor Caswell’s draft for 500,000 dollars; made in pursuance of a resolution of the general assembly of the State of North Carolina; the said State to be accountable for the same.¹

Congress took into consideration the report of the committee on the letters from Mr. President Lowndes, and from Generals Howe and Moultrie; Whereupon,

Resolved, That an immediate enquiry be made what stores are now in the State of South Carolina belonging to the United States; and that, for this purpose, the commanding officer of the troops and the continental agent in that State be required to transmit to Congress a full and proper account of the same; and that the president of that State be requested to forward this business by his countenance and authority.

Resolved, That the State of South Carolina be requested to continue, as heretofore, to advance whatever monies may be necessary for the payment of the continental troops in that State; and also for whatever contingent expences relative to the troops shall accrue on the continental account; and to supervise and examine the expenditure thereof; and that a regular account of all such expenditures be transmitted to Congress up to the 31 day of December in every year, together with the vouchers for the same; and after the said account has been liquidated and adjusted by Congress, the same shall be allowed out of the annual quota to be demanded by Congress of the said State; and if such expenditures shall exceed the quota of that State, the balance shall either be immediately remitted to the said State, or carried to its credit in the continental account:

That the State of South Carolina be allowed to retain the 500,000 dollars, their quota for the present year, as part payment of their account now transmitted to Congress.

That a sufficient number of blank letters of Marque and bonds necessary to accompany them, be with the first convenient opportunity, forwarded to Mr. President Lowndes.¹

Your Committee find, upon examining the Journals of Congress, A Resolution of the 31 of December last, "Recommending to the Government of the several states, to suspend filling up any Vacancies in their respective Regiments until they shall hear further from Congress." The resolution being so General operates to the exclusion of such Officers as are entitled to rise in the Regimental line. This your Committee humbly conceive will tend very much to detriment the Service, for they are inclined to believe that in consequence thereof many valuable Officers will be lost, who, having served from the beginning of the War, are now well acquainted with their duty. Your Committee would therefore Recommend a Repeal of so much of the said Resolution as excludes Officers from rising in the Regimental line.

Your Committee upon examining the Resolution of Congress of the Ninth of February last are of Opinion,

Resolved, That Mr. President Lowndes acted with propriety and a true regard to the interest of the United States in refusing to advance any further sums of money to Colonel Huger, deputy quarter master general, until he accounted for what he had before received; [and that the president, by the resolution of the 9th February last, has a power of suspending from pay and employment, for misbehaviour or neglect of duty, any officer in the quarter master general’s department, or in the commissary general’s department, or any officer of the staff or other civil officer, within his State, appointed by the head of his department and not immediately by Congress.]¹

And if he had thought proper, he would have been well justified under the said Resolution in proceeding to a suspension.

If Congress should see fit to adopt the mode recommended by your Committee for the future payment of the troops, and other necessary expenses incurred in the State of South Carolina, then it will be unnecessary to take any notice of that part of Genl. Moultrie’s letter, “requesting a Military Chest to be established in that state.” But if Congress should disagree with the Committee in this mode, then your Committee would recommend what appears to them to be the next best plan: That is, the establishment of a Military Chest in that State, which if properly regulated, will very well answer the purposes intended by it. And it might in part be supplied on the spot by the annual quota of that State being paid into it.

Your Committee beg leave to recommend John Sanford Dart Esqr, as a very proper person to be appointed Deputy Clothier General for the State of Sc. Carolina.²

The committee to whom were referred the letters of Governor Houston and Major General Howe, with the papers enclosed, brought in a report, which was taken into consideration; Whereupon, undertaking distant expeditions or enterprizes, or other military operations, and the mode of conducting them, the general or commanding officer must finally judge and determine at his peril:

That, however, a decent attention and respect ought to be paid to the opinion and inclination of the authority of the State which may be more particularly interested in such matters.

Resolved, That after a careful examination by their committee of the letters of Governor Houston and Major General Howe, and the papers enclosed; Congress do not find that General R. Howe, has been wanting in that attention and respect to the authority of Georgia, which is due from the commanding officer.

Resolved, That Governor Houston be assured that Congress are not unmindful of the particular condition of the State of Georgia, but have for some time past had it in contemplation and are disposed to afford that State such aid, and to adopt such measures, as shall give them effectual relief as soon as it will be prudent, consistent with the great and general interests of the United States.¹

The committee to whom were referred the letters from General Greene, and Lieutenant Colonel Udney Hay, brought in a report, which was taken into consideration, and agreed to as follows:

Congress resumed the consideration of the report of the committee on the letter from Mr. Wadsworth, whereupon Congress came to the following resolution:

Whereas, the exportation of provisions from these states hath occasioned much difficulty in procuring supplies for our armies, and by the capture of vessels concerned in such exportation, the armies of the enemy have been freed from distresses that would have greatly embarrassed their operations; and, whereas, for the easy supply of our armies, and to embarrass and distress the enemy the ensuing campaign, it is absolutely necessary an embargo should be immediately laid to prohibit such exportations; and as from the distance of the states from Congress, and the different periods of assembling their legislatures, the good end of such embargo would be wholly frustrated, should Congress not proceed to impose the embargo; therefore,

Resolved, That an embargo be, and it hereby is laid, to prohibit the exportation of wheat, flour, rye, Indian corn, rice, bread, beef, pork, bacon, live stock, and other provisions, from any of these United States, from and after the tenth day of June instant, until the fifteenth day of November next, unless sooner revoked by Congress; Provided, that this embargo shall not be construed to prevent the taking on board such provision as shall be necessary

the draught of a letter to the several states, which was agreed to as follows:

Sir: Authentic intelligence, received by Congress from many quarters, leave it no longer doubtful in what manner the enemy mean to conduct their plan of conciliation. Under delusive appearances of pacific acts and peacemaking commissioners, already their military reinforcements begin to arrive, and already they have commenced the campaign, in many places, with acts of cruelty and devastation. Indian irruptions, and burning houses, in the moment of dispersing propositions for peace, evince the insidious designs of the enemy, and demonstrate the necessity of wisdom in council, of strength and vigour in the field.

The former may be employed to distress the enemy greatly, by withholding from them the provisions of America, and the latter by quickly collecting powerful armies to take advantage of their present weakness.

In duty, therefore, to their constituents, Congress earnestly call upon you, sir, and your State, to adopt the most effectual and vigorous measures for speedily reinforcing the continental army with your quota of troops.

The present moment unimproved, may be productive of most pernicious consequences, and the public safety demands strong and united efforts. Experience hath shewn that the marine force of our enemies enables them to secure for the support of their armies almost the whole of our exported provisions; and therefore Congress, impressed with the necessity of preventing the supplies derived to our foes from this source, and desirous of supplying the armies of the United States, have, upon mature deliberation, laid an embargo upon provisions of all kinds, and they earnestly request the vigorous exercise of the powers of your State to carry into effectual execution this most necessary measure.

That what relates to the reinforcing the continental army be left out in the letters to North Carolina, South Carolina, and Georgia; and that, in the letters to Maryland, Virginia, and North Carolina, the following clause be added:

The urgent necessity for the provisions with which your State is to furnish the army, induces Congress to press upon you, sir, immediate and constant attention to this important business, and the present absence of the enemy's ships from the bay of Chesapeake may be improved by seizing the opportunity of water conveyance to the Head of Elk.

The Committee on the Treasury brought in a report; Whereupon,

The Board of War, to whom were referred the letters from the late commissioners at Fort Pitt, dated 27 April, the letters from the commissioners of Indian affairs, convened at Albany the 15 April, and sundry letters from Major General Schuyler, relative to the temper and disposition of the Six Nations, report,

That from the information contained in the above papers, and from other information received through a variety of channels, it appears that the cruelties lately exercised by the savages on the frontiers of New York, Pennsylvania and Virginia, are the commencement of an Indian war, which threatens, with extensive devastation, the frontiers of these United States:

That the nations concerned in carrying on the same, are the Senecas, Cayugas, Mingoes, and Wiandots in general, a majority of the Onondagas, and a few of the Ottawas, Chippawas, Shawanese, and Delawares, acting contrary to the voice of their nations, amounting, in the whole, to about 1,600 warriors, exclusive of several tories and other emissaries from the posts occupied by the enemy in the Indian country:

That from the presence of Mr. Butler and Mr. Magee, two of the British agents for Indian affairs, amongst the Indians, and from a variety of other circumstances, it appears incontestibly that this cruel war has been industriously instigated, and is still prosecuting with unrelenting perseverance, by principal officers in the service of the king of Great Britain, particularly by Colonel Hamilton, commanding officer of the garrison of Detroit:

That the frequent attempts which have been made to conciliate the minds of the hostile tribes, and even the threats which have been made use of by the commissioners convened at Albany in April last, have produced no good effect; but, on the contrary, have confirmed the savages in an opinion industriously inculcated on them by the enemy, that the forbearance of these states proceeds from their inability to revenge the outrages committed against them:

That the Delawares, Oneidas, Tuscaroras, and other friendly Indians, are collecting themselves in bodies, in order to guard against the impending storm; and call loudly for assistance against enemies, whom they have rendered implacable by a warm and steady attachment to the cause of these states:

That from the papers referred to the Board, it appears to be the design of the enemy to take post this year at Oswego with a view, probably, of prosecuting the plan commenced by the French in the year 1759.

That from the account given by Captain White Eyes, a Delaware chief, to the commissioners of Indian affairs lately convened at Fort Pitt, the fortress of Detroit was, during the last winter, in the same defenceless situation it has been in for some years past:

These circumstances, collected from the various papers referred to them, the Board have deemed it expedient to recapitulate, and after an attentive consideration, concur in opinion with the commissioners lately convened at Fort Pitt and at Albany, that a defensive war would not only prove an inadequate security against the inroads of the Indians, but would, in a short time, be much more expensive than a vigorous attempt to compel them to sue for peace: Whereupon,

Resolved, That an expedition be immediately undertaken, whose object shall be, to reduce, if practicable, the garrison of Detroit, and to compel to terms of peace such of the Indian nations now in arms against these states as lie on, or contiguous to, the route betwixt Fort Pitt and Detroit:
June, 1778

That three thousand men be engaged in the service of these states, for the purpose above mentioned:

That Patrick Lockhart, Esq' be appointed to procure provisions, pack-horses, and other necessaries for the army destined for the above mentioned operations:

That the governor and council of the State of Virginia be requested, on the application of the Board of War, or of Brigadier M'Intosh, to call forth such a body of their militia, (not exceeding 2,500 men,) as shall be judged necessary to complete the number of men appropriated for this service:

That the sum of nine hundred and thirty two thousand seven hundred and forty three and one third dollars be advanced from the treasury, to the order of the Board of War, to be by them applied towards the defraying the expenses of the expedition above mentioned:

That the Board of War be directed to co-operate with Brigadier M'Intosh in every measure necessary for executing the intention of Congress; and to give such instructions to Brigadier M'Intosh and to the principal officers employed on this service, as shall, to them, appear best adapted to answer the end of this expedition.

And, whereas, the success of the expedition against Detroit may be facilitated, and the hostile tribes of Indians sooner reduced to terms of peace, by another expedition from the Mohawk river to the Seneca country, in order to chastise that insolent and revengeful nation, and to dispossess the enemy from Oswego, should they have taken possession of that post; therefore,

Resolved, That Major General Gates, or the officer commanding the troops on the east side of Hudson's river, and in the northern department, be directed to take the most expeditious measures for carrying the war into the Senecas' country, in order to reduce to terms of peace,
Journals of Congress

such of the Six Nations as are hostile, and to dispossess the enemy from Oswego in case they should have taken possession of that post:

That the commissioners of Indian affairs in the northern department, or any of them who may be at Albany, be directed to co-operate with Major General Gates and the officer appointed to command on this expedition, in the execution of this measure:

That the Board of War give notice, from time to time, to Major General Gates and the officer commanding the expedition against the Senecas, of the progress of the preparations making at Fort Pitt, and of the time when the troops from that quarter will set out on their march, in order that the two armies may, as far as is practicable, act in concert:

As the success of all Military Operations depends as much on the Character of the Officers employed in conducting them, as it does on the Troops engaged for their Execution, the Board with great Deference, submit to the Consideration of Congress, whether it might not be proper to appoint Major Gen' Mifflin, and Brig' Gen' Stark, the principal Officers to conduct the last proposed Expedition and for this purpose,

That Major General Mifflin be ordered forthwith to repair to Fish Kill, in the State of New York, there to follow such Orders as he shall receive from Major General Gates.

That Major General Gates be directed to appoint [a] suitable officer to conduct the expedition into the Seneca country.¹

The Board subjoin for the Information of Congress an Estimate of the Expence attending the proposed Expedition to the Westward, from a Comparison of which with the Defensive Plan of Operations in that Quarter only, it will appear that the present additional Expence will be about £97,990 equal to Dollars 261,306—a Sum inferior to what will be saved even in the next succeeding Year in the Defence of the Frontiers of Virginia and Pennsylvania, should the proposed

Operations succeed; but should offensive Operations not be adopted it will be found necessary this Campaign to increase and strengthen the Posts on the western Frontiers; A Measure which would cost infinitely more even at present than an Offensive War.¹

The committee to whom was referred the claim of Joseph Carson for a number of leather breeches furnished the army, brought in a report: Whereupon,

Resolved, That the said Joseph Carson be allowed the sum of sixteen dollars for each pair of leather breeches with which he furnished the army; and that the cloathier general do settle and adjust the accounts of the said Joseph Carson, and pay him what shall appear to be due agreeable to the above estimate.²

A motion was made, that General Washington be directed to order an enquiry to be made into the conduct of Major General Mifflin, late quarter master general, and the other officers who acted under him in that department; and if it shall appear that the extraordinary deficiencies thereof, and the consequent distresses of the army, were chargeable to the misconduct of the said quarter master general or any of the said officers, that a court martial be forthwith held on the delinquents:

On a motion, that the consideration thereof be postponed; Mr. [Elbridge] Gerry required the yeas and nays;

The committee appointed to examine the evidence collected, and state charges against the General Officers who were in the Northern Department, when Tyconderoga and Mount Independence were evacuated:

Report. That having selected the material evidence in behalf of the public against Major examined the papers to them Committed relative to the subject in question, they find,

That on or about the 13th Day of June, 1777, Major Gen' S! Clair, took upon him the command at Tyconderoga and Mount Independance, and that those posts, were, by his orders, evacuated to the enemy, on the sixth day July following.

That by Deputy Commissary Avery's return of provisions at Tyconderoga, on the 25 of May, 1777, there were at that post, 1,400 barrels of flour, and 661 barrels of beef, which he stated as sufficient provision in flour, for 4,000 men during 66 days, and in beef for 75 days.

That by Deputy Commissary Jancey's return of provisions, remaining on hand at Tyconderoga, the 20th of June, 1777, there were 2,015 barrels of flour, 195 barrels of beef, 784 Barrels of pork, and 48 Barrels of hard bread, besides pease, Indian Meal, sugar, coffee, chocolate, Molasses, wine, rum, salt, candles and hogs lard.

That on or about the 5 of July, 1777, as by Jesse Leavenworth's affidavit, a considerable number of fat cattle arrived at Tyconderoga.

That by the general return of the troops on the 14 of June, 1777, present at Tyconderoga, and on command and which we suppose to be in the environs, there were,

That General S! Clair informed the Council of War held on the 5 July, 1777, that 900 militia had joined him. That Jesse Leavenworth swears they were of the Grants and Gen! S! Clair in his letter to Congress July 14 says, they joined on the 5. That the whole force in Tyconderoga, on the 5 of July 1777, was 5,639 men and officers, of which a number not exceeding 639 could be considered as sick.
June, 1778

That on the 13 of June, 1777, General St. Clair wrote to General Schuyler, the Commanding officer in the Department that two men from Canada taken prisoners, informed him that the British Army in Canada, were assembling to the amount of about 10,000 men, as fast as possible to cross the lake, and attack Tyconderoga, and that he might depend upon it, their fleet would appear in a fortnight at farthest.

That on the 18 of June, General S' Clair wrote to General Schuyler, that four of the enemy's vessels, were lying within a mile of the hither side of Split Rock; that on the day before, the enemy's Indians, had taken two prisoners, who had strolled from his camp unarmed,
and that he thought the enemies main army was not far off.

That on the 24 of June, General S' Clair wrote to General Schuyler, that the evening before, he had received information from a scouting party, the enemy were encamped on both sides Gillilands creek, and that they were very numerous.

That on the 25 of June, General S' Clair wrote to Congress that he was not able to discover whether the enemy were in force or not.
That 7 of their vessels arrived at Crown Point the preceding evening, and that others of their fleet were 4 or 5 miles lower down. That on the 30th of June, General S' Clair wrote to General Schuyler, that the enemy having advanced to the 3 mile point, the Alarm was given, that his people were in the best disposition possible, and that he had no doubt of giving a good account of the enemy, should they think proper to attack him. That it does not appear the enemy did attack General S' Clair, yet nevertheless on the 5 of July he called a Council of War, and desired their opinion whether he should wait the attack at the Tyconderoga lines, or whether the whole of the troops should be drawn over to Mount Independence, the more effectually to provide for the defence of that Post. Whereupon the Council were unanimiously of opinion that it was impossible with their force (then stated by General S' Clair to be 2,089 rank and file besides the corps of artillerie, 900 militia, and 124 artificers unarmed) to defend Tyconderoga and Mount Independence, and that the troops, cannon and stores, should be removed that night if possible to Mount Independence.
That the General also put another question, whether after a retreat to Mount Independence, they should be in a situation to defend that Post, or in case it could not be defended, whether a retreat into the country would be practicable. Upon these points the Council unanimously concluded, that a retreat ought to be undertaken as soon as possible, and that they should be very fortunate if it could be effected. And in pursuance of this determination Tyconderoga and Mount Independance were abandoned between two and 3 O'clock in the morning of the 6th of July, 1777; Gen'l S'r Clair having as appears by Jesse Leaventhal's affidavit, eight days before sent his son and baggage from Tyconderoga to Fort George.

That the sick at Tyconderoga, and the public stores, of ammunition, cannon, Provisions and Cloathing, were left behind or lost upon the precipitate retreat of the sixth of July.

That on the 20 of June 1777 a Council of War was held at Tyconderoga, Generals Schuyler and S'r Clair being present; wherein it was determined, that Tyconderoga and Mount Independance ought to be maintained as long as possible, consistent with the safety of the troops and stores. That if either of those posts must be evacuated, the former should be evacuated. That the fortifications and lines on Mount Independance were very deficient, and that the repairing the old and adding new works, ought to claim immediate attention.

That by Jesse Leaventhal's affidavit, it appears that there was not a stroke struck to fortify Mount Independance. That no parties were sent to annoy the enemy, though the troops were healthy courageous and desirous to improve every advantage against them.

That by the determination of the Council of War on the 5 of July it appears, the enemy, had then nothing more to do, to compleat their investiture of the Tyconderoga and Mount Independance, than to occupy the neck of land, a space of three quarters of a mile, between the lake and the east creek, and to possess themselves of the narrows between them and Skeensborough.

That by General S'r Clair's orderly book it appears, that on the 15 of June, orders were issued for the following guards.

A picket guard of one Captain, 3 subalterns, 3 Serjeants, 3 Corporals and 50 Privates, posted to the right of the French lines.

For fatigue, 3 Captains, 10 Subalterns, 10 Serjeants, five Drums and Fifes, 326 rank and file, the whole to continue till farther orders. Total privates for guards 178, for fatigue 326.

That on the 23rd of June, the abovementioned guards were reduced from 178 to 95 men. The fatigue party from 326 to 250 men, and 78 privates under proper officers were ordered for the detail of guards at Mount Independance: all to continue till further orders.

That the 26th of June was the First Day, the troops were drawn up at their alarm posts, ordered to discharge their loaded pieces, and to clean them. And it was but on this day that a signal was given in orders, in case of an attack at the French lines or at Mount Independance.

That on the 29 of June it was ordered that a scout consisting of a subaltern, a Serjeant, and 20 Privates should be sent out every morning, one hour before gun fire, the fatigue party being then increased to 310 Privates; the other guards continuing as before, 173 Privates, without any addition till the evacuation of the posts.

Upon which state of evidence, your committee in order to ground their charges against Major General S' Clair, beg leave to remark:

1. That on the 13 of June, General S' Clair was possessed of an information, from two Prisoners taken in Canada, that the British forces, amounting to about 10,000 men, were proceeding as fast as possible against him, and that he might expect their arrival in three weeks at farthest. That as on the 18 of June, 4 of the enemy's vessels were lying on the bither side of Split Rock, and on the 24th seven of them were at Crown Point, and others four or five miles lower down; their forces then encamped on both sides Gilliland's creek, he was informed by his scouts, that they were very numerous: so from these circumstances it appears General S' Clair had substantial reason, to confide in what the prisoners had told him relative to the intentions and strength of the enemy and that he ought at this time to have taken his final resolution, either to stand an attack, or to retreat with his stores, the preservation of which, was a principal object in the determination of the Council of War on the 20th. Therefore it appears, that General S' Clair's neglecting to form his decisive opinion at this time, or at a later day, so as to allow him a sufficient opportunity to retreat with his troops, sick, ammunition, cannon, provisions and clothing, and to deprive the enemy of shelter at Tyconderoga was a neglect of duty.

2. That it appears, Genl. St. Clair placed no confidence in his scouts; that it was his duty to have sent scouts in whom he could confide, and that a neglect to do so, was a neglect of duty. [That Genl' St. Clair on the 24 of June was informed by his scouts, the enemy were very numerous, and yet nevertheless, on the next day he wrote to Congress that he was not able to discover whether the enemy were in force or not.]

3. That if General St. Clair found small scouts could not acquire a knowledge, whether the enemy were in force or not, it was his duty in due time to have sent out reconnoitring parties in such force, as might have assured him, whether or not the enemy were in strength, this being a most important point, as upon this he was to regulate his motions, and therefore his failure in sending out such parties in due time, was a neglect of duty.

4. That as Jesse Leavenworth swears, General St. Clair did not annoy the enemy in their advance against, and investiture of the posts under his care, altho' the troops were healthy, courageous, and desirous of action, it appears the general did not to the utmost of his power oppose the operations of the enemy, and therefore, that he is liable to the charge of neglect of duty, of cowardice, or of treachery, or of incapacity as a General.

5. That as it was determined in the council of war on the 20th of June, approved by General Schuyler, the Commanding officer in the Department, that the repairing the old, and adding new works on Mount Independence, ought to claim immediate attention, and Jesse Leavenworth swears not a stroke was struck for those purposes, and by the orderly book it appears the fatigue party was decreased in number and continued so, and at a time, when it should have been abundantly increased, so on these points the General is liable to be charged with a neglect of duty amounting to a breach of orders; and with treachery.

That it appears incredible that General St. Clair did not, when the enemy on the 30 of June, were advanced so near him as the three mile point, know that they were in force. That it was his duty by this time at latest to have determined whether to wait the enemy; or to retire, and to have lost no time in proceeding accordingly: that therefore by deferring his decision respecting the public as he did, for he had 8 days before taken his resolution respecting his private property, then remov-
June, 1778

6. That as on the 25 of May, the Deputy Commissary rated that 1,400 Barrels of flour, would at an allowance of one pound each man per diem serve 4,000 men 66 days, and that 661 Barrels of beef would serve the same number of men 75 days: and supposing that from the 20th of June to 4 of July inclusive, there were in Tyconderoga and Mount Independence 4,739 men, and there does not appear to have been at any time between those periods a greater number, so estimating the consumption of 4,739 men, from the 20th of June to the 4 of July inclusive upon the 2,015 barrels of flour, 195 barrels of beef and 784 Barrels of pork, on the 20th of June returned by Deputy Commissary Jancey, as then actually remaining on hand: there did on the 4 July remain, or ought, if provisions had been regularly and properly issued, to be then remaining, 1,625 barrels of flour, 3 barrels of beef and 784 barrels of pork: a magazine of provisions, sufficient to afford to the army, on the 5 of July amounting, by the arrival of the militia of the grants to 5,639 men of all ranks, full allowance of provision, in flour for 53 days, and in beef and pork for 32 days, exclusive of the considerable number of fat cattle, that arrived at Tyconderoga on the 5 of July: the teams of oxen necessarily attending the post, and other stores specified in the Commissary's return on 20 of June, and even supposing, as may not reasonably be done, that no supply of flour had arrived after that day. And as this calculation has been liberally made, upon the quantity of provisions actually in Tyconderoga on the 20th of June, for the expenditure of which, General St Clair as Commander at the post ought to be held responsible, and as by General Burgoyne's return, dated—— to Lord George Germain, of the provisions he found at Tyconderoga, when upon the evacuation by the American troops he took possession of the post, there actually ———; therefore it clearly appears, Tyconderoga and Mount Independence, were not abandoned upon a just principle of a want of provisions.

7. That as General St Clair informed the Honorable Mr Jay that at the time of holding Council of War, on the 5 of July he knew it to be impossible to defend the posts with his numbers, it is natural to conclude, he was decided upon this point as early as the 29th of June; the day that he sent his son and private effects from Tyconderoga to Fort George as a place of safety. That being decided upon this point, it was his duty then to have taken as effectual measures for the preservation of the public property, at least equally with his own, claiming his earliest attention; that on the 30th of June the enemy being advanced against him so near, as the Three Mile Point, it is incredible that he did not then know, that they were in force. That it was his duty at that point of time to have finally determined, either to abide the operations of the enemy, or to retire. That if the last resolution was taken, and from his sending off his son and baggage the day before, there is the strongest presumption, that this resolution was then fully taken, it was his duty then to have proceeded to send off the public stores; to destroy the works; and to evacuate the posts without losing a moment of time. And that by deferring to take any measures to retire till the last moment when he could possibly retreat even with his effective troops—a moment when the sick, ammunition, cannon, provision and clothing of the army must be abandoned and lost, besides the lives of many men in effecting a retreat from before an enemy immediately upon him: General S! Clair appears chargeable with inattention to the progress of the enemy—with treachery, or with incapacity as a general, and with shamefully abandoning the posts of Tyconderoga and Mount Independance, in his charge. Nor can the proving, as General S! Clair wishes to do, that the works of Tyconderoga and Mount Independance were too extensive, and that the troops were very badly armed, if such things can be proved, fail of placing General S! Clair in a more reprehensible point of view, as the weakness of his defence being more obvious, his retreat should have been the earlier determined upon, and made.

Your Committee having thus stated the points principally resulting from the evidence collected against General S! Clair, recommend, that a general Court Martial be ordered to sit for the trial of Major General S! Clair, for the loss of Tyconderoga and Mount Independance, with the public stores. And that he be charged, 1st With neglect of duty under the 5 Article of the 18th Section of the Rules and Articles of War. And that the charge be founded, upon the first, third, fourth, and fifth remarks, respectively.

2d With cowardice, with treachery, with incapacity as a general, respectively: under the 5 Article of the 18th Section of the rules and articles of War. And that the charge be founded upon the fourth remark.
June, 1778

3. With treachery; under the 5 Article of the 18th Section of the rules and articles of War. And that the charge be founded, upon the 5th remark.

4. With inattention to the progress of the enemy; with treachery, with incapacity as a general respectively: under the 5 article of the 18th Section of the Rules and Articles of war, and that the charge be founded upon the seventh remark.

5. With shamefully abandoning the posts of Tyconderoga and Mount Independance, in his charge: under the 12 article of the 18 Section of the Rules and articles of war, and that the charge be founded, upon the seventh remark.

Finally upon the case of Major General St Clair your Committee recommend that authenticated copies of the returns, letters, and determinations of Courts Martial, referred to, be transmitted to the Judge Advocate General; that Elisha Avery, James Jancey, Richard Varick, Jesse Leavenworth, and the Colonels Commanding the 2 battalions of Massachusetts militia, whose time of service was nearly expired, at the evacuation of Tyconderoga be summoned to give evidence at the trial of Major General St Clair; and that he be furnished with a copy of the remarks and charges against him.¹

Your Committee beg leave further to Report, that Major General Schuyler having been appointed to Command the Northern Department (including Albany, Ticonderoga, Fort Stanwix and their dependencies) he was by Congress on the 22d of May, 1777, released from all restraint, respecting the establishment of his Head Quarters.

That by letters to him from General St Clair, Commanding Officer at Ticonderoga, dated the 13th, 18th, 24th, 25, 26, 28, and 30th of June, and 1st of July, 1777, he was informed of the designs, strength and advances of the enemy against Ticonderoga; and of the great danger in which that post and Mount Independance would be, in case of an attack.

That it appears in consequence of the letters of the 13th and 18th of June, he went to Tyconderoga; for on the 20th he there held a Council of War. That altho' in this Council of War it was determined, that the effective rank and file, were greatly inadequate to the defence of Ticonderoga and Mount Independance, but that nevertheless both posts ought to be maintained, as long as possible, consistent with the safety of the troops and stores, and that the fortifications and lines on Mount Independance, were very deficient, and that the repairs and additions to them ought to claim immediate attention, yet General Schuyler made no stay at Ticonderoga, to expedite the works on Mount Independance, and to cause a retreat to be made, when it became no longer possible to maintain the posts, consistent with the safety of the troops and stores; for his absence appears, from General S' Clair's letter to him on 24 of June, and those that followed.

That Ticonderoga and Mount Independance, being the posts of greatest defence to the United States, against the advance of the British forces from Canada; and the main army of the Northern Department being stationed at those posts, it was General Schuyler's duty, to have been at the Head of that Army, and to have remained there when he knew the enemy were actually advanced against it: that his forces were greatly inadequate to the defence of the posts, and that they were to be abandoned in the moment, when it should become no longer possible, to maintain them consistent with the safety of the troops and stores: a moment of which it was necessary the first officer in the Department should judge.

That in the absence of General Schuyler, this critical and important moment passed unobserved, or unimproved; for on the 6th Day of July the posts were abandoned, with the loss of the sick, ammunition, cannon provisions and cloathing of the Army, and the loss of many lives in the retreat.

Wherefore your Committee recommend that a General Court Martial be ordered to sit for the trial of Major General Schuyler, and that he be charged:

With neglect of duty in not being present at Ticonderoga to discharge the functions of his command from the middle of June, 1777, until it was no longer possible to maintain Ticonderoga and Mount Independance, consistent with the safety of the troops and stores, when he should have caused a retreat to be made for the preservation of both: Under the 5 Article of the 18 Section of the rules and articles of War.

Lastly, upon this case, your Committee recommend that authenticated copies of the letters and determinations of the Court Martial referred to, be transmitted to the Judge Advocate General, and that Major General Schuyler be furnished with a copy of the charge against him.

Your Committee not having any charge against any others of the general officers, who were in the Northern Department, when Tyconderoga, and Mount Independance were evacuated, recommend that they be released from their arrests.

See to procure a copy of St. Clair's letter to Congress, July 14, 1777.
Also his letter to John Jay, of the 25th July, 1777. It is in Dunlap's General Advertizer, August 5, 1777.

Also Burgoyne's return of provisions taken at Ticonderoga.

That General S. Clair, in his letter to the Honorable John Jay dated July 25, 1777, writing of the evacuation of Ticonderoga and Mount Independance, says, that had the opinion of the Council been contrary to what it was, it (meaning the evacuation) would nevertheless have taken place, as he knew it to be impossible to defend the posts with their numbers.¹

Journals of Congress

A letter of this day, From Captain John M’Pherson, was read:

Ordered, That it be referred to the Marine Committee.

A paper from Monsr. de Francy was laid before Congress:

Ordered, That it be referred to the Committee of Commerce.

The Board of War, to whom were referred the letters and papers relative to M. du Cambray, having reported specially thereon, Congress took into consideration the report and, thereupon,

At a Board of War, the 13th June, 1778

The Board of War to whom were referred sundry Papers relative to Mons. du Cambray, who arrived in North Carolina on board of Capt. Cottineau’s Ship, with a view of offering his Service to these States, beg leave to report to Congress,

That it appears by Mons. du Cambray’s Commission which he has laid before this board, that he has been a Captain of Artillery in the Polish Service since the 21st August, 1776.

That Mons. du Cambray has been strongly recommended to Doctor Franklin by the Duke de Rochefoucault (a great Judge of military merit) and by several other persons of distinction in France, as an Officer well versed in Artillery and Engineering, on which account, Doctor Franklin in a Letter to Gen’l Washington dated Sept: 10th, 1777, expresses his hopes, “that the American Service will be rendered agreeable to him.”

That since Mons. du Cambray’s arrival in North Carolina, he has employed himself in erecting a fortress at Cape Lookout, with great diligence and fatigue for the space of more than two months, which Fortress (with a very small alteration pointed out to the Board by Mons. du Cambray) will in their opinion effectually command the Entrance of that very important Harbour.

That Mons. du Cambray has declined asking any pecuniary Gratification for the service, he has hereby rendered to the United States.

That in consequence of the services rendered by Mons. du Cambray the Assembly of the State of North Carolina by their resolutions of the 30 April, Resolved, That they entertained a most grateful sense of the disinterested and important services rendered by Mons. du Cambray, and requested the Government of North Carolina to recommend him to Congress and to Gen' Washington, as a person well qualified for the service of these States.

That there is at present a deficiency of skilful Engineers to supply the wants of the Army and the various departments in which such talents are necessary, and that Mons. du Cambray possessing both the talents of an Engineer, and of an Artillerist would, in the opinion of the Board be very usefully employed in accompanying Brig' Gen' McIntosh on the Western Expedition.

From all which considerations the Board beg leave to recommend to Congress.

Resolved, That Mons' du Cambray be annexed to the corps of engineers commanded by Brigadier du Portail, with the rank and pay of a lieutenant colonel.¹

Resolved, That the delegates from the states of New Hampshire, Massachusetts bay, and Connecticut, be requested, in the name of this Congress, to write to their respective states, setting forth the urgent necessity of their immediately raising the quota of troops by them respectively agreed on, to be under the command of Major General Sullivan, for the relief of the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations, and to prevent further depredations of the enemy in that State.

Congress resumed the consideration of the report of the committee on the letter, of the 9th, from General Washington, with the papers enclosed:

During the debate, an express arrived with a letter of the 11th, from General Washington, which was read;² and, a packet, in which was enclosed, together with other papers, a letter signed "Carlisle, William Eden, George Johnstone," dated at Philadelphia, 9 June, 1778, and directed "to his excellency Henry Laurens, the president, and others, the members of Congress;" which letter was read to the words "insidious interposition of a power

The Board of War brought in a report, which was taken into consideration; Whereupon,

Congress came to the following resolution:

The Board taking into consideration the little effect of the reward offered in March last to such drafts as should bring firelocks &c with them into the field, reflecting too on the small number of arms and accoutrements in the public stores, are of opinion that larger reward should be proposed to the two new regiments ordered to be raised in Virginia and Pennsylvania, to induce them to come armed and accoutred; and beg leave to report—

Whereas, Congress, on the 2d day of May last, resolved that two regiments be raised in Virginia and Pennsylvania, to serve for one year, and it is expedient that as many as possible of the non-commissioned officers and soldiers should provide themselves with arms and other necessaries:

Resolved, That each non-commissioned officer and soldier of the said regiment, who shall so provide himself with arms and other necessaries, shall receive the following compensations, to be paid as soon as he has passed muster, upon his producing the said articles, viz.

For a good serviceable rifle, with a powder horn, bullet pouch, and mould, eight dollars; for a good serviceable musket, with a bayonet and a powder horn, and bullet pouch, or a good cartouch box, six dollars; for a like musket and accoutrements, without a bayonet, five dol-

dollar; for a blanket, eight dollars.¹

The Board of War having taken into Consideration a Memorial from the Officers in the Pensilvania Line complaining of the great distress

Enquiry, that considerable Quantities of Cloathing, particularly Linnen Shirts, have been purchased by the Pensilvania State Purchasers, which cannot be delivered unless Money is supplied for that Purpose from the public Treasury, beg leave to recommend to Congress,

That the Sum of Eighty thousand Dollars be advanced to James Mease Esq. Cloathier General, to be by him advanced to such of the Pensilvania State Purchasers, as, having made Purchases of Cloathing, cannot collect the Same, without an Advance of Money, and that the Cloathier General confer with the Supreme Executive Council of the State of Pensilvania concerning the Persons to whom it shall be judged necessary to make an Advance of Money, and the Sums proper to supply them with.

That the Cloathing so purchased be delivered by the respective Purchasers to the Cloathier General to be by him issued to the Officers

So it was unanimously agreed to, and is as follows:

I have received the letter from your excellencies of the 9th instant, with the enclosures, and laid them before Congress. Nothing but an earnest desire to spare the further effusion of human blood could have induced them to read a paper containing expressions so disrespectful to his most Christian majesty, the good and great ally of these states, or to consider propositions so derogatory to the honor of an independent nation.

The acts of the British parliament, the commission from your sovereign, and your letter, suppose the people of these states to be subjects of the crown of Great Britain, and are founded on the idea of dependence, which is utterly inadmissible.

I am further directed to inform your excellencies, that Congress are inclined to peace, notwithstanding the unjust claims from which this war originated, and the savage manner in which it hath been conducted. They will, therefore, be ready to enter upon the consideration of a treaty of peace and commerce not inconsistent with treaties already subsisting, when the king of Great Britain shall demonstrate a sincere disposition for that purpose. The only solid proof of this disposition, will be, an explicit acknowledgment of the independence of these states, or the withdrawing his fleets and armies. I have the honor to be,

Your excellencies most obedient and humble servant.

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed to make proper extracts from the journals and files relative to the letters received from the British commissioners, and report to Congress previous to a publication:

The members chosen, Mr. [Gouverneur] Morris, Mr. [Richard Henry] Lee, and Mr. [William Henry] Drayton.

1The original report read "Terms so opprobrious."
2This draft, in the writing of Gouverneur Morris, is in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 23, folio 43. The vote is endorsed upon it by Charles Thomson, and a preamble by Richard Henry Lee.
Resolved unanimously, That Congress approve the conduct of General Washington, in refusing a passport to Dr. Ferguson.

The committee appointed to report upon the means of preventing a correspondence with the enemy, brought in a report; Whereupon, Congress came to the following resolution:

Whereas, many letters, addressed to individuals of these United States, have been lately received from England, through the conveyance of the enemy, and some of them, which have been under the inspection of members of Congress, are found to contain ideas insidiously calculated to divide and delude the good people of these states:

Resolved, That it be, and it is hereby earnestly recommended to the legislative and executive authorities of the several states, to exercise the utmost care and vigilance, and take the most effectual measures to put a stop to so dangerous and criminal a correspondence.

Resolved, That the Commander in Chief and the commanders in each and every military department be, and he and they are hereby directed to carry the measures recommended in the above resolution into the most effectual execution.

Ordered, That the foregoing resolutions be forthwith published, and it is recommended to the several printers in the United States to re-publish the same.¹

That by a Letter from Silas Deane, Esquire, to the Committee of Foreign Affairs, dated the 29th November, 1776, it appears that Major General Conway was then a Colonel and an officer of great Merit in France, and that far from exacting of Mr. Dean any condition or Contract as Preliminaries to his engaging in the Service of the United States, "he generously confided in Congress for such Rank and appointment as they should confer." That therefore no gratuity has been allowed him for his time and expences previous to his appointment of Brigadier General by Congress: That he having served with Fidelity and Honor since that appointment, is entitled to a Reward according to his Rank.1

Resolved, That the sum of eight thousand two hundred and twenty-three livres tournois and four sous, and two hundred dollars, be allowed to Major General Conway, as a gratuity for his time and expences previous to his entering into pay of the United States, and for his return to France; and that bills of exchange be drawn by the President on the commissioners at Paris, in favour of Major General Conway, for 7,792 livres tournois; and that a warrant issue on the treasurer for 321 30/90 dollars, in favor of said General Conway; which sums are the balance of his account with the United States.2

The Committee on the Treasury beg leave to report:

That they have examined the Account of Colonel Mullens, late aid de camp to Major General Conway, and are of Opinion, that the sum of twelve hundred Livres Tournois should be allowed him as a gratuity for his time and expences in and from France; And a further sum of Nine hundred Livres Tournois, to pay his Passage to France, making in the whole two thousand one hundred Livres.

That he has received from Major General Conway nineteen hundred and ninety Livres, which leaves a Balance of one hundred and ten Livres Tournois on that Account due to Colonel Mullens.

1 This report is in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 136, II, folio 355.
2 A letter of Conway, dated June 19, asking for a settlement of his accounts, is in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 159, folio 489. It is endorsed by Laurens: "Received P. M., at the door, and presented and read immediately."

That there should be allowed to him three hundred and forty two Dollars and eight ninetieths of a Dollar for his Pay and Rations, from the 10th October, 1776, the time he entered into the Pay of America, to the 13 May, 1777.

And the further sum of one hundred Dollars for his travelling expenses to a port, to take shipping for France, making in the whole four hundred and forty two dollars and 8/90ths:

Resolved, That bills of exchange for one hundred and ten livres tournois be drawn by the President in favour of Lieut. Colonel Mullens, on the commissioners at Paris; and that a warrant issue on the treasurer in favour of Lieutenant Colonel Mullens, for 442 8/90 dollars, which sums are the balance of his accounts with the United States, and that the same be delivered to General Conway.¹

The Board of War brought in a report: Whereupon,

War Office June 22d 1778

As Congress, on the [16] day of March last, resolved, that one full company of men should be raised in the Town of Westmoreland, on the east branch of the Susquehannah, to serve for one year, for the defence of that and the neighbouring settlements, but no bounty or other allowance was offered to the men who should engage for that service, except their mere pay and rations. As after constant attention to the business, the Gentlemen appointed for the purpose have been able to enlist only forty six men, and as the ravages of the Indians on the frontiers make it expedient that the said company should be completed as soon as possible, the Board beg leave to submit to Congress the following resolve—

Resolved, That each non-commissioned officer and soldier who hath enlisted or shall inlist into the company of foot ordered to be raised in the town of Westmoreland, on the east branch of the Susquehanna, by the resolution of the 16th of March last, shall receive the same sums for finding his own arms, accoutrements, and blanket, as were allowed by a resolve of the 16th instant to the non-commissioned officers and soldiers of the two regiments raising in Virginia and Pensylvania, to serve for one year; the said sums to be paid them immediately upon their passing muster before the colonel, or in his absence, the next commanding officer of the militia in the said town, and producing the necessary articles of equipment mentioned in the said resolve of the 16th instant.

That the sum of 1,440 dollars be granted to the Board of War, to be issued to Colonel Dennison, of Westmoreland aforesaid, to enable him to pay the allowances above mentioned; he to be accountable for the same.¹

Congress proceeded to consider the motion from Maryland under debate yesterday ||amendment of the articles of confederation moved in behalf of Maryland:|| and after debate,

Resolved, That the farther consideration thereof be postponed till the afternoon.

THREE O’CLOCK P. M.

Congress resumed the consideration of the motion from Maryland.

1. In the fifth article, where, among other things, the qualifications of the delegates from the several states are described, there is no mention of any oath, test or declaration, to be taken or made by them previous to their admission to seats in Congress. It is indeed, to be presumed, the respective states will be careful that the delegates they send to assist in managing the general interests of the union, take the oaths to the government from which they derive their authority; but as the United States, collectively considered, have interests as well as each particular State, we are of opinion, that some test or obligation, binding each delegate while he continues in the trust, to consult and pursue the former as well as the latter, and particularly to assent to no vote or proceeding which may violate the general confederation, is necessary. The laws and usages of all civilized nations evince the propriety of an oath on such occasions, and the more solemn and important the deposit, the more strong and explicit ought the obligation to be.

2. By the sixth and ninth articles, the regulation of trade seems to be committed to the several states within their separate jurisdictions, in such a degree as may involve many difficulties and embarrassments, and be attended with injustice to some states in the union: we are of opinion, that the sole and exclusive power of regulating the trade of the United States with foreign nations, ought to be clearly vested in the Congress, and that the revenue arising from all duties and customs imposed thereon, ought to be appropriated to the building, equipping and manning a navy for the protection of the trade and defence of the coasts, and to such other public and general purposes as to the Congress shall seem proper, and for the common benefit of the states. This principle appears to us to be just, and it may be added, that a great security will by this means be derived to the union from the establishment of a common and mutual interest.¹

3. It is wisely provided in the sixth article, that no body of forces shall be kept up by any State in time of peace, except such number only as in the judgment of the United States in Congress assembled, shall be deemed requisite to garrison the forts necessary for the defence of such states: we think it ought also to be provided and clearly expressed, that no body of troops be kept up by the United States in time of peace, except such number only as shall be allowed by the assent of nine states. A standing army, a military establishment, and every appendage thereof, in time of peace, is totally abhorrent from the ideas and principles of this State. In the memorable act of Congress, declaring the United Colonies free and independent states, it is emphatically mentioned, as one of the causes of separation from Great Britain, that the sovereign thereof had kept up among us, in time of peace, standing armies without the consent of the legislatures. It is to be wished the liberties and happiness of the people may by the confederation be carefully and explicitly guarded in this respect.

4. On the 8th article we observe, that as frequent settlements of the quotas for supplies and aids to be furnished by the several states, in support of the general treasury, will be requisite, so they ought to be secured. It cannot be thought improper or unnecessary to have them struck once at least in every five years, and oftener if circumstances will allow. The quantity or value of real property in some states may encrease much more rapidly than in others, and therefore the quota, which is at one time just, will at another be disproportionate.

5. The boundaries and limits of each State ought to be fully and finally fixed and made known: this we apprehend would be attended with very salutary effects, by preventing jealousies as well as controversies, and promoting harmony and confidence among the states. If the circumstances of the times would not admit of this, previous to the proposal of the confederation to the several states, the establishment of the principles upon which, and the rule and mode by which the determination might be conducted, at a time more convenient and favourable for despatching the same at an early period, not exceeding five years from the final ratification of the confederation, would be satisfactory.

6. The 9th article provides, that no State shall be deprived of territory for the benefit of the United States; whether we are to understand, that by territory is intended any lands, the property of which was heretofore vested in the crown of Great Britain; or that no mention of such lands is made in the confederation, we are constrained to observe, that the present war, as we always apprehended, was undertaken for the general defence and interest of the confederating colonies, now the United States. It was ever the confident expectation of this State, that the benefits derived from a successful contest, were to be general and proportionate; and that the property of the common enemy, falling in consequence of a prosperous issue of the war, would belong to the United States, and be appropriated to their use. We are therefore greatly disappointed in finding no provision made in the confederation for empowering the Congress to dispose of such property, but especially the vacant and unpatented lands, commonly called the crown lands, for defraying the expenses of the war, and for other such public and general purposes. The jurisdiction ought in every instance to belong to the respective states within the charter or determined limits of which such lands may be seated; but reason and justice must decide, that the property which existed in the crown of Great Britain, previous to the present revolution, ought now to belong to the Congress, in trust for the use and benefit of the United States. They have fought and bled for it, in proportion to their respective abilities, and therefore the reward ought not to be predilectionally distributed. Shall such states as are shut out by situation from availing themselves of the least advantage from this quarter, be left to sink under an enormous debt, whilst others are enabled, in a short period, to replace all their expenditures from the hard earnings of the whole confederacy?

7. The 9 article also provides, that the requisition for land forces to be furnished by the several states shall be proportioned to the number of white inhabitants in each. In the act of independence we find the following declaration: "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights, among which are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness:" of this doctrine it is not a very remote consequence, that all the inhabitants of every society, be the colour of their complexion what it may, are bound to promote the interest thereof, according to their respective abilities. They ought therefore to be brought into the account on this occasion. But, admitting necessity or expediency to justify the refusal of liberty in certain circumstances to persons of a particular colour, we think it unequal to reckon nothing upon such in this case. Should it be improper, for special local reasons, to admit them in arms for the defence of the nation, yet we conceive the proportion of forces to be embodied ought to be fixed according to the whole number of inhabitants in the State, from whatever class they may be raised. If the whole number of inhabitants in a State, whose inhabitants are all whites, both those who are called into the field, and those who remain to till the ground, and labour in mechanical arts and otherwise, are reckoned in the estimate for striking the proportion of forces to be furnished by that State, ought even a part of the latter description to be left out in another? As it is of indispensable necessity in every war, that a part of the inhabitants be employed for the uses of husbandry and otherwise at home, while others are called into the field, there must be the same propriety that persons of a different colour, who are employed for this purpose in one State, while whites are employed for the same purpose in another, be reckoned in the account of the inhabitants in the present instance.

8. In order that the quota of troops to be furnished in each State, on occasion of a war, may be equitably ascertained, we are of opinion that the inhabitants of the several states ought to be numbered as frequently as the nature of the case will admit, and once at least every five years. The disproportionate increase in the population of different states may render such provision absolutely necessary.

9. It is provided in the 9th article, that the assent of nine states out of thirteen shall be necessary to determine in sundry cases of the highest concern. If this proportion be proper and just, it ought to be kept up, should the states increase in number, and a declaration thereof be made, for the satisfaction of the Union.

That we think it our indispensable duty to solicit the attention of Congress to these considerations and remarks, and to request that the purport and meaning of them be adopted as part of the general confederation; by which means we apprehend the mutual interests of all the states will be better secured and promoted, and that the legislature of this State will then be justified in ratifying the same.

Whereupon, a motion was made, to in the representation of the State of New Jersey, be so brethren of the other of the said United States, in Congress Assem-said State, we have inspected a certain Act of the said Senate and Assembly, the tenor whereof is as follows, to wit: "An Act of Access-sion to and approbation of certain proposed Articles of Confederation and perpetual Union, between the United States of America, and to authorize the delegates of the State of New York to ratify the same on the part and behalf of this State in the Congress of the said United States. Whereas, the freedom, Sovereignty, and Independence of the said States, which, with a Magnanimity, fortitude, Constancy, and love of liberty, hitherto unparalleled, they have asserted and maintained against their cruel and unrelenting enemies, the King and parliament of the realm of Great Britain, will, for their lasting and unshaken security, in a great measure depend, under God, on a wise and well concerted, intimate and equal confederation of the said United States: and whereas, the honorable the Congress of the said United States have transmitted, for the consideration of the Legislature of this State, and for ratification in case they should approve of the same, the following Articles of Confederation, to wit:

And whereas the Senate and Assembly of this State of New York, in Legislature convened, have separately taken the said Articles of Confederation into their respective most deliberate and mature consideration, and by their several and respective resolutions, deliberately made and entered into for the purpose, have fully and entirely approved of the same. In order, therefore, that such approval may be published and made known to the whole world, with all the solemnities of Law, and that all the subjects of this State, and others inhabiting and residing therein, from time to time, and at all times thereafter, as long as the said Confederation shall subsist and endure, may be bound by and held to the due observance of the said Articles of Confederation, as a law of this state, if the same shall be duly ratified by all the said United States, in Congress assembled, be it enacted and declared by the people of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that the said several above recited Articles of Confederation, and, all and singular, the clauses, matters and things in the same contained, be, and the same are hereby, fully accepted, received and approved of, for and in behalf of the people of this State. And to the end that the same may, with all due form and solemnity, be ratified and confirmed by this State in Congress, be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the delegates of this State in the said Congress of the United States of America, or any two of the said delegates, shall be, and hereby are, fully authorized, empowered, and required, wholly, entirely, and absolutely, for and in behalf of the people of this State, and in such manner, under such formalities, as shall be determined in Congress, to ratify and confirm all and every of the said above recited Articles of Confederation, and, all and singular, the clauses, matters and things in the same contained; and an exemplification of this act, tested by his Excellency the Governor, or the Lieutenant Governor, or President of the Senate of the State for the time being, administering the Government, and authenticated with the great Seal of this State, shall be full and conclusive evidence of this Act. Provided, always, that nothing in this Act, or the said above recited Articles of Confederation, contained, nor any act, matter or thing to be done and transacted by the delegates of this State in Congress, in and concerning the premises, or any part thereof, shall bind, or oblige, or be deemed, construed or esteemed to bind or oblige the Government, Legislature, people, Subjects, inhabitants, or residents of this State, until the said above recited Articles have been duly ratified and confirmed by or in behalf of all the said United States, in Congress Assembled; any thing herein, or in the said above recited Articles of Confederation contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding. At the bottom of which act we find the following Certificates, to wit: “In senate, Thursday, January 29th, 1778. This bill having been read three times, Resolved, that the bill do pass. By order of the Senate, PIERRE VAN CORTLANDT, President. In Assembly, Tuesday, February 3rd, 1778. This bill having been read three times, Resolved, that the bill do pass. By order of the assembly, WALTER LIVINGSTON, speaker.” And on the back of the said Bill, we find the following endorsement in writing, to wit: “In the Council for revising all bills about to be passed into Laws by the Legislature of the State of New York, on Friday, the 6th day of February, 1778. RESOLVED, that it does not appear improper to this Council, that the bill, entitled “An act of accession to, and approbation of, certain proposed Articles of Confederation and perpetual Union between the United States of America, and to authorize the delegates of the State of New York to ratify the same on the part and behalf of this State, in the Congress of the United States, should become a Law of this State. GEORGE CLINTON.” In testimony whereof, we, the said people of the State of New York, have caused the said Act of our said Senate and assembly to be exemplified by these presents, and our great Seal of our said State to be hereunto appended.

Sr: Congress, intent upon the present and future security of these United States, has never ceased to consider a confederacy as the great principle of union, which can alone establish the liberty of America and exclude for ever the hopes of its enemies. Influenced by considerations so powerful, and duly weighing the difficulties, which oppose the expectation of any plan being formed, that can exactly meet the wishes and obtain the approbation of so many states, differing essentially in various points; Congress have, after mature deliberation, agreed to adopt, without amendments, the confederation transmitted to the several states for their approbation. The states of New Hampshire, Massachusetts Bay, Rhode Island and Providence Plantations, Connecticut, New York, Pennsylvania, Virginia, North Carolina, and South Carolina, have ratified the same, and it remains only for your State with those of [_____] and [_____] to conclude the glorious compact, which, by uniting the wealth, strength, and councils, of the whole, may bid defiance to external violence and internal dissensions, whilst it secures the public credit both at home and abroad. Congress is willing to hope that the patriotism and good sense of your State will be influenced by motives so important, and they request, sir, that you will be pleased to lay this letter before the legislature of in order that, if they judge it proper, their delegates may be instructed to ratify the confederation with all convenient despatch; trusting to future deliberation to make such alterations and amendments as experience may shew to be expedient and just.

I have the honor to be, &c.

The Board of War, to whom were referred the letters from his excellency Patrick Henry, Esq. governor of Virginia, dated 8 and 10 July, report,

That, "from various enquiries made by the Board, it appears that success in an expedition against Detroit cannot be reasonably expected, unless the force destined for that service be ready to march from Fort Pitt by the first of September:

"That from the letters received from Governor Henry, and Mr. Patrick Lockhart, appointed to act as commissary, &c. on the above expedition, it appears that the capital articles necessary for carrying on the expedition, viz. men, horses, flour, and beeves, cannot be procured by any means within the time limited, and probably not even during the course of the present year:

"That, from the extraordinary rise of articles, especially of horses, since the expedition was first determined on, the expence of it, if practicable, would exceed, in an enormous degree, the estimate formed by the late commissioners at Fort Pitt, and submitted by the Board to the consideration of Congress;" Whereupon,

Resolved, That the expedition against the fortress of Detroit be, for the present, deferred:

That Brigadier General M'Intosh be directed to assemble at Fort Pitt, as many continental troops and militia as will amount to fifteen hundred, and proceed, without delay, to destroy such towns of the hostile tribes of Indians as he, in his discretion, shall think will most effectually tend to chastise and terrify the savages, and to check their ravages on the frontiers of these states:

That such of the articles as have been already procured for the expedition against Detroit, and which are neces-

necessary for the incursion against the Indian towns, be appropriated for that purpose, and that the Board of War be directed to give the necessary orders on this point:

That Governor Henry be informed of the determination of Congress with respect to the intended expedition, and that he be desired to furnish General M'Intosh with such a number of militia as the general shall apply for, to make up the complement of men destined for an incursion into the towns of the hostile Indians:

That the president be directed to inform Governor Henry that Congress have a high sense of the zeal of the assembly of Virginia, in voting, at their late session, a reinforcement of infantry and cavalry for the main army, but that a change in circumstances renders the march and services of those troops at present inexpedient:

That Governor Henry be therefore requested to cease raising the troops voted, and to order such of the infantry as are already raised, and are in the vicinity of the frontiers, together with a troop of cavalry, not exceeding fifty men, under the command of an intelligent and active officer, forthwith to join General McIntosh at Fort Pitt:

That it appearing most evidently that the late incursion at Wyoming and the adjacent parts, has been made by the Senecas and some other tribes of the Six Nations, aided by tories and other banditti, from the frontiers of New York, New Jersey, and Pensylvania, the expedition meditated against them from the northward be forwarded with all possible despatch, and that the Board of War take the necessary steps for that purpose:

That, in respect to the harvest, and the deplorable situation of the frontiers, in consequence of the late irruption of the enemy, Colonel Hartley's regiment be continued there till the retreat of the enemy be fully ascertained, the harvest secured, and the apprehensions of the inhabitants quieted.

The members chosen, Mr. [Joseph] Reed, Mr. [Elias] Boudinot, and Mr. [Samuel] Chase.

A letter, of 31 July, from the Board of War, was read, representing that, pursuant to the orders of Congress, Cornelius Sweers has been secured in such manner as the Board deemed sufficient, while it remained in a degree doubtful, whether or not he had been guilty of frauds against the states; that the matter being now reduced to a certainty, and the sums deficient amounting to many thousand pounds, the Board are uneasy at his remaining guarded only by centries, and those of raw troops:² Whereupon,

Ordered, That Cornelius Sweers, deputy commissary general of military stores, now in custody by order of this house, be immediately closely confined in the public gaol within this city, and that he be charged with malconduct in his said office generally, and particularly with the crime of forgery.

¹ The letter of Armstrong is in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 162, folio 270; Washington's of the 18th is in No. 152, VI, folio 109, and that of the 25th, on folio 175. The latter is printed in Writings of Washington, (Ford), VII, 124.
² This letter, prepared by Timothy Pickering, is in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 147, II, folio 155.

4938-07-47
Ordered, that the executive council of the State of Pennsylvania be requested to direct the keepers of their gaol to receive into custody, and safely keep, the said Cornelius Sweers.

Ordered, That the letter from the Board of War be referred to the committee on the deposition of Thomas Clifton, and that the committee be directed to report on the mode of trying Cornelius Sweers and bringing him to justice.

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed to consider of and report to Congress such recommendations to the legislatures of the several states for the enacting of laws, calculated to enable Congress, as the superintending executive of the United States, to proceed in civil and criminal cases as the nature of such government may require:

The members chosen, Mr. [Joseph] Reed, Mr. [Francis] Dana, and Mr. [William Henry] Drayton.

A letter, of 28 July, from the Board of War, was laid before Congress, together with an invoice of goods bought of Peter Whitesides & Co.

Ordered, That the same be referred to the Board of Treasury.

The Marine Committee brought in a report, which was read, and after debate,

Resolved, That it be re-committed.

The Committee of Commerce, to whom was referred the letter of 15 July, from Mons. de Francey, brought in a report, which was taken into consideration: Whereupon,

The Commercial Committee having taken into their consideration a letter from Monsieur de Francey, dated Williamsburgh 15th July, 1778, and in consequence thereof examined into the circumstances of the several Cargoes of Tobacco mentioned in said Letter beg leave to report.
August, 1778

That Mr. R. Morris wrote a Letter to this Committee, dated Mannheim, the 24th January, 1778, enclosing a Copy of a Letter from Mr. John Ross to him, dated Passy, 7th October, 1777, advising that the Honourable Commissioners at the Court of France had advanced him 450,000 Livres Tournois towards enabling him to make good his payments and engagement for Goods he had purchased on account of the United States in conformity with instructions given him by the Secret Committee, and that he had engaged to repay the Commissioners when enabled to do it by remittances from America. Mr. Morris conceiving it of importance that Mr. Ross should be enabled to return the Monies thus advanced to him, proposed to the Committee that some cargoes of Tobacco laden on Continental Account, and then lying in Maryland and Virginia, might be consigned to the said Mr. John Ross for that purpose, as well as to reimburse him of his own advances, and the Committee concurring in this opinion authorized and empowered Mr. Morris by their Letter of the 30th January last to direct such consignments.

In conformity thereto, he immediately wrote to the Agents who had the care of the following Vessels and cargoes directing them to the Address of Mr. Ross viz:

- Snow Speedwell, Captain Kent, with 142 Hhds. tobacco.
- Brig: Braxton, Captain James, with 120 do
- Brig: Governor Johnston, with 476 do
- Brig: Morris, Capt. Gunnison, with 269 do

Total 1007

These assignments were made to the consignation of Mr. Ross before Monsieur de Francy appeared at Congress, which did not happen until the middle of February last; consequently cannot in any shape be construed or deemed as a breach of the contract afterwards made with him.

Your Committee find that Mr. John Ross has, in conformity with the instructions he received from the Secret Committee, purchased and shipped goods for the public Account to the Amount of £50,000 Sterling, of which the whole or nearly the whole are safely landed in America, and that he has received towards the Cost of these goods 450,000 livres from the Commissioners, equal to about £20,000 Sterling, and part of the neat proceeds resulting from sundry cargoes of produce and bills of exchange purchased with 90 M Continental dollars, equal to £33,750.
Pennsylvania Currency remitted to him, which we cannot reasonably expect to realize above £15,000 St. Consequently a balance of £15,000 Sterling remains due to him, besides the advances he has made for the cost of the ship Queen of France and her Outfit, by order of the Commissioners. These Debts being contracted, recognized and the consignments of the four cargoes of tobacco ordered previous to the contract with M: De Francy, Your Committee are of opinion said Cargoes ought to go forward to address of M: John Ross agreeable to the instructions given by M: R. Morris.

Ordered, That the cargoes of the snow Speedwell, of the brigs Brazton, Governor Johnston and Morris, now ready to sail from America for France, be consigned to the commissioners of Congress at Paris, who are directed to settle the accounts of Mr. John Ross with Congress, and to pay him the balance thereof out of the proceeds of the said cargoes; and the residue, if any, to the house of Hortalez & Co. as they judge proper.¹

Ordered, That the ship Virginia, now laying laden with a cargo of tobacco on public account in Virginia, be consigned to Messrs. Roderique Hortalez & Co., in Conformity with the Contract made with Mr. De Francy, and that such other Consignments and Remittances should be made to Messrs. Roderique Hortalez & Co., as can with convenience and propriety be accomplished, and that Mr. De Francy should be informed thereof, with an explanation of the circumstances set forth in this Report.²

Adjourned to 9 o’Clock on Monday.

¹ This paragraph, which did not form part of the original report, is in the writing of Francis Dana, and is in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 31, folio 183.² This report, in the writing of ———, is on folio 181. On folio 235 is the following, without date: "The Commercial Committee beg leave to Report that a warrant issue on the Treasurer in their favor for Three thousand three hundred and Thirty-three dollars, and one-third of a dollar, to be sent to Carter Braxton, Esq., for the purpose of fitting out the ship Virginia for the sea."
A letter, of 2d, and one of 3d, from Cornelius Sweers, were read: Whereupon, a motion was made for an order,¹

"That Colonel Benjamin Flower, commissary general of military stores, be immediately arrested and closely confined in the gaol in this town:"

To this an amendment was moved,

"That a member of this house be appointed forthwith to repair to the place where Cornelius Sweers, late deputy commissary of military stores, is confined, and to take the deposition of the said Cornelius Sweers, relative to the charge made by him against Colonel Benjamin Flower, for frauds in his office; and in case it should appear, on the deposition of the said Cornelius Sweers, that Colonel B. Flower is charged with frauds and malpractices in the discharge of his office, in such case notice be given to the Board of War, who are hereby ordered to arrest the said Benjamin Flower without delay, and to confine him in gaol, taking care to secure his money and effects, and all his papers of a public nature."

Écrit à Versailles, le 28 Mars, 1778. Votre bon ami et allié, GRAVIER DE VERGENNES.

A nos très chers grands amis et alliés les président et membres du Congrès général des États-Unis de l’Amérique Septentrionale.

The Minister was then announced to the President and the house: and having bowed and being bowed to according to the ceremonials, delivered the following speech: whereupon he arose and addressed Congress in a speech, which, when he had finished, his secretary delivered in writing to the President, and is as follows:

MSSIEURS: Les liaisons, que le roi mon maître a formées avec les États-Unis de l’Amérique lui sont si agréables; qu’il n’a pas voulu différer de m’envoyer résider auprès de vous pour les cimenter.

GENTLEMEN: The connexion formed by the king my master, with the United States of America, is so agreeable to him, that he could no longer delay sending me to reside among you for the pur-
Sa majesté apprendra avec satisfaction que les sentiments, qui se sont manifestés à cette occasion, justifient la confiance que lui avaient inspiré le zèle et le caractère des députés des États-Unis en France; la sagesse et la fermeté qui ont dirigé vos résolutions ainsi que la constance et le courage, que les peuples ont fait éclater. Vous savez, messieurs, que cette confiance a fait la base du plan vraiment amical et désintéressé sur lequel sa majesté a traité avec les États-Unis.

Il n'a pas dépendu d'elle, que ses engagements n'assurassent votre indépendance et votre repos sans effusion ultérieur de sang et sans aggraver les maux de l'humanité dont tout son ambition est d'assurer le bonheur; mais les dispositions et les résolutions hostiles de l'ennemi commun ayant donné à des engagements purement éventuels une force, actuelle, positive, permanente et indissoluble, le roi mon maître a pensé que les deux alliés ne doivent plus s'occuper que du moyen de les remplir de la manière la plus utile à la cause commune, et la plus efficace pour parvenir à la paix, qui est l'objet d'alliance. C'est d'après ce principe, que sa majesté s'est hâtée de vous envoyer un secours puissant: vous ne le devez, messieurs, qu'à son amitié, a l'intérêt sincère, pose of cementing it. It will give his majesty great satisfaction to learn, that the sentiments which have shone forth on this occasion justify that confidence with which he hath been inspired by the zeal and character of the commissioners of the United States in France, the wisdom and fortitude which have directed the resolutions of Congress, and the courage and perseverance of the people they represent; a confidence which you know, gentlemen, has been the basis of that truly amicable and disinterested system on which he hath treated with the United States.

It is not his majesty's fault that the engagements he hath entered into did not establish your independence and repose, without the further effusion of blood, and without aggravating the calamities of mankind, whose happiness it is his highest ambition to promote and secure. But, since the hostile measures and designs of the common enemy have given to engagements purely eventual, an immediate, positive, permanent, and indissoluble force, it is the opinion of the king my master, that the allies should turn their whole attention to fulfil those engagements in the manner most useful to the common cause, and best calculated to obtain that peace which is the object of the alliance.

It is upon this principle, gentlemen, his majesty hath hastened to qu'elle prend aux avantages des États-Unis, et au désir qu'elle a de concourir efficacement à affirmer, votre repos et votre prospérité sur des bases honorables et solides elle espère d'ailleurs, que les principes adoptés par les gouvernemens contribueront à établir les liaisons, que l'intérêt mutuel des peuples respectifs ait déjà commencé à établir entre eux. Le principale pointe de mes instructions est de faire marcher sur la même ligne les intérêts de la France et ceux des États-Unis. Je me flatte, messieurs, que ma conduite passe dans les affaires, qui les intéressent, vous aura déjà convaincu, que je n'ai point de désir plus cher que celui d'exécuter mes instructions de manière à mériter la confiance du Congrès, l'amitié de ses membres et l'estime de tous les citoyens.

GÉRARD.

To which the president returned the following answer:

Sir: The treaties between his most Christian majesty and the United States of America, so fully demonstrate his wisdom and magnanimity as to command the reverence of all nations. The virtuous citizens of America, in particular, can never forget his beneficent attention to their violated rights, nor cease to acknowledge the hand of a gracious Providence in raising them up so powerful and illustrious a friend. It is the hope and opinion of Congress that the confidence his majesty repose in the firmness of these states, will receive additional strength from every day's experience.

This assembly are convinced, sir, that had it rested solely with the most Christian king, not only the independence of these states would have been universally acknowledged, but their tranquillity fully established. We lament that lust of domination which gave birth to the present war, and hath prolonged and extended the miseries of mankind. We ardently wish to sheath the sword, and spare the further effusion of blood; but we are determined, by every means in our power, to fulfil those eventual engagements which have acquired positive and permanent force from the hostile designs and measures of the common enemy.

Congress have reason to believe that the assistance so wisely and generously sent, will bring Great Britain to a sense of justice and moderation, promote the interests of France and America, and secure peace and tranquillity on the most firm and honorable foundation. Neither can it be doubted that those who administer the powers of government within the several states of this union will cement that connection with the subjects of France, the beneficial effects of which have already been so sensibly felt.

Sirs: From the experience we have had of your exertions to promote the true interests of our country as well as your own, it is with the highest satisfaction Congress receive as the first minister from his most Christian majesty, a gentleman whose past conduct affords a happy presage, that he will merit the confidence of this body, the friendship of its members, and the esteem of the citizens of America.

In Congress August 6, 1778.

(Signed) HENRY LAURENS, President.

The secretary of Congress then delivered to the Minister a copy of the foregoing reply, signed as above.

Whereupon the Minister withdrew, and was conducted home in the manner in which he was brought to the house.

Adjourned to 9 o’Clock to Morrow.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 7, 1778

A letter, of 1, from Mr. Matthew Clarkson, auditor of accounts in the main army, was read, informing, "that when he was appointed to that office he was possessed of the commission of marshal of the court of admiralty for the State of Pennsylvania, which he still holds," and representing, "that his duty in that office now claims his attention, and that, therefore, he is constrained to tender a resignation of his office as auditor;" and begging "Congress will be pleased to accept it:" Whereupon,

Resolved, That his resignation be accepted.¹

The Board of War, to whom the petition of Captain Stoddard, of the 2d regiment of light dragoons, was referred, having made report, the same was read,

Ordered, To lie on the table.

A motion was made to amend the journal of yesterday, by inserting the names of the members of Congress who introduced the Minister; Whereupon, a question was moved whether, as the journal has been read, and other matters entered upon, such a motion was in order, unless by general consent.

Question put,

Resolved, That the motion to amend is not now in order.

The committee to whom was referred the letter of General Heath, to the Board of Treasury dated November 27, 1777, report,

That they have carefully examined the files and journals of Congress, so far as they respect the defence of the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations, and the rise of the expedition against the island of Rhode Island, and find: that at a meeting of the committees appointed by the states of New Hampshire, Massachusetts Bay, Rhode Island and Providence Plantations, and Connecticut, convened at Providence, on the 25th day of December, 1776, it was among other things resolved, "That it is the opinion of this committee, that while so large a body of the enemy is in possession of Rhode Island, it is necessary to keep 6,000 men in the State of Rhode Island to oppose them." That the proceedings of the said committees were laid before Congress, who upon the 15 day of February, 1777, resolved, "That, considering the situation of the New England states, Congress approve of the measures adopted and recommended by the committees from the four New England states, for the defence of the State of Rhode Island."

That, on the 16th day of April, 1777, Congress resolved, "That it be recommended to the general assembly of the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations to collect, with the utmost despatch, the whole force thereof, and therewith, aided by such parts of the militia of Massachusetts Bay, and Connecticut as are contiguous to the said State, to attack and destroy the enemy on the island of Rhode Island aforesaid: Resolved, That it be, and hereby it is recommended to the states of Massachusetts Bay and Connecticut, to give every assistance in their power, by calling out the militia of their respective towns which lie next to the State of Rhode Island, and to promote and execute this important service: that General Washington be directed to appoint such general officers as he shall judge proper to carry the foregoing resolutions into effect. Ordered, That a copy of the foregoing resolution be sent by express to General Washington, and the three New England states."

That at a meeting of committees from the states of New Hampshire, Massachusetts Bay, Connecticut, Rhode Island, and New York, held at Springfield, 30 July, 1777, it was among other things resolved, "that the State of Rhode Island be requested to fill up their two battalions as soon as may be, for the defence of that State; that the State of Massachusetts Bay be desired to hasten on the two battalions they have ordered for that purpose; that the State of Connecticut be desired to raise and equip one battalion of 728 men, with all speed, and direct them to the above service; and that the State of New Hampshire be desired to raise and equip 300 men, with all speed, and direct them to the above purpose." That on the 21 August, 1777, Congress resolved, "That fire-ships should be prepared to attack and destroy the British ships in the rivers and bays of the State of Rhode Island: That General Spencer be made acquainted with the foregoing resolve, and that he be instructed, as far as possible, to favour the said designs by such attacks or feints as he may judge proper, with the troops and boats under his command." That on the 13th day of January, 1778, Congress resolved, "That it be earnestly recommended to the states of New Hampshire, Massachusetts Bay, Rhode Island, and Connecticut, immediately to furnish and keep up constantly in the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations, for the defence of the said State, their several quotas of troops as adjusted by the resolution of a committee from the said states and the State of New York, which met at Springfield, the 30th day of July last." That Congress, on the 14 January, 1778, resolved, "That Ebenezer Hancock, Esq: deputy pay master general of the eastern district, be directed, forthwith, to appoint an assistant pay master, constantly to attend and pay the army stationed in or near Providence, for the defence of the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations, applying to Congress, from time to time, for the necessary supplies of money for the same; and that the commanding officer in the said State be fully empowered to draw on the said assistant pay master for the necessary supplies of the army aforesaid." That on the 17th of July, 1777, Congress resolved, "That General Spencer be informed, in answer to his letter of the 20th May, that Congress confirm the appointment made by him of William Peck, Esq. deputy adjutant general to the militia and state troops of Rhode Island, kept in continental pay; that for money to pay the said troops he is to make application to Eben-ezer Hancock, Esq. at Boston, deputy pay master general to the troops in the eastern department; and that as the quarter master general has the appointment of all his deputies, application is to be made to him for the appointment of a deputy quarter master general;" Whereupon,

Resolved, That the expence of the late intended expedition against the island of Rhode Island be borne by the continent.¹

The letter of the 4th² signed "by order of the board Tim. Pickering" was called for and read. Whereupon it was prayed that leave be given to withdraw the motion made on the said letter on Wednesday last, which was given, and the same withdrawn accordingly: And a resolution was moved in the words following:

"That it is the duty of the Board of War implicitly to obey and execute every order or direction of Congress agreeable to the terms of such order or direction, and that any neglect or delay in executing any order of Congress and every excuse for disobedience and any evasion to execute such order is a breach of duty and derogatory to the authority, honor and dignity of Congress. That the letter of the 4 instant signed, "By order of the board Tim. Pickering" cannot be considered the act of the Board of War, because the resolve of Congress of the 21 day of April requires that not less than three persons be present to constitute a Board of War: That T. Pickering, Esq. by writing the said letter, and Richard Peters, Esq., by assenting thereto, were guilty of a high insult to this house; That by requesting Congress to excuse them from an immediate execution of their order to arrest and safely keep Colonel B. Flower, they were guilty of a breach of duty; That by requesting Congress that a military arrest should be the only restraint on the person of Colonel B. Flower, they were guilty of a disobedience to the Authority of Congress; That their offering reasons to prove the innocence of Colonel Flower was insolent and affrontive; That by expressing their extreme pain and reluctance to carry the resolve of Congress to arrest and safely keep Colonel Flower, they were guilty of a disobedience to the power and authority of Congress, and that their conduct was insolent and affrontive to the honor and dignity of Congress." This resolution, in the writing of Samuel Chase, is in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 36, IV, folio 271. The amendment, in the writing of Francis Dana, is in No. 78, XVIII, folio 197.

An amendment was moved in lieu of the whole, in the words following:

Ordered, That Timothy Pickering and Richard Peters Esquires, commissioners of the Board of War, be forthwith directed to attend at the bar of this house, to answer such questions as may be put to them severally, touching an Order of this house of the 3d instant requiring the Board of War to arrest and safely keep Colonel Flower, and also touching a letter dated the 4th instant, signed "By order of the board Tim. Pickering," and directed to the president of the house.

After debate,

A motion was made, that the farther consideration of the letter, and several resolutions moved, be postponed till to-morrow.

The yeas and nays being required, by Mr. [Henry] Marchant:

So it passed in the negative.

The Question was then put on the motion:

Resolved in the affirmative.

A letter, of 8, from T. Pickering, Esq. and a letter of the same date from Major General Arnold, were read.

A letter, from B[enjamin] Randolph, appointed to superintend the making of paper for loan office certificates and bills of exchange, was read, wherein he informs that his engagements in the New Jersey will prevent his attendance on the business to which he was appointed, in less than two weeks from this time, and therefore praying, if the business require immediate attendance, that Congress will please to appoint some other person for the present.¹

²This report is in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 136, II, folio 439. At the foot is noted: “The Board of Treasury beg leave to remind Congress that the person appointed to superintend the making of Paper is not in town, and that the stuff now ready for to work will be spoiled if some person is not sent to the mill immediately. George Bright will attend; he is already reported from the Board.”
The Board of Treasury having also recommended a person to superintend the making of paper for loan office certificates and bills of exchange, Congress proceeded to the election, and the ballots being taken,

George Bright was elected.

Whereas, in pursuance of the recommendation of Congress of 2d March, a volunteer corps of cavalry from the State of Virginia, under the command of the hon. General Nelson, are now in this city, on their way to the army, under the command of General Washington: and, whereas, the removal of the enemy from this State renders the employment of this corps at present unnecessary:

Resolved, That it be recommended to the said corps to return.

Resolved, That the thanks of Congress be returned to the hon. General Nelson and the officers and gentlemen under his command, for their brave, generous and patriotic efforts in the cause of their country.

A DECLARATION

Whereas George Johnstone, Esq.' one of the British commissioners for restoring peace in America, on the eleventh of April last, did write and send a letter to ¹The letter of Mifflin is in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 161, folio 40; that of Washington, is in No. 162, VI, folio 211.

Joseph Reed, Esq. a member of Congress, containing this paragraph, viz. "The man who can be instrumental in bringing us all to act once more in harmony, and to unite together the various powers which this contest has drawn forth, will deserve more from the king and the people, from patriotism, humanity, and all the tender ties that are affected by the quarrel and reconciliation, than ever was yet bestowed on human kind." And, whereas, the said George Johnstone, Esq. on the sixteenth day of June last, wrote and sent a letter to Robert Morris, Esq. another member of Congress, containing this paragraph, viz. "I believe the men who have conducted the affairs of America incapable of being influenced by improper motives; but in all such transactions there is risk, and I think that whoever ventures should be secured, at the same time, that honor and emolument should naturally follow the fortune of those who have steered the vessel in the storm and brought her safely to port. I think Washington and the president have a right to every favor that grateful nations can bestow, if they could once more unite our interest and spare the miseries and devastations of war." Which letters were laid before Congress. And, whereas, the said Joseph Reed, Esq. hath in his place in Congress declared, that "on Sunday the 21 of June last, a few days after the evacuation of the city of Philadelphia by the British troops, he received a written message from a married lady of character, having connexion with the British army, expressing a desire to see him on business, which could not be committed to writing: that, attending the lady agreeable to her appointment in the evening, after some previous conversation respecting her particular connexions, the business and characters of the British commissioners, and particularly of Governor Johnstone (meaning the said George Johnstone, Esq.) were the subjects of general conversation, which being more confined, the lady enlarged upon the great talents and amiable qualities of that gentleman, and added, that in several conversations with her, he (Governor Johnstone) had expressed the most favorable sentiments of him (Mr. Reed,) and that it was particularly wished to engage his (Mr. Reed's) interest to promote the objects of their commission, viz. a re-union between the two countries, if consistent with his principles and judgment; and that, in such case, it could not be deemed unbecoming or improper in government, (meaning the British,) to take a favorable notice of such conduct; and that, in this instance, he (Mr. Reed) might have £10,000 sterling, and any office in the colonies (meaning these United States) in his majesty's gift, (meaning in the gift of his Britannic majesty,) to which, finding an answer was expected, he (Mr. Reed) replied, "He was not worth purchasing, but such as he was, the king of Great Britain was not rich enough to do it." And, whereas, the said paragraphs, written and sent as aforesaid, by George Johnstone, Esq. and the said declaration made by Joseph Reed, Esq. call loudly upon Congress to express their sense upon them: Therefore,

Resolved, That the contents of the said paragraphs, and the particulars in the said declaration, in the opinion of Congress, can not but be considered as direct attempts to corrupt and bribe the Congress of the United States of America.

Resolved, That as Congress feel, so they ought to demonstrate, the highest and most pointed indignation against such daring and atrocious attempts to corrupt their integrity,

Resolved, That it is incompatible with the honor of Congress to hold any manner of correspondence or intercourse with the said George Johnstone, Esq. especially to negotiate with him upon affairs in which the cause of liberty is interested.

A motion was made to add, "and, whereas, the conduct of the said George Johnstone, Esq. in the aforesaid particulars, unavoidably effects his colleagues in commission, and unfavourably impresses the mind, so that full confidence cannot be placed in them: therefore,

"Resolved, That Congress will not, in any degree, negotiate with the present British commissioners in America, for restoring peace:"

Resolved, That no passes be granted to any person or persons to go into New York, but by Congress or the Commander in Chief; and that General Arnold be directed to recall any pass or passes he may have given to any persons going to New York from the city of Philadelphia, who have not yet gone under such passes.

The committee to whom was referred the report from the Treasury of the 15 April last, brought in a report, which was read.

The Committee to whom was referred the Report from the Treasury of the fifteenth of April last beg leave to report:

That it appears necessary to organize the several Treasury Departments immediately, for the following Reasons:

1st. Because the Adjustment of the Finances of the United States, now much deranged, cannot be made without arranging that Office, which will in all Instances more or less affect them.

2dly. Because until this be done, it will be impracticable to call the several States to account, and even Individuals, much less to have those frequent Accounts, which can alone check Fraud and regulate the Expences of a Community.

3dly. Because the Attention which Congress are under the Necessity of paying to the particular Disbursements of the public Money, together with the Variety of other Business, which as well as this ought to be transacted elsewhere, prevent them from applying to the greater Affairs of the Continent. And, ¹This report, in the writing of Gouverneur Morris, is in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 19, III, folio 387.

4thly. Because the Arrangement of every Department should have an ultimate Reference to the Manner of doing Business at the Treasury, and therefore until that be fixed, the other cannot be adjusted.

That it appears to your Committee the following Particulars should be attended to in the Business referred to them:

1st. That no more Persons should be appointed than are necessary: Since Numbers increase the Expence, delay Business, and give greater Room for Corruption and for the Concealment of Frauds, Indolence or Inattention.

2dly. That there be proper Checks devised to prevent as much as possible those who are intrusted with the public Monies from converting it to their own Use. And those who are to examine the public Accounts from Collusion with the Creditors of the public, or with its Debtors.

3dly. That Congress may be enabled to see with Precision the Manner of Expenditures, and the Amount. And know the state of the public Debts, and the Produce of the public Revenue.

Under these Ideas your Committee submit to the Consideration of Congress the following Arrangement, viz:

That for conducting the Affairs of the Treasury there be three [principal] Officers, a Comptroller, a Treasurer, and an Auditor; That each of them be allowed the sum of Dollars per Annum, and the sum of Dollars per Annum for the Expence of an Office and Clerk.

That it shall be the Duty of the Comptroller to keep the Seal of the Treasury. That he shall receive the Accounts transmitted to him by the Auditor with the Vouchers, which he shall examine, and thereon shall determine to whom the several Sums audited are payable, and whether the same are payable by the United States; in which case he shall draw a Bill on the Treasurer in the following form annexed, and marked A., to which he shall affix the Treasury Seal: and if the same are not payable by the United States, then he shall redeliver the Vouchers thereof to the Auditor and mark them “not passed.” That he shall keep regular Books containing the Accounts by him passed, in which Books a separate Account shall be opened between the United States and each Individual or State, and shall transmit monthly Accounts to Congress of the Monies by him drawn for and in whose favor. That he shall affix the Treasury Seal to all Loan Office Certificates, and shall deliver them to the Treasurer, whose Receipt for the same he shall file; and shall transmit monthly Accounts thereof to Congress specifying therein the Dates and Amount of such Certificates. That he shall receive from the Treasurer Receipts for the Monies by him received and shall thereon give a Discharge in the Form annexed and marked B., which he shall sign and affix thereto the Treasury Seal, and transmit the same to the Auditor to be indorsed, rendering a monthly Account as aforesaid. That he shall receive of the several Loan Officers monthly the Certificates which shall not have been by them employed, and shall give thereof a Receipt in the Form annexed and marked C., which he shall sign and transmit to the Auditor, to be indorsed, rendering monthly Account as aforesaid. That where a Resolution of Congress shall direct the Payment or Application of Monies he shall from Time to Time draw Bills on the Treasurer agreeable to such Resolutions in the Form annexed and marked D., which he shall sign and thereto affix the Treasury Seal, and transmit the same to the Auditor to be indorsed, rendering monthly Accounts thereof as aforesaid. That he shall keep a Book for the Entry and Record of Loans made to the United States by Persons who shall choose to put Money in [a Fund to be called the Confederate]¹ Fund; and, upon receiving the Treasurer's Receipt therefor, shall make Entry thereof in the Form annexed and marked E.; a copy of which Entry under the Seal of the Treasury shall be given to the Party, and when he shall receive a Power of Attorney from the Person in whose Name the Entry is made, in the Form annexed and marked F., duly authenticated by a Writing in the Form annexed and marked G., which Authentication shall be under the Hand and Seal of such public Ministers or Officers as Congress shall from Time to Time direct, he shall file such Power of Attorney and authentication. And whencesoever and as often as the Attorney therein named shall by Indorsement in the Form annexed and marked H., transfer all or any part of the Stock of his Principal, he shall make an Entry thereof in the Form annexed and marked I., opposite to the Entry above mentioned and marked E.; and also an Entry in the Form annexed and marked K. And he shall make regular Entries of the Interest arising on such sums as aforesaid on the Debit Side of the said Accounts or Entries, and whenever and as often as any Interest shall be paid thereon, he shall make Entry on the Credit Side of the same Accounts; of all which Sums so lent and being due, together with the Interest payable and paid, he shall monthly render an Account to Congress.

That where an Account shall be transmitted to him from the Auditor on which Monies shall be due to the United States, he shall hear the Party, if he chuse to be heard thereon, and shall then fix the Day of Payment and shall thereof notify the Auditor and Treasurer in the Form annexed and marked R.

That it shall be the Duty of the Treasurer to keep the Monies and Loan Office Certificates of the United States. That he shall issue the Monies upon Bills for that Purpose to be drawn by the Comptroller under the Treasury Seal, and shall file Duplicates of the Receipts for such Monies with the Auditor, and render Accounts thereof to Congress monthly. That upon Receipt of Monies paid into the Treasury, he shall give his Receipt therefor in the Form annexed and marked L., of which he shall also render Accounts monthly to Congress. That he shall monthly issue Loan Office Certificates to the several Loan Officers, and take Receipts for the same in the Form annexed and marked M., to which shall be annexed Schedules containing Lists of the Certificates issued, and which Receipts he shall transmit to the Auditor to be by him entered and indorsed, and shall transmit Accounts thereof to Congress monthly. That he shall also receive such Monies as shall be put into the [Confederal]¹ Loan aforesaid, and give a Receipt in the Form annexed and marked N., of which he shall also render monthly Accounts to Congress.

That it shall be the Duty of the Auditor to audit all Accounts brought against the United States, and also to call all Persons to account who may be indebted to the said States; that for these Purposes there be two Chambers of Accounts, the one to be called the Chamber of Claims, and the other the Chamber of Debts, each to be composed of three Persons, who shall each of them have a Salary of Dollars per Annum.

That the Chamber of Claims shall digest and state all Accounts brought against the United States, examine the Vouchers, &c., as the Auditor shall direct and shall take Care that Articles furnished and Services done be not overrated, or if so, then to reduce them, after which they shall transmit the same to the Auditor with the Vouchers, marking the said Accounts examined. Thereupon the Auditor shall again examine the Accounts and compare them with the Vouchers and reduce any Demands which may be exorbitant, and having caused them to be entered in his Books, mark them in the Form annexed and marked O., and transmit them [with the Vouchers]¹ to the Comptroller. That the Chamber of Debts shall digest and state all Accounts of Persons who are, or are supposed to be indebted to the United States, and also all those who may be called to Account in Manner hereafter mentioned; that they shall conduct their Business in like Manner as the Chamber of Claims, and the Auditor shall in like Manner as before examine and enter the Accounts; and where Monies are due to the United States shall mark the Accounts in the Form annexed and marked P., and transmit the same to the Comptroller to be filed, and render monthly Accounts to Congress. That when an Account shall be returned to the Auditor of Articles not passed, he do deliver the same with the Vouchers to the Party, and make Entry thereof and render Account as aforesaid. And where Discharges shall be transmitted to him of Persons who have paid Money into the Treasury, he shall enter the same in his Books and endorse them thus “Entered of Record in my Office, the Day of U. Auditor.” That where any Person hath received public Monies which remain unaccounted for, or shall be otherwise indebted to the United States, or have an unsettled Account with them he shall issue a Summons in the Form annexed and marked S., in which a reasonable Time shall be given for the Appearance of the Party according to the Distance of his Place of Residence from the Treasury; and in case he shall not appear, then on Proof of the Service in due Time, or of other sufficient Notice of the Summons, a Requisition shall issue under the Treasury Seal, but shall be made out in the Auditor’s Office in the Form annexed and marked T., which shall be directed to the executive Power of the State or States, in which the Party shall reside or be.

That it be recommended to the several States to enact Laws for the taking of such Persons, and also to seize the Property of Persons, who being indebted to the United States shall neglect or refuse to pay the

That the Loan Office Certificates be dated on the tenth Day of every Month respectively, and that Monies be received in the Loan Offices until the twentieth day of every Month and no longer.

That on the three last Days of every Month the Auditor and Treasurer and the Comptrollers do no other Business than to prepare their monthly Accounts for Congress.

That a Committee be appointed to prepare proper Books and other Blanks for the Use of the Treasury.

A letter, of the 1 August, from Mr. [Samuel] Huntington, one of the delegates from Connecticut, at Norwich, directed to the delegates of that State in Congress, was laid before Congress, and read, setting forth sundry evils and abuses in the hospitals in the eastern district: Whereupon,¹ ¹The draft of Washington’s letter is in the Washington Papers, A, III, 523, the letter of Sullivan is in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 152, VI, folio 251; that of Huntington, in No. 78, XI, folio 309.

Resolved, That the resolution of Congress of the 9 of June last, authorizing the deputy director general of the hospital in the eastern department, in the absence of the director general, to superintend the medical affairs of that department, be, and it is hereby repealed; and that the said hospital for the future be under the same regulations as the hospitals in the other departments.

Resolved, That the director general be directed to enquire into the state of the hospital in the eastern department, and give proper orders for the good government and economy thereof, and discharge unqualified and supernumerary officers, if any there be.

Whereas, it is of great consequence to the general weal that the enemy at New York should not be supplied with provisions, which may relieve the distress at present prevailing in their army and fleet; and for the more effectual execution of the embargo,

Resolved, That the vice president and supreme executive council of this State [of Pennsylvania,] be requested to station one of their gallies, under command of a vigilant officer, near the mouth of the Cape May channel, with orders to search all vessels that may be outward bound, either through Cape May channel or the Delaware; and if any such shall be found exporting provisions contrary to the embargo, that they be brought before government, to answer for such, their misconduct.

Resolved, That the governor of New Jersey be requested to take the most effectual measures to enforce the due observance of the embargo, as Congress consider it of the first importance to continue the distress prevailing in the enemy’s fleet and army at New York for provisions; and because there is reason to apprehend that the coast trade with provisions may be productive of supply to the enemy, either through the vigilance of the cruisers, or by ill designing avaricious men.

made inquiry into the same, beg leave to refer Congress to the inclosed state of facts signed by Mr. Straker; and to add that they have seen the article of co-partnership referred to by him between Mr. Straker and his brother in law, Mr. James Budden; that they find by Mr. Budden's information and letters, that Mr. Straker sailed for Barbadoes before the commencement of hostilities in April, 1775, and merely on the business of their co-partnership. That Mr. Straker during his absence did not draw his money on effects from hence, but on the contrary, transmitted a number of bills to his partner; and that the company have a large sum in the loan office of the United States. That Captain William Budden declares that he, during the enemy's possession of Philadelphia, wrote to Mr. Straker informing him that if he came to Philadelphia, he could easily pass from thence into the country—this also is certified jointly by him and his sister, Mrs. Wilson. That since Mr. Straker's return to Pennsylvania, he has taken the oath of allegiance and fidelity to the State.

That Mr. Straker, lately taken on board the ship Lord Howe, by the fleet of his most Christian Majesty, is, and ought to be considered as a subject of the State of Pennsylvania; and that the hon'ble the Sieur Gérard, Minister of his Most Christian Majesty, be desired to release the said Mr. Straker, and cause his property to be restored to him.

Ordered, that the said report and papers referred to, relative to Mr. Straker, be referred to the government of the State of Pennsylvania, to determine whether they will consider Mr. William Straker, lately made prisoner by the Count d'Estaing's squadron, as a citizen of the State of Pennsylvania; and if the said government shall determine to consider and receive the said Mr. William Straker as a citizen of their State, that they be desired to transmit a certificate of their determination to the Sieur Gérard, minister plenipotentiary of his most Christian Majesty.

The committee to whom were referred the papers relative to Cornelius Sweers and Colonel B. Flower, brought in a report, which was read: after debate, Ordered, That it be re-committed.

Ordered, That three members be added to the committee:
The members chosen, Mr. [Henry] Marchant, Mr. [John] Harvie, and Mr. T[omas] Adams.
The Committee on Foreign Affairs laid before Congress sundry letters and papers which they have received from the commissioners, agents and other persons who have transacted public business in Europe.

The Committee of Congress, in conjunction with the Committee appointed by the Supreme Executive Council of the State of Pennsylvania, to ascertain the property of the goods, wares, and merchandize, in possession of the inhabitants of the city of Philadelphia, at the time it was evacuated by the enemy, viz: so far as to determine whether any, or what part thereof, may belong to the King of Great Britain, or to any of his subjects. Beg leave to report, That they find Captain Stephen Backhouse, of Liverpool, in the Kingdom of Great Britain, came to the city of Philadelphia in December last, with a cargo of Liverpool salt, a part of which he deposited in a store, belonging to Joseph Prichard, on the lower side of Chestnut street wharf.

That on the twenty third day of the same month the said Stephen Backhouse, in behalf of himself, and one Nicholas Asheton, of Liverpool aforesaid, did consign the said salt to Messrs. Amos Foulke, an inhabitant of this city, and one William Backhouse, who came to this city from New York, last fall or winter, either with the enemy or some little time after. The form of the consignment is as follows, viz:

Messrs. BACKHOUSE AND FOULKE.

GENTLEMEN, The salt in Mr. Prichards and Mr. Barges stores, belonging to me and Mr. Asheton, of Liverpool, is 4255 bushels, which I consign to you for sales, and shall be glad you will dispose of it as soon as you can, but do not wish to have it sold for less than one dollar per bushel, but hope it will sell for more; and as you sell the salt, you will please to remit, in good bills, to Nicholas Asheton, Esq., of Liverpool.

I am Gentlemen, your humble servant

STEPHEN BACKHOUSE.

That the Keys of the store were, at the time of the consignment, delivered by the said Stephen Backhouse to the said Amos Foulke and Wm. Backhouse. That soon after the said Stephen Backhouse went to New York, that the said Amos Foulke, paid rent for the store during several months. That the said Amos Foulke, one of the consignees of said salt, and Alexander Wilcocks, an inhabitant of this city, do both of them allege and declare, that after several conversations had by, and between the said Alexander Wilcocks, and the said Amos Foulke, about the purchase of said salt, the said Alexander Wilcocks for himself, and John Wilcocks and William M'Murtrie, on the seventeenth day of June last, being the day before the enemy evacuated the city, did purchase 3,500 bushels of Liverpoole salt, then laying in the said Prichards store, at 7s. 6d., Pennsylvania currency, per bushel, which quantity of salt was supposed to be all the salt then remaining in the said Prichards store, of the said salt, imported from Liverpoole as aforesaid, and deposited there.

That a bill of Parcells for the same salt was, on the same day, made and given by the said Amos Foulke to the said Alexander Wilcocks, &c. And the said Amos Foulke further allidges that he made an entry of the sale on the same day in his books. And the said Amos Foulke and Alexander Wilcocks, both allege that the Key of the said store was delivered to the said Alexander Wilcocks on the same day, by the said Amos Foulke, and they both agree that no part of the purchase money hath yet been paid.

But whether under the aforerecited circumstances, the said salt ought now to be considered as the property of British subjects, the said Committee beg leave to submit to Congress.

Your Committee also beg leave further to sit upon the business committed to them.¹

Adjourned to 9 o’Clock to Morrow.

So it was resolved in the affirmative.

A letter, of this day, from Major General Arnold, was read,¹ which letter was accompanied with the proceedings and sentence of a general court martial on Frederick Verner, charged with acting as a spy and guide to the British Army; and sets forth, "that as the evidences do not appear sufficiently full and clear to touch the life of a citizen, he has suspended the sentence until the pleasure of Congress is known." The letter also was accompanied with the proceedings of a general court martial with their sentences against Adjutant Wallace, Patrick M'Mullen, and Henry Love, with sundry certificates, &c. relative to the matter; and sets forth, that "as the evidence against the two former is in his (General Arnold’s) opinion, insufficient to touch their lives, and as there are several circumstances in favour of the latter, he begs leave to \(^1\) Warton's letter is in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 78, XXIII, folio 517; that of Stoddard, in XX, folio 283.

Resolved, That an Inspector General of the Armies of the United States be appointed, with the Rank, Pay and Rations of a Major General.

Resolved, That the Duty of the Inspector General shall consist in forming a System of Rules and Regulations for the Exercise of the Troops in the Manual Manoeuvres and Evolutions, for the purposes of Service in Guards and Detachments, and for Camp and Garrison duty. That he shall also Review the Troops, Regiment by Regiment, once a Month while in the Field and Collected, or once in Three Months while in Garrison or Detachment, the former in Person, and the latter by his Assistants when he cannot personally attend; that at such Review he shall inspect the Number and Condition of the Men so far as regards the Health and apparent fitness for Service, examining into the Losses sustained by Sickness, Battle, Desertion or otherwise; the Recruits received, inspecting them and discharging such as are unfit for Service; he shall also upon the Recommendation of the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, discharge any Soldier who, by Infirmitv, Wounds or length of Service, is become unfit for Service, Certifying their Reward or Title to any public Provision. It shall be his Duty also to inspect the State of the Arms, Accoutrements, Tents, Camp Equipage and Clothing, observing what Arms have been lost or spoiled since the last Review, and as near as possible by what means.

If any Regiment is Deficient in Clothing, Arms, Accoutrements, Tents, or Camp Utensils after due Allowance for Wear and Use, he is to report to the Commander in Chief and Board of War, such deficiency, with the causes of it, so far as have come to his knowledge, at the same time advising in what manner these deficiencies may be supplied, and future Waste or Loss as much as possible prevented. For this purpose he is to be Authorized to call on the Commanding Officers of Regiments for exact returns of all these particulars. At the first Review and as much as possible afterwards, he must endeavor to ascertain the exact Strength of each Regiment, whether the Men are present, or on any out Duty, in Hospitals, on Furlow, or otherwise; he must furnish the Officers with Forms of all Returns he may require of them, and when any Error or Defect appears in the Administration or Discipline of the Troops, he is to report it to the Commander in Chief with the means of Redress.
August, 1778

It shall be the duty of the Inspector General to observe how far the present Articles of War are sufficient for the Discipline and good Government of the Army, and to Report with the approbation of the Commander in Chief, to the Board of War, fresh Alterations and Additions as may be necessary in order that Congress may adopt them if thought proper.

The Exercise and Manœuvring will be always under the direction of the Inspector General, all the new Manœuvres to be introduced by him, and old ones performed according to the established Principles under his Direction.

In the Performance of these several Duties, the Inspector General and his Assistants are Authorized to have the Troops under Arms when they desire.

Resolved, That there be an Assistant Inspector General appointed with the Rank, Pay and Rations of a Brigadier, and that such Assistant be always a Native of America.

Resolved, That there be one Lieutenant Colonel of Cavalry, one Lieutenant Colonel of the Light Troops, and four Lieutenant Colonels of Infantry appointed as Sub-Inspectors, all of whom are to Receive their Instructions, relative to the Discipline, Order and Exercise of the Army from the Inspector General, or in his Absence from his Assistant.

Resolved, That the Office of Brigade Inspector shall in future be annexed to that of Major of Brigade, who shall be one of the oldest Majors of the Brigade, appointed by the Commander in Chief: his Duty shall be to collect lists &c. of all the Battalions of his Brigade, to Keep the Details, and take care of the formation and March of all the Guards, Detachments, &c.; he is to Receive all the Orders and Communicate them to the Commanding Officer of the Brigade and Regiment, and thro' the Adjutants, to all the Officers of the Brigade. He is to inspect the Police of the Camp, the Discipline and order of the Service. He is to do no duty in the Line, except the whole Brigade is ordered into action.

Resolved, That each Brigadier be allowed an Aid de Camp for the Dispatch of his orders; that he be taken from the Line, under the Rank of Captain, and hold the same Rank as in the Line; that he be allowed Rations for himself, a Servant and two Horses.

Resolved, That the Inspector General, the Assistant Inspector General and Sub-Inspectors, hold Command in the Line according to their several Ranks and appointments, but that they shall be exempt from all common Camp and Garrison Duties, that they may attend more carefully to those of the inspection.

That the Inspector General be allowed Dollars per Month; the Assistant Inspector General Dollars per Month, in addition to their Pay as Officers in the Line for their Special Services as Inspectors.

Resolved, That the Inspector General and his Assistants be subject to the orders of Congress, the Board of War and the Commander in Chief only, so far as respects the Inspection of the army.

That all Rules and Regulations under this System be first approved and Authorized by the Commander in Chief, and either Published, or otherwise communicated thro' the Adjutant General to the Several Divisions of Brigades; that such Rules and Regulations be also transmitted to the Board of War with all convenient Dispatch.

Resolved, That all the Officers of Inspection are to be respected while in the Exercise of that Office according to their Function, and not their Rank; so that no Superior Officer is to refuse to have his Regiment mustered or Examined by an Officer of the Inspection, tho' of Inferior Rank: the Sub-Inspector is to attend the Major General of the Day, in examining whether the Duty of the Guards is performed according to Rule. When the Inspector is not present, the Brigadier or next Officer in Command is to Exercise and Maneuvre the Troops agreeable to the Principles and Rules laid down by the Inspector General. In Camp or Garrison when there is a Parade, the Inspector General, if present, or in his absence his Assistant, or the Sub-Inspector of the Day, is to exercise the Parade; but as soon as the General is beat, the Inspector leaves the further Direction to the General of the Day, or, if in Garrison, to the Commandant of the Place.

Resolved, That during a Review by the Inspector General or his Assistant, each Soldier shall have the privilege of leaving his Rank and presenting any Complaint or Grievance he may have, to the Inspector General or his Assistant; the Officers also, thro' the same Channel may prefer their Complaints, which are to be laid before the Commander in Chief.

August, 1778

So the states were equally divided, and the motion lost.

Ordered, That the farther consideration thereof be postponed to Tuesday next.

Adjourned to 9 o’Clock on Monday.

At a Board of War, August 22d, 1778.

Present, Mr. Duer, Col. Pickering, Mr. Peters.

The Board of War to whom was referred the letter of Genl. Washington of the 9d inst. on the subject of the intended Northern Expedition against the Indians, having maturely considered the same are of opinion,

That from the Want of early Preparations, the advanced Season of the Year, it being not only too late to begin the Supplies but also for the attempting to assemble a sufficient Body of Men at a proper Place of Rendezvous in Time to proceed in the Enterprize; the large Number of Men requisite for the carrying the Expedition thro’ with Safety and the Danger of weakening the Grand Army at this Time, much diminished by large Detachments; the greater Importance of the Objects which at this Time claim our Attention and to the Accomplishment whereof our whole Force is barely sufficient, and little Assistance to the intended Expedition to be expected from the Northern Militia, and the Probability that in a Change of Circumstances in this Quarter the Indian Ravages will cease of Course, it is impracticable and imprudent to proceed on the said Expedition. Wherefore, the Board beg Leave to report to Congress,

That the intended Expedition against the Senecas and other Hostile Tribes of the Northern Indians, mentioned in the Resolution of Congress of the 11th of June last, be for the present laid aside.

That Genl. Washington be directed to pursue such practicable Measures for the Defence of the Frontiers of the States exposed to the Incur- sions of the Northern Indians, as to him shall seem best adapted to present Circumstances calculated to check the Ravages of the Enemy and to protect the distressed Inhabitants of the said Frontiers.¹

MARCH, AUGUST 24, 1778

Ordered, That so much thereof as relates to the clothing department lie on the table:

That so much as relates to the new establishment of the army, be referred to the Board of War: and

That so much as relates to the hospital, together with Dr. Oliphant’s letter, be referred to the committee of arrangement.

Another letter, of 27 July, from Brigadier Moultrie, was read:

Ordered, To lie on the table.

A letter, of 10, from James Graham, of New York, was read:

Ordered, That it be referred to the delegates of South Carolina and Georgia.

A letter from Messrs. Hodgson & Brown, inhabitants of New Providence, taken on board the ship Charlotte by the fleet under the command of the Count d’Estaing, and confined in the new gaol of Philadelphia, was read, praying Congress to consider their case and to grant whatever indulgences their situation may be judged entitled to:

Ordered, That the said Messrs. Hodgson & Brown be informed, that they, being prisoners of his most Christian Majesty, and not inhabitants of any of these United States, their application for indulgence must be made to the minister of France.

1 The letter of July 20 from Moultrie is in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 155, folio 461; that of David Oliphant is on folio 485; that of the 27th from Moultrie is on folio 469.
August, 1778

A letter, of this day, from Colonel Wadsworth, commissary general of purchases, was read:¹ Whereupon,

Congress took into consideration the report of the committee on the letter 23 July, from the said commissary to his deputy Ephraim Blaine, Esq: wherein the said committee report as their opinion, "that the transportation of flour to the eastern states by sea, is wise and necessary." Whereupon,

Resolved, That the commissary general of purchases do procure in Pensylvania, Delaware, Maryland, and Virginia, on the most reasonable terms, 7000 twenty thousand barrels of flour: two thousand thereof to be exported to Providence in the State of Rhode Island, with all possible expedition for the immediate Consumption of the Troops stationed there, and the remaining five thousand to be exported to Boston, in the State of Massachusetts Bay, as soon as conveniently may be, for such public uses as Congress shall hereafter direct.

That the said commissary general of purchases be directed to procure vessels for the transportation of the flour aforesaid; and that he give timely notice of the sailing of the said vessels, and confer thereon with the Marine Committee, to the end, that convoy may be obtained for the same and the destination thereof be directed.²

The committee to whom were referred the papers relative to Colonel Benjamin Flower and Cornelius Sweers, for mal-practices in office, report,

"That having caused Cornelius Sweers's deposition to be taken, (the same being herewith presented) respecting his charge against Colonel Flower, having confronted Cornelius Sweers and Colonel Flower, together, the latter ¹This letter is in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 78, XXIII, folio 537.

²This report, in the writing of Gouvernor Morris, is in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 29, folio 117.
did positively deny all and every part of the charge against him by the former: that during Sweers's examinations, he appeared to be under fears and apprehensions; that during Colonel Flower's examinations, he appeared possessed of a confidence of his innocence with respect to the charge: that Colonel Flower gave in to the committee a written declaration, stating his conduct in office, which is also herewith presented: that having examined Henry Baker, therein mentioned, it appears that at or about the time of the battle of Brandywine, in Philadelphia, the said Cornelius Sweers did, as stated in the said declaration, make him give a receipt for more money than was by Sweers paid to him: that about the 22 day of June last, being ordered by Colonel Flower to arrest Cornelius Sweers, he, upon that occasion, told Colonel Flower of this conduct of Sweers: that Colonel B. Flower being farther examined, it appears he gave this order for the arrest of Sweers, being informed by Mr. Turnbull that a discovery had been made and laid before Congress, of several forgeries, supposed to be made by Sweers, in the public accounts he delivered into the treasury, and that this arrest was ordered before he, Colonel Flower, heard that Congress had given any such order. That it appears from Colonel Flower's public letter book, that he used his best endeavors to cause Cornelius Sweers to be apprehended without any loss of time: that it appears from Colonel Flower's examination that it was after Sweers's arrest, and while he was in confinement at Philadelphia, that he told Cornelius Sweers of his being informed, as stated in the declaration, that Cornelius Sweers had taken a receipt for more money than he had paid, which particular Sweers admitted, viz., that Colonel Flower had so told him: that Sweers, having been repeatedly questioned upon the point, as often declared he had not any charge to make against Colonel Flower, other than what was stated in his deposition, nor did he know of any other instance of mal-practice in Colonel Flower's conduct in his department: that upon the whole, it does not appear to the committee that there is sufficient evidence on the part of Cornelius Sweers to support a prosecution against Colonel Flower, whose integrity, in their opinion, stands
unspotted, notwithstanding the charge by Sweers:"
Whereupon, Congress passed the following resolution:

Whereas, after minute enquiry it has appeared to Congress, that the integrity of Colonel Benjamin Flower, commissary general of military stores, remains unspotted,
notwithstanding the charge by Cornelius Sweers, deputy commissary general of military stores, against Colonel Flower, for fraud in his office:

Resolved, That Colonel Benjamin Flower be discharged from his arrest, and permitted to resume the functions of his office.

Whereas, there are so many strong appearances of Cor-elius Sweers being guilty of divers forgeries and frauds against the public in his official transactions:

Resolved, That able counsel be retained on behalf of the United States, in a court of law to prosecute Cornelius Sweers, for the forgeries and frauds by him committed in office; and that the books and papers (except Sweers's deposition and letters relative thereto,) and the accounts in possession of Congress, relative to such mal-conduct, be placed in the hands of such counsel, as materials whereupon to ground the prosecution to form and support the charge; and further, that Colonel B. Flower be required to collect all necessary witnesses capable of demonstrating the frauds which are apparent in the public accounts, wherein forgeries are supposed to have been committed by the said Cornelius Sweers.\textsuperscript{1}

\textit{Resolved,} That the Board of Treasury be empowered and directed to employ the counsel above directed to prosecute Cornelius Sweers.

The Committee on the Treasury brought in a report:
Whereupon,

\textit{Ordered,} That the following warrants, amounting to three million of dollars, issue in favour of Jeremiah Wads- worth, Esq. commissary general of purchases, for the use of his department, viz.

One on the treasurer for two million eight hundred and fifty thousand dollars;

One on Thomas Smith, Esq. commissioner of the continental loan office in the State of Pennsylvania, for one hundred thousand dollars;

And one on Thomas Harwood, Esq. commissioner of the continental loan office in the State of Maryland, for fifty thousand dollars; for which sum of three million of dollars the said Jeremiah Wads worth is to be accountable.\textsuperscript{2}

A petition from Phineas Babcock, was read; Whereupon,

Resolved, That the Commander in Chief of the armies of the United States shall, in the army under his immediate command, and the commander of a separate department shall, in the army under his command, settle and determine according to circumstances, the ration to be issued to the troops, from time to time, giving an over proportion of a plentiful article in lieu and in full satisfaction of such as are scarce or not to be had, and which have been heretofore deemed part of the ration, reporting, from time to time, to the Board of War, the alterations and regulations by them respectively made in this respect.¹

Congress took into consideration the report of the committee to whom were referred the letters of Major General Gates, of the 22d July, and of Brigadier Parsons, of the 21 July, relative to clothings purchased by Major Bigelow, &c. Whereupon,

The Committee to whom were referred the Letters of Major General Gates of the 22d July, and of Brigadier General Parsons of the 21st July, relative to Cloathing purchased by Major Bigelow, and the distressed situation of the Connecticut Troops for want of Cloathes beg Leave to report:—

That from the certificates of sundry Officers belonging to the State of Connecticut it appears that they have received of Joseph Trumbull Esq' in the latter end of January last, Materials for making, as specified in the Abstract herewith annexed, which Materials were purchased by Messrs Otis and Andrews, Agents for the Cloathier General at Boston, and forwarded to Governor Trumbull in consequence of his request.¹

That it appears from a Letter of Messrs Otis and Andrews to M' Mease, Cloathier General, dated Boston, 30th June, 1778, that other Parcels of Cloathing had been delivered by Otis and Andrews in consequence of Governor Trumbull's desire; but as Receipts had not come to hand the particulars cannot be ascertained.²

That it appears by the same Letter, that Brigadier General Parsons had ordered a Parcel of Goods, purchased by M' Barrell on account of the United States out of the hands of the Person who had them in Care; but whether these Goods were appropriated to the Use of General Parsons's Brigade, or of what Particulars they consisted, does not appear.³

That the Materials furnished by Messrs Otis and Andrews were on or about delivered over to Major Bigelow, in order that he might superintend their being made, and forwarded to the Army, and that from Major Bigelow's Account, it appears that a very Considerable Part of this Cloth has been already made, and forwarded to the Army, and that the Remainder will be compleated in about 3 Weeks.

That it appears from a Letter to [from] M' Mease to this Committee that in Consequence of a Resolution of the 28th August last, and the Application of Major General Putnam, Major Peter Hughes was appointed an Assistant in the Cloathing Department at Fish Kills, some Time in October last, and that he continued to act therein till some time in June last.\footnote{Vide letter J Mease Aug. 1st, No. 3. Note by Committee.}

That in Consequence of Complaints made of the distressed Situation of the Continental Troops on the North River for Want of Cloathing, Congress on the 4\textsuperscript{th} March last,

Resolved, "That the Cloather General be directed to send an Assistant Cloather to be stationed with the Continental Army on the North River to Superintend the procuring and Distribution of Cloathing, "and in the mean Time that the Commanding Officer take such Order "as to Cloathing the Troops as Exigencies may require."\footnote{Vide Res. No. 4. Note by Committee.}

That Mr. George Measam, who acted as Cloather to the Northern Army, arrived at Fish Kills on or about the 20\textsuperscript{th} of June last from Albany.

That from the Declaration of Major Bigelow to your Committee, it appears that he was appointed to procure Cloathing for the Army under the Command of General Gates about the latter End of May last.

That the Return of Cloathing wanted for sundry Regiments in the Northern Army is signed by George Measam Assistant Commissary of Cloathing at Fish Kill, June 20\textsuperscript{th} 1778, and afterwards transmitted to Major Bigelow.\footnote{Vide No. 5.}

That it appears to your Committee, that at the Time this Return was signed by far the greatest Part of the Materials specified therein was actually arrived on Account of the United States, in the States of New Hampshire and Massachusetts Bay, and that a Considerable Part of the same was made up into Cloathes, Exclusive of Cloathing in the Hands of Messrs. Otis and Andrews at Boston sufficient for Cloathing 1500 or 2000 men.

That the Purchases of Cloathing by Major Bigelow were made in the State of Massachusetts Bay, in the latter End of June, and Beginning of July last, and that the Advance given for the same was from 11@ 1200 lawful for 1 Shilling sterling, equal to about 1500 Penn\textsuperscript{a} Currency for one sterling.\footnote{Vide No. 6.}

That it appears by an Account furnished to your Committee by Mr. Mease, the Cloather General that there is in the Hands of William Gardiner, Esq\textsuperscript{r}, at Portsmouth in New Hampshire, a quantity of Cloathing purchased by him on public Account at 4½ advance for one Livre, reckoning the Livre at 1 Shilling lawful, to the Amount of 7211 5.6, which Purchase was made in the Month of June last.¹

That a Quantity of Linen and Woolen Goods were purchased by M' Theodorus Barrell, of New London, for the Use of the United States at the Rate of 5 for one, on or about the 20th March last.²

From which Summary of Facts it appears to your Committee, that a very considerable Stock of Materials for supplying the Connecticut Troops has been delivered by Messrs' Otis and Andrews to the Order of Governor Trumbull; and detained by Brigadier General Parsons; that although the greatest Part of the same was delivered in the latter End of January, great Delays have happened in making up the same, the whole having not yet been delivered; That there being an Assistant Cloathier acting in the Department on the East Side of Hudson's River, at the Time Major Bigelow declares he received his Appointment, the Commanding Officer was not authorised under the Resolution of Congress of the 4th March last, to make an additional Appointment of a Person to procure Cloathing; That it was the Duty of M' George Measam, who signed the Return of Cloathing wanted for Sundry Regiments, which was transmitted to Major Bigelow to have made the said Purchases himself, or to have applied for the same to the Principal of the Department; That at the Time the purchases were made by Major Bigelow large Supplies of made and unmade Cloathing belonging to the U. States were stored in the State where the Purchases were made, notwithstanding which, your Committee being of Opinion, that Major Bigelow acted under an Authority, which he had Reason to deem sufficient, that his private Ruin may be involved in discharging what he conceived to be a public Contract, and that the Character of Major Bigelow is such as to induce a Belief that the Goods he purchased were contracted for on the best Terms he could procure them, beg leave to submit to Congress the following Resolutions:

That, it being represented by the Cloathier General to Congress, that an Assistant Cloathier was resident with the Army on the East side of Hudson's River at the Time when Major Bigelow declares he was appointed to procure Cloathing for that Army, the Commanding Officer in that Department was not warranted by the Resolution of Congress of the 4th of March last, to make an Appointment of any Person to procure Cloathing for the Troops in that Quarter.

² Vide letter Otis and Andrews No. 8.
That it was the Duty of Mr. George Measam to procure the Cloathing wanted for the Troops on the East side of Hudson's River, either by making the Purchases himself, or by applying to the Principal in the Cloathing Department; that from a Neglect of this the Public have been put to great and unnecessary Expenditures; and therefore that the Commissary General of Cloathing be directed to enquire and report to Congress the Reasons which induced Mr. Measam to deviate from the Regular Line of his Duty.

And whereas doubts have arisen whether the said goods might not have been purchased at rates lower than they were contracted for,

Resolved, That the Clother General be directed to make particular enquiry at what advance goods were sold at whole sale on the sterling invoice in the States of Massachusetts Bay and New Hampshire in the latter end of June last, and that he transmit the result of his enquiry to Congress as soon as possible.

Resolved, That a warrant issue on the treasurer in favour of James Mease, Esq. cloather general, for two hundred and ninety thousand dollars, to be by him paid to Major Bigelow, for the purpose of satisfying the contracts which he has made for cloathing, in consequence of orders given him by the commanding officer on the east side of Hudson's river, in pursuance of the resolution of Congress of the 4 March last; and that Major Bigelow settle his accounts with the commissary general of cloathing.

Resolved, That Major Bigelow, be, and he is hereby directed to deliver all the cloathing, which he has purchased into the hands of the cloather residing with the army on the east side of Hudson's river, as the same shall, from time to time, be made up; and that he transmit to the commissary general of cloathing, particular invoices of the goods he has purchased, and accounts of the deliveries made.¹

A letter, of this day, from Colonel Wadsworth, was read;¹
Whereupon,
Congress resumed the consideration of the report of the Board of War, of the 25 August, and thereupon,
The said Commissaries General also representing,
That great Difficulties attend the present Mode of receiving and Killing the Cattle sent to Camp by the several Purchasers; there being no Person whose particular Duty it is to examine the Fitness of the Cattle for the Consumption of the Army, or equitably to distribute them according to their Condition among the Divisions or Brigades; to condemn such Provisions as are unwholesome, to settle any Difference of Opinion which may arise on the Subject between the purchasing and issuing Departments, and to perform the Duties hereafter mentioned. That the Article in the old System, No. 14, is impracticable as every purchaser by that Article is to send a Deputy to see the Cattle he buys Killed, and this will introduce a Multitude of unnecessary People, and besides is impossible to be carried into Execution. That a[ldo] the issuing Commissaries in some Cases have received and given Receipts for Cattle, yet from hence in some Instances Partialities and Impositions have arisen, which are intended to be hereby prevented, and especially any undue Management, which may possibly happen between some of the Persons employed under the Heads of each Department. Agreed further to report,²

Resolved, That the commissary general of purchases be empowered and directed to appoint and remove, at his pleasure, an inspector of cattle, at a salary of four dollars a day, with an allowance of one ration a day, and forage for one horse:

That the duty of the said inspector shall be to receive and take account of the fat cattle at camp, from the several drovers; to inspect over the bullock guard and pastures; to superintend the butchers, and see that no cattle are killed but those fit for use; to keep accounts of the beef delivered to the brigade commissaries, and settle the same with them every month; to see that the hides and tallow are seasonably delivered to the commissary of hides, and to superintend and regulate every thing relating to beef cattle at camp.
