Ordered, That the said letter, with the papers enclosed, be referred to the Board of War.

The Committee on the Treasury brought in sundry reports: Whereupon,

That a warrant issue on the treasurer in favour of James Mease, Esq. cloathier general, for one hundred and thirty one thousand dollars, to enable him to answer sundry draughts of his agents; the said James Mease Esq. to be accountable.

That a warrant issue on the treasurer in favour of David Mosely, for 200 dollars, advanced him on account of his wages, printing the bills of exchange.

Resolved, That where accounts of back rations are presented to the auditors of the army, which, from death or distant removal, cannot be certified by the issuing commissaries, the auditors be empowered to settle such back-rations upon the oath of the party, and such other evidence as the circumstances of the case will admit.

2 This report is in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 136, II, folio 527.

3 This report, dated September 1, is in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 136, II, folio 513.
Resolved, That any person who has been or shall be appointed a brigade chaplain, and previous to his appointment shall have acted in that capacity, be allowed for the time of such service, after the date of the certificate of the brigadier or colonel commandant of his brigade to Congress, recommending him to the said office, the pay and rations or subsistence of such a chaplain, deducting the sums received as regimental chaplain.

Resolved, That each auditor of the army be hereafter allowed for subsistence one ration per day and fifty dollars per month:

That the auditors of each army be authorized to augment the pay of their clerks to a sum not exceeding seventy dollars per month.¹

Congress proceeded to the election of an auditor of accounts at the main army, and the ballots being taken, ²This report is in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 136, II, folio 517. The words in brackets are taken from the original report.

At a Board of War, August 28, 1778.

Present M' Pickering, M' Peters.

The Board have considered Gen' Arnold's letter referred to them by Congress, and procured from the Town Major a detail of the guard daily mounted in and near this city, which is annexed hereto. Besides the duty of the garrison, there is frequently occasion for escorts and small parties to be furnished out of the troops stationed here. Some allowance too should be made for casualties. The Board are therefore of opinion that the number of militia asked for by Gen' Arnold is not too great, and beg leave to report,

Whereas General Washington has required that the continental troops in Philadelphia be sent to join the main army, and that they be replaced by the city militia:

Resolved, That the supreme executive council of the State of Pennsylvania be requested to call out immediately three hundred of the militia of the State, to serve as guards in the city of Philadelphia, and perform such other military services as shall be required of them.

At a Board of War, Aug. 7th, 1778.

The Board having received an application from Col' Proctor of the Artillery Regiment raised in Pennsylvania, desiring that the Regiment may be considered as Part of the Quota of Pennsylvania as the Men were entirely recruited in that State, and representing that the Council of that State do not think proper to furnish Money for the State Bounty on the present Footing of the Regiment, Agreed to report to Congress.

Resolved, That the artillery regiment raised in Pennsylvania, commanded by Colonel Thomas Proctor, be considered as part of the quota of troops to be furnished by that State, which is to be credited for the men now in the regiment, and also for any which shall be hereafter recruited therein; and that the government of the said

State be requested to furnish Colonel Proctor with the State bounty, to enable him to fill up the regiment to its complement of men:

That the committee of arrangements be directed to consider the state of the officers of the said regiment, and regulate the same in the manner and according to the rules adopted by them with respect to other artillery regiments.¹

War Office, August 29, 1778.

Present M' Peters, M' Pickering.

The Board having considered the cases of Messrs. Führer and Klein-schmit, lately first Lieutenant in the Hessian corps in the service of the King of Great Britain, as stated in the letter of His Excellency Genl Washington, referred to this board on the 18 inst. having also conferred with the Baron Steuben on the subject, are of opinion

Resolved, That, a new corps of troops be raised by the name of the German volunteers, to consist of such deserters from the foreign troops, which have been or shall be in the service of the king of Great Britain, as shall be disposed freely to inlist therein:

That this corps be inlisted for three years or during the war, and receive the usual bounty and cloathing allowed to the troops in the service of the United States:

That each non-commissioned officer and soldier who shall inlist into the said corps, and bring with him the several articles of cloathing enumerated in a resolve of Congress, passed the sixth of September, 1777, and sufficient for one year's service, shall receive therefor the sum of fifty-six dollars, and so in proportion for any parts of such cloathing at the rates there fixed; the money allowed for such cloathing to be paid by the cloathier general or one of his deputies, who shall charge the articles so paid for as cloathing issued to the corps:

¹This report is in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 147, II, folio 167.
September, 1778

That Lieutenants Fearer [Führer] and Kleinsmit [Kleinschmit] have, for the present, the pay of captains in the service of the United States, and be empowered to inlist the deserters aforesaid, preferring such as they can induce to leave the service of the enemy; and that captains' commissions be granted them, provided that within three months from this third day of September, each shall have inlisted at least thirty men.¹

War Office, September 24, 1778.

Present, M' Duer, M' Peters, M' Pickering.

The Board have considered Gen' de Kalb's letter relative to Lieut. Charles Juliat, referred to them by Congress; they have also conversed with M' Juliat, and find that Gen' Pulaski would receive him as a volunteer in the infantry of his corps, but, he has not the means of subsisting himself in that character; yet from Gen' de Kalb's recommendation, and because encouragement has been given for foreign officers to quit the Enemy's service, we are of opinion he should be employed. If his services are approved, he may have a commission hereafter either in the legion, or the corps of German volunteers, as Congress shall please to order, the board being of opinion that Lieutenants Führer and Kleinschmit already reported to Congress are sufficient to make the experiment of recruiting for the latter corps. The Board therefore beg leave to report,

It being expedient to appoint some head to superintend the recruiting, and to command the corps of German volunteers, proposed to be raised, and Major Klein appearing to be a suitable office for that purpose, the board beg leave to report,

Major Klein having resided in America more than a year, and his circumstances and character being fully known to divers members of Congress the Board judged it unnecessary to mention the reasons of their recommending him to the office above mentioned.²

That Major Klein be appointed lieutenant colonel of the corps of German volunteers.

¹This report, dated August 29, is in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 147, II, folio 241.
²This report, dated September 2, and prepared by Timothy Pickering, is in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 147, II, folio, 251.
Resolved, That Lieutenant Charles Juliat be permitted to serve as a volunteer in the infantry of General Pulaski's legion, and have the pay and subsistence of a lieutenant for his support:

At a Board of War, September 24, 1778.

Present, M' Duer, Col Pickering, Mr. Peters.

The Board taking into consideration the Letter from Dr. Franklin herewith sent and having conversed with Mons Girard who agrees to serve as a Volunteer at his own Expense, but is desirous of having a Commission of a Lieutenant of Dragoons by Brevet to be made Use of in Case of his being made Prisoner by the Enemy: Agreed to report to Congress,

That Monsr. Girard be appointed to the rank of lieutenant of dragoons by brevet, and be permitted to join the army under General Washington as a volunteer, he having agreed to serve in that capacity at his own expense. 1

Resolved, That the intended expedition against the Senecas and other hostile tribes of the northern Indians, mentioned in the resolution of Congress, of the 11 June last, be for the present laid aside:

That General Washington be directed to pursue such practicable measures for the defence of the frontiers of the states exposed to the incursions of the northern Indians, as to him shall seem best adapted to present circumstances, calculated to check the ravages of the enemy, and to protect the distressed inhabitants of the said frontiers.

Resolved, That Samuel Ashe, Esq. take rank as captain of the first troop of North Carolina dragoons, from the 7th day of May, 1777:

That Benjamin Mills, Esq. take rank as lieutenant in the same troop, from the 15th of July, 1777:

1This report, in the writing of Richard Peters, is in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 147, II, folio 253.
That William Buford, Esq. take rank as ensign in the same troop, from the 16 day of July, 1777; and that commissions be granted them accordingly.\(^1\)

Ordered, That the report of the Board of War, on the representation of Colonel G. Morgan, be re-committed:

WAR Office, August 14, 1778.

Col': George Morgan, purchasing Commissary for the Western department, having represented to this board the necessity of preparing immediately for the laying up such magazines of provisions as shall be sufficient for the troops maintained for the defence of that frontier; the board desired information of the number of men necessary to be kept up there on the present plan, the posts at which they are stationed, and their use.

He accordingly presented such a state to the board, from which it appears that thirteen hundred men would be requisite for the above purpose. That to supply them with provisions ten months, or 304 days (viz from the first of Nov'. 1778 to the 31st of August 1779,) it will require 617,500 lb of flour, a like quantity of fresh beef, or 494,000 lb of pork, including one quarter for accidents and waste. That the cost of these provisions, and the charges attending their purchase and transportation, will amount to 200,000 dollars, to which he has added 4,000 for 1,500 gallons of whiskey. Col': Morgan also at the request of the Board, procured from M': William Willson (whom he represented as well acquainted with them) an account of the present state of the western Indians, from which it appears. That the whole number who are hostile, do not exceed 330 fighting men; That these are settled from about 150 to 300 miles distance from Fort Pitt. That within the same distances, there are about double that number of Indians at present friendly.

Col': Morgan is of opinion, that on account of these hostile Indians, and the Northern tribes (the Senecas especially) it will be necessary to keep up the number of men before stated, except 150 of them proposed as the garrison of Fort Randolph, which being two hundred miles distant from the settlement of the inhabitants of Virginia, he thinks, is on the defensive plan, of little or no use; and even if offensive measures were meditated that 'tis of small consequence, its distance from the most hostile Indians being as great as that of Fort Pitt.

\(^1\)These are based on a letter from the Board of War, dated August 15, prepared by Timothy Pickering, in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 147, II, folio 187.
From this view of facts which are particularly stated in the papers accompanying this report, the Board submit to Congress whether it is not expedient,

That Col. George Morgan, Commissary of purchases for the Western department, be furnished with thousand dollars to enable him to form magazines of provisions for the use of that department the year ensuing—

The Board beg leave to add, that if it should be unnecessary to maintain such a number of troops on the frontiers, the provisions will be ready for any services down the Mississippi: But that unless measures are taken for forming the magazines immediately, it will be difficult, if not impossible to form them at all.

By order of the Board,

Tim. Pickering.

War Office, Sept. 17, 1778.

The Board have farther considered the subject of the foregoing report, and consulted Genl Hand, who has lately returned from Fort Pitt; and are of opinion that the whole sum asked for by Col. Morgan, viz. two hundred and four thousand dollars, will be necessary to enable him to lay in the provisions requisite for the troops kept up on the western frontiers, and which must be maintained, to prevent the inhabitants abandoning their extensive settlements. This sum is the more certainly necessary as flour has been raised to an enormous price since the estimate was made.

By order of the Board

Tim. Pickering. 1

That the report of the Board of War, respecting Major Mullens, be referred to the Board of Treasury. 2

A motion was made,

That Congress do, till the 1st November meet every morning in the week, sundays excepted at 9 o'clock, and sit till 2; and every afternoon, Sundays, Wednesdays and Saturdays excepted, meet at 4 and sit till 9 o'clock.

1 This report, in the writing of Timothy Pickering, is in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 147, II, folio 175. It is endorsed: "Read, 13 [3] September 1778, recommitted. Passed 1 December 1778."

2 The report is a letter from the Board of War, dated August 29, and prepared by Timothy Pickering, and is in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 147, II, folio 229.
A motion was made to amend, by striking out the last 9, and instead thereof, insert 6; and the yeas and nays being required by Mr. [William Henry] Drayton:

So it was resolved,

That Congress do till the first of November next, meet every morning at 9, and adjourn at 1 o’clock, unless all the members present shall consent to continue sitting; and every afternoon, Wednesdays and Saturdays excepted, meet at 3 and adjourn at 6 o’clock, unless it shall be determined by a majority to continue sitting; provided always, there shall be no debate on the question for adjournment.

A motion being made relative to "the requisition" of the Earl of Carlisle, Sir Henry Clinton, and William Eden, Esq. "respecting the troops lately serving under Lieutenant General Burgoyne," and relative to the removal of the said troops from their present place of confinement:

Whereas Congress did on the 13th day of January last Resolve in the manner following, to wit:

Whereas the Declaration of Lieutenant General Burgoyne in his Letter of the 14th November last to Major General Gates that the Public Faith is broke on the part of these States, and other Reasons set forth in the Resolution of Congress of the 8 January instant, compelled Congress to adopt Measures for securing the Performance of the Convention of Saratoga on the Part of the Court of Great Britain, whereby the Embarkation of Lieutenant General Burgoynes army has been necessarily suspended; and whereas the subsistance of that Army in the State of Massachusetts Bay is not only extremely burthensome to these States, but tends greatly to distress the Inhabitants of the Country, wherein they are quartered, and it is contrary to the Principles of Justice that these States should suffer Inconveniences from the Conduct of Lieutenant General Burgoyne, which could not be foreseen at the Time when the Convention of Saratoga was entered into.

Resolved, That General Washington be directed again to require of General Howe proper passports for Vessels to transport to Boston salted Meat, Flour, and Fuel necessary for the subsistence of Lieutenant General Burgoyne’s Army, during the time they shall be necessarily detained in the State of Massachusetts Bay in Consequence of the resolution of Congress of the 8th January instant, and that Gen’l Howe be informed that in case of his refusal to comply with this just Request, these States will not deem themselves answerable for subsisting General Burgoyne’s Army agreeable to the Terms of the Convention of Saratoga but shall think themselves at liberty to remove or separate the said Army to such Parts of the State of Massachusetts Bay as they may be conveniently subsisted in until the Convention of Saratoga shall be ratified by the Court of Great Britain, and properly notified to Congress.

And whereas General Howe has not only declined granting Passports but neglected to send Timely and Sufficient Suppllies of Salted Meat, Flour, and Fuel for the Subsistence of General Burgoyne’s Army, whereby the Prices of the Necessaries of Life have been enormously enhanced to the great Distress of the Inhabitants of the Town of Boston, and to the Injury of the Public.

Resolved, that General Heath in concurrence with the President and Council of the State of Massachusetts Bay be directed forthwith to take immediate Measures for the Removal of the Convention Prisoners to such Parts of the Massachusetts Bay as in their Opinion they can be most conveniently furnished with Supplies, especially with the Article of Flour.

Resolved, that whenever General Clinton or the Commander in Chief of the British Army, shall grant the necessary Passports for American Vessels to transport salted Meat, Flour and Fuel to Boston necessary for the Subsistance of the Convention Prisoners, or shall cause to be transported thither sufficient salted Meat, Flour and Fuel for that Purpose, Major Gen’l Heath in Concurrence with the President and Council of the State of Massachusetts Bay shall be authorized to remand the said Troops to their former Quarters.1

1 This motion, in the writing of William Duer, is in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 36, I, folio 31. It is endorsed as “presented 3 September.”
Ordered, That the consideration be postponed till three o’clock to morrow.

The members chosen, Mr. [Titus] Hosmer, Mr. S[amuel] Adams, and Mr. [Richard Henry] Lee.

According to order, Congress took into consideration the motion relative to the requisition made by the Earl of Carlisle, Sir Henry Clinton, and William Eden, respecting the troops of the convention of Saratoga, which was read as follows:

Whereas Congress, did, on the 8 day of January, 1778, resolve "that the embarkation of Lieutenant General Burgoyne and the troops under his command be suspended till a distinct and explicit ratification of the convention of Saratoga shall be properly notified by the court of Great Britain to Congress:

Resolved, That no ratification of the convention of Saratoga, which may be tendered in consequence of powers, which only reach that case by construction and implication, or which may subject whatever is transacted relative to it to the future approbation or disapprobation of the crown or parliament of Great Britain, can be accepted by Congress."

ratification would be subject to the future ratification of the British parliament, without which it would be of no validity: therefore, resolved, that Congress will abide by their demand of a ratification by the court of Great Britain, duly notified to Congress; and therefore that the said requisition be not complied with."

lin, Esq. and the minutes of the privy council of the State of Delaware: Whereupon,

A motion was made || to resolve,||

"That Congress consent to the exchange of William Franklin, Esq: late governor of New Jersey, for John M’Kinley, Esq. late president of the State of Delaware, agreeable to the proposition of General Sir Henry Clinton:"

In lieu of which the following resolution was moved by way of amendment:

Whereas Hugh Wallace, Esq. one of the counsel under the crown of Great Britain, of the late colony, now State of New York, was, amongst other persons in the said State, disaffected to the liberties of America, made prisoner by General Washington, Commander in Chief of the army of the United States, with the concurrence of the legislature of the State of New York, and sent under his parole into the State of Connecticut; and whereas, the said Hugh Wallace having been permitted by his Excellency Jonathan Trumbull, Esq. governor of the State of Connecticut, to go into the city of New York on his parole, to return when demanded by him or General Washington, has, on a requisition made by General Washington to the said Hugh Wallace to return and surrender himself agreeably to his parole, refused to comply with the same, and has been countenanced in such refusal by the officer commanding in New York. Inasmuch, therefore, as it is essentially necessary to the prosecution of this war upon equal principles, that measures should be adopted for compelling persons who are prisoners under parole within the lines of the enemy, and who refuse to return, to abide by those principles of good faith and personal honour, which are observed by those who are permitted to return on their parole within the American lines:
Resolved, that John M'Kinley, Esq. late president of the State of Delaware, who has been made prisoner by the British forces, [and who] has been permitted to return on parole within the American lines, in order to solicit an exchange for William Franklin, Esq. late governor of New Jersey, be not permitted to return within the British lines, in order to surrender himself on his parole, till such time as the said Hugh Wallace, Esq. shall surrender himself on his parole to General Washington, or be exchanged for the said John M'Kinley, Esq. and all officers in the service of the United States are hereby ordered not to suffer the said John M'Kinley to pass within the enemy's lines.

That the Council of the State of Massachusetts Bay be requested to Enquire what Expences have necessarily accrued in maintaining the Sons and Daughters above mentioned, since the Death of the General, in order that the same may be refunded out of the public Treasury to the Persons who have advanced the same.

The Committee of Commerce report,
That there is now on board the brig Braxton, 117 hogsheads of tobacco, shipped on freight for account and risqe of the United States; that the said tobacco hath been shipped upwards of a year, and that the vessel was detained by the British frigates the greatest part of that time, and the rest by means, first of springing a leak, and secondly, by a stroke of lightning, which dissasted and disabled the vessel from proceeding: that the Continent is liable to make good the damages as insurers, and to pay a heavy demurrage as freighters;
That the owners of said brig being offered a price for this vessel and cargo as she lies, which they think will make them compensation, offer to discharge the Continent from the charter, provided the committee sell them the 117 hogsheads of tobacco on board the said brig, at five pounds Virginia currency per cent. which the committee think adviseable; Whereupon,
Resolved, That the Committee of Commerce be authorized to make sale of 117 hogsheads of tobacco on board the brig Braxton, to the owners of the said brig, on the terms proposed in the above report, and to receive payment for the same, on account of the United States; for which the said committee [is] to be accountable.¹

"R. H. Lee is informed that Mr. Carmichael did some time in the last spring or winter say in Nantes that he knew Mr. Deane had misapplied the public money, and that Mr. Carmichael did in strong terms reprobate Mr. Deane’s conduct both in his public and private character: That Mr. Carmichael said an open rupture had taken place between Mr. Arthur Lee and the gentlemen at Passy; that they had come to a resolution to do business without consulting Mr. Lee on any occasion, and that he (Mr. Carmichael) knows the excuse will be made to Congress that the French ministry have desired it, tho' he does not doubt that desire has arose from Mr. Deane's insinuations. In the above State no notice hath been taken of the Loan of 5,000,000 Stg. in Europe, so far as relates to the Interest; wherefore your Committee proceed to state their Opinions relative to the same.

They propose that the several States having large uncultivated Territory, beyond what is in their Power to govern, be called on to cede the same to the United States on the following Terms.

1st That the present Value of the Territory be estimated and compared with the present value of the Territory now cultivated or the private Property of Individuals, and a deduction made in the Apportionment of the Expences of the War from the Quota of such State, both the Value and Expences to be fairly estimated.

2. That it be covenanted with the States that the Lands set off shall be erected into separate independent States, to be admitted into the Union, to have a Representation in Congress, and to have free Governments in which no Officers shall be appointed by Congress, other than such as are appointed through the other States.

3. That a Negotiation be set on Foot with the Monarchs of France, Spain and Portugal, to pay or secure the Payment of the Interest of our Loan.

4th That it be attempted to borrow 5,000,000 Stg. in the following Manner, viz.

That a Tract of Territory containing from twenty to forty Millions of Acres be set off within natural Boundaries, and divided into 10,000 Shares or Lots.
That every Person subscribing for £500 Stg. be entitled to a Share, as follows, viz., that if at the End of ten Years Congress shall not pay him £1000 Stg. he shall thereafter in his Option take his Share of the said Lands in Fee; and if the same shall not then be worth 1000 Stg. that he be entitled to the Deficiency which shall be on loan at 5 per cent.; and if Congress at the end of ten years shall tender the Money, and he shall not think proper to accept it, then it shall at his Option be at Loan at 4 per cent redeemable in 5 Years.

That an Office be opened for the Transaction of the Business of the said Loan, and that if any Sales be made of the Lands, the same shall be for Sterling Money, to be paid into the said Office in specie, there to remain as a future Security to the Persons who shall have subscribed as aforesaid; of all which records shall be kept for the Inspection of Persons interested and their Agents.

5th That if the above Method shall not be found expedient or productive of a sufficient Sum, then that it be attempted to borrow 5,000,000 Stg. in the following Manner, viz.

That another Tract of Territory containing from twenty to forty Millions of Acres be in like Manner as above set off and divided.

That Subscriptions be taken from 500 Stg. and upwards, the persons so subscribing to receive 4 per ct. Interest and the Principal to be redeemable in four yearly Payments after ten Years.

That upon Default of Payment the Party have Right to so much Land within the said Boundaries as shall be of full Value of the Debt due to him, to hold the same in Fee.

That an Office be opened, and on Sales the Money deposited as above.

6th: That if neither of the above Methods shall be found expedient or sufficiently productive, then that it be attempted to borrow 6,000,000 Stg. in the following manner, viz.

That every Person subscribing thereto shall be entitled to receive 5 per cent Interest and the public Faith of the United States pledged for Redemption of the Principal in four yearly Payments after ten Years.

7th: That in order to expedite the Loan the several Propositions abovementioned be set on Foot together, and as the latter Mode may be preferred, and also as the Loan Office Certificates will require Sums in Europe for Interest, that the Negotiation with France, &c. be for the Interest of 5,000,000 Stg. or 120,000,000 Livres at 6 per cent, or 7,200,000 Livres or 8,000,000 Livres annually for ten Years to be repaid by the United States after that Period. And in order to lay the Foundation of the above Business with Certainty and Despatch, that two Committees be appointed, one to go to the Northward and one to the Southward to negotiate with the Legislatures on the following Points.

1st To accede to the Confederation.
2nd To the above Propositions relative to Lands.
3rd To the several Propositions relating to a sinking Fund.
4th To the cancelling the several State Emissions and a Covenant not to issue more.
5th To the Propositions relating to Lotteries and Banks, and that when the several Propositions abovementioned are agreed to or any of them, that it be referred to a Committee to reduce the same properly to Resolutions.
All which is submitted.¹

Resolved, That sixty copies of the said report be printed for the use of the members, and that the printer be under an oath not to divulge any part of the said report, nor to strike off more than sixty copies, and to deliver to the secretary of Congress the said copies, together with the proofs and unfinished sheets.²

Resolved, That the members of the house be enjoined not to communicate the report or any part of it, without leave of the house.

An amendment was moved after "any part of it" to insert "except to the assemblies of the respective States."

A letter, of this day, from the Board of War was read, with a letter of the 17, from Thomas Bradford, deputy commissary of prisoners.³

That so much of the said letter as relates to Mr. Frank's refusal to supply British prisoners with wood or necessary clothing, be referred to the Board of War.

A report from the Board of War was read, respecting the mode of supplying our prisoners in the hands of the enemy, from time to time, with money:

At a Board of War, September 18, 1778.

Present, Mr. Peters, Mr. Pickering.

Congress having directed this Board to report a plan for the payment of the Sums, which may from time to time be due to Officers and Soldiers of the United States, for their pay and rations while in captivity, we beg leave to report:

That the accounts of all prisoners, who shall hereafter be released from captivity, for the pay and subsistence due to them, while in the actual possession of the Enemy, be received and adjusted by the said Commissary General, who, after charging them with the Monies he shall have supplied them, shall certify the Sums due thereon, to the Pay master General, the deputy pay master General of any Military department, or Pay master of the Board of War and Ordnance, as shall be most convenient for the prisoners respectively, which sums shall be paid by the said paymasters upon Warrants to be given therefor as usual for other payments by them made.

That the accounts of all prisoners heretofore released from Captivity, for their pay and subsistence while in the actual possession of the Enemy, and of all prisoners whatsoever, for all matters previous and subsequent thereto, be and they are hereby directed to be settled by the Commissioners of Accounts at Camp, or those where Congress shall sit, according to the convenience of the Prisoners respectively, each Board communicating their Settlements to the other to prevent malpractices or mistakes.

That all officers, while they continue prisoners on parole, shall receive their pay and subsistence, of the paymaster General, or deputy pay master General of the department in or nearest to which they reside, by warrant from the Commander in Chief or General officer commanding in the department, or of the paymaster to the Board of War and Ordnance, by warrant from the Board, these subordinate Pay masters to transmit accounts monthly, to the Pay master General of all such payments.

That for defraying the expenses of officers and soldiers released from captivity, on their way home, or to join their regiments, the said Commissary General of Prisoners and Commissioners of Accounts respectively, in settling the accounts aforesaid make an allowance of one Day's Pay and rations for every twenty Miles such Officers and Soldiers had or have to travel to their homes, in case of the expiration of their time of service, or release on parole, or, if otherwise, to join the Regiments.

That the Pay master General, and other persons, having already paid or advanced Monies, to Prisoners, send accounts thereof, immediately to the aforesaid Commissioners of Accounts.

That the Commissary General of Prisoners be allowed a Clerk, to enable him to perform the extra duty above assigned him, to assist him in the usual business of his department, and perform the duties and receive the pay and rations of a deputy Commissary of Prisoners.¹

Ordered, That the consideration thereof be postponed.

The President laid before Congress the letters which he had received some time ago, and of which he had informed Congress upon the receipt thereof and afterwards, when he desired to know the sense of the house concerning them, as some of them were not directed to him as President, but as delegate from South Carolina, and all contained matters of private as well as public nature, and of which Congress declined to receive extracts:

²These letters of Governor Clinton are in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 67, II, folios 130 and 134.
A letter, of 19th, from Colonel [Michael de] Kowats, was read:

Ordered, That it be referred to the Board of War.

Ordered, To lie on the table, till the affairs of the cloathier’s department are taken into consideration.

A delegate from Maryland read in his place, an extract of a letter from the governor of that State, respecting the measures taken, or to be taken, for cloathing the continental troops, and particularly those of that State; also a delegate from Pensylvania laid before Congress an extract from the minutes of the assembly of that State, desiring to be informed "whether Congress have on hand a sufficient quantity of cloathing for the troops for the ensuing winter;"2 Whereupon,

In pursuance of a recommendation by the Board of Treasury,

Resolved, That Mr. Benjamin Armitage be appointed to superintend the making of paper for loan office certificates and bills of exchange.

The committee to whom was referred the letter of 23 June, from Major General Howe, having brought in a report, the same was taken into consideration; Whereupon,

1 Kowats’s letter is in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 78, XIII, folio 487; that of Mease, in XV, folio 381.

2 These extracts are in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 69, 1, folio 553.
That the present situation of the State of Georgia by reason of the frequent inroads and depredations of the Floridans and Indians is truly alarming and render it absolutely necessary for the security of the said State, that the Military force raised for the defence and support thereof be kept up and paid in Continental Currency.

It further appears to your Committee, that the State of Georgia hath made large emissions of Currency far beyond their ability for the support of the Continental Troops, and other emergencies arising from their situation as a Barrier State, that the paper currency now in circulation in said State greatly exceeds any medium on which the value of paper currency can support any credit, and the considerable depreciation which has happened has fallen in a great measure on the officers and soldiers of the United States, who thereby have suffered uncommon hardships. To remedy the evils of this depreciation and to alleviate the sufferings of the soldiery, all which have happened before the State of Georgia could procure supplies of Continental currency, your Committee are therefore of opinion, that the immediate establishment of a Military Chest in the said State is absolutely necessary, and that it should be as regularly supplied as the service may require.

Your Committee therefore recommend the following resolutions.

Resolved, That a warrant issue on the treasurer in favour of Joseph Clay, Esq. deputy pay master general in the State of Georgia, for one million of dollars, for the purpose of establishing a military chest in the said State, and that it be forthwith transmitted to him by the Board of War; he to be accountable.

And, whereas it appears to your Committee that it may frequently happen from the great distance, that the Military Chest may be expended, and that several sums of money may also be wanted for the support of the departments of the deputy Commissary, the deputy Clothier General, and the deputy Quarter Master General in the said State, be it therefore Resolved that the Deputy pay master General be empowered to pay such sum or sums as may be wanted for said officers, each of them respectively to be accountable, and delivering in a proper Account of their expenditures at the time of payment; and the more effectually to enable the Deputy pay master General to perform this service, he is hereby authorized to draw on the Continental Treasury, from time to time, for such sum or sums as may be requisite for the said purposes, transmitting with such Bills a regular Account of the expenditures, and also an Account of the expenditure at the end of every month, that may be made out of the monies sent or hereafter to be sent him.

Your Committee also remark, that they do not think themselves as competent to ascertain, what share of prizes taken by the Continental Troops and Gallies under the command of Colonel Elbert, may belong to General Howe, as the Board of War. They therefore are of opinion that the determination thereof be referred to that Board.¹

Ordered, That so much of General Howe's letter, as relates to what share of the prizes taken by continental troops may belong to the commander of the said troops, be referred to the Board of War.

Application being made by the delegates of South Carolina for an advance of 50,000 dollars, for that State:

Ordered, That it be referred to the Board of Treasury.

A motion being made, that the Board of War do appoint a suitable person to proceed immediately to Trenton, or wherever the legion under the command of Count Pulaski may be, and cause the said legion to be mustered, selecting such non-commissioned officers and privates as shall, upon due enquiry, be found to have been prisoners or deserters from the enemy; that such non-commissioned officers and privates be not permitted to proceed to the army, but return to Philadelphia, and there deliver up their horses, arms and accoutrements to the quarter master general and commissary of military stores, the men to be disposed of as Congress may hereafter direct:

On motion, that the consideration thereof be postponed,

The yeas and nays being required by Mr. [Joseph] Reed,

That Dollars may also be advanced, for the purchase of a Cargoe of Flour for the Ship Chase, ordered by Congress to be laden for the Eastern States.¹

A memorial from James Ællers, one of the owners of the Duck Creek pacquet, was read;² Whereupon,

Congress took into consideration the report of the committee to whom was referred the petition from the said James Ællers and Henry Horn, and thereupon,

The Committee to whom was referred the Petition and Memorial of James Ællers and Henry Horn, Report,

That having examined into the case, as well on behalf of the Petition as on behalf of the Public, it appears, That about a week before the Battle of Brandywine, Anthony Butler, acting as Deputy Quarter Master General in Philadelphia during the sickness of Quarter Master General Mifflin, received orders from the Board of War to press into the Public Service all the Shallops and Schooners in the port of Philadelphia. That the day after the Battle of Brandywine, he ordered Thomas Carrol to press the Schooner Duck creek packet (the Schooner mentioned in the Petition): that the schooner was pressed accordingly on the same day, she being then commanded by and having on board a Master appointed by the Petitioners: that the said Master was continued in the command of the said Schooner; that he was ordered to proceed to Chester to receive on board a number of wounded Soldiers to be brought up the Delaware; that the said Master put on board by the Petitioners, instead of obeying these orders sailed down the Delaware, passed by Chester and without stopping proceeded and joined the Enemy below, with whom he continued with the Schooner, until she was taken from the Enemy; she was afterwards condemned as lawful prize in the Court of Admiralty at Dover, and no appeal against the Decree hath been made.

Your Committee, having considered these facts, are of opinion, that had the Schooner been permitted to have remained in the possession of the Petitioners, it is possible they might have seen cause to have removed the said Master from the command of their Schooner, and thereby have put it out of his power from running away with her; whereas by their being deprived of the possession of her, they were deprived of an opportunity that might have offered to have preserved her. From which, as it appears the loss in some degree arose from the public interference in the case, or rather, that it deprived the Petitioners of an opportunity which might possibly have happened to prevent the loss, your committee are of opinion the public should bear some part of it. Therefore they recommend that the Petitioners be paid in full satisfaction on the part of the public for the loss of the Schooner, a sum of money equal to one half of what she sold for under the Decree of the Court of Admiralty at Dover.

Resolved, That the loss of the schooner Duck Creek packet ought not to be sustained by the United States, and that General Mifflin be served with a copy of this resolution.¹

The committee on the memorial from Colonel Blaine, &c.|| and letter from Colonel Hollingsworth,|| brought in a farther report, which was taken into consideration.

Three o’Clock, P. M.

A letter, of this day, from Mr. Chief Justice M’Kean, was read; Whereupon, Congress came to the following resolution:

Whereas complaint has been made to Congress that Brigadier Count Pulaski has resisted the civil authority of this State:

Resolved, That the Board of War do require his personal attendance at the war office, at nine o’clock to morrow morning, and that he continue in Philadelphia until enquiry can be made therein, and until the further order of Congress; it being the fixed determination of Congress to discourage and suppress every opposition to civil authority by any officer in their service.

Congress resumed the consideration of the report of the committee on the memorial from Colonel Blaine, &c.|| and letter from Colonel Hollingsworth;|| and thereupon came to the following resolutions:

Whereas the scantiness of crops of wheat and other grain in the states of New York, New Jersey, Pensylvania, Delaware, Maryland, and Virginia, and the wicked arts of speculators, forestallers, and engrossers, who infest every quarter of the country, and are industriously purchasing up grain and flour at the most exorbitant prices, render it impracticable to obtain timely and sufficient supplies for the operations of the army and navy, unless the most vigorous measures are, without delay, adopted, to restrain practices so destructive of the public weal:

Resolved, That it be earnestly recommended to the legislative, or, where vested with sufficient power, to the executive authorities of the states above mentioned, to authorize and direct any civil magistrate within their respective jurisdictions, on an information given by the commissary or quarter master general, or by the deputy commissary or quarter master general of the respective districts, of any extraordinary quantity of grain or flour being purchased and in the possession of individuals, forthwith to issue his warrant empowering the informant to seize the same for the public use, paying for the same such equitable price as may be agreed on by the possessor and the officer obtaining the warrant; and that in such case, where the parties cannot agree, an appeal be made by either to the supreme executive authority of the State where the seizure may be made; and that they fix the price at such rate as in their opinion will not operate in future as an inducement to individuals to speculate on, and engross provisions, with an intent to enhance the price on the public, [paying for the same such prices as may to the respective legislatures appear proper, to prevent the practice of engrossing those articles in future, not exceeding six dollars per hundred for flour, and in proportion for grain, which may be found in the hands of engrossers.]¹

And, whereas, the facilitating the supply of the army, which was one of the principal objects in laying the embargo, has been defeated by individuals purchasing up grain and flour with a view of exporting the same at the expiration of the term for which the embargo is laid in the respective states:

Resolved, That it be earnestly recommended to the Legislative and Executive Authorities of the respective States to continue in Force the present Embargo subject to such Exceptions as are recommended by the Resolutions of Congress of till the last Day of Jany. 1779 next or till such Time as Congress shall give Notice to the respective States that sufficient Supplies have been obtained for the Operations of the army and for the French Squadron; and that it be recommended to the said Legislatures to authorize the Seizure and Forfeiture of all Grain and Flour (other than what may be Sufficient for family Use) which may be purchased up by Individuals during the Continuance of such Embargo.

Resolved, That the embargo on provisions, which, by the resolution of the 8th day of June last, was laid until the 15 November next, be continued in force, subject to such exceptions as are recommended by the resolution of the 2d September, till the last day of January, 1779, or until such time as Congress shall give notice to the respective states that sufficient supplies have been obtained for the operations of the army and for the French squadron; and that it be recommended to the respective states to take the most effectual measures for carrying this resolution into effect.¹

On considering this part of the report, the committee having offered, as their opinion, "That it be earnestly recommended to the legislative or executive authorities of the respective states to continue in force the present embargo, &c."

¹This was a substitute for the preceding paragraph.
An amendment was moved, that Congress should continue the embargo, and recommend it to the states to take measures for enforcing it:

So it was resolved in the affirmative, and the report being amended, the resolution passed as above.

Resolved, That it be farther recommended to the legislatures of the several states to pass laws for the seizure and forfeiture of all grain and flour other than what may be sufficient for family use, which may be purchased up by individuals during the continuance of such embargo, purchased up or engrossed, with such exceptions and under such limitations and restrictions as they may think most expedient.¹

And, whereas, there is reason to believe that the end proposed by Congress in recommending an exemption from embargo, by their resolution of 2 September, may not only be defeated by private purchasers enhancing prices, or by captains making false protests and bearing away to foreign ports; but in cases where vessels may actually arrive in some ports of the eastern states, the cargoes may be engrossed by individuals at an extravagant rate, with a view of preying upon the public; to guard against which evils,

Resolved, That it be earnestly recommended to the legislative and executive authorities of the respective states, not to grant any exemption from embargo to any vessels whatever, unless, in addition to the former security recommended, the persons applying for the same, comply with the following stipulations, to wit:

That the shipper or shippers of the cargo solemnly make oath, that no part of the flour or grain proposed to be shipped has been purchased or contracted for since the 10th day of October, 1778:

Washington be directed to take immediate measures for preventing the enemy from occupying a post at Chemung, and for repelling the invasions of the savages on the frontiers of New York, New Jersey, and Pensylvania.

THREE O’CLOCK, P. M.

The committee to whom was referred the letter from the council of war of the State of Rhode Island, of the 11 June last, to the delegates of the said State, report, "That the said State having, in December last, appointed Mr. John Reynold agent cloathier for that State, agreeably to a resolution of Congress, and no instructions having been forwarded to the said agent, by the cloathier general, and applications having been made and pressed upon the said agent by the military officers in the said State for cloathing, under the restrictions and limitations of the resolutions of Congress of the 22 [26] November, 1777; the council of war for the said State advised the said agent cloathier to supply the officers of the two continental battalions raised by that State with necessary cloathing, receiving from them, till he should receive farther orders, four shillings lawful money for what cost one shilling sterling, which was thought to be in just proportion to the wages of the officers; and the assembly of the said State having, agreeably to the recommendation of the convention at Springfield, and the subsequent approbation of Congress, ordered a brigade to be raised for twelve months from 16 March last, and assigned the officers the same pay as those in the continental service, did, on the 31st of May last, pass an order that the agent cloathier should supply them with cloathing, and at such prices as are specified in the said resolve of Congress of the 22 [26] of November last, upon their producing a certificate from Major General Sullivan, of the proportion to be furnished them respectively, agreeably to the same resolve; and, upon the application of General Sullivan to the said assembly, they passed an order that all the continental officers doing duty in the said State, although not belonging to the continental battalions of the same, should be supplied in like manner: And because the said several transactions of the said council of war and legislature of the said State were done and made from the necessity of the officers in the said department, and for want of the necessary instructions of the cloathier general for these purposes, the said legislature directed their delegates in Congress to lay the same before Congress for their approbation: whereupon the committee are of opinion, that the said transactions, advice, and directions of the said council of war and legislature, and the advance of clothing made by the said agent cloathier, in consequence thereof, were advisable, and agreeable to the spirit and intention of the said resolution of Congress of the 22 [26] November, 1777:” Whereupon,

Resolved, That Congress do approve of the said transactions, advice and instructions of the council of war and legislature of the State of Rhode Island, and of the advance of clothing made in consequence thereof by the agent cloathier.\(^1\)

The president addressed Congress as follows:

"Gentlemen: I informed you yesterday that I had received a letter from Mr. Izard. I have since perused it and find in it traits reflecting highly on Doct. Franklin in his public character; I have observed in this, the rule which guided me in the late case of Mr. Izard’s letters. I have communicated the contents of the letter and papers accompanying it to no body. I have consulted no body, I act according to my own judgment unbiassed and impartial. Mr. Izard’s wish that these papers may be com-

I therefore offer the letter and papers; if the house is pleased to receive and have them read, I will deliver them to the secretary for that purpose. At a Board of War, October 2, 1778.

Present, Mr. Duer, Colonel Pickering and Mr. Peters.

The Board having taken into Consideration the Petition of Capt. Francis Tartanson, referred to them by Congress have examined into the Facts therein set forth and find, That Captain Tartanson being a supernumerary Officer was sent to North Carolina to recruit, and on being appointed in the New Arrangement, came back with Col. Hazen's Regiment to Camp. That he incurred considerable Expence in his Journey to North Carolina, beside the Loss of an Horse, and whether Congress will think him entitled to the Expences of his Journey to N. Carolina as an Officer sent on Command or not, the Board are in Doubt, as no Allowance has heretofore been made to Officers in like Circumstances. His Baggage appears to be lost thro' a Want of Care, and the Board cannot ascertain its Value but from his own Account. It appears that he has conducted himself well while in our Service, that he is a brave Man and has been wounded at Germantown Battle. He is in Distress, and the Board can only recommend him as an Object of the Generosity of Congress, if they think it prudent to extend it. But as the Board have not discovered any Precedent for reimbursing Officers, however they may be Objects of private Concern, who have lost Baggage or Horses not in Battle, and are of Opinion ill Consequences...
October, 1778

would flow from establishing a Precedent, we therefore beg Leave to report to Congress,

That the Petition of Captain Francis Tartanson, late of the 3d N. Carolina Regiment, praying a Compensation for Baggage and an Horse lost by Accident and not in Battle, be dismissed.¹

Ordered, That the said paper of intelligence be committed to a committee of five:

The members chosen, Mr. G[ouverneur] Morris, Mr. [William] Duer, Mr. [John] Mathews, Mr. [Richard Henry] Lee, and Mr. [Elbridge] Gerry.

The committee to whom was referred the intelligence of the enemy’s design to send certain seditious papers into these states, under cover of flags, brought in a report; whereupon, Congress came to the following resolution:

Whereas Congress, on the 22 day of April, 1778, did resolve, that any man, or body of men, who should presume to make any separate or partial convention or agreement with commissioners under the crown of Great Britain, or any of them, ought to be considered and treated as open and avowed enemies to the United States: and whereas Congress have received intelligence that the commissioners of the king of Great Britain are about to send, under the sanction of a flag, certain seditious papers, under the name and title of manifestos, to be distributed throughout these United States, with a view to stir up dissentions, animosities and rebellion, among the good people of these states: and whereas such practices are contrary to the laws of nations, and utterly subversive of the confidence necessary for those means which have been invented among civilized nations to alleviate the horrors of war; and therefore the agents employed to distribute the said papers are not entitled to protection from a flag, while engaged in the prosecution of such nefarious purposes:

Resolved, That it be recommended to the executive powers of these United States, to take up and secure in safe and close custody all and any person and persons who, under the sanction of a flag or otherwise, may be concerned or engaged in the purposes aforesaid: and farther, that the papers aforesaid be printed in the several gazettes, more fully to convince the good people of these states of the insidious designs of the said commissioners.

Ordered, That the committee have leave to sit again.

The committee to whom was referred the letter from Major General Heath, brought in a report; Whereupon, Congress came to the following resolutions:

Whereas Congress, on the 11th day of September last, resolved and directed, that application should be made to Sir Henry Clinton for passports to American vessels to transport provisions and fuel to Boston, for the use of the prisoners under the convention of Saratoga; the said passports to be subject to such restrictions as should be agreed on between the Generals Washington and Sir Henry Clinton; and that General Washington inform General Clinton, that if such passports be not granted within three days after application made, or measures adopted by him for sending to the port of Boston ample supplies of provisions and fuel for the convention prisoners, on or before the 5th day of October, Congress would deem themselves justifiable in removing the said prisoners to such part of the United States as they can be best subsisted in: and whereas application has been made, and information given, to General Sir Henry Clinton, pursuant to the resolution aforesaid, but to no effect; and whereas the continuing the troops before mentioned in the State of Massachusetts bay, or any of the eastern states, and subsisting them there, if practicable, will be very prejudicial to the inhabitants of the said states:

Resolved, That General Washington be directed, if neither of the alternatives mentioned in the above resolve have been complied with, to take the necessary steps for removing, with all convenient speed, all the prisoners of the convention of Saratoga to the town of Charlottesville, in the county of Albemarle, in the State of Virginia.
In debating this resolution, a motion was made, after the word "Saratoga," to insert the words following, "to the barracks at Lancaster and Yorktown, in the State of Pennsylvania, to Fort Frederick, in the State of Maryland, and:"

The Court of Appeals beg leave further to report that by the laws of the State of Massachusetts Bay, from all Judgments or Sentences given in the Court of Admiralty on the Capture of any vessel by an armed vessel of the United States, an appeal is allowed to the Continental Congress. But where the Capture is made by any other armed Vessel than those in the Service of the United States, an appeal is allowed only to the Superior Court within the State. In this case the privateer Revenge which took the prize ship Anna Maria was fitted out by certain Individuals in the State of Massachusetts Bay, and therefore the Judges holding themselves bound by the Laws of the said State, refused an Appeal.

October, 1778

This Law your Court of Appeals, conceive has a very dangerous tendency to interrupt the peace. Safety and Union of the United States and is in direct violation of the resolve of Congress which grants an appeal in all Cases. It is necessary that a speedy Decision should be given upon the validity of this Law, so far as it contravenes the resolve of Congress, and that it may go with the more weight to the States the Court have referred the Matter to Congress.¹

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1778

Ordered, That Major General Arnold make immediate return to Congress of his proceedings in the execution of the order of Congress of yesterday, for the arrest and commitment of David Franks, Esq.

A memorial from the regimental surgeons and surgeons’ assistants of the army of the United States of America, was read:

Ordered, That it be referred to a committee of three:
The members chosen, Mr. [Nathaniel] Scudder, Mr. [Samuel] Holten, and Mr. [Josiah] Bartlett.

A memorial from Captain John P. Schott, was read:

Ordered, That it be referred to the Board of War.

On motion, Resolved, That General Washington be directed to order Major General Gates, forthwith to repair to Boston, to take command of the continental forces that are or may be in the eastern district, until the farther orders of Congress or General Washington.

According to order, Major General Arnold having made return of his proceedings in execution of the order of yesterday, the same was read.¹

Resolved, That to the end the arrears due to the militia of Virginia that have been in continental service, called ¹This letter is in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 162, folio 149.

into such service by order of Congress or the Commander in Chief, may be speedily adjusted and paid, the governor and council of that State be requested to call upon the proper officers to produce authenticated abstracts, shewing the arrears due to such militia as have so served, and cause the same to be immediately paid by warrants from the governor on Benjamin Harrison, Jun, Esq. the deputy pay master in Virginia.

Congress resumed the consideration of the instructions to the minister plenipotentiary at the court of Versailles, which being amended were agreed to.

To the Honourable Benjamin Franklin, Esquire, Minister Plenipotentiary of the United States of North America to the Court of France.

We, the Congress of the United States of North America, having thought it proper to appoint you their minister plenipotentiary to the court of his most Christian Majesty, you shall in all things, according to the best of your knowledge and abilities, promote the interest and honour of the said states at that court, with a particular attention to the following instructions:

1. You are immediately to assure his most Christian Majesty, that these states entertain the highest sense of his exertions in their favour, particularly by sending the respectable squadron under the Count d'Estaing, which would probably have terminated the war in a speedy and honourable manner, if unforeseen and unfortunate circumstances had not intervened.

You are further to assure him that they consider this speedy aid, not only as a testimony of his Majesty's fidelity to the engagements he hath entered into, but as an earnest of that protection which they hope from his power and magnanimity, and as a bond of gratitude to the union, founded on mutual interest.

2. You shall, by the earliest opportunity, and on every necessary occasion, assure the king and his ministers, that neither the Congress nor any of the states they represent, have at all swerved from their determination to be independent in July 1776. But as the declaration was made in face of the most powerful fleet and army which could have been expected to operate against them, and without any the slightest assurance of foreign aid, so, although in a defenceless situation, and harassed by the secret machinations and designs of intestine foes, they have, under the exertions of that force, during three bloody campaigns, persevered in their determination to be free. And that they have been inflexible in this determination, notwithstanding the interruption of their commerce, the great sufferings they have experienced from the want of those things which it procured, and the unexampled barbarity of their enemies.

3. You are to give the most pointed and positive assurances, that although the Congress are earnestly desirous of peace, as well to arrange their finances and recruit the exhausted state of their country, as to spare the further effusion of blood, yet they will faithfully perform their engagements, and afford every assistance in their power to prosecute the war for the great purposes of the alliance.

4. You shall endeavour to obtain the king's consent to expunge from the treaty of commerce the eleventh and twelfth articles, as inconsistent with that equality and reciprocity which form the best surety to perpetuate the whole.

5. You are to exert yourself to procure the consent of the court of France, that all American seamen, who may be taken on board of British vessels, may, if they choose, be permitted to enter on board American vessels. In return for which, you are authorized to stipulate, that all Frenchmen who may be taken on board of British vessels, by vessels belonging to the United States, shall be delivered up to persons appointed for that purpose by his most Christian Majesty.¹

6. You are to suggest to the ministers of his most Christian Majesty, the advantage which would result from entering on board the ships of these states, British seamen who may be made prisoners, thereby impairing the force of the enemy, and strengthening the hands of his ally.

7. You are also to suggest the fatal consequences which would follow to the commerce of the common enemy, if, by confining the war to the European and Asiatic seas, the coasts of America could be so far freed from the British fleets as to furnish a safe asylum to the frigates and privates of the allied nations and their prizes.

8. You shall constantly inculcate the certainty of ruining the British fisheries on the banks of Newfoundland, and consequently the British marine, by reducing Halifax and Quebec; since, by that means they would be exposed to alarm and plunder, and deprived of the necessary supplies formerly drawn from America. The plan proposed to Congress for compassing these objects are herewith transmitted for your more particular instruction.

9. You are to lay before the court the deranged state of our finances, together with the causes thereof; and show the necessity of placing them on a more respectable footing, in order to prosecute the war with vigour on the part of America. Observations on that subject are herewith transmitted; and more particular instructions shall be sent whenever the necessary steps previous thereto shall have been taken.

10. You are, by every means in your power, to promote a perfect harmony, concord, and good understanding, not only between the allied powers, but also between and among their subjects, that the connexion so favourably begun may be perpetuated.

11. You shall in all things take care not to make any engagements, or stipulations, on the part of America, without the consent of Congress previously obtained.

11th. You shall endeavor to gain Intelligence of the Views, Objects and Designs of the French Court, as far as they may relate to or affect the Interests of these States; and of the Characters and Abilities of the Ministers and communicate the Result of your Enquiries and Observations to Congress from Time to Time.

We pray God to further you with his goodness in the several objects hereby recommended; and that he will have you in his holy keeping.

PLAN OF AN ATTACK UPON QUEBEC.

That a number of men be assembled at Fort Pitt, from Virginia and Pennsylvania, amounting to one thousand five hundred rank and file; for which purpose three thousand should be called for; and if more than one thousand five hundred appear, the least effective be dismissed. To these should be added one hundred light cavalry, one half armed with lances. The whole should be ready to march by the first day of June; and for that purpose they should be called together for the 1st day of May, so as to be in readiness by the 15th. The real and declared object of this corps should be to attack Detroit, and to destroy the towns, on the route thither, of those Indians who are inimical to the United States.

2. That five hundred men be stationed at or near Wyoming this winter, to cover the frontiers of Pennsylvania and New Jersey; to be reinforced by one thousand men from those states early in the spring. For this purpose, two thousand men must be called for to appear on the first of May, so as to be in readiness by the 15th. They must march on the first of June, at farthest, for Oncoghqaga; to proceed from thence against Niagara. This is also to be declared.

3. That in addition to the garrison of Fort Schuyler or Stanwix, one thousand five hundred men be stationed this winter along the Mohawk river; and preparations of every kind made to build vessels of force on lake Ontario early next spring; and to take post at or near Oswego. A reinforcement of two thousand five hundred men, from the militia of New York and the western parts of Connecticut and Massachusetts Bay, must be added to these early in the spring; for which purpose a demand must be made of five thousand. A party, consisting of five hundred regular troops and one thousand militia, must march from Schenectady; so as to meet those destined to act against Niagara at Oncoghqaga. They should be joined by about one hundred light dragoons, armed as aforesaid, together with all the warriors which can be collected from the friendly tribes. In their march to Niagara, they should destroy the Seneca and other townships of Indians who are inimical.

4. That two thousand five hundred men be marched from Fort Schuyler, as early as possible after the middle of May, to Oswego, and take a post there, or in the neighbourhood; to be defended by about five hundred men. That they be also employed in forwarding the vessels to be built for securing the navigation of lake Ontario, and in making excursions towards Niagara; so as to keep the Indian country in alarm, and facilitate the operations in that quarter.

5. That a number of regiments be cantoned along the upper parts of Connecticut river, to be recruited in the winter; so as to form a body of five thousand regular troops, rank and file; and every preparation made to penetrate into Canada by the way of the river St. Francis. The time of their departure must depend upon circumstances; and their object be kept as secret as the nature of the thing will permit. When they arrive at the St. Lawrence, they must take a good post at the mouth of St. Francis, and turn their attention immediately to the reduction of Montreal, St. John's, and the north end of lake Champlain. These operations will be facilitated by the several movements to the westward, drawing the attention of the enemy to that quarter. If successful, so as to secure a passage across the lake, further reinforcements may be thrown in, and an additional retreat secured that way. The next operation will be in concert with the troops who are to gain the navigation of lake Ontario, &c. This operation, however, must be feeble, so long as the necessity exists of securing their rear towards Quebec. Such detachment, however, as can be spared, perhaps two thousand, with as many Canadians as will join them, are to proceed up Cadaraqui, and take a post, defensible by about three hundred men, at or near the mouth of lake Ontario. They will then join themselves to those posted, as aforesaid, at or near Oswego; and, leaving a garrison at that post, proceed together to the party at or near Niagara, at which place they ought, if possible, to arrive by the middle of September. The troops who have marched against Detroit should also, whether successful or not, return to Niagara, if that post is possessed or besieged by the Americans; as a safe retreat can by that means be accomplished for the whole, in case of accidents.

On the supposition that these operations succeed, still another campaign must be made to reduce the city of Quebec. The American troops must continue all winter in Canada. To supply them with provisions, clothing, &c., will be difficult, if not impracticable. The expense will be ruinous. The enemy will have time to reinforce. Nothing can be attempted against Halifax. Considering these circumstances, it is perhaps more prudent to make incursions with cavalry, light infantry, and chasseurs, to harass and alarm the enemy; and thereby prevent them from desolating our frontiers, which seems to be their object during the next campaign.

But if the reduction of Halifax and Quebec are objects of the highest importance to the allies, they must be attempted.

The importance to France is derived from the following considerations:

1. The fishery of Newfoundland is justly considered as the basis of a good marine.

2. The possession of those two places necessarily secures to the party, and their friends, the island and fisheries.

3. It will strengthen her allies; and guarantee more strongly their freedom and independence.
4. It will have an influence in extending the commerce of France, and restoring her to a share of the fur trade, now monopolized by Great Britain.

The importance to America results from the following considerations:

1. The peace of their frontiers.
2. The arrangement of their finances.
3. The accession of two states to the union.
4. The protection and security of their commerce.
5. That it will enable them to bend their whole attention and resources to the creation of a marine, which will at once serve them and assist their allies.
6. That it will secure the fisheries to the United States, and France their ally, to the total exclusion of Great Britain.¹

Add to these considerations:

1. That Great Britain, by holding these places, will infest the coasts of America with small armed vessels to the great injury of the French as well as the American trade.

2. That her possessions in the West Indies materially depend on the possession of posts to supply them with bread and lumber, and to refit their ships, and receive their sick, as well soldiers as seamen.

In order then to secure, as far as human wisdom can provide, the reduction of those places, aid must be obtained from France.

Suppose a body of from four to five thousand French troops sail from Brest, in the beginning of May, under convoy of four ships of the line and four frigates. Their object to be avowed; but their clothing, stores, &c., such as designate them for the West Indies. Each soldier must have a good blanket, of a large size, to be made into a coat when the weather grows cool. Thick clothing for these troops should be sent in August, so as to arrive at such place as circumstances by that time may indicate, by the beginning of October. These troops, by the end of June or beginning of July, might arrive at Quebec, which, for the reasons already assigned, they would in all probability find quite defenceless. Possessing themselves of that city, and leaving there the line of battle ships, the marines and a very small garrison, with as many of the Canadians as can readily be assembled (for which purpose spare arms should be provided, which might be put up in boxes, and marked as for the militia of one of the French islands,) the frigates and transports should proceed up the river St. Lawrence, and a disembarkation take place at the mouth of the river St. Francis. If the Americans are already at that place, the troops will co-operate for the purposes abovementioned: If not, a post must be taken there, and expresses sent, &c. In the interim, three of the frigates, with four of the smallest transports, should proceed to Montreal, and if possible possess that city; when the nobles and clergy should be immediately called together by the general, who should, if possible, be well acquainted with the manners both of France and of the United States.

The troops should bring with them very ample provisions, especially of salted flesh, as they will come to a country exhausted by the British army. By the latter end of July, or about the middle of August, the reduction of Canada might be so far completed, that the ships might proceed to the investiture of Halifax, taking on board large supplies of flour. A part of the troops might march, and be followed by the sick, as they recover. A considerable body of American troops also might then be spared for that service, which, with the militia of the states of Massachusetts Bay and New Hampshire, might proceed to the attack of Halifax, so as to arrive at the beginning of September; and if that place should fall by the beginning or middle of October, the troops also might either proceed against Newfoundland, or remain in garrison until the spring; at which time that conquest might be completed. If Halifax should not be taken, then the squadron and troops would still be in time to operate against the West Indies.

Sir: The above plan, referred to in your instructions, you shall lay substantially before the French minister. You shall consult the Marquis de la Fayette on any difficulties which may arise; and refer the ministry to him, as he hath made it his particular study to gain information on those important points.

Observations on the Finances of America.

At the commencement of the war, it was obvious that the permanent revenues and resources of Great Britain must eventually overbalance the sudden and impetuous sallies of men contending for freedom on the spur of the occasion, without regular discipline, determinate plan, or permanent means of defence. America having never been much taxed, nor for a continued length of time, being without fixed government, and contending against what once was the lawful authority, had no funds to support the war, notwithstanding her riches and fertility. And the contest being upon the very question of taxation, the laying of imposts, unless from the last necessity, would have been madness.
To borrow from individuals, without any visible means of repaying them, and while the loss was certain from ill success, was visionary.

A measure, therefore, which had been early adopted, and thence become familiar to the people, was pursued. This was the issuing of paper notes representing specie, for the redemption of which the publick faith was pledged.

As these were to circulate from hand to hand, there was no great individual risk, unless from holding them too long; and no man refused to receive them for one commodity, while they would purchase every other.

This general credit, however, did not last long. It menaced so deeply the views of our enemies, who had built their hopes upon the defect of our resources, that they and their partisans used every effort to impeach its value. Their success in one instance of this kind always made room for another; because he who could not relieve his wants with our paper would not part with his property to procure it.

To remedy this evil, the states, as soon as formed into any shape of legislation, enacted laws to make the continental paper a lawful tender, and indeed to determine its value, fixing it by penalties, at the sum of specie expressed on the face of it. These laws produced monopoly throughout.

The monopoly of commodities, the interruption of commerce rendering them more scarce, and the successes of the enemy, produced a depreciation of the paper. And that trace begun, became in itself a source of further depreciation. The laws devised to remedy this evil either increased, or were followed by an increase of it.

This demanded more plentiful emissions, thereby increasing the circulating medium to such a degree as not only to exclude all other, but, from its superabundant quantity, again to increase the depreciation.
The several states, instead of laying taxes to defray their own private expences, followed the example of Congress, and also issued notes of different denominations and forms. Hence to counterfeit became much easier, and the enemy did not neglect to avail themselves of this great though base advantage. And hence arose a further depreciation.

Calling the husbandman frequently to arms, who had indeed lost the incitements to industry from the cheapness of the necessaries of life in the beginning, compared with other articles which took a more rapid rise, soon reduced that abundance which preceded the war. This, added to the greater consumption, together with the ravages and subsistence of the enemy, at length pointed the depreciation to the means of subsistence.

The issues from this moment became enormous, and consequently increased the disease from which they arose, and which must soon have become fatal, had not the successes of America, and the alliance with France, kept it from sinking entirely. The certainty of its redemption being now evident, we only suffer from the quantity.

This, however, not only impairs the value simply in itself, but, as it calls for continued large emissions, so the certainty that every thing will be dearer than it is, renders every thing dearer than it otherwise would be; and vice versa. Could we possibly absorb a part of the inundation which overwhelms us, every thing would be cheaper, from the certainty that it would become cheaper.

The money can be absorbed but three ways. The first is by taxation, which cannot reach the evil while the war continues. Because the emissions must continue to supply what is necessary over and above even the nominal produce of taxes. And the taxes cannot be very productive by reason of the possession of part, and the ravagement of other parts of the country by the enemy; and also from the weakness of governments yet in their infancy, and not arrived to that power, method and firmness, which are the portion of elder states.

The second method is by borrowing; and is not efficient; because no interest can tempt men to lend paper now, which paid together with that interest in paper a year hence, will not probably be worth half as much as the principal sum is at present. And whenever the case shall alter, then, in proportion to the appreciation, will be the loss of the publick on what they borrow; to say nothing of the enormous burthens for which they must pay interest in specie, or what is equal to it, if so much of what hath been emitted could be borrowed as to render the remainder equally valuable with silver.

The last method is by very considerable loans or subsidies in Europe, and is the only mode at once equal to the effect desired, and free from the foregoing exceptions. For, if such a sum is drawn for at the advanced exchange, as by taking up the greater part of our paper to reduce the exchange to par, the paper then remaining will be fully appreciated, and the sum due will not nominally, and therefore in the event really, exceed its real value.

But to this mode there are objections. 1. Subsidies by any means equal to our necessities can hardly be expected while our allies, being engaged in war, will want all the money they can procure; and,

2. Loans cannot probably be obtained without good guarantee, or other security, which America may not, perhaps, be able to procure or give. But until our finances can be placed in a better situation, the war cannot possibly be prosecuted with vigour, and the efforts made feeble, as they must be attended with an oppressive weight of expence, rendering still more weak the confederated states.
This will appear from the foregoing observations; and also from this, that the present, and in all probability the future, seat of the war, also, that is, the middle states, are so exhausted that, unless by the most strenuous voluntary exertions of all the inhabitants, no great number of men can possibly be subsisted. And such exertions cannot be expected without the temptation of money more valued than ours is at present.

To the Honourable Benjamin Franklin, Esquire.

Sir: The above observations referred to in your instructions, you shall lay substantially before the French ministry, and labour for their assistance to remove the difficulties there stated.

By the Congress of the United States of America.

MANIFESTO.

These United States having been driven to hostilities by the oppressive and tyrannous measures of Great Britain; having been compelled to commit the essential rights of man to the decision of arms; and having been at length forced to shake off a yoke which had grown too burthensome to bear; they declared themselves free and independent.

Confiding in the justice of their cause; confiding in Him, who disposes of human events; although weak and unprovided, they set the power of their enemies at defiance.

In this confidence they have continued through the various fortunes of three bloody campaigns, unawed by the power, unsubdued by the barbarity of their foes.

¹This report, dated October 29, is in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 136, 11, folio 655.
Their virtuous citizens have borne, without repining, the loss of many things which make life desirable. Their brave troops have patiently endured the hardships and dangers of a situation fruitful in both, beyond former example.

The Congress considering themselves bound to love their enemies, as children of that Being who is equally the Father of All; and desirous, since they could not prevent, at least to alleviate the calamities of war, have studied to spare those who were in arms against them, and to lighten the chains of captivity.

The conduct of those serving under the king of Great Britain hath, with some few exceptions, been diametrically opposite. They have laid waste the open country, burned the defenceless villages, and butchered the citizens of America.

Their prisons have been the slaughter-houses of her soldiers, their ships of her seamen; and the severest injuries have been aggravated by the grossest insult.

Foiled in their vain attempt to subjugate the unconquerable spirit of freedom, they have meanly assailed the representatives of America with bribes, with deceit, and the servility of adulation. They have made a mock of humanity by the wanton destruction of men. They have made a mock of religion by impious appeals to God, whilst in the violation of his sacred commands: They have made a mock even of reason itself, by endeavouring to prove that the liberty and happiness of America could safely be entrusted to those who have sold their own, unwed by the sense of virtue or of shame.

Treated with the contempt which such conduct deserved, they have applied to individuals. They have solicited them to break the bonds of allegiance, and imbue their souls with the blackest of crimes. But fearing that none could be found through these United States equal to the wickedness of their purpose, to influence weak minds they have threatened more wide devastation.

While the shadow of hope remained that our enemies could be taught by our example, to respect those laws which are held sacred among civilized nations, and to comply with the dictates of a religion which they pretend in common with us to believe and revere, they have been left to the influence of that religion and that example. But since their incorrigible dispositions cannot be touched by kindness and compassion, it becomes our duty by other means to vindicate the rights of humanity.

We, therefore, the Congress of the United States of America, do solemnly declare and proclaim, that if our enemies presume to execute their threats, or persist in their present career of barbarity, we will take such exemplary vengeance, as shall deter others from a like conduct. We appeal to that God who searcheth the hearts of men, for the rectitude of our intentions: and in his holy presence we declare, that as we are not moved by any light and hasty suggestions of anger or revenge, so, through every possible change of fortune, we will adhere to this our determination.

Done in Congress, by unanimous consent, the thirtieth day of October, 1778.

The Committee to whom the Memorial and papers of John Harper were referred beg leave to Report;

That it appears to the Committee, that the said John Harper and his Sons Joseph and John, of the State of Virginia, and Peter Kirwin, of the State of Maryland, were owners of the Schooner called Liberty in the said Memorial mentioned; that the said Schooner commanded by a certain Middleton Belt, on the eighth day of June last, was chased into Currituck Inlet by a British privateer, commanded by a certain ——— Goodrich, and was there on the afternoon of the same day captured by the said Privateer. That three men belonging to the said Privateer were put on board the said Schooner, and on the next morning in going out of the said Inlet, she was run aground by the said Belt; that after attempting in vain to heave off the Schooner, the three Privateer's men quitted the said Schooner, and went in her boat on board the said Privateer, leaving Captain Belt and two of his crew in possession of the said

Schooner. That about ¼ of an hour after the Schooner grounded and was quitted by the privateersmen, a party of Militia commanded by one Caleb Ansell came on board and beat off some boats sent in by the said Privateer, and thereby saved the said Schooner. That the said Caleb Ansell afterwards, on behalf of himself and his company of Militia, on the ninth day of June last, exhibited his Libel in the Court of Admiralty for the port of Currituck, in the said State of North Carolina against the said Schooner and her cargo on board, alleging as a cause of forfeiture, "that the same was British property, that she was taken in Currituck on the said ninth day of June by one Goodrich, an enemy of these States, and was retaken by the said Ansell and his company of Militia." That answers were put in to the said Libell by the said Belt and Peter Kirwin, one of the owners of the said Schooner, to which the Libellant demurred in law, and on joinder in demurrer the same was affirmed; and thereon on the nineteenth day of June a jury was impannelled, sworn and gave their verdict "that one-eighth of the true value of the said Schooner and her cargo was a lawful prize to the Libellants, together with costs of suit;" and on the next day the Judge gave judgement thereupon.

Your Committee beg leave further to report that it appears to your Committee, that the said Peter Kirwin and Middleton Belt, the Claimants, on the said twentieth day of June prayed an appeal from the said sentence to Congress, and thereupon the Court ordered, "that a Court should be opened on the 29th June next following for the purpose of lodging the said appeal and carrying the same into execution." That on the same twenty-ninth of June the said Claimants offered security (admitted by the Judge to be sufficient) for prosecuting the appeal, but the same was not accepted.

Your Committee further report, that it appears to them, that on the 10th of June, 12 Hdg's of molasses and 59 bags of salt part of the Cargo, were taken out of the said Schooner, and put into a lighter (but whether with the consent of Captain Belt does not appear,) and carried to Churches Island, and there sold for £160 4 2, of which Wallace Bray, owner of the lighter, purchased to the amount of £384 14; Caleb Ansell, Captain of the Militia and libellants, to the amount of £759 6; and Colonel Jarvis, Judge of the Court of Admiralty, to the amount of £32 18; Amounting to £1176 18 0. That the charges claimed and deducted out of the said Sales amount to £887 12 ½, among which £173 15 0 is charged for the wages and victualling of Captain Ansell, his Lieutenant and Ensign, and thirty seven Militia, for ten days on board the said Schooner; £100 as a fee to William Cummings Esq., for pleading the cause for the Libellants; £20 to the State advocate; £100 for five days freight, and £230 for 23 days demurrage of the said Lighter.

Your Committee further report that it appears to them that on Monday the 22nd June, the said Schooner and the residue of her cargo, was taken and carried out of the said Inlet by seven persons in a small boat; that on the preceding evening all the guard of militia except three men and two boys left the said Schooner; that the said Guard refused to make any resistance, tho' requested by Captain Belt, that the said Schooner and her cargo was thereby lost to the owners, who estimate the value thereof to £17,750 17 6 Virginia Currency.

Your Committee further report, that it does not appear to them, that the said Schooner was in the possession of the enemy 24 hours.

Your Committee beg leave to submit the following resolutions to the Consideration of Congress.

That an appeal be granted to the said John Harper on behalf of himself, and the other owners of the said Schooner called the Liberty, and her cargo, if he shall think proper to prosecute it, and that on his application an order issue by Congress to the Register or Clerk of the Court of Admiralty for the port of Currituck, in the State of North Carolina, to transmit to the Secretary of Congress a copy of all the proceedings in the said Court against the said Schooner called the Liberty and her cargo.

Agreed

That it be recommended to the Executive Authority of the State of North Carolina, immediately to take the most speedy and effectual Measures to discover and bring to trial and exemplary punishment the persons who carried off the said Schooner Liberty and her cargo.

That the Secretary transmit to the Legislature of the State of North Carolina a copy of the Report of the Committee, and that it be earnestly recommended to the Legislature of that State to inquire into the truth of the facts stated in the said Report, and if found to be true to pass an act to make compensation to the owners of the said Schooner and her Cargo for the loss they have sustained.

Ordered, That a Copy of the said Report be sent to the Legislature of the State of Virginia.¹

A report from the Board of War was read; Whereupon,

War Office, November 4th, 1778.

By accounts received from the frontiers of this State and in the neighbourhood of Fort Roberdeau it appears that large numbers of the Militia of this state have been called out, but that few have staid at the posts even for their tour of duty. That they have left the officers commanding there in great distress, all on the very day of the expiration of their times, and a great proportion on one pretext or other before that period. That they are under little or no command, and of course useless and very expensive. It is therefore thought that if the companies raised for the defence of the frontiers and now under the command of Capt: Tho: Cluggage, Capt: Black and Capt: M'Donald could be re-inlisted and augmented (their times of service expiring the 15th of Dec: next) the States would save money, and the service required would be better and more certainly done. The plan for raising the two Regiments intended to go on the Western expedition was to give a suit of clothes Bounty and the usual pay on the men's engaging for one year. From the smallness of the number engaged in those Regiments there is a large proportion of clothing intended for them now on hand at Winchester in Virginia which would serve the companies which are the subjects of this Report, or the clothes might be sent from hence as should be found most convenient. The Board therefore beg leave to report to Congress;

Resolved, That the three companies commanded by Captains Cluggage, Black, and M'Donald, raised for the defence of the frontiers of Pensylvania, be re-inlisted and compleated to their full complement, for the space of one year, from the 15 day of December next, unless sooner discharged by Congress.

1These letters are in the Library of Congress, United States Revolution, IV.
That every non-commissioned officer and private inlisting in the said companies, receive as a bounty a suit of cloathes, to consist of the articles usually allowed the continental troops, and that it be stipulated with the said non-commissioned officers and privates so inlisting, that they shall not be removed from the frontiers of the said state, on any account whatsoever, except on expeditions against the Indians.¹

Whereas the Chevalier Mauduit du Plessis, lieutenant colonel of artillery in the army of these United States, apprehending that the war is near a conclusion in this country, is desirous of returning to France, to offer his service to his prince, now engaged in hostilities with our common enemy:

The Board of War to whom were referred the letter of J. Simons, of the 5, and of 28 October, from J. Loring to David Franks, brought in a report; Whereupon,

At a Board of War, November 7, 1778.

Present Mr Sherman, Mr Matthews, Mr Peters.

The Board having taken into their Consideration the letters from Joseph Simons, and Joshua Loring relative to the Supply of the British Prisoners of War beg leave to report to Congress:

That from the Evidence which has appeared to the Board, they are of opinion that David Franks Esq is and ought to be, treated and considered as the Agent Employed by the Enemy for the Supply of their Troops captivated by the United States, and as such has been acknowledged by them in many Instances, notwithstanding the Terms in which Mr Loring's Letter is couched are intended to induce the contrary Opinion,

That from the Conduct of the said Mr Franks, Congress having thought proper to forbid his further Proceeding in his former Employment, and the Enemy not having after Notice given, thought proper to authorize any Person with the Approbation of Congress, to supply their Prisoners with Provisions, they must be reduced to speedy Want if some measures are not taken for their supply: Therefore we take the Liberty of suggesting the following Resolutions:

Resolved, That the commissary general of prisoners be directed to take proper measures, until the farther order of Congress, for the temporary supply of the British prisoners of war captivated by the army of the United States, with such quotas of rations as are furnished our prisoners in the hands of the enemy by the British commissaries:

The committee to whom was referred a report of a committee of the General Assembly of the State of South Carolina, concurred in by the house on the 8th of September, 1778, and ordered to be transmitted to Congress; also a letter from Major General Howe, of the 22d September, relative to the reduction of the province of East Florida; brought in a report: Whereupon,

Resolved, That the President be directed to inform his excellency the president of the state of South Carolina, that Congress, by their resolution of the 2d instant, have directed Major General Lincoln to attempt the reduction of the province of East Florida, in case the enemy should not make an attack on the states of South Carolina and Georgia.

That Congress highly approve of the resolutions of the assembly of the State of South Carolina, in directing an investigation to be made into the causes of the Creek rupture, in order that reparation may be made by the offending party, in case the Creek nation shall have just cause of complaint; and in making preparations to carry the war into the Creek country, if a peace cannot be effected by negotiation.

That Major General Lincoln be authorized to enlist men into the continental battalions of the States of South Carolina and Georgia, to serve during the continuance of the expedition against East Florida.
November, 1778

That if Major General Lincoln shall be of opinion that the continental battalions of the States of South Carolina and Georgia, and the continental levies and recruits from the states of Virginia and North Carolina, will not be a sufficient force to proceed on the expedition against East Florida, he be authorized to engage a number of volunteers, not exceeding fifteen hundred, to serve during the continuance of the expedition; and that the volunteers so engaged be organized into such corps and commanded by such officers as Major General Lincoln shall approve of.

That Major General Lincoln be authorized to pledge the faith of the United States for granting to the officers and men, whether continental forces, volunteers or militia, who shall accompany him to East Florida, and continue in the service till the castle of St. Augustine is reduced, the same proportions of land as is allowed by the resolutions of Congress of 16th September, 1776; that this bounty shall be extended to the representatives of such officers and soldiers as shall be slain or die during the continuance of the expedition. This Land to be located out of the unappropriated Land belonging to the Crown of Great Britain, and a preference to be given in the survey of them, to all other surveys whatever.

The said land to be located in the said province; and a preference to be given in the location to the officers and soldiers who shall be entitled as aforesaid.¹

That the major generals, respectively, who shall go on the expedition against East Florida, be entitled to a grant of three thousand acres of land; and the brigadier generals, if any shall go on that service, to a grant of two thousand acres, in case the province of East Florida should be reduced.

¹This paragraph was substituted for the preceding sentence, and is in the writing of Henry Laurens.
That the commanding officer of the southern department be authorized, if he shall judge it for the good of the service, to supply Colonel Marbury's company of light horse with a number of horses, not exceeding two hundred.

That it be recommended to the governments of North Carolina, South Carolina, and Georgia, to give every assistance in their power to Major General Lincoln, to enable him to reduce the province of East Florida.

That the President be directed to inform their excellencies the governors of the states of Maryland and Virginia, that Congress deem it of high importance to the welfare of the United States, that every exertion should be made, during the course of the winter, to reduce the province of East Florida.

That from the best information they have received, this cannot probably be effected but by a blockade by water; and therefore that it be requested of the said governments to direct such of their armed galleys as are fit for this service to be fitted out with all possible despatch, and to proceed either in company, or otherwise, as the governors of the states of Maryland and Virginia shall deem most expedient, to Charleston, in South Carolina; there to follow such orders as they shall receive from the commander in chief of the department, or from the officer appointed by Congress to command the galleys of the respective states employed on this expedition.

That till such time as the said galleys shall return to the states, to which they respectively belong, they shall be at the expense and risk of the United States. And that the governors of the states of Maryland and Virginia be directed [desired] to have sworn appraisement made of the said vessels, their tackle, and apparel, to ascertain their value, in case of loss.
November, 1778

And whereas it is represented that great difficulties have occurred in manning the said galleys; and the success of the expedition depends, in the most essential manner, on their service:

Resolved, That the governours of the states of Maryland and Virginia be authorized to assure the officers and men who shall navigate the said galleys, that the continental share of all property taken by the said galleys, or any of them, from the day of their sailing to their return to their respective stations, shall be released to the persons capturing the same, and divided amongst the officers and men, agreeably to the resolutions of Congress relative to captures.

That the governours of the respective states of Maryland and Virginia be authorized, if they shall judge it expedient, to grant a bounty, not exceeding forty dollars, to every able bodied mariner who shall enter on board any of the said galleys for the space of six months.

That the Marine Committee be directed to use every possible exertion, in co-operating with the governours of the states of Maryland and Virginia, in the expeditious manning of the galleys to be furnished for this service.

And whereas differences relative to commands may arise amongst the officers of the respective states, whose galleys are employed, which, if not guarded against, might defeat the end of the enterprise:

Resolved, That Captain John Barry be and he is hereby directed, to take the command of all the armed vessels employed on the intended expedition, [subject to the orders of the commander in chief in the southern department;]¹ and that this commission continue in force till the expiration of the [intended] invasion of the province of East Florida, [or till the further order of Congress.] That he proceed with the utmost despatch to the state of Maryland, in order to expedite the equipment of the galleys to be furnished by that state; and proceed with them to Charleston, in South Carolina.

Resolved, That Congress approve of Major General Howe's provident attention in procuring intelligence of the situation and strength of the British forces and posts in East Florida; and that any expence which may have attended this service shall be defrayed by Congress.

Resolved, That the sum of two hundred and one pounds five shillings, in specie, be granted to Major General Lincoln to facilitate his procuring intelligence of the enemy's strength and designs in the province of East Florida; and that the Board of War be directed to cause this money to be remitted by the first safe opportunity.

Resolved, That Major General Lincoln be authorized and directed, on his arrival in the province of East Florida, to issue a proclamation in the name of these United States, signifying to the inhabitants of the said province, that as he is not come to destroy, but to protect the inhabitants in the enjoyment of their rights and property, he will receive under the protection of the United States, all such persons as shall repair to his standard within a time to be limited in the said proclamation, and take an oath of [Abjuration of allegiance to the king and crown of Great Britain,] except such persons as may have been attainted of high treason in any of the said states. And that all such as shall unite with him in the reduction of the said province, and embody themselves under such officers as he shall approve of, shall be entitled to the same pay and emoluments as the forces engaged in the same service are entitled to. And further, that on the subversion of British tyranny in that province, and the establishment of a free government, they shall be considered as peculiarly entitled to the confidence of the United States.

That the Commissary General be directed to send under convoy of the armed galleys ordered to proceed from the State of Maryland to the State of South Carolina, a quantity of flour, not exceeding one thousand barrels.

That the quarter master general be directed to ship on board the armed galleys ordered from the state of Maryland to Charleston, South Carolina, a quantity not exceeding ten tons of bar iron.

And whereas Congress are of opinion, that it will tend greatly to ensure the success of the enterprise if the embargo on rice be continued in force till such time as the vessels destined to form the blockade by water shall have arrived in the basin of St. Augustine: Therefore,

Resolved, That it be recommended to the executive authority of the states of South Carolina and Georgia, to continue in force the embargo on rice till the event above mentioned shall have taken place, and no longer: [Provided, and it is hereby intended, that the said embargo shall not be and continue in force longer than the thirty first day of January next.]¹

The committee to whom was referred a letter from J. Beatty, commissary of prisoners, dated September 15, 1778, together with two letters from Joshua Loring, Esq. of 1 September and 28 October, and sundry letters from John Connolly, report the following state of facts:

"That Dr. John Connolly, now stiling himself lieutenant colonel in the British service, was, in the latter end of November, 1775, apprehended in Frederick county, in Maryland, in company with a certain Allan Cameron and John Smith, by the committee of inspection of that county:

"That at the time he was taken he was not in arms; or at the head of any party of men in arms; but was clandestinely making his way to Detroit, in order to join, give intelligence to, and otherwise aid the garrison at that place, as appears by his own intercepted letter of the 16 December, 1775, addressed to the commanding officer of that fortress, and by General Washington’s letter to Congress of the 25 December, 1775:

That at the Time, when the said Lieutenant John Connolly was taken (and for a considerable time after,) he did not produce or plead any commission under the King of Great Britain; although the present Commission, under which he claims to be considered as a prisoner of war is dated November 5th, 1776.

That a number of officers in the British service, who were made prisoners long after the said John Connolly was apprehended, have been exchanged in course, and no demand has been made till within these few months past by any British general for the release or exchange of the officer last mentioned:

"With respect to the treatment of the said John Connolly, the committee report:

"That at the time when he was first apprehended, he was confined, under guard, by the committee of inspection in the town of Frederick, in an apartment separate from his associates, without any circumstance to aggravate his captivity, except the being debarred the use of pen, ink, and paper: that notwithstanding this restraint, he contrived to write several letters of intelligence to the British officers commanding at the posts of Detroit and Kuskuskis, which letters were found on the person of Dr. Smith, one of his associates, who, having escaped from the town of Frederick, was again apprehended:

"That, by the resolution of 8 December, 1775, he was ordered to be "confined in prison at Philadelphia;" that being brought to that city, he was confined in the new gaol, where he continued till about the month of November, 1776, when he was permitted, on account of a declining state of health, to reside on his parole at the house of his brother-in-law on the river Susquehanna, where he continued for about two months, when, on information being given to the council of safety of the State of Pennsylvania, of certain suspicious circumstances relative to him, he was remanded to his former place of confinement, in which he continued till about the spring, 1777, when he was again permitted, on his parole, and the security of his brother-in-law, to return to his former place of residence on the river Susquehanna.

"That during these periods of his confinement in the new gaol, he had for the greatest part of the time a separate apartment to himself, the privilege of walking in the yard, a person allowed to attend him in his apartment, and his own servant permitted to fetch him such necessaries as he chose to order; and that during the short period when he had not a separate apartment, there were never more than two persons in the same room, seldom more than one, and those some of his associates, or in consequence of his particular request:

"That during these periods of time he made two attempts to escape, in which he was detected; that on authentic information being given to Congress, at York town, that the said Lieutenant Colonel John Connolly was acting in a manner not consistent with the spirit of his parole, and the frontiers being threatened with a barbarous war, in which there was reason to apprehend he was designed as an instrument, he was ordered into confinement in the gaol at York town, on the 13 day of October, [1777]:

"That on the 17th day of May, [1778,] the said John Connolly, with several others, confined in the said gaol, made a representation to Congress, setting forth, in the strongest colouring, the hardships and cruelties which they declared they were then suffering:
"That on the result of a strict enquiry, and after the gaol had been visited by Colonel Pickering, one of the members of the Board of War, it appeared that the suggestions contained in the said representation were scandalous and groundless; and the report of the Board of War was on the 23 day of May, ordered to be published:

"That since the evacuation of Philadelphia, the said John Connolly was remanded to the new gaol in that city, where, excepting the space of about fourteen days, when two persons were necessarily obliged to sleep in the same room, he has had a separate and commodious apartment of his own choice, the privilege of his own servant to attend him constantly, and to bring him whatever he may require, and the unrestrained use of a spacious yard to take the air in, during the day; that, in his letter of 12 October, 1778, the said J. Connolly declares, 'that the common rights of humanity are denied to him,' and paints his situation in such terms, as would tend to induce a belief that the most wanton cruelties and restraints are imposed upon him:

"That, in consequence of a request of J. Connolly to be heard in person by a committee of Congress, this committee have complied with his request, when he declared, in the presence of your committee, 'that excepting the restraint of his person under the limits above mentioned, which, however indulgent they might appear, he conceived unfavourable to his state of health, he experienced every other relief which could be extended to a person in confinement:'

"That Joshua Loring, Esq. British commissary of prisoners, in his letter to Mr. Beatty of the 1st September, 1778, threatens to retaliate on an American prisoner of war of equal rank with Lieutenant Colonel Connolly, for the sufferings which it is pretended that officer endures:' Whereupon,
Resolved, That Lieutenant Colonel John Connolly cannot of right claim to be considered and treated as a prisoner of war, but that he was, at the time he was apprehended, and still is, amenable to law martial as a spy and emissary from the British army:

That the repeated representations made by Lieutenant Colonel John Connolly, of the grievances he undergoes, are not founded on facts:

That General Washington be directed to transmit the foregoing resolutions and state of facts to the commander in chief of his Britannic majesty’s forces in New York, and to inform the said officer, that if, under the pretext of retaliating for the pretended sufferings of a person who, by the law of nations, has no right to be considered as a prisoner of war, any American officer, entitled to be considered and treated as a prisoner of war, shall undergo any extraordinary restraints or sufferings, Congress are determined to retaliate on the person of an officer of the first rank in their possession, for every species of hardship or restraint on such account inflicted.¹

November, 1778

Ordered, That the same be referred to the Board of Treasury.

A report from the Board of War was read; Whereupon,

At a Board of War, November 13th, 1778.

Present: Mr Mathews, Mr Peters, Mr Sherman.

The Board taking into consideration the report of a committee of the Assembly of South Carolina relative to the military establishments of that State, are of opinion,

Resolved, That the troops raised in the State of South Carolina, are, and ought to be considered as being in the same situation, and subject to the same regulations, with the other forces of the United States, except in the cases where contrary stipulations were made at the time of their being received into the service of the United States, on the continental establishment.¹

The committee to whom were referred the letter from Mr. President Lowndes, of South Carolina, and the letters from Major General R. Howe, brought in a report;

That upon examining the Resolve of Congress of the 16th September, 1776 referred to by M: Lowndes, they find it stands thus: "That the appointment of all Officers and filling up vacancies (except General Officers) be left to the Governments of the several States, &c." Whether the Resolve means only Regimental Officers, or means to include the Staff also, must be referred to the determination of Congress. But thus far your Committee will beg leave to give their opinion, that as the Deputy Adjutant General is appointed for both the States of South Carolina and Georgia, if the appointment be vested in the Government, there will arise this inconvenience, which of the governments are entitled to the appointment, or whether it must be with the concurrence of the two. This doubt may probably be productive of Dispute between the two States. If Congress should be of opinion, that the Resolve relates only to Regimental Officers, then your Committee beg leave to state the following facts: That upon Inquiry they find Captain Hyrne was appointed a Captain in the 1st South Carolina Regiment in June, 1775; and that M: Grimkee was appointed a Lieutenant in the 3rd Carolina Regiment, some time in the year 1776. They are both looked upon in their respective Corps as very good Officers, Therefore must refer to Congress which of these Gentleman, they shall be of opinion have the best claim to the appointment of Deputy Adjutant General for the States of South Carolina and Georgia.

¹This report is in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 147, II, folio 371.

Considering that part of Major General Howe's letter recommending the appointment of Col. Stephen Drayton as Deputy Quarter Master General in the Room of Col. Huger resigned, the same doubt arises in the minds of your Committee, as did respecting the appointment of the Deputy Adjutant General therefore the same determination on the first will be conclusive as to the latter. If Congress should proceed to the appointment of a Deputy Quarter Master General for South Carolina, your Committee beg leave to recommend Colonel Drayton as a gentleman extremely well qualified for that office.¹

Whereupon, Resolved, That the president of the State of South Carolina be informed, that the resolution of Congress of the 16 September, 1776, relative to appointments, extends only to the appointment of regimental officers, and not to officers on the general staff.

Mr. Ed. Hyrne and John Grimké were nominated by the delegates of South Carolina for adjutants general, and Stephen Drayton by the same for quarter master general.

Congress then proceeded to the election of a deputy adjutant general and deputy quarter master general in the southern department, and, the ballots being taken,

Captain Edmund Hyrne was elected deputy adjutant general in the southern department.

Stephen Drayton was elected deputy quarter master general in the southern department.

Congress resumed the consideration of the recommendation to the states for setting apart a day of thanksgiving, which being amended, is as follows:

¹This report, in the writing of John Mathews, is in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 19, III, folio 203. It is endorsed: "Rec'd. 13 November."
It having pleased Almighty God, through the course of the present year, to bestow great and manifold mercies on the people of these United States; and it being the indispensable duty of all men gratefully to acknowledge their obligations to Him for benefits received:

Resolved, That it be, and hereby is recommended to the legislative or executive authority of each of the said states, to appoint Wednesday, the 30th day of December next, to be observed as a day of public thanksgiving and praise, that all the people may, with united hearts, on that day, express a just sense of his unmerited favours; particularly in that it hath pleased him, by his overruling providence, to support us in a just and necessary war, for the defence of our rights and liberties, by affording us seasonable supplies for our armies, by disposing the heart of a powerful monarch to enter into alliance with us, and aid our cause; by defeating the councils and evil designs of our enemies, and giving us victory over their troops; and, by the continuance of that union among these states, which, by his blessing, will be their future strength and glory.

And it is further recommended, that, together with devout thanksgiving, may be joined a penitent confession of our sins, and humble supplication for pardon, through the merits of our Saviour; so that, under the smiles of Heaven, our public councils may be directed, our arms by land and sea prospered, our liberty and independence secured, our schools and seminaries of learning flourish, our trade be revived, our husbandry and manufactures increased, and the hearts of all impressed with undissembled piety, with benevolence and zeal for the public good.

And it is also recommended, that recreations unsuitable to the purpose of such a solemnity may be omitted on that day.

Done in Congress, this 17th day of November, 1778, and in the third year of the independence of the United States of America.¹

According to order, Congress was resolved into a committee of the whole, to consider the four first propositions of the report of the committee on finance, and, after some time, the President resumed the chair, and Mr. F[rancis] L[ightfoot] Lee reported, that the committee have had under consideration the propositions referred to them,

A letter, of 13, from General Washington, was read, relative to the inspectorship under Baron Steuben.

Ordered, That it be referred to the Board of War.

A letter, of 23, from B. P. Smith, Thomas Eddison, and George Bond, clerks in the secretary's office; also, one of the 16, from James Stevenson, Samuel Downe, and Moses Emerson, commissioners of accounts, were read:

1This report, dated November 21, and prepared by Richard Peters, is in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 147, II, folio 383. The members present: Sherman, Lee and Peters.
2Thomson's notes of this testimony is in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 159, folio 296.
3The letter of Washington is in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 152, VI, folio 485.
Ordered, That they be referred to the Board of Treasury. A report from the Committee of Treasury was read; Whereupon,

Ordered, That a warrant issue on the treasurer in favour of Lieutenant Colonel Benjamin Temple, for three hundred and seventy seven dollars to enable him to discharge the ballances due on sundry purchases, and for making up cloathing in pursuance of General Washington's orders of the 30 December, 1777; the said Lieutenant Colonel Temple to be accountable.¹

Mr. [Nicholas] Vandyke, a delegate from the State of Delaware, attended and took his seat.

Congress took into consideration the report of the committee of arrangement; and thereupon came to the following resolutions:

Whereas the settlement of rank in the army of the United States has been attended with much difficulty and delay, inasmuch as no general principles have been adopted and uniformly pursued:

Resolved therefore, That, upon any dispute of rank, the following rules shall be hereafter observed:

1. For determining rank in the continental line, between all colonels and inferior officers of different states, between like officers of infantry, and those of horse and artillery, appointed under the authority of Congress, by virtue of a resolve of the 16 September, 1776, or by virtue of any subsequent resolution prior to the 1 January, 1777; all such officers shall be deemed to have their commissions dated on the day last mentioned, and their relative rank with respect to each other, in the continental line of the army, shall be determined by their rank prior to the 16 day of September, 1776. This rule ¹This report, dated November 21, is in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 136, II, folio 711. It also contained the grants to Mifflin and others. Passed November 28, post.

shall not be considered to affect the rank of the line within any State or within the corps of artillery, horse, or among the sixteen additional battalions, where the rank hath been settled; but shall be the rule to determine the relative rank within the particular line of artillery, so far as the rank remains unsettled.

2. In the second instance preference shall be given to commissions in the new levies and flying camp.

3. In determining rank between continental officers, in other respects equal, proper respect shall be had to their commissions in the militia, where they have served in the continental army for the space of one month.

4. All colonels and inferior officers appointed to vacancies since the 5th day of January, 1777, shall take rank from the right of succession to such vacancies.

5. In all cases where the rank between two officers of different states is equal, or between an officer of state troops and one of cavalry, artillery, or of the additional battalions, the precedence is to be determined by lot.

6. That officers in the army shall rise regimentally to the rank of captain, then in the line of the State to the rank of colonel.

6. All officers who have been prisoners with the enemy, being appointed by their State, and again enter into the service, shall do it agreeably to the following rule, that is to say: All of the rank of captain, and under, shall enter into the same regiment to which they formerly belonged; and if the regiment is dissolved or otherwise reduced, they shall be entitled to the first vacancy in any regiment of the State in their proper rank, after the officers belonging to such regiment have been provided for.

7. The rules of rank above laid down between officers of different states, are to govern between officers of the same State, except in cases where the State may have laid down a different rule or already settled their rank.
8. A resignation shall preclude any claim of benefit from former rank under a new appointment.

And whereas by the rules which have been adopted for promotions and the adjusting of rank in the continental army, as well as by the reduction of several of the battalions, it hath happened that many valuable officers are precluded from rising to that distinction which their abilities and future experience may merit, and also that the public hath been necessarily deprived of the services of many good officers who may incline to continue in the army of the United States, for remedy thereof,

Resolved, That it be recommended to the several states to make provision that officers in the line may be enabled to exchange their commissions with other officers, subjects of the State respectively, of equal rank under such restrictions and limitations as to the several states shall seem proper.¹

Whereas from the alteration of the establishment and other causes, many valuable officers have [been] and may be omitted in the new arrangement, as being supernumerary, who, from their conduct and services, are entitled to the honourable notice of Congress, and to a suitable provision until they can return to civil life with advantage:

Resolved therefore, That Congress gratefully acknowledge the faithful services of such officers, and that all supernumerary officers be entitled to one year's pay of their commissions respectively, to be computed from the time such officers had leave of absence from the Commander in Chief on this account. And Congress do earnestly recommend to the several states to which such officers belong, to make such farther provision for them as their respective circumstances and merits may entitle them to.

Resolved, That all officers who have been in the service, and, having been prisoners with the enemy, now are or hereafter may be exchanged or otherwise released, shall, if appointed by the authority of the State, be entitled, in case of vacancy, to enter into the service of their respective State in such rank as they would have had if they had never been captured; provided always, that every such officer do, within one month after his exchange or release, signify to the authority of the State to which he belongs, his release and his desire to enter again into the military service:

That every officer so released, and giving notice as aforesaid, shall, until entry into actual service, be allowed half pay of the commission to which by the foregoing resolve he stands entitled; provided always, that, in case of his receiving any civil office of profit, such half pay shall thenceforth cease.

Resolved, That in case of future vacancies of and under the rank of Colonels, no officer shall be deemed entitled to succeed to such vacancy as of course; but it shall, with all convenient speed, be certified to the authority of the State in whose troops such vacancy has happened, by the Commanding officer of the State then present, and no promotion or succession shall take place upon any vacancy without the authority of a State appointment.

Whereas it will be for the benefit of the service that some rule for promotions be established: therefore,

Resolved, That it be recommended to the several states to provide, that in all future promotions officers rise regimentally to the rank of captain, and thence in the line of the state to the rank of colonel, except in cases where a preference may be given on account of distinguished merit.\(^1\)

Resolved, That no brevets be for the future granted, except to officers in the line or in case of very eminent services.

Resolved, That four Brigadier Generals be appointed, viz. one for Massachusetts Bay; one for Pennsylvania; one for Maryland, and one for North Carolina.\(^2\)

Resolved, That a brigadier general, out of the brigadiers of the infantry, be appointed by General Washington to command the cavalry.

Resolved, That pay masters, not being of the rank of [colonel] captains, quarter masters and adjutants, be entitled to receive 20 dollars per month subsistence money, in lieu of rations.

Resolved, That all officers and persons employed on the staff shall receive for subsistence money, one-third of a dollar for each extra ration heretofore allowed them.

Resolved, That Lieutenant Colonel Stevens, of the artillery, now holding that rank by brevet, be appointed a lieutenant colonel of artillery; and that his commission bear date from that of his brevet; and that he be entitled to take command on the first vacancy that may fall in the artillery.

Your Committee farther beg leave to report that they have arranged the troop of nine states, viz: of New Hampshire, Massachusetts Bay, Connecticut, Rhode Island, New York, New Jersey (except the field officers), Pennsylvania, Virginia, and North Carolina, which with a little revisal will soon be lodged with the Board of War.

That Maryland and the Delaware state, the artillery, the 16 additional battalions and cavalry were not sufficiently prepared with their returns, the rank of the former being yet unsettled, and the two latter being so detached, that the Committee could not procure the necessary materials, but have taken the necessary steps for that purpose.

P. S. The chairman of the above Committee begs leave to suggest the propriety of furnishing to General Officers &c. the resolves of Congress already published, the army in general being exceedingly ignorant of their proceedings and many difficulties accrue therefrom.

Resolved, That adjutants, pay masters and quarter masters, taken from the line, be again admitted into the rank they would have been entitled to, had they continued in the line: and such adjutants, pay masters, and quarter masters, not taken from the line, may be admissible into the line, in such subaltern ranks as, by a signed certificate from the field officers of their respective corps, they shall be deemed competent to.

Your Committee have now only to add that it is their duty to represent to Congress that the number of foreign officers introduced into the service, and often into high rank has given great and general uneasiness throughout the army, so as to become a matter well worthy the attention of Congress and that the complaints of the clothing department both in regard to quantity and quality still subsist. That the enlistment of prisoners and deserters is represented to your Committee as highly impolitic and injurious to the service, and that the most effectual measures ought to be taken to prevent such enlistments in future.

The Cases of Colonel Hazen's Regiment and of the Surgeons of the Hospital appear on the face of their applications delivered herewith. Your Committee beg leave to submit them to the wisdom of Congress as they do every other part of their proceedings. ¹

Resolved, That the regiment commanded by Colonel Moses Hazen be continued on its original establishment; and that no new appointments or promotions of officers be made therein until the farther order of Congress.

¹ A transcript of this report is in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 21, folio 161. It was prepared in 1834, by William A. Weaver, from the original, then in the Washington Papers, No. 101. This volume is now in the Department of War. The report is endorsed: "Report Committee of Arrangement. Part recommitted, 12 October, 1778. Returned by Mr. Sherman 13th. Passed November 24, except the appointing four brigadiers, postponed."
Ordered, That the committee of arrangement transmit to the Board of War lists of the officers of the army, arranged by them in the several regiments and corps, specifying the time of their respective appointments or promotions to their present rank, to be registered in the war office; and that commissions be issued to the said officers accordingly: and the secretary of the Board of War is hereby ordered to transmit copies of the said arrangement to the Commander in Chief of the army.

Resolved, That the Board of War be authorized to finish the arrangement of the army agreeably to the resolutions of Congress, and that the committee of arrangement furnish the Board with such papers and documents as they are possessed of respecting the same; and that all disputes about rank in the army be referred to the Commander in Chief, to be determined according to the rules of the army.

Ordered, That the Board of War forthwith lay before Congress a list of the continental brigadiers and battalions, together with the states to which they respectively belong.\footnote{Transcripts of these paragraphs are in the \textit{Papers of the Continental Congress}, No. 21, I, folios 173 and 175.}

"To all to whom these presents shall come, greeting: know ye, that among the records in the secretary's office, in the State of New Jersey, there is a certain instrument of writing purporting to be an act of the council and general assembly of the said State, which said act is contained in the words and tenor here following, to wit:

An act to authorize and empower the delegates of the State of New Jersey in Congress, to subscribe and ratify the articles of confederation and perpetual union between the several states.

Whereas, articles of confederation and perpetual union, between the states of New Hampshire, Massachusetts Bay, Rhode Island and Providence Plantations, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Georgia, signed in the Congress of the said states, by the Hon. Henry Laurens, Esq. their president, have been laid before the legislature of this State, to be ratified by the same if approved: and, whereas, notwithstanding the terms of the said articles of confederation and perpetual union are considered, as in divers respects, unequal and disadvantageous to this State, and the objections to several of the said articles lately stated and sent to the general Congress aforesaid, on the part of this State, are still viewed as just and reasonable, and sundry of them as of the most essential moment to the welfare and happiness of the good people thereof; yet, under the full conviction of the present necessity of acceding to the confederacy proposed, and that every separate and detached state interest ought to be postponed to the general good of the union; and moreover, in firm reliance that the candor and justice of the several states will, in due time, remove, as far as possible, the inequality which now subsists:

Sect. 1. Be it enacted by the council and general assembly of this State, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that the Hon. John Witherspoon, Abraham Clark, Nathaniel Scudder, and Elias Boudinot, Esqrs. delegates, representing this State in the Congress of the United States, or any one or more of them, be, and they hereby are authorized, empowered, and directed, on behalf of this State, to subscribe and ratify the said articles of confederation and perpetual union between the several states aforesaid.

Sect. 2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the said articles of confederation and perpetual union, so as aforesaid

That it appears by a resolution of 21 December, 1776, that officers were to receive pay on a new establishment from the time of their being appointed by the states; and by a letter of the 10th instant,³ which they have received from Mr. Palfrey, pay master general, and which accompanies this report, it appears the officers were paid accordingly; the committee therefore are of opinion, that officers appointed by Congress to raise regiments, to serve for three years or during the war, previous to the 7th day of October, 1776, ought to receive additional pay from that time, and that the resolution ||motion|| to them referred is proper, and is as follows:

Whereas it is represented that the officers of Colonel Seth Warner’s regiment, who engaged in the service for three years or during the war, previous to the 7th day of October, 1776, have not been allowed the additional pay made to the wages of officers by a resolution of Congress

A memorial from Lieutenant Hele was read.

The committee to whom was referred a letter of 15, from Admiral Gambier, respecting an officer, commander of the Hotham, &c. reported the draught of a letter in answer thereto, which was taken into consideration and agreed to as follows:

Sir: Your letter of the 15 inst. respecting the officers and crew of the Hotham sloop has been laid before Congress, and I am instructed to inform you,

That as the manifestoes on board that vessel were of a seditious nature, and intended to open an unwarrantable correspondence, their being covered by a flag of truce is by no means an extenuation of the offence:

That as no respect is due by the law of nations to a flag of truce when employed in illicit practices; so, when detected, all the rights of a flag are forfeited; nor does the accidental wreck of the vessel in question make any distinction in favour of those who navigated her:

That the resolution of Congress, authorizing the seizure of the flag, being subsequent to the fact complained of in that resolution, requires no justification; the fact must necessarily precede the complaint, and the measures for preventing the consequences of the fact:

That addressing the manifesto in the first instance to Congress does not prove that it was not seditious, since it was at the same time addressed to the several assemblies of the United States, to the clergy, to the officers of the American army, and to the people at large; which incontestibly shews it to be seditious and unwarrantable:

That, notwithstanding the implied threat of retaliation, had there been greater danger in it than there is, Congress would nevertheless have adhered to such measures as are justified by reason and conducive to the general good.

Ordered, That it be referred to the Marine Committee.

A letter, of 13 November, from the Council of Massachusetts bay, was read, respecting the eastern Indians:

Resolved, That the President write to the council of Massachusetts bay, and inform them, it is the desire of Congress that they comply with the request of the Indians in sending them a priest.

Mr. [John] Fell, a delegate from New Jersey, attended, and produced the credentials of the delegates of that State, which were read as follows:

New Jersey, November 6th, 1778.

The Council and Assembly met at Trenton, and in Joint Meeting proceeded to the Election of five Delegates to represent this State in Congress, and the Votes being taken, the hon. John Witherspoon, Nathaniel Scudder, Frederick Frelinghuysen, John Fell and John Neillson, Esquires, were duly elected.

Resolved, therefore, That the said John Witherspoon, Nathaniel Scudder, Frederick Frelinghuysen, John Fell and John Neilson, Esquires, or any two or more of them, be empowered to Represent and vote in Behalf of this State in the Congress of the United States of North America, from the first day of December next, until the first day of December in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and Seventy nine, unless a new appointment shall sooner take place. It is nevertheless expected that three of the Delegates do constantly attend in Congress, unless prevented by sickness or other Accident.

The above is a true Copy from the Minutes of the Joint Meeting:

Bowes Reed, Secretary.

A letter, of 29 November, from Major General the Marquis de la Fayette, was read:

Ordered, That it be referred to a committee of three;

The members chosen, Mr. [William Henry] Drayton, Mr. G[ouverneur] Morris and Mr. [James] Lovell.

1 The original is in the Papers of the Continental Congress, New Jersey, Credentials of Delegates.

2 This letter is in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 156, folio 77.
The President, at the request of the Minister of France, laid before Congress an address of the Count d’Estaing to the inhabitants of Canada, which was read: ¹

Ordered, That it be referred to a committee of three:

The members chosen, Mr. [William Henry] Drayton, Mr. G[ouverneur] Morris and Mr. [James] Lovell.

A letter, of this day, from Lieutenant John Carter, was read, informing, that he considers other officers much injured by his singular promotion, and that under those circumstances he imagines that he cannot continue in the service consistent with principles of honor, and therefore desiring leave to resign his commission: ²

Resolved, That he have leave to resign, and that his resignation be accepted.

The committee to whom was referred the letter of 11 November, from General Washington, brought in a report, which was read and agreed to.

That the Reasons assigned by the General against an Expedition to Canada, appear to the Committee to be well founded and to merit the Approbation of Congress.

That they are fully of Opinion that nothing of great Importance can be attempted in that Quarter unless the Enemy should evacuate the Posts which they now hold within these United States.

That it appears, nevertheless, highly probable that they will evacuate such Posts before the active Part of the ensuing Campaign.

That whatever may be the Situation of these States in other Respects, nothing can be done unless the necessary Preparations therefor be made in due Season.

That the Committee are of Opinion the Complexity of the Plan heretofore adopted by Congress, altho’ calculated to distract the Views of the Enemy, may be nevertheless attended with such Disadvantages as to overbalance the good Consequences expected from it, and therefore that it may be simplified to Advantage.

That they entirely agree with the General that Niagara cannot be carried without commanding the Lakes Erie and Ontario, particularly the latter. But they must at the same Time observe that this Post is of such Importance to the United States as to render it proper to do every thing which is practicable to acquire the Possession of it.

That therefore it is in the Opinion of the Committee proper to direct the General to cause every previous Preparation to be made with all convenient Speed for the Subjection of that Fortress and also to carry on such farther Operations to the Northward as Time and Circumstances shall point out hereafter.

That they are of Opinion that the Questions whether any and what Force can and will be sent for the Emancipation of Quebec by his most Christian Majesty must depend upon Circumstances and Situations, which cannot at present be known on this Side the Atlantic. But they conceive it will be in his Power to operate with Effect for that Purpose, and as well from the Importance of the Object as from his former Exertions in Favor of these States, they doubt not but that in such Case, he will readily afford his Assistance.

That they are therefore of Opinion that the General should be directed to write to the Marquis de la Fayette upon that Subject, and also to write to the Minister of these States very fully, to the End that eventual Measures may be taken in case an Armament should be sent from France to Quebec to cooperate therewith to the utmost Degree which the Finances and Resources of these States will admit.

Dec. 5, 1778.
Resolved that Congress agree to the report of the committee.

Extract from the minutes.

Ordered, That it be committed to the Medical Committee, who are directed to take into consideration the case of the hospital as well as regimental surgeons, and report thereon.

A report from the Board of War was read; Whereupon,

Resolved, That the plan for raising the corps to be called the German Volunteers, be for the present laid aside:³

That Captains Führer and Kleinsmit be informed,

¹This final paragraph is in the writing of Charles Thomson. The report, in the writing of Gouverneur Morris, is in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 19, VI, folio 265.
²This letter is in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 68, folio 433.
³The original report here added: "That Lieutenant Colonel Klein, commandant thereof, be ordered to do duty as lieutenant colonel in General Pulaski's Legion."

In the margin is written by Laurens: "Postponed, 5 December."
That it is inexpedient to employ them at this time, agreeably to the intention of Congress, expressed in their former resolution on this subject:

That they settle their accounts with the auditors at Philadelphia, and be allowed a month's pay and subsistence each beyond what is now due them, in consideration of any extraordinary expence they may have incurred in equipping themselves as intended officers of the corps of German Volunteers.¹

The Board of War being applied to by Captain Medici, of the North Carolina dragoons, for directions for his future government, beg leave to state the case of the said troops:

"That, from an impracticability to provide for them, they have been hitherto unemployed in the field, except about forty, who were lately compleatly fitted out and sent to Brigadier M'Intosh under Captain Ashe, in expectation that the men whose times of service were near expiring, would agree to stay two months beyond their time; but on or soon after their arrival at Fort Pitt, their times being expired, all but 14 quitted the service and went home: that ¹This report, dated October 20 and prepared by Richard Peters, is in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 147, II, folio 339. It was accompanied by the following letter:

"Sir: The late conduct of Mr. Juliat and the character of the above mentioned Messrs. Führer and Kleinschmitt induce an opinion that it will be impolitic to trust them or to put the public to the expense of raising the Corps. Therefore the above resolutions are submitted to Congress for their approbation. Lt. Col. Klein is not under the like circumstances with the other Gentlemen. He is a very worthy man, and from all accounts a good Officer. He wishes to preserve his present appointment that if a Corps of the kind, when circumstances alter so as to render it proper, should be raised, he may command it, and in the mean time he will do the duty of Lt. Col. in Pulaski's legion in the room of Baron Bosse who was killed in the late engagement in New Jersey. I have the honor to be with the greatest respect your obedient Servant. Richard Peters."²

A petition from Carl Friedrich Führer, Carl Wilhelm Kleinschmitt, J. W. Lüdemann and Peter Caspar Freylinghausen, dated November 19, is in No. 43, folio 89. It is endorsed by Laurens as read on the 19th.
Captain Medici having been sent about eighteen months ago to Carolina, to purchase horses, sent on a few in June last; that being directed to come to Philadelphia, and settle his accounts, he is arrived, and informs, that by order of Colonel Bland he recruited 30 men for the term of three years, or during the war, and gave them orders to meet him at Halifax the beginning of this month: that he has eleven men at Philadelphia: that the whole of the said men are unprovided with cloathing and accoutrements, except some may have been provided at Halifax by order of Captain Medici, and have but few horses:

That, from their not being annexed to any corps, they cannot, in the opinion of the Board, be of much utility to the states, unless they can be employed to the southward under General Lincoln, and then much expense will accrue in fitting them for the field:’ Whereupon,

Resolved, That as the United States have no farther occasion for the service of the troops of light dragoons raised by, and when taken in continental pay, in the particular service of the State of North Carolina, the said troops be paid up to the first day of January, and that after that day, they be no longer considered in the pay of the Continent; and that they be returned to the government of the said State, to be retained in the pay thereof or discharged as they shall deem proper.

Ordered, That the Board of War settle and pay the accounts of the said dragoons.

Ordered, That the Board of War supply the said troops with such cloathing as may be due to them.¹

Congress was resolved into a committee of the whole, and after some time, the president resumed the chair, and Mr. F[rancis] L[ightfoot] Lee reported, that the com-

Resolved, That to-morrow || on Monday,|| at one o'clock, Congress be resolved into a committee of the whole, to consider farther the resolutions referred to them.

The determination of the motion, which was yesterday postponed by a State, was called for, and,

Ordered, That to morrow be assigned for the election of a President.
Adjourned to 10 o’Clock to Morrow.

Gentlemen: Ever jealous for the Dignity of Congress, and prompted by a sense of Duty, I had the honor on Monday of laying before the House informations which I had received from Citizens of respectable characters, that a certain Letter, signed S. Deane, and addressed to the Citizens of America at large, published in the Pennsylvania Packet of Saturday the 5th inst., which I presumed every Member had read, had created anxieties in the minds of the good People of this City, and excited tumults amongst them—that having received such Information, I had carefully perused the Letter, and found it to contain articles highly derogatory to the honor and interests of these United States.

That I could not be suspected of having prejudices, or of being engaged in any intrigue or Cabal against Mr. Deane, since, I could declare upon my honor that no Gentleman on the floor knew so much of my sentiments respecting Mr. Deane’s public character as I had communicated to that Gentleman himself—that seeing Mr. Deane had made his appeal to the People and had intimated a design of giving them a course of Letters, it was evident he did not mean to depart from America so suddenly as he had lately declared to this House.

That from these considerations I held it dishonorable to Congress to hear him the following evening, and thereupon I humbly moved the House to appoint a Committee of three, to consider and report specially upon the contents of the letter above mentioned—that in the mean time Mr. Deane be informed that Congress will give him further notice when they desire to hear him in the House.

This motion was seconded by many voices—an amendment was offered by an honorable Gentleman—‘that the printed Letter be read,’ which being put to question, passed in the negative by a majority of one State.

I then renewed my motion, founded upon common fame and my own certain knowledge of facts—this was over ruled by calling for the Order of the Day, for which a single voice, you know Gentlemen, is sufficient, and from that time the motion has remained neglected.
Journals of Congress

I feel upon this occasion, not for any disappointment to myself, but for the honor and dignity of this House, the great Representative of an infant Empire, upon whose conduct the Eyes of Europe are fixed. I have, from the moment in which my motion was quashed, seriously and almost constantly reflected on the above recited circumstances, and have again attentively considered Mr. Deane's Address to the People.

I see no cause to regret my conduct on Monday, and I am confirmed in my opinion that the Address contains groundless and unwarrantable insinuations and intimations respecting the conduct of this House.

Mr. Deane has never offered to this House a narrative in writing of his proceedings in France in his character of Commercial and Political Agent, nor hath he, even to this day produced proper Accounts and Vouchers of his Expenditure of Public Money.

He was notified on the 3d inst. by your President, that Congress had resolved to take into consideration, as on that evening, the state of their foreign affairs; and that such branches as he had been particularly concerned in, would, in due time, become subjects of their deliberation. In a Letter of the 4th 'he thanked Congress for that intimation.'

In the same letter he informed them 'that he had prepared to leave this City, and had made his arrangements accordingly, which it would not be in his power to dispense with for any time,' and yet on the 5th he published an Address to the free and virtuous Citizens of America, in which he complains that the Ears of their Representatives had been shut against him, and tacitly promises them a course of Letters.

He informs the Public that he had been sacrificed for the aggrandisement of others.

He charges one of your Commissioners with such improper conduct in his public character as amounts, in my Ideas, to high Crimes.

He avers that the same Commissioner had been suspected by their best friends abroad, and those in important Characters and stations, although he had given Congress no such information in writing, which he ought to have done, even long before he commenced his Voyage from France. He insinuated that the same Commissioner had been improperly forced upon him.

He sets up a charge against another of your Commissioners for a species of peculation and other malversation of conduct, which, if true, it was his duty long ago to have exhibited to Congress.

He arraigns the justice and the wisdom of Congress.
He charges and questions the conduct of an honorable Member of this House, out of the House, and holds him up to the Public in a criminal light, which ought not to have been done before he had lodged a complaint in Congress, and had failed of their attention. His publication is a sacrifice of the Peace and good Order of these States to personal resentment: and so far as it regards Congress, it is groundless and unwarrantable; wherefore, be the remainder false or true, it is, in my humble opinion, a pernicious and unprovoked Libel, affrontive to the Majesty of the People.

I am neither a Volunteer advocate for the private Characters stric- turized in Mr. Deane's paper, nor an Enemy to Mr. Deane. In a word, I view the performance in question as an Act unbecoming the character of a Public servant—altogether unnecessary, and tending to excite fears and jealousies in the minds of those free and virtuous Citizens of America, to whom Mr. Deane has addressed himself, and also to draw the conduct of Congress into suspicion and contempt—and I still hold my opinion that it was the duty of this House to take the Address into consideration before they admitted the Author to a fur- ther hearing.

Nevertheless Congress were pleased to adhere to a Resolve passed on Saturday subsequently to the open appearance of that unnecessary and insulting publication, for hearing him in writing, contrary to a Resolution of the fifteenth day of August last, which was obtained at that time after much debate by the reasonings and Votes of Gentlemen who had interested themselves strongly in his favor, and from motives assigned which cannot be effaced from the remembrance of those Gentlemen who were then present—and time is now given to Mr. Deane for preparing a detail of his transactions, which, if I understand any thing of Public business ought to have been completed and ready for presentation before he landed on the American Shore.

I feel my own honor, and much more forcibly the honor of the Public deeply wounded by Mr. Deane's address,* and I am persuaded that it will hold out such encouragement to our Enemies to continue their persecution, as will, in its consequences, be more detrimental to our Cause than the loss of a Battle. Mr. Deane has not contented himself with the scope of Dunlap's Newspaper, he has caused his address to be printed in a thousand Hand Bills—these will afford a sufficient number for penetrating the remotest part of our Union, and enough for the service of our Enemies.
I know that what I am about to do will give a transient pleasure to our Enemies, knowledge derived from a circumstance which induced me to continue in this Chair after the 31st day of October last, more strongly induced me than that unanimous request of this House, which I was then honored with. There are Gentlemen upon this floor who are well acquainted with the circumstance alluded to—but Gentlemen, their satisfaction will indeed be transitory, for I here again solemnly declare, and they will soon learn it, that I am determined to continue a faithful and diligent laborer in the Cause of my Country, and at the hazard of Life, fortune and domestic happiness, to contribute, by every means in my power to the perfect establishment of our Independence.

I shall have less cause to regret the carrying my intended purpose into effect, foreseeing that you may immediately fill with advantage, the vacancy which will presently happen.

I shall hold myself particularly answerable to my constituents for my present conduct, and in general to all my fellow Citizens throughout these States, when properly questioned.

Finally, gentleman, from the considerations above mentioned, as I cannot consistently with my own honor, nor with utility to my country, considering the manner in which Business is transacted here, remain any longer in this chair, I now resign it.

Henry Laurens.1

A report from the Board of War was read, relative to the purchase of horses for remounting Colonel Baylor's regiment; after debate,

War Office, November 25, 1778.

I am directed by the Board to represent to Congress that the Regiment of Horse commanded by Colonel Baylor, consisting at this Time of one hundred and fifty Rank and File, were by the late unfortunate Affair at Taphan deprived of all their Horses but about 50.

There are upwards of forty Horses now at Williamsburg, belonging to the State of Virginia, bought for their late Volunteer Horse under the Command of General Nelson. These horses were about being sold at public Vendue on Behalf of the State, but the Sale was postponed at the Request of an Officer of Baylor's until Application should be made to Congress for Liberty to purchase them for the Use of the Regiment. The Horses are said to be good and trained for Service. They may be had by the Continent at the prime Cost, as it is suggested to the Board, altho' much more may be obtained by Sale to private Persons. The Board request the Opinion and Directions of Congress in the Matter, and if it should be thought proper to purchase them we beg leave to report:

That the Board of War be authorized to purchase for the Use of Colonel Baylor’s Regiment of Light Dragoons a Number of Horses the Property of the State of Virginia, and which were bought for the Volunteer Horse of that State, late under the Command of General Nelson, if the same can be procured on reasonable terms.

The Warrant for near one Million of Dollars, granted for the western Expedition under General McIntosh is expended, and altho' a very great Proportion of the Money has been paid to Patrick Lockhart, Esq., for the Purchase of Provisions, Horses and other Requisites, he demands agreeably to the enclosed Estimate 166,666 2'3 Dollars to pay off the Debts he has contracted, after expending all the Monies heretofore received. Wherefore the Board beg leave to report:

That the sum of 166,666 Dollars and 2 3ds of a Dollar be paid to the Board of War, to be transmitted to Patrick Lockhart, Esq., of Virginia, farther on account of the western Expedition. And that the said Board be directed to order Mr. Lockhart as soon as possible to make out his Accounts and lay them for Settlement before the Treasury Board.¹

Resolved, That the farther consideration thereof be postponed till to morrow at one o'clock.

A report from the Board of Treasury was read; Whereupon, Congress came to the following order and resolution:

Whereas Dr. Wheelock has incurred expence in supporting a number of Indian youths, of the Caghnawaga tribe, at his school, which in times past has been the means of conciliating the friendship of that tribe:

Ordered, That a warrant issue on the treasurer in favour of Lieutenant Colonel Wheelock, for nine hundred and twenty five dollars, for the use of the said Dr. Eleazer Wheelock.

Whereas it is represented to Congress, that it will be more agreeable to adventurers in the lottery of the United States, to have the blanks drawn as well as the prizes; and that the public will thereby have an opportunity, during the time of drawing, to purchase the tickets which may remain unsold at the commencement: therefore,

Resolved, That the managers be directed to draw the blanks, as well as prizes, of the second class of the said lottery.¹

TREASURY OFFICE, December 17th, 1778.

The Committee on the Treasury beg leave to Report, that they have taken into Consideration the annexed Memorial of the Managers of the United States Lottery.

That from the positive Terms in which Congress have fixed the drawing the Lottery for the first Day of January next, the Committee are of Opinion that the drawing ought not to be deferred.

Considering, however, that this is an Important object, as instead of gaining, the public may loose, a large Sum by proceeding to draw the Lottery in the present low state of the Sales of Tickets: the Committee think proper to submit the Representation of the Managers with this Report to Congress for their Direction.¹

A motion was made, that the drawing of the second class of the United States lottery be deferred to the first day of April next:

Question put, passed in the negative.

Congress resumed the consideration of the report of the committee of the whole:

On the second proposition in the report,

2. That they be brought in for that purpose, in the manner hereafter provided, by the first day of June next, and not afterwards redeemable.

To which an amendment was moved in lieu of the whole as follows: "That it be recommended to the States to pass laws prohibiting the currency of all bills of the said emissions within their respective limits after a certain day; such day to be as early as their respective circumstances will admit; and that no bills of the said emissions shall be held redeemable, which shall not be brought in to the proper offices on or before the day most distant from the time of passing this resolution, which shall by any State be enacted for limiting the currency thereof."

Which was lost by the previous question.

¹This report is in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 136, II, folio 773.
Another amendment was moved to strike out the words "and not afterwards redeemable"; and in lieu thereof insert, "and that it be recommended to the several States to pass effectual laws to prevent the circulation of the said bills on the respective States after the said 1st day of June next."

Which was also lost by the previous question.

December, 1778

A letter, of 12, from General T. Mifflin, and one of 15, from Mr. President Rodney, of Delaware, were read.\textsuperscript{1} A memorial from Elizabeth Preston, was read:\textsuperscript{2}

Ordered, That it be referred to the Board of War.
Resolved, That a member be appointed to the Board of War, in the room of Mr. [Roger] Sherman:
The ballots being taken, Mr. J[esse] Root was elected.
A memorial from Thomas Mumford was read.
The Committee on the Treasury, to whom was re-committed their report on the memorial of Ephraim Blaine, deputy commissary general of purchases, with directions to state the facts specially, report,

"That it appears by a letter from the said Ephraim Blaine to Congress, dated the 27 March last, that he had purchased goods from George Kennedy, between the 3d October, 1777, and 9 February following, to the amount of six thousand dollars, for which he had engaged him to take payment in loan office certificates, on condition that such certificates should be procured for him before the first day of March, 1778:

That Kennedy applied to the commissary general before that day, but because Blaine's accounts were unsettled, he could not get a draught on the loan office for the certificates:

That Kennedy was yet willing to take certificates to bear date as above:

That there were other claimants under the like circumstances, who had not yet applied:\textsuperscript{3}

That the said letter, being referred to the Committee on the Treasury, they gave their opinion that it was by \textsuperscript{2}This memorial, dated December 22, is in the \textit{Papers of the Continental Congress}, No. 41, VIII, folio 66.

\textsuperscript{3}The four following paragraphs are in the writing of Thomas Edison.
no means proper to antedate loan office certificates for the payment of a balance due from the public, and circum-staned as the case mentioned in the said letter:

That Mr. Blaine, on the 30 day of May following, presented a memorial to Congress, setting forth that he contracted with George Kennedy and others, for articles for the use of the army, in the months of October, November, December, and January, then last, to the amount of 17,500 dollars, for which he had promised them loan office certificates in payment; he therefore prayed for warrants on the loan office for certificates to that amount, to be dated on the first of January, then last, to enable him to fulfil his contract:

That the said memorial being referred to the Board of Treasury, they reported that they continued of the opinion they had before given on Mr. Blaine’s letter, that it was by no means proper to antedate loan office certificates for the payments of those debts:

That, upon the said report being read in Congress, it was re-committed.

That they have therefore a third time taken the subject matter of the said letter and memorial into consideration, and, after mature reflection, retain the opinion they have repeatedly given, that antedated certificates ought not to be issued to satisfy the said demands:

and in support of such their Opinion, they beg leave to subjoin the following Reasons:

1. That to draw the Loan Office Certificates into Trade appears to be repugnant to the policy upon which the Loan Offices were established:
A principal End was to lessen the quantity of the Bills in Currency by exchanging them into Certificates, which would not be so liable to Transfer: But to Countenance Mr. Blain’s Mode of Contracting, would be to multiply by a powerful Example, [and to] countenance by a formal Act of Congress the Circulating Medium by the additional weight of those Certificates.
II. That to traffic with Loan Office Certificates would be to bring them into disesteem, and in a little Time to expose them to the disadvantage of a Discount.

III. That the Loan Office Certificates at that Time bearing an Interest payable by Bills of Exchange on France, were better than Continental Bills of Credit to the same Amount, and such Mode of payment consequently prejudicial to the public.

IV. That no purchasing Commissary had any Licence or Authority to Barter Loan Office Certificates for Goods: and Consequently Congress are not bound in Justice any more than in Policy to Countenance such Contracts.

V. That to give Authority to any purchasing Officer to agree for Continental Certificates: to defer payment because their public Accounts may be unsettled and afterwards to make good an Interest by antedating Loan Office Certificates would be a dangerous Tendency, and open still wider the Door to Fraud and Imposition.

VI. That strict punctuality in payment either in public or private Dealings is not at all Times practicable. That where there is some Delay, it has not been usual for Congress to allow an Interest; nor is it customary, as the Committee believe in any Country whatever.

VII. That if notwithstanding the last Reason, Mr. Blain's unauthoritative Engagement for Loan Office Certificates, should be confirmed, there is the same Equity, that all the public Creditors should be paid in Continental Loan Office Certificates; bearing an Interest from the Time of contracting the Debt, and payable by the Commissioners in France.¹

||The report being read and considered,||

Resolved, That Congress agree to the said report.

Another report from the Board of Treasury was read; Whereupon,

Resolved, That William Geddes, Esq. commissioner of one of the chambers of accounts, be empowered and requested to act as one of the commissioners of claims until the chambers of accounts can proceed to business.

Resolved, That the remainder of the report which respects the memorial of Captain John Sutton, be re-committed.

¹This report, dated December 19, is in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 136, II, folio 789.
Another report from the Board of Treasury was read; Whereupon,

Treasury Office, December 18, 1778.

The Committee on the Treasury beg leave to Report that application is made by Captain Cosmo Medici for Reimbursement for 18 Horses purchased by him for the North Carolina Troops.

That the Horses so purchased average at $335 78/90 Dollars each.

That by the Resolutions of Congress no more is allowed for each Horse than 150 Dollars.

That the Committee are informed that in many cases besides the present, larger Sums have been paid for Horses than the allowance limited by Congress.

The Committee therefore submit it to Congress, whether an additional allowance shall be made beyond the established price, in the settlement of the Officers Accounts, who have purchased Horses for the Cavalry.

Ordered, That a warrant issue on the treasurer in favour of the Marine Committee, for twenty thousand dollars, for the use of the navy board in the middle department; the said committee to be accountable:

Ordered, That a warrant issue on the treasurer in favour of John Millar, for one thousand dollars, in payment of a draught of Major General R. Howe, dated Charleston, South Carolina, 24 August, 1778, in favour of Captain Rawleigh Downman, and endorsed by him for that sum; it being agreeable to a letter of advice of the same date from General Howe, who is to be accountable.\(^1\)

Resolved, That the remainder of the report respecting an additional allowance beyond the established price, to be made to officers who have purchased horses for the cavalry, be postponed to Monday next; then to be taken into consideration.

December, 1778

Six o’Clock, p. m.

The committee to whom were referred sundry letters from Major General Mifflin, late quartermaster general, brought in a report, which was read:

We your committee appointed by a resolve of the — September 1 last upon sundry letters addressed to Congress by General Mifflin late Quarter Master General, beg leave to report.

1. That upon perusal of sundry letters wrote by your commander in chief during the last winter, and your committee then sitting in camp, it appears that the troops suffered very great and sore distress, in the articles of provisions, forage, and camp transportation, that the said distress is therein ascribed to the neglect, deficiencies, or other mismanagement of the said department.

That Congress on the eleventh of June last passed the following resolve vizt.:

Ordered, That General Washington be directed to order an inquiry to be made into the conduct of Major General Mifflin, late Quarter Master General, and the other officers who acted under him in that department, and if it shall appear, that the extraordinary deficiencies thereof, and the consequent distresses of the army were chargeable to the misconduct of the said Quarter Master General, or any of the said officers that a Court martial be forthwith held on the delinquents.

That it does not appear to your committee, that any proceedings have been since had thereupon. Your committee also beg leave to add, that during their consideration of this matter, information was given to them, supported by sundry affidavits, from which it appears probable, that during the winter 1777, and the spring 1778, when the army was in the suffering state before mentioned, sundry brigades of waggons in the publick service were sent to New Windsor, Newburgh, Hartford, and Boston with flour and Iron on private accounts and brought back private property. That it also appears probable from said affidavits, that the said flour and Iron had been taken as for publick use at the regulated prices then fixed by law, and that the waggons during such transportation, were subsisted at the different posts, on the publick forage. That Colonel Robert Lettis Hooper, then and now deputy Quarter Master General, appears to have been the principal director of the said waggons at that time.

1The resolution was dated August 17. See page 802, ante.
Your committee therefore under all the circumstances of the case report, if the said resolution of the eleventh of June is to be carried into execution, the same should be done by a court of inquiry, and court martial in the usual manner, and that General Washington be directed to proceed accordingly, the parties concerned having reasonable notice.

Your committee also present to the House the affidavits they have taken and the Minutes of their Proceedings to be disposed of as Congress think proper.¹

Ordered, That the consideration thereof be postponed.

The committee to whom was referred the letter of 13th, from General Washington, relative to Lieutenant Colonel Fleury, brought in a report, which was read:

Ordered, That the consideration thereof be postponed until the report from the Board of War respecting Brigadier du Portail, and the engineers who accompanied him, shall be taken up, and that both be considered together.

According to order, Mr. Deane attending, was called in, and proceeded to read his written information, but, not having time to finish, Ordered, That he attend to morrow at 9 o'clock, and proceed in his information.

Adjourned to 9 o'Clock to Morrow.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 23, 1778

A letter, of 22, from Colonel William Grayson, was read, informing that he has been duly notified of his appointment to the Board of War, and expressing a desire to decline the appointment.

A letter, of 1, from Gosuinus Erkelens, was read; also a letter of 29 November, from Colonel J. G. Direks, informing Congress of his intention,¹ on his arrival in Holland, to correspond with the Hon. Dr. Franklin, at Paris, and desiring that the President would mention his name to Dr. Franklin in his next letter:

Ordered, That this his desire be complied with.

According to order, Mr. Deane attending, was called in, and proceeded in his information, and having gone through what he had written, he produced sundry letters and papers, referred to in his written information, which he desired might be read; upon a letter of 7 April, from Dr. Franklin to him, being read, Mr. Deane desired leave to say something in explanation of the latter clause of said letter, which respects a negotiator, "who, the letter mentions, is gone back apparently much chagrined at his little success, and in which Dr. Franklin says he has promised him faithfully, that since his propositions could not be accepted, they should be buried in oblivion; and therefore earnestly desires that Mr. Deane would put that paper immediately in the fire, on the receipt of the letter, without taking or suffering to be taken any copy of it, or communicating its contents:"

As he was proceeding to explain this matter, a motion was made, that Mr. Deane withdraw:

Mr. Deane accordingly withdrew.

A motion was then made, that Mr. Deane be called in and informed that if he has any thing further to report, he lay it before Congress in writing:

To which an amendment was moved,

That Mr. Deane be permitted to proceed in his verbal explanation, referred to, and that it be afterwards reduced to writing, if Congress shall judge it necessary: which being adopted, it was divided, and upon the question to agree to the first clause,

Ordered, To lie on the table for the perusal of the members.

According to order, Brigadier W. Thompson attending, was called in, and the evidences being examined, withdrew.¹

Brigadier Thompson being called in and informed of the order of the house, desired that the papers he had in his hand might be read:

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 24, 1778

Mr. Samuel Atlee, a delegate for Pennsylvania, attended, and took his seat in Congress.

The president informed Congress that General Washington was arrived in town, pursuant to their orders:

> Resolved, That the Commander in Chief be introduced to Congress, and informed from the chair, that Congress have directed his attendance in order, among other things, to confer with him on the operations of the next campaign, and that a committee will be appointed for that purpose.

> Ordered, That the secretary present the Commander in Chief with the foregoing resolution, and acquaint him that Congress are now ready to receive him.

In pursuance of the foregoing order, the Commander in Chief attended, and being informed by the President of the end for which Congress has directed his attendance, and that a committee will be appointed agreeably to the foregoing resolution, he withdrew.

Congress proceeded to the election of a committee:

The members chosen, are Mr. [James] Duane, Mr. [Jesse] Root, Mr. [Meriwether] Smith, Mr. [Gouverneur] Morris, and Mr. [Henry] Laurens.

Congress took into consideration the charge against Brigadier General Thompson, and his defence; Whereupon the defence was called for, and read.
A motion was then made, that the apology made by Brigadier General Thompson be accepted as satisfactory:
The charge and depositions were then called for; Whereupon a motion was made, that the examination of Mr. Justice Atlee, and the deposition of Colonel Noarth, the one offered to support the charge against Brigadier General Thompson, and the other in his exculpation, be rejected, the same being taken ex parte:
To which an amendment was offered, || by way of substitute,||
That the examination of Mr. Justice Atlee, taken before Congress on Monday the 7th inst. in support of the charge against Brigadier Thompson, be rejected, and that the deposition of Colonel Noarth, produced last night by Brigadier Thompson in his own exculpation from the charge, be also rejected:
A question was taken, whether, consistent with order, the latter proposition can be offered as an amendment to the former: and

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 26, 1778

A letter, of 21, from Abraham Clark, Esq. of New Jersey, was read, enclosing affidavits respecting the conduct of Brigadier Maxwell in resisting a writ of Habeas Corpus:¹

Ordered, That the same be referred to a committee of three:

The members chosen, Mr. [James] Duane, Mr. [Thomas] Burke, and Mr. [John] Fell.

¹This letter is in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 78, V, folio 287.
A memorial from Josiah Smith, surgeon, and others, late of the Revenge cutter, Captain Cunningham, was read:

 Ordered, That it be referred to the Marine Committee.¹

Congress resumed the consideration of the report of the committee of the whole on the subject of finance, when the 6th proposition was read, viz.

6. That proper bills be provided and ready to be delivered out at said offices, to compleat the said exchanges as soon as possible, and that due notice be given to all parties concerned by public advertisements, as soon as the same shall be ready:

It was moved to strike out the words "as soon as possible," and all the words that follow to the end of the resolution, and insert in the place thereof "by the first day of June next."

An amendment was then moved, || to substitute the following resolution:||

That the commissioners of the loan offices make returns to the Treasury Board immediately after the 1st day of June next, of the amount of bills received into their respective offices, to be exchanged as aforesaid, and that proper bills to exchange the same be furnished and ready to be delivered out at their said offices within sixty days from and after the said first day of June:

Mr. [Nathaniel] Scudder, a delegate for New Jersey, attended, and took his seat.

A letter, of this day, from Dr. J. Morgan, was read;¹ Whereupon,

Resolved, That a member in the place of Mr. [John] Harvie be added to the committee on the memorial from Dr. Morgan:

The member chosen, Mr. M[eriwether] Smith.

The President informed Congress that the Minister of France had requested him to communicate the following information to Congress, namely, That the Minister was assured by good intelligence that the enemy’s fleet at Rhode island were greatly distressed for want of masts and spars; that a mast had been taken from a Merchant Man of 600 tons and put into a man of war of the line; That others of their ships of war had been rigged with jury masts, and that they had little prospect of a supply from Halifax or any other of their ports: That there was in New Hampshire a number of masts fit for ships of the line ready to be exported from thence to St. Domingo. That the enemy have been advised of this and are preparing to intercept them: That it is his opinion it would be of great consequence to prevent the enemy from obtaining such an important supply, and therefore he proposed that the masts should be sunk during the winter, and as an inducement thereto he would himself pay the expence of sinking and raising them, and also the interest of whatever sums may have been expended in procuring the said masts, until the next spring. Whereupon, ¹This letter is in the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 63, folio 121.

Resolved, That it be most earnestly recommended to the States of Massachusetts bay and New Hampshire to take the most effectual measures to prevent any masts or spars from being exported from or laden on board of any ships or vessels within the ports of the said States.

Ordered, That the President enclose the foregoing information and resolution, and write fully on the subject to the executive authorities of those States.

A letter, of 17th, from Governor G. Clinton, ||of New York,|| was read:¹

A letter, of 15, from Colonel Malcolm, was read, enclosing a return of the military stores and garrison of Forts Clinton and Constitution:

Ordered, That the same be referred to the Board of War.

Resolved, That two brigadiers be appointed for the troops of North Carolina.

Colonels Jethro Sumner and Thomas Clarke are nominated by the delegates of North Carolina for brigadiers.

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed to enquire into the state of the Pennsylvania troops, and report whether an additional brigadier is wanting for the troops of that State:

The members chosen, Mr. [Thomas] M'Kean, Mr. [Thomas] Burke, and Mr. [Samuel] Atlee.

Resolved, That an additional brigadier be appointed for the troops of South Carolina.

Colonel Isaac Huger [was] nominated by the delegates of South Carolina.

The order of the day was called for, whereupon a set of resolutions which were laid upon the table on Saturday, relative to finance were read.

¹This letter is the Papers of the Continental Congress, No. 67, 11, folio 144.
After debate,

Resolved, That the farther consideration thereof be postponed till to morrow.||

A motion was made as follows:

Whereas a report hath circulated in divers parts of America, that Congress would not redeem the bills of credit issued by them to defray the expences of the war, but would suffer them to sink in the hands of the holder, whereby the value of the said bills hath, in the opinion of many of the good people of these states, depreciated; and lest the silence of Congress might give strength to the said report;

Resolved, That the said report is false and derogatory to the honor of Congress.

A motion was made that the consideration thereof be postponed;

Address to the Inhabitants.

Bibliographical Notes

The committee to prepare it was composed of Richard Henry Lee, Samuel Chase and Gouverneur Morris.
Sparks states in his Life of G. Morris, that the rough draft is among the Morris papers, in Morris's writing.

"Colonel Gimat takes the trouble of conveying this and also of a Packet containing 50 Copies of an Address by Congress to the Inhabitants of the United States of America. Your Excellency will be pleased to direct a dispersion of these Papers so as most effectually to answer the purposes intended." Laurens to Washington, 11 May, 1778.

"Your Excellency will receive with this, several copies of an Address by Congress under the 9th. Inst., to the Inhabitants of these United States, which Congress request may be dispersed as generally and as speedily as possible, and that the Clergy should be supplied with copies; this may render it necessary to employ the press again in each State. Your Excellency will judge and order what shall appear necessary in this." Laurens to States, 11 May, 1778.

Manifesto on Conduct of War.

230. By the Congress of the United States / of America. / A Manifesto.

F°. Broadside.

One of the reasons for issuing this paper was the attempted negotiation of the British Commissioners in the summer and fall of this year.

The Library of Congress possesses a copy of an octavo pamphlet of 16 pages, with the following title:

The / Debates of the Congress. / containing / Select Speeches of the Principal Members / on the / Proposals and Plan sent over for an Accommodation, by / the Commissioners. / The First Part containing the / Speech / of Mr. Morris, / Wherein the real interest of both Countries are consider'd, the Consequence that must ensue if they are divided, and the mutual Advantages they must enjoy / if united. / To which is added / His first Plan which he delivered to the first / Congress. / Wherewith many things are made known to the World, / of which they were entirely ignorant of before. / Price.

Robert Morris was the supposed speaker. The tract was probably issued by James Rivington, at New York, but is much below the general merit of his forgeries.
