the Government or related to or in any manner connected with the claimants to act as appraisers, whose duty it shall be, upon receiving from the Attorney-General a description of any tract or parcel, the ownership of which is claimed separately, to fairly and justly value the same, and report such valuation to the Attorney-General, who thereupon shall, upon being satisfied as to the title of the same, cause to be offered to the owner or owners the amount fixed by the appraisers as the value thereof; and if the offer be accepted, then, upon the exe-

Attorney-General, the Secretary of War shall pay the amount to such owner or owners from the appropriation made therefor in this Act.
In making the valuation the appraisers shall only consider the present value of the land or property acquired without reference to its value for the uses for which it is taken under the provisions of this Act.
The appraisers shall each receive for their services five dollars for each day’s actual service in making the said appraisements.
Any person or corporation having any estate or interest in the premises, who shall for any reason not have been tendered payment therefor as above provided, or who shall decline to accept the amount tendered therefor, may, at any time within one year from the publipetition in the Court of Claims of the United States setting forth his whom a tender shall have been made, as hereinbefore authorized, and who shall decline to accept the same, shall, unless he recover an

That the Secretary of Agriculture shall cause an examination and inspection of all cattle, sheep, swine, and goats, and the food products thereof, slaughtered and prepared in the establishments hereinbefore described for the purposes of interstate or foreign commerce to be made during the nighttime as well as during the daytime when the slaughtering of said cattle, sheep, swine, and goats, or the preparation of said food products is conducted during the nighttime.

That the Secretary of Agriculture shall cause to be made a careful inspection of all cattle, sheep, swine, and goats intended and offered for export to foreign countries at such times and places, and in such manner as he may deem proper, to ascertain whether such cattle, sheep, swine, and goats are free from disease.

And for this purpose he may appoint inspectors who shall be authorized to give an official certificate clearly stating the condition in which such cattle, sheep, swine, and goats are found.

And no clearance shall be given to any vessel having on board cattle, sheep, swine, or goats for export to a foreign country until the owner or shipper of such cattle, sheep, swine, or goats has a certificate from the inspector herein authorized to be appointed, stating that the said cattle, sheep, swine, or goats are sound and healthy, or unless the Secretary of Agriculture shall have waived the requirement of such certificate for export to the particular country to which such cattle, sheep, swine, or goats are to be exported.

That the Secretary of Agriculture shall also cause to be made a careful inspection of the carcasses and parts thereof of all cattle, sheep, swine, and goats, the meat of which, fresh, salted, canned, corned, packed, cured, or otherwise prepared, is intended and offered for export to any foreign country, at such times and places and in such manner as he may deem proper.

[Public, No. 215.]

Preamble.

CHAP. 2910.—An Act To annul certain titles to land acquired by judicial proceedings in the courts of the United States in Texas, and for other purposes.

Whereas on the eleventh day of December, eighteen hundred and seventy-three, the United States obtained judgment in the circuit court of the United States sitting at Tyler, Texas, in the then western district of Texas, for fifty thousand dollars, against William T. Scott, William Umbdenstock, and others, sureties on the official bond of Davis B. Bonfoy, late collector of internal revenue for the fourth district of Texas, cause one thousand and thirty-seven, and it appearing from the facts that on the trial of the cause against the said sureties they were deprived of their defense by having, through mistake, presented their accounts and facts in favor of Davis B. Bonfoy, their principal, then deceased, to the wrong accounting officer at Washington, District of Columbia, for his action thereon, and said accounts were returned by said officer to the United States attorney representing the Government in the case without any action thereon, which fact was not known to the defendants until they had announced themselves ready for trial; and

Whereas facts subsequently discovered show that at the date of said judgment Davis B. Bonfoy, as collector aforesaid, was not really indebted to the United States, which facts could not have been known at the time to the proper accounting officers of the Treasury Department, for the reason that the money belonging to the United States in the hands of Bonfoy at the time of his death were taken charge of by the military authorities of the United States then commanding at Marshal, Texas (the State being under military rule), and returned to and accounted for by said military authorities to the War Department instead of the Treasury Department; and

Whereas since said money so returned to the War Department has been taken up by the accounting officers of the Treasury Department in a readjustment of the accounts of the said Davis B. Bonfoy as collector, and it appearing from said last adjustment, including the newly discovered funds in the War Department, that at the time said judgment was obtained against said sureties Bonfoy really owed the Government nothing, but in fact had a balance due him from the Government: Therefore

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the United States hereby relinquishes to the heirs or legal representatives of William T. Scott, late of Scottsville, Harrison County, Texas, and to his assigns, all the right, title, and interest, real or pretended, of the United States in and to fifty-two sections of land of six hundred and forty acres each, aggregating thirty-three thousand two hundred and eighty acres, lying and being situated in the counties of Tom Green, Mitchell, Concho, Irion, Coke, Sterling, and Atascosa, in the State of Texas, which said lands were bought in for the United States by Stillwell H. Russell, then United States marshal for the western district of Texas, at a public sale made by him, the said Stillwell H. Russell, United States marshal, on the first Tuesday in October, eighteen hundred and seventy-eight, under and by virtue of an alias pluries execution, dated June tenth, eighteen hundred and seventy-eight, issuing out of the circuit court of the United States on said judgment obtained by the United States in a circuit court of the United States sitting at Tyler, Texas, in the western judicial district of Texas, on the eleventh day of December, eighteen hundred and seventy-three, against William T. Scott and others as sureties on the bond of Davis B. Bonfoy, collector aforesaid cause one thousand and thirty-seven, and levied on said lands on the fifth day of September, eighteen hundred and seventy-eight, and by him as such marshal, following the statute in such case made and provided, deeded to the United States in a deed bearing date December ninth, eighteen hundred and seventy-eight, and recorded in Tom Green County, in Book C of deeds of said county, folios one hundred and twenty-eight to one hundred and thirty-eight, inclusive; and that all the right, title, and interest of the United States, real or pretended, to said lands be, and the same are hereby, as fully and thoroughly divested out of the United States as if no such judgment had ever been obtained.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section sixteen of an Act entitled "An Act to enable the people of Oklahoma and of the Indian Territory to form a constitution and State government and be admitted into the Union on an equal footing with the original States; and to enable the people of New Mexico and of Arizona to form a constitution and State government and be admitted into the Union on an equal footing with the original States," approved June sixteenth, nineteen hundred and six, be, and the same is hereby, amended so as to read as follows:

"Sec. 16. That all civil causes, proceedings, and matters pending in the supreme or district courts of Oklahoma Territory, or in the United States courts or United States court of appeals in the Indian Territory, arising under the Constitution, laws, or treaties of the United States, or affecting ambassadors, ministers, or consuls of the United States, or of any other country or state, or of admiralty, or of maritime jurisdiction, or in which the United States may be a party, or between citizens of the same State claiming lands under grants from different States; and all cases where there is a controversy between a citizen of either of said Territories prior to admission and a citizen of any State, or between a citizen of any State and a citizen or subject of any foreign state or country, in which cases of diversity of citizenship there shall be more than two thousand dollars in controversy, exclusive of interest and costs, shall be transferred to the proper United States circuit or district court established by this Act, for final disposition, and shall therein be proceeded with in the same manner as if originally brought therein; provided, that said transfer shall not be made in any such case where the United States is not a party, except on application of one of the parties, in the court in which the cause is pending, at or before the second term of such court after the admission of said State, supported by oath, showing that the case is one which may be so transferred. The proceedings to effect such transfer, except as to time and parties, shall be the same as are now provided by law for the removal of causes from a State court to a circuit court of the United States. Cases transferred from appellate courts shall go to the circuit courts of the United States in such State, which courts, for the purpose of hearing such cases, are hereby vested with all the powers of such Territorial appellate courts. If the circuit court shall affirm the judgment, it shall, if the case be one then originally cognizable in the district court, remand it to that court for carrying into effect the judgment of the trial court; but if the case be one then originally cognizable in the circuit court, it shall carry into effect the judgment of the trial court. If the circuit court shall reverse the judgment, it shall, if the case be one then originally cognizable in the district court, remand the case to that court for a new trial; but if the case be one then originally cognizable in the circuit court, it shall set the case down for a new trial therein. All final judgments and decrees rendered in such circuit and district courts in such transferred cases may be reviewed by the Supreme Court of the United States, or by the United States circuit court of appeals, in the cases and in the same manner as is now provided by law with reference to the judgments and decrees of the existing United States circuit and district courts.
"Prosecutions for all crimes and offenses committed within the Territory of Oklahoma or in the Indian Territory, pending in the district courts of the Territory of Oklahoma or in the United States courts in the Indian Territory upon the admission of such Territories as a State, which, had they been committed within a State, would have been cognizable in the Federal courts, shall be transferred to and be proceeded with in the United States circuit or district court established by this Act for the district in which the offenses were committed, in the same manner and with the same effect as if they had been committed within a State. Prosecutions for all such offenses committed within either of said Territories and pending in the supreme court of the Territory of Oklahoma, or in the United States court of appeals in the Indian Territory, upon the admission of such Territories as a State, shall be transferred to the United States circuit courts created by this Act for the district within which the offense was committed, which courts are hereby vested with the same jurisdiction to hear such cases as is now vested in the appellate courts of such Territories. Upon the affirmance or reversal by the circuit court of a judgment in any such case, like proceedings shall be had, and like appeals and writs of error allowed, as is provided in this section of this Act in civil cases."

Sec. 2. That section seventeen of said Act is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

"SEC. 17. That all causes, proceedings, and matters, civil or criminal, pending in the supreme court of the Territory of Oklahoma, or in the United States court of appeals in the Indian Territory, not transferred to the United States circuit or district courts in said State of Oklahoma shall be proceeded with, held, and determined by the supreme court or other final appellate court of such State as the successor of said supreme court of the Territory of Oklahoma and of the United States court of appeals in the Indian Territory, subject to the same right to review upon appeal or writ of error to the Supreme Court of the United States now allowed from the supreme or final appellate court of a State under existing laws."

Sec. 3. That section twenty of said Act is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

"SEC. 20. That all causes, proceedings, and matters, civil or criminal, pending in the district courts of Oklahoma Territory, or in the United States courts in the Indian Territory, at the time said Territories become a State, not transferred to the United States circuit or district courts in the State of Oklahoma, shall be proceeded with, held, and determined by the courts of said State, the successors of the district courts of the Territory of Oklahoma, and the United States courts in the Indian Territory; with the right to prosecute appeals or writs of error to the supreme or appellate court of said State, and also with the same right to prosecute appeals or writs of error from the final determination in such cases made by the supreme or appellate court of such State to the Supreme Court of the United States, as is provided by law for appeals and writs of error from the supreme or final appellate court of a State to the Supreme Court of the United States.
