SEC. 206. No part of the funds contained in this title may be used to force any school or school district which is desegregated as that term is defined in title IV of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Public Law 88-352, to take any action to force the busing of students; to force on account of race, creed, or color the abolishment of any school so desegregated; or to force the transfer or assignment of any student attending any elementary or secondary school so desegregated to or from a particular school over the protest of his or her parents or parent.

SEC. 207. (a) No part of the funds contained in this title shall be used to force any school or school district which is desegregated as that term is defined in title IV of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Public Law 88-352, to take any action to force the busing of students; to require the abolishment of any school so desegregated; or to force on account of race, creed, or color the transfer of students to or from a particular school so desegregated as a condition precedent to obtaining Federal funds otherwise available to any State, school district, or school.

(b) No funds appropriated in this Act may be used for the transportation of students or teachers (or for the purchase of equipment for such transportation) in order to overcome racial imbalance in any school or school system, or for the transportation of students or teachers (or for the purchase of equipment for such transportation) in order to carry out a plan of racial desegregation of any school or school system.

Sec. 208. None of the funds contained in this Act shall be used to require, directly or indirectly, the transportation of any student to a school other than the school which is nearest the student's home, and which offers the courses of study pursued by such student, in order to comply with title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

Sec. 209. None of the funds contained in this Act shall be used to perform abortions except where the life of the mother would be endangered if the fetus were carried to term.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS

SEC. 101. (a) Effective October 1, 1976, section 105(d) (1) of the Legislative Branch Appropriation Act, 1968, as amended and modified, is amended by striking out “calendar year” each place it appears and inserting in lieu thereof “fiscal year”.

(b) Subject to the provisions of section 105(d) (2) of the Legislative Branch Appropriation Act, 1968, as amended and modified, the amount of accrued surplus available to any Senator under section 105(d) (1) of such Act at the close of September 30, 1976, shall be available to that Senator during the period beginning on October 1, 1976, and ending on December 31, 1976, for the purposes of fixing the number and rates of compensation of employees in his office.

SEC. 102. Section 108(c) of the Legislative Branch Appropriation Act, 1976, is amended by inserting “(1)” after “(c)” and by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

“(2) If (A) a Senator’s service on a committee terminates (other than by reason of his ceasing to be a Member of the Senate) or a Senator’s status on a committee as the chairman or ranking minority member of such committee or a subcommittee thereof changes, and (B) the appointment of an employee appointed under this section and designated to such committee by such Senator would (but for this paragraph) thereby terminate, such employee shall, subject to the provisions of subsection (e), be continued as an employee appointed by such Senator under this section until whichever of the following first occurs: (1) the close of the tenth day following the day on which such Senator’s service on such committee terminates or his status on such committee changes or (2) the effective date on which such Senator notifies the Secretary of the Senate, in writing, that such employee is no longer to be continued as an employee appointed under this section. An employee whose appointment is continued under this paragraph shall perform such duties as the Senator who appointed him may assign.”.

SEC. 103. Section 5533(c) (1) of title 5, United States Code, is amended by inserting before the period at the end thereof “($10,540, in the case of pay disbursed by the Secretary of the Senate)”.

SEC. 104. (a) The Secretary of the Senate is authorized to reimburse any bank which clears items for the United States Senate for the costs incurred therein. Such reimbursements shall be made from the contingent fund of the Senate.

(b) The Secretary of the Senate is authorized to prescribe such regulations as he deems necessary to govern the cashing of personal checks by the Disbursing Office of the Senate.
(c) Whenever an employee whose compensation is disbursed by the Secretary of the Senate becomes indebted to the Senate and such employee fails to pay such indebtedness, the Secretary of the Senate is authorized to withhold the amount of the indebtedness from any amount which is disbursed by him and which is due to, or on behalf of, such employee. Whenever an amount is withheld under this section, the appropriate account shall be credited in an amount equal to the amount so withheld.

Sec. 105. (a) Effective October 1, 1976, except as provided in subsections (b) and (c), the maximum annual compensation of a mail carrier in the Senate post office shall not exceed $8,109.

(b) In the case of a mail carrier in the Senate post office who was serving as such a mail carrier on September 30, 1976, the maximum annual rate of compensation shall not exceed $11,130, so long as his service as such a mail carrier remain continuous.

(c) In the case of a mail carrier in the Senate post office (other than a mail carrier whose compensation is fixed under subsection (b)) whose regularly scheduled daily tour of duty begins on or before 6 a.m., the annual rate of compensation may be increased, in the discretion of the Sergeant at Arms and Doorkeeper, by not to exceed 10 percent. If such annual rate of compensation, as so increased, is not a multiple of the figure set forth in the applicable Order of the President pro tempore of the Senate issued under authority of section 4 of the Federal Pay Comparability Act of 1970, such rate shall be adjusted to the next higher multiple of such figure.

Sec. 106. (a) There is hereby established in the Treasury of the United States a revolving fund within the contingent fund of the Senate to be known as the Senate Employees Barber Shop Revolving Fund (hereafter in this section referred to as the "revolving fund").

(b) All moneys received by the Senate employees barber shop from fees for services or from any other source shall be deposited to the credit of the revolving fund. Moneys in the revolving fund shall be available without fiscal year limitation for disbursement by the Secretary of the Senate for additional compensation of personnel of the Senate employees barber shop, as determined by the Sergeant at Arms and Doorkeeper of the Senate, and for necessary supplies for the Senate employees barber shop.

(c) On or before December 31 of each year, the Secretary of the Senate shall withdraw from the revolving fund and deposit in the Treasury of the United States as miscellaneous receipts an amount equal to the amount in the revolving fund at the close of the preceding fiscal year, reduced by the amount of outlays from the revolving fund after the close of such year attributable to obligations incurred during such year.

(d) Disbursements from the revolving fund shall be made upon vouchers signed by the Sergeant at Arms and Doorkeeper of the Senate.

(e) The Sergeant at Arms and Doorkeeper of the Senate is authorized to prescribe such regulations as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.

(f) This section shall take effect on October 1, 1976.

Sec. 107. No provision of this Act or of any Act hereafter enacted which specifies a rate of compensation (including a maximum rate) for any position or employee whose compensation is disbursed by the Secretary of the Senate shall, unless otherwise specifically provided therein, be construed to affect the applicability of section 4 of the Federal Pay Comparability Act of 1970 to such rate.
SEC. 108. The second paragraph under the heading “Administrative Provisions” in the Legislative Branch Appropriation Act, 1959 (72 Stat. 442; 2 U.S.C. 65b), is amended by striking out “$2,000” and inserting in lieu thereof “$4,000 during any fiscal year”.

SEC. 109. Section 502(b) of the Mutual Security Act of 1954 (22 U.S.C. 1754(b)) is amended—

(1) by inserting after “Joint Committee on Congressional Operations” the following: “and the Select Committee on Intelligence of the Senate”; and

(2) by adding at the end thereof the following new sentence:

“In the case of the Select Committee on Intelligence of the Senate, such consolidated report may, in the discretion of the chairman of such select committee, omit such information as would identify the foreign countries in which members and employees of such select committee traveled.”.

SEC. 110. (a) (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law but subject to the provisions of paragraph (2), the Committee on Government Operations is authorized, during the fiscal year ending September 30, 1977, to employ one additional professional staff member at a per annum rate not to exceed the rate provided for the four professional staff members referred to in section 105(e) (3) (A) of the Legislative Branch Appropriations Act, 1968, as amended and modified.

(2) The provisions of paragraph (1) shall cease to be effective when and if the individual who was a reemployed annuitant and was employed by such Committee at the per annum rate referred to in such paragraph on August 25, 1976, ceases to be so employed at such rate.

(b) (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law but subject to the provisions of paragraph (2), the Committee on Commerce is authorized, during the fiscal year ending September 30, 1977, to pay one additional professional staff member at a per annum rate not to exceed the rate provided for the two professional staff members referred to in section 105(e) (3) (A) of the Legislative Branch Appropriations Act, 1968, as amended and modified.

(2) The provisions of paragraph (1) shall cease to be effective when and if any of the individuals who were paid by such Committee at the per annum rate referred to in such paragraph on August 25, 1976, cease to be paid at such rate.

SEC. 111. Amounts required to be deposited in the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the Civil Service Retirement and Disability Fund under section 8344 of title 5, United States Code, with respect to any officer or employee of the Senate, including an employee in the office of a Senator, shall be paid from the contingent fund of the Senate during the fiscal year ending September 30, 1977.

Furniture and Furnishings
For necessary expenses for the purchase and repair of furniture, furnishings, office and library equipment, $2,942,000, of which $1,729,000 shall be available until expended only for the purchase and supply of furniture, book stacks, shelving, furnishings, and related costs necessary for the initial outfitting of the James Madison Memorial Library Building.

REVISION OF ANNOTATED CONSTITUTION

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

For necessary expenses to enable the Librarian to revise and extend the Annotated Constitution of the United States of America, $36,000, to remain available until expended.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS

SEC. 801. Appropriations in this Act available to the Library of Congress for salaries shall be available for expenses of personnel security and suitability investigations of Library employees; special and temporary services (including employees engaged by day or hour or in piecework); and services as authorized by 5 U.S.C. 3109.

SEC. 802. Not to exceed fifteen positions in the Library of Congress may be exempt from the provisions of appropriation acts concerning the employment of aliens during the current fiscal year, but the Librarian shall not make any appointment to any such position until he has ascertained that he cannot secure for such appointments a person in any of the categories specified in such provisions who possesses the special qualifications for the particular position and also otherwise meets the general requirements for employment in the Library of Congress.

SEC. 803. Funds available to the Library of Congress may be expended to reimburse the Department of State for medical services rendered to employees of the Library of Congress stationed abroad and for contracting on behalf of and hiring alien employees for the Library of Congress under compensation plans comparable to those authorized by section 444 of the Foreign Service Act of 1946, as amended (22 U.S.C. 889(a)); for purchase or hire of passenger motor vehicles; for payment of travel, storage and transportation of household goods, and transportation and per diem expenses for families en route (not to exceed twenty-four); for benefits comparable to those payable under sections 911(9), 911(11), and 941 of the Foreign Service Act of 1946, as amended (22 U.S.C. 1136(9), 1136(11), and 1156, respectively); and travel benefits comparable with those which are now or hereafter may be granted single employees of the Agency for International Development, including single Foreign Service personnel assigned to A.I.D. projects, by the Administrator of the Agency for International Development—or his designee—under the authority of section 636(b) of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 (Public Law 87-195, 22 U.S.C. 2396(b)); subject to such rules and regulations as may be issued by the Librarian of Congress.

SEC. 804. Payments in advance for subscriptions or other charges for bibliographical data, publications, materials in any other form, and services may be made by the Librarian of Congress whenever he determines it to be more prompt, efficient, or economical to do so in the interest of carrying out required Library programs.

SEC. 805. Appropriations in this Act available to the Library of Congress shall be available, in an amount not to exceed $92,000, when specifically authorized by the Librarian, for expenses of attendance at meetings concerned with the function or activity for which the appropriation is made.

Sec. 806. Funds available to the Library of Congress may be expended to provide additional parking facilities for Library of Congress employees in an area or areas in the District of Columbia outside the limits of the Library of Congress grounds, and to provide for transportation of such employees to and from such area or areas and the Library of Congress grounds without regard to the limitations imposed by 31 U.S.C. 638a(c)(2).

Sec. 807. Funds available to the Library of Congress may be expended to purchase, lease, maintain, and otherwise acquire automatic data processing equipment without regard to the provisions of 40 U.S.C. 759.

Sec. 808. The Disbursing Officer of the Library of Congress is authorized to disburse funds appropriated for the Congressional Budget Office, and the Library of Congress shall provide financial management support to the Congressional Budget Office as may be required and mutually agreed to by the Librarian of Congress and the Director of the Congressional Budget Office.

All vouchers certified for payment by duly authorized certifying officers of the Library of Congress shall be supported with a certification by an officer or employee of the Congressional Budget Office duly authorized in writing by the Director of the Congressional Budget Office to certify payments from appropriations of the Congressional Budget Office. The Congressional Budget Office certifying officers shall (1) be held responsible for the existence and correctness of the facts recited in the certificate or otherwise stated on the voucher or its supporting paper and the legality of the proposed payment under the appropriation or fund involved, (2) be held responsible and accountable for the correctness of the computations of certifications made, and (3) be held accountable for and required to make good to the United States the amount of any illegal, improper, or incorrect payment resulting from any false, inaccurate, or misleading certificate made by him, as well as for any payment prohibited by law which did not represent a legal obligation under the appropriation or fund involved: Provided, That the Comptroller General of the United States may, at his discretion, relieve such certifying officer or employee of liability for any payment otherwise proper whenever he finds (1) that the certification was based on official records and that such certifying officer or employee did not know, and by reasonable diligence and inquiry could not have ascertained the actual facts, or (2) that the obligation was incurred in good faith, that the payment was not contrary to any statutory provision specifically prohibiting payments of the character involved, and the United States has received value for such payment: Provided further, That the Comptroller General shall relieve such certifying officer or employee of liability for an overpayment for transportation services made to any common carrier covered by section 66 of title 49, whenever he finds that the overpayment occurred solely because the administrative examination made prior to payment of the transportation bill did not include a verification of transportation rates, freight classifications, or land grant deduction. (Public Law 85–53, paragraph 3, June 13, 1957, 71 Stat. 81.)

The Disbursing Officer of the Library of Congress shall not be held accountable or responsible for any illegal, improper, or incorrect payment resulting from any false, inaccurate, or misleading certificate, the responsibility for which is imposed upon a certifying officer or employee of the Congressional Budget Office.
TITLE IX
COPYRIGHT ROYALTY COMMISSION
SALARIES AND EXPENSES

For necessary expenses of the Copyright Royalty Commission, $268,000, which shall be available only upon enactment into law of S. 22 or equivalent legislation.

TITLE X
GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE
PRINTING AND BINDING

For authorized printing and binding for the Congress; for printing and binding for the Architect of the Capitol; expenses necessary for preparing the semimonthly and session index to the Congressional Record, as authorized by law (44 U.S.C. 902); printing, binding, and distribution of the Federal Register (including the Code of Federal Regulations) as authorized by law (44 U.S.C. 1503, 1510); and printing and binding of Government publications authorized by law to be distributed without charge to the recipient, $93,639,000: Provided, That this appropriation shall not be available for printing and binding part 2 of the annual report of the Secretary of Agriculture (known as the Yearbook of Agriculture): Provided further, That this appropriation shall be available for the payment of obligations incurred under the appropriations for similar purposes for preceding fiscal years.

Hereafter, notwithstanding any other provisions of law, appropriations for the automatic distribution to Senators and Representatives (including Delegates to Congress and the Resident Commissioner from Puerto Rico) of copies of the United States Statutes at Large shall not be available with respect to any Senator or Representative unless such Senator or Representative specifically, in writing, requests that he receive copies of such document.

OFFICE OF SUPERINTENDENT OF DOCUMENTS
SALARIES AND EXPENSES

For necessary expenses of the Office of Superintendent of Documents, including compensation of all employees in accordance with the provisions of 44 U.S.C. 305; travel expenses (not to exceed $88,300): Provided, That expenditures in connection with travel expenses of the Depository Library Council to the Public Printer shall be deemed necessary to carry out the provisions of chapter 19 of title 44, United States Code; price lists and bibliographies; repairs to buildings, elevators, and machinery; and supplying books to depository libraries; $47,188,400: Provided, That $300,000 of this appropriation shall be apportioned for use pursuant to section 3679 of the Revised Statutes, as amended (31 U.S.C. 665), with the approval of the Public Printer, only to the extent necessary to provide for expenses (excluding permanent personal services) for workload increases not anticipated in the budget estimates and which cannot be provided for by normal budgetary adjustments.

44 USC 1901 et seq.
The Government Printing Office is hereby authorized to make such expenditures, within the limits of funds available and in accord with the law, and to make such contracts and commitments without regard to fiscal year limitations as provided by section 104 of the Government Corporation Control Act, as amended, as may be necessary in carrying out the programs and purposes set forth in the budget for the current fiscal year for the "Government Printing Office revolving fund": Provided, That not to exceed $3,500 may be expended on the certification of the Public Printer in connection with special studies of governmental printing, binding, and distribution practices and procedures: Provided further, That during the current fiscal year the revolving fund shall be available for the hire of two passenger motor vehicles and the purchase of one passenger motor vehicle: Provided further, That funds available to the Government Printing Office may be expended to purchase, lease, maintain and otherwise acquire automatic data processing equipment without regard to the provisions of 40 U.S.C. 759: Provided further, That funds available to the Government Printing Office may be expended to maintain, repair, purchase, lease, and otherwise acquire any motor vehicle without regard to the provision of 31 U.S.C. 638a.

TITLE XI

GENERAL ACCOUNTING OFFICE

For necessary expenses of the General Accounting Office, including not to exceed $5,000 to be expended on the certification of the Comptroller General of the United States in connection with special studies of governmental financial practices and procedures; services as authorized by 5 U.S.C. 3109 but at rates for individuals not to exceed the per diem rate equivalent to the rate for grade GS-18; hire of one passenger motor vehicle; advance payments in foreign countries notwithstanding section 3648, Revised Statutes, as amended (31 U.S.C. 529); benefits comparable to those payable under section 911(9), 911(11) and 942(a) of the Foreign Service Act of 1946, as amended (22 U.S.C. 1136(9), 1136(11), and 1157(a), respectively); and under regulations prescribed by the Comptroller General of the United States, rental of living quarters in foreign countries and travel benefits comparable with those which are now or hereafter may be granted single employees of the Agency for International Development, including single Foreign Service personnel assigned to A.I.D. projects, by the Administrator of the Agency for International Development—or his designee—under the authority of section 636(b) of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 (Public Law 87-195, 22 U.S.C. 2396(b)), $150,580,000: Provided, That this appropriation and appropriations for administrative expenses of any other department or agency which is a member of the Joint Financial Management Improvement Program (JFMIP) shall be available to finance an appropriate share of JFMIP costs as determined by the JFMIP, including but not limited to the salary of the Executive Secretary and secretarial support: Provided further, That this appropriation and appropriations for administrative expenses of any other department or agency which is a member of the National Intergovernmental Audit Forum or a Regional Intergovernmental Audit Forum shall be available to finance an appropriate share of Forum costs as determined by the Forum, including necessary travel expenses of non-Federal participants. Payments hereunder to either the Forum or the JFMIP may be credited as reimbursements to any appropriation from which costs involved are initially financed.

TITLE XII
COST-ACCOUNTING STANDARDS BOARD

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

For expenses of the Cost-Accounting Standards Board necessary to carry out the provisions of section 719 of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended (Public Law 91–379, approved August 15, 1970), $1,700,000.

TITLE XIII
GENERAL PROVISIONS

Sec. 1301. No part of the funds appropriated in this Act shall be used for the maintenance or care of private vehicles, except for emergency assistance and cleaning as may be provided under regulations relating to parking facilities for the House of Representatives issued by the Committee on House Administration.

Sec. 1302. Whenever any office or position not specifically established by the Legislative Pay Act of 1929 is appropriated for herein or whenever the rate of compensation or designation of any position appropriated for herein is different from that specifically established for such position by such Act, the rate of compensation and the designation of the position, or either, appropriated for or provided herein, shall be the permanent law with respect thereto: Provided, That the provisions herein for the various items of official expenses of Members, officers, and committees of the Senate and House, and clerk hire for Senators and Members shall be the permanent law with respect thereto.

Sec. 1303. No part of any appropriation contained in this Act shall remain available for obligation beyond the current fiscal year unless expressly so provided herein.

Sec. 1304. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, none of the funds in this Act shall be used to pay Pages of the House of Representatives at a gross annual maximum rate of compensation in excess of that in effect on June 30, 1975. Effective October 1, 1976, the gross annual maximum rate of compensation of Pages of the Senate shall be $9,063, and such rate shall not be adjusted under any Order of the President pro tempore of the Senate issued under authority of section 4 of the Federal Pay Comparability Act of 1970, except to the multiple specified in any such Order which is nearest to but not less than $9,060.

Sec. 1305. (a) The Sergeant at Arms and Doorkeeper of the Senate and Sergeant at Arms of the House may (1) designate as a private, first class, any private of the Capitol Police whose pay is disbursed by the Secretary of the Senate or Clerk of the House who has served satisfactorily as a member of the Capitol Police for thirty months or more, and (2) fix the compensation of any such private, first class, at not to exceed $13,038 per annum: Provided, That the Sergeant at Arms of the House may fix the compensation of seven Detectives, Police Force at not to exceed $14,946 per annum each in lieu of not to exceed $13,992 per annum each; nineteen Technicians, Police Force at not to exceed $13,992 per annum each in lieu of not to exceed $13,038 per annum each; eight Plainclothesmen, Police Force at not to exceed $13,992 per annum each in lieu of not to exceed $13,038 per annum each; and six K-9 Officers, Police Force at not to exceed $13,992 per annum each in lieu of not to exceed $13,038 per annum each.

(b) Subsection (a) shall take effect on October 1, 1976. Any designation of a private of the Capitol Police as a private, first class, shall be made effective on the first day of a month, and no such designation may be effective before the first day of the first month which begins after the day on which such private has served satisfactorily as a member of the Capitol Police for thirty months.

COST OF LIVING ADJUSTMENTS

Sec. 1306. (a) Section 8340(b) of title 5, United States Code, is amended by striking out “1 percent plus”.

(b) The amendment made by subsection (a) shall apply to any increase in annuities after the date of enactment of this Act.

(c) (1) Section 8340(b) of title 5, United States Code, as amended by subsection (a), is amended to read as follows:

"(b) (1) The Commission shall—

(A) on January 1 of each year, or within a reasonable time thereafter, determine the percent change in the price index published for December of the preceding year over the price index published for June of the preceding year, and

(B) on July 1 of each year, or within a reasonable time thereafter, determine the percent change in the price index published for June of such year over the price index published for December of the preceding year.

(2) If in any year the percent change determined under either paragraph (1)(A) or (1)(B) indicates a rise in the price index, then—

(A) effective March 1 of such year, in the case of an increase under paragraph (1)(A), each annuity payable from the Fund having a commencing date not later than such March 1 shall be increased by the percent change computed under such paragraph, adjusted to the nearest 1/10 of 1 percent, or

(2) The amendment made by subsection (1) shall apply to any increase in annuities after the date of enactment of this Act, except that with respect to the first date after the date of enactment of this Act on which the Commission is to determine a percent change, such percent change shall be determined by computing the change in the price index published for the month immediately preceding such first date over the price index for the last month prior to the date of enactment of this Act for which the price index showed a percent rise forming the basis for a cost-of-living annuity increase under section 8340(b) of title 5, United States Code, as in effect immediately prior to the date of the enactment of this Act.

(d) (1) Section 1401a(b) of title 10, United States Code, is amended to read as follows:

"(b)(1) The Secretary of Defense shall—

(A) on January 1 of each year, or within a reasonable time thereafter, determine the percent change in the index published for December of the preceding year over the index published for June of the preceding year; and
“(B) on July 1 of each year, or within a reasonable time thereafter, determine the percent change in the index published for June of such year over the index published for December of the previous year.

“(2) If in any year the percent change determined under either paragraph (1)(A) or (1)(B) indicates a rise in the index, then—

“(A) effective March 1 of such year, in the case of an increase under paragraph (1)(A), the retired pay and retainer pay of members and former members of the armed forces who become entitled to that pay before such March 1 shall be increased by the percent change computed under such paragraph, adjusted to the nearest 1/10 of 1 percent; and

“(B) effective September 1 of such year, in the case of an increase under paragraph (1)(B), the retired pay and retainer pay of members and former members of the armed forces who become entitled to that pay before such September 1 shall be increased by the percent change computed under such paragraph, adjusted to the nearest 1/10 of 1 percent.”.

(2) The amendment made by subsection (1) shall apply to any increase in retired pay or retainer pay after the date of enactment of this Act, except that with respect to the first date after the date of enactment of this Act on which the Secretary of Defense is to determine a percent change, such percent change shall be determined by computing the change in the index published for the month immediately preceding such first date over the index for the last month preceding the date of enactment of this Act used as the basis for the most recent adjustment of retired pay and retainer pay under section 1401a(b) of title 10, United States Code, as in effect immediately prior to the date of enactment of this Act.

(e) (1) Section 882(b) of the Foreign Service Act of 1946 (22 U.S.C. 1121(b)), is amended to read as follows:

“(A) on January 1 of each year, or within a reasonable time thereafter, determine the percent change in the price index published for December of the preceding year over the price index published for June of the preceding year, and

“(B) on July 1 of each year, or within a reasonable time thereafter, determine the percent change in the price index published for June of such year over the price index published for December of the preceding year.

“(2) If in any year the percent change determined under either paragraph (1)(A) or (1)(B) indicates a rise in the price index, then—

“(A) effective March 1 of such year, in the case of an increase under paragraph (1)(A), each annuity payable from the Fund having a commencing date not later than such March 1 shall be increased by the percent change computed under such paragraph, adjusted to the nearest 1/10 of 1 percent, or

(2) The amendment made by subsection (1) shall apply to any increase in annuities after the date of enactment of this Act, except that with respect to the first date after the date of enactment of this Act on which the Secretary is to determine a percent change, such percent change shall be determined by computing the change in the index published for December of the preceding year over the index published for June of the preceding year.
price index published for the month immediately preceding such first date over the price index for the last month prior to the date of enactment of this Act for which the price index showed a percent rise forming the basis for a cost-of-living increase under section 882(b) of the Foreign Service Act of 1946 (22 U.S.C. 1121(b)), as in effect immediately prior to the date of enactment of this Act.

Overseas training (special foreign currency program): For necessary expenses to carry out the provisions of section 612, $400,000 in foreign currencies which the Treasury Department declares to be excess to the normal requirements of the United States.

Lebanon Relief and Rehabilitation assistance: For necessary expenses to carry out the provisions of section 495C, $20,000,000.

Except for the Contingency Fund, unobligated balances as of September 30, 1976, of funds heretofore made available under the authority of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961, as amended, except as otherwise provided by law, are hereby continued available for the fiscal year 1977, for the same purposes for which appropriated and amounts certified pursuant to section 1311 of the Supplemental Appropriation Act, 1955, as having been obligated against appropriations heretofore made under the authority of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961, as amended, for the same purpose as any of the subparagraphs under “Economic Assistance,” “Middle East Special Requirements Fund,” “Security Supporting Assistance,” “Operating Expenses of the Agency for International Development," "International Miltary Education and Training," and "Indochina Postwar Reconstruction Assistance," are hereby continued available for the same period as the respective appropriations in such subparagraphs for the same purpose: Provided, That such purpose relates to a project or program previously justified to Congress, and the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate are notified prior to the reobligation of funds for such projects or programs.

None of the funds made available under this Act for "Food and nutrition, Development Assistance," "Population planning and health, Development Assistance," "Education and human resources development, Development Assistance," "Technical assistance, energy

LIMITATION ON PROGRAM ACTIVITY

Not to exceed $6,334,443,000 (of which not to exceed $3,875,000,000 shall be for equipment and services loans) shall be authorized during the current fiscal year for other than administrative expenses.

LIMITATION ON ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES

Not to exceed $12,081,000 (to be computed on an accrual basis) shall be available during the current fiscal year for administrative expenses, including hire of passenger motor vehicles, services as authorized by 5 U.S.C. 3109, and not to exceed $24,000 for entertainment allowances for members of the Board of Directors: Provided, That (1) fees or dues to international organizations of credit institutions engaged in financing foreign trade, (2) necessary expenses (including special services performed on a contract or a fee basis, but not including other personal services) in connection with the acquisition, operation, maintenance, improvement, or disposition of any real or personal property belonging to the Bank or in which it has an interest, including expenses of collections of pledged collateral, or the investigation or appraisal of any property in respect to which an application for a loan has been made, and (3) expenses (other than internal expenses of the Bank) incurred in connection with the issuance and servicing of guarantees, insurance, and reinsurance, shall be considered as nonadministrative expenses for the purposes hereof.

TITLE V—GENERAL PROVISIONS

Sec. 501. No part of any appropriation contained in this Act shall be used for publicity or propaganda purposes within the United States not heretofore authorized by the Congress.

Sec. 502. No part of any appropriation contained in this Act shall be used for expenses of the Inspector General, Foreign Assistance, after the expiration of the thirty-five day period which begins on the date the General Accounting Office or any committee of the Congress, or any duly authorized subcommittee thereof, charged with considering foreign assistance legislation, appropriations, or expenditures, has delivered to the Office of the Inspector General, Foreign Assistance, a written request that it be furnished any document, paper, communication, audit, review, finding, recommendation, report, or other material in the custody or control of the Inspector General, Foreign Assistance, relating to any review, inspection or audit arranged for, directed, or conducted by him, unless and until there has been furnished to the General Accounting Office or to such committee or subcommittee, as the case may be, (A) the document, paper, communication, audit, review, finding, recommendation, report, or other material so requested or (B) a certification by the President, personally, that he has forbidden the furnishing thereof pursuant to such request and his reason for so doing.

Sec. 503. No part of any appropriation contained in this Act shall remain available for obligation beyond the current fiscal year unless expressly so provided herein.

Sec. 504. No part of any appropriation contained in this Act shall be used to furnish assistance to any country which is in default during a period in excess of one calendar year in payment to the United States of principal or interest on any loan made to such country by the United States pursuant to a program for which funds are appropriated under this Act unless (1) such debt has been disputed by such country prior to the enactment of this Act or (2) such country has either arranged to make payment of the amount in arrears or otherwise taken appropriate steps, which may include renegotiation, to cure the existing default.

SEC. 505. None of the funds appropriated or made available pursuant to this Act shall be used to provide military assistance, international military education and training, or foreign military credit sales to the Government of Uruguay.

SEC. 505A. Not to exceed $1,626,000 of the funds appropriated or made available pursuant to this Act for fiscal year 1977 shall be made available to the Office of the Inspector General of Foreign Assistance.

SEC. 506. None of the funds appropriated or made available pursuant to this Act shall be available to any international financial institution whose United States' representative cannot upon request obtain the amounts and the names of borrowers for all loans of the international financial institution, including loans to employees of the institution or the compensation and related benefits of employees of the institution.

This Act may be cited as the "Foreign Assistance and Related Programs Appropriations Act, 1977".

PUBLIC LAW 94-444—OCT. 1, 1976

Public Law 94–444
94th Congress

An Act

To authorize appropriations for carrying out title VI of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That this Act may be cited as the “Emergency Jobs Programs Extension Act of 1976”.

SEC. 2. Title VI of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973 is amended by striking out section 601 and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

“AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS

“Sec. 601. There are authorized to be appropriated such sums as may be necessary for fiscal year 1976, and for the period beginning July 1, 1976, and ending September 30, 1976, and for fiscal year 1977, for carrying out the provisions of this title.”

SEC. 3. (a) (1) Section 203(b) of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973 is amended to read as follows:

“(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 208 (a) (7) of this Act, not less than 85 per centum of the funds allocated in accordance with the provisions of this title which are used by an eligible applicant for public service employment programs under this title shall be expended only for wages and employment benefits to persons employed in public service jobs pursuant to this title, and the remainder of such funds may be used for administrative costs, including rental costs (within such reasonable limitations as the Secretary may prescribe with respect to the rental of space), and to obtain necessary supplies, equipment, and materials.”

(2) Section 602(b) of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973 is amended to read as follows:

“(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 208 (a) (7) of this Act, not less than 85 per centum of the funds allocated in accordance with the provisions of this title which are used by an eligible applicant for public service employment programs under this title shall be expended only for wages and employment benefits to persons employed in public service jobs pursuant to this title, and the remainder of such funds may be used for administrative costs, including rental costs (within such reasonable limitations as the Secretary may prescribe with respect to the rental of space), and to obtain necessary supplies, equipment, and materials.”

(b) Section 704 of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973 is amended by inserting at the end thereof the following new subsection:

“(d) Financial records of a prime sponsor relating to public service employment programs assisted under this Act and records of the names, addresses, positions, and salaries of all persons employed in public service jobs assisted under this Act shall be maintained and made available to the public.”
SEC. 4. (a) (1) With respect to appropriations made by the Emergency Supplemental Appropriations Act of 1976 (Public Law 94-266, enacted April 15, 1976) for the purpose of carrying out activities authorized by title II of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973—

(A) notwithstanding any other provision of law, funds made available under section 202(b) of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973 may be used in any areas qualifying under title VI of such Act to provide a continuation of public service employment activities under both title II and title VI of such Act; and

(B) in order to enable persons employed in public service jobs financially assisted under title VI of such Act to be transferred to jobs financially assisted under title II of such Act, the Secretary of Labor is authorized to waive the provision of section 205(a) of such Act requiring a thirty-day period of unemployment.

(2) The provisions of paragraph (1) of this subsection shall be deemed to have taken effect on the date of enactment of the Emergency Supplemental Appropriations Act of 1976. Persons transferred after such date from jobs financially assisted under title VI of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973 to jobs financially assisted under title II of such Act, using funds made available under the Emergency Supplemental Appropriations Act of 1976, shall after the date of enactment of this Act be considered to be public service jobholders financially assisted under such title VI.

(b) Subsection (b) of section 603 of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973 is amended by adding at the end of such subsection the following new sentences: “In distributing funds available for the discretionary use of the Secretary of Labor under this subsection, the Secretary is authorized to utilize such funds to assure a continuation of public service employment activities supported under this Act. In distributing such funds under this subsection to prime sponsors, the Secretary shall base allocations upon the public service employment activities sustained within the jurisdiction of each unit of general local government within the area served by each such prime sponsor in accordance with subsection (c) of this section.”.

SEC. 5. (a) Title VI of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973 is further amended by adding at the end thereof the following new sections:

"RESERVATION OF FUNDS; EMPLOYMENT OF LONG-TERM UNEMPLOYED, LOW-INCOME PERSONS"

"Sec. 607. (a) Each prime sponsor, in accordance with regulations which the Secretary shall prescribe, shall reserve out of any allocation which it receives under this title from appropriations for fiscal year 1977 such amount as will be sufficient, when added to funds available for use under title II of this Act during such fiscal year, to enable the prime sponsor to sustain throughout such fiscal year the number of public service jobholders supported under this title and title II of this Act on June 30, 1976.

(b) The amount of each prime sponsor's allocation under this title remaining after funds are reserved for the purpose described in subsection (a) of this section shall be used to provide public service jobs for eligible unemployed persons (as described in section 608) in proj-
PUBLIC LAW 94-444—OCT. 1, 1976

ELIGIBILITY OF LONG-TERM UNEMPLOYED, LOW-INCOME PERSONS

SEC. 608. (a) In filling public service jobs with financial assistance available for the purposes of subsections (b) and (c) (1) of section 607, each prime sponsor shall determine that any person to be employed in any such public service job (1) is an individual—

(A) who has been receiving unemployment compensation for fifteen or more weeks;

(B) who is not eligible for such benefits and has been unemployed for fifteen or more weeks;

(C) who has exhausted unemployment compensation benefits; or

(D) who is, or whose family is, receiving aid to families with dependent children provided under a State plan approved under part A of title IV of the Social Security Act;

and (2) is not a member of a household which has current gross family income, adjusted to an annualized basis (exclusive of unemployment compensation and other public payments which such individual will be disqualified from receiving by reason of employment under this title) at a rate exceeding 70 per centum of the lower living standard income level.

"(b) For purposes of this section, the term 'lower living standard income level' means that income level (adjusted for regional and metropolitan and urban and rural differences and family size) determined annually by the Secretary based upon the most recent 'lower living standard budget' issued by the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the Department of Labor.

"(c) In filling public service jobs, each prime sponsor shall take reasonable steps, which such sponsor shall determine, to ensure that funds provided in accordance with subsections (b) and (c) (1) of section 607 shall be equitably allocated for jobs among the categories of eligible persons described in section 608 (a) in light of the composition of the population of unemployed eligible persons served by the prime sponsor.

\[ \text{Job applicants, household support obligations, consideration.} \]

"(d) In providing public service jobs and determining hours of work for eligible persons with financial assistance provided in accordance with subsections (b) and (c) (1) of section 607, each prime sponsor shall take into account the household support obligations of the..."
men and women applying for such jobs, and shall give special consideration to such alternative working arrangements as flexible hours of work, shared time, and part-time jobs, for eligible persons, particularly for parents of young children and for older persons.

"(e) The Secretary, through the affiliated State employment security agencies, shall take steps to inform the recipients of unemployment compensation benefits of any available public service jobs for which such recipients may be eligible, but such notification shall clearly state that such notification is designed only to inform, and in no way to coerce, such recipients with respect to the availability of such jobs.

"APPROVAL OF PROJECTS

"Sec. 609. (a) In order for a project application submitted by a project applicant to be approved by the prime sponsor for financial assistance provided in accordance with subsection (b) of section 607, copies of such application shall have been submitted at the time of such application to the prime sponsor's planning council established under section 104, for the purpose of affording such council an opportunity to submit comments and recommendations with respect to that application to the prime sponsor. No member of a prime sponsor's planning council shall cast a vote on any matter in connection with a project in which that member (or any organization with which that member is associated) has a direct interest.

"(b) Consistent with procedures established by the prime sponsor in accordance with regulations which the Secretary shall prescribe, the prime sponsor shall not disapprove a project application submitted by a project applicant unless it has first considered any comments and recommendations made by the prime sponsor's planning council and unless it has provided such applicant and the planning council with a written statement of its reasons for such disapproval."

(2) The last sentence of section 606 of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973 is amended to read as follows: "In reallocating any such funds, the Secretary shall give priority first to other areas within the same State and then to areas within other
(3) Section 605 of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973 is amended by inserting after “projects and activities” a comma and the following: “including projects and activities to be carried out by project applicants as defined in section 701(a) (15) of this Act.”

(c) Section 702 of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

“(c) The Secretary shall not, by regulation or otherwise, impose any quota or limitation on the number or percentage of persons hired under title II or VI, or both, of this Act who were former employees of public employers under this Act and who held jobs supported under title II or VI of this Act on June 30, 1976, or who are hired to fill vacancies under the provisions of section 607(c) (2). Any person who, between June 30, 1976, and the date of enactment of this Act, was laid off from a job supported under title II or VI of this Act by reason of such a quota or limitation may be reinstated by the prime sponsor without regard to the provisions of section 607(c). Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to relieve any prime sponsor from complying with section 205(c) (8) of this Act.”

(d) Section 605 of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973 is amended by inserting “(a)” after such section designation and by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

“(b) No funds for public service employment programs under this Act may be used to provide public services, through a private or non-profit organization or institution, which are customarily provided by a State, a political subdivision, or a local educational agency in the area served by the project.”

SEC. 6. (a) Title II of the Emergency Jobs and Unemployment Assistance Act of 1974 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new part:

“PART B—REIMBURSEMENT FOR UNEMPLOYMENT BENEFITS PAID ON BASIS OF PUBLIC SERVICE EMPLOYMENT “PAYMENTS TO STATES

“SEC. 220. (a) Each State shall be paid by the United States with respect to each individual—

“(1) who receives compensation with respect to any benefit year, and

“(2) whose base period wages for such benefit year include public service wages, an amount which bears the same ratio to the total amount of compensation paid to such individual with respect to such benefit year for weeks of unemployment which begin on or after January 1, 1976, as the amount of the public service wages included in the individual's base period wages bears to the total amount of the individual's base period wages.

“(b) Each State shall be paid, either in advance or by way of reimbursement, as may be determined by the Secretary, the sum that the Secretary estimates is payable to such State under this part for each calendar month. The sum shall be reduced or increased by the amount which the Secretary finds that his estimate for an earlier calendar month was greater or less than the sum which should have been paid to the State. Estimates shall be made on the basis of reports made by the State to the Secretary as prescribed by the Secretary.

"(c) The Secretary shall, from time to time, certify to the Secretary of the Treasury the sum payable to each State under this part. The Secretary of the Treasury, prior to audit and settlement by the General Accounting Office, shall pay the State in accordance with the cer-tification from funds for carrying out the purposes of this part.

"(d) Money paid to a State under this part may be used solely for the purpose of paying compensation. Money so paid which is not used for such purpose shall be returned, at the time specified by the Secretary, to the Treasury of the United States and credited to current applicable appropriations, funds, or accounts from which payments to States under this part may be made.

"(e) In the case of any political subdivision of a State which has in effect an unemployment compensation program which provides for the payment of compensation on the basis of services performed in its employ, such political subdivision shall be entitled to payments under this part in the same manner and to the same extent as if such political subdivision were a State.

"STATE LAW PROVISIONS

"Sec. 221. (a) The unemployment compensation law of any State may provide that any organization which elects to make payments (in lieu of contributions) into the State unemployment compensation fund—

"(1) shall not be liable to make such payments after the date of the enactment of this section with respect to any compensation to the extent that such State is entitled to payments with respect to such compensation under this part; and

"(2) shall receive credit against payments required to be made after such date of enactment for any such payments made on or before such date of enactment to the extent that such payments were made with respect to compensation for which the State is entitled to receive payments under this part.

"(b) The unemployment compensation law of any State may, without being deemed to violate the standards set forth in section 3303(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, provide for appropriate adjustments, as may be determined by the Secretary, in the account of any employer who has paid public service wages to reflect the payments to which such State is entitled under this part with respect to compensation attributable to such wages.

"AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS

"Sec. 222. There are hereby authorized to be appropriated for purposes of this part such sums as may be necessary.

(3) by striking out “the title” in section 210(a) and inserting in lieu thereof “this title”.

(c) The amendments made by this section shall take effect on October 1, 1976, with respect to compensation paid for weeks of unemployment beginning after December 31, 1975.

Sec. 7. Section 205(c)(24) of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973 is amended by striking out “job category” in both places where that term occurs in such clause and inserting in lieu thereof “promotional line”.

Sec. 8. (a) Section 602(e) of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973 is amended by striking out “Indian tribes on Federal or State reservations” and inserting in lieu thereof “Indian tribes, bands, and groups qualified under section 302(c)(1) of this Act”.

(b) Section 603(a) of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973 is amended by redesignating paragraphs (1) and (2) thereof as paragraphs (2) and (3), respectively, and by inserting immediately after “(a)” the following: “(1) The Secretary shall reserve an amount equal to not less than 2 per centum of the amounts appropriated under section 601 for any fiscal year to enable Indian tribes, bands, and groups which are designated as eligible applicants under this title to carry out public service employment programs.”.

(c) Section 603(a)(2) of such Act, as redesignated by subsection (b) of this section, is amended by inserting after “per centum” the following: “of the remainder”.

Sec. 9. (a) Section 704 of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973 (as amended by section 3(b) of this Act) is further amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

“(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, funds allocated by a prime sponsor or an Indian tribe, band, or group for the employp-ment of individuals under this Act may be expended in conjunction with funds from any other public or private source, but funds allocated under this Act may only be expended in accordance with the requirements of this Act."

(b) The heading of such section 704 is amended to read as follows:

"SPECIAL PROVISIONS".

SEC. 10. Section 311 of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

"(e) The Secretary is authorized to undertake projects (either directly or by grant or contract) for the purpose of demonstrating the feasibility of providing relocation assistance to unemployed workers residing in areas of substantial unemployment who would otherwise be eligible for public service employment under this Act. Such assistance shall be in such form and amount as the Secretary deems appropriate for demonstration purposes, except that he shall use as a general guideline the form and amount of relocation assistance available under chapter 2 of title II of the Trade Act of 1974."

SEC. 11. Section 704 of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973 (as amended by sections 3(b) and 9 of this Act) is further amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

"(f) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, employment and training services furnished under this Act in connection with weatherization projects authorized under section 222(a)(12) of the Economic Opportunity Act of 1964 may include work on such projects for the near poor, including families having incomes which do not exceed 125 per centum of the poverty line as established by section 625 of the Economic Opportunity Act of 1964."

SEC. 12. (a) Section 104(b) of the Emergency Jobs and Unemployment Assistance Act of 1974 is amended by—

(1) striking out "by this Act" after "amended"; and

(2) inserting at the end of such subsection the following new sentence: "They shall also report to such committees on the same subjects not later than ninety days after the date of enactment of the Emergency Jobs Programs Extension Act of 1976."

(b) Title I of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973 is amended by—

(1) inserting at the end of section 105(a)(3) the following "and (E) provides such arrangements as may be appropriate to promote maximum feasible use of apprenticeship or other on-job training opportunities available under section 1787 of title 38, United States Code;";

and

(2) striking out in section 106(b)(5) "provide special emphasis" and inserting in lieu thereof "take affirmative action".

SEC. 13. (a) (1) The Congress finds and declares that—

(A) the reliable and comprehensive measurement of employment and unemployment is vital to assessing the Nation's economic well-being and the utilization of its work force, and is an important determinant of public policies toward job creation, education, training, assistance for the jobless, and other labor market programs;
(B) the allocation of billions of dollars of Federal funds on the basis of unemployment data is increasing, making even more crucial the timely, accurate, and uniform measurement of the labor force;

(C) the formulation of public policies to promote the most effective use of our human resources is hindered by inadequate information on the utilization and effect of education and training programs;

(D) in order for governmental and private sector policy decisions to have maximum effect upon reducing unemployment and strengthening the labor force, an accurate and precise system for measuring employment and unemployment and its impacts on particular segments of the potential work force is essential;

(E) the current method of data collection and the form of its presentation, at national, regional, and subregional levels, may not fully reflect unemployment and employment trends, and may produce incomplete and, therefore, misleading conclusions, thus impairing the validity and utility of this critical economic indicator;

(F) it is critical to retain public confidence in the procedures, concepts, and methodology of collecting, analyzing, and presenting employment and unemployment statistics; and

(G) objectivity is a necessity in considering reform of statistical processes.

(2) It is the purpose of this section to establish a National Commission on Employment and Unemployment Statistics to have responsibility for examining the procedures, concepts, and methodology involved in employment and unemployment statistics and suggesting ways and means of improving them.

(b) (1) There shall be established a National Commission on Employment and Unemployment Statistics (hereinafter in this section referred to as the "Commission") which shall consist of nine members appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. Seven of the members shall be selected on the basis of their knowledge of and experience in the procedures, methodology, or use of employment and unemployment statistics, and shall be broadly representative of labor, business and finance, education and training, economics and statistics, and State and local government. Two of the members shall be selected from the general public. The membership of the Commission shall be generally representative of significant segments of the labor force, including women and minority groups. Any vacancy in the Commission shall not affect its powers as long as there continues to be at least five members; and any such vacancy may be filled in the same manner as the original appointment is made.

(2) Except when six members of the Commission shall vote to hold an executive session for a particular purpose, the Secretary of Labor, the Secretary of Commerce, the Commissioner of Labor Statistics, the Director of the Bureau of the Census, the Director of the Office of Management and Budget, the Chairman of the National Commission for Manpower Policy, the Chairman of the Council of Economic Advisers, and a majority and a minority member each of the Joint Economic Committee, of the Committee on Labor and Public Welfare of the Senate, and of the Committee on Education and Labor of the House of Representatives, or in each case a designee, shall assist and participate in the hearings, deliberations, and other activities of the Commission on an advisory basis.
(3) The President shall designate a Chairman from among the appointed members of the Commission.

(4) The Chairman, with the concurrence of the Commission, shall appoint an executive director, who shall be the chief executive officer of the Commission and shall perform such duties as are prescribed by the chairman or the Commission. The executive director may appoint, with the concurrence of the Chairman, such professional, technical, and clerical staff as are necessary to carry out the provisions of this section. The executive director and staff shall be appointed without regard to the provisions of title 5, United States Code, governing appointments to the competitive service, governing appointments to the competitive service, and without regard to the provisions of chapter 51 and subchapter III of chapter 53 of such title relating to classification and General Schedule pay rates, but at rates not in excess of the maximum rate of GS-18 of the General Schedule under section 5332 of such title. The executive director, with the concurrence of the Chairman, may obtain temporary and intermittent services of experts and consultants in accordance with the provisions of section 3109 of title 5, United States Code. The Commission may utilize such staff, with or without reimbursement, from the Department of Labor, the Department of Commerce, and such other appropriate Federal agencies as may be available to assist the Commission in carrying out its responsibilities.

(5) The Commission shall determine its own internal procedures, including the constituting of a quorum.

(6) The Commission is authorized to accept and utilize voluntary and uncompensated services notwithstanding the provisions of section 665(b) of title 31, United States Code.

(7) Members of the Commission who are not officers or employees of the Federal Government shall be paid compensation at a rate of not to exceed the per diem equivalent of the rate for GS-18 of the General Schedule under section 5332 of title 5, United States Code, when engaged in the work of the Commission, including traveltime; and while serving away from their homes or regular places of business, shall be allowed travel expenses including per diem in lieu of subsistence, in the same manner as such expenses are authorized by law (5 U.S.C. 5703) for persons in the Government service employed intermittently.

c) The Commission shall—

(1) identify the needs of the Nation for labor force statistics and assess the extent to which current procedures, concepts, and methodology in the collection, analysis, and presentation of such statistics constitute a comprehensive, reliable, timely, and consistent system of measuring employment and unemployment and indicating trends therein; and

(2) conduct or provide (through contract with institutions, organizations, and individuals, or appropriate Federal or State agencies, or otherwise) for such studies, hearings, research, or other activities as it deems necessary to enable it to formulate appropriate recommendations.

The Commission or, on the authorization of the Commission, any subcommittee or members thereof, may, for the purposes of carrying out the provisions of this section, hold such hearings, take such testimony, and sit and act at such times and places as the Commission deems advisable. Any member authorized by the Commission may administer oaths or affirmations to witnesses appearing before the Commission or any subcommittee or members thereof.
(d) (1) The Commission shall make a report of its findings and recommendations to the President and the Congress within eighteen months after the date of appointment of the first five members of the Commission.

(2) In preparing its report, the Commission shall consider the following:

(A) The methodology of collection of employment and unemployment data at all levels, including National, regional, State, and local statistics.

(B) The methodology of analysis of such data, including its relevance and application.

(C) The methodology of presentation of employment and unemployment statistics, including the dissemination, current utilization, and application of such statistics.

(D) Alternative methods of such collection, analysis, and presentation.

(E) The need for additional special statistical surveys (including longitudinal studies) and reports on a continuing basis.

(F) The need for additional data and analysis on job vacancies, job turnover, job matching, discouraged workers, part-time workers, youth, minorities, women, and other labor force participants.

(G) Accuracy and uniformity of seasonal adjustments in all categories of labor force statistics.

(H) Methods of achieving current, accurate, and uniform employment and unemployment statistics on a State and local basis, including their use as a determinant of the allocation of Federal assistance.

(I) The need for, and methods to obtain, data relating employment status and earnings, economic hardship, and family support obligations.

(J) The extent to which employment and earnings data assist in determining the impact of public programs and policies upon persons who are economically disadvantaged, unemployed, or underemployed.

(K) The availability of and need for periodic information on education and training enrollments and completions in the public and private sectors.

(L) Statistical indicators of the relationship between education and training and subsequent employment, earnings, and unemployment experience.

(M) The value and usefulness of other statistics regarding employment and unemployment, such as those obtained through operation of the unemployment insurance system.

(N) The availability of and need for current and projected occupational information, particularly on a local basis, to assist youths and adults in making training, education, and career choices.

(O) Such other matters as the Commission deems appropriate or necessary, including such matters as are suggested by the President or by the Congress that the Commission deems appropriate.

(3) The Commission's report shall contain its findings and recommendations, including a feasible schedule for their implementation, cost estimates, and any appropriate draft regulations and legislation to implement such recommendations.
(4) The Commission may make such interim reports or recommendations as it may deem desirable.

(e) Upon submission of the Commission's final report, the Secretary of Labor shall take steps to ascertain the views of each affected executive agency and, within six months after the report's submission, shall make an interim report to the Congress on—

1. the desirability, feasibility, and cost of implementing each of the Commission's recommendations, and the actions taken or planned with respect to their implementation; and

2. recommendations with respect to any legislation proposed by the Commission, the need for any alternative or additional legislation to implement the Commission's recommendations, and any other proposals to strengthen and improve the measurement of employment and unemployment.

Within two years after submission of the Commission's final report, the Secretary shall submit a final report to the Congress detailing the actions taken with respect to the recommendations of the Commission, together with any further recommendations deemed appropriate.

(f) (1) Each department, agency, and instrumentality of the Federal Government is authorized and directed to cooperate fully with the Commission in furnishing appropriate information to assist the Commission in carrying out its functions under this section.

(2) The head of each department, agency, or instrumentality of the Federal Government is authorized to provide such support and services to the Commission, upon request of the Chairman, as may be agreed between the head of the department, agency, or instrumentality and the Chairman.

(g) The Commission shall cease to exist one hundred and eighty days after submission of its final report as required under subsection (d) (1) of this section.

(h) (1) There are authorized to be appropriated such sums as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any funds appropriated to carry out this section which are not obligated prior to the end of the fiscal year for which such funds were appropriated shall remain available for obligation during the succeeding fiscal year.

Sec. 14. (a) Section 202 of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

"(c) Whenever the Secretary allocates any funds available under subsection (b) of this section through a distribution based upon a formula, he shall, not later than 30 days prior to such allocation, publish in the Federal Register for comment the specific formula upon which such distribution is based, the rationale supporting the selection of the formula, and the proposed distribution to each prime sponsor. After consideration of comments received under the preceding sentence, the Secretary shall publish final allocations."

(b) Section 603 of such Act is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

"(d) Whenever the Secretary allocates any funds available under subsection (b) of this section through a distribution based upon a formula, he shall, not later than 30 days prior to such allocation, publish in the Federal Register the specific formula upon which such distribution is based, the rationale behind the selection of the formula, and the proposed distribution for each prime sponsor. After consideration of comments received under the preceding sentence, the Secretary shall publish final allocations."

(b) The National Commission for Manpower Policy shall prepare and submit to the Congress not later than March 31, 1978, a report on the study required by this section, together with such recommendations, including recommendations for legislation, as such Commission deems advisable.

(c) There are authorized to be appropriated such sums as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.

An Act
To provide for emergency allotment lease and transfer of tobacco allotments or quotas for 1976 in certain disaster areas in South Carolina and Georgia.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section 316 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938 (7 U.S.C. 1314b) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection (i):

"(i) Notwithstanding any provision of this section, when as a result of drought, flood, damage due to excessive rain, hail, wind, tornado, or other natural disaster, the Secretary determines (1) that one of the counties in South Carolina or Georgia has suffered a loss of 10 per centum or more in the number of acres of tobacco planted (or expected production from the planted acreage), and (2) that a lease of such tobacco allotment or quota will not impair the effective operation of the tobacco marketing quota or price support program, he may permit the owner and operator of any farm within a designated county which has suffered a loss of 10 per centum or more in the number of acres of tobacco planted (or expected production from the planted acreage) of such crop to lease all or any part of such allotment or quota to any other owners or operators in the same county, or other counties within the same state, for use in such counties for the year 1976 on a farm or farms having a current tobacco allotment or quota of the same kind. In the case of a lease and transfer to an owner or operator in another county pursuant to this subsection, the lease and transfer shall not be effective until a copy of the lease is filed with and determined by the county committee of the county to which the transfer is made to be in compliance with the provisions of the subsection."

Making appropriations for the government of the District of Columbia and other activities chargeable in whole or in part against the revenues of said District for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1977, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the following sums are appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the District of Columbia for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1977, and for other purposes, namely:

TITLE I—DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

FEDERAL PAYMENT TO THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

For payment to the District of Columbia for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1977, $259,797,400, as authorized by the District of Columbia Self-Government and Governmental Reorganization Act, Public Law 93–198, as amended (D.C. Code 47–2501d); and $2,707,000 in lieu of reimbursements for charges for water and water services and sanitary sewer services furnished to facilities of the United States Government as authorized by the Act of May 18, 1954 (D.C. Code 43–1541 and 1611).

LOANS TO THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA FOR CAPITAL OUTLAY

For loans to the District of Columbia, as authorized by the District of Columbia Self-Government and Governmental Reorganization Act, Public Law 93–198, $101,292,000, which together with balances of previous appropriations for this purpose, shall remain available until expended and be advanced upon request of the Mayor: Provided, That notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Mayor is authorized to accept loans for the District from the United States Treasury, and the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to lend the Mayor such sums as the Mayor may determine are required for financing capital projects for which appropriations are authorized in this title.

DIVISION OF EXPENSES

The following amounts are appropriated for the District of Columbia for the current fiscal year out of the general fund of the District of Columbia, except as otherwise specifically provided:

GENERAL OPERATING EXPENSES

General operating expenses, $84,458,300, of which $799,300 shall be payable from the revenue sharing trust fund: Provided, That not to exceed $2,500 for the Mayor and $2,500 for the Chairman of the Council of the District of Columbia shall be available from this appropriation for expenditures for official purposes: Provided further, That, for the purpose of assessing and reassessing real property in the District of Columbia, $5,000 of this appropriation shall be available for services as authorized by 5 U.S.C. 3109, but at rates for individuals not in excess of $100 per diem: Provided further, That not to exceed $7,500 of this appropriation shall be available for test borings and soil investigations: Provided further, That $4,480,700 of this appropriation (to remain available until expended) shall be available solely for District of Columbia employees' disability compensation: Provided further, That not to exceed $25,000 of this appropriation shall be available for settlement of property damage claims not in excess of $1,500 each and personal injury claims not in excess of $5,000 each: Provided further, That not to exceed $50,000 of any appropriations available to the District of Columbia may be used to match financial contributions from the Department of Defense to the District of Columbia Office of Emergency Preparedness for the purchase of civil defense equipment and supplies approved by the Department of Defense, when authorized by the Mayor.

PUBLIC SAFETY

Public safety, including purchase of two hundred and sixty-five passenger motor vehicles for replacement only (including two hundred and sixty for police-type use and five for fire-type use without regard to the general purchase price limitation for the current fiscal year); $247,160,400, of which $5,530,400 shall be payable from the revenue sharing trust fund: Provided, That the Police Department is authorized to replace not to exceed twenty-five passenger carrying vehicles, and the Fire Department not to exceed five such vehicles annually whenever the cost of repair to any damaged vehicle exceeds three-fourths the cost of the replacement: Provided further, That funds appropriated for expenses under the Criminal Justice Act of 1974 (Public Law 93-412) for fiscal year 1977 shall be available for obligations incurred under that Act in fiscal year 1975 and fiscal year 1976: Provided further, That not to exceed $200,000 shall be available from this appropriation for the Chief of Police for the prevention and detection of crime.

EDUCATION

Education, including the development of national defense education programs, $245,287,700, of which $5,179,800 shall be payable from the revenue sharing trust fund: Provided, That the District of Columbia Public Schools are authorized to accept not to exceed thirty-one motor vehicles for exclusive use in the driver education program: Provided further, That not to exceed $1,000 for the Superintendent of Schools, $1,000 for the President of Federal City College, and $1,000 for the President of Washington Technical Institute shall be available from this appropriation for expenditures for official purposes.

RECREATION

Recreation, $17,674,400, of which $208,200 shall be payable from the revenue sharing trust fund.

HUMAN RESOURCES

Human Resources, including care and treatment of indigent patients in institutions under contracts to be made by the Director of the Department of Human Resources, $288,475,600, of which $6,520,000 shall be payable from the revenue sharing trust fund: Provided, That the inpatient rate under such contracts shall not exceed $76 per diem and the outpatient rate shall not exceed $12 per visit, and the inpatient rate (excluding the proportionate share for repairs and construction) for services rendered by Saint Elizabeths Hospital for patient care shall be $25.18 per diem: Provided further, That total reimbursements to Saint Elizabeths Hospital, including funds from title XIX of the Social Security Act, shall not exceed the amount for the fiscal year 1970: Provided further, That the hospital rates specified herein shall not apply, beginning July 1, 1969, to services provided to patients who are eligible for such services under the District of Columbia plan for medical assistance under title XIX of the Social Security Act: Provided further, That this appropriation shall be available for the furnishing of medical assistance to individuals sixty-five years of age or older who are residing in the District of Columbia: Provided further, That $13,733,000 of this appropriation shall be available for care and treatment of the mentally retarded at Forest Haven.

TRANSPORTATION

Transportation, including rental of one passenger-carrying vehicle for use by the Mayor, $54,182,600, of which $6,262,300 shall be payable from the revenue sharing trust fund: Provided, That this appropriation shall not be available for the purchase of driver-training vehicles.

ENVIRONMENTAL SERVICES

Environmental services, $69,036,000, of which $1,500,000 shall be payable from the revenue sharing trust fund: Provided, That this appropriation shall not be available for collecting ashes or miscellaneous refuse from hotels and places of business or from apartment houses with four or more apartments, or from any building or connected group of buildings operating as a rooming or boarding house as defined in the housing regulations of the District of Columbia.

PERSONAL SERVICES

For pay increases and related costs for police officers, firefighters and teachers, to be transferred by the Mayor of the District of Columbia to the appropriations for the fiscal year 1977 from which said employees are properly payable, $16,245,000.

SETTLEMENT OF CLAIMS AND SUITS

For payment of property damage claims in excess of $500 and of personal injury claims in excess of $1,000, approved by the Mayor in accordance with the provisions of the Act of February 11, 1929, as amended (45 Stat. 1160; 46 Stat. 500; 65 Stat. 131), $166,600.

REPAYMENT OF LOANS AND INTEREST

1958 (72 Stat. 183), as amended; section 4 of the Act of June 12, 1960 (74 Stat. 211), as amended; and section 723 of the District of Columbia Self-Government and Governmental Reorganization Act (Public Law 93-198), as amended, including interest as required thereby, $80,839,100: Provided, That there are hereby appropriated from the funds of the District of Columbia such sums as may be necessary to repay funds borrowed under the provisions of sections 471 and 472 of Public Law 93-198: Provided further, That the District is authorized to repay outstanding loans from the United States Treasury with funds received from the sale of general obligation bonds authorized for such purpose.

CAPITAL OUTLAY

For reimbursement to the United States of funds loaned in compliance with the Act of August 7, 1946 (60 Stat. 896), as amended, construction projects as authorized by the Acts of April 22, 1904 (33 Stat. 244), May 18, 1954 (68 Stat. 105, 110), June 6, 1958 (72 Stat. 183), August 20, 1958 (72 Stat. 686), and the Act of December 9, 1969 (83 Stat. 321); including acquisition of sites; preparation of plans and specifications; conducting preliminary surveys; erection of structures, including building improvement and alteration and treatment of grounds; to remain available until expended, $36,586,700: Provided, That $1,854,600 shall be available for construction services by the Director of the Department of General Services or by contract for architectural engineering services, as may be determined by the Mayor, and the funds for the use of the Director of the Department of General Services shall be advanced to the appropriation account “Construction Services, Department of General Services”: Provided further, That the amount appropriated to the Construction Services Fund, Department of General Services, be limited, during the current fiscal year, to ten per centum of appropriations for all construction projects, except for Project Numbered 24-99, Permanent Improvements, for which construction services shall be limited to twenty per centum of the appropriation: Provided further, Notwithstanding the foregoing, all authorizations for capital outlay projects, except those projects covered by the first sentence of section 23(a) of the Federal-Aid Highway Act of 1968 (Public Law 90-495, approved August 23, 1968), for which funds are provided by this paragraph, shall expire on September 30, 1978, except authorizations for projects as to which funds have been obligated in whole or in part prior to such date. Upon expiration of any such project authorization the funds provided herein for such project shall lapse: Provided further, That $1,292,000 is hereby appropriated for the completion of the Sursum Corda Neighborhood Center; $900,000 shall be for the completion of the Sursum Corda Neighborhood Center to be repaid to the city out of funds raised by Sursum Corda, Inc., through fundraising activities: And provided further, That all sums so collected be applied to the cost of construction with a corresponding reduction in, or refund of, appropriated District of Columbia funds; and $392,000 shall be for equipment for the center.

GENERAL PROVISIONS—DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

Sec. 102. Except as otherwise provided in this title, all vouchers covering expenditures of appropriations contained in this title shall be audited before payment by the designated certifying official and

D.C. Code 9-220.
D.C. Code 43-1623.
D.C. Code 1-121 note.
D.C. Code 43-1510.
D.C. Code 7-135 note.
Vouchers, audit.
the vouchers as approved shall be paid by checks issued by the designated disbursing official.

Maximum allowances.

SEC. 103. Whenever in this title an amount is specified within an appropriation for particular purposes or object of expenditure, such amount, unless otherwise specified, shall be considered as the maximum amount which may be expended for said purpose or object rather than an amount set apart exclusively therefor.

SEC. 104. Appropriations in this title shall be available, when authorized or approved by the Mayor, for allowances for privately owned conveyances used for the performance of official duties at 13 cents per mile but not to exceed $45 a month for each automobile and at 8 cents per mile but not to exceed $30 a month for each motorcycle, unless otherwise therein specifically provided, except that one hundred and thirteen (eighteen for venereal disease investigators in the Department of Human Resources) such automobile allowances at not more than $715 each per annum may be authorized or approved by the Mayor.

SEC. 105. Appropriations in this title shall be available for expenses of travel and for the payment of dues of organizations concerned with the work of the District of Columbia government, when authorized by the Mayor.

SEC. 106. Appropriations in this title shall not be used for or in connection with the preparation, issuance, publication, or enforcement of any regulation or order of the Public Service Commission requiring the installation of meters in taxicabs, or for or in connection with the licensing of any vehicle to be operated as a taxicab except for operation in accordance with such system of uniform zones and rates and regulations applicable thereto as shall have been prescribed by the Public Service Commission.

SEC. 107. Appropriations in this title shall not be available for the payment of rates for electric current for street lighting in excess of 2 cents per kilowatt-hour for current consumed.

SEC. 108. There are hereby appropriated from the applicable funds of the District of Columbia such sums as may be necessary for making refunds and for the payment of judgments which have been entered against the government of the District of Columbia: Provided, That nothing contained in this section shall be construed as modifying or affecting the provisions of paragraph 3, subsection (e) of section 11 of title XII of the District of Columbia Income and Franchise Tax Act of 1947, as amended.

SEC. 109. Appropriations in this title shall be available for the payment of public assistance without reference to the requirement of subsection (b) of section 5 of the District of Columbia Public Assistance Act of 1962 and for the non-Federal share of funds necessary to qualify for Federal assistance under the Act of July 31, 1968 (Public Law 90–445).

SEC. 110. No part of any appropriation contained in this title shall remain available for obligation beyond the current fiscal year unless expressly so provided herein.

SEC. 111. No part of any funds appropriated by this title shall be used to pay the compensation (whether by contract or otherwise) of any individual for performing services as a chauffeur or driver for any designated officer or employee of the District of Columbia government (other than the Mayor of the District of Columbia, Chief of Police and Fire Chief), or for performing services as a chauffeur or driver of a motor vehicle assigned for the personal or individual use... of any such officer or employee (other than the Mayor of the District of Columbia, Chief of Police and Fire Chief). No part of any funds appropriated by this title, in excess of $1,000 per month in the aggregate ($12,000 per annum) shall be used to pay the compensation (whether by contract or otherwise) of individuals for performing services as a chauffeur or driver for the Mayor of the District of Columbia, or for performing services as a chauffeur or driver of a motor vehicle assigned for the personal or individual use of the Mayor of the District of Columbia.

Sec. 112. Not to exceed 4 1/2 per centum of the total of all funds appropriated by this title for personal compensation may be used to pay the cost of overtime or temporary positions.

Sec. 113. The total expenditure of funds appropriated by this title for authorized travel and per diem costs outside the District of Columbia, Maryland, and Virginia shall not exceed $210,000.

Sec. 114. Appropriations in this title shall not be available, during the fiscal year ending September 30, 1977, for the compensation of any person appointed—

1. as full-time employee to a permanent, authorized position in the government of the District of Columbia during any month when the number of such employees is greater than 35,145, exclusive of positions initially authorized or funded by this title; and exclusive of the 20 positions approved in the transition period for Forest Haven, Department of Human Resources; 28 positions approved in fiscal year 1976 for Tax Administration, Department of Finance and Revenue; and 303 positions approved in fiscal year 1976 for the District of Columbia General Hospital, Department of Human Resources; or

2. as a temporary or part-time employee in the government of the District of Columbia during any month in which the number of such employees exceeds the number of such employees for the same month of the preceding fiscal year.

Sec. 115. No funds appropriated in this title, for the government of the District of Columbia for the operation of educational institutions, the compensation of personnel, or for other educational purposes may be used to permit, encourage, facilitate, or further partisan political activities. Nothing herein is intended to prohibit the availability of school buildings for the use of any community group during non-school hours.

Sec. 116. Appropriations in this title shall be available for services as authorized by 5 U.S.C. 3109, at rates to be fixed by the Mayor.

Sec. 117. No part of any funds appropriated to the District of Columbia government for fiscal year 1977 shall be available for, or may be used to pay the compensation (whether by contract or otherwise) of any person for performing services normally performed by a public affairs officer, public relations officer, or community services officer, unless approved by a resolution adopted by the Council of the District of Columbia.

This Act may be cited as the "District of Columbia Appropriation Act, 1977".
Funds provided for the Coast Guard's Pollution Fund in Public Law 94–387, shall become available immediately upon enactment of this legislation into law.

Approved October 1, 1976.

An Act

To amend the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 with respect to the tax treatment of certain divestitures of assets by bank holding companies.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.
This Act may be cited as the "Bank Holding Company Tax Act of 1976".

SEC. 2. DISTRIBUTIONS PURSUANT TO BANK HOLDING COMPANY ACT AMENDMENTS OF 1970.
(a) Tax-Free Distributions.—Part VIII of subchapter O of chapter 1 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (relating to distributions pursuant to Bank Holding Company Act of 1956) is amended to read as follows:

"PART VIII—DISTRIBUTIONS PURSUANT TO BANK HOLDING COMPANY ACT

"Sec. 1101. Distributions pursuant to Bank Holding Company Act.
"Sec. 1102. Special rules.
"Sec. 1103. Definitions.

"SEC. 1101. DISTRIBUTIONS PURSUANT TO BANK HOLDING COMPANY ACT.
(a) DISTRIBUTIONS OF CERTAIN NON-BANKING PROPERTY.—
"(1) DISTRIBUTIONS OF PROHIBITED PROPERTY.—If—
"(A) a qualified bank holding corporation distributes prohibited property (other than stock received in an exchange to which subsection (c)(2) applies)—
"(i) to a shareholder (with respect to its stock held by such shareholder), without the surrender by such shareholder of stock in such corporation, or
"(ii) to a shareholder, in exchange for its preferred stock, or
"(iii) to a security holder, in exchange for its securities, and
"(B) the Board has, before the distribution, certified that the distribution of such prohibited property is necessary or appropriate to effectuate section 4 of the Bank Holding Company Act, then no gain to the shareholder or security holder from the receipt of such property shall be recognized.

(2) DISTRIBUTIONS OF STOCK AND SECURITIES RECEIVED IN AN EXCHANGE TO WHICH SUBSECTION (C)(2) APPLIES.—If—
"(A) a qualified bank holding corporation distributes—
"(i) common stock received in an exchange to which subsection (c)(2) applies to a shareholder (with respect to its stock held by such shareholder), without the surrender by such shareholder of stock in such corporation, or
"(ii) common stock received in an exchange to which subsection (c) (2) applies to a shareholder, in exchange for its common stock, or

"(iii) preferred stock or common stock received in an exchange to which subsection (c) (2) applies to a shareholder, in exchange for its preferred stock, or

"(iv) securities or preferred or common stock received in an exchange to which subsection (c) (2) applies to a security holder in exchange for its securities, and

"(B) any preferred stock received has substantially the same terms as the preferred stock exchanged, and any securities received have substantially the same terms as the securities exchanged,

then, except as provided in subsection (f), no gain to the shareholder or security holder from the receipt of such stock or such securities or such stock and securities shall be recognized.

"(3) PRO RATA AND OTHER REQUIREMENTS.—

"(A) IN GENERAL.—Paragraphs (1) and (2) of this subsection, or paragraphs (1) and (2) of subsection (b), as the case may be, shall apply to any distribution to the shareholders of a qualified bank holding corporation only if each distribution—

"(i) which is made by such corporation to its shareholders after July 7, 1970, and on or before the date on which the Board makes its final certification under subsection (e), and

"(ii) to which such paragraph (1) or (2) applies (determined without regard to this paragraph), meets the requirements of subparagraph (B), (C), or (D).

"(B) PRO RATA REQUIREMENTS.—A distribution meets the requirements of this subparagraph if the distribution is pro rata with respect to all shareholders of the distributing qualified bank holding corporation or with respect to all shareholders of common stock of such corporation.

"(C) REDEMPTIONS WHEN UNIFORM OFFER IS MADE.—A distribution meets the requirements of this subparagraph if the distribution is in exchange for stock of the distributing qualified bank holding corporation and such distribution is pursuant to a good faith offer made on a uniform basis to all shareholders of the distributing qualified bank holding corporation or to all shareholders of common stock of such corporation.

"(D) NON-PRO RATA DISTRIBUTIONS FROM CERTAIN CLOSELY-HELD CORPORATIONS.—A distribution meets the requirements of this subparagraph if such distribution is made by a qualified bank holding corporation which does not have more than 10 shareholders (within the meaning of section 1371 (a) (1)) and does not have as a shareholder a person (other than an estate) which is not an individual, and if the Board (after consultation with the Secretary or his delegate) certifies that—

"(i) a distribution which meets the requirements of subparagraph (B) or (C) is not appropriate to effectuate section 4 or the policies of the Bank Holding Company Act, and

"(ii) the distribution being made is necessary or appropriate to effectuate section 4 of the policies of such Act.
"(4) Exception.—This subsection shall not apply to any distribution by a corporation if such corporation, a corporation having control of such corporation, or a subsidiary of such corporation has made any distribution pursuant to subsection (b) or has made an election under section 6158 with respect to bank property (as defined in section 6158(f)(3)).

"(5) Distributions involving gift or compensation.—In the case of a distribution to which paragraph (1) or (2) applies but which—

"(A) results in a gift, see section 2501 and following, or

"(B) has the effect of the payment of compensation, see section 61.

"(b) Corporation Ceasing To Be a Bank Holding Company.—

"(1) Distributions of property which cause a corporation to be a bank holding company.—If—

"(A) a qualified bank holding corporation distributes property (other than stock received in an exchange to which subsection (c)(3) applies)—

"(i) to a shareholder (with respect to its stock held by such shareholder), without the surrender by such shareholder of stock in such corporation, or

"(ii) to a shareholder, in exchange for its preferred stock, or

"(iii) to a security holder, in exchange for its securities, and

"(B) the Board has, before the distribution, certified that—

"(i) such property is all or part of the property by reason of which such corporation controls (within the meaning of section 2(a) of the Bank Holding Company Act) a bank or bank holding company, or such property is part of the property by reason of which such corporation did control a bank or a bank holding company before any property of the same kind was distributed under this subsection or exchanged under subsection (c)(3), and

"(ii) the distribution is necessary or appropriate to effectuate the policies of such Act, then no gain to the shareholder or security holder from the receipt of such property shall be recognized.

"(2) Distributions of stock and securities received in an exchange to which subsection (c)(3) applies.—If—

"(A) a qualified bank holding corporation distributes—

"(i) common stock received in an exchange to which subsection (c)(3) applies to a shareholder (with respect to its stock held by such shareholder), without the surrender by such shareholder of stock in such corporation, or

"(ii) common stock received in an exchange to which subsection (c)(3) applies to a shareholder in exchange for its common stock, or

Post, p. 1512.

26 USC 2501.

26 USC 61.

12 USC 1841.
“(B) any preferred stock received has substantially the same terms as the preferred stock exchanged, and any securities received have substantially the same terms as the securities exchanged, then, except as provided in subsection (f), no gain to the shareholder or security holder from the receipt of such stock or such securities or such stock and securities shall be recognized.
“(3) PRO RATA AND OTHER REQUIREMENTS.—For pro rata and other requirements, see subsection (a) (3).
“(4) EXCEPTION.—This subsection shall not apply to any distribution by a corporation if such corporation, a corporation having control of such corporation, or a subsidiary of such corporation has made any distribution pursuant to subsection (a) or has made an election under section 6158 with respect to prohibited property.
“(5) DISTRIBUTIONS INVOLVING GIFT OR COMPENSATION.—In the case of a distribution to which paragraph (1) or (2) applies but which—
26 USC 2501.
“(A) results in a gift, see section 2501 and following, or
26 USC 61.
“(B) has the effect of the payment of compensation, see section 61.
“(c) PROPERTY ACQUIRED AFTER JULY 7, 1970.—
“(1) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in paragraphs (2) and (3), subsection (a) or (b) shall not apply to—
332, 354, 356.
“(A) any property acquired by the distributing corporation after July 7, 1970, unless (i) gain to such corporation with respect to the receipt of such property was not recognized by reason of subsection (a) or (b), or (ii) such property was received by it in exchange for all of its stock in an exchange to which paragraph (2) or (3) applies, or (iii) such property was acquired by the distributing corporation in a transaction in which gain was not recognized under section 305 (a) or section 332, or under section 354 or 356 (but only with respect to property permitted by section 354 or 356 to be received without the recognition of gain or loss) with respect to a reorganization described in section 368 (a) (1) (A), (B), (E), or (F),
26 USC 368.
“(B) any property which was acquired by the distributing corporation in a distribution with respect to stock acquired by such corporation after July 7, 1970, unless such stock was acquired by such corporation (i) in a distribution (with respect to stock held by it on July 7, 1970, or with respect to stock in respect of which all previous applications of this clause are satisfied) with respect to which gain to it was not recognized by reason of subsection (a) or (b), or (ii) in exchange for all of its stock in an exchange to which paragraph (2) or (3) applies, or (iii) in a transaction in which gain was not recognized under section 305 (a) or section 332, or under section 354 or 356 (but only with respect to property permitted by section 354 or 356 to be received without the recognition of gain or loss) with respect to a reorganization described in section 368 (a) (1) (A), (B), (E), or (F),
26 USC 332.
“(C) any property acquired by the distributing corporation in a transaction in which gain was not recognized under section 332, unless such property was acquired from a corporation which, if it had been a qualified bank holding corporation, could have distributed such property under subsection (a) (1) or (b) (1), or “(D) any property acquired by the distributing corporation in a transaction in which gain was not recognized under section 354 or 356 with respect to a reorganization described in section 368(a)(1) (A) or (B), unless such property was acquired by the distributing corporation in exchange for property which the distributing corporation could have distributed under subsection (a)(1) or (b)(1).

“(A) any qualified bank holding corporation exchanges (i) property, which, under subsection (a)(1), such corporation could distribute directly to its shareholders or security holders without the recognition of gain to such shareholders or security holders, and other property (except property described in subsection (b)(1)(B)(i)), for (ii) all of the stock of a second corporation created and availed of solely for the purpose of receiving such property,

“(C) before such distribution, the Board has certified (with respect to the property exchanged which consists of property which, under subsection (a)(1), such corporation could distribute directly to its shareholders or security holders without the recognition of gain) that the exchange and distribution are necessary or appropriate to effectuate section 4 of the Bank Holding Company Act, 12 USC 1843.

“(3) EXCHANGES INVOLVING INTERESTS IN BANKS.—If—

“(A) any qualified bank holding corporation exchanges (i) property which, under subsection (b)(1), such corporation could distribute directly to its shareholders or security holders without the recognition of gain to such shareholders or security holders, and other property (except prohibited property), for (ii) all of the stock of a second corporation created and availed of solely for the purpose of receiving such property,

“(i) such property is all or part of the property by reason of which such corporation controls (within the meaning of section 2(a) of the Bank Holding Company Act) a bank or bank holding company, or such property is part of the property by reason of which such corporation did control a bank or a bank holding company before any property of the same kind was distributed under subsection (b)(1) or exchanged under this paragraph, and

“(ii) the exchange and distribution are necessary or appropriate to effectuate the policies of such Act,

then paragraph (1) shall not apply with respect to such distribution.
(d) Distributions To Avoid Federal Income Tax.—

(1) Prohibited property.—Subsection (a) shall not apply to a distribution if, in connection with such distribution, the distributing corporation retains, or transfers after July 7, 1970, to any corporation, property (other than prohibited property) as part of a plan one of the principal purposes of which is the distribution of the earnings and profits of any corporation.

(2) Banking property.—Subsection (b) shall not apply to a distribution if, in connection with such distribution, the distributing corporation retains, or transfers after July 7, 1970 to any corporation, property (other than property described in subsection (b) (1) (B) (i)) as part of a plan one of the principal purposes of which is the distribution of the earnings and profits of any corporation.

(e) Final Certification.—

(1) For subsection (a).—Subsection (a) shall not apply with respect to any distribution by a corporation unless the Board certifies, before the close of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the last distribution occurred, that the corporation has (before the expiration of the period prohibited property is permitted under the Bank Holding Company Act to be held by a bank holding company) disposed of all of the property the disposition of which is necessary or appropriate to effectuate section 4 of the Bank Holding Company Act.

(2) For subsection (b).—Subsection (b) shall not apply with respect to any distribution by a corporation unless the Board certifies, before the close of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the last distribution occurred, that the corporation has (before the expiration of the period prohibited property is permitted under the Bank Holding Company Act to be held by a bank holding company) ceased to be a bank holding company.

(f) Certain Exchanges of Securities.—In the case of an exchange described in subsection (a) (2) (A) (iv) or subsection (b) (2) (A) (iv), subsection (a) or subsection (b) (as the case may be) shall apply only to the extent that the principal amount of the securities received does not exceed the principal amount of the securities exchanged.

SEC. 1102. SPECIAL RULES.

(a) Basis of Property Acquired in Distributions.—If, by reason of section 1101, gain is not recognized with respect to the receipt of any property, then, under regulations prescribed by the Secretary or his delegate—

(1) if the property is received by a shareholder with respect to stock without the surrender by such shareholder of stock, the basis of the property received and of the stock with respect to which it is distributed shall, in the distributee's hands, be determined by allocating between such property and such stock the adjusted basis of such stock, or

(2) if the property is received by a shareholder in exchange for stock or by a security holder in exchange for securities, the basis of the property received shall, in the distributee's hands, be the same as the adjusted basis of the stock or securities exchanged, increased by the amount of gain to the taxpayer recognized on the property received.

(b) Periods of Limitation.—The periods of limitation provided in section 6501 (relating to limitations on assessment and collection) shall not expire, with respect to any deficiency (including interest and additions to the tax) resulting solely from the receipt of property by shareholders in a distribution which is certified by the Board under subsection (a), (b), or (c) of section 1101, until 5 years after the distributing corporation notifies the Secretary or his delegate (in such manner and with such accompanying information as the Secretary or his delegate may by regulations prescribe)—

"(1) that the final certification required by subsection (e) of section 1101 has been made, or

"(2) that such final certification will not be made;

and such assessment may be made notwithstanding any provision of law or rule of law which would otherwise prevent such assessment.

"(c) ALLOCATION OF EARNINGS AND PROFITS.—

"(1) DISTRIBUTION OF STOCK IN A CONTROLLED CORPORATION.—In the case of a distribution by a qualified bank holding corporation under section 1101 (a) (1) or (b) (1) of stock in a controlled corporation, proper allocation with respect to the earnings and profits of the distributing corporation and the controlled corporation shall be made under regulations prescribed by the Secretary or his delegate.

"(2) EXCHANGES DESCRIBED IN SECTION 1101 (C) (2) OR (3).—In the case of any exchange described in section 1101(c) (2) or (3), proper allocation with respect to the earnings and profits of the corporation transferring the property and the corporation receiving such property shall be made under regulations prescribed by the Secretary or his delegate.

"(3) DEFINITION OF CONTROLLED CORPORATION.—For purposes of paragraph (1), the term ‘controlled corporation’ means a corporation with respect to which at least 80 percent of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock entitled to vote and at least 80 percent of the total number of shares of all other classes of stock is owned by the distributing qualified bank holding corporation.

"(d) ITEMIZATION OF PROPERTY.—In any certification under this part, the Board shall make such specification and itemization of property as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this part.

"SEC. 1103. DEFINITIONS.

"(a) BANK HOLDING COMPANY; BANK HOLDING COMPANY ACT.—For purposes of this part—

"(1) BANK HOLDING COMPANY.—The term ‘bank holding company’ means—

"(A) a bank holding company within the meaning of section 2(a) of the Bank Holding Company Act, or

"(B) a bank holding company subsidiary within the meaning of section 2 (d) of such Act.

"(b) QUALIFIED BANK HOLDING CORPORATION.—

"(1) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in paragraph (2), for purposes of this part the term ‘qualified bank holding corporation’ means any corporation (as defined in section 7701(a)(3)) which is a bank holding company and which holds prohibited property acquired by it—

"(A) on or before July 7, 1970,

"(B) in a distribution in which gain to such corporation with respect to the receipt of such property was not recognized by reason of subsection (a) or (b) of section 1101, or “(C) in exchange for all of its stock in an exchange described in section 1101 (c) (2) or (c) (8).

(2) LIMITATIONS—

“(A) A bank holding company shall not be a qualified bank holding corporation, unless it would have been a bank holding company on July 7, 1970, if the Bank Holding Company Act Amendments of 1970 had been in effect on such date, or unless it is a bank holding company determined solely by reference to—

“(i) property acquired by it on or before July 7, 1970,

“(ii) property acquired by it in a distribution in which gain to such corporation with respect to the receipt of such property was not recognized by reason of subsection (a) or (b) of section 1101, or “(iii) property acquired by it in exchange for all of its stock in an exchange described in section 1101 (c) (2) or (3).

For purposes of this subparagraph, property held by a corporation having control of the corporation or by a subsidiary of the corporation shall be treated as held by the corporation.

“(B) A bank holding company shall not be a qualified bank holding corporation by reason of property described in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) or clause (ii) of subparagraph (A) of this paragraph, unless such property was acquired in a distribution with respect to stock, which stock was acquired by such bank holding company—

“(i) on or before July 7, 1970,

“(ii) in a distribution (with respect to stock held by it on July 7, 1970, or with respect to stock in respect of which all previous applications of this clause are satisfied) with respect to which gain to it was not recognized by reason of subsection (a) or (b) of section 1101, or

“(iii) in exchange for all of its stock in an exchange described in section 1101 (c) (2) or (3).

“(C) A corporation shall be treated as a qualified bank holding corporation only if the Board certifies that it satisfies the foregoing requirements of this subsection.

(3) CERTAIN SUCCESSOR CORPORATIONS.—For purposes of this subsection, a successor corporation in a reorganization described in section 368 (a) (1) (F) shall succeed to the status of its predecessor corporation as a qualified bank holding corporation.

“(c) PROHIBITED PROPERTY.—For purposes of this part, the term ‘prohibited property’ means, in the case of any bank holding company, property (other than nonexempt property) the disposition of which would be necessary or appropriate to effectuate section 4 of the Bank Holding Company Act if such company continued to be a bank holding company beyond the period (including any extensions thereof) specified in subsection (a) of such section. The term ‘prohibited property’ also includes shares of any company not in excess of 5 percent of the outstanding voting shares of such company if the prohibitions of section 4 of such Act apply to the shares of such company in excess of such 5 percent.

“(d) NONEXEMPT PROPERTY.—For purposes of this part, the term ‘nonexempt property’ means—

“(1) obligations (including notes, drafts, bills of exchange, and bankers’ acceptances) having a maturity at the time of issuance of not exceeding 24 months, exclusive of days of grace,
“(2) securities issued by or guaranteed as to principal or interest by a government or subdivision thereof or by any instrumentality of a government or subdivision, or “(3) money, and the right to receive money not evidenced by a security or obligation (other than a security or obligation described in paragraph (1) or (2)).
“(e) Board.—For purposes of this part, the term ‘Board’ means the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.
“(f) Control; Subsidiary.—For purposes of this part—
“(1) Control.—Except as provided in section 1102(c)(3), a corporation shall be treated as having control of another corporation if such corporation has control (within the meaning of section 2(a)(2) of the Bank Holding Company Act) of such other corporation.
“(2) Subsidiary.—The term ‘subsidiary’ has the meaning given to such term by section 2(d) of the Bank Holding Company Act.
“(g) Election To Forego Grandfather Provision for All Property Representing Pre-June 30, 1968, Activities.—Any bank holding company may elect, for purposes of this part and section 6158, to have the determination of whether property is property described in subsection (c) or is property eligible to be distributed without recognition of gain under section 1101(b)(1) made under the Bank Holding Company Act as if such Act did not contain the proviso of section 4(a)(2) thereof. Any election under this subsection shall apply to all property described in such proviso and shall be made at such time and in such manner as the Secretary or his delegate may by regulations prescribe. Any such election, once made, shall be irrevocable. An election under this subsection or subsection (h) shall not apply unless the final certification referred to in section 1101(e) or section 6158(c)(2), as the case may be, includes a certification by the Board that the bank holding company has disposed of either all banking property or nonbanking property.
“(h) Election To Divest All Banking or Nonbanking Property in Case of Certain Closely Held Bank Holding Companies.—Any bank holding company may elect, for purposes of this part and section 6158, to have the determination of whether property is property described in subsection (c) or is property eligible to be distributed without recognition of gain under section 1101(b)(1) made under the Bank Holding Company Act as if such Act did not contain clause (ii) of section 4(c) of such Act. Any election under this subsection shall apply to all property described in subsection (c), or to all property eligible to be distributed without recognition of gain under section 1101(b)(1), as the case may be, and shall be made at such time and in such manner as the Secretary or his delegate may by regulations prescribe. Any such election, once made, shall be irrevocable.
“(b) Amendment of Section 311(d).—Paragraph (2) of section 311(d) of such Code (relating to exceptions and limitations to the recognition of gain where appreciated property is used to redeem stock) is amended by striking out “and” at the end of subparagraph (F), by striking out the period at the end of subparagraph (G) and inserting in lieu thereof “; and”, and by adding at the end thereof the following new subparagraph:
“(11) a distribution of stock to a distributee which is not an organization exempt from tax under section 501(a), if with respect to such distributee, subsection (a)(1) or (b)(1) of section 1101 (relating to distributions pursuant to Bank Holding Company Act) applies to such distribution.”
(c) CLERICAL AMENDMENT.—The table of parts for subchapter O of chapter 1 of such Code is amended by striking out "of 1956".

(d) EFFECTIVE DATE.—

(1) FOR SUBSECTION (a).—The amendments made by subsections (a) and (c) shall take effect on October 1, 1977, with respect to distributions after July 7, 1970, in taxable years ending after July 7, 1970, but only in the case of qualified bank holding corporations (within the meaning of section 1103(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended by subsection (a) of this section).

(2) SPECIAL RULE FOR CERTIFYING DISTRIBUTIONS WHICH HAVE ALREADY TAKEN PLACE.—For purposes of sections 1101(a)(1)(B), 1101(a)(3)(D), 1101(b)(1)(B), 1101(c)(2)(C), 1101(c)(3)(C), and 1101(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (as amended by subsection (a) of this section), in the case of any distribution which takes place on or before the 90th day after the date of the enactment of this Act, a certification by the Federal Reserve Board described in any such section shall be treated as made before the distribution (or, in the case of section 1101(e), before the close of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the last distribution occurred) if application for such certification is made before the close of the 90th day after the date of the enactment of this Act.

(3) PERIOD OF LIMITATIONS.—If refund or credit of any overpayment of income tax attributable to the amendment made by subsection (a) is prevented at any time before October 1, 1978, by the operation of any law or rule of law, refund or credit of such overpayment may, nevertheless, be made or allowed if claim therefor is filed before October 1, 1978.

(4) FOR SUBSECTION (b).—The amendment made by subsection (b) shall take effect on October 1, 1977, with respect to distributions after December 31, 1975, in taxable years ending after December 31, 1975.

SEC. 3. INSTALLMENT PAYMENT OF TAX.

(a) INSTALLMENT PAYMENT.—Subchapter A of chapter 62 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (relating to place and due date for payment of tax) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

> "SEC. 6158. INSTALLMENT PAYMENT OF TAX ATTRIBUTABLE TO DIVESTITURES PURSUANT TO BANK HOLDING COMPANY ACT AMENDMENTS OF 1970."

> "(a) ELECTION OF EXTENSION.—If, after July 7, 1970, a qualified bank holding corporation sells bank property or prohibited property, the divestiture of either of which the Board certifies, before such sale, is necessary or appropriate to effectuate section 4 or the policies of the Bank Holding Company Act, the tax under chapter 1 attributable to such sale shall, at the election of the taxpayer, be payable in equal annual installments beginning with the due date (determined without extension) for the taxpayer’s return of tax under chapter 1 for the taxable year in which the sale occurred and ending with the corresponding date in 1985. If the number of installments determined under the preceding sentence is less than 10, such number shall be increased to 10 equal annual installments which begin as provided in the preceding sentence and which end on the corresponding date 10 years later. An election under this subsection shall be made at such time and in such manner as the Secretary or his delegate may by regulations prescribe."
(b) Limitations.—

(1) Treatment not available to taxpayer for both bank property and prohibited property.—This section shall not apply to any sale of prohibited property if the taxpayer (or a corporation having control of the taxpayer or a subsidiary of the taxpayer) has made an election under subsection (a) with respect to bank property or has made any distribution pursuant to section 1101(b). This section shall not apply to bank property if the taxpayer (or a corporation having control of the taxpayer or a subsidiary of the taxpayer) has made an election under subsection (a) with respect to prohibited property or has made any distribution pursuant to section 1101(a).

(2) Treatment not available for certain installment sales.—No election may be made under subsection (a) with respect to a sale if the income from such sale is being returned at the time and in the manner provided in section 453 (relating to installment method).

(c) Acceleration of Payments.—If an election is made under subsection (a) and before the tax attributable to such sale is paid in full—

(1) any installment under this section is not paid on or before the date fixed by this section for its payment, or

(2) the Board fails to make a certification similar to the applicable certification provided in section 1101(e) within the time prescribed therein (for this purpose treating the last such sale as constituting the last distribution), then the extension of time for payment of tax provided in this section shall cease to apply, and any portion of the tax payable in installments shall be paid on notice and demand from the Secretary or his delegate.

(d) Proration of Deficiency to Installments.—If an election is made under subsection (a) and a deficiency attributable to the sale has been assessed, the deficiency shall be prorated to such installments. The part of the deficiency so prorated to any installment the date for payment of which has not arrived shall be collected at the same time as, and as part of, such installment. The part of the deficiency so prorated to any installment the date for payment of which has arrived shall be paid on notice and demand from the Secretary or his delegate. This subsection shall not apply if the deficiency is due to negligence, to intentional disregard of rules and regulations, or to fraud with intent to evade tax.

(e) Bond May Be Required.—If an election is made under this section, section 6165 shall apply as though the Secretary were extending the time for payment of the tax.

(f) Definitions.—For purposes of this section—

(1) Terms have meanings given to them by section 1103.—The terms 'qualified bank holding corporation', 'Bank Holding Company Act', 'Board', 'control', and 'subsidiary' have the respective meanings given to such terms by section 1103.

(2) Prohibited property.—The term 'prohibited property' means property held by a qualified bank holding corporation which could be distributed without recognition of gain under section 1101(a)(1).

(3) Bank property.—The term 'bank property' means property held by a qualified bank holding corporation which could be distributed without recognition of gain under section 1101(b)(1).

(26 USC 453.)

(26 USC 6165.)

(g) Cross References.—

(1) Security.—For authority of the Secretary or his delegate to require security in the case of an extension under this section, see section 6165.
(2) Period of limitation.—For extension of the period of limitation in the case of an extension under this section, see section 6503(i).

(b) Extension of time for collection of tax.—Section 6503 of such Code (relating to suspension of running of period of limitation) is amended by redesignating subsection (i) as subsection (j) and by inserting after subsection (h) the following new subsection:

“(i) Extension of time for collecting tax attributable to divestitures pursuant to Bank Holding Company Act Amendments of 1970.—The running of the period of limitations for collection of the tax attributable to a sale with respect to which the taxpayer makes an election under section 6158(a) shall be suspended for the period during which there are any unpaid installments of such tax.”

(c) Technical amendments.—

(1) The table of sections for subchapter A of chapter 62 of such Code is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new item:

(2) Subsection (a) of section 6151 of such Code (relating to time and place for paying tax shown on returns) is amended by striking out “section,” and inserting in lieu thereof “subchapter,”

(3) Paragraph (2) of section 6601(b) of such Code (relating to interest) is amended—

(A) by striking out “or 6156(a)” and inserting in lieu thereof “,6156(a), or 6158(a),”;

(B) by striking out “or 6156(b)” and inserting in lieu thereof “,6156(b), or 6158(a),”; and

(C) by inserting at the end thereof the following new sentence:

“For purposes of subparagraph (A), section 6158(a) shall be treated as providing that the date prescribed for payment of each installment shall not be later than the date prescribed for payment of the 1985 installment.”

(d) Applicability to certain successor corporations.—If, after July 7, 1970, and before August 1, 1974—

(1) a corporation acquires substantially all of the properties of a qualified bank holding corporation (as defined in section 1103(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954) in a transaction described in sections 368(a)(1)(A) and 368(a)(2)(D), and then, the acquiring corporation (or a corporation which is in control (within the meaning of section 2(a)(2) of such Act) of the acquiring corporation or a subsidiary (within the meaning of section 2(d) of such Act) of the corporation so in control) shall be treated as a qualified bank holding corporation for purposes of section 1103(b) and 6158 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 and the shares described in such section 2(g)(2) shall be considered property which is acquired by such corporation, for purposes of section 1101(c)(1)(A)(iii) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, after July 7, 1970.

(2) the acquiring corporation (or a corporation in control of the acquiring corporation) acquires beneficial interests in shares described in section 2(g)(2) of the Bank Holding Company Act (as defined in section 1103(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954) in a transaction to which section 351 applies,

(1) In general.—The amendments made by this section shall take effect on October 1, 1977, with respect to sales after July 7, 1970, in taxable years ending after July 7, 1970, but only in the case of qualified bank holding corporations (within the meaning of section 1103(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended by section 2(a) of this Act).

(2) Special rule for certifying sales which have already taken place.—For purposes of section 6158(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (as added by subsection (a) of this section) in the case of any sale which takes place on or before the 90th day after the date of the enactment of this Act, a certification by the Federal Reserve Board described in section 6158(a) shall be treated as made before the sale if application for such certification is made before the close of the 90th day after the date of the enactment of this Act.

(3) Refund of tax.—
   (A) In general.—If any tax attributable to a sale which occurred before October 1, 1977, is payable in annual installments by reason of an election under section 6158(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, any portion of such tax for which the due date of the installment does not occur before October 1, 1977, shall, on application of the taxpayer, be treated as an overpayment of tax.
   (B) Interest on overpayments.—For purposes of section 6611(b), in the case of any overpayment attributable to subparagraph (A), the date of the overpayment shall be the day which is 6 months after the latest of the following:
      (i) the date on which application for refund or credit of such overpayment is filed,
      (ii) the due date prescribed by law (determined without extensions) for filing the return of tax under chapter 1 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 for the taxable year the tax of which is being refunded or credited, or
      (iii) the date of the enactment of this Act.
   (C) Extension of period of limitations.—If any refund or credit of tax attributable to the application of subparagraph (A) is prevented at any time before October 1, 1978, by the operation of any law or rule of law, refund or credit of such overpayment may, nevertheless, be made or allowed if claim therefor is filed before October 1, 1978.

Approved October 2, 1976.

To amend title 18 of the United States Code to prohibit deprivation of employment or other benefit for political contribution, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section 601 of title 18 of the United States Code is amended to read as follows:

§ 601. Deprivation of employment or other benefit for political contribution

"(a) Whoever, directly or indirectly, knowingly causes or attempts to cause any person to make a contribution of a thing of value (including services) for the benefit of any candidate or any political party, by means of the denial or deprivation, or the threat of the denial or deprivation, of—

"(1) any employment, position, or work in or for any agency or other entity of the Government of the United States, a State, or a political subdivision of a State, or any compensation or benefit of such employment, position, or work; or

"(2) any payment or benefit of a program of the United States, a State, or a political subdivision of a State;

if such employment, position, work, compensation, payment, or benefit is provided for or made possible in whole or in part by an Act of Congress, shall be fined not more than $10,000, or imprisoned not more than one year, or both.

(b) As used in this section—

"(1) the term 'candidate' means an individual who seeks nomination for election, or election, to Federal, State, or local office, whether or not such individual is elected, and, for purposes of this paragraph, an individual shall be deemed to seek nomination for election, or election, to Federal, State, or local office, if he has (A) taken the action necessary under the law of a State to qualify himself for nomination for election, or election, to Federal, State, or local office, if he has (A) taken the action necessary under the law of a State to qualify himself for nomination for election, or election, or (B) received contributions or made expenditures, or has given his consent for any other person to receive contributions or make expenditures, with a view to bringing about his nomination for election, or election, to such office;

"(2) the term 'election' means (A) a general, special primary, or runoff election, (B) a convention or caucus of a political party held to nominate a candidate, (C) a primary election held for the selection of delegates to a nominating convention of a political party, (D) a primary election held for the expression of a preference for the nomination of persons for election to the office of President, and (E) the election of delegates to a constitutional convention for proposing amendments to the Constitution of the United States or of any State; and

"(3) the term 'State' means a State of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, or any territory or possession of the United States."
Sec. 2. The item relating to section 601 in the table of sections for chapter 29 of title 18 of the United States Code is amended to read as follows:

"601. Deprivation of employment or other benefit for political contribution."

Sec. 3. Section 600 of title 18 of the United States Code is amended by striking out "$1,000" and inserting "$10,000" in lieu thereof.

Sec. 4. (a) Chapter 13 of title 18 of the United States Code is amended by adding at the end the following new section:

"§ 246. Deprivation of relief benefits

"Whoever directly or indirectly deprives, attempts to deprive, or threatens to deprive any person of any employment, position, work, compensation, or other benefit provided for or made possible in whole or in part by any Act of Congress appropriating funds for work relief or relief purposes, on account of political affiliation, race, color, sex, religion, or national origin, shall be fined not more than $10,000, or imprisoned not more than one year, or both."

(b) The table of sections for chapter 13 of title 18 of the United States Code is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new item:

"246. Deprivation of relief benefits."

An Act

Oct. 2, 1976
[H.R. 13549]

To provide for additional income for the United States Soldiers' and Airmen's Home by requiring the Board of Commissioners of such home to collect a fee from the members of such home and by increasing deductions for the support of such home from the pay of enlisted men and warrant officers, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Board of Commissioners of the United States Soldiers' and Airmen's Home shall collect from members of the home a fee which may be used solely for the operation of the home. The amount of the fee shall be determined by the Board of Commissioners on the basis of financial needs of the home and the ability of the members to pay, but in no case may the fee collected in any month in the case of any member exceed an amount equal to 25 per centum of the monthly—

(1) military retired pay paid to such member;

(2) civil service annuity paid to such member where such annuity is based in part on years of military service;

(3) disability compensation or pension paid to such member by the Veterans' Administration; or

(4) military retired pay and disability compensation or pension where such member is receiving both retired pay and disability compensation or pension.

Sec. 2. (a) There shall be deducted each month from the pay of each enlisted man and warrant officer on the active list of the Regular Army and Regular Air Force a sum not to exceed 50 cents which shall be deposited to the credit of the permanent fund, United States Soldiers' and Airmen's Home (trust fund) in the Treasury of the United States. The sums to be deducted shall be fixed from time to time, within the limit prescribed above, by the Secretary of the Army and the Secretary of the Air Force in consultation with the Board of Commissioners of such home so as to meet the annual operating requirements of such home. Such sums may be fixed at different amounts for such enlisted men and warrant officers on the basis of grade or time in service, or both, except that the sums fixed shall be the same for both the Army and Air Force.

(b) The Act entitled "An Act to provide further for the maintenance of United States Soldiers' Home", approved February 13, 1936 (49 Stat. 1137; 24 U.S.C. 44a), is repealed.

Sec. 3. (a) The Comptroller General of the United States shall conduct a study of the operations of the United States Soldiers' and Airmen's Home with a view to determining the short- and long-term financial needs of such home, the appropriate functions of such home, and the operating efficiency of such home.
(b) The Comptroller General shall transmit the results of such study to the Committees on Armed Services of the Senate and the House of Representatives on or before August 1, 1977, together with such comments and recommendations as he deems appropriate.

Approved October 2, 1976.

TITLE I—SHORT TITLE AND AMENDMENT OF 1954 CODE

SEC. 101. SHORT TITLE.

This Act may be cited as the "Tax Reform Act of 1976".

SEC. 102. AMENDMENT OF 1954 CODE.

Except as otherwise expressly provided, whenever in this Act an amendment or repeal is expressed in terms of an amendment to, or repeal of, a section or other provision, the reference shall be considered to be made to a section or other provision of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

TITLE II—AMENDMENTS RELATED TO TAX SHELTERS

SEC. 201. CAPITALIZATION AND AMORTIZATION OF REAL PROPERTY CONSTRUCTION PERIOD INTEREST AND TAXES.

(a) In General.—Part VI of subchapter B of chapter 1 (relating to itemized deductions for individuals and corporations) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

"SEC. 189. AMORTIZATION OF REAL PROPERTY CONSTRUCTION PERIOD INTEREST AND TAXES."

(b) Capitalization of Construction Period Interest and Taxes.—Except as otherwise provided in this section or in section 266 (relating to carrying charges), in the case of an individual, an electing small business corporation (within the meaning of section 1371(b)), or a personal holding company (within the meaning of section 542), no deduction shall be allowed for real property construction period interest and taxes.

(b) Amortization of Amounts Charged to Capital Account.—Any amount paid or accrued which would (but for subsection (a)) be allowable as a deduction for the taxable year shall be allowable for such taxable year and each subsequent amortization year in accordance with the following table:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>If the amount is paid or accrued in a taxable year beginning in—</th>

(c) Amortization Year.—

(1) In general.—For purposes of this section, the term 'amortization year' means the taxable year in which the amount is paid or accrued, and each taxable year thereafter (beginning with the taxable year after the taxable year in which paid or accrued or, if later, the taxable year in which the real property is ready to be placed in service or is ready to be held for sale) until the full amount has been allowable as a deduction (or until the property is sold or exchanged).
"(2) Rules for sales and exchanges.—For purposes of paragraph (1)—

(A) Proportion of percentage allowed.—For the amortization year in which the property is sold or exchanged, a proportionate part of the percentage allowable for such year (determined without regard to the sale or exchange) shall be allowable. If the real property is subject to an allowance for depreciation, the proportion shall be determined in accordance with the convention used for depreciation purposes with respect to such property. In the case of all other real property, under regulations prescribed by the Secretary, the proportion shall be based on that proportion of the amortization year which elapsed before the sale or exchange.

(B) Unamortized balance.—In the case of a sale or exchange of the property, the portion of the amount not allowable shall be treated as an adjustment to basis under section 1016 for purposes of determining gain or loss.

(C) Certain exchanges.—An exchange or transfer after which the property received has a basis determined in whole or in part by reference to the basis of the property to which the amortizable construction period interest and taxes relate, shall not be treated as an exchange.

(d) Certain residential property excluded.—This section shall not apply to any real property acquired, constructed, or carried if such property is not, and cannot reasonably be expected to be, held in a trade or business or in an activity conducted for profit.

(e) Definitions.—For purposes of this section—

(1) Construction period interest and taxes.—The term ‘construction period interest and taxes’ means all—

(A) interest paid or accrued on indebtedness incurred or continued to acquire, construct, or carry real property, and

(B) real property taxes, to the extent such interest and taxes are attributable to the construction period for such property and would be allowable as a deduction under this chapter for the taxable year in which paid or accrued (determined without regard to this section).

(2) Construction period.—The term ‘construction period’, when used with respect to any real property, means the period—

(A) beginning on the date on which construction of the building or other improvement begins, and

(B) ending on the date on which the item of property is ready to be placed in service or is ready to be held for sale.

(3) Nonresidential real property.—The term ‘nonresidential real property’ means real property which is neither residential real property nor low-income housing.

(4) Residential real property.—The term ‘residential real property’ means property which is or can reasonably be expected to be—

(A) residential rental property as defined in section 167 (j) (2) (B), or

(B) real property described in section 1221 (1) held for sale as dwelling units (within the meaning of section 167 (k) (3) (C)).

(5) Low-income housing.—The term ‘low-income housing’ means property described in clause (i), (ii), (iii), or (iv) of section 1250 (a) (1) (B).
“(f) Transitional Rule for 1976.—In the case of amounts paid or accrued by the taxpayer in a taxable year beginning in 1976, the percentage of such amount allowable under this section for—

“(1) the taxable year beginning in 1976 shall be 50 percent, and
“(2) each amortization year thereafter shall be 16⅔ percent.”

(b) Clerical Amendment.—The table of sections for such part VI is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new item:

“Sec. 189. Amortization of real property construction period interest and taxes.”

(c) Effective Date.—The amendments made by this section shall apply—

(1) in the case of nonresidential real property, if the construction period begins after December 31, 1975,
(2) in the case of residential real property (other than low-income housing), to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1977, and
(3) in the case of low-income housing, to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1981.

For purposes of this subsection, the terms “nonresidential real property”, “residential real property (other than low-income housing)”, “low-income housing”, and “construction period” have the same meaning as when used in section 189 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (as added by subsection (a) of this section).

SEC. 202. RecapTURE OF DEPRECIATION ON REAL PROPERTY.

(a) In General.—Subsection (a) of section 1250 (relating to gain from dispositions of certain depreciable realty) is amended to read as follows:

“(1) Additional depreciation after December 31, 1975.—

“(i) that portion of the additional depreciation (as defined in subsection (b) (1) or (4)) attributable to periods after December 31, 1975, in respect of the property, or “(ii) the excess of the amount realized (in the case of a sale, exchange, or involuntary conversion), or the fair market value of such property (in the case of any other disposition), over the adjusted basis of such property, shall be treated as gain which is ordinary income. Such gain shall be recognized notwithstanding any other provision of this subtitle.

“(i) in the case of section 1250 property with respect to which a mortgage is insured under section 221(d) (3) or 236 of the National Housing Act, or housing financed or assisted by direct loan or tax abatement under similar provisions of State or local laws and with respect to which the owner is subject to the restrictions described in section 1039 (b) (1) (B), 100 percent minus 1 percentage point for each full month the property was held after the date the property was held 100 full months;
“(ii) in the case of dwelling units which, on the average, were held for occupancy by families or individuals eligible to receive subsidies under section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937, as amended, or under the provisions of State or local law authorizing similar levels of subsidy for lower-income families, 100 percent minus 1 percentage point for each full month the property was held after the date the property was held 100 full months;

“(iii) in the case of section 1250 property with respect to which a depreciation deduction for rehabilitation expenditures was allowed under section 167(k), 100 percent minus 1 percentage point for each full month in excess of 100 full months after the date on which such property was placed in service;

“(iv) in the case of section 1250 property with respect to which a loan is made or insured under title V of the Housing Act of 1949, 100 percent minus 1 percentage point for each full month the property was held after the date the property was held 100 full months; and

“(v) in the case of all other section 1250 property, 100 percent.

In the case of a building (or a portion of a building devoted to dwelling units), if, on the average, 85 percent or more of the dwelling units contained in such building (or portion thereof) are units described in clause (ii), such building (or portion thereof) shall be treated as property described in clause (ii). Clauses (i), (ii), and (iv) shall not apply with respect to the additional depreciation described in subsection (b)(4).

“(2) ADDITIONAL DEPRECIATION AFTER DECEMBER 31, 1969, AND BEFORE JANUARY 1, 1976.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—If section 1250 property is disposed of after December 31, 1969, and the amount determined under paragraph (1) (A) (ii) exceeds the amount determined under paragraph (1) (A)(i), then the applicable percentage of the lower of—

“(i) that portion of the additional depreciation attributable to periods after December 31, 1969, and before January 1, 1976, in respect of the property, or

“(ii) the excess of the amount determined under paragraph (1) (A) (ii) over the amount determined under paragraph (1) (A)(i), shall also be treated as gain which is ordinary income. Such gain shall be recognized notwithstanding any other provision of this subtitle.

“(i) in the case of section 1250 property disposed of pursuant to a written contract which was, on July 24, 1969, and at all times thereafter, binding on the owner of the property, 100 percent minus 1 percentage point for each full month the property was held after the date the property was held 20 full months;

“(ii) in the case of section 1250 property with respect to which a mortgage is insured under section 221(d) (3) or 236 of the National Housing Act, or housing financed or assisted by direct loan or tax abatement under similar provisions of State or local laws, and with respect to which the owner is subject to the restrictions described in section 1039(b)(1)(B), 100 percent minus 1 percentage point for each full month the property was held after the date the property was held 20 full months;

"(iii) in the case of residential rental property (as defined in section 167(j)(2)(B)) other than that covered by clauses (i) and (ii), 100 percent minus 1 percentage point for each full month the property was held after the date the property was held 100 full months;

"(iv) in the case of section 1250 property with respect to which a depreciation deduction for rehabilitation expenditures was allowed under section 167(k), 100 percent minus 1 percentage point for each full month in excess of 100 full months after the date on which such property was placed in service; and

"(v) in the case of all other section 1250 property, 100 percent.

Clauses (i), (ii), and (iii) shall not apply with respect to the additional depreciation described in subsection (b)(4).

"(3) ADDITIONAL DEPRECIATION BEFORE JANUARY 1, 1970.—

"(A) IN GENERAL.—If section 1250 property is disposed of after December 31, 1963, and the amount determined under paragraph (1)(A)(ii) exceeds the sum of the amounts determined under paragraphs (1)(A)(i) and (2)(A)(i), then the applicable percentage of the lower of—

"(i) that portion of the additional depreciation attributable to periods before January 1, 1970, in respect of the property, or

"(ii) the excess of the amount determined under paragraph (1)(A)(ii) over the sum of the amounts determined under paragraphs (1)(A)(i) and (2)(A)(i), shall also be treated as gain which is ordinary income. Such gain shall be recognized notwithstanding any other provision of this subtitle.

"(B) APPLICABLE PERCENTAGE.—For purposes of subparagraph (A), the term 'applicable percentage' means 100 percent minus 1 percentage point for each full month the property was held after the date on which the property was held for 20 full months."

(b) PROPERTY DISPOSED OF PURSUANT TO FORECLOSURE PROCEEDINGS.—Subsection (d) of section 1250 (relating to exceptions and limitations) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

"(10) FORECLOSURE DISPOSITIONS.—If any section 1250 property is disposed of by the taxpayer pursuant to a bid for such property at foreclosure or by operation of an agreement or of process of law after there was a default on indebtedness which such property secured, the applicable percentage referred to in paragraph (1)(B), (2)(B), or (3)(B) of subsection (a), as the case may be, shall be determined as if the taxpayer ceased to hold such property on the date of the beginning of the proceedings pursuant to which the disposition occurred, or, in the event there are no proceedings, such percentage shall be determined as if the taxpayer ceased to hold such property on the date, determined under regulations prescribed by the Secretary, on which such operation of an agreement or process of law, pursuant to which the disposition occurred, began.”

(c) Conforming Amendments.—

(1) Amendment of section 1250 (f) (2).—Paragraph (2) of section 1250 (f) (relating to special rule for property which is substantially improved) is amended to read as follows:

“(2) Ordinary income attributable to an element.—For purposes of paragraph (1), the amount taken into account for any element shall be the sum of a series of amounts determined for the periods set forth in subsection (a), with the amount for any such period being determined by multiplying—

“(A) the amount which bears the same ratio to the lower of the amounts specified in clause (i) or (ii) of subsection (a) (1) (A), in clause (i) or (ii) of subsection (a) (2) (A), or in clause (i) or (ii) of subsection (a) (3) (A), as the case may be, for the section 1250 property as the additional depreciation for such element attributable to such period gets to the sum of the additional depreciation for all elements attributable to such period, by “(B) the applicable percentage for such element for such period.

For purposes of this paragraph, determinations with respect to any element shall be made as if it were a separate property.”

(2) Amendment of section 1250 (g) (2).—Paragraph (2) of section 1250 (g) (relating to special rules for qualified low-income housing) is amended to read as follows:

“(2) Ordinary income attributable to an element.—For purposes of paragraph (1), the amount taken into account for any element shall be determined in a manner similar to that provided by subsection (f) (2).”

(3) Amendment of section 167 (e) (3).—Paragraph (3) of section 167 (e) (relating to change in depreciation method with respect to section 1250 property) is amended by striking out “beginning after July 24, 1969,” and inserting in lieu thereof “beginning after December 31, 1975.”

(d) Effective Date.—The amendments made by this section (other than subsection (b)) shall apply for taxable years ending after December 31, 1975. The amendment made by subsection (b) shall apply with respect to proceedings (and to operations of law) referred to in section 1250 (d) (10) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 which begin after December 31, 1975.

SEC. 203. Amendment of section 167 (k).—

(a) General Rule.—Section 167 (k) (relating to depreciation of expenditures to rehabilitate low-income rental housing) is amended—

(1) by striking out “January 1, 1976,” in paragraph (1) and inserting in lieu thereof “January 1, 1978”;“January 1, 1978”; (2) by striking out “$15,000” in paragraph (2) (A) and inserting in lieu thereof “$20,000”; (3) by striking out “the policies of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968” in paragraph (3) (B) and inserting in lieu thereof “the Leased Housing Program under section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937”; and

(4) by adding the following new subparagraph at the end of paragraph (3):

“(D) Rehabilitation expenditures incurred.—Rehabilitation expenditures incurred pursuant to a binding contract entered into before January 1, 1978, and rehabilitation expenditures incurred with respect to low-income rental housing the rehabilitation of which has begun before January 1, 1978, shall be deemed incurred before January 1, 1978.”

(b) Effective Date.—The amendments made by paragraphs (1), (3), and (4) of subsection (a) shall apply to expenditures paid or incurred after December 31, 1975, and before January 1, 1978, and expenditures made pursuant to a binding contract entered into before January 1, 1978. The amendment made by paragraph (2) of subsection (a) shall apply to expenditures incurred after December 31, 1975.

SEC. 204. LIMITATIONS ON DEDUCTIONS FOR EXPENSES.

(a) In General.—Subpart C of part II of subchapter E of chapter 1 relating to taxable year for which deduction is taken is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

"SEC. 465. DEDUCTIONS LIMITED TO AMOUNT AT RISK IN CASE OF CERTAIN ACTIVITIES." 26 USC 465.

"(a) General Rule.—In the case of a taxpayer (other than a corporation which is neither an electing small business corporation (as defined in section 1371(b)) nor a personal holding company (as defined in section 542)) engaged in an activity to which this section applies, any loss from such activity for the taxable year shall be allowed only to the extent of the aggregate amount with respect to which the taxpayer is at risk (within the meaning of subsection (b)) for such activity at the close of the taxable year. Any loss from such activity not allowed under this section for the taxable year shall be treated as a deduction allocable to such activity in the first succeeding taxable year.

(b) Amounts Considered at Risk.—

(1) In general.—For purposes of this section, a taxpayer shall be considered at risk for an activity with respect to amounts including—

(A) the amount of money and the adjusted basis of other property contributed by the taxpayer to the activity, and

(B) amounts borrowed with respect to such activity (as determined under paragraph (2)).

(2) Borrowed amounts.—For purposes of this section, a taxpayer shall be considered at risk with respect to amounts borrowed for use in an activity to the extent that he—

(A) is personally liable for the repayment of such amounts, or

(B) has pledged property, other than property used in such activity, as security for such borrowed amount (to the extent of the net fair market value of the taxpayer's interest in such property). No property shall be taken into account as security if such property is directly or indirectly financed by indebtedness which is secured by property described in paragraph (1).

(3) Certain borrowed amounts excluded.—For purposes of paragraph (1)(B), amounts borrowed shall not be considered to be at risk with respect to an activity if such amounts are borrowed from any person who—

(A) has an interest (other than an interest as a creditor) in such activity, or

(B) has a relationship to the taxpayer specified within any one of the paragraphs of section 267(b)."
“(4) Exception.—Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, a taxpayer shall not be considered at risk with respect to amounts protected against loss through nonrecourse financing, guarantees, stop loss agreements, or other similar arrangements.

“(5) Amounts at risk in subsequent years.—If in any taxable year the taxpayer has a loss from an activity to which this section applies, the amount with respect to which a taxpayer is considered to be at risk (within the meaning of subsection (b)) in subsequent taxable years with respect to that activity shall be reduced by that portion of the loss which (after the application of subsection (a)) is allowable as a deduction.

“(c) Activities to which section applies.—

“(1) Types of activities.—This section applies to any taxpayer engaged in the activity of—

“(A) holding, producing, or distributing motion picture films or video tapes,

“(C) leasing any section 1245 property (as defined in section 1245(a)(3)), or “(D) exploring for, or exploiting, oil and gas resources as a trade or business or for the production of income.

“(2) Separate activities.—For purposes of this section, a taxpayer’s activity with respect to each—

“(A) film or video tape,

“(B) section 1245 property which is leased or held for leasing,

“(C) farm, or

“(D) oil and gas property (as defined under section 614), shall be treated as a separate activity. A partner’s interest in a partnership or a shareholder’s interest in an electing small business corporation shall be treated as a single activity to the extent that the partnership or an electing small business corporation is engaged in activities described in any subparagraph of this paragraph.

“(d) Definition of loss.—For purposes of this section, the term ‘loss’ means the excess of the deductions allowable under this chapter for the taxable year (determined without regard to this section) and allocable to an activity to which this section applies over the income received or accrued by the taxpayer during the taxable year from such activity.”

(b) Clerical Amendment.—The table of sections for subpart C of part II of subchapter E of chapter 1 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new item:

“Sec. 465. Deductions limited to amount at risk in case of certain activities.”

(c) Effective Dates.—

(1) In general.—Except as provided in paragraphs (2) and (3), the amendments made by this section shall apply to losses attributable to amounts paid or incurred in taxable years beginning after December 31, 1975. For purposes of this subsection, any amount allowed or allowable for depreciation or amortization for any period shall be treated as an amount paid or incurred in such period.

(2) Special transitional rules for movies and video tapes.—

(A) In general.—In the case of any activity described in section 465(c)(1)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code of.
1954, the amendments made by this section shall not apply to—

(i) deductions for depreciation or amortization with respect to property the principal production of which began before September 11, 1975, and for the purchase of which there was on September 11, 1975, and at all times thereafter a binding contract, and

(ii) deductions attributable to producing or distributing property the principal production of which began before September 11, 1975.

(B) EXCEPTION FOR CERTAIN AGREEMENTS WHERE PRINCIPAL PHOTOGRAPHY BEGIN BEFORE 1976.—In the case of any activity described in section 465(c)(1)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, the amendments made by this section shall not apply to deductions attributable to the producing of a film the principal photography of which began on or before December 31, 1975, if—

(i) on September 10, 1975, there was an agreement with the director or a principal motion picture star, or on or before September 10, 1975, there had been expended (or committed to the production) an amount not less than the lower of $100,000 or 10 percent of the estimated costs of producing the film, and

(ii) the production takes place in the United States.

Subparagraph (A) shall apply only to taxpayers who held their interests on September 10, 1975. Subparagraph (B) shall apply only to taxpayers who held their interests on December 31, 1975.

(3) SPECIAL TRANSITIONAL RULES FOR LEASING ACTIVITIES.—

(A) RULE FOR LEASES OTHER THAN OPERATING LEASES.—In the case of any activity described in section 465(c)(1)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, the amendments made by this section shall not apply with respect to—

(i) leases entered into before January 1, 1976, and

(ii) leases where the property was ordered by the lessor or lessee before January 1, 1976.

(B) HOLDING OF INTERESTS FOR PURPOSES OF SUBPARAGRAPH (A).—Subparagraph (A) shall apply only to taxpayers who held their interests in the property on December 31, 1975.

(C) SPECIAL RULE FOR OPERATING LEASES.—In the case of a lease described in section 46(e)(3)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954—

(i) subparagraph (A) shall be applied by substituting "May 1, 1976" for "January 1, 1976" each place it appears therein, and

(ii) subparagraph (B) shall be applied by substituting "April 30, 1976" for "December 31, 1975".

SEC. 205. GAIN FROM DISPOSITION OF INTEREST IN OIL OR GAS PROPERTY.

(a) RECAPTURE RULES.—Part IV of subchapter P of chapter 1 (relating to special rules for determining capital gains and losses) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

"(a) GENERAL RULE.—

"(1) ORDINARY INCOME.—If oil or gas property is disposed of after December 31, 1975, the lower of—
"(A) the aggregate amount of expenditures after December 31, 1975, which are allocable to such property and which have been deducted as intangible drilling and development costs under section 263(e) by the taxpayer or any other person and which (but for being so deducted) would be reflected in the adjusted basis of such property, adjusted as provided in paragraph (4), or

"(B) the excess of—

"(i) the amount realized (in the case of a sale, exchange, or involuntary conversion), or the fair market value of the interest (in the case of any other disposition), over

"(ii) the adjusted basis of such interest, shall be treated as gain which is ordinary income. Such gain shall be recognized notwithstanding any other provision of this subtitle.

"(2) DISPOSITION OF PORTION OF PROPERTY.—For purposes of paragraph (1)—

"(A) In the case of the disposition of a portion of an oil or gas property (other than an undivided interest), the entire amount of the aggregate expenditures described in paragraph (1)(A) with respect to such property shall be treated as allocable to such portion to the extent of the amount of the gain to which paragraph (1) applies.

"(B) In the case of the disposition of an undivided interest in an oil or gas property (or a portion thereof), a proportionate part of the expenditures described in paragraph (1)(A) with respect to such property shall be treated as allocable to such undivided interest to the extent of the amount of the gain to which paragraph (1) applies.

This paragraph shall not apply to any expenditures to the extent the taxpayer establishes to the satisfaction of the Secretary that such expenditures do not relate to the portion (or interest therein) disposed of.

"(3) OIL OR GAS PROPERTY.—The term ‘oil or gas property’ means any property (within the meaning of section 614) with respect to which any expenditures described in paragraph (1)(A) are properly chargeable.

"(4) SPECIAL RULE FOR PARAGRAPH (1)(A).—In applying paragraph (1)(A), the amount deducted for intangible drilling and development costs and allocable to the interest disposed of shall be reduced by the amount (if any) by which the deduction for depletion under section 611 with respect to such interest would have been increased if such costs incurred (after December 31, 1975) had been charged to capital account rather than deducted.

"(b) SPECIAL RULES UNDER REGULATIONS.—Under regulations prescribed by the Secretary—

"(1) rules similar to the rules of subsection (g) of section 617 and to the rules of subsections (b) and (c) of section 1245 shall be applied for purposes of this section; and

"(2) in the case of the sale or exchange of stock in an electing small business corporation (as defined in section 1371(b)), rules similar to the rules of section 751 shall be applied to that portion of the excess of the amount realized over the adjusted basis of the stock which is attributable to expenditures referred to in subsection (a) (1)(A) of this section."
(b) PARTNERSHIPS.—Section 751(c) (relating to definition of unrealized receivables) is amended by striking out “and farm land (as defined in section 1252(a))” and inserting in lieu thereof “farm land (as defined in section 1252(a)), and an oil or gas property (described in section 1254)”, and by striking out “or 1252(a)” and inserting in lieu thereof “1252(a), or 1254(a)”.

(c) TECHNICAL AMENDMENTS.—

(1) The following provisions are each amended by striking out “or 1252(a)” and inserting in lieu thereof “1252(a), or 1254(a)”:

(A) the second sentence of section 170(e)(1);
(B) section 301(b)(1)(B)(ii);
(C) section 301(d)(2)(B);
(D) section 312(c)(3); and
(E) section 453(d)(4)(B).

(2) Section 341(e)(12) is amended by striking out “and 1252(a)” and inserting in lieu thereof “1252(a), and 1254(a)”.

(3) Section 163(d)(3)(A)(iii) is amended by striking out “and 1250” and inserting in lieu thereof “1250, and 1254”.

(d) CLERICAL AMENDMENT.—The table of sections for part IV of subchapter P of chapter 1 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new item:

(e) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendments made by this section shall apply with respect to taxable years ending after December 31, 1975.

SEC. 206. AMENDMENTS TO FARM LOSS RECAPTURE RULES.

(a) TERMINATION OF ADDITIONS TO EXCESS DEDUCTIONS ACCOUNT.—

Paragraph (2) of section 1251(b) (relating to additions to excess deductions account) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subparagraph:

“(E) TERMINATION OF ADDITIONS.—No amount shall be added to the excess deductions account for any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1975.”

(b) CERTAIN REORGANIZATIONS.—

(1) Subparagraph (A) of section 1251(b)(5) is amended to read as follows:

“(A) CERTAIN CORPORATE TRANSACTIONS.—

“(i) In the case of a transfer described in subsection (d)(3) to which section 371(a), 374(a), or 381 applies, the acquiring corporation shall succeed to and take into account as of the close of the day of distribution or transfer, the excess deductions account of the transferor.

“(ii) In the case of a transfer which is described in subsection (d)(3), which is in connection with a reorganization described in section 368(a)(1)(D), and which is not described in clause (i), the transferee corporation shall be deemed to have an excess deductions account in an amount equal to the amount in the excess deductions account of the transferor. The transferor’s excess deductions account shall not be reduced by reason of the preceding sentence.”

(2) Paragraph (3) of section 1251(b) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

“In the case of a corporation which has made or received a transfer described in clause (ii) of paragraph (5)(A), subtractions from the excess deductions account shall be determined, in such manner as the Secretary shall prescribe, applying this paragraph to the farm net income, and the amounts described in subpara-graph (B), of the transferor corporation and the transferee corporation on an aggregate basis.”.

SEC. 207. LIMITATIONS ON DEDUCTIONS IN CASE OF FARMING SYNDI-CATES; CAPITALIZATION OF CERTAIN ORCHARD AND VINE-YARD EXPENSES; AND METHOD OF ACCOUNTING FOR COR-PORATIONS ENGAGED IN FARMING.

(a) PREPAID EXPENSES.—
(1) IN GENERAL.—Subpart C of part II of subchapter E of chapter 1 (relating to taxable year for which deduction taken) is amended by inserting after section 463 the following new section:

26 USC 464.

“SEC. 464. LIMITATIONS ON DEDUCTIONS IN CASE OF FARMING SYNDICATES.

“(a) GENERAL RULE.—In the case of any farming syndicate (as defined in subsection (c)), a deduction (otherwise allowable under this chapter) for amounts paid for feed, seed, fertilizer, or other similar farm supplies shall only be allowed for the taxable year in which such feed, seed, fertilizer, or other supplies are actually used or consumed, or, if later, for the taxable year for which allowable as a deduction (determined without regard to this section).

“(b) CERTAIN POULTRY EXPENSES.—In the case of any farming syndicate (as defined in subsection (c))—

“(1) the cost of poultry (including egg-laying hens and baby chicks) purchased for use in a trade or business (or both for use in a trade or business and for sale) shall be capitalized and deducted ratably over the lesser of 12 months or their useful life in the trade or business, and “(2) the cost of poultry purchased for sale shall be deducted for the taxable year in which the poultry is sold or otherwise disposed of.

“(c) FARMING SYNDICATE DEFINED.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—For purposes of this section, the term ‘farming syndicate’ means—

“(A) a partnership or any other enterprise other than a corporation which is not an electing small business corporation (as defined in section 1371(b)) engaged in the trade or business of farming, if at any time interests in such partnership or enterprise have been offered for sale in any offering required to be registered with any Federal or State agency having authority to regulate the offering of securities for sale, or

“(B) a partnership or any other enterprise other than a corporation which is not an electing small business corporation
(as defined in section 1371(b)) engaged in the trade or business of farming, if more than 35 percent of the losses during any period are allocable to limited partners or limited entrepreneurs.

“(2) HOLDINGS ATTRIBUTABLE TO ACTIVE MANAGEMENT.—For purposes of paragraph (1)(B), the following shall be treated as an interest which is not held by a limited partner or a limited entrepreneur:

“(A) in the case of any individual who has actively participated (for a period of not less than 5 years) in the management of any trade or business of farming, any interest in a partnership or other enterprise which is attributable to such active participation, “(B) in the case of any individual whose principal residence is on a farm, any partnership or other enterprise engaged in the trade or business of farming such farm, “(C) in the case of any individual who is actively participating in the management of any trade or business of farming or who is an individual who is described in subparagraph
(A) or (B), any participation in the further processing of livestock which was raised in such trade or business (or in the trade or business referred to in subparagraph (A) or (B)), “(D) in the case of an individual whose principal business activity involves active participation in the management of a trade or business of farming, any interest in any other trade or business of farming, and”;
“(E) any interest held by a member of the family (within the meaning of section 267(c)(4)) of a grandparent of an individual described in subparagraph (A), (B), (C), or (D) if the interest in the partnership or the enterprise is attributable to the active participation of the individual described in subparagraph (A), (B), (C), or (D).
For purposes of subparagraph (A), where one farm is substituted for or added to another farm, both farms shall be treated as one farm.
“(d) EXCEPTIONS.—Subsection (a) shall not apply to—“(1) any amount paid for supplies which are on hand at the close of the taxable year on account of fire, storm, flood, or other casualty or on account of disease or drought, or “(2) any amount required to be charged to capital account under section 278.
“(e) DEFINITIONS.—For purposes of this section—
“(1) Farming.—The term ‘farming’ means the cultivation of land or the raising or harvesting of any agricultural or horticultural commodity including the raising, shearing, feeding, caring for, training, and management of animals. For purposes of the preceding sentence, trees (other than trees bearing fruit or nuts) shall not be treated as an agricultural or horticultural commodity.
“(2) Limited Entrepreneur.—The term ‘limited entrepreneur’ means a person who—
“(A) has an interest in an enterprise other than as a limited partner, and “(B) does not actively participate in the management of such enterprise.”
(2) Clerical Amendment.—The table of sections for such subpart C is amended by inserting after the item relating to section 463 the following new item:
“Sec. 464. Limitations on deductions in case of farming syndicates.”
(3) EFFECTIVE DATES.—
(A) In General.—Except as provided in subparagraph
(B), the amendments made by this subsection shall apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1975.
(B) Transitional Rule.—In the case of a farming syndicate in existence on December 31, 1975, and for which there was no change of membership throughout its taxable year beginning in 1976, the amendments made by this subsection shall apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1976.

(b) ORCHARD AND VINEYARD EXPENSES.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Section 278 (relating to capital expenditures incurred in planting and developing citrus and almond groves) is amended by striking out subsection (b) and by inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"(b) FARMING SYNDICATES.—Except as provided in subsection (c), in the case of any farming syndicate (as defined in section 464(c)) engaged in planting, cultivating, maintaining, or developing a grove, orchard, or vineyard in which fruit or nuts are grown, any amount—

"(1) which would be allowable as a deduction but for the provisions of this subsection,

"(2) which is attributable to the planting, cultivation, maintenance, or development of such grove, orchard, or vineyard, and

"(3) which is incurred in a taxable year before the first taxable year in which such grove, orchard, or vineyard bears a crop or yield in commercial quantities, shall be charged to capital account.

"(c) EXCEPTIONS.—Subsections (a) and (b) shall not apply to amounts allowable as deductions (without regard to this section) attributable to a grove, orchard, or vineyard which was replanted after having been lost or damaged (while in the hands of the taxpayer) by reason of freezing temperatures, disease, drought, pests, or casualty.

(2) CONFORMING AMENDMENTS.—

(A) The heading of section 278 is amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 278. CAPITAL EXPENDITURES INCURRED IN PLANTING AND DEVELOPING CITRUS AND ALMOND GROVES; CERTAIN CAPITAL EXPENDITURES OF FARMING SYNDICATES."

(B) Subsection (a) of section 278 (relating to general rule) is amended by striking out "subsection (b)" and inserting in lieu thereof "subsection (c)".

(3) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendments made by this subsection shall apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1975. The amendments made by this subsection shall not apply in the case of a grove, orchard, or vineyard referred to in the amendment made by subsection (b) (1) which was planted or replanted on or before December 31, 1975. For purposes of the preceding sentence, a tree or vine which, on or before December 31, 1975, was planted at a place other than the grove, orchard, or vineyard of the taxpayer but which, on such date, was owned by the taxpayer (or with respect to which the taxpayer had a binding contract to purchase) shall be treated as planted on December 31, 1975, in the grove, orchard, or vineyard of the taxpayer.

(c) METHOD OF ACCOUNTING FOR CORPORATIONS ENGAGED IN FARMING.—

(1) GENERAL RULE.—

(A) Subpart A of part II of subchapter E of chapter 1 (relating to methods of accounting) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

"SEC. 447. METHOD OF ACCOUNTING FOR CORPORATIONS ENGAGED IN FARMING.

"(a) GENERAL RULE.—Except as otherwise provided by law, the taxable income from farming of—"
“(1) a corporation engaged in the trade or business of farming, or “(2) a partnership engaged in the trade or business of farming, if a corporation is a partner in such partnership, shall be computed on an accrual method of accounting and with the capitalization of preproductive expenses described in subsection (b).

This section shall not apply to the trade or business of operating a nursery or to the raising or harvesting of trees (other than fruit and nut trees).

“(b) Preproductive Period Expenses.—

“(1) In general.—For purposes of this section, the term ‘pre-productive period expenses’ means any amount which is attributable to crops, animals, or any other property having a crop or yield during the preproductive period of such property.

“(2) Exceptions.—Paragraph (1) shall not apply—

“(A) to taxes and interest, and “(B) to any amount incurred on account of fire, storm, flood, or other casualty or on account of disease or drought.

“(3) Preproductive Period Defined.—For purposes of this subsection, the term ‘preproductive period’ means—

“(A) in the case of property having a useful life of more than 1 year which will have more than 1 crop or yield, the period before the disposition of the first such marketable crop or yield, or

“(B) in the case of any other property, the period before such property is disposed of.

For purposes of this section, the use by the taxpayer in the trade or business of farming of any supply produced in such trade or business shall be treated as a disposition.

“(c) Exception for Small Business and Family Corporations.—

For purposes of subsection (a), a corporation shall be treated as not being a corporation if it is—

“(1) an electing small business corporation (within the meaning of section 1371(b)),

“(2) a corporation of which at least 50 percent of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock entitled to vote, and at least 50 percent of the total number of shares of all other classes of stock of the corporation, are owned by members of the same family, or

“(3) a corporation the gross receipts of which meet the requirements of subsection (e).

“(d) Members of the Same Family.—For purposes of subsection

c (2)—

“(1) the members of the same family are an individual, such individual’s brothers and sisters, the brothers and sisters of such individual’s parents and grandparents, the ancestors and lineal descendants or any of the foregoing, a spouse of any of the foregoing, and the estate of any of the foregoing,

“(2) stock owned, directly or indirectly, by or for a partnership or trust shall be treated as owned proportionately by its partners or beneficiaries, and “(3) if 50 percent or more in value of the stock in a corporation (hereinafter in this paragraph referred to as ‘first corporation’) is owned, directly or through paragraph (2), by or for members of the same family, such members shall be considered as owning each class of stock in a second corporation (or a wholly owned subsidiary of such second corporation) owned, directly or indirectly, by or for the first corporation, in that proportion which the value of the stock in the first corporation which such members so own bears to the value of all the stock in the first corporation.

For purposes of paragraph (1), individuals related by the half blood or by legal adoption shall be treated as if they were related by the whole blood.

“(e) Corporations Having Gross Receipts of $1,000,000 or Less.—
A corporation meets the requirements of this subsection if, for each prior taxable year beginning after December 31, 1975, such corporation (and any predecessor corporation) did not have gross receipts exceeding $1,000,000. For purposes of the preceding sentence, all corporations which are members of a controlled group of corporations (within the meaning of section 1563(a)) shall be treated as one corporation.

“(f) Coordination With Section 481.—In the case of any taxpayer required by this section to change its method of accounting for any taxable year—

“(1) such change shall be treated as having been made with the consent of the Secretary,

“(2) for purposes of section 481(a)(2), such change shall be treated as a change not initiated by the taxpayer; and

“(3) under regulations prescribed by the Secretary, the net amount of adjustments required by section 481(a) to be taken into account by the taxpayer in computing taxable income shall (except as otherwise provided in such regulations) be taken into account in each of the 10 taxable years beginning with the year of change.

“(g) Certain Annual Accrual Accounting Methods.—

“(1) In general.—If—

“(A) for its 10 taxable years ending with its first taxable year beginning after December 31, 1975, a corporation used an annual accrual method of accounting with respect to its trade or business of farming, “(B) such corporation raises crops which are harvested not less than 12 months after planting, and

“(C) such corporation has used such method of accounting for all taxable years intervening between its first taxable year beginning after December 31, 1975, and the taxable year, such corporation may continue to employ such method of accounting for the taxable year with respect to its trade or business of farming.

“(2) Annual accrual method of accounting defined.—For purposes of paragraph (1), the term ‘annual accrual method of accounting’ means a method under which revenues, costs, and expenses are computed on an accrual method of accounting and the preproductive expenses incurred during the taxable year are charged to harvested crops or deducted in determining the taxable income for such years.

“(3) Certain reorganizations.—For purposes of this subsection, if a corporation acquired substantially all the assets of a farming trade or business from another corporation in a transaction in which no gain or loss was recognized to the transferor or transferee corporation, the transferee corporation shall be deemed to have computed its taxable income on an annual accrual method of accounting during the period for which the transferor corporation computed its taxable income from such trade or business on an annual accrual method.”
(B) The table of sections for such subpart A is amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

"Sec. 447. Method of accounting for corporations engaged in farming."

(2) Effective date.—The amendments made by paragraph (1) shall apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1976.

(3) Election to change from static value method to accrual method of accounting.—

(A) In general.—If—

(i) a corporation has computed its taxable income on an annual accrual method of accounting together with a static value method of accounting for deferred costs of growing crops for the 10 taxable years ending with its first taxable year beginning after December 31, 1975,

(ii) such corporation raises crops which are harvested not less than 12 months after planting; and

(iii) such corporation elects, within one year after the date of the enactment of this Act and in such manner as the Secretary of the Treasury or his delegate prescribes, to change to the annual accrual method of accounting (within the meaning of section 447(g)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954) for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1976, such change shall be treated as having been made with the consent of the Secretary of the Treasury, and, under regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury or his delegate, the net amount of the adjustments required by section 481(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 to be taken into account by the taxpayer in computing taxable income shall (except as otherwise provided in such regulations) be taken into account in each of the 10 taxable years beginning with the year of change.

(B) Coordination with section 447 of the code.—A corporation which elects under subparagraph (A) to change to the annual accrual method of accounting shall, for purposes of section 447(g) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, be deemed to be a corporation which has computed its taxable income on an annual accrual method of accounting for its 10 taxable years ending with its first taxable year beginning after December 31, 1975.

(C) Certain corporate reorganizations.—For purposes of this paragraph, if a corporation acquired substantially all the assets of a farming trade or business from another corporation in a transaction in which no gain or loss was recognized to the transferor or transferee corporation, the transferee corporation shall be deemed to have computed its taxable income on an annual accrual method of accounting together with a static value method of accounting for deferred costs of growing crops during the period for which the transferor corporation computed its taxable income from such trade or business on such accrual and static value method.

SEC. 208. TREATMENT OF PREPAID INTEREST.

(a) General rule.—Section 461 (relating to general rule for taxable year of deduction) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:
“(g) PREPAID INTEREST.—
“(1) IN GENERAL.—If the taxable income of the taxpayer is computed under the cash receipts and disbursements method of accounting, interest paid by the taxpayer which, under regulations prescribed by the Secretary, is properly allocable to any period—
“(A) with respect to which the interest represents a charge for the use or forbearance of money, and “(B) which is after the close of the taxable year in which paid, shall be charged to capital account and shall be treated as paid in the period to which so allocable.
“(2) EXCEPTION.—This subsection shall not apply to points paid in respect of any indebtedness incurred in connection with the purchase or improvement of, and secured by, the principal residence of the taxpayer to the extent that, under regulations prescribed by the Secretary, such payment of points is an established business practice in the area in which such indebtedness is incurred, and the amount of such payment does not exceed the amount generally charged in such area.”

(b) EFFECTIVE DATE.—
(1) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in paragraph (2), the amendment made by subsection (a) shall apply to amounts paid after December 31, 1975, in taxable years ending after such date.
(2) CERTAIN AMOUNTS PAID BEFORE 1977.—The amendment made by subsection (a) shall not apply to amounts paid before January 1, 1977, pursuant to a binding contract or written loan commitment which existed on September 16, 1975 (and at all times thereafter), and which required prepayment of such amounts by the taxpayer.

SEC. 209. LIMITATION ON INTEREST DEDUCTION.
(a) IN GENERAL.—Subsection (d) of section 163 (relating to limitation on interest on investment indebtedness) is amended—
(1) by striking out paragraphs (1) and (2) and inserting in lieu thereof the following:
“(1) IN GENERAL.—In the case of a taxpayer other than a corporation, the amount of investment interest (as defined in paragraph (3)(D)) otherwise allowable as a deduction under this chapter shall be limited, in the following order, to—
“(A) $10,000 ($5,000, in the case of a separate return by a married individual), plus
“(B) the amount of the net investment income (as defined in paragraph (3)(A)), plus the amount (if any) by which the deductions allowable under this section (determined without regard to this subsection) and sections 162, 164(a)(1) or (2), or 212 attributable to property of the taxpayer subject to a net lease exceeds the rental income produced by such property for the taxable year.
In the case of a trust, the $10,000 amount specified in subparagraph (A) shall be zero.
“(2) CARRYOVER OF DISALLOWED INVESTMENT INTEREST.—The amount of disallowed investment interest for any taxable year shall be treated as investment interest paid or accrued in the succeeding taxable year.”;
(2) by adding at the end of paragraph (3)(A) the following new sentence: “If the taxpayer has investment interest for the taxable year to which this subsection (as in effect before the Tax Reform Act of 1976) applies, the amount of the net investment income taken into account under this subsection shall be the amount of such income (determined without regard to this sentence) multiplied by a fraction the numerator of which is the excess of the investment interest for the taxable year over the investment interest to which such prior provision applies, and the denominator of which is the investment interest for the taxable year.

(3) by striking out "limitations in paragraphs (1) and (2) (A)" in paragraph (3) (E) and inserting in lieu thereof "limitation in paragraph (1)";

(4) by striking out paragraph (5) and redesignating paragraphs (6) and (7) as paragraphs (5) and (6), respectively;

(5) by adding at the end of paragraph (5) (as so redesignated) the following:

"For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1975, this paragraph shall be applied on an allocation basis rather than a specific item basis;" and

(6) by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

"(7) SPECIAL RULE WHERE TAXPAYER OWNS 50 PERCENT OR MORE OF ENTERPRISE—

"(A) GENERAL RULE.—In the case of any 50 percent owned corporation or partnership, the $10,000 figure specified in paragraph (1) shall be increased by the lesser of—

"(i) $15,000, or

"(ii) the interest paid or accrued during the taxable year on investment indebtedness incurred or continued in connection with the acquisition of the interest in such corporation or partnership.

In the case of a separate return by a married individual, $7,500 shall be substituted for the $15,000 figure in clause (1).

"(B) OWNERSHIP REQUIREMENTS.—This paragraph shall apply with respect to indebtedness only if the taxpayer, his spouse, and his children own 50 percent or more of the total value of all classes of stock of the corporation or 50 percent or more of all capital interests in the partnership, as the case may be."

(b) EFFECTIVE DATE.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in paragraph (2), the amendments made by subsection (a) shall apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1975.

(2) INDEBTEDNESS INCURRED BEFORE SEPTEMBER 11, 1975.—In the case of indebtedness attributable to a specific item of property which—

(A) is for a specified term, and

(B) was incurred before September 11, 1975, or is incurred after September 10, 1975, pursuant to a written contract or commitment which on September 11, 1975, and at all times thereafter before the incurring of such indebtedness, is binding on the taxpayer, the amendments made by this section shall not apply, but section 163(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (as in effect before the enactment of this Act) shall apply. For purposes of the preceding sentence, so much of the net investment income (as defined in section 163(d)(3)(A) of such Code) for any taxable year as is not taken into account under section 163(d) of such Code, as amended by this Act, by reason of the last sentence of section 163(d)(3)(A) of such Code, shall be taken into account for purposes of applying such section as in effect before the date of enactment of this Act with respect to interest on indebtedness referred to in the preceding sentence.

SEC. 210. AMORTIZATION OF PRODUCTION COST OF MOTION PICTURES, BOOKS, RECORDS, AND OTHER SIMILAR PROPERTY.

(a) In General.—Part IX of subchapter B of chapter 1 (relating to items not deductible) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

"SEC. 280. CERTAIN EXPENDITURES INCURRED IN PRODUCTION OF FILMS, BOOKS, RECORDS, OR SIMILAR PROPERTY.

"(a) General Rule.—Except in the case of a corporation (other than an electing small business corporation (as defined in section 1371(b)) or a personal holding company (as defined in section 542)) and except in the case of production costs which are charged to capital account, amounts attributable to the production of a film, sound recording, book, or similar property which are otherwise deductible under this chapter shall be allowed as deductions only in accordance with the provisions of subsection (b).

"(b) Proration of Production Cost Over Income Period.—Amounts referred to in subsection (a) are deductible only for those taxable years ending during the period during which the taxpayer reasonably may be expected to receive substantially all of the income he will receive from any such film, sound recording, book, or similar property. The amount deductible for any such taxable year is an amount which bears the same ratio to the sum of all such amounts (attributable to such film, sound recording, book, or similar property) as the income received from the property for that taxable year bears to the sum of the income the taxpayer may reasonably be expected to receive during such period.

"(c) Definitions.—For purposes of this section—

"(1) Film.—The term ‘film’ means any motion picture film or video tape.

"(2) Sound Recording.—The term ‘sound recording’ means works that result from the fixation of a series of musical, spoken, or other sounds, regardless of the nature of the material objects, such as discs, tapes, or other phonorecordings, in which such sounds are embodied.”

(b) Clerical Amendment.—The table of sections for such part is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new item:

"Sec. 280. Certain expenditures incurred in production of films, books, records, or similar property.”

26 USC 280 note.

(c) Effective Date.—The amendment made by this section applies to amounts paid or incurred after December 31, 1975, with respect to property the principal production of which begins after December 31, 1975.

SEC. 211. CLARIFICATION OF DEFINITION OF PRODUCED FILM RENTS.

(a) In General.—Subparagraph (B) of paragraph (5) of section 543(a) (defining produced film rents for purposes of personal holding company income) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new sentence: “In the case of a producer who actively participates in the production of the film, such term includes an interest in the proceeds or profits from the film, but only to the extent such interest is attributable to such active participation.”

(b) Effective Date.—The amendment made by subsection (a) shall apply to taxable years ending on or after December 31, 1975.

SEC. 212. BASIS LIMITATION FOR AND RECAPTURE OF DEPRECIATION ON PLAYER CONTRACTS.

(a) Basis Limitations.—

(1) In general.—Part IV of subchapter O of chapter 1 (relating to special rules applicable to gain or loss on disposition of property) is amended by redesignating section 1056 as section 1057, and by inserting after section 1055 the following new section:

“SEC. 1056. BASIS LIMITATION FOR PLAYER CONTRACTS TRANSFERRED IN CONNECTION WITH THE SALE OF A FRANCHISE.

“(a) General Rule.—If a franchise to conduct any sports enterprise is sold or exchanged, and if, in connection with such sale or exchange, there is a transfer of a contract for the services of an athlete, the basis of such contract in the hands of the transferee shall not exceed the sum of—

“(1) the adjusted basis of such contract in the hands of the transferor immediately before the transfer, plus

“(2) the gain (if any) recognized by the transferor on the transfer of such contract.

For purposes of this section, gain realized by the transferor on the transfer of such contract, but not recognized by reason of section 337(a), shall be treated as recognized to the extent recognized by the transferor’s shareholders.

“(b) Exceptions.—Subsection (a) shall not apply—

“(1) to an exchange described in section 1031 (relating to exchange of property held for productive use or investment), and

“(2) to property in the hands of a person acquiring the property from a decedent or to whom the property passed from a decedent (within the meaning of section 1014(a)).

“(c) Transferor Required To Furnish Certain Information.—Under regulations prescribed by the Secretary, the transfer shall, at the times and in the manner provided in such regulations, furnish to the Secretary and to the transferee the following information:

“(1) the amount which the transferor believes to be the adjusted basis referred to in paragraph (1) of subsection (a),

“(2) the amount which the transferor believes to be the gain referred to in paragraph (2) of subsection (a), and

“(3) any subsequent modification of either such amount.

To the extent provided in such regulations, the amounts furnished pursuant to the preceding sentence shall be binding on the transferor and on the transferee.

“(d) Presumption As To Amount Allocable To Player Contracts.—In the case of any sale or exchange described in subsection (a), it shall be presumed that not more than 50 percent of the consideration is allocable to contracts for the services of athletes unless it is established to the satisfaction of the Secretary that a specified amount in excess of 50 percent is properly allocable to such contracts. Nothing in the preceding sentence shall give rise to a presumption that an allocation of less than 50 percent of the consideration to contracts for the services of athletes is a proper allocation.”
(2) CLERICAL AMENDMENT.—The tables of sections for such part VI is amended by striking out the last item and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"Sec. 1056. Basis limitation for player contracts transferred in connection with the sale of a franchise.

"Sec. 1057. Cross references."

(3) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendments made by this subsection apply to sales or exchanges of franchises after December 31, 1975, in taxable years ending after such date.

(b) RECAPTURE.—

26 USC 1245.

(1) IN GENERAL.—Section 1245 (a) (relating to gain from disposition of certain depreciable property) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

"(4) SPECIAL RULE FOR PLAYER CONTRACTS.—

"(A) IN GENERAL.—For purposes of this section, if a franchise to conduct any sports enterprise is sold or exchanged, and if, in connection with such sale or exchange, there is a transfer of any player contracts, the recomputed basis of such player contracts in the hands of the transferor shall be the adjusted basis of such contracts increased by the greater of—

"(i) the previously unreaptured depreciation with respect to player contracts acquired by the transferor at the time of acquisition of such franchise, or

"(ii) the previously unreaptured depreciation with respect to the player contracts involved in such transfer.

"(B) PREVIOUSLY UNRECAPTURED DEPRECIATION WITH RESPECT TO INITIAL CONTRACTS.—For purposes of subparagraph (A)(i), the term ‘previously unreaptured depreciation’ means the excess (if any) of—

"(i) the sum of the deduction allowed or allowable to the taxpayer transferor for the depreciation of any player contracts acquired by him at the time of acquisition of such franchise, plus the deduction allowed or allowable for losses with respect to such player contracts acquired at the time of such acquisition, over

"(ii) the aggregate of the amounts treated as ordinary income by reason of this section with respect to prior dispositions of such player contracts acquired upon acquisition of the franchise.

"(C) PREVIOUSLY UNRECAPTURED DEPRECIATION WITH RESPECT TO CONTRACTS TRANSFERRED.—For purposes of subparagraph (A)(ii), the term ‘previously unreaptured depreciation’ means—

"(i) the amount of any deduction allowed or allowable to the taxpayer transferor for the depreciation of any contracts involved in such transfer, over

"(ii) the aggregate of the amounts treated as ordinary income by reason of this section with respect to prior dispositions of such player contracts acquired upon acquisition of the franchise.

"(D) PLAYER CONTRACT.—For purposes of this paragraph, the term ‘player contract’ means any contract for the services of an athlete which, in the hands of the taxpayer, is of a character subject to the allowance for depreciation provided in section 167."
(2) Effective Date.—The amendment made by this subsection applies to transfers of player contracts in connection with any sale or exchange of a franchise after December 31, 1975.

SEC. 213. CERTAIN PARTNERSHIP PROVISIONS.

(a) Dollar Limitation With Respect to Additional First-Year Depreciation Allowance.—Subsection (d) of section 179 (relating to additional first-year depreciation allowance for small business) is amended by redesignating paragraph (8) as paragraph (9) and by inserting after paragraph (7) the following new paragraph:

"(8) Dollar Limitation in Case of Partnerships.—In the case of a partnership, the dollar limitation contained in the first sentence of subsection (b) shall apply with respect to the partnership and with respect to each partner."

(b) Clarification of Treatment of Partnership Syndication Fees, Etc.—

(1) In General.—Part I of subchapter K of chapter 1 (relating to determination of tax liability) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

"SEC. 709. Treatment of Organization and Syndication Fees.

"(a) General Rule.—Except as provided in subsection (b), no deduction shall be allowed under this chapter to the partnership or to any partner for any amounts paid or incurred to organize a partnership or to promote the sale of (or to sell) an interest in such partnership.

"(b) Amortization of Organization Fees.—

"(1) Deduction.—Amounts paid or incurred to organize a partnership may, at the election of the partnership (made in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary), be treated as deferred expenses. Such deferred expenses shall be allowed as a deduction ratably over such period of not less than 60 months as may be selected by the partnership (beginning with the month in which the partnership begins business), or if the partnership is liquidated before the end of such 60-month period, such deferred expenses (to the extent not deducted under this section) may be deducted to the extent provided in section 165.

"(2) Organizational expenses defined.—The organizational expenses to which paragraph (1) applies, are expenditures which—

"(A) are incident to the creation of the partnership;

"(B) are chargeable to capital account; and

"(C) are of a character which, if expended incident to the creation of a partnership having an ascertainable life, would be amortized over such life."

(2) Clerical Amendment.—The table of sections for such part is amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

"Sec. 709. Treatment of organization and syndication fees."

(3) Determination of Amounts Chargeable to Capital Account.—Section 707(c) (relating to guaranteed payments) is amended by striking out "and section 162(a)" and inserting in lieu thereof "and, subject to section 263, for purposes of section 162(a)".

(c) Items Must Be Allocated to Portion of Year Partner Held Interest.—

(1) In General.—Subparagraph (B) of section 706(c)(2) (relating to disposition of less than entire interest) is amended by striking out "or with respect to a partner whose interest is reduced" and inserting in lieu thereof "or with respect to a partner whose interest is reduced (whether by entry of a new partner, partial liquidation of a partner's interest, gift, or otherwise)."

(2) CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF SUBCHAPTER K MAY NOT BE OVERRIDDEN BY PARTNERSHIP AGREEMENT.—Subsection (a) of section 704 (relating to effect of partnership agreement) is amended by striking out "except as otherwise provided in this section" and inserting in lieu thereof "except as otherwise provided in this chapter".

(3) CROSS REFERENCES.—
   (A) Section 704 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following:
   "(f) Cross Reference.—
   "For rules in the case of the sale, exchange, liquidation, or reduction of a partner's interest, see section 706(c)(2)."

(b) DETERMINATION OF DISTRIBUTIVE SHARE.—Section 704 (relating to distributive share determined by income or loss ratio) is amended to read as follows:
   "(b) Determination of Distributive Share.—A partner's distributive share of income, gain, loss, deduction, or credit (or item thereof) shall be determined in accordance with the partner's interest in the partnership (determined by taking into account all facts and circumstances), if—
   "(1) the partnership agreement does not provide as to the partner's distributive share of income, gain, loss, deduction, or credit (or item thereof), or
   "(2) the allocation to a partner under the agreement of income, gain, loss, deduction, or credit (or item thereof) does not have substantial economic effect."

(e) TREATMENT OF PARTNER'S LIABILITIES WITH RESPECT TO WHICH THE PARTNER IS NOT PERSONALLY LIABLE.—Section 704(d) (relating to limitation on allowance of losses) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new sentences:
   "For purposes of this subsection, the adjusted basis of any partner's interest in the partnership shall not include any portion of any partnership liability with respect to which the partner has no personal liability. The preceding sentence shall not apply with respect to any activity to the extent that section 465 (relating to limiting deductions to amounts at risk in case of certain activities) applies, nor shall it apply to any partnership the principal activity of which is investing in real property (other than mineral property)."

(f) EFFECTIVE DATES.—
   (1) IN GENERAL.—Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, the amendments made by this section shall apply in the case of partnership taxable years beginning after December 31, 1975.
   (2) SUBSECTION (e).—The amendment made by subsection (e) shall apply to liabilities incurred after December 31, 1976.
(3) SECTION 709(b) OF THE CODE.—Section 709(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (as added by the amendment made by subsection (b)(1) of this section) shall apply in the case of amounts paid or incurred in taxable years beginning after December 31, 1976.

SEC. 214. SCOPE OF WAIVER OF STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS IN CASE OF ACTIVITIES NOT ENGAGED IN FOR PROFIT.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Subsection (e) of section 183 (relating to special rule for activities not engaged in for profit) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

"(4) Time for assessing deficiency attributable to activity.—If a taxpayer makes an election under paragraph (1) with respect to an activity, the statutory period for the assessment of any deficiency attributable to such activity shall not expire before the expiration of 2 years after the date prescribed by law (determined without extensions) for filing the return of tax under chapter 1 for the last taxable year in the period of 5 taxable years (or 7 taxable years) to which the election relates. Such deficiency may be assessed notwithstanding the provisions of any law or rule of law which would otherwise prevent such an assessment."

(b) CROSS REFERENCE.—Paragraph (2) of section 6212(c) (relating to restriction of further deficiency letters) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subparagraph:

"(E) Deficiency attributable to activities not engaged in for profit, see section 183(e)(4)."

(c) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendments made by this section shall apply with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1969; except that such amendments shall not apply to any taxable year ending before the date of the enactment of this Act with respect to which the period for assessing a deficiency has expired before such date of enactment.

TITLE III—MINIMUM TAX AND MAXIMUM TAX

SEC. 301. MINIMUM TAX.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Subsection (a) of section 56 (relating to minimum tax for tax preferences) is amended to read as follows:

"(a) General Rule.—In addition to the other taxes imposed by this chapter, there is hereby imposed for each taxable year, with respect to the income of every person, a tax equal to 15 percent of the amount by which the sum of the items of tax preference exceeds the greater of—

"(1) $10,000, or

"(2) the regular tax deduction for the taxable year (as determined under subsection (c))."

(b) CONFORMING CHANGES.—

(1) Section 56(b) (relating to deferral of tax liability in case of certain net operating losses) is amended—

(A) by striking out "$30,000" in paragraph (1) (B) and inserting in lieu thereof "$10,000", and

(B) by striking out "10 percent" in paragraphs (1) and (2) and inserting in lieu thereof "15 percent".
(2) Section 56(c) (relating to tax carryovers) is amended to read as follows:

"(c) REGULAR TAX DEDUCTION DEFINED.—For purposes of this section, the term 'regular tax deduction' means an amount equal to one-half of (or in the case of a corporation, an amount equal to) the taxes imposed by this chapter for the taxable year (computed without regard to this part and without regard to the taxes imposed by sections 72(m)(5)(B), 402(e), 408(f), 531, and 541), reduced by the sum of the credits allowable under—

"(1) section 33 (relating to foreign tax credit),
"(2) section 37 (relating to credit for the elderly),
"(3) section 38 (relating to investment credit),
"(4) section 40 (relating to expenses of work incentive program),
"(5) section 41 (relating to contributions to candidates for public office),
"(6) section 42 (relating to general tax credit),
"(7) section 44 (relating to purchase of new principal residence), and
"(8) section 44A (relating to expenses for household and dependent care services necessary for gainful employment)."

(c) ADDITIONAL TAX PREFERENCE ITEMS.—

(1) ADDITIONAL PREFERENCE ITEMS.—

26 USC 57.

(A) Section 57(a) (relating to items of tax preference) is amended by striking out paragraph (1) and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"(1) EXCESS ITEMIZED DEDUCTIONS.—An amount equal to the excess itemized deductions for the taxable year (as determined under subsection (b))."

(B) Section 57(a) (relating to items of tax preference) is amended by striking out the matter following paragraph (10) and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"(11) INTANGIBLE DRILLING COSTS.—The excess of the intangible drilling and development costs described in section 263(c) paid or incurred in connection with oil and gas wells (other than costs incurred in drilling a nonproductive well) allowable under this chapter for the taxable year over the amount which would have been allowable for the taxable year if such costs had been capitalized and straight line recovery of intangibles (as defined in subsection (d)) had been used with respect to such costs. Paragraphs (1), (3), and (11) shall not apply to a corporation."

(C) Section 57(a)(3) (relating to accelerated depreciation on personal property subject to a net lease) is amended to read as follows:

"(3) ACCELERATED DEPRECIATION ON LEASED PERSONAL PROPERTY.—With respect to each item of section 1245 property (as defined in section 1245(a)(3)) which is subject to a lease, the amount by which—

"(A) the deduction allowable for the taxable year for depreciation or amortization, exceeds

"(B) the deduction which would have been allowable for the taxable year had the taxpayer depreciated the property under the straight-line method for each taxable year of its useful life for which the taxpayer has held the property.

For purposes of subparagraph (B), useful life shall be determined as if section 167(m)(1) (relating to asset depreciation range) did not include the last sentence thereof."
(2) Excess itemized deductions defined.—Section 57(b) is amended to read as follows:

"(b) Excess Itemized Deductions.—

"(1) In general.—For purposes of paragraph (1) of subsection (a), the amount of the excess itemized deductions for any taxable year is the amount by which the sum of the deductions for the taxable year other than—

"(A) deductions allowable in arriving at adjusted gross income,

"(B) the standard deduction provided by section 141,

"(C) the deduction for personal exemptions provided by section 151,

"(D) the deduction for medical, dental, etc., expenses provided by section 213, and

"(E) the deduction for casualty losses described in section 165(c)(3), exceeds 60 percent (but does not exceed 100 percent) of the taxpayer's adjusted gross income for the taxable year.

"(2) Special rule for trusts and estates.—In the case of a trust or estate, any deduction allowed or allowable for the taxable year—

"(A) under section 642(c) (but only to the extent that the amount of the deduction allowable under such section is included in the income of the beneficiary under section 662(a) (1) for the taxable year of the beneficiary with which or within which the taxable year of the trust ends);

"(B) under section 642(d), 642(e), 642(f), 651(a), 661(a), or 691; or

"(C) for costs paid or incurred in connection with the administration of the trust or estate; shall, for purposes of paragraph (1), be treated as a deduction allowable in arriving at an adjusted gross income."

(3) Straight line recovery of intangibles defined.—Section 57 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

"(d) Straight Line Recovery of Intangibles Defined.—For purposes of paragraph (11) of subsection (a)—

"(1) In general.—The term 'straight line recovery of intangibles', when used with respect to intangible drilling and development costs for any well, means (except in the case of an election under paragraph (2)) ratable amortization of such costs over the 120-month period beginning with the month in which production from such well begins.

"(2) Election.—If the taxpayer elects, at such time and in such manner as the Secretary may by regulations prescribe, with respect to the intangible drilling and development costs for any well, the term 'straight line recovery of intangibles' means any method which would be permitted for purposes of determining cost depletion with respect to such well and which is selected by the taxpayer for purposes of subsection (a)(11)."

(4) Special rules for timber.—

(A) Preference reduction for timber.—Section 57(a)(9) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subparagraph:

"(C) Preference reduction for timber.—In the case of a corporation, the amount of the tax preference under sub-paragraph (B) shall be reduced (but not below zero) by the sum of:

"(i) one-third of the corporation's timber preference income (as defined in subsection (e)), plus

"(ii) $20,000,

but in no event shall this reduction exceed the amount of timber preference income."

(B) Regular Tax Deduction Adjustments for Timber.—

Section 56 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsections:

"(d) Regular Tax Deduction Adjustment for Timber.—In the case of a corporation, the regular tax deduction (as determined under subsection (c)) shall be reduced by an amount equal to the lesser of—

"(1) one-third of the amount determined under subsection (c) without regard to this subsection, or

"(2) the preference reduction for timber determined under section 57 (a) (9) (C).

(e) Tax Carryover for Timber.—

"(1) In General.—In the case of a corporation, if for any taxable year, including a taxable year beginning before January 1, 1976—

"(A) the taxes imposed by this chapter (computed without regard to this part and without regard to the tax imposed by section 531) which, under regulations prescribed by the Secretary, are attributable to income from timber, reduced by the sum of the credits allowable under—

"(i) section 33 (relating to foreign tax credit),

"(ii) section 38 (relating to investment credit), and

"(iii) section 40 (relating to expenses of work incentive programs), exceed

"(B) the items of tax preference (as determined under section 57), then the excess of the taxes described in subparagraph (A) over the items of tax preference shall be a tax carryover to each of the 7 taxable years following such year. The entire amount of the excess shall be carried to the first of such 7 taxable years, and then to each of the other such taxable years to the extent that such excess is not used to reduce the amount subject to tax under subsection (a) for a prior taxable year to which such excess may be carried.

"(2) Limitation.—The amount of any carryover under paragraph (1) which may be deducted in a taxable year shall be limited to—

"(A) the excess of—

"(i) the amount of timber preference income for the taxable year (as defined in section 57 (e)), over

"(ii) the amount determined under section 57 (a) (9) (C) for the taxable year,

"(B) reduced by the excess of—

"(i) the regular tax deduction for the taxable year (as determined under subsection (c) without regard to this subsection), over

"(ii) the amount determined under subsection (d) for the taxable year."

(C) Timber Preference Income Defined.—Section 57 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:
“(e) Timber Preference Income Defined.—For purposes of this part, the term ‘timber preference income’ means the sum of—

(1) the gains referred to in section 631(a) and section 631(b),

(2) long-term capital gains on timber, and

(3) gains on the sale of timber included in paragraph 1231(b)(1), multiplied by the fraction determined in paragraph 57(a)(9)(B).”

(d) Amendments of Section 58.—Section 58 (relating to rules for application of part) is amended—

(1) by striking out subsection (a) and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

“(a) Married Individuals Filing Separate Returns.—In the case of a married individual who files a separate return for the taxable year, section 58 shall be applied by substituting $5,000 for $10,000 each place it appears.”;

(2) by striking out “$30,000” each place it appears in subsections (b) and (c) (2) and inserting in lieu thereof “$10,000”, and

(3) by adding at the end thereof the following new subsections:

“(h) Regulations to Include Tax Benefit Rule.—The Secretary shall prescribe regulations under which items of tax preference shall be properly adjusted where the tax treatment giving rise to such items will not result in the reduction of the taxpayer’s tax under this subtitle for any taxable years.

“(i) Corporation Defined.—Except as provided in subsection (d)(2), for purposes of this part, the term ‘corporation’ does not include an electing small business corporation (as defined in section 1371(b)) or a personal holding company (as defined in section 542).”

(e) Conforming Amendment.—Subsection (d) of section 443 (relating to adjustment in exclusion for computing minimum tax for tax preferences) is amended by striking out “$30,000” and inserting in lieu thereof “$10,000”.

(f) Section 21 Not To Apply.—For purposes of section 21 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, the amendments made by this section shall not be treated as a change in a rate of tax.

(g) Effective Date.—

(1) In General.—Except as provided by paragraph (4), the amendments made by this section shall apply to items of tax preference for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1975.

(2) Tax Carryover.—Except as provided in paragraph (4) and in section 56(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, the amount of any tax carryover under section 56(e) of such Code from a taxable year beginning before January 1, 1976, shall not be allowed as a tax carryover for any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1975.

(3) Special Rule for Taxable Year 1976 in the Case of a Corporation.—Notwithstanding any provision of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 to the contrary, in the case of a corporation which is not an electing small business corporation or a personal holding company the tax imposed by section 56 of such Code for taxable years beginning in 1976, is an amount equal to the sum of—

(A) the amount of the tax which would have been imposed for such taxable year under such section as such section was in effect on the day before the date of the enactment of the Tax Reform Act of 1976, and

(B) one-half of the amount by which the amount of the tax which would be imposed for such taxable year under such section as amended by the Tax Reform Act of 1976 (but for this paragraph) exceeds the amount determined under subparagraph (A).

(4) CERTAIN FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS.—In the case of a taxpayer which is a financial institution to which section 585 or 593 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 applies, the amendments made by this section shall apply only to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1977, and paragraph (2) shall be applied by substituting "January 1, 1978" for "January 1, 1976" and by substituting "December 31, 1977" for "December 31, 1975".

SEC. 302. MAXIMUM TAX.
(a) IN GENERAL.—Section 1348 (relating to 50-percent maximum rate on earned income) is amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 1348. 50-PERCENT MAXIMUM RATE ON PERSONAL SERVICE INCOME.
(a) GENERAL RULE.—If for any taxable year an individual has personal service taxable income which exceeds the amount of taxable income specified in paragraph (1), the tax imposed by section 1 for such year shall, unless the taxpayer chooses the benefits of part I (relating to income averaging), be the sum of—

"(1) the tax imposed by section 1 on the highest amount of taxable income on which the rate of tax does not exceed 50 percent,
"(2) 50 percent of the amount by which his personal service taxable income exceeds the amount of taxable income specified in paragraph (1) of this subsection, and
"(3) the excess of the tax computed under section 1 without regard to this section over the tax so computed with reference solely to his personal service taxable income.

(b) DEFINITIONS.—For purposes of this section—

"(1) PERSONAL SERVICE INCOME.—
"(A) IN GENERAL.—The term 'personal service income' means any income which is earned income within the meaning of section 401(c) (2) (C) or section 911(b) or which is an amount received as a pension or annuity.
"(B) EXCEPTIONS.—The term 'personal service income' does not include any amount—

"(i) to which section 72(m)(5), 402(a)(2), 402(e), 403(a)(2), 408(e)(2), 408(e)(3), 408(e)(4), 408(e)(5), 408(f), or 409(e) applies; or
"(ii) which is includible in gross income under section 409(b) because of the redemption of a bond which was not tendered before the close of the taxable year in which the registered owner attained age 701/2.

"(2) PERSONAL SERVICE TAXABLE INCOME.—The personal service taxable income of an individual is the excess of—

"(A) the amount which bears the same ratio (but not in excess of 100 percent) to his taxable income as his personal service net income bears to his adjusted gross income, over
"(B) the sum of the items of tax preference (as defined in section 7) for the taxable year.

For purposes of subparagraph (A), the term 'personal service net income' means personal service income reduced by any deductions allowable under section 62 which are properly allocable to or chargeable against such earned income.

(c) MARRIED INDIVIDUALS.—This section shall apply to a married individual only if such individual and his spouse make a single return jointly for the taxable year."
(b) Clerical Amendment.—The table of sections for part VI of subchapter Q of chapter 1 is amended by striking out the item relating to section 1348 and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"Sec. 1348. 50-percent maximum rate on personal service income."

(c) Conforming Amendments.—Section 1304(b)(5) is amended by striking out "earned" and inserting in lieu thereof "personal service".

(d) Effective Date.—The amendments made by this section apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1976.

TITLE IV—EXTENSIONS OF INDIVIDUAL INCOME TAX REDUCTIONS

SEC. 401. EXTENSIONS OF INDIVIDUAL INCOME TAX REDUCTIONS.

(a) General Tax Credit.—

(1) 1-Year Extension of Credit.—Section 3(b) of the Revenue Adjustment Act of 1975 is amended by striking out "December 31, 1976" and inserting in lieu thereof "December 31, 1977".

(2) Technical Amendments.—

(A) The heading and subsection (a) of section 42 (relating to allowance of taxable income credit) are amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 42. GENERAL TAX CREDIT. 26 USC 42.

(a) ALLOWANCE OF CREDIT.—In the case of an individual, there shall be allowed as a credit against the tax imposed by this chapter for the taxable year an amount equal to the greater of—

"(1) 2 percent of so much of the taxpayer’s taxable income for the taxable year as does not exceed $9,000; or

"(2) $35 multiplied by each exemption for which the taxpayer is entitled to a deduction for the taxable year under subsection (b) or (e) of section 151."

(B) Paragraph (1) of section 42(c) (relating to special rule for married individuals filing separate returns) is amended to read as follows:

"(1) IN GENERAL.—Notwithstanding subsection (a), in the case of a married individual who files a separate return for the taxable year, the amount of the credit allowable under subsection (a) for the taxable year shall be equal to either—

"(A) the amount determined under paragraph (1) of subsection (a); or

"(B) if this subparagraph applies to the individual for the taxable year, the amount determined under paragraph (2) of subsection (a).

For purposes of the preceding sentence, paragraph (1) of subsection (a) shall be applied by substituting ‘$4,500' for ‘$9,000’.

(C) Section 6096(b) (relating to designation of income tax payments to Presidential Election Campaign Fund), as in effect on the day before the date of the enactment of the Tax Reduction Act of 1975, is amended by striking out "and 41" and inserting in lieu thereof "41, and 42".

(D) The table of sections for subpart A of part IV of subchapter A of chapter 1 is amended by striking out the item relating to section 42 and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"Sec. 42. General tax credit."
26 USC 141.

(b) Standard Deduction.

(1) Low Income Allowance.—Subsection (c) of section 141 (relating to low income allowance) is amended to read as follows:

"(c) Low Income Allowance.—The low income allowance is—

"(1) $2,100 in the case of—

"(A) a joint return under section 6013, or

"(B) a surviving spouse (as defined in section 2(a)),

"(2) $1,700 in the case of an individual who is not married and who is not a surviving spouse (as so defined), or

"(3) $1,050 in the case of a married individual filing a separate return.

(2) Percentage Standard Deduction.—Subsection (b) of section 141 (relating to percentage standard deduction) is amended to read as follows:

"(b) Percentage Standard Deduction.—The percentage standard deduction is an amount equal to 16 percent of adjusted gross income, but not more than—

"(1) $2,800 in the case of—

"(A) a joint return under section 6013, or

"(B) a surviving spouse (as defined in section 2(a)),

"(2) $2,400 in the case of an individual who is not married and who is not a surviving spouse (as so defined), or

"(3) $1,400 in the case of a married individual filing a separate return.

(3) Filing Requirements.—So much of paragraph (1) of section 6012(a) (relating to persons required to make returns of income) as precedes subparagraph (C) thereof is amended to read as follows:

"(1) (A) Every individual having for the taxable year a gross income of $750 or more, except that a return shall not be required of an individual (other than an individual referred to in section 142(b))—

"(i) who is not married (determined by applying section 143), is not a surviving spouse (as defined in section 2(a)), and for the taxable year has a gross income of less than $2,450,

"(ii) who is a surviving spouse (as so defined) and for the taxable year has a gross income of less than $2,850, or

"(iii) who is entitled to make a joint return under section 6013 and whose gross income, when combined with the gross income of his spouse, is, for the taxable year, less than $3,600 but only if such individual and his spouse, at the close of the taxable year, had the same household as their home.

Clause (iii) shall not apply if for the taxable year such spouse makes a separate return or any other taxpayer is entitled to an exemption for such spouse under section 151(e).

"(B) The amount specified in clause (i) or (ii) of subparagraph (A) shall be increased by $750 in the case of an individual entitled to an additional personal exemption under section 151(c)(1), and the amount specified in clause (iii) of subparagraph (A) shall be increased by $750 for each additional personal exemption to which the individual or his spouse is entitled under section 151(c) ; ."

(c) Earned Income Credit.—

(1) Extension of credit.—
(A) Section 209(b) of the Tax Reduction Act of 1975 is amended by striking out "January 1, 1977" and inserting in lieu thereof "January 1, 1978".

(B) Subsections (a) and (b) of section 43 (relating to earned income credit) are amended to read as follows:

"(a) ALLOWANCE OF CREDIT.—In the case of an eligible individual, there is allowed as a credit against the tax imposed by this chapter for the taxable year an amount equal to 10 percent of so much of the earned income for the taxable year as does not exceed $4,000.

"(b) LIMITATION.—The amount of the credit allowable to a taxpayer under subsection (a) for any taxable year shall be reduced (but not below zero) by an amount equal to 10 percent of so much of the adjusted gross income (or, if greater, the earned income) of the taxpayer for the taxable year as exceeds $4,000."

(2) DEFINITION OF ELIGIBLE INDIVIDUAL.—Subparagraph (A) of section 43(c)(1) (relating to definition of eligible individual) is amended to read as follows:

"(A) maintains a household (within the meaning of section 44A(f)(1)) in the United States which is the principal place of abode of that individual and—

"(i) a child of that individual if such child meets the requirements of section 151(c)(1)(B) (relating to additional exemptions for dependents), or

"(ii) a child of that individual who is disabled (within the meaning of section 72(m)(7)) and with respect to whom that individual is entitled to claim a deduction under section 151; and"

(d) WITHHOLDING AMENDMENTS.—

(1) Subsection (a) of section 3402 (relating to income tax collected at source) is amended to read as follows:

"(a) REQUIREMENT OF WITHHOLDING.—Except as otherwise provided in this section, every employer making payment of wages shall deduct and withhold upon such wages a tax determined in accordance with tables prescribed by the Secretary. With respect to wages paid prior to January 1, 1978, the tables so prescribed shall be the same as the tables prescribed under this section which were in effect on January 1, 1976. With respect to wages paid after December 31, 1977, the Secretary shall prescribe new tables which shall be the same as the tables prescribed under this subsection which were in effect on January 1, 1975, except that such tables shall be modified to the extent necessary to reflect the amendments made to subsections (b) and (c) of section 141 by the Tax Reform Act of 1976. For purposes of applying such tables, the term 'the amount of wages' means the amount by which the wages exceed the number of withholding exemptions claimed, multiplied by the amount of one such exemption as shown in the table in subsection (b)(1)."

(2) Paragraph (6) of section 3402(c) (relating to wage bracket withholding), as such paragraph was in effect on the day before the date of the enactment of the Tax Reduction Act of 1975, is amended by striking out "table 7 contained in subsection (a)" and inserting in lieu thereof "the table for an annual payroll period prescribed pursuant to subsection (a)".

(3) Subparagraph (B) of section 3402(m)(1) (relating to withholding allowance based on itemized deductions) is amended to read as follows:

"(B) an amount equal to the lesser of (i) 16 percent of his estimated wages, or (ii) $2,800 ($2,400 in the case of an individual who is not married (within the meaning of section 143) and who is not a surviving spouse (as defined in section 2(a))."

(e) EFFECTIVE DATES.—The amendments made by subsections (a) and (c) shall apply to taxable years ending after December 31, 1975, and shall cease to apply to taxable years ending after December 31, 1977. The amendments made by subsection (b) shall apply to taxable years ending after December 31, 1975. The amendments made by subsection (d) shall apply to wages paid after September 14, 1976.

SEC. 402. REFUNDS OF EARNED INCOME CREDIT DISREGARDED IN THE ADMINISTRATION OF FEDERAL PROGRAMS AND FED-ERALLY ASSISTED PROGRAMS.

26 USC 43 note.

(a) Subsection (d) of section 2 of the Revenue Adjustment Act of 1975 is amended by striking out “which begins prior to July 1, 1976,“.

(b) Subsection (g) of section 2 of such Act is amended to read as follows:

“(g) EFFECTIVE DATES.—The amendments made by this section
(other than by subsection (d)) apply to taxable years ending after December 31, 1975, and before January 1, 1978. Subsection
(d) applies to taxable years ending after December 31, 1975.”

TITLE V—TAX SIMPLIFICATION IN THE INDIVIDUAL INCOME TAX

SEC. 501. REVISION OF TAX TABLES FOR INDIVIDUALS.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Section 3 (relating to optional tax tables for individuals) is amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 3. TAX TABLES FOR INDIVIDUALS HAVING TAXABLE INCOME
OF LESS THAN $20,000.

“(a) GENERAL RULE.—In lieu of the tax imposed by section 1, there is hereby imposed for each taxable year on the taxable income of every individual whose taxable income for such year does not exceed $20,000, a tax determined under tables, applicable to such taxable year, which shall be prescribed by the Secretary. In the tables so prescribed, the amounts of tax shall be computed on the basis of the rates prescribed by section 1.

“(b) TAX TREATED AS IMPOSED BY SECTION 1.—For purposes of this title, the tax imposed by this section shall be treated as tax imposed by section 1.”

(b) CONFORMING AMENDMENTS.—

(1) Section 4 (relating to rules for optional tax) is hereby repealed.

(2) Section 36 (relating to credits not allowed to individuals paying optional tax or taking standard deduction) is amended—(A) by striking out "PAYING OPTIONAL TAX OR" in the heading; and
(B) by striking out "elects to pay the optional tax imposed by section 3, or if be" in such section.

(3) Subsection (a) of section 144 (relating to election of standdard deduction) is amended to read as follows:

“(a) METHOD OF ELECTION.—The standard deduction shall be allowed if the taxpayer so elects in his return, and the Secretary shall prescribe the manner of signifying such election in the return.”

(4) Subsection (c) of section 144 is amended—
(A) by striking out paragraph (2);
(B) by inserting “or” at the end of paragraph (1); and Paragraph (5) of section 6014(b) is amended to read as follows:

“(5) to cases where the taxpayer does not elect the standard deduction or where the taxpayer elects the standard deduction but is subject to the provisions of section 141 (e) (relating to limitations in case of certain dependent taxpayers).”

(c) CLERICAL AMENDMENTS.—

(1) The table of sections for part I of subchapter A of chapter 1 is amended by striking out the items relating to sections 3 and 4 and inserting in lieu thereof:

“Sec. 3. Tax tables for individuals having taxable income of less than $20,000.”

(2) The table of sections for part IV of subchapter A of chapter 1 is amended by striking out “paying optional tax or” in the item relating to section 36.

SEC. 502. DEDUCTION FOR ALimony ALLOWED IN DETERMINING ADJUSTED GROSS INCOME.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Section 62 (defining adjusted gross income) is amended by inserting after paragraph (12) the following new paragraph:

“(13) ALIMONY.—The deduction allowed by section 215.”

(b) CONFORMING AMENDMENT.—The first sentence of subparagraph (A) of section 3402(m)(2) (relating to withholding allowances based on itemized deductions) is amended by striking out “under section 62” and inserting in lieu thereof “under section 62 (other than paragraph (13) thereof”).

(c) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendments made by this section shall apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1976.

SEC. 503. REVISION OF RETIREMENT INCOME CREDIT.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Section 37 (relating to retirement income) is amended to read as follows:

“SEC. 37. CREDIT FOR THE ELDERLY.

“(a) GENERAL RULE.—In the case of an individual who has attained age 65 before the close of the taxable year, there shall be allowed as a credit against the tax imposed by this chapter for the taxable year an amount equal to 15 percent of such individual’s section 37 amount for such taxable year.
<(b) Section 37 amount.—For purposes of subsection (a)—

"(1) In general.—An individual's section 37 amount for the taxable year is the applicable initial amount determined under paragraph (2), reduced as provided in paragraph (3) and in subsection (c).

"(2) Initial amount.—The initial amount is—

"(A) $2,500 in the case of a single individual,

"(B) $2,500 in the case of a joint return where only one spouse is eligible for the credit under subsection (a),

"(C) $3,750 in the case of a joint return where both spouses are eligible for the credit under subsection (a), or

"(D) $1,875 in the case of a married individual filing a separate return.

"(3) Reduction.—The reduction under this paragraph is an amount equal to the sum of the amounts received by the individual (or, in the case of a joint return, by either spouse) as a pension or annuity—

228 notes, 228a.

Post, p. 1926.

No reduction shall be made under this paragraph for any amount excluded from gross income under section 72 (relating to annuities), 101 (relating to life insurance proceeds), 104 (relating to compensation for injuries or sickness), 105 (relating to amounts received under accident and health plans), 120 (relating to amounts received under qualified group legal services plans), 402 (relating to taxation of employee annuities), or 403 (relating to qualified bond purchase plans).

"(c) Limitations.—

"(1) Adjusted gross income limitation.—If the adjusted gross income of the taxpayer exceeds—

"(A) $7,500 in the case of a single individual,

"(B) $10,000 in the case of a joint return, or

"(C) $5,000 in the case of a married individual filing a separate return, the section 37 amount shall be reduced by one-half of the excess of the adjusted gross income over $7,500, $10,000, or $5,000, as the case may be.

"(2) Limitation based on amount of tax.—The amount of the credit allowed by this section for the taxable year shall not exceed the amount of the tax imposed by this chapter for such taxable year.

26 USC 1.

"(d) Definitions and special rules.—For purposes of this section—

"(1) Married couple must file joint return.—Except in the case of a husband and wife who live apart at all times during the taxable year, if the taxpayer is married at the close of the taxable year, the credit provided by this section shall be allowed only if the taxpayer and his spouse file a joint return for the taxable year.

"(2) Marital status.—Marital status shall be determined under section 143.

"Joint return.”

"(3) Joint return.—The term 'joint return' means the joint return of a husband and wife made under section 6013.
“(e) Election of Prior Law with Respect to Public Retirement System Income.—

“(1) In general.—In the case of a taxpayer who has not attained age 65 before the close of the taxable year (other than a married individual whose spouse has attained age 65 before the close of the taxable year), his credit (if any) under this section shall be determined under this subsection.

“(2) One spouse age 65 or over.—In the case of a married individual who has not attained age 65 before the close of the taxable year but whose spouse has attained such age, this paragraph shall apply for the taxable year only if both spouses elect, at such time and in such manner as the Secretary shall by regulations prescribe, to have this paragraph apply. If this paragraph applies for the taxable year, the credit (if any) of each spouse under this section shall be determined under this subsection.

“(3) Computation of credit.—In the case of an individual whose credit under this section for the taxable year is determined under this subsection, there shall be allowed as a credit against the tax imposed by this chapter for the taxable year an amount equal to 15 percent of the amount received by such individual as retirement income (as defined in paragraph (4) and as limited by paragraph (5)).

“(A) in the case of an individual who has attained age 65 before the close of the taxable year, income from—

“(i) pensions and annuities (including, in the case of an individual who is, or has been, an employee within the meaning of section 401(c) (1), distributions by a trust described in section 401(a) which is exempt from tax under section 501(a)),

“(ii) interest,

“(iii) rents,

“(iv) dividends,

“(v) bonds described in section 405(b) (1) which are received under a qualified bond purchase plan described in section 405(a) or in a distribution from a trust described in section 401(a) which is exempt from tax under section 501(a), or retirement bonds described in section 409, and

“(vi) an individual retirement account described in section 408(a) or an individual retirement annuity described in section 408(b), or to the extent included in gross income without reference to this subsection, but only to the extent such income does not represent compensation for personal services rendered during the taxable year.

“(B) in the case of an individual who has not attained age 65 before the close of the taxable year, income from pensions and annuities under a public retirement system (as defined in paragraph (8) (A)),

“(5) Limitation on retirement income.—For purposes of this subsection, the amount of retirement income shall not exceed $2,500 less—

“(A) the reduction provided by subsection (b) (3), and

“(B) in the case of any individual who has not attained age 72 before the close of the taxable year—

26 USC 401.
“(i) if such individual has not attained age 62 before the close of the taxable year, any amount of earned income (as defined in paragraph (8)(B)) in excess of $900 received by such individual in the taxable year, or “(ii) if such individual has attained age 62 before the close of the taxable year, the sum of one-half the amount of earned income received by such individual in the taxable year in excess of $1,200 but not in excess of $1,700, and the amount of earned income so received in excess of $1,700.

“(6) LIMITATION IN CASE OF MARRIED INDIVIDUALS.—In the case of a joint return, paragraph (5) shall be applied by substituting "$3,750" for "$2,500". The $3,750 provided by the preceding sentence shall be divided between the spouses in such amounts as may be agreed on by them, except that not more than $2,500 may be assigned to either spouse.

“(7) LIMITATION IN THE CASE OF SEPARATE RETURNS.—In the case of a married individual filing a separate return, paragraph (5) shall be applied by substituting "$1,875" for "$2,500".

“(8) DEFINITIONS.—For purposes of this subsection—
“(A) PUBLIC RETIREMENT SYSTEM DEFINED.—The term ‘public retirement system’ means a pension, annuity, retirement, or similar fund or system established by the United States, a State, a possession of the United States, any political subdivision of any of the foregoing, or the District of Columbia.
“(B) EARNED INCOME.—The term ‘earned income’ has the meaning assigned to such term by section 911(b), except that such term does not include any amount received as a pension or annuity.

“(f) NONRESIDENT ALIEN INELIGIBLE FOR CREDIT.—No credit shall be allowed under this section to any nonresident alien.

(b) TECHNICAL AMENDMENTS.—

26 USC 904. (1) Section 904 (relating to limitation on foreign tax credit), as amended by this Act, is amended by redesignating subsection (g) as subsection (h), and by inserting after subsection (f) the following new subsection:
“(g) COORDINATION WITH CREDIT FOR THE ELDERLY.—In the case of an individual, for purposes of subsection (a) the tax against which the credit is taken is such tax reduced by the amount of the credit (if any) for the taxable year allowable under section 37 (relating to credit for the elderly).”

26 USC 6014. (2) Section 6014(a) (relating to tax not computed by taxpayer) is amended by striking out the last sentence thereof.

26 USC 41, 42, 46, 50A. (4) Sections 41(b)(2), 42(b)(2), 46(a)(3)(C), and 50A(a) (3)(C) are each amended by striking out “retirement income” and inserting in lieu thereof “credit for the elderly”.

(5) The table of sections for subpart A of part IV of subchapter A of chapter 1 is amended by striking out the item relating to section 37 and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

SEC. 504. CREDIT FOR CHILD CARE EXPENSES.

(a) ALLOWANCES OF CREDIT FOR CHILD CARE EXPENSES.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Subpart A of part IV of subchapter A of chapter 1 (relating to credits allowable) is amended by inserting before section 45 the following new section:

"SEC. 44A. EXPENSES FOR HOUSEHOLD AND DEPENDENT CARE SERVICES NECESSARY FOR GAINFUL EMPLOYMENT.

"(a) ALLOWANCE OF CREDIT.—In the case of an individual who maintains a household which includes as a member one or more qualifying individuals (as defined in subsection (c)(1)), there shall be allowed as a credit against the tax imposed by this chapter for the taxable year an amount equal to 20 percent of the employment-related expenses (as defined in subsection (c)(2)) paid by such individual during the taxable year.

"(b) APPLICATION WITH OTHER CREDITS.—The credit allowed by subsection (a) shall not exceed the amount of the tax imposed by this chapter for the taxable year reduced by the sum of the credits allowable under—

"(1) section 33 (relating to foreign tax credit),
"(2) section 37 (relating to credit for the elderly),
"(3) section 38 (relating to investment in certain depreciable property),
"(4) section 40 (relating to expenses of work incentive programs),
"(5) section 41 (relating to contributions to candidates for public office),
"(6) section 42 (relating to general tax credit), and
"(7) section 44 (relating to purchase of new principal residence).

"(c) DEFINITIONS OF QUALIFYING INDIVIDUAL AND EMPLOYMENT-RELATED EXPENSES.—For purposes of this section—

"(1) QUALIFYING INDIVIDUAL.—The term 'qualifying individual' means—

"(A) a dependent of the taxpayer who is under the age of 15 and with respect to whom the taxpayer is entitled to a deduction under section 151(e), "(B) a dependent of the taxpayer who is physically or mentally incapable of caring for himself, or
"(C) the spouse of the taxpayer, if he is physically or mentally incapable of caring for himself.

"(2) EMPLOYMENT-RELATED EXPENSES.—

"(A) IN GENERAL.—The term 'employment-related expenses' means amounts paid for the following expenses, but only if such expenses are incurred to enable the taxpayer to be gainfully employed for any period for which there are 1 or more qualifying individuals with respect to the taxpayer:

"(i) expenses for household services, and
"(ii) expenses for the care of a qualifying individual.

"(B) EXCEPTION.—Employment-related expenses described in subparagraph (A) which are incurred for services outside the taxpayer's household shall be taken into account only if incurred for the care of a qualifying individual described in paragraph (1)(A).

"(d) DOLLAR LIMIT ON AMOUNT CREDITABLE.—The amount of the employment-related expenses incurred during any taxable year which may be taken into account under subsection (a) shall not exceed—“(1) $2,000 if there is 1 qualifying individual with respect to the taxpayer for such taxable year, or “(2) $4,000 if there are 2 or more qualifying individuals with respect to the taxpayer for such taxable year.

“(e) Earned Income Limitation.—
“(1) In general.—Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, the amount of the employment-related expenses incurred during any taxable year which may be taken into account under subsection (a) shall not exceed—
“(A) in the case of an individual who is not married at the close of such year, such individual’s earned income for such year, or “(B) in the case of an individual who is married at the close of such year, the lesser of such individual’s earned income or the earned income of his spouse for such year.
“(2) Special Rule for Spouse Who is a Student or Incapable of Caring for Himself.—In the case of a spouse who is a student or a qualifying individual described in subsection (c) (1)(C), for purposes of paragraph (1), such spouse shall be deemed for each month during which such spouse is a full-time student at an educational institution, or is such a qualifying individual, to be gainfully employed and to have earned income of not less than—“(A) $166 if subsection (d) (1) applies for the taxable year, or “(B) $333 if subsection (d) (2) applies for the taxable year.

In the case of any husband and wife, this paragraph shall apply with respect to only one spouse for any one month.

“(f) Special Rules.—For purposes of this section—
“(1) Maintaining Household.—An individual shall be treated as maintaining a household for any period only if over half the cost of maintaining the household for such period is furnished by such individual (or, if such individual is married during such period, is furnished by such individual and his spouse).
“(2) Married Couples Must File Joint Return.—If the taxpayer is married at the close of the taxable year, the credit shall be allowed under subsection (a) only if the taxpayer and his spouse file a joint return for the taxable year.
“(3) Marital Status.—An individual legally separated from his spouse under a decree of divorce or of separate maintenance shall not be considered as married.
“(4) Certain Married Individuals Living Apart.—If—
“(A) an individual who is married and who files a separate return—
“(i) maintains as his home a household which constitutes for more than one-half of the taxable year the principal place of abode of a qualifying individual, and “(ii) furnishes over half of the cost of maintaining such household during the taxable year, and “(B) during the last 6 months of such taxable year such individual’s spouse is not a member of such household, such individual shall not be considered as married.
“(5) Special Dependency Test in Case of Divorced Parents, Etc.—If—“(A) a child (as defined in section 151(e)(3)) who is under the age of 15 or who is physically or mentally incapable of caring for himself receives over half of his support during the calendar year from his parents who are divorced or legally separated under a decree of divorce or separate maintenance or who are separated under a written separation agreement, and

"(B) such child is in the custody of one or both of his parents for more than one-half of the calendar year, in the case of any taxable year beginning in such calendar year such child shall be treated as being a qualifying individual described in subparagraph (A) or (B) of subsection (c)(1), as the case may be, with respect to that parent who has custody for a longer period during such calendar year than the other parent, and shall not be treated as being a qualifying individual with respect to such other parent.

"(6) PAYMENTS TO RELATED INDIVIDUALS.—

"(A) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in subparagraph (B), no credit shall be allowed under subsection (a) for any amount paid by the taxpayer to an individual bearing a relationship to the taxpayer described in paragraphs (1) through (8) of section 152(a) (relating to definition of dependent) or to a dependent described in paragraph (9) of such section.

"(B) EXCEPTION.—Subparagraph (A) shall not apply to any amount paid by the taxpayer to an individual with respect to whom, for the taxable year of the taxpayer in which the service is performed, neither the taxpayer nor his spouse is entitled to a deduction under section 151(e) (relating to deduction for personal exemptions for dependents), but only if the service with respect to which such amount is paid constitutes employment within the meaning of section 3121(b).

"(7) STUDENT.—The term 'student' means an individual who during each of 5 calendar months during the taxable year is a full-time student at an educational organization.

"(8) EDUCATIONAL ORGANIZATION.—The term 'educational organization' means an educational organization described in section 170(b)(1)(A)(ii).

"(g) REGULATIONS.—The Secretary shall prescribe such regulations as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this section.”

(b) REPEAL OF DEDUCTION FOR CHILD CARE EXPENSES.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Section 214 (relating to expenses for household and dependent care services necessary for gainful employment) is hereby repealed.

(2) CLERICAL AMENDMENT.—The table of sections for part VII of subchapter B of chapter 1 is amended by striking out the item relating to section 214.

(c) TECHNICAL AMENDMENTS.—

(1) Section 213(f) (relating to exclusion of amounts allowed for care of certain dependents) is amended by striking out “a deduction under section 214” and inserting in lieu thereof “a credit under section 44A”.

(2) Section 6096(b) (defining income tax liability) is amended by striking out “and 44” and inserting in lieu thereof “, 44, and 44A”.

26 USC 213.

26 USC 3402.

(3) Paragraph (4) of section 3402(m) (relating to withholding allowances based on itemized deductions) is amended by striking out "and" at the end of subparagraph (A), by striking out the period at the end of subparagraph (B) and inserting in lieu thereof "and", and by adding at the end thereof the following new subparagraph:

"(C) may take into account tax credits to which employees are entitled."

SEC. 505. CHANGES IN EXCLUSIONS FOR SICK PAY AND CERTAIN MILITARY, ETC., DISABILITY PENSIONS; CERTAIN DISABILITY INCOME.

26 USC 105.

(a) Sick Pay.—Subsection (d) of section 105 (relating to amounts excluded from gross income under wage continuation plans) is amended to read as follows:

"(d) Certain Disability Payments.—

"(1) In general.—In the case of a taxpayer who—

"(A) has not attained age 65 before the close of the taxable year, and

"(B) retired on disability and, when he retired, was permanently and totally disabled, gross income does not include amounts referred to in subsection (a) if such amounts constitute wages or payments in lieu of wages for a period during which the employee is absent from work on account of permanent and total disability.

"(2) Limitation.—This subsection shall not apply to the extent that the amounts referred to in paragraph (1) exceed a weekly rate of $100.

"(3) Phaseout over $15,000.—If the adjusted gross income of the taxpayer for the taxable year (determined without regard to this subsection) exceeds $15,000, the amount which but for this paragraph would be excluded under this subsection for the taxable year shall be reduced by an amount equal to the excess of the adjusted gross income (as so determined) over $15,000.

"(4) Married couple must file joint return.—Except in the case of a husband and wife who live apart at all times during the taxable year, if the taxpayer is married at the close of the taxable year, the exclusion provided by this subsection shall be allowed only if the taxpayer and his spouse file a joint return for the taxable year. For purposes of this subsection, marital status shall be determined under section 143.

"(5) Permanent and total disability defined.—For purposes of this subsection, an individual is permanently and totally disabled if he is unable to engage in any substantial gainful activity by reason of any medically determinable physical or mental impairment which can be expected to result in death or which has lasted or can be expected to last for a continuous period of not less than 12 months. An individual shall not be considered to be permanently and totally disabled unless he furnishes proof of the existence thereof in such form and manner, and at such times, as the Secretary may require.

"(6) Joint return.—For purposes of this subsection, the term 'joint return' means the joint return of a husband and wife made under section 6013.

"(7) Coordination with section 72.—In the case of an individual described in subparagraphs (A) and (B) of paragraph (1), for purposes of section 72 the annuity starting date shall not be deemed to occur before the beginning of the taxable year in which the taxpayer attains age 65, or before the beginning of an earlier taxable year for which the taxpayer makes an irrevocable election not to seek the benefits of this subsection for such year and all subsequent years.”

(b) Certain Military, Etc., Disability Pensions.—Section 104 (relating to compensation for injuries or sickness) is amended by redesignating subsection (b) as subsection (c) and by inserting after subsection (a) the following new subsection:

“(1) In General.—Subsection (a)(4) shall not apply in the case of any individual who is not described in paragraph (2).

“(2) Individuals to Whom Subsection (a)(4) Continues to Apply.—An individual is described in this paragraph if—

“(A) on or before September 24, 1975, he was entitled to receive any amount described in subsection (a)(4), “(B) on September 24, 1975, he was a member of any organization (or reserve component thereof) referred to in subsection (a)(4) or under a binding written commitment to become such a member,

“(C) he receives an amount described in subsection (a)(4) by reason of a combat-related injury, or “(D) on application therefor, he would be entitled to receive disability compensation from the Veterans’ Administration.

“(3) Special Rules for Combat-Related Injuries.—For purposes of this subsection, the term ‘combat-related injury’ means personal injury or sickness—

“(A) which is incurred—

“(i) as a direct result of armed conflict, “(ii) while engaged in extrahazardous service, or “(iii) under conditions simulating war; or

“(B) which is caused by an instrumentality of war.

In the case of an individual who is not described in subparagraph (A) or (B) of paragraph (2), except as provided in paragraph (4), the only amounts taken into account under subsection (a) (4) shall be the amounts which he receives by reason of a combat-related injury.

“(4) Amount Excluded to Be Not Less Than Veterans’ Disability Compensation.—In the case of any individual described in paragraph (2), the amounts excludable under subsection (a) (4) for any period with respect to any individual shall not be less than the maximum amount which such individual, on application therefor, would be entitled to receive as disability compensation from the Veterans’ Administration.”

(c) Special Rule for Existing Permanent and Total Disability Cases.—In the case of any individual who—

(1) retired before January 1, 1976,

(2) either retired on disability or was entitled to retire on disability, and

(3) on January 1, 1976, was permanently and totally disabled (within the meaning of section 105(d)(5) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954),

26 USC 104.

26 USC 105 note.

Ann, p. 1566.
such individual shall be deemed to have met the requirements of section 105(d)(1)(B) of such Code (as amended by subsection (a) of this section).

26 USC 105 note.

(d) SPECIAL RULE FOR COORDINATION WITH SECTION 72.—In the case of an individual who—

(1) retired on disability before January 1, 1976, and

(2) on December 31, 1975, was entitled to exclude any amount with respect to such retirement disability from gross income under section 105(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, for purposes of section 72 the annuity starting date shall not be deemed to occur before the beginning of the taxable year in which the taxpayer attains age 65, or before the beginning of an earlier taxable year for which the taxpayer makes an irrevocable election not to seek the benefits of this subsection for such year and all subsequent years.

26 USC 104 note.

(e) CERTAIN DISABILITY INCOME.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Section 104(a) (relating to compensation for injuries or sickness) is amended—

(A) by striking out “and” at the end of paragraph (3);

(B) by striking out the period at the end of paragraph (4) and inserting in lieu thereof a semicolon and the word “and”;

and

(C) by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

“(5) amounts received by an individual as disability income attributable to injuries incurred as a direct result of a violent attack which the Secretary of State determines to be a terrorist attack and which occurred while such individual was an employee of the United States engaged in the performance of his official duties outside the United States.”

(2) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendments made by this subsection shall apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1976.

SEC. 506. MOVING EXPENSES.

(a) DECREASE IN MILEAGE TEST FROM 50 MILES TO 35 MILES.—Paragraph (1) of section 217(c) (relating to conditions for allowance of deduction for moving expenses) is amended by striking out “50 miles” each place it appears and inserting in lieu thereof “35 miles”.

(b) INCREASE IN DOLLAR AMOUNTS.—

(1) CERTAIN EXPENSES OF TRAVELING, MEALS, AND LODGING AFTER OBTAINING EMPLOYMENT.—The first sentence of subparagraph (A) of section 217(b)(3) (relating to dollar limits) is amended by striking out “$1,000” and inserting in lieu thereof “$1,500”.

(2) AGGREGATE DOLLAR LIMIT.—The second sentence of subparagraph (A) of section 217(b)(3) is amended by striking out “$2,500” and inserting in lieu thereof “$3,000”.

(3) SEPARATE RETURNS.—The second sentence of subparagraph (B) of section 217(b)(3) (relating to dollar limits in the case of husband and wife) is amended to read as follows: “In the case of a husband and wife filing separate returns, subparagraph (A) shall be applied by substituting ‘$750’ for ‘$1,500’, and by substituting ‘$1,500’ for ‘$3,000’.”

(c) RULES FOR MEMBERS OF THE ARMED FORCES OF THE UNITED STATES.—Section 217 is amended by redesignating subsection (g) as subsection (h) and by inserting after subsection (f) the following new subsection:

“(g) RULES FOR MEMBERS OF THE ARMED FORCES OF THE UNITED STATES.—In the case of a member of the Armed Forces of the United States on active duty who moves pursuant to a military order and incident to a permanent change of station—

"(1) the limitations under subsection (c) shall not apply;

"(2) any moving and storage expenses which are furnished in kind (or for which reimbursement or an allowance is provided, but only to the extent of the expenses paid or incurred) to such member, his spouse, or his dependents, shall not be includible in gross income, and no reporting with respect to such expenses shall be required by the Secretary of Defense or the Secretary of Transportation, as the case may be; and

"(3) if moving and storage expenses are furnished in kind (or if reimbursement or an allowance for such expenses is provided) to such member’s spouse and his dependents with regard to moving to a location other than the one to which such member moves (or from a location other than the one from which such member moves), this section shall apply with respect to the moving expenses of his spouse and dependents—

"(A) as if his spouse commenced work as an employee at a new principal place of work at such location;

"(B) for purposes of subsection (b)(3), as if such place of work was within the same general location as the member’s new principal place of work, and

"(C) without regard to the limitations under subsection (c)."

(d) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendments made by subsections (a) and (b) shall apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1976.

SEC. 507. TAX REVISION STUDY.

(a) STUDY.—The Joint Committee on Taxation shall make a full and complete study and investigation with respect to simplifying and indexing the tax laws of the United States. Such study and investigation shall include a consideration of whether the rates of tax can be reduced by repealing any or all tax deductions, exemptions, or credits.

(b) REPORT.—Before July 1, 1977, the Joint Committee on Taxation shall submit to the Committee on Finance of the Senate and to the Committee on Ways and Means of the House of Representatives a report of its study and investigation together with its recommendations, including recommendations for legislation.

SEC. 508. EFFECTIVE DATE.

Except as otherwise provided, the amendments made by this title shall apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1975.

TITLE VI—BUSINESS RELATED INDIVIDUAL INCOME TAX PROVISIONS

SEC. 601. DEDUCTIONS FOR EXPENSES ATTRIBUTABLE TO BUSINESS USE OF HOMES, RENTAL OF VACATION HOMES, ETC.

(a) NONDEDUCTIBILITY OF CERTAIN EXPENSES.—Part IX of subchapter B of chapter 1 (relating to items not deductible) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

"SEC. 280A. DISALLOWANCE OF CERTAIN EXPENSES IN CONNECTION WITH BUSINESS USE OF HOME, RENTAL OF VACATION HOMES, ETC.

"(a) GENERAL RULE.—Except as otherwise provided in this section, in the case of a taxpayer who is an individual or an electing small business corporation, no deduction otherwise allowable under this chapter shall be allowed with respect to the use of a dwelling unit which is used by the taxpayer during the taxable year as a residence.

"(b) Exception for Interest, Taxes, Casualty Losses, Etc.—Subsection (a) shall not apply to any deduction allowable to the taxpayer without regard to its connection with his trade or business (or with his income-producing activity).

"(c) Exceptions for Certain Business or Rental Use; Limitation on Deductions for Such Use.—

"(1) Certain business use.—Subsection (a) shall not apply to any item to the extent such item is allocable to a portion of the dwelling unit which is exclusively used on a regular basis—

"(A) as the taxpayer's principal place of business,

"(B) as a place of business which is used by patients, clients, or customers in meeting or dealing with the taxpayer in the normal course of his trade or business, or

"(C) in the case of a separate structure which is not attached to the dwelling unit, in connection with the taxpayer's trade or business.

In the case of an employee, the preceding sentence shall apply only if the exclusive use referred to in the preceding sentence is for the convenience of his employer.

"(2) Certain storage use.—Subsection (a) shall not apply to any item to the extent such item is allocable to space within the dwelling unit which is used on a regular basis as a storage unit for the inventory of the taxpayer held for use in the taxpayer's trade or business of selling products at retail or wholesale, but only if the dwelling unit is the sole fixed location of such trade or business.

"(3) Rental use.—Subsection (a) shall not apply to any item which is attributable to the rental of the dwelling unit or portion thereof (determined after the application of subsection (e)).

"(4) Limitation on Deductions.—In the case of a use described in paragraph (1) or (2), and in the case of a use described in paragraph (3) where the dwelling unit is used by the taxpayer during the taxable year as a residence, the deductions allowed under this chapter for the taxable year by reason of being attributed to such use shall not exceed the excess of—

"(A) the gross income derived from such use for the taxable year, over

"(B) the deductions allocable to such use which are allowable under this chapter for the taxable year whether or not such unit (or portion thereof) was so used.

"(d) Use as Residence.—

"(1) In general.—For purposes of this section, a taxpayer uses a dwelling unit during the taxable year as a residence if he uses such unit (or portion thereof) for personal purposes for a number of days which exceeds the greater of—

"(A) 14 days, or

"(B) 10 percent of the number of days during such year for which such unit is rented at a fair rental.

For purposes of subparagraph (B), a unit shall not be treated as rented at a fair rental for any day for which it is used for personal purposes.

"(2) Personal use of unit.—For purposes of this section, the taxpayer shall be deemed to have used a dwelling unit for personal purposes for a day if, for any part of such day, the unit is used—

"(A) for personal purposes by the taxpayer or any other person who has an interest in such unit, or by any member of the family (as defined in section 267(c)(4)) of the taxpayer or such other person;

"(B) by any individual who uses the unit under an arrangement which enables the taxpayer to use some other dwelling unit (whether or not a rental is charged for the use of such other unit); or

"(C) by any individual (other than an employee with respect to whose use section 119 applies), unless for such day the dwelling unit is rented for a rental which, under the facts and circumstances, is fair rental.

The Secretary shall prescribe regulations with respect to the circumstances under which use of the unit for repairs and annual maintenance will not constitute personal use under this paragraph.

"(e) EXPENSES ATTRIBUTABLE TO RENTAL.—

"(1) IN GENERAL.—In any case where a taxpayer who is an individual or an electing small business corporation uses a dwelling unit for personal purposes on any day during the taxable year (whether or not he is treated under this section as using such unit as a residence), the amount deductible under this chapter with respect to expenses attributable to the rental of the unit (or portion thereof) for the taxable year shall not exceed an amount which bears the same relationship to such expenses as the number of days during each year that the unit (or portion thereof) is rented at a fair rental bears to the total number of days during such year that the unit (or portion thereof) is used.

"(2) EXCEPTION FOR DEDUCTIONS OTHERWISE ALLOWABLE.—This subsection shall not apply with respect to deductions which would be allowable under this chapter for the taxable year whether or not such unit (or portion thereof) was rented.

"(f) DEFINITIONS AND SPECIAL RULES.—

"(1) DWELLING UNIT DEFINED.—For purposes of this section—

"(A) IN GENERAL.—The term `dwelling unit' includes a house, apartment, condominium, mobile home, boat, or similar property, and all structures or other property appurtenant to such dwelling unit.

"(B) EXCEPTION.—The term `dwelling unit' does not include that portion of a unit which is used exclusively as a hotel, motel, inn, or similar establishment.

"(2) PERSONAL USE BY ELECTING SMALL BUSINESS CORPORATION.—

In the case of an electing small business corporation, subparagraphs (A) and (B) of subsection (d)(2) shall be applied by substituting `any shareholder of the electing small business corporation' for `the taxpayer' each place it appears.

"(3) COORDINATION WITH SECTION 183.—If subsection (a) applies with respect to any dwelling unit (or portion thereof) for the taxable year—

"(A) section 183 (relating to activities not engaged in for profit) shall not apply to such unit (or portion thereof) for such year, but

"(B) such year shall be taken into account as a taxable year for purposes of applying subsection (d) of section 183 (relating to 5-year presumption).
“(g) Special Rule for Certain Rental Use.—Notwithstanding any other provision of this section or section 183, if a dwelling unit is used during the taxable year by the taxpayer as a residence and such dwelling unit is actually rented for less than 15 days during the taxable year, then—

“(1) no deduction otherwise allowable under this chapter because of the rental use of such dwelling unit shall be allowed, and

“(2) the income derived from such use for the taxable year shall not be included in the gross income of such taxpayer under section 61.”

(b) Clerical Amendment.—The table of sections for such part IX is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new item:

26 USC 280A note.

(c) Effective Date.—The amendments made by this section shall apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1975.

SEC. 602. DEDUCTIONS FOR ATTENDING FOREIGN CONVENTIONS.

26 USC 274.

(a) Nondeductibility of Certain Expenses.—Section 274 (relating to disallowance of certain entertainment, etc., expenses) is amended by redesignating subsection (h) as subsection (i) and by inserting after subsection (g) the following new subsection:

“(h) Foreign Conventions.—

“(1) Deductions with respect to not more than 2 foreign conventions per year allowed.—If any individual attends more than 2 foreign conventions during his taxable year—

“(A) he shall select not more than 2 of such conventions to be taken into account for purposes of this subsection, and

“(B) no deduction allocable to his attendance at any foreign convention during such taxable year (other than a foreign convention selected under subparagraph (A)) shall be allowed under section 162 or 212.

“(2) Deductible transportation cost cannot exceed cost of coach or economy air fare.—In the case of any foreign convention, no deduction for the expenses of transportation outside the United States to and from the site of such convention shall be allowed under section 162 or 212 in an amount which exceeds the lowest coach or economy rate at the time of travel charged by a commercial airline for transportation to and from such site during the calendar month in which such convention begins. If there is no such coach or economy rate, the preceding sentence shall be applied by substituting ‘first class’ for ‘coach or economy’.

“(3) Transportation costs deductible in full only if at least one-half of the days are devoted to business related activities.—In the case of any foreign convention, a deduction for the full expenses of transportation (determined after the application of paragraph (2)) to and from the site of such convention shall be allowed only if more than one-half of the total days of the trip, excluding the days of transportation to and from the site of such convention, are devoted to business related activities. If less than one-half of the total days of the trip, excluding the days of transportation to and from the site of the convention, are devoted to business related activities, no deduction for the expenses of transportation shall be allowed which exceeds the percentage of the days of the trip devoted to business related activities.
"(4) Deductions for subsistence expenses not allowed unless the individual attends two-thirds of business activities.—In the case of any foreign convention, no deduction for subsistence expenses shall be allowed except as follows:

"(A) a deduction for a full day of subsistence expenses while at the convention shall be allowed if there are at least 6 hours of scheduled business activities during such day and the individual attending the convention has attended at least two-thirds of these activities, and

"(B) a deduction for one-half day of subsistence expenses while at the convention shall be allowed if there are at least 3 hours of scheduled business activities during such day and the individual attending the convention has attended at least two-thirds of these activities.

Notwithstanding subparagraphs (A) and (B), a deduction for subsistence expenses for all of the days or half days, as the case may be, of the convention shall be allowed if the individual attending the convention has attended at least two-thirds of the scheduled business activities, and each such full day consists of at least 6 hours of scheduled business activities and each such half day consists of at least 3 hours of scheduled business activities.

"(5) Deductible subsistence costs cannot exceed per diem rate for United States civil servants.—In the case of any foreign convention, no deduction for subsistence expenses while at the convention or traveling to or from such convention shall be allowed at a rate in excess of the dollar per diem rate for the site of the convention which has been established under section 5702(a) of title 5 of the United States Code and which is in effect for the calendar month in which the convention begins.

"(6) Definitions and special rules.—For purposes of this subsection—

"(A) Foreign convention defined.—The term 'foreign convention' means any convention, seminar, or similar meeting held outside the United States, its possessions, and the Trust Territory of the Pacific.

"(B) Subsistence expenses defined.—The term 'subsistence expenses' means lodging, meals, and other necessary expenses for the personal sustenance and comfort of the traveler. Such term includes tips and taxi and other local transportation expenses.

"(C) Allocation of expenses in certain cases.—In any case where the transportation expenses or the subsistence expenses are not separately stated, or where there is reason to believe that the stated charge for transportation expenses or subsistence expenses or both does not properly reflect the amounts properly allocable to such purposes, all amounts paid for transportation expenses and subsistence expenses shall be treated as having been paid solely for subsistence expenses.

"(D) Subsection to apply to employer as well as to traveler.—This subsection shall apply to deductions otherwise allowable under section 162 or 212 to any person, whether or not such person is the individual attending the foreign convention. For purposes of the preceding sentence such person shall be treated, with respect to each individual, as having selected the same 2 foreign conventions as were selected by such individual.
(7) Reporting Requirements.—No deduction shall be allowed under section 162 or 212 for transportation or subsistence expenses allocable to attendance at a foreign convention unless the taxpayer claiming the deduction attaches to the return of tax on which the deduction is claimed—

"(A) a written statement signed by the individual attending the convention which includes—

"(i) information with respect to the total days of the trip, excluding the days of transportation to and from the site of such convention, and the number of hours of each day of the trip which such individual devoted to scheduled business activities,

"(ii) a program of the scheduled business activities of the convention, and

"(iii) such other information as may be required in regulations prescribed by the Secretary; and

"(B) a written statement signed by an officer of the organization or group sponsoring the convention which includes—

"(i) a schedule of the business activities of each day of the convention,

"(ii) the number of hours which the individual attending the convention attended such scheduled business activities, and

"(iii) such other information as may be required in regulations prescribed by the Secretary.

26 USC 274

(b) Effective Date.—The amendments made by this section shall apply to conventions beginning after December 31, 1976.

SEC. 603. CHANGE IN TAX TREATMENT OF QUALIFIED STOCK OPTIONS.

26 USC 422.

(a) In General.—Section 422(b) (defining qualified stock option) is amended by inserting "and before May 21, 1976 (or, if it meets the requirements of subsection (c)(7), granted to an individual after May 20, 1976)," after "section 424(c)(3)(A),".

(b) Certain Options Granted After May 20, 1976.—Section 422(c) (relating to special rules) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

"(7) Certain Options Granted After May 20, 1976.—For purposes of subsection (b), an option granted after May 20, 1976, meets the requirements of this paragraph—

"(A) if such option is granted to an individual pursuant to a written plan adopted before May 21, 1976, or

"(B) if such option is a new option substituted, in a transaction to which section 425(a) applies, for an old option which was granted before May 21, 1976, or which met the requirements of subparagraph (A).

An option described in the preceding sentence shall be treated as ceasing to meet the requirements of this paragraph if it is not exercised before May 21, 1981."

26 USC 424.

(c) Restricted Stock Options Must Be Exercised Before May 21, 1981.—Section 424(c)(3) (relating to special rules for restricted stock options) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new sentence: "An option described in the preceding sentence shall be treated as ceasing to meet the requirements of this paragraph if it is not exercised before May 21, 1981."

(d) Effective Date.—The amendments made by this section shall apply to taxable years ending after December 31, 1975.
SEC. 604. STATE LEGISLATORS' TRAVEL EXPENSES AWAY FROM HOME.

(a) IN GENERAL.—For purposes of section 162(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, in the case of any individual who was a State legislator at any time during any taxable year beginning before January 1, 1976, and who elects the application of this section, for any period during such a taxable year in which he was a State legislator—

(1) the place of residence of such individual within the legislative district which he represented shall be considered his home, and

(2) he shall be deemed to have expended for living expenses (in connection with his trade or business as a legislator) an amount equal to the sum of the amounts determined by multiplying each legislative day of such individual during the taxable year by the amount generally allowable with respect to such day to employees of the executive branch of the Federal Government for per diem while away from home but serving in the United States.

(b) LEGISLATIVE DAYS.—For purposes of subsection (a), a legislative day during any taxable year for any individual shall be any day during such year on which (1) the legislature was in session (including any day in which the legislature was not in session for a period of 4 consecutive days or less), or (2) the legislature was not in session but the physical presence of the individual was formally recorded at a meeting of a committee of such legislature.

(c) LIMITATION.—The amount taken into account as living expenses attributable to a trade or business as a State legislator for any taxable year under an election made under this section shall not exceed the amount claimed for such purpose under a return (or amended return) filed before May 21, 1976.

(d) MAKING AND EFFECT OF ELECTION.—An election under this section shall be made at such time and in such manner as the Secretary of the Treasury or his delegate shall by regulations prescribe. Any such election shall apply to all taxable years beginning before January 1, 1976, for which the period for assessing or collecting a deficiency has not expired before the date of the enactment of this Act.

SEC. 605. DEDUCTION FOR GUARANTEES OF BUSINESS BAD DEBTS TO GUARANTORS NOT INVOLVED IN BUSINESS.

(a) REPEAL OF SECTION 166(f).—Section 166 (relating to bad debts) is amended by striking out subsection (f) and by redesignating subsections (g) and (h) as subsections (f) and (g), respectively.

(b) CONFORMING AMENDMENT.—Paragraph (1) of section 81 (relating to certain increases in suspense accounts) is amended by striking out “section 166(g)” in the text and inserting in lieu thereof “section 166(f)”.

(c) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendments made by this section shall apply to guarantees made after December 31, 1975, in taxable years beginning after such date.

TITLE VII—ACCUMULATION TRUSTS

SEC. 701. ACCUMULATION TRUSTS.

(a) REVISION OF METHOD OF TAXING ACCUMULATION DISTRIBUTIONS FROM TRUSTS.—

(1) Section 667 (relating to denial of refund to trusts; authorization of credit to beneficiaries) is amended to read as follows:
"SEC. 667. TREATMENT OF AMOUNTS DEEMED DISTRIBUTED BY TRUST IN PRECEDING YEARS.

(a) General Rule.—The total of the amounts which are treated under section 666 as having been distributed by a trust in a preceding taxable year shall be included in the income of a beneficiary of the trust when paid, credited, or required to be distributed to the extent that such total would have been included in the income of such beneficiary under section 662(a)(2) (and, with respect to any tax-exempt interest to which section 103 applies, under section 662(b)) if such total had been paid to such beneficiary on the last day of such preceding taxable year. The tax imposed by this subtitle on a beneficiary for a taxable year in which any such amount is included in his income shall be determined only as provided in this section and shall consist of the sum of—

(1) a partial tax computed on the taxable income reduced by an amount equal to the total of such amounts, at the rate and in the manner as if this section had not been enacted, and
(2) a partial tax determined as provided in subsection (b) of this section.

(b) Tax on Distribution.—

(1) In general.—The partial tax imposed by subsection (a) shall be determined—

(A) by determining the number of preceding taxable years of the trust on the last day of which an amount is distributed under section 666(a) to have been distributed, (B) by taking from the 5 taxable years immediately preceding the year of the accumulation distribution the 1 taxable year for which the beneficiary’s taxable income was the highest and the 1 taxable year for which his taxable income was the lowest,
(C) by adding to the beneficiary’s taxable income for each of the 3 taxable years remaining after the application of sub-paragraph (B) an amount determined by dividing the amount deemed distributed under section 666 and required to be included in income under subsection (a) by the number of preceding taxable years determined under subparagraph
(A), and
(D) by determining the average increase in tax for the 3 taxable years referred to in subparagraph (C) resulting from the application of such subparagraph.

The partial tax imposed by subsection (a) (2) shall be the excess (if any) of the average increase in tax determined under subpargraph (D), multiplied by the number of preceding taxable years determined under subparagraph (A), over the amount of taxes deemed distributed to the beneficiary under sections 666(b) and (c).

(2) Treatment of loss years.—For purposes of paragraph (1), the taxable income of the beneficiary for any taxable year shall be deemed not to be less than zero.

(3) Certain preceding taxable years not taken into account.—For purposes of paragraph (1), if the amount of the undistributed net income deemed distributed in any preceding taxable year of the trust is less than 25 percent of the amount of the accumulation distribution divided by the number of preceding taxable years to which the accumulation distribution is allocated under section 666(a), the number of preceding taxable years of the trust with respect to which an amount is deemed distributed to a beneficiary under section 666(a) shall be determined without regard to such year.

"(4) Effect of other accumulation distributions.—In computing the partial tax under paragraph (1) for any beneficiary, the income of such beneficiary for each of his prior taxable years shall include amounts previously deemed distributed to such beneficiary in such year under section 666 as a result of prior accumulation distributions (whether from the same or another trust).

"(5) Multiple distributions in the same taxable year.—In the case of accumulation distributions made from more than one trust which are includible in the income of a beneficiary in the same taxable year, the distributions shall be deemed to have been made consecutively in whichever order the beneficiary shall determine.

"(c) Special Rule for Multiple Trusts.—

"(1) In general.—If, in the same prior taxable year of the beneficiary in which any part of the accumulation distribution from a trust (hereinafter in this paragraph referred to as ‘third trust’) is deemed under section 666(a) to have been distributed to such beneficiary, some part of prior distributions by each of 2 or more other trusts is deemed under section 666(a) to have been distributed to such beneficiary, then subsections (b) and (c) of section 666 shall not apply with respect to such part of the accumulation distribution from such third trust.

"(2) Accumulation distributions from trust not taken into account unless they equal or exceed $1,000.—For purposes of paragraph (1), an accumulation distribution from a trust to a beneficiary shall be taken into account only if such distribution, when added to any prior accumulation distributions from such trust which are deemed under section 666(a) to have been distributed to such beneficiary, equals or exceeds $1,000.”

"(d) Denial of Refund to Trusts and Beneficiaries.—No refund or credit shall be allowed to a trust or a beneficiary of such trust for any preceding taxable year by reason of a distribution deemed to have been made by such trust in such year under this section.”

26 USC 668.

26 USC 665.

"(e) Income accumulated before child attains age of 21 years not to be subject to the throwback rule.—Subsection (b) of section 665 (defining accumulation distribution) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new sentence: “For purposes of section 667 (other than subsection (c) thereof, relating to multiple trusts), the amounts specified in paragraph (2) of section 661(a) shall not include amounts properly paid, credited, or required to be distributed to a beneficiary from a trust (other than a foreign trust) as income accumulated before the birth of such beneficiary or before such beneficiary attains the age of 21.”

26 USC 666.

"(f) No accumulation distribution where distributions do not exceed accounting income.—Section 665(b) (defining accumulation distribution), as amended by subsection (b), is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new sentence: “If the amounts properly paid, credited, or required to be distributed by the trust for the taxable year do not exceed the income of the trust for such year, there shall be no accumulation distribution for such year.”

(d) Repeal of Special Capital Gain Throwback.—

26 USC 669.

(1) Section 669 (relating to treatment of capital gain deemed distributed in preceding years) is hereby repealed.

26 USC 665.

(2) Paragraph (1) of section 665(e) (defining preceding taxable year) is amended—

(A) by striking out subparagraph (C),

(B) by inserting “or” at the end of subparagraph (A), and

(C) by striking out “, or” at the end of subparagraph (B) and inserting in lieu thereof “; and”.

(3) Section 665 (definitions applicable to subpart D) is amended by striking out subsections (f) and (g).

(e) Special Rule for Gain on Property Transferred to Trust at Less Than Fair Market Value.—

(1) In general.—Subpart A of part I of subchapter J of chapter 1 (relating to general rules for taxation of estates and trusts) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

26 USC 644.

“SEC. 644. SPECIAL RULE FOR GAIN ON PROPERTY TRANSFERRED TO TRUST AT LESS THAN FAIR MARKET VALUE.

“(a) Imposition of Tax.—

“(1) In general.—If—

“(A) a trust (or another trust to which the property is distributed) sells or exchanges property at a gain not more than 2 years after the date of the initial transfer of the property in trust by the transferor, and

“(B) the fair market value of such property at the time of the initial transfer in trust by the transferor exceeds the adjusted basis of such property immediately after such transfer,

there is hereby imposed a tax determined in accordance with paragraph (2) on the includible gain realized on such sale or exchange.

“(2) Amount of Tax.—The amount of the tax imposed by paragraph (1) on any includible gain realized on the sale or exchange of any property shall be equal to the sum of—

“(A) the excess of—

“(i) the tax which would have been imposed under this chapter for the taxable year of the transferor in which the sale or exchange of such property occurs had the amount of the includible gain realized on such sale or exchange, reduced by any deductions properly allocable to such gain, been included in the gross income of the transferor for such taxable year, over

“(ii) the tax actually imposed under this chapter for such taxable year on the transferor, plus

“(B) if such sale or exchange occurs in a taxable year of the transferor which begins after the beginning of the taxable year of the trust in which such sale or exchange occurs, an amount equal to the amount determined under subparagraph (A) multiplied by the annual rate established under section 6621.

“(3) Taxable Year for Which Tax Imposed.—The tax imposed by paragraph (1) shall be imposed for the taxable year of the trust which begins with or within the taxable year of the transferor in which the sale or exchange occurs.
“(4) Tax to be in addition to other taxes.—The tax imposed by this subsection for any taxable year of the trust shall be in addition to any other tax imposed by this chapter for such taxable year.

“(b) Definition of includible gain.—For purposes of this section, the term ‘includible gain’ means the lesser of—

“(1) the gain realized by the trust on the sale or exchange of any property, or

“(2) the excess of the fair market value of such property at the time of the initial transfer in trust by the transferor over the adjusted basis of such property immediately after such transfer.

“(1) the character of the includible gain shall be determined as if the property had actually been sold or exchanged by the transferor, and any activities of the trust with respect to the sale or exchange of the property shall be deemed to be activities of the transferor, and

“(2) the portion of the includible gain subject to the provisions of section 1245 and section 1250 shall be determined in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary.

“(d) Special rule for short sales.—If the trust sells the property referred to in subsection (a) in a short sale within the 2-year period referred to in such subsection, such 2-year period shall be extended to the date of the closing of such short sale.

“(e) Exceptions.—Subsection (a) shall not apply to property—

“(1) acquired by the trust from a decedent or which passed to a trust from a decedent (within the meaning of section 1014), or

“(2) acquired by a pooled income fund (as defined in section 642(c)(5)), or

“(3) acquired by a charitable remainder annuity trust (as defined in section 664(d)(1)) or a charitable remainder unitrust (as defined in sections 664(d)(2) and (3)), or “(4) if the sale or exchange of the property occurred after the death of the transferor.

“(f) Special rule for installment sales.—If the trust elects to report income under section 453 on any sale or exchange to which subsection (a) applies, under regulations prescribed by the Secretary—

“(1) subsection (a) shall be applied as if each installment were a separate sale or exchange of property to which such subsection applies, and

“(2) the term ‘includible gain’ shall not include any portion of an installment received by the trust after the death of the transferor.”

“Exclusion of includible gain from taxable income.—Section 641 (relating to imposition of tax) is amended by inserting after subsection (b) the following new subsection:

“(c) Exclusion of includible gain from taxable income.—

“(1) General rule.—For purposes of this part, the taxable income of a trust does not include the amount of any includible gain as defined in section 644(b) reduced by any deductions properly allocable thereto.

“(2) Cross reference.—

“For the taxation of any includible gain, see section 644.”.
(f) Conforming Amendments.—

(1) Subparagraph (B) of subsection (a)(2), and subparagraph (B) of subsection (b)(2), of section 1302 (definition of averageable income; related definitions) are each amended by striking out "668(a)" and inserting in lieu thereof "667(a)".

(2) Section 6401(b) (relating to excessive credits), as in effect on the day before the date of the enactment of the Tax Reduction Act of 1975, is amended by striking out "wages,” and inserting in lieu thereof "wages) and”, and by striking out “and 667(b) (relating to taxes paid by certain trusts)”.

(3) Section 6401(b) (relating to excessive credits), as amended by the Tax Reduction Act of 1975, is amended by striking out "lubricating oil),” and inserting in lieu thereof "lubricating oil), and”, and by striking out “and section 667(b) (relating to taxes paid by certain trusts)”.

(g) Clerical Amendments.—

(1) The table of sections for subpart D of part I of subchapter J of chapter 1 is amended by striking out the items relating to sections 667, 668, and 669 and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"Sec. 667. Treatment of amounts deemed distributed by trust in preceding years."

(2) The table of sections for subpart A of part I of subchapter J of chapter 1 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new item:

"Sec. 644. Special rule for gain on property transferred to trust at less than fair market value.”.

(h) Effective Dates.—The amendments made by subsections (a), (b), (c), (d), and (f) of this section shall apply to distributions made in taxable years beginning after December 31, 1975. The amendments made by subsection (e) of this section shall apply to transfers in trust made after May 21, 1976.

TITLE VIII—CAPITAL FORMATION

SEC. 801. EXTENSION OF $100,000 LIMITATION ON USED PROPERTY FOR 4 YEARS.

Paragraph (2) of section 301(c) of the Tax Reduction Act of 1975 is amended by striking out “January 1, 1977” and inserting in lieu thereof “January 1, 1981”.

SEC. 802. EXTENSION OF 10 PERCENT CREDIT FOR 4 YEARS AND FIRST-IN-FIRST-OUT TREATMENT OF INVESTMENT TAX CREDIT.

(a) In General.—Subsection (a) of section 46 (relating to determination of amount of investment credit) is amended—

(1) by redesignating paragraphs (2) through (6) as (3) through (7), respectively, and

(2) by striking out so much of such subsection as precedes paragraph (3) (as redesignated by paragraph (1) of this subsection) and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

“(a) General Rule.—

(1) First-in-first-out rule.—The amount of the credit allowed by section 38 for the taxable year shall be an amount equal to the sum of—

(A) the investment credit carryovers carried to such taxable year, “(B) the amount of the credit determined under paragraph (2) for such taxable year, plus
“(C) the investment credit carrybacks carried to such taxable year.

“(2) AMOUNT OF CREDIT FOR CURRENT TAXABLE YEAR.—
“(A) 10 PERCENT CREDIT.—Except as otherwise provided in subparagraph (B), in the case of a property described in subparagraph (D), the amount of the credit determined under this paragraph for the taxable year shall be an amount equal to 10 percent of the qualified investment (as determined under subsections (c) and (d)).

“(B) ADDITIONAL CREDIT.—In the case of a corporation which elects (at such time, in such form, and in such manner as the Secretary prescribes) to have the provisions of this subparagraph apply, the amount of the credit determined under this paragraph shall be an amount equal to—

“(i) 11 percent of the qualified investment (as determined under subsections (c) and (d)), plus “(ii) an additional percent (not in excess of one-half percent of the qualified investment (as determined under subsections) equal in amount to the amount determined under section 301(e) of the Tax Reduction Act of 1975.

An election may not be made to have the provisions of this subparagraph apply unless the corporation meets the requirements of section 301(d) of the Tax Reduction Act of 1975.

“(C) 7 PERCENT CREDIT.—In the case of property not described in subparagraph (D), the amount of credit determined under this paragraph for the taxable year shall be an amount equal to 7 percent of the qualified investment (as determined under subsections (c) and (d)).

“(D) TRANSITIONAL RULES.—The provisions of subparagraphs (A) and (B) shall apply only to—

“(i) property to which subsection (d) does not apply, the construction, reconstruction, or erection of which is completed by the taxpayer after January 21, 1975, but only to the extent of the basis thereof attributable to the construction, reconstruction, or erection after January 21, 1975, and before January 1, 1981,

“(ii) property to which subsection (d) does not apply, acquired by the taxpayer after January 21, 1975, and before January 1, 1981, and placed in service by the taxpayer before January 1, 1981, and

“(iii) property to which subsection (d) applies, but only to the extent of the qualified investment (as determined under subsections (c) and (d)) with respect to qualified progress expenditures made after January 21, 1975, and before January 1, 1981.

For purposes of applying clause (ii) of subparagraph (B), the date ‘December 31, 1976,’ shall be substituted for the date ‘January 21, 1975,’ each place it appears in this subparagraph.”

(b) Conforming Amendments.—
(1) Paragraphs (4), (5), (6), and (7) of section 46(a) (as redesignated by subsection (a)) are each amended by striking out “paragraph (2)” and inserting in lieu thereof “paragraph (3)”.

Post, p. 1587.

26 USC 46 note.
26 USC 46.

(2) Subsection (b) of section 46 (relating to carryback and carryover of unused credits) is amended to read as follows:

"(b) CARRYBACK AND CARRYOVER OF UNUSED CREDITS.—

"(1) IN GENERAL.—If the sum of the amount of the investment credit carryovers to the taxable year under subsection (a) (1) (A) plus the amount determined under subsection (a) (1) (B) for the taxable year exceeds the amount of the limitation imposed by subsection (a) (3) for such taxable year (hereinafter in this subsection referred to as the 'unused credit year'), such excess attributable to the amount determined under subsection (a) (1) (B) shall be—

"(A) an investment credit carryback to each of the 3 taxable years preceding the unused credit year, and

"(B) an investment credit carryover to each of the 7 taxable years following the unused credit year, and, subject to the limitations imposed by paragraphs (2) and (3), shall be taken into account under the provisions of subsection (a) (1) in the manner provided in such subsection. The entire amount of the unused credit for an unused credit year shall be carried to the earliest of the 10 taxable years to which (by reason of subparagraphs (A) and (B)) such credit may be carried and then to each of the other 9 taxable years to the extent, because of the limitations imposed by paragraphs (2) and (3), such unused credit may not be taken into account under subsection (a) (1) for a prior taxable year to which such unused credit may be carried. In the case of an unused credit for an unused credit year ending before January 1, 1971, which is an investment credit carryover to a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1970 (determined without regard to this sentence), this paragraph shall be applied—

"(C) by substituting '10 taxable years' for '7 taxable years' in subparagraph (B), and by substituting '13 taxable years' for '10 taxable years', and '12 taxable years' for '9 taxable years' in the preceding sentence; and

"(D) by carrying such an investment credit carryover to a later taxable year (than the taxable year to which it would, but for this subparagraph, be carried) to which it may be carried if, because of the amendments made by section 802 (b) (2) of the Tax Reform Act of 1976, carrying such carryover to the taxable year to which it would, but for this subparagraph, be carried would cause a portion of an unused credit from an unused credit year ending after December 31, 1970 to expire.

"(2) LIMITATION ON CARRYBACKS.—The amount of the unused credit which may be taken into account under subsection (a) (1) for any preceding taxable year shall not exceed the amount by which the limitation imposed by subsection (a) (3) for such taxable year exceeds the sum of—

"(A) the amounts determined under subparagraphs (A) and (B) of subsection (a) (1) for such taxable year, plus

"(B) the amounts which (by reason of this subsection) are carried back to such taxable year and are attributable to taxable years preceding the unused credit year.

"(3) LIMITATION ON CARRYOVERS.—The amount of the unused credit which may be taken into account under subsection (a) (1) (A) for any succeeding taxable year shall not exceed the amount by which the limitation imposed by subsection (a) (3) for such taxable year exceeds the sum of the amounts which, by reason of this subsection, are carried to such taxable year and are attributable to taxable years preceding the unused credit year.”

(3) Subparagraph (A) of section 46(c) (3) (relating to public utility property) is amended by striking out “subsection (a) (1) (C)” and inserting in lieu thereof “subsection (a) (2) (C)”.

(4) Paragraph (1) of section 46(e) (relating to limitations with respect to certain persons) is amended by striking out “subsection (a) (2)” and inserting in lieu thereof “subsection (a) (3)”.

(5) The first sentence of section 46 (f) (8) (relating to prohibition of immediate flowthrough of investment credit) is amended by inserting after “the Tax Reduction Act of 1975” the following: “and the Tax Reform Act of 1976”.

(6) Subsection (f) of section 48 (relating to estates and trusts) is amended by striking out “section 46(a)(2)” and inserting in lieu thereof “section 46(a)(3)”.

(7) Section 301(d) of the Tax Reduction Act of 1975 is amended by striking out “section 46(a)(1)(B)” each place it appears and inserting in lieu thereof “section 46(a)(2)(B)”.

(c) Effective Date.—The amendments made by this section shall apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1975.

SEC. 803. EMPLOYEE STOCK OWNERSHIP PLANS; STUDY OF EXPANDED STOCK OWNERSHIP.

(a) Amendment of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.—Section 46(f) (relating to limitation in case of certain regulated companies) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

“(9) Special rule for additional credit.—If the taxpayer makes an election under subparagraph (B) of subsection (a) (2), for a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1975, then, notwithstanding the prior paragraphs of this subsection, no credit shall be allowed by section 38 in excess of the amount which would be allowed without regard to the provisions of subparagraph (B) of section 46(a)(2) if—

“(A) the taxpayer’s cost of service for ratemaking purposes or in its regulated books of account is reduced by reason of any portion of such credit which results from the transfer of employer securities or cash to an employee stock ownership plan which meets the requirements of section 301(d) of the Tax Reduction Act of 1975;

“(B) the base to which the taxpayer’s rate of return for ratemaking purposes is applied is reduced by reason of any portion of such credit which results from a transfer described in subparagraph (A) to such employee stock ownership plan; or

“(C) any portion of the amount of such credit which results from a transfer described in subparagraph (A) to such employee stock ownership plan is treated for ratemaking purposes in any way other than as though it had been contributed by the taxpayer’s common shareholders.”

(b) Special Rules.—

(1) Paragraph (4) of section 46(f) is amended—

(A) by striking out “paragraphs (1) and (2)” in subparagraph (A) and inserting in lieu thereof “paragraphs (1), (2), and (9)”;

26 USC 46.

26 USC 48.

26 USC 46 note.

26 USC 46 note.

26 USC 46.
(B) by striking out "paragraph (1) or (2)" each place it appears in subparagraph (A) and inserting in lieu thereof "paragraph (1), (2), or (3)"; and

(C) by striking out "paragraph (2)," in subparagraph (B) (ii) and inserting in lieu thereof "paragraph (2) or the election described in paragraph (9),".

26 USC 401.

(2) Section 401(a) (relating to qualified pension, etc., plans) is amended by adding after paragraph (20) the following new paragraph:

"(21) A trust forming part of an employee stock ownership plan which satisfies the requirements of section 301(d) of the Tax Reduction Act of 1975 shall not fail to be considered a permanent program merely because employer contributions under the plan are determined solely by reference to the amount of credit which would be allowable under section 46(a) if the employer made the transfer described in subsection (d) (6) or (e) (3) of section 301 of the Tax Reduction Act of 1975."

26 USC 1504.

(3) Section 1504(a) is amended by striking out "dividends." at the end thereof and inserting in lieu thereof "dividends, employer securities within the meaning of section 301(d) (9) (A) of the Tax Reduction Act of 1975, or qualifying employer securities within the meaning of section 4975 (e) (8) while such securities are held under an employee stock ownership plan which meets the requirements of section 301(d) of such Act or section 4975 (e) (7), respectively."

26 USC 415.

(4) Section 415(e) (5) is amended by striking out "For purposes of this subsection," and inserting in lieu thereof "For purposes of this section,"

(c) PLAN REQUIREMENTS FOR TAXPAYERS ELECTING ADDITIONAL CREDIT.—Section 301(d) of the Tax Reduction Act of 1975 is amended—

(1) by adding at the end of paragraph (3) the following sentence: "For purposes of this paragraph, the amount of compensation paid to a participant for a year is the amount of such participant's compensation within the meaning of section 415 (c) (3) of such Code for such year;"

(2) by striking out paragraph (6) and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"(6) On making a claim for credit, adjustment, or refund under section 38 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, the employer states in such claim that it agrees, as a condition of receiving any such credit, adjustment, or refund—

"(A) in the case of a taxable year beginning before January 1, 1977, to transfer employer securities forthwith to the plan having an aggregate value at the time of the claim of 1 percent of the amount of the qualified investment (as determined under section 46 (c) and (d) of such Code) of the taxpayer for the taxable year, and

"(B) in the case of a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1976—

"(i) to transfer employer securities to the plan having an aggregate value at the time of the claim of 1 percent of the amount of the qualified investment (as determined under section 46 (c) and (d) of such Code) of the employer for the taxable year," “(ii) except as provided in clause (iii), to effect the transfer not later than 30 days after the time (including extensions) for filing its income tax return for a taxable year, and

“(iii) in the case of an employer whose credit (as determined under section 46(a)(2)(B) of such Code) for a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1976, exceeds the limitations of paragraph (3) of section 46(a) of such Code—

“(I) to effect that portion of the transfer allocable to investment credit carrybacks of such excess credit at the time required under clause (ii) for the unused credit year (within the meaning of section 46(b) of such Code), and

“(II) to effect that portion of the transfer allocable to investment credit carryovers of such excess credit at the time required under clause (ii) for the taxable year to which such portion is carried over.

For purposes of meeting the requirements of this paragraph, a transfer of cash shall be treated as a transfer of employer securities if the cash is, under the plan, used to purchase employer securities.”,

(3) by deleting paragraph (8) and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

“(8)(A) Except as provided in subparagraph (B)(iii), if the amount of the credit determined under section 46(a)(2)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 is recaptured or redetermined in accordance with the provisions of such Code, the amounts transferred to the plan under this subsection and subsection (e) and allocated under the plan shall remain in the plan or in participant accounts, as the case may be, and continue to be allocated in accordance with the plan.

“(B) If the amount of the credit determined under section 46(a)(2)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 is recaptured in accordance with the provisions of such Code—

“(i) the employer may reduce the amount required to be transferred to the plan under paragraph (6) of this subsection, or under paragraph (3) of subsection (e), for the current taxable year or any succeeding taxable years by the portion of the amount so recaptured which is attributable to the contribution to such plan,

“(ii) notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (12), the employer may deduct such portion, subject to the limitations of section 404 of such Code (relating to deductions for contributions to an employees’ trust or plan), or

“(iii) if the requirements of subsection (f)(1) are met, the employer may withdraw from the plan an amount not in excess of such portion.

“(C) If the amount of the credit claimed by an employer for a prior taxable year under section 38 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 is reduced because of a redetermination which becomes final during the taxable year, and the employer transferred amounts to a plan which were taken into account for purposes of this subsection for that prior taxable year, then—

“(i) the employer may reduce the amount it is required to transfer to the plan under paragraph (6) of this subsection, or under paragraph (3) of subsection (e), for the taxable year or any succeeding taxable year by the portion of the amount of such reduction in the credit or increase in tax which is attributable to the contribution to such plan, or

(4) by striking out “in control of the employer (within the meaning of section 368(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954)” in paragraph (9)(A) and inserting in lieu thereof “a member of a controlled group of corporations which includes the employer (within the meaning of section 1563(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, determined without regard to section 1563(a)(4) and (e)(3)(C) of such Code)”, and

(5) by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraphs:

“(13)(A) As reimbursement for the expense of establishing the plan, the employer may withhold from amounts due the plan for the taxable year for which the plan is established, or the plan may pay, so much of the amounts paid or incurred in connection with the establishment of the plan as does not exceed the sum of 10 percent of the first $100,000 that the employer is required to transfer to the plan for that taxable year under paragraph (6) (including any amounts transferred under subsection (e)(3)) and 5 percent of any amount in excess of the first $100,000 of such amount.

“(B) As reimbursement for the expense of administering the plan, the employer may withhold from amounts due the plan, or the plan may pay, so much of the amounts paid or incurred during the taxable year as expenses of administering the plan as does not exceed the smaller of—

“(i) the sum of 10 percent of the first $100,000 and 5 percent of any amount in excess of $100,000 of the income from dividends paid to the plan with respect to stock of the employer during the plan year ending with or within the employer’s taxable year, or “(ii) $100,000.

“(14) The return of a contribution made by an employer to an employee stock ownership plan designed to satisfy the requirements of this subsection or subsection (e) (or a provision for such a return) does not fail to satisfy the requirements of this subsection, subsection (e), section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or section 403(c)(1) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 if—

“(A) the contribution is conditioned under the plan upon determination by the Secretary of the Treasury that such plan meets the applicable requirements of this subsection, subsection (e), or section 401(a) of such Code, “(B) the application for such a determination is filed with the Secretary not later than 90 days after the date on which the credit under section 38 is allowed, and
“(C) the contribution is returned within one year after the date on which the Secretary issues notice to the employer that such plan does not satisfy the requirements of this subsection, subsection (e), or section 401(a) of such Code.”

29 USC 1103.
(d) Plan Requirements for Taxpayers Electing Additional One-Half Percent Credit.—Section 301 of the Tax Reduction Act of 1975 (relating to increase in investment credit) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsections:

"(e) Plan Requirements for Taxpayers Electing Additional One-Half Percent Credit.—

"(1) General Rule.—For purposes of clause (ii) of section 46 (a) (2) (B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, the amount determined under this subsection for a taxable year is an amount equal to the sum of the matching employee contributions for the taxable year which meet the requirements of this subsection.

"(2) Election; Basic Plan Requirements.—No amount shall be determined under this subsection for the taxable year unless the corporation elects to have this subsection apply for that year. A corporation may not elect to have the provisions of this subsection apply for a taxable year unless the corporation meets the requirements of subsection (d) and the requirements of this subsection.

"(3) Employer Contribution.—On making a claim for credit, adjustment, or refund under section 38 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, the employer shall state in such claim that the employer agrees, as a condition of receiving any such credit, adjustment, or refund attributable to the provisions of section 46 (a) (2) (B) (ii) of such Code, to transfer at the time described in subsection (d) (6) (B) employer securities (as defined in subsection (d) (9) (A)) to the plan having an aggregate value at the time of the transfer of not more than one-half of one percent of the amount of the qualified investment (as determined under subsections (c) and (d) of section 46 of such Code) of the taxpayer for the taxable year. For purposes of meeting the requirements of this paragraph, a transfer of cash shall be treated as a transfer of employer securities if the cash is, under the plan, used to purchase employer securities.

"(4) Requirements Relating to Matching Employee Contributions.—

"(A) An amount contributed by an employee under a plan described in subsection (d) for the taxable year may not be treated as a matching employee contribution for that taxable year under this subsection unless—

"(i) each employee who participates in the plan described in subsection (d) is entitled to make such a contribution,

"(ii) the contribution is designated by the employee as a contribution intended to be used for matching employer amounts transferred under paragraph (3) to a plan which meets the requirements of this subsection, and

"(iii) the contribution is in the form of an amount paid in cash to the employer or plan administrator not later than 24 months after the close of the taxable year in which the portion of the credit allowed by section 38 of such Code (and determined under clause (ii) of section 46(a) (2) (B) of such Code which the contribution is to match) is allowed, and is invested forthwith in employer securities (as defined in subsection (d) (9) (A)).

"(B) The sum of the amounts of matching employee contributions taken into account for purposes of this subsection for any taxable year may not exceed the value (at the time of transfer) of the employer securities transferred to the plan in accordance with the requirements of paragraph (3) for the year for which the employee contributions are designated as matching contributions.

"(C) The employer may not make participation in the plan a condition of employment and the plan may not require matching employee contributions as a condition of participation in the plan.

"(D) Employee contributions under the plan must meet the requirements of section 401(a)(4) of such Code (relating to contributions).

"(5) A plan must provide for allocation of all employer securities transferred to it or purchased by it under this subsection to the account of each participant (who was a participant at any time during the plan year, whether or not he is a participant at the close of the plan year) as of the close of the plan year in an amount equal to his matching employee contributions for the year. Matching employee contributions and amounts so allocated shall be deemed to be allocated under subsection (d)(3).

"(f) RECAPTURE.—

"(1) GENERAL RULE.—Amounts transferred to a plan under subsection (d)(6) or (e)(3) may be withdrawn from the plan by the employer if the plan provides that while subject to recapture—

"(A) amounts so transferred with respect to a taxable year are segregated from other plan assets, and

"(B) separate accounts are maintained for participants on whose behalf amounts so transferred have been allocated for a taxable year.

"(2) COORDINATION WITH OTHER LAW.—Notwithstanding any other law or rule of law, an amount withdrawn by the employer will neither fail to be considered to be nonforfeitable nor fail to be for the exclusive benefit of participants or their beneficiaries merely because of the withdrawal from the plan of—

"(A) amounts described in paragraph (1), or

"(B) employer amounts transferred under subsection (e)(3) to the plan which are not matched by matching employee contributions or which are in excess of the limitations of section 415 of such Code, nor will the withdrawal of any such amount be considered to violate the provisions of section 403(c)(1) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974."

(e) CLERICAL AMENDMENT.—

(1) The heading of section 301(d) of the Tax Reduction Act of 1975 is amended by striking out "11-PERCENT" and inserting in lieu thereof "ADDITIONAL."

(2) Section 301(d) of the Tax Reduction Act of 1975 is amended by—

(A) striking out "A corporation" in paragraph (1) and inserting in lieu thereof "Except as expressly provided in subsections (e) and (f), a corporation",

(B) inserting "or subsection (e)(3)" in paragraph (7)(A) immediately after "(6)",

(C) striking out "this subsection" in paragraph (10) and substituting in lieu thereof "this subsection and subsections (e) and (f)", and
(D) striking out “this subsection” each time it appears in paragraph (11) and substituting in lieu thereof “this subsection or subsection (e) or (f)”.

(f) LIMITATIONS ON CONTRIBUTIONS.—

(1) SPECIAL LIMITATION FOR EMPLOYEE STOCK OWNERSHIP PLANS.—Section 415(c) (relating to limitation for defined contribution plans) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

“(6) SPECIAL LIMITATION FOR EMPLOYEE STOCK OWNERSHIP PLAN.—

“(A) In the case of an employee stock ownership plan (as defined in subparagraph (B)), under which no more than one-third of the employer contributions for a year are allocated to the group of employees consisting of officers, shareholders owning more than 10 percent of the employer’s stock (determined under subparagraph (B) (iv)), or employees described in subparagraph (B) (iii), the amount described in paragraph (c) (1) (A) (as adjusted for such year pursuant to subsection (d) (1)) for a year with respect to any participant shall be equal to the sum of (i) the amount described in paragraph (c) (1) (A) (as so adjusted) determined without regard to this paragraph and (ii) the lesser of the amount determined under clause (i) or the amount of employer securities contributed to the employee stock ownership plan.

“(i) the term ‘employee stock ownership plan’ means a plan which meets the requirements of section 4975(e) (7) or section 301(d) of the Tax Reduction Act of 1975,

“(ii) the term ‘employer securities’ means, in the case of an employee stock ownership plan within the meaning of section 4975(e) (7), qualifying employer securities within the meaning of section 4975(e) (8), but only if they are described in section 301(d) (9) (A) of the Tax Reduction Act of 1975, or, in the case of an employee stock ownership plan described in section 301(d) (2) of the Tax Reduction Act of 1975, employer securities within the meaning of section 301(d) (9) (A) of such Act,

“(iii) an employee described in this clause is any participant whose compensation for a year exceeds an amount equal to twice the amount described in paragraph (1) (A) for such year (as adjusted for such year pursuant to subsection (d) (1)), determined without regard to subparagraph (A) of this paragraph, and

“(iv) an individual shall be considered to own more than 10 percent of the employer’s stock if, without regard to stock held under the employee stock ownership plan, he owns (after application of section 1563(e)) more than 10 percent of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock entitled to vote or more than 10 percent of the total value of shares of all classes of stock.”

(2) CONFORMING AMENDMENT.—Paragraph (3) (B) of section 415(e) (relating to defined contribution plan fraction) is amended by inserting “determined without regard to paragraph (6) of such subsection” after “employer”.

(g) WAIVER OF PENALTY FOR UNDERPAYMENT OF ESTIMATED TAX.— 26 USC 6655 note.
A corporation made underpayments of estimated tax for a taxable year of the corporation which includes August 1, 1975, because the corporation intended to elect to have the provisions of subparagraph (B) of section 46(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (as it existed before the date of enactment of this Act) apply for such taxable year, and

(2) the corporation does not elect to have the provisions of such subparagraph apply for such taxable year because this Act does not contain the amendments made by section 804(a)(2) (relating to flowthrough of investment credit), or the provisions of subsection (f) of such section (relating to grace period for certain plan transfers), of the bill H.R. 10612 (94th Congress, 2d Session), as amended by the Senate, then the provisions of section 6655 of such Code (relating to failure by corporation to pay estimated income tax) shall not apply to so much of any such underpayment as the corporation can establish, to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Treasury, is properly attributable to the inapplicability of such subparagraph (B) for such taxable year.

26 USC 4975 note.

(h) INTENT OF CONGRESS CONCERNING EMPLOYEE STOCK OWNERSHIP PLANS.—The Congress, in a series of laws (the Regional Rail Reorganization Act of 1973, the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, the Trade Act of 1974, and the Tax Reduction Act of 1975) and this Act has made clear its interest in encouraging employee stock ownership plans as a bold and innovative method of strengthening the free private enterprise system which will solve the dual problems of securing capital funds for necessary capital growth and of bringing about stock ownership by all corporate employers. The Congress is deeply concerned that the objectives sought by this series of laws will be made unattainable by regulations and rulings which treat employee stock ownership plans as conventional retirement plans, which reduce the freedom of the employee trusts and employers to take the necessary steps to implement the plans, and which otherwise block the establishment and success of these plans. Because of the special purposes for which employee stock ownership plans are established, it is consistent with the intent of Congress to permit these plans (whether structured as pension, stock bonus, or profit-sharing plans) to distribute income on employer securities currently.

(i) STUDY OF EXPANDED STOCK OWNERSHIP.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Section 3022(a) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (relating to duties of Joint Pension Task Force) is amended—

(A) by redesignating paragraphs (4) and (5) as (5) and (6), and

(B) by inserting after paragraph (3) the following new paragraph:

"(4) the broadening of stock ownership, particularly with regard to employee stock ownership plans (as defined in section 4975(e)(7) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 and section 407(d)(6) of this Act) and all other alternative methods for broadening stock ownership to the American labor force and others;";

(2) CHANGE OF TITLE.—

(A) Subtitle B of title III of such Act is amended—

(i) by striking out "Pension" in the caption of such subtitle and inserting in lieu thereof "Pension, Profit-sharing, and Employee Stock Ownership Plan",
(ii) by striking out "PENSION" in the caption of part 1 of such subtitle and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "PENSION, PROFIT-SHARING, AND EMPLOYEE STOCK OWNERSHIP PLAN"; and

(iii) by striking out "Joint Pension" each place it appears in sections 3021 and 3022 and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "Joint Pension, Profit-sharing, and Employee Stock Ownership Plan".

(B) The table of contents of such Act is amended—

(i) by striking out "PENSION" in the item relating to title III and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "PENSION, PROFIT-SHARING, AND EMPLOYEE STOCK OWNERSHIP PLAN",

(ii) by striking out "PENSION" in the item relating to subtitle B of title III and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "PENSION, PROFIT-SHARING, AND EMPLOYEE STOCK OWNERSHIP PLAN", and

(iii) by striking out "PENSION" in the item relating to part 1 of subtitle B of title III and inserting in lieu thereof "PENSION, PROFIT-SHARING, AND EMPLOYEE STOCK OWNERSHIP PLAN".

(j) Effective Dates.—

(1) General rule.—Except as provided in paragraph (2), the amendments made by this section shall apply for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1974.

(2) Exceptions.—

(A) Section 301(e) of the Tax Reduction Act of 1975, as added by subsection (d), shall apply for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1976.

(B) The amendments made by subsections (a) and (b) (1) shall apply for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1975.

(C) The amendments made by subsections (b) (4) and (f) shall apply for years beginning after December 31, 1975.

SEC. 804. INVESTMENT CREDIT IN THE CASE OF MOVIE AND TELEVISION FILMS.

(a) Special Rules for Movie and Television Films.—Section 48 (relating to definitions and special rules for purposes of the investment credit) is amended by redesignating subsection (k) as subsection (l) and by inserting after subsection (j) the following new subsection:

"(k) Movie and Television Films.—

(1) Entitlement to credit.—

"(A) In general.—A credit shall be allowable under section 38 to a taxpayer with respect to any motion picture film or video tape—

"(i) only if such film or tape is new section 38 property (determined without regard to useful life) which is a qualified film, and

"(ii) only to the extent that the taxpayer has an ownership interest in such film or tape.

"(B) Qualified Film Defined.—For purposes of this subsection, the term 'qualified film' means any motion picture film or video tape created primarily for use as public entertainment or for educational purposes. Such term does not include any film or tape the market for which is primarily topical or is otherwise essentially transitory in nature.
“(C) Ownership interest.—For purposes of this subsection, a person’s ‘ownership interest’ in a qualified film shall be determined on the basis of his proportionate share of any loss which may be incurred with respect to the production costs of such film.

“(2) Applicable percentage to be 66 2/3%.—Except as provided in paragraph (3), the applicable percentage under section 46(c) (2) for any qualified film shall be 66 2/3% percent.

“(A) In general.—If the taxpayer makes an election under this paragraph, the applicable percentage under section 46(c) (2) shall be determined as if the useful life of the film would have expired at the close of the first taxable year by the close of which the aggregate amount allowable as a deduction under section 167 would equal or exceed 90 percent of the basis of the film.

“(B) Making of election.—An election under this paragraph shall be made at such time and in such manner as the Secretary may by regulations prescribe. Such an election shall apply for the taxable year for which it is made and for all subsequent taxable years and may be revoked only with the consent of the Secretary.

“(C) Who may elect.—If for any prior taxable year paragraph (2) of this Subsection applied to the taxpayer or any related business entity, or if for the taxable year paragraph (2) applies to any related business entity, an election under this paragraph may be made by the taxpayer only with the consent of the Secretary.

“(D) Related business entity.—Two or more corporations, partnerships, trusts, estates, proprietorships, or other entities shall be treated as related business entities if 50 percent or more of the beneficial interest in each of such entities is owned by the same or related persons (taking into account only persons who own at least 10 percent of such beneficial interest). For purposes of this subparagraph, a person is a related person to another person if—

“(i) such persons are component members of a controlled group of corporations (within the meaning of section 1563(a), except that section 1563(b) (2) shall not apply and except that ‘more than 50 percent’ shall be substituted for ‘at least 80 percent’ each place it appears in section 1563(a)), or

“(ii) the relationship between such persons would result in a disallowance of losses under section 267 or 707(b), except that for these purposes a family of an individual includes only his spouse and minor children.

For purposes of this subparagraph, the term ‘beneficial interest’ means voting stock in the case of a corporation, profits interest or capital interest in the case of a partnership, or beneficial interest in the case of a trust or estate.

“(4) Predominant use test; qualified investment.—In the case of any qualified film—

“(A) section 48(a) (2) shall not apply, and “(B) in determining qualified investment under section 46(c) (1), there shall be issued (in lieu of the basis of the property) an amount equal to the qualified United States production costs (as defined in paragraph (5)).

“(5) QUALIFIED UNITED STATES PRODUCTION COSTS.—
(A) IN GENERAL.—For purposes of this subsection, the term ‘qualified United States production costs’ means with respect to any film—

(i) direct production costs allocable to the United States, plus
(ii) if 80 percent or more of the direct production costs are allocable to the United States, all other production costs other than direct production costs allocable outside the United States.

(B) PRODUCTION COSTS.—For purposes of this subsection, the term ‘production costs’ includes—

(i) a reasonable allocation of general overhead costs,
(ii) compensation (other than participations described in clause (vi)) for services performed by actors, production personnel, directors, and producers,
(iii) costs of ‘first’ distribution of prints,
(iv) the cost of the screen rights and other material being filmed,
(v) ‘residuals’ payable under contracts with labor organizations, and
(vi) participations payable as compensation to actors, production personnel, directors, and producers.

Participations in all qualified films placed in service by a taxpayer during a taxable year shall be taken into account under clause (vi) only to the extent of the lesser of 25 percent of each such participation or 12½ percent of the aggregate qualified United States production costs (other than costs described in clauses (v) and (vi) of this subparagraph) for such films, but taking into account for both the 25 percent limit and 12½ percent limit no more than $1,000,000 in participations for any one individual with respect to any one film. For purposes of this subparagraph (other than clauses (v) and (vi) and the preceding sentence), costs shall be taken into account only if they are capitalized.

(C) DIRECT PRODUCTION COSTS.—For purposes of this paragraph, the term ‘direct production costs’ does not include items referred to in clause (i), (iv), (v), or (vi) of subparagraph (B). The term also does not include advertising and promotional costs and such other costs as may be provided in regulations prescribed by the Secretary.

(D) ALLOCATION OF DIRECT PRODUCTION COSTS.—For purposes of this paragraph—

(i) Compensation for services performed shall be allocated to the country in which the services are performed, except that payments to United States persons for services performed outside the United States shall be allocated to the United States. For purposes of the preceding sentence, payments to an electing small business corporation (within the meaning of section 1371) or a partnership shall be considered payments to a United States person only to the extent that such payments are included in the gross income of a United States person other than an electing small business corporation or partnership.
“(ii) Amounts for equipment and supplies shall be allocated to the country in which, with respect to the production of the film, the predominant use occurs.

“(iii) All other items shall be allocated under regulations prescribed by the Secretary which are consistent with the allocation principle set forth in clause (ii).

“(6) UNITED STATES.—For purposes of this subsection, the term ‘United States’ includes the possessions of the United States.”

(b) OVERESTIMATION OF USEFUL LIFE AND DISPOSITIONS WHERE 90 PERCENT RULE APPLIES.—Section 47(a) (relating to certain dispositions, etc., of section 38 property) is amended by adding after paragraph (6) the following new paragraph:

“(7) MOTION PICTURE FILMS AND VIDEO TAPES.—

“(A) DISPOSITION WHERE DEPRECIATION EXCEEDS 90 PERCENT OR BASIS OR COST.—A qualified film (within the meaning of section 48(k)(1)(B)) which has an applicable percentage determined under section 48(k)(3) shall cease to be section 38 property with respect to the taxpayer at the close of the first day on which the aggregate amount allowable as a deduction under section 167 equals or exceeds 90 percent of the basis or cost of such film (adjusted for any partial dispositions).

“(B) OTHER DISPOSITIONS.—In the case of a disposition of the exclusive right to display a qualified film which has an applicable percentage determined under section 48(k)(3) in one or more mediums of publication or exhibition in one or more specifically defined geographical areas over the remaining initial period of commercial exploitation of the film or tape in such geographical areas, the taxpayer shall be considered to have disposed of all or part of such film or tape and shall recompute the credit earned on all of his basis or cost or on that part of the basis or cost properly allocable to that part of the film or tape disposed of. In the case of an affiliated group of corporations, a transfer within the affiliated group shall not be treated as a disposition until there is a transfer outside the group. For purposes of the preceding sentence, the term ‘affiliated group’ has the meaning given to such term by section 1504 (determined as if section 1504(b) did not include paragraph (3) thereof). For purposes of this paragraph, section 1504(a) shall be applied by substituting ‘50 percent’ for ‘80 percent’ each place it appears.”

(e) ALTERNATIVE METHODS OF COMPUTING CREDIT FOR PAST PERIODS.—

(1) GENERAL RULE FOR DETERMINING USEFUL LIFE, PREDOMINANT FOREIGN USE, ETC.—In the case of a qualified film (within the meaning of section 48(k)(1)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954) placed in service in a taxable year beginning before January 1, 1975, with respect to which neither an election under paragraph (2) of this subsection nor an election under subsection (e)(2) applies—

(A) the applicable percentage under section 46(e)(2) of such Code shall be determined as if the useful life of the film would have expired at the close of the first taxable year by the close of which the aggregate amount allowable as a
(2) Election of 40-percent method.

(A) In general.—A taxpayer may elect to have this paragraph apply to all qualified films placed in service during taxable years beginning before January 1, 1975 (other than films to which an election under subsection (e)(2) of this section applies).

(B) Effect of election.—If the taxpayer makes an election under this paragraph, then section 48(k) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 shall apply to all qualified films described in subparagraph (A) with the following modifications:

(i) subparagraph (B) of paragraph (4) shall not apply, but in determining qualified investment under section 46(c)(1) of such Code, there shall be used (in lieu of the basis of such property) an amount equal to 40 percent of the aggregate production costs (within the meaning of paragraph (5)(B) of such section 48(k)),

(ii) paragraph (2) shall be applied by substituting “100 percent” for “662/3 percent”, and

(iii) paragraph (3) and paragraph (5) (other than subparagraph (B)) shall not apply.

(C) Rules relating to elections.—An election under this paragraph shall be made not later than the day which is 6 months after the date of the enactment of this Act and shall be made in such manner as the Secretary of the Treasury or his delegate shall by regulations prescribe. Such an election may be revoked only with the consent of the Secretary of the Treasury or his delegate.

(D) The taxpayer must consent to join in certain proceedings.—No election may be made under this paragraph or subsection (e)(2) by any taxpayer unless he consents, under regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury or his delegate, to treat the determination of the investment credit allowable on each film subject to an election as a separate cause of action, and to join in any judicial proceeding for determining the person entitled to, and the amount of, the credit allowable under section 38 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 with respect to any film covered by such election.

(3) Election to have credit determined in accordance with previous litigation.

(A) In general.—A taxpayer described in subparagraph (B) may elect to have this paragraph apply to all films (whether or not qualified) placed in service in taxable years beginning before January 1, 1975, and with respect to which an election under subsection (e)(2) is not made.

(B) Who May Elect.—A taxpayer may make an election under this paragraph if he has filed an action in any court of competent jurisdiction, before January 1, 1976, for a determination of such taxpayer’s rights to the allowance of a credit against tax under section 38 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 for any taxable year beginning before January 1, 1975, with respect to any film.

(C) Effect of Election.—If the taxpayer makes an election under this paragraph—

(i) paragraphs (1) and (2) of this subsection, and subsection (d) shall not apply to any film placed in service by the taxpayer, and

(ii) subsection 48(k) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 shall not apply to any film placed in service by the taxpayer in any taxable year beginning before January 1, 1975, and with respect to which an election under subsection (e)(2) is not made, and the right of the taxpayer to the allowance of a credit against tax under section 38 of such Code with respect to any film placed in service in any taxable year beginning before January 1, 1975, and as to which an election under subsection (e)(2) is not made, shall be determined as though this section (other than this paragraph) has not been enacted.

(D) Rules Relating to Elections.—An election under this paragraph shall be made not later than the day which is 90 days after the date of the enactment of this Act, by filing a notification of such election with the national office of the Internal Revenue Service. Such an election, once made, shall be irrevocable.

(d) Entitlement to Credit.—Paragraph (1) of section 48(k) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (relating to entitlement to credit) shall apply to any motion picture film or video tape placed in service in any taxable year beginning before January 1, 1975.

(1) In General.—The amendments made by subsections (a) and (b) shall apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1974.

(2) Election May Also Apply to Property Described in Section 50(a).—At the election of the taxpayer, made within 1 year after the date of the enactment of this Act in such manner as the Secretary of the Treasury or his delegate may by regulations prescribe, the amendments made by subsections (a) and (b) shall also apply to property which is property described in section 50(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 and which is placed in service in taxable years beginning before January 1, 1975.

SEC. 805. INVESTMENT CREDIT IN THE CASE OF CERTAIN SHIPS.

(a) In General.—Section 46 (relating to amount of credit) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

“(g) 50 PERCENT CREDIT IN THE CASE OF CERTAIN VESSELS.—

“(1) In General.—In the case of a qualified withdrawal out of the untaxed portion of a capital gain account or out of an ordinary income account in a capital construction fund established under section 607 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936 (46 U.S.C. 1177), for—
"(A) the acquisition, construction, or reconstruction of a qualified vessel, or

"(B) the acquisition, construction, or reconstruction of barges or containers which are part of the complement of a qualified vessel and to which subsection (f) (1) (B) of such section 607 applies, for purposes of section 38 there shall be deemed to have been made (at the time of such withdrawal) a qualified investment (within the meaning of subsection (c)) or qualified progress expenditures (within the meaning of subsection (d)), whichever is appropriate, with respect to property which is section 38 property.

"(2) AMOUNT OF CREDIT.—For purposes of paragraph (1), the amount of the qualified investment shall be 50 percent of the applicable percentage of the qualified withdrawal referred to in paragraph (1), or the amount of the qualified progress expenditures shall be 50 percent of such withdrawal, as the case may be. For purposes of determining the amount of the credit allowable by reason of this subsection for any taxable year, the limitation of subsection (a) (3) shall be determined without regard to subsection (d) (1) (A) of such section 607.

"(3) COORDINATION WITH SECTION 38.—The amount of the credit allowable by reason of this subsection with respect to any property shall be the minimum amount allowable under section 38 with respect to such property. If, without regard to this subsection, a greater amount is allowable under section 38 with respect to such property, then such greater amount shall apply and this subsection shall not apply.

"(4) COORDINATION WITH SECTION 47.—Section 47 shall be applied—

"(A) to any property to which this subsection applies, and

"(B) to the payment (out of the untaxed portion of a capital gain account or out of the ordinary income account of a capital construction fund established under section 607 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936) of the principal of any indebtedness incurred in connection with property with respect to which a credit was allowed under section 38.

For purposes of section 47, any payment described in subparagraph (B) of the preceding sentence shall be treated as a disposition occurring less than 3 years after the property was placed in service; but, in the case of a credit allowable without regard to this subsection, the aggregate amount which may be recaptured by reason of this sentence shall not exceed 50 percent of such credit.

"(5) DEFINITIONS.—Any term used in section 607 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1970, shall have the same meaning when used in this subsection.

"(6) NO INFERENCE.—Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to infer that any property described in this subsection is or is not section 38 property, and any determination of such issue shall be made as if this subsection had not been enacted."

(b) EFFECTIVE DATES.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in subparagraph (B), the amendment made by subsection (a) shall apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1975, in the case of property placed in service after such date.
(2) Section 46(g)(4).—Section 46(g)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (as added by subsection (a)) shall apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1975.

SEC. 806. ADDITIONAL NET OPERATING LOSS CARRYOVER YEARS; LIMITATIONS ON NET OPERATING LOSS CARRYOVERS.

26 USC 172.

(a) In general.—Section 172(b)(1)(B), as amended by section 1606(b) of this Act, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new sentence: "Except as provided in subparagraphs (C), (D), (E), and (F), a net operating loss for any taxable year ending after December 31, 1975, shall be a net operating loss carryover to each of the 7 taxable years following the taxable year of such loss.”

(b) Regulated Transportation Corporations.—

Post, p. 1755.

(1) In general.—Section 172(b)(1)(C) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new sentence: "For any taxable year ending after December 31, 1975, the preceding sentence shall be applied by substituting ‘9 taxable years’ for ‘7 taxable years’.”

(2) Conforming amendment.—Paragraph (3) of section 172(g), as amended by section 1901(a)(29) of this Act, is amended—

Post, p. 1769.

(A) by striking “and” at the end of subparagraph (A); and

(B) by striking the period at the end of subparagraph (B) and inserting in lieu thereof “and”; and

(C) by adding at the end thereof the following new subparagraph:

"(C) in the case of a net operating loss carryover from a loss year ending after December 31, 1975, subparagraphs (A) and (B) shall be applied by substituting ‘8th taxable year’ for the ‘6th taxable year’ and ‘9th taxable year’ for ‘7th taxable year.’”

(c) Election to Forego Carryback Period.—Section 172(b)(3), as amended by section 1901(a)(29) of this Act, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subparagraph:

"(E) Any taxpayer entitled to a carryback period under paragraph (1) may elect to relinquish the entire carryback period with respect to a net operating loss for any taxable year ending after December 31, 1975. Such election shall be made in such manner as may be prescribed by the Secretary, and shall be made by the due date (including extensions of time) for filing the taxpayer’s return for the taxable year of the net operating loss for which the election is to be in effect. Such election, once made for any taxable year, shall be irrevocable for that taxable year.”

(d) Insurance Companies.—

(1) Life insurance companies.—

26 USC 812.

(A) In general.—Paragraph (1) of section 812(b) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new sentence:

"In the case of an operations loss for any taxable year ending after December 31, 1975, this paragraph shall be applied by substituting ‘7 taxable years’ for ‘5 taxable years.’”

(B) Election to forego carryback periods.—Section 812(b) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

"(3) Election for operations loss carrybacks.—In the case of a loss from operations for any taxable year ending after December 31, 1975, the taxpayer may elect to relinquish the entire carry-back period for such loss. Such election shall be made by the due date (including extensions of time) for filing the return for the taxable year of the loss from operations for which the election is to be in effect, and once made for any taxable year, such election shall be irrevocable for that taxable year."

(2) Mutual Insurance Companies.—

(A) In general.—Section 825(d) is amended to read as follows:

"(d) Years to Which Carried.—

"(1) In general.—The unused loss for any taxable year shall be—"(A) an unused loss carryback to each of the 3 taxable years preceding the loss year, and

"(B) an unused loss carryover to each of the 5 taxable years following the loss year.

In the case of an unused loss for a taxable year ending after December 31, 1975, such unused loss shall be an unused loss carryover to each of the 7 taxable years following the loss year.

"(2) Election for Unused Loss Carrybacks.—In the case of an unused loss for any taxable year ending after December 31, 1975, the taxpayer may elect to relinquish the entire carryback period for such loss. Such election shall be made by the due date (including extensions of time) for filing the return for the taxable year of the unused loss for which the election is to be in effect, and once made for any taxable year, such election shall be irrevocable for that taxable year."

(e) Amendment of Section 382.—Section 382 (relating to special limitations on net operating loss carryovers) is hereby amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 382. SPECIAL LIMITATIONS ON NET OPERATING LOSS CARRYOVER.

"(a) Certain Acquisitions of Stock of a Corporation.—

"(1) In general.—If—

"(A) on the last day of a taxable year of a corporation,

"(B) any one or more of the persons described in paragraph (4)(B) own, directly or indirectly, a percentage of the total fair market value of the participating stock or of all the stock of the corporation which exceeds by more than 60 percentage points the percentage of such stock owned by such person or persons at—

"(i) the beginning of such taxable year, or

"(ii) the beginning of the first or second preceding taxable year, and

"(C) such increase in percentage points is attributable to—

"(i) a purchase by such person or persons of such stock, or of the stock of another corporation owning stock in such corporation, or of an interest in a partnership or trust owning stock in such corporation,

"(ii) an acquisition (by contribution, merger, or consolidation) of an interest in a partnership owning stock in such corporation, or an acquisition (by contribution, merger, or consolidation) by a partnership of such stock,

"(iii) an exchange to which section 351 (relating to transfer to corporation controlled by transferor) applies, or an acquisition by a corporation of such stock in an exchange in which section 351 applies to the transferor, “(iv) a contribution to the capital of such corporation, “(v) a decrease in the amount of such stock outstanding or in the amount of stock outstanding of another corporation owning stock in such corporation (except a decrease resulting from a redemption to pay death taxes to which section 303 applies), “(vi) a liquidation of the interest of a partner in a partnership owning stock in such corporation, or “(vii) any combination of the transactions described in clauses (i) through (vi), then the net operating loss carryover, if any, from such taxable year and the net operating loss carryovers, if any, from prior taxable years to such taxable year and subsequent taxable years of such corporation shall be reduced by the percentage determined under paragraph (2), “(2) REDUCTION OF NET OPERATING LOSS CARRYOVER.—The reduction applicable under paragraph (1) shall be the sum of the percentages determined by multiplying—
“(A) by three and one-half the increase in percentage points (including fractions thereof) in excess of 60 and up to and including 80, and “(B) by one and one-half the increase in percentage points (including fractions thereof) in excess of 80.
The reduction under this paragraph shall be determined by ref-ence to the increase in percentage points of the total fair market value of the participating stock or of all the stock, whichever increase is greater.
“(3) MINIMUM OWNERSHIP RULE.—Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (1), a net operating loss carryover from a taxable year shall not be reduced under this subsection if, at all times during the last half of such taxable year, any of the persons described in paragraph (4) (B) (determined on the last day of the taxable year referred to in paragraph (1) (A)) owned at least 40 percent of the total fair market value of the participating stock and of all the stock of the corporation. For purposes of the preceding sentence, persons owning stock of a corporation on the last day of its first taxable year shall be considered to have owned such stock at all times during the last half of such first taxable year.
“(4) OPERATING RULES.—For purposes of this subsection—“(A) DEFINITION OF PURCHASE.—The term ‘purchase’ means an acquisition of stock the basis of which is determined by reference to its cost to the holder thereof.
“(B) DESCRIPTION OF PERSON OR PERSONS.—The person or persons referred to in paragraph (1) (B) shall be the 15 persons (or such lesser number as there are persons owning the stock on the last day of the taxable year) who own the greatest percentage of the total fair market value of all the stock on the last day of that year, except that if any other person owns the same percentage of such stock at such time as is owned by one of the 15 persons, that other person shall also be included. If any of the persons are so related that the stock owned by one is attributed to the other under the rules specified in subparagraph (C), such persons shall be considered as only one person solely for the purpose of selecting the 15 persons (more or less) who own the greatest percentage of the total fair market value of all the stock.
“(C) CONSTRUCTIVE OWNERSHIP.—Section 318 (relating to constructive ownership of stock) shall apply in determining the ownership of stock, except that section 318(a)(2)(C) and 318(a)(3)(C) shall be applied without regard to the 50 percent limitation contained therein.

“(D) SHORT TAXABLE YEARS.—If one of the taxable years of the corporation referred to in paragraph (1)(B) is a short taxable year, then such paragraph and paragraph (6) shall be applied by substituting ‘first, second, or third’ for ‘first or second’ each time such phrase occurs.

“(5) EXCEPTIONS.—This subsection shall not apply to a purchase or other acquisition of stock (or of an interest in a partnership or trust owning stock in the corporation)—

“(A) from a person whose ownership of stock would be attributed to the holder by application of paragraph (4)(C) to the extent that such stock would be so attributed;

“(B) if (and to the extent) the basis thereof is determined under section 1014 or 1023 (relating to property acquired from a decedent), or section 1015(a) or (b) (relating to property acquired by gift or transfers in trust);

“(C) by a security holder or creditor in exchange for the relinquishment or extinguishment in whole or part of a claim against the corporation, unless the claim was acquired for the purpose of acquiring such stock;

“(D) by one or more persons who were full-time employees of the corporation at all times during the period of 36 months ending on the last day of the taxable year of the corporation (or at all times during the period of the corporation’s existence, if shorter);

“(E) by a trust described in section 401(a) which is exempt from tax under section 501(a) and which benefits exclusively the employees (or their beneficiaries) of the corporation, including a member of a controlled group of corporations (within the meaning of section 1563(a) determined without regard to section 1563(a)(4) and (e)(3)(C)) which includes such corporation;

“(F) by an employee stock ownership plan meeting the requirements of section 301(d) of the Tax Reduction Act of 1975; or “(G) in a recapitalization described in section 368(a)(1)(E).

“(6) SUCCESSIVE APPLICATIONS OF SUBSECTION.—If—

“(A) a net operating loss carryover is reduced under this subsection at the end of a taxable year of a corporation, and

“(B) any person described in paragraph (4)(B) who owns stock of the corporation on the last day of such taxable year does not own, on the last day of the first or second succeeding taxable year of the corporation, a greater percentage of the total fair market value of the participating stock or of all the stock of the corporation than such person owned on the last day of such taxable year;

then, for purposes of applying this subsection as of the end of the first or second succeeding taxable year (as the case may be), stock owned by such person at the end of such succeeding taxable year shall be considered owned by such person at the beginning of the first or second preceding taxable year. Other rules relating to stock in the corporation... to the manner and extent of successive applications of this section in the case of increases in ownership and transfers of stock by the persons described in paragraph (4) (B) shall be prescribed by regulations issued by the Secretary.

"(b) Reorganizations.—

"(1) In general.—If one corporation acquires the stock or assets of another corporation in a reorganization described in section 368 (a) (1), (A), (B), (C), (D) (but only if the requirements of section 354 (b) (1) are met), or (F), and if—

"(A) the acquiring or acquired corporation has a net operating loss for the taxable year which includes the date of the acquisition, or a net operating loss carryover from a prior taxable year to such taxable year, and

"(B) the shareholders (immediately before the reorganization) of such corporation (the "loss corporation"), as the result of owning stock of the loss corporation, own (immediately after the reorganization) less than 40 percent of the total fair market value of the participating stock or of all the stock of the acquiring corporation, then the net operating loss carryover (if any) of the loss corporation from the taxable year which includes the date of the acquisition, and the net operating loss carryovers (if any) of the loss corporation from prior taxable years to such taxable year and subsequent taxable years, shall be reduced by the percentage determined under paragraph (2).

"(2) Reduction of net operating loss carryover.—

"(A) Ownership of 20 percent or more.—If such shareholders own less than 40 percent, but not less than 20 percent, of the total fair market value of the participating stock or of all the stock of the acquiring corporation, the reduction applicable under paragraph (1) shall be the percentage equal to the number of percentage points (including fractions thereof) less than 40 percent, multiplied by three and one-half.

"(B) Ownership of less than 20 percent.—If such shareholders own less than 20 percent of the total fair market value of the acquiring corporation, the reduction applicable under paragraph (1) shall be the sum of—

"(i) the percentage that would be determined under subparagraph (A) if the shareholders owned 20 percent of such stock, plus

"(ii) the percentage equal to the number of percentage points (including fractions thereof) of such stock less than 20 percent, multiplied by one and one-half.

The reduction under this paragraph shall be determined by reference to the lesser of the percentage of the total fair market value of the participating stock or of all the stock of the acquiring corporation owned by such shareholders.

"(3) Losses of controlled corporations.—For purposes of this subsection—

"(A) Holding companies.—If, immediately before the reorganization, the acquiring or acquired corporation controls a corporation which has a net operating loss for the taxable year which includes the date of the acquisition, or a net operating loss carryover from a prior taxable year to such taxable year, the acquiring or acquired corporation, as the case may be, shall be treated as the loss corporation (whether or not such corporation is a loss corporation). The reduction, if any, so determined under paragraph (2) shall be applied to the losses of such controlled corporation.

"(B) Triangular reorganizations.—Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (5), if the shareholders of the loss corporation (immediately before the reorganization) own, as a result of the reorganization, stock in a corporation controlling the acquiring corporation, such shareholders shall be treated as owning (immediately after the reorganization) a percentage of the total fair market value of the participating stock and of all the stock of the acquiring corporation owned by the controlling corporation equal to the percentage of the total fair market value of the participating stock and of all the stock, respectively, of the controlling corporation owned by such shareholders.

"(4) Special rules.—For purposes of applying paragraph (1)(B)—

"(A) Certain related transactions.—If, immediately before the reorganization—

"(i) one or more shareholders of the loss corporation own stock of such corporation which such shareholder acquired during the 36-month period ending on the date of the acquisition in a transaction described in paragraph (1) or in subsection (a) (1) (C) (unless excepted by subsection (a) (5)), and

"(ii) such shareholders own more than 50 percent of the total fair market value of the stock of another corporation a party to the reorganization, or any such shareholder is a corporation controlled by another corporation a party to the reorganization, then such shareholders shall not be treated as shareholders of the loss corporation with respect to such stock.

"(B) Certain prior ownership of loss corporation.—If, immediately before the reorganization, the acquiring or acquired corporation owns stock of the loss corporation, then paragraph (1)(B) shall be applied by treating the shareholders of the loss corporation as owning an additional amount of the total fair market value of the participating stock and of all the stock of the acquiring corporation, as a result of owning stock in the loss corporation, equal to the total fair market value of the participating stock and of all the stock, respectively, of the loss corporation owned (immediately before the reorganization) by the acquiring or acquired corporation. This subparagraph shall not apply to stock of the loss corporation owned by the acquiring or acquired corporation if such stock was acquired by such corporation within the 36-month period ending on the date of the reorganization in a transaction described in subsection (a) (1) (C) (unless excepted by subsection (a) (5)); or to a reorganization described in section 368 (a) (1) (B) or (C) to the extent the acquired corporation does not distribute the stock received by it to its own shareholders.

"(C) Certain asset acquisitions.—If a loss corporation receives stock of the acquiring corporation in a reorganization described in section 368 (a) (1) (C) and does not distribute such stock to its shareholders, paragraph (1)(B) shall be applied by treating the shareholders of the loss corporation as owning (immediately after the reorganization) such undistributed stock in proportion to the fair market value of the stock which such shareholders own in the loss corporation.

"(5) Certain stock-for-stock reorganizations.—In the case of a reorganization described in section 368(a)(1)(B) in which the acquired corporation is a loss corporation—

26 USC 368.

"(A) Stock which is exchanged.—Paragraphs (1)(B) and (2) shall be applied by reference to the ownership of stock of the loss corporation (rather than the acquiring corporation) immediately after the reorganization. Shareholders of the loss corporation who exchange stock of the loss corporation shall be treated as owning (immediately after the reorganization) a percentage of the total fair market value of the participating stock and of all the stock of the loss corporation acquired in the exchange by the acquiring corporation which is equal to the percentage of the total fair market value of the participating stock and of all the stock, respectively, of the acquiring corporation owned (immediately after the reorganization) by such shareholders.

"(B) Stock which is not exchanged.—Stock of the loss corporation owned by shareholders immediately before the reorganization which was not exchanged in the reorganization shall be taken into account in applying paragraph (1)(B). For purposes of the preceding sentence, the acquiring corporation (or a corporation controlled by the acquiring corporation) shall not be treated as a shareholder of the loss corporation with respect to stock of the loss corporation acquired in a transaction described in paragraph (1), or in subsection (a)(1)(C) (unless excepted by subsection (a)(5)), during the 36-month period ending on the date of the exchange.

"(C) Triangular exchanges.—For purposes of applying the rules in this paragraph, if the shareholders of the loss corporation receive stock of a corporation controlling the acquiring corporation, such shareholders shall be treated as owning a percentage of the participating stock and of all the stock of the acquiring corporation owned by the controlling corporation equal to the percentage of the total fair market value of the participating stock and of all the stock, respectively, which such shareholders own of the controlling corporation immediately after the reorganization.

"(6) Exceptions.—The limitations in this subsection shall not apply—

"(A) if the same persons own substantially all the stock of the acquiring corporation and of the other corporation in substantially the same proportions; or

"(B) to a net operating loss carryover from a taxable year if the acquiring or acquired corporation owned at least 40 percent of the total fair market value of the participating stock and of all the stock of the loss corporation at all times during the last half of such taxable year.

For purposes of subparagraph (A), if the acquiring or acquired corporation is controlled by another corporation, the shareholders of the controlling corporation shall be considered as also owning the stock owned by the controlling corporation in that proportion which the total fair market value of the stock which each shareholder owns in the controlling corporation bears to the total fair market value of all the stock in the controlling corporation.

"(c) RULES RELATING TO STOCK.—For purposes of this section—

"(1) The term ‘stock’ means all shares of stock, except stock which—

“(A) is not entitled to vote,
“(B) is fixed and preferred as to dividends and does not participate in corporate growth to any significant extent,
“(C) has redemption and liquidation rights which do not exceed the paid-in capital or par value represented by such stock (except for a reasonable redemption premium in excess of such paid-in capital or par value), and “(D) is not convertible into another class of stock.

“(2) The term ‘participating stock’ means stock (including common stock) which represents an interest in the earnings and assets of the issuing corporation which is not limited to a stated amount of money or property or percentage of paid-in capital or par value, or by any similar formula.

“(3) The Secretary shall prescribe regulations under which—

“(A) stock or convertible securities shall be treated as stock or participating stock, or “(B) stock (however denoted) shall not be treated as stock or participating stock, by reason of conversion and call rights, rights in earnings and assets, priorities and preferences as to distributions of earnings or assets, and similar factors.”

(f) CONFORMING AMENDMENTS.—

(1) AMENDMENT OF SECTION 368.—Section 368(c) (relating to the definition of control) is amended by striking out “and this part,” and inserting in lieu thereof “this part, and part V.”

(2) AMENDMENT OF SECTION 383.—Section 383 (relating to special limitations on certain carryovers) is amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 383. SPECIAL LIMITATIONS ON UNUSED INVESTMENT CREDITS, WORK INCENTIVE PROGRAM CREDITS, FOREIGN TAXES, AND CAPITAL LOSSES.

“In the case of a change of ownership of a corporation in the manner described in section 382 (a) or (b), the limitations provided in section 382 in such cases with respect to net operating losses shall apply in the same manner, as provided under regulations prescribed by the Secretary, with respect to any unused investment credit of the corporation under section 46(b), to any unused work incentive program credit of the corporation under section 50A(b), to any excess foreign taxes of the corporation under section 904(d), and to any net capital loss of the corporation under section 1212.”

(g) EFFECTIVE DATE.—

(1) The amendments made by subsections (a), (b), (c), and (d) shall apply to losses incurred in taxable years ending after December 31, 1975.

(2) For purposes of applying sections 382(a) and 383 (as it relates to section 382(a)) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended by subsections (e) and (f), the amendments made by subsections (e) and (f) shall take effect for taxable years beginning after June 30, 1978, except that the beginning of the taxable years specified in clause (ii) of section 382(a)(1)(B) of such Code, as so amended, shall be considered to be the later of:
(A) the beginning of such taxable years, or
(B) January 1, 1978.

Sections 382(b) and 383 (as it relates to section 382(b)) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended by subsections (e) and (f), shall apply (and such sections as in effect prior to such amendment shall not apply) to reorganizations pursuant to a plan of reorganization adopted by one or more of the parties thereto on or after January 1, 1978. For purposes of the preceding sentence, a corporation shall be considered to have adopted a plan of reorganization on the date on which a resolution of the board of directors is passed adopting the plan or recommending its adoption to the shareholders, or on the date on which the shareholders approve the plan of reorganization, whichever is earlier.

In addition to any other vessel which may be deemed an "eligible vessel" and a "qualified vessel" under section 607 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936 (46 U.S.C. 1177), a commercial fishing vessel under five net tons but not under two net tons—
(1) which is constructed in the United States and, if reconstructed, is reconstructed in the United States;
(2) which is owned by a citizen of the United States;
(3) which has a home port in the United States; and
(4) which is operated in the commercial fisheries of the United States, shall be considered to be an "eligible vessel" and a "qualified vessel" for the purposes of such section 607.

TITLE IX—SMALL BUSINESS PROVISIONS

SEC. 901. EXTENSION OF CERTAIN CORPORATE INCOME TAX REDUCTIONS.

(a) In General.—Subsections (a), (b), (c), and (d) of section 11 (relating to tax imposed on corporations) are amended to read as follows:

"(a) Corporations in General.—A tax is hereby imposed for each taxable year on the taxable income of every corporation. The tax shall consist of a normal tax computed under subsection (b) and a surtax computed under subsection (c).

"(b) Normal Tax.—The normal tax is equal to—

"(1) in the case of a taxable year ending after December 31, 1977, 22 percent of the taxable income, and

"(2) in the case of a taxable year ending after December 31, 1974, and before January 1, 1978, the sum of—

"(A) 20 percent of so much of the taxable income as does not exceed $25,000, plus

"(B) 22 percent of so much of the taxable income as exceeds $25,000.

"(c) Surtax.—The surtax is 26 percent of the amount by which the taxable income exceeds the surtax exemption for the taxable year.

"(d) Surtax Exemption.—For purposes of this subtitle, the surtax exemption for any taxable year is—

"(1) $25,000 in the case of a taxable year ending after December 31, 1977, or

"(2) $50,000 in the case of a taxable year ending after December 31, 1974, and before January 1, 1978, except that, with respect to a corporation to which section 1561 (relating to certain multiple tax benefits in the case of certain controlled corporations) applies for the taxable year, the surtax exemption for the taxable year is the amount determined under such section.5

(b) MUTUAL INSURANCE COMPANIES.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Section 821(a) (1) (relating to mutual insurance companies) is amended to read as follows:

“(1) NORMAL TAX.—A normal tax equal to—

“(A) in the case of a taxable year ending after December 31, 1977, 22 percent of the mutual insurance company taxable income, or 44 percent of the amount by which such taxable income exceeds $6,000, whichever is lesser, or

“(B) in the case of a taxable year ending after December 31, 1974, and before January 1, 1978—

“(i) 20 percent of so much of the mutual insurance company taxable income as does not exceed $25,000, plus “(ii) 22 percent of so much of the mutual insurance company taxable income as exceeds $25,000, or 44 percent of the amount by which such taxable income exceeds $6,000, whichever is lesser; plus”.

(2) SMALL COMPANIES.—Section 821(c) (1) (A) (relating to alternative tax for certain small companies) is amended to read as follows:

“(A) NORMAL TAX.—A normal tax equal to—

“(i) in the case of a taxable year ending after December 31, 1977, 22 percent of the taxable investment income, or 44 percent of the amount by which such taxable income exceeds $3,000, whichever is lesser, or “(ii) in the case of a taxable year ending after December 31, 1974, and before January 1, 1978, 20 percent of so much of the taxable investment income as does not exceed $25,000, plus 22 percent of so much of the taxable investment income as exceeds $25,000, or 44 percent of the amount by which such taxable income exceeds $3,000, whichever is lesser; plus”.

(c) CONFORMING AMENDMENTS.—

(1) Section 1561(a) (relating to certain multiple tax benefits in the case of certain controlled corporations) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new sentence: “In applying section 11(b) (2), the first $25,000 of taxable income and the second $25,000 of taxable income shall each be allocated among the component members of a controlled group of corporations in the same manner as the surtax exemption is allocated.”

(2) Subsection (f) of section 21 (relating to change in surtax exemption treated as a change in a rate of tax) is amended by striking out “Tax Reduction Act of 1975” and all that follows and inserting in lieu thereof the following: “Tax Reduction Act of 1975 in the surtax exemption and any change under section 11(d) in the surtax exemption shall be treated as a change in a rate of tax.”

(3) Section 6154 (relating to installment payments of estimated income tax by corporations) is amended by striking out subsection (h).

(d) EFFECTIVE DATES.—The amendment made by subsection (a) shall take effect on December 23, 1975. The amendments made by subsection (b) shall apply to taxable years ending after December 31, 1974. The amendments made by subsection (c) shall apply to taxable years ending after December 31, 1975.

SEC. 902. CHANGES IN SUBCHAPTER S RULES.

(a) NUMBER OF SHAREHOLDERS.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Section 1371 (relating to the definition of small business corporation) is amended to read as follows:

“(1) have (except as provided in subsection (e)) more than 10 shareholders;”.

(2) SPECIAL SHAREHOLDER RULES.—Section 1371 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

“(e) SPECIAL SHAREHOLDER RULES.—

“(1) A small business corporation which has been an electing small business corporation for a period of five consecutive taxable years may not have more than 15 shareholders.

“(2) If, during the 5-year period set forth in paragraph (1), the number of shareholders of an electing small business corporation increases to an amount in excess of 10 (but not in excess of 15) solely by reason of additional shareholders who acquired their stock through inheritance, the corporation may have a number of additional shareholders equal to the number by which the inheriting shareholders cause the total number of shareholders of such corporation to exceed 10.”

(b) DISTRIBUTIONS BY SUBCHAPTER S CORPORATIONS.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Section 1377 (relating to special rules applicable to earnings and profits of electing small business corporations) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

“(d) DISTRIBUTIONS OF UNDISTRIBUTED TAXABLE INCOME PREVIOUSLY TAXED TO SHAREHOLDERS.—For purposes of determining whether a distribution by an electing small business corporation constitutes a distribution of such corporation’s undistributed taxable income previously taxed to shareholders (as provided for in section 1375(d)), the earnings and profits of such corporation for the taxable year in which the distribution is made shall be computed without regard to section 312(m). Such computation shall be made without regard to section 312(m) only for such purposes.”

(c) ADDITIONAL CHANGES IN SUBCHAPTER S RULES.—

(1) ESTATE OF DECEASED SPOUSE NOT TO BE TREATED AS SHAREHOLDER.—Subsection (c) of section 1371 (relating to stock owned by husband and wife) is amended to read as follows:

“(c) STOCK OWNED BY HUSBAND AND WIFE.—For purposes of subsection (a) (1) stock which—

“(1) is community property of a husband and wife (or the income from which is community income) under the applicable community property law of a State,

“(2) is held by a husband and wife as joint tenants, tenants by the entirety, or tenants in common,

“(3) was, on the date of death of a spouse, stock described in paragraph (1) or (2), and is, by reason of such death, held by the estate of the deceased spouse and the surviving spouse, or by the estates of both spouses (by reason of their deaths on the same date), in the same proportion as held by the spouses before such death, or “(4) was, on the date of the death of a surviving spouse, stock described in paragraph (3), and is, by reason of such death, held by the estates of both spouses in the same proportion as held by the spouses before their deaths, shall be treated as owned by one shareholder.”

(2) BROADENING CLASSES OF PERMISSIBLE SHAREHOLDERS TO INCLUDE CERTAIN TRUSTS.

(A) Section 1371 (relating to definitions for purposes of subchapter S) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

“(f) CERTAIN TRUSTS PERMITTED AS SHAREHOLDERS.—For purposes of subsection (a), the following trusts may be shareholders:

“(1) A trust all of which is treated as owned by the grantor under subpart E of part I of subchapter J of this chapter.

“(2) A trust created primarily to exercise the voting power of stock transferred to it.

“(3) Any trust with respect to stock transferred to it pursuant to the terms of a will, but only for the 60-day period beginning on the day on which such stock is transferred to it.

In the case of a trust described in paragraph (2), each beneficiary of the trust shall, for purposes of subsection (a)(1), be treated as a shareholder.”

(B) Paragraph (2) of section 1371(a) is amended by striking out “(other than an estate)” and inserting in lieu thereof “(other than an estate and other than a trust described in subsection (f))”.

(3) NEW SHAREHOLDERS MUST AFFIRMATIVELY ELECT TO TERMINATE ELECTION.—Paragraph (1) of section 1372(e) (relating to termination of election) is amended to read as follows:

“(1) NEW SHAREHOLDERS.

“(A) An election under subsection (a) made by a small business corporation shall terminate if any person who was not a shareholder in such corporation—

“(i) on the first day of the first taxable year of the corporation for which the election is effective, if such election is made on or before such first day, or “(ii) on the day on which the election is made, if such election is made after such first day, becomes a shareholder in such corporation and affirmatively refuses (in such manner as the Secretary shall by regulations prescribe) to consent to such election on or before the 60th day after the day on which he acquires the stock.

“(B) If the person acquiring the stock is the estate of a decedent, the period under subparagraph (A) for affirmatively refusing to consent to the election shall expire on the 60th day after whichever of the following is the earlier:

“(i) The day on which the executor or administrator of the estate qualifies; or

“(ii) The last day of the taxable year of the corporation in which the decedent died.

“(C) Any termination of an election under subparagraph
(A) by reason of the affirmative refusal of any person to consent to such election shall be effective for the taxable year of the corporation in which such person becomes a shareholder in the corporation and for all succeeding taxable years of the corporation.”.

(4) Effective date.—The amendments made by this subsection shall apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1976.

TITLE X—CHANGES IN THE TREATMENT OF FOREIGN INCOME

PART I—FOREIGN TAX PROVISIONS AFFECTING INDIVIDUALS ABROAD

SEC. 1011. INCOME EARNED ABROAD BY UNITED STATES CITIZENS LIVING OR RESIDING ABROAD.

(a) Reduction of limitations on amount excludable.—Paragraph (1) of section 911(c) relating to limitations on amount of exclusion) is amended to read as follows:

"(1) Limitations on amount of exclusion.—

"(A) In general.—Except as provided in subparagraphs (B) and (C), the amount excluded from the gross income of an individual under subsection (a) for any taxable year shall not exceed an amount which shall be computed on a daily basis at an annual rate of $15,000.

"(B) Employees of charitable organizations.—If any individual performs qualified charitable services during any taxable year, the amount of the earned income attributable to such services excluded from the gross income of the individual under subsection (a) for the taxable year shall not exceed an amount which shall be computed on a daily basis at an annual rate of $20,000.

"(C) Special rule.—If any individual performs qualified charitable services and other services during any taxable year, the amount of the earned income attributable to such other services excluded from the gross income of the individual under subsection (a) for the taxable year shall not exceed an amount which shall be computed on a daily basis at an annual rate of $15,000 reduced by the amount of the earned income attributable to qualified charitable services excluded from gross income under subsection (a) for the taxable year.

"(D) Qualified charitable services.—For purposes of this subsection, the term ‘qualified charitable services’ means services performed by an employee for an employer created or organized in the United States, or under the law of the United States, any State, or the District of Columbia, which meets the requirements of section 501(c)(3)."

(b) Additional limitations on exclusion.—

(1) Disallowance of foreign tax credit with respect to excluded amounts.—The last sentence of subsection (a) of section 911 (relating to earned income from sources without the United States) is amended to read as follows:

"An individual shall not be allowed as a deduction from his gross income any deductions (other than those allowed by section 151, relating to personal exemptions), or as a credit against the tax imposed by this chapter any credit for the amount of taxes paid or accrued to a foreign country or possession of the United States, to the extent that such deductions or credit is properly allocable to or chargeable against amounts excluded from gross income under this subsection."
(2) DISALLOWANCE OF EXCLUSION FOR INCOME RECEIVED OTHER THAN IN COUNTRY WHERE EARNED.—Section 911(c) (relating to special rules for earned income from sources without the United States) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

"(8) REQUIREMENT AS TO PLACE OF RECEIPT.—No amount received by an individual during the taxable year which constitutes earned income (entitled to the exclusion under subsection (a)) attributable to services performed in a foreign country or countries shall be excluded under subsection (a) if such amount is received by such individual outside of the foreign country or countries where such services were performed and if one of the purposes is the avoidance of any tax imposed by such foreign country or countries on such amount."

(3) INCLUSION OF EARNED INCOME IN COMPUTATION OF RATE OF TAX.—Section 911 (relating to earned income from sources without the United States) is amended by redesignating subsection (d) as subsection (f) and by inserting after subsection (c) the following new subsections:

"(d) AMOUNT EXCLUDED UNDER SUBSECTION (a) INCLUDED IN COMPUTATION OF TAX.—

"(1) COMPUTATION OF TAX.—If for any taxable year an individual has earned income which is excluded from gross income under subsection (a), the tax imposed by section 1 or section 1201 shall be the excess of—

"(A) the tax imposed by section 1 or section 1201 (whichever is applicable) on the amount of net taxable income, over

"(B) the tax imposed by section 1 or section 1201 (whichever is applicable) on the amount of net excluded earned income.

"(2) DEFINITIONS.—For purposes of this subsection—

"(A) the term `net taxable income' means an amount equal to the sum of the amount of taxable income for the taxable year plus the amount of net excluded earned income of such individual for such taxable year; and

"(B) the term `net excluded earned income' means the excess of the amount of earned income excluded under subsection (a) for the taxable year over the amount of the deductions disallowed with respect to such excluded earned income for such taxable year under subsection (a).

"(e) SECTION NOT TO APPLY.—

"(1) IN GENERAL.—An individual entitled to the benefits of this section for a taxable year may elect, in such manner and at such time as shall be prescribed by the Secretary, not to have the provisions of this section apply.

"(2) EFFECT OF ELECTION.—An election under paragraph (1) shall apply to the taxable year for which made and to all subsequent taxable years. Such election may not be revoked except with the consent of the Secretary.

(c) ALLOWANCE OF FOREIGN TAX CREDITS TO INDIVIDUALS TAKING STANDARD DEDUCTION.—Section 36 (relating to credits not allowed to individuals paying optional tax or taking standard deduction) is amended by striking out “sections 32, 33, and” and inserting in lieu thereof “sections 32 and”.

(d) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendments made by this section shall apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1975.
SEC. 1012. INCOME TAX TREATMENT OF NONRESIDENT ALIEN INDIVIDUALS WHO ARE MARRIED TO CITIZENS OR RESIDENTS OF THE UNITED STATES.

(a) Election To Be Treated as Residents of the United States.—

26 USC 6013.

(1) In General.—Section 6013 (relating to joint returns of income tax by husband and wife) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsections:

“(g) Election To Treat Nonresident Alien Individual as Resident of the United States.—

“(1) In General.—A nonresident alien individual with respect to whom this subsection is in effect for the taxable year shall be treated as a resident of the United States for purposes of chapter 1 for all of such taxable year.

“(2) Individuals with Respect to Whom This Subsection Is in Effect.—This subsection shall be in effect with respect to any individual who, at the time an election was made under this subsection, was a nonresident alien individual married to a citizen or resident of the United States, if both of them made such election to have the benefits of this subsection apply to them.

“(3) Duration of Election.—An election under this subsection shall apply to the taxable year for which made and to all subsequent taxable years until terminated under paragraph (4) or (5); except that any such election shall not apply for any taxable year if neither spouse is a citizen or resident of the United States at any time during such year.

“(4) Termination of Election.—An election under this subsection shall terminate at the earliest of the following times:

“(A) Revocation by Taxpayers.—If either taxpayer revokes the election, as of the first taxable year for which the last day prescribed by law for filing the return of tax under chapter 1 has not yet occurred.

“(B) Death.—In the case of the death of either spouse, as of the beginning of the first taxable year of the spouse who survives following the taxable year in which such death occurred; except that if the spouse who survives is a citizen or resident of the United States who is a surviving spouse entitled to the benefits of section 2, the time provided by this subparagraph shall be as of the close of the last taxable year for which such individual is entitled to the benefits of section 2.

“(C) Legal Separation.—In the case of the legal separation of the couple under a decree of divorce or of separate maintenance, as of the beginning of the taxable year in which such legal separation occurs.

“(D) Termination by Secretary.—At the time provided in paragraph (5).

“(5) Termination by Secretary.—The Secretary may terminate any election under this subsection for any taxable year if he determines that either spouse has failed—

“(A) to keep such books and records,

“(B) to grant such access to such books and records, or

“(C) to supply such other information, as may be reasonably necessary to ascertain the amount of liability for taxes under chapter 1 of either spouse for such taxable year.

“(6) Only one election.—If any election under this subsection for any two individuals is terminated under paragraph (4) or (5) for any taxable year, such two individuals shall be ineligible to make an election under this subsection for any subsequent taxable year.

“(h) Joint return, etc., for year in which nonresident alien becomes resident of United States.—

“(1) In general.—If—

“(A) any individual is a nonresident alien individual at the beginning of any taxable year but is a resident of the United States at the close of such taxable year,

“(B) at the close of such taxable year, such individual is married to a citizen or resident of the United States, and “(C) both individuals elect the benefits of this subsection at the time and in the manner prescribed by the Secretary by regulation, then the individual referred to in subparagraph (A) shall be treated as a resident of the United States for purposes of chapter 1 for all of such taxable year.

“(2) Only one election.—If any election under this subsection applies for any 2 individuals for any taxable year, such 2 individuals shall be ineligible to make an election under this subsection for any subsequent taxable year.”

(2) Clerical amendment.—Section 6013(g) (relating to cross references) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

“(7) For election to treat married nonresident alien individual as resident of United States in certain cases, see subsections (a) and (b) of section 6013.”

(b) Tax treatment of certain community income in the case of a resident or citizen of the United States who is married to a nonresident alien individual.—

(1) In general.—Subpart A of part II of subchapter N of chapter 1 (relating to nonresident alien individuals) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

“SEC. 879. TAX TREATMENT OF CERTAIN COMMUNITY INCOME IN THE CASE OF A RESIDENT OR CITIZEN OF THE UNITED STATES WHO IS MARRIED TO A NONRESIDENT ALIEN INDIVIDUAL.

“(a) General rule.—In the case of a citizen or resident of the United States who is married to a nonresident alien individual and who has community income for the taxable year, such community income shall be treated as follows:

“(1) Earned income (within the meaning of section 911(b)), other than trade or business income and a partner’s distributive share of partnership income, shall be treated as the income of the spouse who rendered the personal services,

“(2) Trade or business income, and a partner’s distributive share of partnership income, shall be treated as provided in section 1402(a)(5),

“(3) Community income not described in paragraph (1) or (2) which is derived from the separate property (as determined under the applicable community property law) of one spouse shall be treated as the income of such spouse, and “(4) All other such community income shall be treated as provided in the applicable community property law.

Ante, p. 1612.

“(b) Exception Where Election Under Section 6013(g) Is in Effect.—Subsection (a) shall not apply for any taxable year for which an election under subsection (g) or (h) of section 6013 (relating to election to treat nonresident alien individual as resident of the United States) is in effect.

“(c) Definitions and Special Rules.—For purposes of this section—

“(1) Community Income.—The term ‘community income’ means income which, under applicable community property laws, is treated as community income.

“(2) Community Property Laws.—The term ‘community property laws’ means the community property laws of a State, a foreign country, or a possession of the United States.

“(3) Determination of Marital Status.—The determination of marital status shall be made under section 143(a).”

26 USC 981.

(2) Repeal of Section 981.—Subpart II of part III of subchapter N of chapter 1 (relating to election as to treatment of income subject to foreign community property laws) is hereby repealed.

(3) Clerical Amendments.—

(A) The table of sections for subpart A of part II of subchapter N of chapter 1 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new item:

“Sec. 879. Tax treatment of certain community income in the case of a resident or citizen of the United States who is married to a nonresident alien individual.”

(B) The table of subparts for part III of subchapter N of chapter 1 is amended by striking out the item relating to subpart G.

(c) Due Date for Filing Estimated Tax Returns in the Case of Certain Nonresident Aliens.—Subsection (a) of section 6073 (relating to time for filing declarations of estimated tax by individuals) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following sentence:

“In the case of a nonresident alien described in section 6072(c), the requirements of section 6015 shall be deemed to be first met no earlier than after April 1 and before June 2 of the taxable year.”.

(d) Effective Dates.—The amendments made by subsection (a) shall apply to taxable years ending on or after December 31, 1975. The amendments made by subsections (b) and (c) shall apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1976.

“Sec. 1013. Foreign Trusts Having One or More United States Beneficiaries to Be Taxed Currently to Grantor.

(a) Taxation of Income to Grantor of Trust.—Subpart E of part I of subchapter J of chapter 1 (relating to grantors and others treated as substantial owners) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

26 USC 679.

“Sec. 679. Foreign Trusts Having One or More United States Beneficiaries.

(a) Transferor Treated as Owner.—

“(1) In General.—A United States person who directly or indirectly transfers property to a foreign trust (other than a trust described in section 404(a)(4)) shall be treated as the owner for his taxable year of the portion of such trust attributable to such property if for such year there is a United States beneficiary of any portion of such trust.

“(A) Transfers by reason of death.—To any transfer by reason of the death of the transferor.

“(B) Transfers where gain is recognized to transferor.—To any sale or exchange of the property at its fair market value in a transaction in which all of the gain to the transferor is realized at the time of the transfer and is recognized either at such time or is returned as provided in section 453.

“(b) Trusts Acquiring United States Beneficiaries.—If—

“(1) subsection (a) applies to a trust for the transferor’s taxable year, and

“(2) subsection (a) would have applied to the trust for his immediately preceding taxable year but for the fact that for such preceding taxable year there was no United States beneficiary for any portion of the trust, then, for purposes of this subtitle, the transferor shall be treated as having income for the taxable year (in addition to his other income for such year) equal to the undistributed net income (at the close of such immediately preceding taxable year) attributable to the portion of the trust referred to in subsection (a).

“(1) In general.—For purposes of this section, a trust shall be treated as having a United States beneficiary for the taxable year unless—

“(A) under the terms of the trust, no part of the income or corpus of the trust may be paid or accumulated during the taxable year to or for the benefit of a United States person, and

“(B) if the trust were terminated at any time during the taxable year, no part of the income or corpus of such trust could be paid to or for the benefit of a United States person.

“(2) Attribution of ownership.—For purposes of paragraph (1), an amount shall be treated as paid or accumulated to or for the benefit of a United States person if such amount is paid to or accumulated for a foreign corporation, foreign partnership, foreign trust or estate, and—

“(A) in the case of a foreign corporation, more than 50 percent of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock entitled to vote of such corporation is owned (within the meaning of section 958(a)) or is considered to be owned (within the meaning of section 958(b)) by United States shareholders (as defined in section 951(b)),

“(B) in the case of a foreign partnership, a United States person is a partner of such partnership, or

“(C) in the case of a foreign trust or estate, such trust or estate has a United States beneficiary (within the meaning of paragraph (1)).”.

(b) Grantor To Be Treated as Owner.—Subsection (b) of section 678 (relating to persons other than grantors treated as substantial owners) is amended by striking out everything after “modified,” and inserting in lieu thereof “if the grantor of the trust or a transferor (to whom section 679 applies) is otherwise treated as the owner under the provisions of this subpart other than this section.”.

(c) Treatment of Capital Gains and Losses of Certain Foreign Trusts.—

(1) Foreign trusts created by United States persons treated like other foreign trusts.—Subparagraph (C) of section 643
(a) (6) (relating to distributable net income in case of foreign trusts) is amended by striking out “foreign trust created by a United States person” and inserting in lieu thereof “foreign trust.”

26 USC 643.

(2) TRANSITIONAL RULE FOR FOREIGN TRUSTS.—Section 643(a) (6) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subparagraph:

“(D) Effective for distributions made in taxable years beginning after December 31, 1975, the undistributed net income of each foreign trust for each taxable year beginning on or before December 31, 1975, remaining undistributed at the close of the last taxable year beginning on or before December 31, 1975, shall be redetermined by taking into account the deduction allowed by section 1202.”

(d) RETURNS FOR FOREIGN TRUSTS HAVING ONE OR MORE UNITED STATES BENEFICIARIES.—

26 USC 6048.

(1) Section 6048 (relating to returns as to creation of or transfers to certain foreign trusts) is amended by redesignating subsection (c) as subsection (d) and by inserting after subsection (b) the following new subsection:

“(c) ANNUAL RETURNS FOR FOREIGN TRUSTS HAVING ONE OR MORE UNITED STATES BENEFICIARIES.—Each taxpayer subject to tax under section 679 (relating to foreign trusts having one or more United States beneficiaries) for his taxable year with respect to any trust shall make a return with respect to such trust for such year at such time and in such manner, and setting forth such information, as the Secretary may by regulations prescribe.”

26 USC 6677.

(2) Section 6677(a) (relating to failure to file information returns with respect to certain foreign trusts) is amended by striking out “to a trust” and inserting in lieu thereof “to a trust (or, in the case of a failure with respect to section 6048(c), equal to 5 percent of the value of the corpus of the trust at the close of the taxable year)”.

(e) CONFORMING AMENDMENTS.—

(1) The table of sections for subpart E of part I of subchapter J of chapter 1 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new item:

“Sec. 679. Foreign trusts having one or more United States beneficiaries.”

26 USC 643.

(2) Subsection (d) of section 643 is hereby repealed.

26 USC 6048.

(3) Subsection (d) of section 6048 (as redesignated by subsection (d)) is amended to read as follows:

“(d) CROSS REFERENCE.—

“for provisions relating to penalties for violation of this section, see sections 6677 and 7203.”

(4) The heading of section 6048 is amended to read as follows:

“SEC. 6048. RETURNS AS TO CERTAIN FOREIGN TRUSTS.”

26 USC 6041.

(5) The table of sections for subpart B of part III of subchapter A of chapter 61 is amended by striking out the item relating to section 6048 and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

“Sec. 6048. Returns as to certain foreign trusts.”

26 USC 679 note.

(1) In general.—The amendments made by this section (other than subsection (c)) shall apply to taxable years ending after December 31, 1973, but only in the case of—
(A) foreign trusts created after May 21, 1974, and
(B) transfers of property to foreign trusts after May 21, 1974.

(2) Changes in capital gain rules for foreign trusts.—The amendments made by subsection (c) shall apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1975.

SEC. 1014. INTEREST CHARGE ON ACCUMULATION DISTRIBUTIONS FROM FOREIGN TRUSTS.

(a) Tax to include special interest charge.—Section 667(a) (as amended by section 701 of this Act) is amended by striking out “and” at the end of paragraph (1), by striking out the period at the end of paragraph (2) and inserting in lieu thereof “, and”, and by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

“(3) in the case of a foreign trust, the interest charge determined as provided in section 668.”

(b) Computation of special interest charge.—Subpart D of part I of subchapter J of chapter 1 (relating to treatment of excess distributions by trusts) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

“(a) General rule.—For purposes of the tax determined under section 667(a), the interest charge is an amount equal to 6 percent of the partial tax computed under section 667(b) multiplied by a fraction—

“(1) the numerator of which is the sum of the number of taxable years between each taxable year to which the distribution is allocated under section 666 (a) and the taxable year of the distribution (counting in each case the taxable year to which the distribution is allocated but not counting the taxable year of the distribution), and

“(2) the denominator of which is the number of taxable years to which the distribution is allocated under section 666(a).

“(b) Limitation.—The total amount of the interest charge shall not, when added to the total partial tax computed under section 667(b), exceed the amount of the accumulation distribution (other than the amount of tax deemed distributed by section 666 (b) or (c)) in respect of which such partial tax was determined.

“(c) Special rules.—

“(1) Interest charge not deductible.—The interest charge determined under this section shall not be allowed as a deduction for purposes of any tax imposed by this title.

“(2) Transientional rule.—For purposes of this section, undistributed net income existing in a trust as of January 1, 1977, shall be treated as allocated under section 666 (a) to the first taxable year beginning after December 31, 1976.”

(c) Clerical amendment.—The table of sections for subpart D of part I of subchapter J of chapter 1 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new item:

Sec. 668. Interest charge on accumulation distributions from foreign trusts.”

(d) Effective date.—The amendments made by this section shall apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1976.

SEC. 1015. EXCISE TAX ON TRANSFERS OF PROPERTY TO FOREIGN PERSONS TO AVOID FEDERAL INCOME TAX.

(a) Amendment of section 1491.—Section 1491 (relating to imposition of tax) is amended to read as follows:
There is hereby imposed on the transfer of property by a citizen or resident of the United States, or by a domestic corporation or partnership, or by a trust which is not a foreign trust, to a foreign corporation as paid-in surplus or as a contribution to capital, or to a foreign trust, or to a foreign partnership, an excise tax equal to 35 percent of the excess of—

“(1) the fair market value of the property so transferred, over
“(2) the sum of—
“(A) the adjusted basis (for determining gain) of such property in the hands of the transferor, plus
“(B) the amount of the gain recognized to the transferor at the time of the transfer.”

(b) Amendments of Section 1492.—Section 1492 (relating to non-taxable transfers) is amended—

(1) by striking out in paragraph (3) “section 367(d) applies.” and inserting in lieu thereof “section 367 applies; or” and

(2) by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

“(4) To a transfer for which an election has been made under section 1057.”

(c) Election To Treat As Taxable Exchange.—Part IV of subchapter O of chapter 1 (relating to special rules for determining gain or loss on disposition of property) is amended by redesignating section 1057 as section 1058 and by inserting after section 1056 the following new section:

“Election to treat transfer to foreign trust, etc., as taxable exchange.

In lieu of payment of the tax imposed by section 1491, the taxpayer may elect (for purposes of this subtitle), at such time and in such manner as the Secretary may prescribe, to treat a transfer described in section 1491 as a sale or exchange of property for an amount equal in value to the fair market value of the property transferred and to recognize as gain the excess of—

“(1) the fair market value of the property so transferred, over
“(2) the adjusted basis (for determining gain) of such property in the hands of the transferor.”.

(c) Clerical Amendment.—The table of sections for part IV of subchapter O of chapter 1 is amended by striking out the last item thereof and inserting in lieu thereof:

“Sec. 1057. Election to treat transfer to foreign trust, etc., as taxable exchange.

Sec. 1058. Cross references.”

(d) Effective Date.—The amendments made by this section shall apply to transfers of property after October 2, 1975.

PART II—AMENDMENTS AFFECTING TAX TREATMENT OF CONTROLLED FOREIGN CORPORATIONS AND THEIR SHAREHOLDERS

SEC. 1021. AMENDMENT OF PROVISION RELATING TO INVESTMENT IN UNITED STATES PROPERTY BY CONTROLLED FOREIGN CORPORATIONS.

(a) Exceptions to Definition of United States Property.—Section 956(b)(2) (relating to exceptions to definition of United States property) is amended by striking out “and” at the end of sub-paragraph (E), by redesignating subparagraph (F) as subparagraph (H), and by inserting after subparagraph (E) the following new subparagraphs:

"(F) the stock or obligations of a domestic corporation which is neither a United States shareholder (as defined in section 951(b)) of the controlled foreign corporation, nor a domestic corporation, 25 percent or more of the total combined voting power of which, immediately after the acquisition of any stock in such domestic corporation by the controlled foreign corporation, is owned, or is considered as being owned, by such United States shareholders in the aggregate;

"(G) any movable property (other than a vessel or aircraft) which is used for the purpose of exploring for, developing, removing, or transporting resources from ocean waters or under such waters when used on the Continental Shelf of the United States; and".

(b) CONSTRUCTIVE OWNERSHIP OF STOCK.—Section 958(b) (relating to rules for determining stock ownership) is amended—

(1) by striking out "954(d)(3)," the first place it appears and inserting in lieu thereof "954(d)(3), 956(b)(2),"; and

(2) by striking out "954(d)(3)," the second place it appears and inserting in lieu thereof "954(d)(3), to treat the stock of a domestic corporation as owned by a United States shareholder of the controlled foreign corporation for purposes of section 956(b)(2),"; and

(3) by adding at the end thereof the following new sentence:

"Paragraphs (1) and (4) shall not apply for purposes of section 956(b) to treat stock of a domestic corporation as not owned by a United States shareholder."

(c) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendments made by this section shall apply to taxable years of foreign corporations beginning after December 31, 1975, and to taxable years of United States shareholders (within the meaning of section 951(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954) within which or with which such taxable years of such foreign corporations end. In determining for purposes of any taxable year referred to in the preceding sentence the amount referred to in section 956(a)(2)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 for the last taxable year of a corporation beginning before January 1, 1976, the amendments made by this section shall be deemed also to apply to such last taxable year.

SEC. 1022. REPEAL OF EXCLUSION FOR EARNINGS OF LESS DEVELOPED COUNTRY CORPORATIONS FOR PURPOSES OF SECTION 1248.

(a) AMENDMENT OF SECTION 1248(d).—Paragraph (3) of section 1248(d) (relating to exclusion from earnings and profits of gain from certain sales or exchanges of stock in certain foreign corporations) is amended to read as follows:

"(3) LESS DEVELOPED COUNTRY CORPORATIONS UNDER PRIOR LAW.—Earnings and profits of a foreign corporation which were accumulated during any taxable year beginning before January 1, 1976, while such corporation was a less developed country corporation under section 902(d) as in effect before the enactment of the Tax Reduction Act of 1975.".

(b) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendment made by subsection (a) shall apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1975.
PUBLIC LAW 94-455—OCT. 4, 1976
SEC. 1023. EXCLUSION FROM SUBPART F OF CERTAIN EARNINGS OF INSURANCE COMPANIES.

26 USC 954. (a) In General.—Paragraph (3) of section 954(c) (relating to foreign personal holding company income) is amended by striking out "or" at the end of subparagraph (A), by striking out the period at the end of subparagraph (B) and inserting in lieu thereof "or", and by adding at the end thereof the following new subparagraph:

"(C) dividends, interest, and gains from the sale or exchange of stock or securities received from a person other than a related person (within the meaning of subsection (d)(3)) derived from investments made by an insurance company of an amount of its assets equal to one-third of its premiums earned on insurance contracts (other than life insurance and annuity contracts) during the taxable year (as defined in section 832(b)(4)) which are not directly or indirectly attributable to the insurance or reinsurance of risks of persons who are related persons (within the meaning of subsection (d)(3))."

26 USC 954 (b) Effective Date.—The amendment made by this section shall not apply to taxable years of foreign corporations beginning after December 31, 1975, and to taxable years of United States shareholders (within the meaning of section 951(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954) within which or with which such taxable years of such foreign corporations end.

SEC. 1024. SHIPPING PROFITS OF FOREIGN CORPORATIONS.

26 USC 954. (a) Certain Shipping Operations.—Subsection (b) of section 954 (relating to foreign base company income) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

"(7) Special exclusion for foreign base company shipping income.—Income of a corporation which is foreign base company shipping income under paragraph (4) of subsection (a) (determined without regard to the exclusion under paragraph (2) of this subsection) shall be excluded from foreign base company income if derived by a controlled foreign corporation from, or in connection with, the use (or hiring or leasing for use) of an aircraft or vessel in foreign commerce between two points within the foreign country in which such corporation is created or organized and such aircraft or vessel is registered."

26 USC 954 (b) Effective Date.—The amendment made by this section shall apply to taxable years of foreign corporations beginning after December 31, 1975, and to taxable years of United States shareholders (within the meaning of section 951(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954) within which or with which such taxable years of such foreign corporations end.

PART III—AMENDMENTS AFFECTING TREATMENT OF FOREIGN TAXES

SEC. 1031. REQUIREMENT THAT FOREIGN TAX CREDIT BE DETERMINED ON OVERALL BASIS.

26 USC 904. (a) Overall Limitation on Foreign Tax Credit.—Section 904 (relating to limitation on foreign tax credit) is amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 904. LIMITATION ON CREDIT.

"(a) Limitation.—The total amount of the credit taken under section 901(a) shall not exceed the same proportion of the tax against which such credit is taken which the taxpayer's taxable income from sources without the United States (but not in excess of the taxpayer's entire taxable income) bears to his entire taxable income for the same taxable year.

"(b) Taxable Income for Purposes of Computing Limitation.—For purposes of subsection (a), the taxable income in the case of an individual, estate, or trust shall be computed without any deduction for personal exemptions under section 151 or 642(b).

"(c) Carryback and Carryover of Excess Tax Paid.—Any amount by which all taxes paid or accrued to foreign countries or possessions of the United States for any taxable year for which the taxpayer chooses to have the benefits of this subpart exceed the limitation under subsection (a) shall be deemed taxes paid or accrued to foreign countries or possessions of the United States in the second preceding taxable year, in the first preceding taxable year, and in the first, second, third, fourth, or fifth succeeding taxable years, in that order and to the extent not deemed taxes paid or accrued in a prior taxable year, in the amount by which the limitation under subsection (a) for such preceding or succeeding taxable year exceeds the sum of the taxes paid or accrued to foreign countries or possessions of the United States for such preceding or succeeding taxable year and the amount of the taxes for any taxable year earlier than the current taxable year which shall be deemed to have been paid or accrued in such preceding or subsequent taxable year (whether or not the taxpayer chooses to have the benefits of this subpart with respect to such earlier taxable year). Such amount deemed paid or accrued in any year may be availed of only as a tax credit and not as a deduction and only if the taxpayer for such year chooses to have the benefits of this subpart as to taxes paid or accrued for that year to foreign countries or possessions of the United States.

"(d) Application of Section in Case of Certain Interest Income and Dividends from a DISC or Former DISC.—

"(1) In General.—The provisions of subsections (a), (b), and (c) shall be applied separately with respect to each of the following items of income:

"(A) the interest income described in paragraph (2),

"(B) dividends from a DISC or former DISC (as defined in section 992(a)) to the extent such dividends are treated as income from sources without the United States, and

"(C) income other than the interest income described in paragraph (2) and dividends described in subparagraph (B).

"(2) Interest Income to Which Applicable.—For purposes of this subsection, the interest income described in this paragraph is interest other than interest—

"(A) derived from any transaction which is directly related to the active conduct by the taxpayer of a trade or business in a foreign country or a possession of the United States,

"(B) derived in the conduct by the taxpayer of a banking, financing, or similar business,

"(C) received from a corporation in which the taxpayer (or one or more includible corporations in an affiliated group, as defined in section 1504, of which the taxpayer is a member) owns, directly or indirectly, at least 10 percent of the voting stock, or “(D) received on obligations acquired as a result of the disposition of a trade or business actively conducted by the taxpayer in a foreign country or possession of the United States or as a result of the disposition of stock or obligations of a corporation in which the taxpayer owned at least 10 percent of the voting stock.

For purposes of subparagraph (C), stock owned, directly or indirectly, by or for a foreign corporation, shall be considered as being proportionately owned by its shareholders.

“(e) TRANSITIONAL RULES FOR CARRYBACKS AND CARRYOVERS FOR TAXPAYERS ON THE PER-COUNTRY LIMITATION.—

“(1) Application of subsection.—This subsection shall apply only to a taxpayer who is on the per-country limitation for his last taxable year beginning before January 1, 1976.

“(2) Carryovers to years beginning after December 31, 1975.—In the case of any taxpayer to whom this subsection applies, any carryover from a taxable year beginning before January 1, 1976, may be used in taxable years beginning after December 31, 1975, to the extent provided in subsection (c), but only to the extent such carryover could have been used in such succeeding taxable years if the per-country limitation continued to apply to all taxable years beginning after December 31, 1975.

“(3) Carrybacks to years beginning before January 1, 1976.—In the case of any taxpayer to whom this subsection applies, any carryback from a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1975, may be used in taxable years beginning before January 1, 1976, to the extent provided in subsection (c), but only to the extent such carryback could have been used in such preceding taxable year if the per-country limitation continued to apply to all taxable years beginning after December 31, 1975.

“(4) Application of limitations.—For purposes of this subsection—

“(A) the overall limitation shall be applied before the per-country limitation, and

“(B) where the amount of any carryback or carryover is reduced by the overall limitation, the reduction shall be allocated to the amounts carried from each country or possession in proportion to the taxes paid or accrued to such country or possession in the taxable year from which such amount is being carried.

“(f) CROSS REFERENCE.—

“For increase of limitation under subsection (a) for taxes paid with respect to amounts received which were included in the gross income of the taxpayer for a prior taxable year as a United States shareholder with respect to a controlled foreign corporation, see section 960(b).”

(b) Conforming Amendments.—

(1) Sections 901(a), 901(b), and 960(b) are amended by striking out “applicable limitation” each place it appears and inserting in lieu thereof “limitation”.

(2) Subparagraph (B) of section 243(b)(3) is amended to read as follows:

“(B) the members of such affiliated group shall be treated as one taxpayer for purposes of making the election under section 901(a) (relating to allowance of foreign tax credit), and”.

26 USC 901, 960.

(3) Paragraph (3) of section 1351(d) is amended to read as follows:

"(3) FOREIGN TAXES.—For purposes of this subsection, any choice made under subpart A of part III of subchapter N (relating to foreign tax credit) for any taxable year may be changed."

(4) Section 1503(b)(1) is amended by striking out "and if for the taxable year an election under section 904(b)(1) (relating to election of overall limitation on foreign tax credit) is in effect".

(5) Sections 383, 6038(b)(1)(A), and 6501(i) are each amended by striking out "section 904(d)" each place it appears therein and inserting in lieu thereof "section 904(c)".

(6) Subsection (e) of section 907 (relating to transitional rules) is amended—

(A) by striking out "(d) and (e) of section 904" in paragraphs (1) and (2) and inserting in lieu thereof "(d) and (e) of section 904 (as in effect on the day before the date of the enactment of the Tax Reform Act of 1976)";

(B) by striking out "section 904(a)(1)" in paragraph (2) and inserting in lieu thereof "section 904(a)(1) (as so in effect)"; and

(C) by striking out "section 904(e)(2)" in paragraph (2)(A) and inserting in lieu thereof "section 904(e)(2) (as so in effect)".

(c) EFFECTIVE DATES.—

(1) In general.—Except as provided in paragraphs (2) and (3), the amendments made by this section shall apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1975.

(2) Exception for certain mining operations.—In the case of a domestic corporation or includible corporation in an affiliated group (as defined in section 1504 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954) which has as of October 1, 1975—

(A) been engaged in the active conduct of the trade or business of the extraction of minerals (of a character with respect to which a deduction for depletion is allowable under section 613 of such Code) outside the United States or its possessions for less than 5 years preceding the date of enactment of this Act,

(B) had deductions properly apportioned or allocated to its gross income from such trade or business in excess of such gross income in at least 2 taxable years,

(C) 80 percent of its gross receipts are from the sale of such minerals, and

(D) made commitments for substantial expansion of such mineral extraction activities, the amendments made by this section shall apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1978. In the case of losses sustained in taxable years beginning before January 1, 1979, by any corporation to which this paragraph applies, the provisions of section 904(f) of such Code shall be applied with respect to such losses under the principles of section 904(a)(1) of such Code as in effect before the enactment of this Act.

(3) Exception for income from possessions.—In the case of gross income from sources within a possession of the United States (and the deductions properly apportioned or allocated thereto), the amendments made by this section shall apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1978. In the case of losses sustained in a possession of the United States in taxable years beginning before January 1, 1979, the provisions of section 904(f) of such Code shall be applied with respect to such losses under the principles of section 904(a)(1) of such Code as in effect before the enactment of this Act.

(4) Carrybacks and carryovers in the case of mining operations and income from a possession.—In the case of a taxpayer to whom paragraph (2) or (3) of this subsection applies, section 904(e) of such Code shall apply except that “January 1, 1979” shall be substituted for “January 1, 1976” each place it appears therein. If such a taxpayer elects the overall limitation for a taxable year beginning before January 1, 1979, such section 904(e) shall be applied by substituting “the January 1, of the last year for which such taxpayer is on the per-country limitation” for “January 1, 1976” each place it appears therein.

SEC. 1032. RECAPTURE OF FOREIGN LOSSES.

(a) In General.—Section 904 (as amended by section 1031 of this Act) is amended by redesignating subsection (f) as subsection (g) and by inserting after subsection (e) the following new subsection:

“(f) Recapature of Overall Foreign Loss.—

“(1) General Rule.—For purposes of this subpart and section 936, in the case of any taxpayer who sustains an overall foreign loss for any taxable year, that portion of the taxpayer’s taxable income from sources without the United States for each succeeding taxable year which is equal to the lesser of—

“(A) the amount of such loss (to the extent not used under this paragraph in prior taxable years), or

“(B) 50 percent (or such larger percent as the taxpayer may choose) of the taxpayer’s taxable income from sources without the United States for such succeeding taxable year, shall be treated as income from sources within the United States (and not as income from sources without the United States).

“(2) Overall Foreign Loss Defined.—For purposes of this subsection, the term ‘overall foreign loss’ means the amount by which the gross income for the taxable year from sources without the United States (whether or not the taxpayer chooses the benefits of this subpart for such taxable year) for such year is exceeded by the sum of the deductions properly apportioned or allocated thereto, except that there shall not be taken into account—

“(A) any net operating loss deduction allowable for such year under section 172(a) or any capital loss carrybacks and carryovers to such year under section 1212, and

“(B) any—

“(i) foreign expropriation loss for such year, as defined in section 172(k)(1), or

“(ii) loss for such year which arises from fire, storm, shipwreck, or other casualty, or from theft, to the extent such loss is not compensated for by insurance or otherwise.

“(3) Dispositions.—

“(A) In General.—For purposes of this chapter, if property which has been used predominantly without the United States in a trade or business is disposed of during any taxable year—

“(i) the taxpayer, notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter (other than paragraph (1)), shall be deemed to have received and recognized taxable income from sources without the United States in the taxable year of the disposition, by reason of such disposition, in an amount equal to the lesser of the excess of the fair market value of such property over the taxpayer's adjusted basis in such property or the remaining amount of the overall foreign losses which were not used under paragraph (1) for such taxable year or any prior taxable year, and

"(ii) paragraph (1) shall be applied with respect to such income by substituting '100 percent' for '50 percent'.

In determining for purposes of this subparagraph whether the predominant use of any property has been without the United States, there shall be taken into account use during the 3-year period ending on the date of the disposition (or, if shorter, the period during which the property has been used in the trade or business).

"(B) Disposition defined and special rules.—

"(i) For purposes of this subsection, the term 'disposition' includes a sale, exchange, distribution, or gift of property whether or not gain or loss is recognized on the transfer.

"(ii) Any taxable income recognized solely by reason of subparagraph (A) shall have the same characterization it would have had if the taxpayer had sold or exchanged the property.

"(iii) The Secretary shall prescribe such regulations as he may deem necessary to provide for adjustments to the basis of property to reflect taxable income recognized solely by reason of subparagraph (A).

"(C) Exceptions.—Notwithstanding subparagraph (B), the term 'disposition' does not include—

"(i) a disposition of property which is not a material factor in the realization of income by the taxpayer, or

"(ii) a disposition of property to a domestic corporation in a distribution or transfer described in section 381(a).

"(4) Determination of foreign oil related loss where section 907 applies.—In the case of a corporation to which section 907 (b) (1) applies, the foreign oil related loss shall be the amount by which the gross income for the taxable year from sources without the United States and its possessions (whether or not the taxpayer chooses the benefits of this subpart for such taxable year) taken into account in determining the foreign oil related income for such year is exceeded by the sum of the deductions properly apportioned or allocated thereto, except that there shall not be taken into account—

"(A) any net operating loss deduction allowable for such year under section 172(a) or any capital loss carrybacks and carryovers to such year under section 1212, and

"(B) any—

"(i) foreign expropriation loss for such year, as defined in section 172(k)(1), or

Section 907 is amended—

(1) by striking out the last sentence of subsection (b) (as amended by section 1035(b)), and

(2) by striking out subsection (f), and by redesignating subsection (g) as subsection (f).

(c) Effective Dates.—

(1) In general.—Except as provided in paragraphs (2) and (3), the amendments made by subsections (a) and (b) shall apply to losses sustained in taxable years beginning after December 31, 1975, and the amendment made by subsection (b) (1) shall apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1975.

(2) Obligations of Foreign Governments.—The amendments made by subsection (a) shall not apply to losses on the sale, exchange, or other disposition of bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness issued before May 14, 1976, by a foreign government or instrumentality thereof for the acquisition of property located in that country or stock of a corporation (created or organized in or under the laws of that foreign country) or indebtedness of such corporation.

(3) Substantial Worthlessness Before Enactment.—The amendments made by subsection (a) shall not apply to losses incurred on the loss from stock or indebtedness of a corporation in which the taxpayer owned at least 10 percent of the voting stock and which has sustained losses in 3 out of the last 5 taxable years beginning before January 1, 1976, which has sustained an overall loss for those 5 years, and with respect to which the taxpayer has terminated or will terminate all operations by reason of sale, liquidation, or other disposition before January 1, 1977, of such corporation or its assets.

(4) Limitation Based on Deficit in Earnings and Profits.—If paragraph (3) would apply to a taxpayer but for the fact that the loss is sustained after December 31, 1976, and if the loss is sustained in a taxable year beginning before January 1, 1979, the amendments made by subsection (a) shall not apply to such loss to the extent that there was on December 31, 1975, a deficit in earnings and profits in the corporation from which the loss arose.

SEC. 1033. DIVIDENDS FROM LESS DEVELOPED COUNTRY CORPORATIONS TO BE GROSSED UP FOR PURPOSES OF DETERMINING UNITED STATES INCOME AND FOREIGN TAX CREDIT AGAINST THAT INCOME.

(a) Foreign Taxes Deemed Paid by Domestic Corporations.—

Section 902 (relating to credit for corporate stockholders in foreign corporations) is amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 902. CREDIT FOR CORPORATE STOCKHOLDER IN FOREIGN CORPORATION.

"(a) Treatment of Taxes Paid by Foreign Corporation.—For purposes of this subpart, a domestic corporation which owns at least 10 percent of the voting stock of a foreign corporation from which it receives dividends in any taxable year shall be deemed to have paid the same proportion of any income, war profits, or excess profits taxes paid or deemed to be paid by such foreign corporation to any foreign country or to any possession of the United States, on or with respect to the accumulated profits of such foreign corporation from which such dividends were paid, which the amount of such dividends (determined without regard to section 78) bears to the amount of such accumulated profits in excess of such income, war profits, and excess profits taxes (other than those deemed paid).

(b) Foreign Subsidiary of First and Second Foreign Corporation.

(1) One Tier.—If the foreign corporation described in subsection (a) (hereinafter in this subsection referred to as the 'first foreign corporation') owns 10 percent or more of the voting stock of a second foreign corporation from which it receives dividends in any taxable year, it shall be deemed to have paid the same proportion of any income, war profits, or excess profits taxes paid or deemed to be paid by such second foreign corporation to any foreign country or to any possession of the United States, or with respect to the accumulated profits of such second foreign corporation from which such dividends were paid, which the amount of such dividends bears to the amount of such accumulated profits in excess of such income, war profits, and excess profits taxes (other than those deemed paid).

(2) Two Tiers.—If such first foreign corporation owns 10 percent or more of the voting stock of a second foreign corporation which, in turn, owns 10 percent or more of the voting stock of a third foreign corporation from which the second foreign corporation receives dividends in any taxable year, the second foreign corporation shall be deemed to have paid the same proportion of any income, war profits, or excess profits taxes paid by such third foreign corporation to any foreign country or to any possession of the United States, or with respect to the accumulated profits of such third foreign corporation from which such dividends were paid, which the amount of such dividends bears to the amount of such accumulated profits in excess of such income, war profits, and excess profits taxes.

(3) Voting Stock Requirement.—For purposes of this subpart—

(A) paragraph (1) shall not apply unless the percentage of voting stock owned by the domestic corporation in the first foreign corporation and the percentage of voting stock owned by the first foreign corporation in the second foreign corporation when multiplied together equal at least 5 percent, and

(B) paragraph (2) shall not apply unless the percentage arrived at for purposes of applying paragraph (1) when multiplied by the percentage of voting stock owned by the second foreign corporation in the third foreign corporation is equal to at least 5 percent.

(c) Applicable Rules.—

(1) Accumulated Profits Defined.—For purposes of this section, the term 'accumulated profits' means, with respect to any foreign corporation, the amount of its gains, profits, or income computed without reduction by the amount of the income, war profits, and excess profits taxes imposed on or with respect to such profits or income by any foreign country or by any possession of the United States. The Secretary shall have full power to determine from the accumulated profits of what year or years such dividends were paid, treating dividends paid in the first 60 days of any year as having been paid from the accumulated profits of the preceding year or years (unless to his satisfaction shown otherwise), and in other respects treating dividends as having been paid from the most recently accumulated gains, profits, or earnings.

"(2) Accounting Periods.—In the case of a foreign corporation the income, war profits, and excess profits taxes of which are determined on the basis of an accounting period of less than 1 year, the word ‘year’ as used in this subsection, shall be construed to mean such accounting period.

"(d) Cross References.—

"(1) For inclusion in gross income of an amount equal to taxes deemed paid under subsection (a), see section 78.

"(2) For application of subsections (a) and (b) with respect to taxes deemed paid in a prior taxable year by a United States shareholder with respect to a controlled foreign corporation, see section 960.

"(3) For reduction of credit with respect to dividends paid out of accumulated profits for years for which certain information is not furnished, see section 6038."

(b) Conforming Amendments.—

26 USC 78. (1) Section 78 (relating to dividends received from certain foreign corporations) is amended—

(A) by striking out “section 902(a)(1)” and inserting in lieu thereof “section 902(a)”, and

(B) by striking out “section 960(a)(1)(C)” and inserting in lieu thereof “section 960(a)(1)”.

26 USC 960. (2) Paragraph (1) of section 960(a) (relating to special rules for foreign tax credit) is amended by striking out “bears to—” and all that follows down through the period at the end of such paragraph and inserting in lieu thereof “bears to the entire amount of the earnings and profits of such foreign corporation for such taxable year.”.

26 USC 535. (3) Section 535(b)(1) (relating to accumulated taxable income) is amended by striking out “section 902(a)(1) or 960(a)(1)(C)” and inserting in lieu thereof “section 902(a) or 960(a)(1)”.

26 USC 545. (4) Section 545(b)(1) (relating to undistributed personal holding company income) is amended by striking out “section 902(a)(1) or 960(a)(1)(C)” and inserting in lieu thereof “section 902(a) or 960(a)(1)”.

26 USC 902 note. (c) Effective Dates.—The amendments made by this section shall apply—

(1) in respect of any distribution received by a domestic corporation after December 31, 1977, and

(2) in respect of any distribution received by a domestic corporation before January 1, 1978, in a taxable year of such corporation beginning after December 31, 1975, but only to the extent that such distribution is made out of the accumulated profits of a foreign corporation for a taxable year (of such foreign corporation) beginning after December 31, 1975.

For purposes of paragraph (2), a distribution made by a foreign corporation out of its profits which are attributable to a distribution received from a foreign corporation to which section 902(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 applies shall be treated as made out of the accumulated profits of a foreign corporation for a taxable year beginning before January 1, 1976, to the extent that such distribution was paid out of the accumulated profits of such foreign corporation for a taxable year beginning before January 1, 1976.
SEC. 1034. TREATMENT OF CAPITAL GAINS FOR PURPOSES OF FOREIGN TAX CREDIT.

(a) In General.—Section (b) of section 904 (relating to taxable income for purposes of computing the foreign tax credit limitation), as amended by section 1031 of this Act, is amended to read as follows:

"(b) Taxable Income for Purpose of Computing Limitation.—

"(1) Personal exemptions.—For purposes of subsection (a), the taxable income in the case of an individual, estate, or trust shall be computed without any deduction for personal exemptions under section 151 or 642(b).

"(2) Capital gains.—For purposes of subsection (a)—

"(A) Corporations.—In the case of a corporation—

"(i) the taxable income of such corporation from sources without the United States shall include gain from the sale or exchange of capital assets only in an amount equal to foreign source capital gain net income reduced by three-eighths of foreign source net capital gain,

"(ii) the entire taxable income of such corporation shall include gain from the sale or exchange of capital assets only in an amount equal to capital gain net income reduced by three-eighths of net capital gain, and

"(iii) any net capital loss from sources without the United States to the extent taken into account in determining capital gain net income for the taxable year shall be reduced by an amount equal to three-eighths of the excess of net capital gain from sources within the United States over net capital gain.

"(B) Other taxpayers.—In the case of a taxpayer other than a taxpayer described in subparagraph (A), taxable income from sources without the United States shall include gain from the sale or exchange of capital assets only to the extent of foreign source capital gain net income.

"(3) Definitions.—For purposes of this subsection—

"(A) Foreign source capital gain net income.—The term `foreign source capital gain net income' means the lesser of—

"(i) capital gain net income from sources without the United States, or

"(ii) capital gain net income.

"(B) Foreign source net capital gain.—The term `foreign source net capital gain' means the lesser of—

"(i) net capital gain from sources without the United States, or

"(ii) net capital gain.

"(C) Exception for gain from the sale of certain personal property.—For purposes of this paragraph, there shall be included as gain from sources within the United States any gain from sources without the United States from the sale or exchange of a capital asset which is personal property which—

"(i) in the case of an individual, is sold or exchanged outside of the country (or possession) of the individual's residence,

"(ii) in the case of a corporation, is stock in a second corporation sold or exchanged other than in a country (or possession) in which such second corporation derived more than 50 percent of its gross income for the 3-year period ending with the close of such second corporation's taxable year immediately preceding the year during which the sale or exchange occurred, or

“(iii) in the case of any taxpayer, is personal property (other than stock in a corporation) sold or exchanged other than in a country (or possession) in which such property is used in a trade or business of the taxpayer or in which such taxpayer derived more than 50 percent of its gross income for the 3-year period ending with the close of its taxable year immediately preceding the year during which the sale or exchange occurred, unless such gain is subject to an income, war profits, or excess profits tax of a foreign country or possession of the United States, and the rate of tax applicable to such gain is 10 percent or more of the gain from the sale or exchange (computed under this chapter).

“(D) SECTION 1231 GAINS.—The term 'gain from the sale or exchange of capital assets' includes any gain so treated under section 1231."

(b) EFFECTIVE DATES.—The amendment made by this section shall not apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1975, except that the provisions of section 904(b)(3)(C) shall only apply to sales or exchanges made after November 12, 1975.

SEC. 1035. FOREIGN OIL AND GAS EXTRACTION INCOME.

(a) REDUCTION IN LIMITATION ON FOREIGN TAX CREDITS ALLOWABLE
FOR OIL AND GAS EXTRACTION INCOME.—Subsection (a) of section 907 (relating to reduction in amounts allowable as foreign tax under section 901) is amended to read as follows:

“(a) REDUCTION IN AMOUNT ALLOWED AS FOREIGN TAX UNDER SECTION 901.—In applying section 901, the amount of any oil and gas extraction taxes paid or accrued (or deemed to have been paid) during the taxable year which would (but for this subsection) be taken into account for purposes of section 901 shall be reduced by the amount (if any) by which the amount of such taxes exceeds the product of—

“(1) the amount of the foreign oil and gas extraction income for the taxable year, multiplied by “(2) the percentage which is the sum of the normal tax rate and the surtax rate for the taxable year specified in section 11.”

(b) FOREIGN OIL RELATED INCOME EARNED BY INDIVIDUALS.— Subsection (b) of section 907 (relating to special rules in case of fordiean oil and gas income) is amended to read as follows:

“(b) APPLICATION OF SECTION 904 LIMITATION.—

“(1) CORPORATIONS.—In the case of a corporation, the provisions of section 904 shall be applied separately with respect to—

“(A) foreign oil related income, and “(B) other taxable income.

“(2) OTHER TAXPAYERS.—In the case of a taxpayer other than a corporation, the provisions of subsection (a) shall not apply and the provisions of section 904 shall be applied separately with respect to—

“(A) foreign oil and gas extraction income, and

“(B) other taxable income (including other foreign oil related income).

In the case of a corporation, with respect to foreign oil-related income, and in the case of a taxpayer other than a corporation, with respect to foreign oil and gas extraction income, the overall limitation provided by section 904(a)(2) shall apply and the per-country limitation provided by subsection (a)(1) shall not apply."

(c) Tax Credit for Production-Sharing Contracts.—

(1) For purposes of section 901 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, there shall be treated as income, war profits, and excess profits taxes to be taken into account under section 907(a) of such Code amounts designated as income taxes of a foreign government by such government (which otherwise would not be treated as taxes for purposes of section 901 of such Code) with respect to production-sharing contracts for the extraction of foreign oil or gas.

(2) The amounts specified in paragraph (1) shall not exceed the lesser of—

(A) the product of the foreign oil and gas extraction income with respect to all such production-sharing contracts multiplied by the sum of the normal tax rate and the surtax rate for the taxable year specified in section 11 of such Code, or

(B) the excess of the total amount of foreign oil and gas extraction income (as defined in section 907(c)(1) of such Code) for the taxable year multiplied by the sum of the normal tax rate and the surtax rate for the taxable year specified in section 11 of such Code over the amount of any income, war profits, and excess profits taxes paid or accrued (or deemed to have been paid) without regard to paragraph (1) during the taxable year with respect to foreign oil and gas extraction income.

(3) The production-sharing contracts taken into account for purposes of paragraph (1) shall be those contracts which were entered into before April 8, 1976, for the sharing of foreign oil and gas production with a foreign government (or an entity owned by such government) with respect to which amounts claimed as taxes paid or accrued to such foreign government for taxable years beginning before June 30, 1976, will not be disallowed as taxes. No such contract shall be taken into account for any taxable year ending after December 31, 1977.

(d) Carryback and Carryover of Disallowed Credits.—

(1) In General.—Section 907 (as amended by section 1032) is amended by redesignating subsection (f) as subsection (g) and by inserting after subsection (e) the following new subsection:

"(f) Carryback and Carryover of Disallowed Credits.—

"(1) In General.—If the amount of the oil and gas extraction taxes paid or accrued during any taxable year exceeds the limitation provided by subsection (a) for such taxable year (hereinafter in this subsection referred to as the 'unused credit year'), so much of such excess as does not exceed 2 percent of foreign oil and gas extraction income for such taxable year shall be deemed to be oil and gas extraction taxes paid or accrued in the second preceding taxable year, in the first preceding taxable year, and in the first, second, third, fourth, or fifth succeeding taxable year, in that order and to the extent not deemed tax paid or accrued in a prior taxable year by reason of the limitation imposed by paragraph (2). Such amount deemed paid or accrued in any taxable year may be availed of only as a tax credit and not as a deduction and only if the taxpayer for such year chooses to have the benefits of this subpart as to taxes paid or accrued for that year to foreign countries or possessions. For purposes of this subsection, the terms 'second preceding taxable year', and 'first preceding taxable year' do not include any taxable year ending before January 1, 1975. For purposes of determining the amount of such taxes which may be deemed paid or accrued in any taxable year ending in 1975, 1976, or 1977, the first sentence of this paragraph shall be applied by substituting 'such excess' for 'so much of such excess as does not exceed 2 percent of the foreign oil and gas extraction income for such taxable year'.

"(2) LIMITATION.—The amount of the unused oil and gas extraction taxes which under paragraph (1) may be deemed paid or accrued in any preceding or succeeding taxable year shall not exceed the lesser of—

"(A) the amount by which the limitation provided by subsection (a) for such taxable year exceeds the sum of—

"(i) the oil and gas extraction taxes paid or accrued during such taxable year, plus

"(ii) the amounts of the oil and gas extraction taxes which by reason of this subsection are deemed paid or accrued in such taxable year and are attributable to taxable years preceding the unused credit year; or

"(B) the amount by which the limitation provided by section 904 on taxes paid or accrued with respect to foreign oil-related income for such taxable year exceeds the sum of—

"(i) the taxes paid or accrued (or deemed to have been paid under section 902 or 960) to all foreign countries and possessions of the United States with respect to such income during such taxable year;

"(ii) the amount of such taxes which were deemed paid or accrued in such taxable year under section 904 (c) and which are attributable to taxable years preceding the unused credit year, plus

"(iii) the amount of the oil and gas extraction taxes which by reason of this subsection are deemed paid or accrued in such taxable year and are attributable to taxable years preceding the unused credit year.

"(3) SPECIAL RULES.—

"(A) In the case of any taxable year which is an unused credit year under this subsection and which is an unused credit year under section 904 (c) with respect to oil-related income, the provisions of this subsection shall be applied before section 904 (c).

"(B) For purposes of determining the amount of oil-related taxes paid or accrued in any taxable year which may be deemed paid or accrued in a preceding or succeeding taxable year under section 904 (c), any tax deemed paid or accrued in such preceding or succeeding taxable year under this subsection shall be considered to be tax paid or accrued in such preceding or succeeding taxable year.

"(C) For purposes of determining the amount of the unused oil and gas extraction taxes which under paragraph (1) may be deemed paid or accrued in any taxable year ending before January 1, 1977, subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2) shall be applied as if the amendment made by section 1035 (a) of the Tax Reform Act of 1976 applied to such taxable year.

(2) DEFINITION OF OIL AND GAS EXTRACTION TAXES.—Subsection (c) of section 907 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:
“(5) OIL AND GAS EXTRACTION TAXES.—The term ‘oil and gas extraction taxes’ means any income, war profits, and excess profits tax paid or accrued (or deemed to have been paid under section 902 or 960) during the taxable year with respect to foreign oil and gas extraction income (determined without regard to paragraph (4)) or loss which would be taken into account for purposes of section 901 without regard to this section.”

(3) TECHNICAL AMENDMENT.—Subsection (i) of section 6501, as amended by section 1031, (relating to foreign tax carrybacks) is amended—

(A) by striking out “excess foreign taxes)” and inserting in lieu thereof “excess foreign taxes) or under section 907(f) (relating to carryback and carryover of disallowed oil and gas extraction taxes)”;

and

(B) by striking out “section 904(c)” the second place it appears and inserting in lieu thereof “section 904(c) or 907(f)”.

(e) EFFECTIVE DATES.—

(1) The amendment made by subsection (a) shall apply to taxable years ending after December 31, 1976.

(2) The amendment made by subsection (b) shall apply to taxable years ending after December 31, 1974; except that the last sentence of section 907(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 shall only apply to taxable years ending after December 31, 1975.

(3) The amendment made by subsection (c) shall apply to taxable years beginning after June 29, 1976.

(4) The amendments made by subsection (d) shall apply to taxes paid or accrued during taxable years ending after the date of the enactment of this Act.

SEC. 1036. UNDERWRITING INCOME.

(a) TREATMENT AS INCOME FROM SOURCES WITHIN THE UNITED STATES.—Section 861(a) (relating to gross income from sources within the United States) is amended by adding the following new paragraph:

“(7) Amounts received as underwriting income (as defined in section 832(b)(3)) derived from the insurance of United States risks (as defined in section 953(a)).”.

(b) TREATMENT AS FOREIGN SOURCE INCOME.—Section 862(a) (relating to gross income from sources without the United States) is amended by adding the following new paragraph:

“(7) Underwriting income other than that derived from sources within the United States as provided in section 861(a) (7).”.

(c) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendments made by this section shall apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1976.

SEC. 1037. THIRD TIER FOREIGN TAX CREDIT WHEN SECTION 951 APPLIES.

(a) FOREIGN TAXES DEEMED PAID BY FOREIGN CORPORATIONS.—Section 960(a)(1) (relating to special rules for foreign tax credits), as amended in section 1035, is further amended to read as follows:

“(1) GENERAL RULE.—For purposes of subpart A of this part, if there is included, under section 951(a), in the gross income of a domestic corporation any amount attributable to earnings and profits—

“(A) of a foreign corporation (hereafter in this subsection referred to as the ‘first foreign corporation’) at least 10 percent of the voting stock of which is owned by such domestic corporation, or “(B) of a second foreign corporation (hereinafter in this subsection referred to as the ‘second foreign corporation’) at least 10 percent of the voting stock of which is owned by the first foreign corporation, or “(C) of a third foreign corporation (hereinafter in this subsection referred to as the ‘third foreign corporation’) at least 10 percent of the voting stock of which is owned by the second foreign corporation, then, under regulations prescribed by the Secretary, such domestic corporation shall be deemed to have paid the same proportion of the total income, war profits, and excess profits taxes paid (or deemed paid) by such foreign corporation to a foreign country or possession of the United States for the taxable year on or with respect to the earnings and profits of such foreign corporation which the amount of earnings and profits of such foreign corporation so included in gross income of the domestic corporation bears to the entire amount of the earnings and profits of such foreign corporation for such taxable year. This paragraph shall not apply with respect to any amount included in the gross income of such domestic corporation attributable to earnings and profits of the second foreign corporation or of the third foreign corporation unless, in the case of the second foreign corporation, the percentage-of-voting-stock requirement of Section 902(b)(3)(A) is satisfied, and in the case of the third foreign corporation, the percentage-of-voting-stock requirement of section 902(b)(3)(B) is satisfied.”

(b) EffectivE DATE.—The amendment made by this section shall apply with respect to earnings and profits of a foreign corporation included, under section 951(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, in the gross income of a domestic corporation in taxable years begining after December 31, 1976.

PART IV—MONEY OR OTHER PROPERTY MOVING OUT OF OR INTO THE UNITED STATES

SEC. 1041. PORTFOLIO DEBT INVESTMENTS IN UNITED STATES OF NONRESIDENT ALIENS AND FOREIGN CORPORATIONS.

26 USC 861.
The last sentence of section 861(c) (relating to interest on deposits, etc.) is hereby repealed.

SEC. 1042. CHANGES IN RULING REQUIREMENTS UNDER SECTION 367; CERTAIN CHANGES IN SECTION 1248.

26 USC 367.
(a) Amendment of Section 367.—Section 367 (relating to foreign corporations) is amended to read as follows:

“SEC. 367. FOREIGN CORPORATIONS.
“(a) Transfers of Property From the United States.—
“(1) General rule.—If, in connection with any exchange described in section 382, 351, 354, 355, 356, or 381, there is a transfer of property (other than stock or securities of a foreign corporation which is a party to the exchange or a party to the reorganization) by a United States person to a foreign corporation, for purposes of determining the extent to which gain shall be recognized on such transfer, a foreign corporation shall not be considered to be a corporation unless, pursuant to a request filed not later than the close of the 183d day after the beginning of such transfer (and filed in such form and manner as may be prescribed by regulations by the Secretary), it is established to the satisfaction of the Secretary that such exchange is not in pursuance of a plan having as one of its principal purposes the avoidance of Federal income taxes.

"(2) Exception for transactions designated by the Secretary.—Paragraph (1) shall not apply to any exchange (otherwise within paragraph (1)), or to any type of property, which the Secretary by regulations designates as not requiring the filing of a request.

"(b) Other Transfers.—

"(1) Effect of section to be determined under regulations.—In the case of any exchange described in section 332, 351, 354, 355, 356, or 361 in connection with which there is no transfer of property described in subsection (a)(1), a foreign corporation shall be considered to be a corporation except to the extent provided in regulations prescribed by the Secretary which are necessary or appropriate to prevent the avoidance of Federal income taxes.

"(2) Regulations relating to sale or exchange of stock in foreign corporations.—The regulations prescribed pursuant to paragraph (1) shall include (but shall not be limited to) regulations dealing with the sale or exchange of stock or securities in a foreign corporation by a United States person, including regulations providing—

"(A) the circumstances under which—

"(i) gain shall be recognized currently, or amounts included in gross income currently as a dividend, or both, or

"(ii) gain or other amounts may be deferred for inclusion in the gross income of a shareholder (or his successor in interest) at a later date, and

"(B) the extent to which adjustments shall be made to earnings and profits, basis of stock or securities, and basis of assets.

"(c) Transactions to be treated as exchanges.—

"(1) Section 355 distribution.—For purposes of this section, any distribution described in section 355 (or so much of section 356 as relates to section 355) shall be treated as an exchange whether or not it is an exchange.

"(2) Contribution of capital to controlled corporations.—For purposes of this chapter, any transfer of property to a foreign corporation as a contribution to the capital of such corporation by one or more persons who, immediately after the transfer, own (within the meaning of section 318) stock possessing at least 80 percent of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock of such corporation entitled to vote shall be treated as an exchange of such property for stock of the foreign corporation equal in value to the fair market value of the property transferred.

"(d) Transitional rule.—In the case of any exchange beginning before January 1, 1978—

"(1) subsection (a) shall be applied without regard to whether or not there is a transfer of property described in subsection (a)(1), and

"(2) subsection (b) shall not apply."
(b) EARNINGS AND PROFITS OF SUBSIDIARIES OF FOREIGN CORPORATIONS FOR PURPOSES OF SECTION 1248.—Subparagraph (C) of section 1248(c)(2) is amended by striking out "; and" at the end thereof and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "(or on the date of any sale or exchange of the stock of such other foreign corporation occurring during the 5-year period ending on the date of the sale or exchange of the stock of such foreign corporation, to the extent not otherwise taken into account under this section but not in excess of the fair market value of the stock of such other foreign corporation sold or exchanged over the basis of such stock (for determining gain) in the hands of the transferor); and".

(c) CERTAIN SECTION 311, 336, OR 337 TRANSACTIONS.—

(1) GENERAL RULE.—Section 1248 (relating to gain from certain sales or exchanges of stock in certain foreign corporations) is amended by redesignating subsections (f) and (g) as subsections (g) and (h), respectively, and by inserting after subsection (e) the following new subsection:

"(f) CERTAIN SECTION 311, 336, OR 337 TRANSACTIONS.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—If—

"(A) a domestic corporation satisfies the stock ownership requirements of subsection (a)(2) with respect to a foreign corporation, and

"(B) such domestic corporation distributes, sells, or exchanges stock of such foreign corporation in a transaction to which section 311, 336, or 337 applies, then, notwithstanding any other provision of this subtitle, an amount equal to the excess of the fair market value of such stock over its adjusted basis in the hands of the domestic corporation shall be included in the gross income of the domestic corporation as a dividend to the extent of the earnings and profits of the foreign corporation attributable (under regulations prescribed by the Secretary) to such stock which were accumulated in taxable years of such foreign corporation beginning after December 31, 1962, and during the period or periods the stock was held by such domestic corporation while such foreign corporation was a controlled foreign corporation. For purposes of subsections (c)(2), (d), and (h), a distribution, sale, or exchange of stock to which this subsection applies shall be treated as a sale of stock to which subsection (a) applies.

(2) EXCEPTION FOR CERTAIN DISTRIBUTIONS.—In the case of any distribution of stock of a foreign corporation, paragraph (1) shall not apply if such distribution is to a domestic corporation—

"(A) which is treated under this section as holding such stock for the period for which the stock was held by the distributing corporation, and

"(B) which, immediately after the distribution, satisfies the stock ownership requirements of subsection (a)(2) with respect to such foreign corporation.

(3) NONAPPLICATION OF PARAGRAPH (1) IN CERTAIN CASES.—Paragraph (1) shall not apply to a sale or exchange to which section 337 applies if—

"(A) throughout the period or periods the stock of the foreign corporation was held by the domestic corporation (or predecessor referred to in paragraph (2)) all the stock of such domestic corporation was owned by United States persons who satisfied the 10-percent stock ownership requirements of subsection (a)(2) with respect to such domestic corporation, and “(B) subsection (a) applies to the proceeds of the sale or exchange and also applied to all transactions described in subsection (e)(1) which took place during the period or periods referred to in subparagraph (A).

“(4) APPLICATION TO CASES DESCRIBED IN SUBSECTION (e).—To the extent that earnings and profits are taken into account under this subsection, they shall be excluded and not taken into account for purposes of subsection (e).”

(2) INTEREST IN PARTNERSHIP HOLDING STOCK IN CERTAIN FOREIGN CORPORATIONS.—The last sentence of section 751(c) (relating to unrealized receivables) is amended—

(A) by striking out “(as defined in section 1245(a)(3)),” and inserting in lieu thereof “as defined in section 1245(a)(3)), stock in certain foreign corporations (as described in section 1248),” and

(B) by striking out “1245(a),” and inserting in lieu thereof “1245(a), 1248(a),”.

(3) CONFORMING AMENDMENTS.—

(A) Subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2) of subsection (c) of section 1248 is amended by striking out “subsection (a) applies to a sale or exchange” and inserting in lieu thereof “subsection (a) or (f) applies to a sale, exchange, or distribution”.

(B) Subparagraph (A) of paragraph (3) of subsection (g) (as redesignated by paragraph (1) of this subsection) of section 1248 is amended to read as follows:

“(A) a dividend (other than an amount treated as a dividend under subsection (f)),”.

(C) Subsection (h) (as redesignated by paragraph (1) of this subsection) of section 1248 is amended by striking out “subsection (a)” each place it appears and inserting in lieu thereof “subsection (a) or (f)”.

(d) DECLARATORY JUDGMENT PROCEDURE FOR REVIEW BY THE TAX COURT OF SECTION 367 DETERMINATIONS.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Part IV of subchapter C of chapter 76 (relating to declaratory judgments) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

“SEC. 7477. DECLARATORY JUDGMENTS RELATING TO TRANSFERS OF PROPERTY FROM THE UNITED STATES.

“(a) CREATION OF REMEDY.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—In a case of actual controversy involving—

“(A) a determination by the Secretary—

“(i) that an exchange described in section 367(a)(1) is in pursuance of a plan having as one of its principal purposes the avoidance of Federal income taxes, or

“(ii) of the terms and conditions pursuant to which an exchange described in section 367(a)(1) will be determined not to be in pursuance of a plan having as one of its principal purposes the avoidance of Federal income taxes, or

“(B) a failure by the Secretary to make a determination as to whether an exchange described in section 367(a)(1) is in pursuance of a plan having as one of its principal purposes the avoidance of Federal income taxes, upon the filing of an appropriate pleading, the Tax Court may make the appropriate declaration referred to in paragraph (2). Such declaration shall have the force and effect of a decision of the Tax Court and shall be reviewable as such.

“(2) Scope of declaration.—The declaration referred to in paragraph (1) shall be—

“(A) in the case of a determination referred to in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1), whether or not such determination is reasonable, and, if it is not reasonable, a determination of the issue set forth in subparagraph (A)(ii) of paragraph (1), and “(B) in the case of a failure described in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1), the determination of the issues set forth in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1).

“(1) Petitioner.—A pleading may be filed under this section only by a petitioner who is a transferor or transferee of stock, securities, or property transferred in an exchange described in section 367(a)(1).

“(2) Exhaustion of administrative remedies.—The Tax Court shall not issue a declaratory judgment or decree under this section in any proceeding unless it determines that the petitioner has exhausted administrative remedies available to him within the Internal Revenue Service. A petitioner shall not be deemed to have exhausted his administrative remedies with respect to a failure by the Secretary to make a determination with respect to whether or not an exchange described in section 367(a)(1) is in pursuance of a plan having as one of its principal purposes the avoidance of Federal income taxes before the expiration of 270 days after the request for such determination was made.

“(3) Exchange shall have begun.—No proceeding may be maintained under this section unless the exchange is described in section 367(a)(1) with respect to which a decision of the Tax Court is sought has begun before the filing of the pleading.

“(4) Time for bringing action.—If the Secretary sends by certified or registered mail to the petitioners referred to in paragraph (1) notice of his determination with respect to whether or not an exchange described in section 367(a)(1) is in pursuance of a plan having as one of its principal purposes the avoidance of Federal income taxes or with respect to the terms and conditions pursuant to which such an exchange will be determined not to be made in pursuance of such a plan, no proceeding may be initiated under this section by any petitioner unless the pleading is filed before the 91st day after the day after such notice is mailed to such petitioner.

“(c) Commissioners.—The chief judge of the Tax Court may assign proceedings under this section to be heard by the commissioners of the court, and the court may authorize a commissioner to make the decision of the court with respect to such proceeding, subject to such conditions and review as the court may by rule provide.”.

(2) Technical and conforming amendments.—

(A) Section 7482(b)(1) (relating to venue for review of Tax Court decisions) is amended by striking out “or” at the end of subparagraph (B), by striking out the period at the end of subparagraph (C) and inserting in lieu thereof “, or”, and by inserting after subparagraph (C) the following new subparagraph:
“(D) in the case of a person seeking a declaratory judgment under section 7477, the legal residence of such person if such person is not a corporation, or the principal place of business or principal office or agency of such person if such person is a corporation.”.

(B) Section 7482(b)(1) is further amended—

(i) by striking out “subparagraph (A), (B), and (C) do not apply” in the second sentence and inserting in lieu thereof “no subparagraph of the preceding sentence applies”; and

(ii) by striking out “section 7476” in the last sentence and inserting in lieu thereof “section 7476 or 7477”.

(C) The heading for section 7476 is amended to read as follows:

(D) The table of sections for part IV of subchapter C of chapter 76 is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 7477. Declaratory judgments relating to transfers of property from United States.”

(E) The heading of part IV of subchapter C of chapter 76 is amended to read as follows:

“PART IV—DECLARATORY JUDGMENTS”.

(F) The table of parts for subchapter C of chapter 76 is amended by striking out the item relating to part IV and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

(1) The amendments made by this section (other than by subsection (d)) shall apply to transfers beginning after October 9, 1975, and to sales, exchanges, and distributions taking place after such date. The amendments made by subsection (d) shall apply with respect to pleadings filed with the Tax Court after the date of the enactment of this Act but only with respect to transfers beginning after October 9, 1975.

(2) In the case of any exchange described in section 367 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (as in effect on December 31, 1974) in any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1962, and before the date of the enactment of this Act, which does not involve the transfer of property to or from a United States person, a taxpayer shall have for purposes of such section until 183 days after the date of the enactment of this Act to file a request with the Secretary of the Treasury or his delegate seeking to establish to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Treasury or his delegate that such exchange was not in pursuance of a plan having as one of its principal purposes the avoidance of Federal income taxes and that for purposes of such section a foreign corporation is to be treated as a foreign corporation.

SEC. 1043. CONTIGUOUS COUNTRY BRANCHES OF DOMESTIC LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES.

(a) AMENDMENT OF SUBCHAPTER L.—Subpart E of part I of subchapter L of chapter 1 (relating to life insurance companies) is amended by inserting after section 819 the following new section:
"SEC. 819A. CONTIGUOUS COUNTRY BRANCHES OF DOMESTIC LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES."

"(a) Exclusion of Items.—In the case of a domestic mutual insurance company which—
  "(1) is a life insurance company,
  "(2) has a contiguous country life insurance branch, and
  "(3) makes the election provided by subsection (g) with respect to such branch, there shall be excluded from each and every item involved in the determination of life insurance company taxable income the items separately accounted for in accordance with subsection (c).

"(b) Contiguous Country Life Insurance Branch.—For purposes of this section, the term 'contiguous country life insurance branch' means a branch which—
  "(1) issues insurance contracts insuring risks in connection with the lives or health of residents of a country which is contiguous to the United States,
  "(2) has its principal place of business in such contiguous country, and
  "(3) would constitute a mutual life insurance company if such branch were a separate domestic insurance company.

"Insurance contract." For purposes of this section, the term 'insurance contract' means any life, health, accident, or annuity contract or reinsurance contract or any contract relating thereto.

"(e) Separate Accounting Required.—Any taxpayer which makes the election provided by subsection (g) shall establish and maintain a separate account for the various income, exclusion, deduction, asset, reserve, liability, and surplus items properly attributable to the contracts described in subsection (b). Such separate accounting shall be made—
  "(1) in accordance with the method regularly employed by such company, if such method clearly reflects income derived from, and the other items attributable to, the contracts described in subsection (b), and
  "(2) in all other cases, in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary.

"(d) Recognition of Gain on Assets in Branch Account.—If the aggregate fair market value of all the invested assets and tangible property which are separately accounted for by the domestic life insurance company in the branch account established pursuant to subsection (c) exceeds the aggregate adjusted basis of such assets for purposes of determining gain, then the domestic life insurance company shall be treated as having sold all such assets on the first day of the first taxable year for which the election is in effect at their fair market value on such first day. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the net gain shall be recognized to the domestic life insurance company on the deemed sale described in the preceding sentence.

"(e) Transactions Between Contiguous Country Branch and Domestic Life Insurance Company.—
  "(1) Reimbursement for Home Office Services, etc.—Any payment, transfer, reimbursement, credit, or allowance which is made from a separate account established pursuant to subsection (c) to one or more other accounts of a domestic life insurance company as reimbursement for costs incurred for or with respect to the insurance (or reinsurance) of risks accounted for in such separate account shall be taken into account by the domestic life insurance company in the same manner as if such payment, transfer, reim-
(2) Repatriation of Income.—

(A) In General.—Except as provided in subparagraph (B), any amount directly or indirectly transferred or credited from a branch account established pursuant to section (c) to one or more other accounts of such company shall, unless such transfer or credit is a reimbursement to which paragraph (1) applies, be added to the life insurance company taxable income of the domestic life insurance company (as computed without regard to this paragraph).

(B) Limitation.—The addition provided by subparagraph (A) for the taxable year with respect to any contiguous country life insurance branch shall not exceed the amount by which—

(i) the aggregate decrease in the life insurance company taxable income of the domestic life insurance company for the taxable year and for all prior taxable years resulting solely from the application of subsection (a) of this section with respect to such branch, exceeds

(ii) the amount of additions to life insurance company taxable income pursuant to subparagraph (A) with respect to such contiguous country branch for all prior taxable years.

(f) Other Rules.—

(1) Treatment of Foreign Taxes.—

(A) In General.—No income, war profits, or excess profits taxes paid or accrued to any foreign country or possession of the United States which is attributable to income excluded under subsection (a) shall be taken into account for purposes of subpart A of part III of subchapter N (relating to foreign tax credit) or allowable as a deduction.

(B) Treatment of Repatriated Amounts.—For purposes of sections 78 and 902, where any amount is added to the life insurance company taxable income of the domestic life insurance company by reason of subsection (e)(2), the contiguous country life insurance branch shall be treated as a foreign corporation. Any amount so added shall be treated as a dividend paid by a foreign corporation, and the taxes paid to any foreign country or possession of the United States with respect to such amount shall be deemed to have been paid by such branch.

(2) United States Source Income Allocable to Contiguous Country Branch.—For purposes of sections 881, 882, and 1442, each contiguous country life insurance branch shall be treated as a foreign corporation. Such sections shall be applied to each such branch in the same manner as if such sections contained the provisions of any treaty to which the United States and the contiguous country are parties. to the same extent such provisions would apply if such branch were incorporated in such contiguous country.

(g) Election.—A taxpayer may make the election provided by this subsection with respect to any contiguous country for any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1975. An election made under this subsection for any taxable year shall remain in effect for all subsequent taxable years, except that it may be revoked with the consent of the Secretary. The election provided by this subsection shall be made not later than the time prescribed by law for filing the return for the taxable year (including extensions thereof) with respect to which such election is made, and such election and any approved re-ocation thereof shall be made in the manner provided by the Secretary.

“(b) Special Rule for Domestic Stock Life Insurance Companies.—At the election of a domestic stock life insurance company which has a contiguous country life insurance branch described in subsection (b) (without regard to the mutual requirement in subsection (b) (3)), the assets of such branch may be transferred to a foreign corporation organized under the laws of the contiguous country without the application of section 367 or 1491. Subsection (a) shall apply to the stock of such foreign corporation as if such domestic company were a mutual company and as if the stock were an item described in subsection (c). Subsection (e) (2) shall apply to amounts transferred or credited to such domestic company as if such domestic company and such foreign corporation constituted one domestic mutual life insurance company. The insurance contracts which may be transferred pursuant to this subsection shall include only those which are similar to the types of insurance contracts issued by a mutual life insurance company. Notwithstanding the first sentence of this subsection, if the aggregate fair market value of the invested assets and tangible property which are separately accounted for by the domestic life insurance company in the branch account exceeds the aggregate adjusted basis of such assets for purposes of determining gain, the domestic life insurance company shall be deemed to have sold all such assets on the first day of the taxable year for which the election under this subsection applies and the net gain shall be recognized to the domestic life insurance company on the deemed sale, but not in excess of the proportion which the aggregate fair market value of such assets which are transferred pursuant to this subsection is of the aggregate fair market value of all such assets.”

(b) Clerical Amendment.—The table of sections for such subpart E is amended by inserting after the item relating to section 819 the following new item:

(c) Effective Date.—The amendment made by this section shall apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1975.

SEC. 1044. TRANSITIONAL RULE FOR BOND, ETC., LOSSES OF FOREIGN BANKS.

26 USC 582.

(a) General Rule.—Section 582(c) (relating to bond, etc., losses and gains of financial institutions) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

“(4) Transitional Rule for Banks.—In the case of a corporation which would be a bank except for the fact that it is a foreign corporation, the net gain, if any, for the taxable year on sales and exchanges described in paragraph (1) shall be considered as gain from the sale or exchange of a capital asset to the extent such net gain does not exceed the portion of any capital loss carryover to such taxable year which is attributable to capital losses on sales or exchanges described in paragraph (1) (for a taxable year beginning before July 12, 1963). For purposes of the preceding sentence, the portion of a net capital loss for a taxable year which is attributable to capital losses on sales or exchanges described in paragraph (1) is the amount of the net capital loss on such sales or exchanges.
for such taxable year (but not in excess of the net capital loss for such taxable year)."

(b) Effective Date.—

(1) The amendment made by subsection (a) shall apply with respect to taxable years beginning after July 11, 1969.

(2) If the refund or credit of any overpayment attributable to the application of the amendment made by subsection (a) to any taxable year is otherwise prevented by the operation of any law or rule of law (other than section 7122 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, relating to compromises) on the day which is one year after the date of the enactment of this Act, such credit or refund shall be nevertheless allowed or made if claim therefor is filed on or before such day.

PART V—SPECIAL CATEGORIES OF FOREIGN TAX TREATMENT

SEC. 1053. TAX TREATMENT OF CORPORATIONS CONDUCTING TRADE OR BUSINESS IN PUERTO RICO AND POSSESSIONS OF THE UNITED STATES.

(a) Allowance of Puerto Rican and Possession Tax Credit.—

Section 33 (relating to taxes of foreign countries and possessions of the United States) is amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 33. TAXES OF FOREIGN COUNTRIES AND POSSESSIONS OF THE UNITED STATES; POSSESSION TAX CREDIT.

"(a) Foreign Tax Credit.— The amount of taxes imposed by foreign countries and possessions of the United States shall be allowed as a credit against the tax imposed by this chapter to the extent provided in section 901.

"(b) Section 936 Credit.— In the case of a domestic corporation, the amount provided by section 936 (relating to Puerto Rico and possession tax credit) shall be allowed as a credit against the tax imposed by this chapter."

(b) Rules on Possession Tax Credit.— Subpart D of part III of subchapter N of chapter 1 (relating to possessions of the United States) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

"SEC. 936. PUERTO RICO AND POSSESSION TAX CREDIT.

"(a) Allowance of Credit.—

"(1) In General.— Except as provided in paragraph (2), in the case of a domestic corporation which elects the application of this section, there shall be allowed as a credit against the tax imposed by this chapter an amount equal to the portion of the tax which is attributable to taxable income, from sources without the United States, from the active conduct of a trade or business within a possession of the United States, and from qualified possession source investment income, if the conditions of both subparagraph (A) and subparagraph (B) are satisfied:

"(A) 3-Year Period.— If 80 percent or more of the gross income of such domestic corporation for the 3-year period immediately preceding the close of the taxable year (or for such part of such period immediately preceding the close of such taxable year as may be applicable) was derived from sources within a possession of the United States (determined without regard to section 904(f)) ; and

 Antar, p. 1624.
(B) Trade or business.—If 50 percent or more of the gross income of such domestic corporation for such period or such part thereof was derived from the active conduct of a trade or business within a possession of the United States.

(2) Credit not allowed against certain taxes.—The credit provided by paragraph (1) shall not be allowed against the tax imposed by—

(A) section 56 (relating to minimum tax),

(B) section 531 (relating to the tax on accumulated earnings),

(C) section 541 (relating to personal holding company tax),

(D) section 1333 (relating to war loss recoveries), or

(E) section 1351 (relating to recoveries of foreign expropriation losses).

(b) Amounts received in United States.—In determining taxable income for purposes of subsection (a), there shall not be taken into account as income from sources without the United States any gross income which was received by such domestic corporation within the United States, whether derived from sources within or without the United States.

(c) Treatment of certain foreign taxes.—For purposes of this title, any tax of a foreign country or a possession of the United States which is paid or accrued with respect to taxable income which is taken into account in computing the credit under subsection (a) shall not be treated as income, war profits, or excess profits taxes paid or accrued to a foreign country or possession of the United States, and no deduction shall be allowed under this title with respect to any amounts so paid or accrued.

(d) Definitions.—For purposes of this section—

(1) Possession.—The term 'possession of the United States' includes the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, but does not include the Virgin Islands of the United States.

(2) Qualified possession source investment income.—The term 'qualified possession source investment income' means gross income which—

(A) is from sources within a possession of the United States in which a trade or business is actively conducted, and

(B) the taxpayer establishes to the satisfaction of the Secretary is attributable to the investment in such possession (for use therein) of funds derived from the active conduct of a trade or business in such possession, or from such investment, less the deductions properly apportioned or allocated thereto.

(e) Election.—

(1) Period of election.—The election provided in subsection (a) shall be made at such time and in such manner as the Secretary may by regulations prescribe. Any such election shall apply to the first taxable year for which such election was made and for which the domestic corporation satisfied the conditions of subparagraphs (A) and (B) of subsection (a)(1) and for each taxable year thereafter until such election is revoked by the domestic corporation under paragraph (2). If any such election is revoked by the domestic corporation under paragraph (2), such domestic corporation may make a subsequent election under subsection (a) for any taxable year thereafter for which such domestic corporation satisfies the conditions of subparagraphs (A) and (B) of subsection (a)(1) and any such subsequent election shall remain in effect until revoked by such domestic corporation under paragraph (2).

“(2) Revocation.—An election under subsection (a)—

“(A) may be revoked for any taxable year beginning before the expiration of the 9th taxable year following the taxable year for which such election first applies only with the consent of the Secretary; and

“(B) may be revoked for any taxable year beginning after the expiration of such 9th taxable year without the consent of the Secretary.

“(f) DISC or Former DISC Corporation Ineligible for Credit.—
No credit shall be allowed under this section to a corporation for a taxable year for which it is a DISC or former DISC (as defined in section 992(a)) or in which it owns at any time stock in a DISC or former DISC.

“(g) Exception to Accumulated Earnings Tax.—

“(1) For purposes of section 535, the term ‘accumulated taxable income’ shall not include taxable income entitled to the credit under subsection (a).

“(2) For purposes of section 537, the term ‘reasonable needs of the business’ includes assets which produce income eligible for the credit under subsection (a).”

(c) Amendments of Section 931.—

(1) Subsection (a) of section 931 (relating to general rule in the case of income from sources within possessions of the United States) is amended to read as follows:

“(a) General Rule.—In the case of individual citizens of the United States, gross income means only gross income from sources within the United States if the conditions of both paragraph (1) and paragraph (2) are satisfied:

“(1) 3-year period.—If 80 percent or more of the gross income of such citizen (computed without the benefit of this section) for the 3-year period immediately preceding the close of the taxable year (or for such part of such period immediately preceding the close of such taxable year as may be applicable) was derived from sources within a possession of the United States; and

“(2) Trade or business.—If 50 percent or more of his gross income (computed without the benefit of this section) for such period or such part thereof was derived from the active conduct of a trade or business within a possession of the United States either on his own account or as an employee or agent of another.”.

(2) Subsection (c) of section 931 (defining the term “possession”) is amended to read as follows:

“(c) Definition.—For purposes of this section, the term ‘possession of the United States’ does not include the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands of the United States, or Guam.”.

(3) Subsections (d), (e), and (f) of section 931 are each amended by striking out “persons” each place it appears and inserting in lieu thereof “a citizen of the United States”.

(d) Amendments of Section 901.—

(1) Section 901(d) (relating to certain corporations treated as foreign corporations) is amended to read as follows:

“(d) Treatment of Dividends From a DISC or Former DISC.—
For purposes of this subpart, dividends from a DISC or former DISC
(as defined in section 992(a)) shall be treated as dividends from a foreign corporation to the extent such dividends are treated under part I as income from sources without the United States.

(2) Section 901 (relating to taxes of foreign countries and possessions of the United States) is amended by redesignating subsection (g) as (h) and by inserting after subsection (f) the following new subsection:

"(g) Certain Taxes Paid With Respect to Distributions From Possessions Corporations.—

"(1) In general.—For purposes of this chapter, any tax of a foreign country or possession of the United States which is paid or accrued with respect to any distribution from a corporation, to the extent that such distribution is attributable to periods during which such corporation is a possessions corporation, shall not be treated as income, war profits, or excess profits taxes paid or accrued to a foreign country or possession of the United States, and no deduction shall be allowed under this title with respect to any amount so paid or accrued.

"(2) Possessions corporation.—For purposes of paragraph (1), a corporation shall be treated as a possessions corporation for any period during which an election under section 936 applied to such corporation or during which section 931 (as in effect on the day before the date of the enactment of the Tax Reform Act of 1976) applied to such corporation.

Ante, p. 1643.

(e) Amendment of Section 904(b).—Section 904(b) (as amended by sections 1031 and 1034(a) of this Act) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

"(4) Coordination with Section 936.—For purposes of subsection (a), in the case of a corporation, the taxable income shall not include any portion thereof taken into account for purposes of the credit (if any) allowed by section 936."

Ante, p. 1629.

(1) Section 243(b) (1) (defining qualifying dividends) is amended by adding "either" at the end of subparagraph (A), by striking out the period at the end of subparagraph (B) (ii) and inserting in lieu thereof a comma and "or", and by adding at the end thereof the following new subparagraph:

"(C) such dividends are paid by a corporation with respect to which an election under section 936 is in effect for the taxable year in which such dividends are paid."

Ante, p. 1643.

(2) Section 243(b) (3) (defining affiliated group) is amended by inserting ", 1504(b) (4)," immediately after "1504(b) (2)."

26 USC 246.

(3) Section 246(a) (relating to dividends from certain corporations) is amended to read as follows:

"(a) Deduction Not Allowed for Dividends From Certain Corporations.—The deductions allowed by sections 243, 244, and 245 shall not apply to any dividend from a corporation which, for the taxable year of the corporation in which the distribution is made, or for the next preceding taxable year of the corporation, is a corporation exempt from tax under section 501 (relating to certain charitable, etc., organizations) or section 521 (relating to farmers' cooperative associations)."

(g) Consolidated Return Treatment.—Section 1504(b) (4) (defining includible corporation) is amended to read as follows:

"(4) Corporations with respect to which an election under section 936 (relating to possession tax credit) is in effect for the taxable year."
(h) CONFORMING AMENDMENTS.—
(1) Section 48(a)(2)(B)(vii) (relating to definition of section 38 property) is amended by striking out “(other than a corporation entitled to the benefits of section 931 or 934(b))” and inserting in lieu thereof the following: “(other than a corporation which has an election in effect under section 936 or which is entitled to the benefits of section 934(b))”.
(2) Paragraph (2) of subsection 116(b) (relating to certain dividends excluded from partial exclusion of dividends received by individuals) is amended to read as follows:
“(2) a corporation which, for the taxable year of the corporation in which the distribution is made, or for the next preceding taxable year of the corporation, is a corporation exempt from tax under section 501 (relating to certain charitable, etc., organizations) or section 521 (relating to farmers' cooperative associations); or”.
(3) Section 861(a)(2)(A) (relating to income from sources within the United States) is amended by striking out “other than a corporation entitled to the benefits of section 931.” and inserting in lieu thereof the following: “other than a corporation which has an election in effect under section 936.”.

"(D) the sum of—

"(i) one-half of the excess of the taxable income of the DISC for the taxable year, before reduction for any distributions during the year, over the sum of the amounts deemed distributed for the taxable year under subparagraphs (A), (B), and (C), and

"(ii) an amount equal to the amount determined under clause (i) multiplied by the international boycott factor determined under section 999, and".

Sec. 1064. DETERMINATIONS AS TO PARTICIPATION IN OR COOPERATION WITH AN INTERNATIONAL BOYCOTT.

(a) In General.—Subchapter N of chapter 1 (relating to tax based on income from sources within or without the United States) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new part:

"PART V—INTERNATIONAL BOYCOTT DETERMINATIONS

"Sec. 999. Reports by taxpayers; determinations.

26 USC 999.

"SEC. 999. REPORTS BY TAXPAYERS; DETERMINATIONS.

(a) International Boycott Reports by Taxpayers.—

"(1) Report required.—If any person, or a member of a controlled group (within the meaning of section 993(a)(3)) which includes that person, has operations in, or related to—

"(A) a country (or with the government, a company, or a national of a country) which is on the list maintained by the Secretary under paragraph (3), or “(B) any other country (or with the government, a company, or a national of that country) in which such person or such member had operations during the taxable year if such person (or, if such person is a foreign corporation, any United States shareholder of that corporation) knows or has reason to know that participation in or cooperation with an international boycott is required as a condition of doing business within such country or with such government, company, or national, that person or shareholder (within the meaning of section 951(b)) shall report such operations to the Secretary at such time and in such manner as the Secretary prescribes, except that in the case of a foreign corporation such report shall be required only of a United States shareholder (within the meaning of such section) of such corporation.

“(2) Participation and cooperation; request therefor.—A taxpayer shall report whether he, a foreign corporation of which he is a United States shareholder, or any member of a controlled group which includes the taxpayer or such foreign corporation has participated in or cooperated with an international boycott at any time during the taxable year, or has been requested to participate in or cooperate with such a boycott, and, if so, the nature of any operation in connection with which there was participation in or cooperation with such boycott (or there was a request to participate or cooperate).

“(3) List to be maintained.—The Secretary shall maintain and publish not less frequently than quarterly a current list of countries which require or may require participation in or cooperation with an international boycott (within the meaning of subsection (b)(3)).

“(1) General rule.—If the person or a member of a controlled group (within the meaning of section 993(a)(3)) which includes the person participates in or cooperates with an international boycott in the taxable year, all operations of the taxpayer or such group in that country and in any other country which requires participation in or cooperation with the boycott as a condition of doing business within that country, or with the government, a company, or a national of that country, shall be treated as operations in connection with which such participation or cooperation occurred, except to the extent that the person can clearly demonstrate that a particular operation is a clearly separate and identifiable operation in connection with which there was no participation in or cooperation with an international boycott.

“(2) Special rule.—

“(A) Nonboycott operations.—A clearly separate and identifiable operation of a person, or of a member of the controlled group (within the meaning of section 993(a)(3)) which includes that person, in or related to any country within the group of countries referred to in paragraph (1) shall not be treated as an operation in or related to a group of countries associated in carrying out an international boycott if the person can clearly demonstrate that he, or that such member, did not participate in or cooperate with the international boycott in connection with that operation.
"(B) SEPARATE AND IDENTIFIABLE OPERATIONS.—A taxpayer may show that different operations within the same country, or operations in different countries, are clearly separate and identifiable operations.

"(3) DEFINITION OF BOYCOTT PARTICIPATION AND COOPERATION.—For purposes of this section, a person participates in or cooperates with an international boycott if he agrees—

"(A) as a condition of doing business directly or indirectly within a country or with the government, a company, or a national of a country—

"(i) to refrain from doing business with or in a country which is the object of the boycott or with the government, companies, or nationals of that country;

"(ii) to refrain from doing business with any United States person engaged in trade in a country which is the object of the boycott or with the government, companies, or nationals of that country;

"(iii) to refrain from doing business with any company whose ownership or management is made up, all or in part, of individuals of a particular nationality, race, or religion, or to remove (or refrain from selecting) corporate directors who are individuals of a particular nationality, race, or religion; or

"(iv) to refrain from employing individuals of a particular nationality, race, or religion; or

"(B) as a condition of the sale of a product to the government, a company, or a national of a country, to refrain from shipping or insuring that product on a carrier owned, leased, or operated by a person who does not participate in or cooperate with an international boycott (within the meaning of subparagraph (A)).

"(4) COMPLIANCE WITH CERTAIN LAWS.—This section shall not apply to any agreement by a person (or such member)—

"(A) to meet requirements imposed by a foreign country with respect to an international boycott if United States law or regulations, or an Executive Order, sanctions participation in, or cooperation with, that international boycott,

"(B) to comply with a prohibition on the importation of goods produced in whole or in part in any country which is the object of an international boycott, or

"(C) to comply with a prohibition imposed by a country on the exportation of products obtained in such country to any country which is the object of an international boycott.

"(c) INTERNATIONAL BOYCOTT FACTOR.—

"(1) INTERNATIONAL BOYCOTT FACTOR.—For purposes of sections 908(a), 982(a)(3), and 985(b)(3), the international boycott factor is a fraction, determined under regulations prescribed by the Secretary, the numerator of which reflects the world-wide operations of a person (or, in the case of a controlled group (within the meaning of section 983(a)(3)) which includes that person, of the group) which are operations in or related to a group of countries associated in carrying out an international boycott in or with which that person or a member of that controlled group has participated or cooperated in the taxable year, and the denominator of which reflects the world-wide operations of that person or group.
"(2) SPECIFICALLY ATTRIBUTABLE TAXES AND INCOME.—If the taxpayer clearly demonstrates that the foreign taxes paid and income earned for the taxable year are attributable to specific operations, then, in lieu of applying the international boycott factor for such taxable year, the amount of the credit disallowed under section 908(a), the addition to subpart F income under section 952(a)(3), and the amount of deemed distribution under section 995(b)(1)(D)(ii) for the taxable year, if any, shall be the amount specifically attributable to the operations in which there was participation in or cooperation with an international boycott under section 999(b)(1).

"(3) WORLD-WIDE OPERATIONS.—For purposes of this subsection, the term ‘world-wide operations’ means operations in or related to countries other than the United States.

"(d) DETERMINATIONS WITH RESPECT TO PARTICULAR OPERATIONS.—Upon a request made by the taxpayer, the Secretary shall issue a determination with respect to whether a particular operation of a person, or of a member of a controlled group which includes that person, constitutes participation in or cooperation with an international boycott. The Secretary may issue such a determination in advance of such operation in cases which are of such a nature that an advance determination is possible and appropriate under the circumstances. If the request is made before the operation is commenced, or before the end of a taxable year in which the operation is carried out, the Secretary may decline to issue such a determination before close of the taxable year.

"(e) PARTICIPATION OR COOPERATION BY RELATED PERSONS.—If a person controls (within the meaning of section 304(c)) a corporation—

"(1) participation in or cooperation with an international boycott by such corporation shall be presumed to be such participation or cooperation by such person, and

"(2) participation in or cooperation with such a boycott by such person shall be presumed to be such participation or cooperation by such corporation.

"(f) WILLFUL FAILURE TO REPORT.—Any person (within the meaning of section 6671(b)) required to report under this section who willfully fails to make such report shall, in addition to other penalties provided by law, be fined not more than $25,000, imprisoned for not more than one year, or both.

(b) CLERICAL AMENDMENT.—The table of parts for such subchapter is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new item:

"Part V. International boycott determinations."

SEC. 1065. FOREIGN BRIBES.

(a) DENIAL OR DEFERRAL.—

(1) CONTROLLED FOREIGN CORPORATIONS.—Section 952(a) (relating to general definition of subpart F income) is amended—

(A) by striking out “and” at the end of paragraph (2),

(B) by striking out the period at the end of paragraph (3) and inserting in lieu thereof a comma and the word “and”, and

(C) by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

"(4) the sum of the amounts of any illegal bribes, kickbacks, or other payments (within the meaning of section 182(c)) paid by or on behalf of the corporation during the taxable year of the corporation directly or indirectly to an official, employee, or agent in fact of a government.”

26 USC 952.

26 USC 995.

(2) DISC’s.—Subparagraph (D) of section 995(b)(1) (relating to distributions in qualified years) is amended—
(A) by striking out “and” at the end of clause (i),
(B) by adding at the end thereof the following new clause:
“(iii) any illegal bribe, kickback, or other payment (within the meaning of section 162(c)) paid by or on behalf of the DISC directly or indirectly to an official, employee, or agent in fact of a government, and”.

26 USC 964.

(b) BRIBES NOT TO REDUCE FOREIGN EARNINGS AND PROFITS.—Section 964(a) (relating to earnings and profits of foreign corporations) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following sentence: “In determining such earnings and profits, or the deficit in such earnings and profits, the amount of any illegal bribe, kickback, or other payment (within the meaning of section 162(c)) shall not be taken into account to decrease such earnings and profits or to increase such deficit.”.

SEC. 1066. EFFECTIVE DATES.

(a) INTERNATIONAL BOYCOTTS.—
(1) GENERAL RULE.—The amendments made by this part (other than by section 1065) apply to participation in or cooperation with an international boycott more than 30 days after the date of enactment of this Act.
(2) EXISTING CONTRACTS.—In the case of operations which constitute participation in or cooperation with an international boycott and which are carried out in accordance with the terms of a binding contract entered into before September 2, 1976, the amendments made by this part (other than by section 1065) apply to such participation or cooperation after December 31, 1977.

(b) FOREIGN BRIBES.—The amendments made by section 1065 apply to payments described in section 162(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 made more than 30 days after the date of enactment of this Act.

SEC. 1067. REPORTS BY SECRETARY.

26 USC 999

(a) REPORTS TO THE CONGRESS.—As soon after the close of each calendar year as the data become available, the Secretary shall transmit a report to the Committee on Ways and Means of the House of Representatives and to the Committee on Finance of the Senate setting forth, for that calendar year—
(1) the number of reports filed under section 999(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 for taxable years ending with or within such taxable year,
(2) the number of such reports on which the taxpayer indicated international boycott participation or cooperation (within the meaning of section 999(b)(3) of such Code), and
(3) a detailed description of the manner in which the provisions of such Code relating to international boycott activity have been administered during such calendar year.

(b) INITIAL LIST.—The Secretary of the Treasury shall publish an initial list of those countries which may require participation in or cooperation with an international boycott as a condition of doing business within such country, or with the government, a company, or a national of such country (within the meaning of section 999(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954) within 30 days after the enactment of this Act.
TITLE XI—AMENDMENTS AFFECTING DISC

SEC. 1101. AMENDMENTS AFFECTING DISC.

(a) In General.—Section 995 (relating to taxation of DISC income to shareholders) is amended—

(1) in paragraph (1) of subsection (b) thereof, by redesignating subparagraphs (D) and (E) as subparagraphs (F) and (G), respectively, by striking out “and (C)” in subparagraph (F) (as so redesignated) and inserting in lieu thereof “(C), (D), and (E)”, and by inserting after subparagraph (C) the following new subparagraphs:

“(D) 50 percent of the taxable income of the DISC for the taxable year attributable to military property,
“(E) the taxable income for the taxable year attributable to base period export gross receipts (as defined in subsection (e));”;

(2) in paragraph (2) (B) of subsection (b) thereof, by striking out “more than the number” and inserting in lieu thereof “more than twice the number”;

(3) by adding at the end of subsection (b) thereof the following new paragraph:

“(3) TAXABLE INCOME ATTRIBUTABLE TO MILITARY PROPERTY.—
“(A) In general.—For purposes of paragraph (1)(D), taxable income of a DISC for the taxable year attributable to military property shall be determined by only taking into account—

“(i) the gross income of the DISC for the taxable year which is attributable to military property, and “(ii) the deductions which are properly apportioned or allocated to such income,
“(B) Military property.—For purposes of subparagraph (A), the term ‘military property’ means any property which is an arm, ammunition, or implement of war designated in the munitions list published pursuant to the Military Security Act of 1954 (22 U.S.C. 1934).”;

(4) by adding at the end thereof the following new subsections:

“(c) Definitions and Special Rules Relating to Computation of Taxable Income Attributable to Base Period Export Gross Receipts.—

“(1) TAXABLE INCOME ATTRIBUTABLE TO BASE PERIOD EXPORT GROSS RECEIPTS.—For purposes of this section, the taxable income attributable to base period export gross receipts shall be an amount equal to that portion of the adjusted taxable income of a DISC which—

“(A) the amount of the adjusted base period export gross receipts, bears to “(B) the amount of the export gross receipts of the DISC for the taxable year.

“(2) ADJUSTED TAXABLE INCOME.—For purposes of this section, the term ‘adjusted taxable income’ means the income of a DISC for the taxable year, reduced by the amounts described in subparagraphs (A), (B), (C), and (D) of paragraph (1) of subsection (b).
"(3) Adjusted base period export gross receipts.—For purposes of this section, the term 'adjusted base period export gross receipts' means 67 percent of the average of the export gross receipts of the DISC for taxable years during the base period (as defined in paragraph (5)). For purposes of the preceding sentence, if any property would not qualify during the taxable year as export property by reason of section 993(c)(2), gross receipts from such property shall be excluded from export gross receipts during the taxable years in the base period.

"(4) Export gross receipts.—For purposes of this section, the term 'export gross receipts' means—

"(A) qualified export receipts described in subparagraphs (A), (B), (C), (G), and (H) of section 993(a)(1), reduced by

"(B) 50 percent of such qualified export receipts which are attributable to military property (as defined in subsection (b)(3)(B)).

"(5) Base period.—For purposes of paragraph (3)—

"(A) for any taxable year beginning before 1980, the base period shall be the taxable years beginning in 1972, 1973, 1974, and 1975,

"(B) for any taxable year beginning in any calendar year after 1979, the base period shall be the taxable years beginning in the fourth, fifth, sixth, and seventh calendar years preceding such calendar year.

"(6) No base period year.—If a DISC did not have a taxable year beginning in a calendar year specified in paragraph (5), then, for purposes of computing the adjusted base period export gross receipts, such DISC is deemed to have a taxable year and export gross receipts of zero for that year.

"(7) Short taxable year.—The Secretary shall prescribe such regulations as he deems necessary with respect to a short taxable year for purposes of computing base period export gross receipts of a DISC, or a short taxable year in which deemed distributions (as described in subsection (b)) are made, including the circumstances under which the short taxable year shall be annualized, and the proper method of annualization.

"(8) Controlled group.—If more than one member of a controlled group (as defined in section 993(a)(3)) for the taxable year qualifies as a DISC, then subsection (b)(1)(E), this subsection, and subsection (f) shall each be applied in a manner provided by regulations prescribed by the Secretary by aggregating the export gross receipts and taxable income of such DISCs for the taxable year and by aggregating the export gross receipts of such DISCs for each taxable year in the base period.

"(9) Special rule where the ownership of DISC stock and the trade or business giving rise to export gross receipts of the DISC are separated.—

"(A) In general.—If, at any time after the beginning of the base period, there has been a separation of the ownership of the stock in the DISC from the ownership of the trade or business which (during the base period) produced the export gross receipts of the DISC, then the persons who own the trade or business during the taxable year shall be treated as having had additional export gross receipts during the base period attributable to such trade or business.
"(B) Exceptions.—Subparagraph (A) shall not apply—
   "(i) where the stock in the DISC and the trade or business are owned throughout the taxable year by members of the same controlled group, and
   "(ii) to the extent that the taxpayer's ownership of the stock in the DISC for the taxable year is proportionate to his ownership during the taxable year of the trade or business.

"(10) DISC Base Period Attributed Through Shareholders in Certain Cases.—
   "(A) In General.—If—
      "(i) any person owns 5 percent or more of the stock of a DISC (hereinafter in this paragraph referred to as 'first DISC'), and
      "(ii) such person at any time during the base period of the first DISC owned 5 percent or more of the stock of a second DISC, then, to the extent provided in such regulations as the Secretary may prescribe to prevent circumvention of the application of subsection (b)(1)(E), an amount equal to such shareholder's share of the base period export gross receipts of the second DISC shall be added to the base period export gross receipts of the first DISC.

"(B) Ownership of Stock.—For purposes of subparagraph (A), the ownership of stock shall be determined under Section 318.

"(f) Small DISCs.—
   "(1) Adjusted taxable income of $100,000 or less.—If a DISC has adjusted taxable income of $100,000 or less for a taxable year, subsection (b)(1)(E) shall not apply with respect to such year.
   "(2) Special Rule.—If a DISC has adjusted taxable income of more than $100,000 for a taxable year, then the amount taken into account under subsection (b)(1)(E) shall be deemed to be an amount equal to the excess (if any) of—"(A) the amount which would (but for this paragraph) be taken into account under subsection (b)(1)(E), over
      "(B) twice the excess (if any) of $150,000 over the adjusted taxable income.

"(g) Certain Transfers of DISC Assets.—If—
   "(1) a corporation owns, directly or indirectly, all of the stock of a subsidiary and a DISC,
   "(2) the subsidiary has been engaged in the active conduct of a trade or business (within the meaning of section 355(b)) throughout the 5-year period ending on the date of the transfer and continues to be so engaged thereafter, and
   "(3) during the taxable year of the subsidiary in which its stock is transferred and its preceding taxable year, such trade or business gives rise to qualified export receipts of the subsidiary and the DISC, then, under such terms and conditions as the Secretary by regulations shall prescribe, transfers of assets, stock, or both, will be deemed to be a reorganization within the meaning of section 368, a transaction to which section 355 applies, an exchange of stock to which section 351 applies, or a combination thereof. The preceding sentence shall apply only to the extent that the transfer or transfers involved are for the purpose of preventing the separation of the ownership of the stock in regulations.
the DISC from the ownership of the trade or business which (during the base period) produced the export gross receipts of the DISC."

26 USC 993.

(b) Amendment of Section 993(c)(2).—Section 993(c)(2) (relating to property excluded from export property) is amended—

(1) by striking out "or" at the end of subparagraph (B), and

(2) by striking out "under section 611" in subparagraph (C) and inserting in lieu thereof "under section 613 or 613A".

(c) Amendments to Section 993(d).—Section 993(d) (relating to definition of producer's loans) is amended—

(1) by inserting in paragraph (1)(C) immediately after "export property", the following: "determined without regard to subparagraph (C) or (D) of subsection (c)(2)."

(2) by inserting in paragraph (2) immediately after "of property which would be export property" the following: "(determined without regard to subparagraph (C) or (D) of subsection (c)(2))."

(d) Recapture of Accumulated DISC Income on Disposition of Stock in a DISC or Former DISC.—

26 USC 995.

(1) Section 995(c) is amended to read as follows:

"(c) Gain on Disposition of Stock in a DISC.—"

"(1) In General.—If—

"(A) a shareholder disposes of stock in a DISC or former DISC any gain recognized on such disposition shall be included in gross income as a dividend to the extent provided in paragraph (2),

"(B) stock of a DISC or former DISC is disposed of in a transaction in which the separate corporate existence of the DISC or former DISC is terminated other than by a mere change in place of organization, however effected, any gain realized on the disposition of such stock in the transaction shall be recognized notwithstanding any other provision of this title to the extent provided in paragraph (2) and to the extent so recognized shall be included in gross income as a dividend, or

"(C) a shareholder distributes, sells, or exchanges stock in a DISC or former DISC in a transaction to which section 311, 336, or 337 applies, then an amount equal to the excess of the fair market value of such stock over its adjusted basis in the hands of the shareholder shall, notwithstanding any provision of this title, be included in gross income of the shareholder as a dividend to the extent provided in paragraph (2).

"(2) Amount Included.—The amounts described in paragraph (1) shall be included in gross income as a dividend to the extent of the accumulated DISC income of the DISC or former DISC which is attributable to the stock disposed of and which was accumulated in taxable years of such corporation during the period or periods the stock disposed of was held by the shareholder which disposed of such stock."

(2) Interest in a Partnership Holding Stock in a DISC.—

The last sentence of section 751(c) (relating to unrealized receivables) is amended—

(A) by striking out "(as defined in section 617(f)(2))," and inserting in lieu thereof "(as defined in section 617(f)(2)), stock in a DISC (as described in section 992(a))," and

(B) by striking out "617(d)(1), 1245(a)," and inserting in lieu thereof "617(d)(1), 995(c), 1245(a),".
(e) Rules for Allocating Distributions Made To Meet Qualification Requirements.—Paragraph (2) of section 996(a) (relating to rules for actual distributions and certain deemed distributions) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new sentence: "In the case of any amount of any actual distribution made pursuant to section 992(c) which is required to satisfy the condition of section 992(a)(1)(A), the preceding sentence shall apply to one-half of such amount, and paragraph (1) shall apply to the remaining one-half of such amount."

(f) Amendment of Section 603(b) of Tax Reduction Act of 1975.—Section 603(b) of the Tax Reduction Act of 1975 (relating to effective date) is amended to read as follows:

"(b) Effective Dates.—

"(1) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in paragraph (2), the amendments made by subsection (a) shall apply to sales, exchanges, and other dispositions made after March 18, 1975, in taxable years ending after such date.

"(2) BINDING CONTRACT.—The amendments made by subsection (a) shall not apply to sales, exchanges, and other dispositions made after March 18, 1975, but before March 19, 1980, if such sales, exchanges, and other dispositions are made pursuant to a fixed contract. The term `fixed contract' means a contract which was, on March 18, 1975, and is at all times thereafter binding on the DISC or a taxpayer which was a member of the same controlled group (within the meaning of section 993(a)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954) as the DISC, which was entered into after the date on which the DISC qualified as a DISC and the DISC and the taxpayer became members of the same controlled group, and under which the price and quantity of the products sold, exchanged, or otherwise disposed of cannot be increased."

(g) Effective Dates.—

"(1) FOR SUBSECTIONS (a) AND (e).—The amendments made by subsections (a) and (e) shall apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1975.

"(2) FOR SUBSECTION (b).—The amendments made by subsection (b) shall apply to sales, exchanges, and other dispositions made after March 18, 1975, in taxable years ending after such date.

"(3) FOR SUBSECTIONS (c) AND (f).—The amendments made by subsections (c) and (f) shall apply to taxable years ending after March 18, 1975.

"(4) FOR SUBSECTION (d).—The amendments made by subsection (d) shall apply to sales, exchanges, or other dispositions after December 31, 1975, in taxable years ending after such date.

"(5) PRORATION OF BASE PERIOD IN CASE OF FIXED CONTRACTS.—For purposes of determining adjusted base period export gross receipts (under section 995(e) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended by this section), if any DISC has export gross receipts from export property by reason of paragraph (2) of section 603(b) of the Tax Reduction Act of 1975, then the export gross receipts of such DISC for the taxable years of the base period shall be increased by an amount equal to the amount of gross receipts which were excluded from export gross receipts during each taxable year of the base period by reason of the last sentence of section 993(e)(3) of such Code multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the amount of the gross receipts in the taxable year which are export gross receipts by reason of paragraph (2) of section 603(b) of the Tax Reduction Act of 1975 and the denominator of which is the amount of total gross receipts which are excluded from export gross receipts in the taxable year by reason of subparagraph (C) or (D) of paragraph (2) of section 993(c) (determined without regard to paragraph (2) of section 603(b) of the Tax Reduction Act of 1975).

TITLE XII—ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS

SEC. 1201. PUBLIC INSPECTION OF WRITTEN DETERMINATIONS BY INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE.

(a) REQUIREMENT THAT WRITTEN DETERMINATIONS BE OPEN TO PUBLIC INSPECTION.—Subchapter B of chapter 61 (relating to miscellaneous provisions) is amended by redesignating section 6110 as 6111 and by inserting after section 6109 the following new section:

"SEC. 6110. PUBLIC INSPECTION OF WRITTEN DETERMINATIONS.

Regulations. "(a) GENERAL RULE.—Except as otherwise provided in this section, the text of any written determination and any background file document relating to such written determination shall be open to public inspection at such place as the Secretary may by regulations prescribe.

"(b) DEFINITIONS.—For purposes of this section—

"(1) WRITTEN DETERMINATION.—The term 'written determination' means a ruling, determination letter, or technical advice memorandum.

"(2) BACKGROUND FILE DOCUMENT.—The term 'background file document' with respect to a written determination includes the request for that written determination, any written material submitted in support of the request, and any communication (written or otherwise) between the Internal Revenue Service and persons outside the Internal Revenue Service in connection with such written determination (other than any communication between the Department of Justice and the Internal Revenue Service relating to a pending civil or criminal case or investigation) received before issuance of the written determination.

"(3) REFERENCE AND GENERAL WRITTEN DETERMINATIONS.—

"(A) REFERENCE WRITTEN DETERMINATION.—The term 'reference written determination' means any written determination which has been determined by the Secretary to have significant reference value.

"(B) GENERAL WRITTEN DETERMINATION.—The term 'general written determination' means any written determination other than a reference written determination.

"(c) EXEMPTIONS FROM DISCLOSURE.—Before making any written determination or background file document open or available to public inspection under subsection (a), the Secretary shall delete—

"(1) the names, addresses, and other identifying details of the person to whom the written determination pertains and of any other person, other than a person with respect to whom a notation is made under subsection (d) (1), identified in the written determination or any background file document;

"(2) information specifically authorized under criteria established by an Executive order to be kept secret in the interest of national defense or foreign policy, and which is in fact properly classified pursuant to such Executive order;
“(3) information specifically exempted from disclosure by any statute (other than this title) which is applicable to the Internal Revenue Service;

“(4) trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a person and privileged or confidential;

“(5) information the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy;

“(6) information contained in or related to examination, operating, or condition reports prepared by, or on behalf of, or for use of an agency responsible for the regulation or supervision of financial institutions; and “(7) geological and geophysical information and data, including maps, concerning wells.

The Secretary shall determine the appropriate extent of such deletions and, except in the case of intentional or willful disregard of this subsection, shall not be required to make such deletions (nor be liable for failure to make deletions) unless the Secretary has agreed to such deletions or has been ordered by a court (in a proceeding under subsection (f)(3)) to make such deletions.

“(d) PROCEDURES WITH REGARD TO THIRD PARTY CONTACTS.—

“(1) NOTATIIONS.—If, before the issuance of a written determination, the Internal Revenue Service receives any communication (written or otherwise) concerning such written determination, any request for such determination, or any other matter involving such written determination from a person other than an employee of the Internal Revenue Service or the person to whom such written determination pertains (or his authorized representative with regard to such written determination), the Internal Revenue Service shall indicate, on the written determination open to public inspection, the category of the person making such communication and the date of such communication.

“(2) EXCEPTION.—Paragraph (1) shall not apply to any communication made by the Chief of Staff of the Joint Committee on Taxation.

“(3) DISCLOSURE OF IDENTITY.—In the case of any written determination to which paragraph (1) applies, any person may file a petition in the United States Tax Court or file a complaint in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia for an order requiring that the identity of any person to whom the written determination pertains be disclosed. The court shall order disclosure of such identity if there is evidence in the record from which one could reasonably conclude that an impropriety occurred or undue influence was exercised with respect to such written determination by or on behalf of such person. The court may also direct the Secretary to disclose any portion of any other deletions made in accordance with subsection (c) where such disclosure is in the public interest. If a proceeding is commenced under this paragraph, the person whose identity is subject to being disclosed and the person about whom a notation is made under paragraph (1) shall be notified of the proceeding in accordance with the procedures described in subsection (f)(4)(B) and shall have the right to intervene in the proceeding (anonymously, if appropriate).

“(4) PERIOD IN WHICH TO BRING ACTION.—No proceeding shall be commenced under paragraph (3) unless a petition is filed before the expiration of 36 months after the first day that the written determination is open to public inspection.
"(e) Background File Documents.—Whenever the Secretary makes a written determination open to public inspection under this section, he shall also make available to any person, but only upon the written request of that person, any background file document relating to the written determination.

"(f) Resolution of Disputes Relating to Disclosure.—

"(1) Notice of intention to disclose.—The Secretary shall upon issuance of any written determination, or upon receipt of a request for a background file document, mail a notice of intention to disclose such determination or document to any person to whom the written determination pertains (or a successor in interest, executor, or other person authorized by law to act for or on behalf of such person).

"(2) Administrative remedies.—The Secretary shall prescribe regulations establishing administrative remedies with respect to—

"(A) requests for additional disclosure of any written determination of any background file document, and

"(B) requests to restrain disclosure.

"(3) Action to restrain disclosure.—

"(A) Creation of remedy.—Any person—

"(i) to whom a written determination pertains (or a successor in interest, executor, or other person authorized by law to act for or on behalf of such person), or who has a direct interest in maintaining the confidentiality of any such written determination or background file document (or portion thereof),

"(ii) who disagrees with any failure to make a deletion with respect to that portion of any written determination or any background file document which is to be open or available to public inspection, and

"(iii) who has exhausted his administrative remedies as prescribed pursuant to paragraph (2), may, within 60 days after the mailing by the Secretary of a notice of intention to disclose any written determination or background file document under paragraph (1), together with the proposed deletions, file a petition in the United States Tax Court (anonymously, if appropriate) for a determination with respect to that portion of such written determination or background file document which is to be open to public inspection.

"(B) Notice to certain persons.—The Secretary shall notify any person to whom a written determination pertains (unless such person is the petitioner) of the filing of a petition under this paragraph with respect to such written determination or related background file document, and any such person may intervene (anonymously, if appropriate) in any proceeding conducted pursuant to this paragraph. The Secretary shall send such notice by registered or certified mail to the last known address of such person within 15 days after such petition is served on the Secretary. No person who has received such a notice may thereafter file any petition under this paragraph with respect to such written determination or background file document with respect to which such notice was received.

"(4) Action to obtain additional disclosure.—

"(A) Creation of remedy.—Any person who has exhausted the administrative remedies prescribed pursuant to para-paragraph (2) with respect to a request for disclosure may file a petition in the United States Tax Court or a complaint in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia for an order requiring that any written determination or background file document (or portion thereof) be made open or available to public inspection. Except where inconsistent with subparagraph (B), the provisions of subparagraphs (C), (D), (E), (F), and (G) of section 552(a) (4) of title 5, United States Code, shall apply to any proceeding under this paragraph. The Court shall examine the matter de novo and without regard to a decision of a court under paragraph (3) with respect to such written determination or background file document, and may examine the entire text of such written determination or background file document in order to determine whether such written determination or background file document or any part thereof shall be open or available to public inspection under this section. The burden of proof with respect to the issue of disclosure of any information shall be on the Secretary and any other person seeking to restrain disclosure.

"(B) INTERVENTION.—If a proceeding is commenced under this paragraph with respect to any written determination or background file document, the Secretary shall, within 15 days after notice of the petition filed under subparagraph (A) is served on him, send notice of the commencement of such proceeding to all persons who are identified by name and address in such written determination or background file document. The Secretary shall send such notice by registered or certified mail to the last known address of such person. Any person to whom such determination or background file document pertains may intervene in the proceeding (anonymously, if appropriate). If such notice is sent, the Secretary shall not be required to defend the action and shall not be liable for public disclosure of the written determination or background file document (or any portion thereof) in accordance with the final decision of the court.

"(5) EXPEDITION OF DETERMINATION.—The Tax Court shall make a decision with respect to any petition described in paragraph (3) at the earliest practicable date and the Court of Appeals shall expedite any review of such decision in every way possible.

"(6) PUBLICITY OF TAX COURT PROCEEDINGS.—Notwithstanding sections 7458 and 7461, the Tax Court may, in order to preserve the anonymity, privacy, or confidentiality of any person under this section, provide by rules adopted under section 7453 that portions of hearings, testimony, evidence, and reports in connection with proceedings under this section may be closed to the public or to inspection by the public.

"(g) TIME FOR DISCLOSURE.—

"(1) IN GENERAL.—Except as otherwise provided in this section, the text of any written determination or any background file document (as modified under subsection (c)) shall be open or available to public inspection—

"(A) no earlier than 75 days, and no later than 90 days, after the notice provided in subsection (f) (1) is mailed, or, if later, “(B) within 30 days after the date on which a court decision under subsection (f) (3) becomes final.

“(2) POSTPONEMENT BY ORDER OF COURT.—The court may extend the period referred to in paragraph (1) (B) for such time as the court finds necessary to allow the Secretary to comply with its decision.

“(3) POSTPONEMENT OF DISCLOSURE FOR UP TO 90 DAYS.—At the written request of the person by whom or on whose behalf the request for the written determination was made, the period referred to in paragraph (1) (A) shall be extended (for not to exceed an additional 90 days) until the day which is 15 days after the date of the Secretary’s determination that the transaction set forth in the written determination has been completed.

“(4) ADDITIONAL 180 DAYS.—If—

“(A) the transaction set forth in the written determination is not completed during the period set forth in paragraph (3), and

“(B) the person by whom or on whose behalf the request for the written determination was made establishes to the satisfaction of the Secretary that good cause exists for additional delay in opening the written determination to public inspection, the period referred to in paragraph (3) shall be further extended (for not to exceed an additional 180 days) until the day which is 15 days after the date of the Secretary’s determination that the transaction set forth in the written determination has been completed.

“(5) SPECIAL RULES FOR CERTAIN WRITTEN DETERMINATIONS, ET AL.—Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (1), the Secretary shall not be required to make available to the public—

“(A) any technical advice memorandum and any related background file document involving any matter which is the subject of a civil fraud or criminal investigation or jeopardy or termination assessment until after any action relating to such investigation or assessment is completed, or

“(B) any general written determination and any related background file document that relates solely to approval of the Secretary of any adoption or change of—

“(i) the funding method or plan year of a plan under section 412, “(ii) a taxpayer’s annual accounting period under section 442, “(iii) a taxpayer’s method of accounting under section 446(e), or “(iv) a partnership’s or partner’s taxable year under section 706, but the Secretary shall make any such written determination and related background file document available upon the written request of any person after the date on which (except for this subparagraph) such determination would be open to public inspection.

“(h) DISCLOSURE OF PRIOR WRITTEN DETERMINATIONS AND RELATED BACKGROUND FILE DOCUMENTS.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, a written determination issued pursuant to a request made before November 1, 1976, and any background file document relating to such written determination shall be open or available to public inspection in accordance with this section.

"(2) TIME FOR DISCLOSURE.—In the case of any written determination or background file document which is to be made open or available to public inspection under paragraph (1)—

"(A) subsection (g) shall not apply, but

"(B) such written determination or background file document shall be made open or available to public inspection at the earliest practicable date after funds for that purpose have been appropriated and made available to the Internal Revenue Service.

"(3) ORDER OF RELEASE.—Any written determination or background file document described in paragraph (1) shall be open or available to public inspection in the following order starting with the most recent written determination in each category:

"(A) reference written determinations issued under this title;

"(B) general written determinations issued after July 4, 1967; and

"(C) reference written determinations issued under the Internal Revenue Code of 1939 or corresponding provisions of prior law.

General written determinations not described in subparagraph (B) shall be open to public inspection on written request, but not until after the written determinations referred to in subparagraphs (A), (B), and (C) are open to public inspection.

"(4) NOTICE THAT PRIOR WRITTEN DETERMINATIONS ARE OPEN TO PUBLIC INSPECTION.—Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (f)(1) and (f)(3)(A), not less than 90 days before making any portion of a written determination described in this subsection open to public inspection, the Secretary shall issue public notice in the Federal Register that such written determination is to be made open to public inspection. The person who received a written determination may, within 75 days after the date of publication of notice under this paragraph, file a petition in the United States Tax Court (anonymously, if appropriate) for a determination with respect to that portion of such written determination which is to be made open to public inspection. The provisions of subsections (f)(3)(B), (5), and (6) shall apply if such a petition is filed. If no petition is filed, the text of any written determination shall be open to public inspection no earlier than 90 days, and no later than 120 days, after notice is published in the Federal Register.

"(5) EXCLUSION.—Subsection (d) shall not apply to any written determination described in paragraph (1).

"(i) CIVIL REMEDIES.—

"(1) CIVIL ACTION.—Whenever the Secretary—

"(A) fails to make deletions required in accordance with subsection (c), or

"(B) fails to follow the procedures in subsection (g), the recipient of the written determination or any person identified in the written determination shall have as an exclusive civil remedy an action against the Secretary in the Court of Claims, which shall have jurisdiction to hear any action under this paragraph.

"(2) DAMAGES.—In any suit brought under the provisions of paragraph (1)(A) in which the Court determines that an employee of the Internal Revenue Service intentionally or willfully failed to delete in accordance with subsection (c), or in any suit brought under subparagraph (1) (B) in which the Court determines that an employee intentionally or willfully failed to act in accordance with subsection (g), the United States shall be liable to the person in an amount equal to the sum of—

“(A) actual damages sustained by the person but in no case shall a person be entitled to receive less than the sum of $1,000, and

“(B) the costs of the action together with reasonable attorney’s fees as determined by the Court.

“(j) Special Provisions.—

“(1) Fees.—The Secretary is authorized to assess actual costs—

“(A) for duplication of any written determination or background file document made open or available to the public under this section, and

“(B) incurred in searching for and making deletions required under subsection (c) from any written determination or background file document which is available to public inspection only upon written request.

The Secretary shall furnish any written determination or background file document without charge or at a reduced charge if he determines that waiver or reduction of the fee is in the public interest because furnishing such determination or background file document can be considered as primarily benefiting the general public.

“(2) Records Disposal Procedures.—Nothing in this section shall prevent the Secretary from disposing of any general written determination or background file document described in subsection (b) in accordance with established records disposition procedures, but such disposal shall, except as provided in the following sentence, occur not earlier than 3 years after such written determination is first made open to public inspection. In the case of any general written determination described in subsection (h), the Secretary may dispose of such determination and any related background file document in accordance with such procedures but such disposal shall not occur earlier than 3 years after such written determination is first made open to public inspection if funds are appropriated for such purpose before January 20, 1979, or not earlier than January 20, 1979, if funds are not appropriated before such date. The Secretary shall not dispose of any reference written determinations and related background file documents.

“(3) Precedential Status.—Unless the Secretary otherwise establishes by regulations, a written determination may not be used or cited as precedent. The preceding sentence shall not apply to change the precedential status (if any) of written determinations with regard to taxes imposed by subtitle D of this title.

“(k) Section Not To Apply.—This section shall not apply to—

“(1) any matter to which section 6104 applies, or

“(2) any—

“(A) written determination issued pursuant to a request made before November 1, 1976, with respect to the exempt status under section 501(a) of an organization described in section 501 (c) or (d), the status of an organization as a private foundation under section 509(a), or the status of an organization as an operating foundation under section 4942(j)(3),
"(B) written determination described in subsection (g) (5) (B) issued pursuant to a request made before November 1, 1976,
"(C) determination letter not otherwise described in subparagraph (A), (B), or (E) issued pursuant to a request made before November 1, 1976,
"(D) background file document relating to any general written determination issued before July 5, 1967, or
"(E) letter or other document described in section 6104 (a) (1) (B) (iv) issued before September 2, 1974.

"(1) EXCLUSIVE REMEDY.—Except as otherwise provided in this title, or with respect to a discovery order made in connection with a judicial proceeding, the Secretary shall not be required by any Court to make any written determination or background file document open or available to public inspection, or to refrain from disclosure of any such documents;"

(b) EFFECT UPON PENDING REQUESTS.—Any written determination or background file document which is the subject of a judicial proceeding pursuant to section 552 of title 5, United States Code, commenced before January 1, 1976, shall not be treated as a written determination subject to subsection (h)(1), but shall be available to the complainant along with the background file document, if requested, as soon as practicable after July 1, 1976.

(c) CLERICAL AMENDMENT.—The table of sections for subchapter B of chapter 61 is amended by striking out the item relating to section 6110 and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"Sec. 6110. Public inspection of written determinations.
Sec. 6111. Cross references."

(d) LETTERS MADE PUBLIC.—
(1) Section 6104(a) (1) (A) (relating to inspection of applications for tax exemption) is amended—
(A) by inserting after "such application," in the first sentence thereof the following: "and any letter or other document issued by the Internal Revenue Service with respect to such application"; and
(B) by inserting after "such application" in the second sentence thereof the following: "and such letter or document".
(2) The amendments made by this subsection apply to any letter or other document issued with respect to applications filed after October 31, 1976.

(e) EFFECTIVE DATE.—Except as otherwise provided in this section, the amendments made by this section shall take effect on November 1, 1976.

SEC. 1202. CONFIDENTIALITY AND DISCLOSURE OF RETURNS AND RETURN INFORMATION.

(a) CONFIDENTIALITY.—
(1) In general.—Section 6103 (relating to publicity of tax returns and disclosure of information as to persons filing tax returns) is amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 6103. CONFIDENTIALITY AND DISCLOSURE OF RETURNS AND RETURN INFORMATION.

"(a) General Rule.—Returns and return information shall be confidential, and except as authorized by this title—
“(1) no officer or employee of the United States, “(2) no officer or employee of any State or of any local child support enforcement agency who has or had access to returns or return information under this section, and “(3) no other person (or officer or employee thereof) who has or had access to returns or return information under subsection (e) (1) (D) (iii) or subsection (n), shall disclose any return or return information obtained by him in any manner in connection with his service as such an officer or an employee or otherwise or under the provisions of this section. For purposes of this subsection, the term ‘officer or employee’ includes a former officer or employee.
“(b) Definitions.—For purposes of this section—
“(1) Return.—The term ‘return’ means any tax or information return, declaration of estimated tax, or claim for refund required by, or provided for or permitted under, the provisions of this title which is filed with the Secretary by, on behalf of, or with respect to any person, and any amendment or supplement thereto, including supporting schedules, attachments, or lists which are supplemental to, or part of, the return so filed.
“(2) Return information.—The term ‘return information’ means—“(A) a taxpayer’s identity, the nature, source, or amount of his income, payments, receipts, deductions, exemptions, credits, assets, liabilities, net worth, tax liability, tax withheld, deficiencies, overassessments, or tax payments, whether the taxpayer’s return was, is being, or will be examined or subject to other investigation or processing, or any other data, received by, recorded by, prepared by, furnished to, or collected by the Secretary with respect to a return or with respect to the determination of the existence, or possible existence, of liability (or the amount thereof) of any person under this title for any tax, penalty, interest, fine, forfeiture, or other imposition, or offense, and “(B) any part of any written determination or any background file document relating to such written determination (as such terms are defined in section 6110(b)) which is not open to public inspection under section 6110, but such term does not include data in a form which cannot be associated with, or otherwise identify, directly or indirectly, a particular taxpayer.
“(3) Taxpayer return information.—The term ‘taxpayer return information’ means return information as defined in paragraph (2) which is filed with, or furnished to, the Secretary by or on behalf of the taxpayer to whom such return information relates.
“(4) Tax administration.—The term ‘tax administration’—
“(A) means—
“(i) the administration, management, conduct, direction, and supervision of the execution and application of the internal revenue laws or related statutes (or equivalent laws and statutes of a State) and tax conventions to which the United States is a party, and “(ii) the development and formulation of Federal tax policy relating to existing or proposed internal revenue laws, related statutes, and tax conventions, and “(B) includes assessment, collection, enforcement, litigation, publication, and statistical gathering functions under such laws, statutes, or conventions.

“(5) State.—The term ‘State’ means any of the 50 States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, the Canal Zone, Guam, American Samoa, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, and the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands.

“(6) Taxpayer identity.—The term ‘taxpayer identity’ means the name of a person with respect to whom a return is filed, his mailing address, his taxpayer identifying number (as described in section 6109), or a combination thereof.

“(7) Inspection.—The terms ‘inspected’ and ‘inspection’ mean any examination of a return or return information.

“(8) Disclosure.—The term ‘disclosure’ means the making known to any person in any manner whatever a return or return information.

“(9) Federal agency.—The term ‘Federal agency’ means an agency within the meaning of section 551(1) of title 5, United States Code.

“(c) Disclosure of Returns and Return Information To Designee of Taxpayer.—The Secretary may, subject to such requirements and conditions as he may prescribe by regulations, disclose the return of any taxpayer, or return information with respect to such taxpayer, to such person or persons as the taxpayer may designate in a written request for or consent to such disclosure, or to any other person at the taxpayer’s request to the extent necessary to comply with a request for information or assistance made by the taxpayer to such other person. However, return information shall not be disclosed to such person or persons if the Secretary determines that such disclosure would seriously impair Federal tax administration.

“(d) Disclosure to State Tax Officials.—Returns and return information with respect to taxes imposed by chapters 1, 2, 6, 11, 12, 21, 23, 24, 44, 51, and 52 and subchapter D of chapter 36, shall be open to inspection by or disclosure to any State agency, body, or commission, or its legal representative, which is charged under the laws of such State with responsibility for the administration of State tax laws for the purpose of, and only to the extent necessary in, the administration of such laws, including any procedures with respect to locating any person who may be entitled to a refund. Such inspection shall be permitted, or such disclosure made, only upon written request by the head of such agency, body, or commission, and only to the representatives of such agency, body, or commission designated in such written request as the individuals who are to inspect or to receive the return or return information on behalf of such agency, body, or commission. Such representatives shall not include any individual who is the chief executive officer of such State or who is neither an employee or legal representative of such agency, body, or commission nor a person described in subsection (n). However, such return information shall not be disclosed to the extent that the Secretary determines that such disclosure would identify a confidential informant or seriously impair any civil or criminal tax investigation.

“(e) Disclosure to Persons Having Material Interest.—

“(1) In General.—The return of a person shall, upon written request, be open to inspection by or disclosure to—

“(A) in the case of the return of an individual—

26 USC 6109.

Regulations.
“(i) that individual,
“(ii) if property transferred by that individual to a trust is sold or exchanged in a transaction described in section 644, the trustee or trustees, jointly or separately, of such trust to the extent necessary to ascertain any amount of tax imposed upon the trust by section 644, or “(iii) the spouse of that individual if the individual and such spouse have signified their consent to consider a gift reported on such return as made one-half by him and one-half by the spouse pursuant to the provisions of section 2513;
“(B) in the case of an income tax return filed jointly, either of the individuals with respect to whom the return is filed;
“(C) in the case of the return of a partnership, any person who was a member of such partnership during any part of the period covered by the return;
“(D) in the case of the return of a corporation or a subsidiary thereof—
“(i) any person designated by resolution of its board of directors or other similar governing body, “(ii) any officer or employee of such corporation upon written request signed by any principal officer and attested to by the secretary or other officer,
“(iii) any bona fide shareholder of record owning 1 percent or more of the outstanding stock of such corporation,
“(iv) if the corporation was a foreign personal holding company, as defined by section 552, any person who was a shareholder during any part of a period covered by such return if with respect to that period, or any part thereof, such shareholder was required under section 551 to include in his gross income undistributed foreign personal holding company income of such company,
“(v) if the corporation was an electing small business corporation under subchapter S of chapter 1, any person who was a shareholder during any part of the period covered by such return during which an election was in effect, or “(vi) if the corporation has been dissolved, any person authorized by applicable State law to act for the corporation or any person who the Secretary finds to have a material interest which will be affected by information contained therein;
“(E) in the case of the return of an estate—
“(i) the administrator, executor, or trustee of such estate, and “(ii) any heir at law, next of kin, or beneficiary under the will of the decedent, but only if the Secretary finds that such heir at law, next of kin, or beneficiary has a material interest which will be affected by information contained therein; and “(F) in the case of the return of a trust—
“(i) the trustee or trustees, jointly or separately, and “(ii) any beneficiary of such trust, but only if the Secretary finds that such beneficiary has a material interest which will be affected by information contained therein.
“(2) INCOMPETENCY.—If an individual described in paragraph (1) is legally incompetent, the applicable return shall, upon written request, be open to inspection by or disclosure to the committee, trustee, or guardian of his estate.

“(3) DECEASED INDIVIDUALS.—The return of a decedent shall, upon written request, be open to inspection by or disclosure to—

“(A) the administrator, executor, or trustee of his estate, and

“(B) any heir at law, next of kin, or beneficiary under the will, of such decedent, or a donee of property, but only if the Secretary finds that such heir at law, next of kin, beneficiary, or donee has a material interest which will be affected by information contained therein.

“(4) BANKRUPTCY.—If substantially all of the property of the person with respect to whom the return is filed is in the hands of a trustee in bankruptcy or receiver, such return or returns for prior years of such person shall, upon written request, be open to inspection by or disclosure to such trustee or receiver, but only if the Secretary finds that such receiver or trustee, in his fiduciary capacity, has a material interest which will be affected by information contained therein.

“(5) ATTORNEY IN FACT.—Any return to which this subsection applies shall, upon written request, also be open to inspection by or disclosure to the attorney in fact duly authorized in writing by any of the persons described in paragraph (1), (2), (3), or (4) to inspect the return or receive the information on his behalf, subject to the conditions provided in such paragraphs.

“(6) RETURN INFORMATION.—Return information with respect to any taxpayer may be open to inspection by or disclosure to any person authorized by this subsection to inspect any return of such taxpayer if the Secretary determines that such disclosure would not seriously impair Federal tax administration.

“(f) DISCLOSURE TO COMMITTEES OF CONGRESS.—

“(1) COMMITTEE ON WAYS AND MEANS, COMMITTEE ON FINANCE, AND JOINT COMMITTEE ON TAXATION.—Upon written request from the chairman of the Committee on Ways and Means of the House of Representatives, the chairman of the Committee on Finance of the Senate, or the chairman of the Joint Committee on Taxation, the Secretary shall furnish such committee with any return or return information specified in such request, except that any return or return information which can be associated with, or otherwise identify, directly or indirectly, a particular taxpayer shall be furnished to such committee only when sitting in closed executive session unless such taxpayer otherwise consents in writing to such disclosure.

“(2) CHIEF OF STAFF OF JOINT COMMITTEE ON TAXATION.—Upon written request by the Chief of Staff of the Joint Committee on Taxation, the Secretary shall furnish him with any return or return information specified in such request. Such Chief of Staff may submit such return or return information to any committee described in paragraph (1), except that any return or return information which can be associated with, or otherwise identify, directly or indirectly, a particular taxpayer shall be furnished to such committee only when sitting in closed executive session unless such taxpayer otherwise consents in writing to such disclosure.

“(3) OTHER COMMITTEES.—Pursuant to an action by, and upon written request by the chairman of, a committee of the Senate or the House of Representatives (other than a committee specified in paragraph (1)) specially authorized to inspect any return or return information by a resolution of the Senate or the House of Representatives or, in the case of a joint committee (other than the joint committee specified in paragraph (1)) by concurrent resolution, the Secretary shall furnish such committee, or a duly authorized and designated subcommittee thereof, sitting in closed executive session, with any return or return information which such resolution authorizes the committee or subcommittee to inspect. Any resolution described in this paragraph shall specify the purpose for which the return or return information is to be furnished and that such information cannot reasonably be obtained from any other source.

"(4) AGENTS OF COMMITTEES AND SUBMISSION OF INFORMATION TO SENATE OR HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.—

"(A) COMMITTEES DESCRIBED IN PARAGRAPH (1).—Any committee described in paragraph (1) or the Chief of Staff of the Joint Committee on Taxation shall have the authority, acting directly, or by or through such examiners or agents as the chairman of such committee or such chief of staff may designate or appoint, to inspect returns and return information at such time and in such manner as may be determined by such chairman or chief of staff. Any return or return information obtained by or on behalf of such committee pursuant to the provisions of this subsection may be submitted by the committee to the Senate or the House of Representatives, or to both. The Joint Committee on Taxation may also submit such return or return information to any other committee described in paragraph (1), except that any return or return information which can be associated with, or otherwise identify, directly or indirectly, a particular taxpayer shall be furnished to such committee only when sitting in closed executive session unless such taxpayer otherwise consents in writing to such disclosure.

"(B) OTHER COMMITTEES.—Any committee or subcommittee described in paragraph (3) shall have the right, acting directly, or by or through no more than four examiners or agents, designated or appointed in writing in equal numbers by the chairman and ranking minority member of such committee or subcommittee, to inspect returns and return information at such time and in such manner as may be determined by such chairman and ranking minority member. Any return or return information obtained by or on behalf of such committee or subcommittee pursuant to the provisions of this subsection may be submitted by the committee to the Senate or the House of Representatives, or to both, except that any return or return information which can be associated with, or otherwise identify, directly or indirectly, a particular taxpayer, shall be furnished to the Senate or the House of Representatives only when sitting in closed executive session unless such taxpayer otherwise consents in writing to such disclosure.

"(g) DISCLOSURE TO PRESIDENT AND CERTAIN OTHER PERSONS.—

"(1) IN GENERAL.—Upon written request by the President, signed by him personally, the Secretary shall furnish to the President, or to such employee or employees of the White House Office as the President may designate by name in such request, a return or return information with respect to any taxpayer named in such request. Any such request shall state—

"(A) the name and address of the taxpayer whose return or return information is to be disclosed,

"(B) the kind of return or return information which is to be disclosed,

"(C) the taxable period or periods covered by such return or return information, and

"(D) the specific reason why the inspection or disclosure is requested.

"(2) DISCLOSURE OF RETURN INFORMATION AS TO PRESIDENTIAL APPOINTEES AND CERTAIN OTHER FEDERAL GOVERNMENT APPOINTEES.—The Secretary may disclose to a duly authorized representative of the Executive Office of the President or to the head of any Federal agency, upon written request by the President or head of such agency, or to the Federal Bureau of Investigation on behalf of and upon written request by the President or such head, return information with respect to an individual who is designated as being under consideration for appointment to a position in the executive or judicial branch of the Federal Government. Such return information shall be limited to whether such individual—

"(A) has filed returns with respect to the taxes imposed under chapter 1 for not more than the immediately preceding 3 years;

"(B) has failed to pay any tax within 10 days after notice and demand, or has been assessed any penalty under this title for negligence, in the current year or immediately preceding 3 years;

"(C) has been or is under investigation for possible criminal offenses under the internal revenue laws and the results of any such investigation; or

"(D) has been assessed any civil penalty under this title for fraud.

Within 3 days of the receipt of any request for any return information with respect to any individual under this paragraph, the Secretary shall notify such individual in writing that such information has been requested under the provisions of this paragraph.

"(3) RESTRICTION ON DISCLOSURE.—The employees to whom returns and return information are disclosed under this subsection shall not disclose such returns and return information to any other person except the President or the head of such agency without the personal written direction of the President or the head of such agency.

"(4) RESTRICTION ON DISCLOSURE TO CERTAIN EMPLOYEES.—Disclosure of returns and return information under this subsection shall not be made to any employee whose annual rate of basic pay is less than the annual rate of basic pay specified for positions subject to section 5316 of title 5, United States Code.

"(5) REPORTING REQUIREMENTS.—Within 30 days after the close of each calendar quarter, the President and the head of any agency requesting returns and return information under this subsection shall each file a report with the Joint Committee on Taxation setting forth the taxpayers with respect to whom such requests were made during such quarter under this subsection, the returns or return information involved, and the reasons for such requests. The President shall not be required to report on any request for returns and return information pertaining to an individual who was an officer or employee of the executive branch of the Federal Government at the time such request was made. Reports filed pursuant to this paragraph shall not be disclosed unless the Joint Committee on Taxation determines that disclosure thereof (including identifying details) would be in the national interest. Such reports shall be maintained by the Joint Committee on Taxation for a period not exceeding 2 years unless, within such period, the Joint Committee on Taxation determines that a disclosure to the Congress is necessary.

"(h) Disclosure to Certain Federal Officers and Employees for Purposes of Tax Administration, Etc.—

"(1) Department of the Treasury.—Returns and return information shall, without written request, be open to inspection by or disclosure to officers and employees of the Department of the Treasury whose official duties require such inspection or disclosure for tax administration purposes.

"(2) Department of Justice.—A return or return information shall be open to inspection by or disclosure to attorneys of the Department of Justice (including United States attorneys) personally and directly engaged in, and solely for their use in, preparation for any proceeding (or investigation which may result in such a proceeding) before a Federal grand jury or any Federal or State court in a matter involving tax administration, but only if—

"(A) the taxpayer is or may be a party to such proceeding;
"(B) the treatment of an item reflected on such return is or may be related to the resolution of an issue in the proceeding or investigation; or
"(C) such return or return information relates or may relate to a transactional relationship between a person who is or may be a party to the proceeding and the taxpayer which affects, or may affect, the resolution of an issue in such proceeding or investigation.

"(3) Form of Request.—In any case in which the Secretary is authorized to disclose a return or return information to the Department of Justice pursuant to the provisions of this subsection—

"(A) if the Secretary has referred the case to the Department of Justice, or if the proceeding is authorized by subchapter B of chapter 76, the Secretary may make such disclosure on his own motion, or
"(B) if the Secretary receives a written request from the Attorney General, the Deputy Attorney General, or an Assistant Attorney General for a return of, or return information relating to, a person named in such request and setting forth the need for the disclosure, the Secretary shall disclose return or return the information so requested.

"(4) Disclosure in Judicial and Administrative Tax Proceedings.—A return or return information may be disclosed in a Federal or State judicial or administrative proceeding pertaining to tax administration, but only—

"(A) if the taxpayer is a party to such proceeding;
"(B) if the treatment of an item reflected on such return is directly related to the resolution of an issue in the proceeding;

"(C) if such return or return information directly relates to a transactional relationship between a person who is a party to the proceeding and the taxpayer which directly affects the resolution of an issue in the proceeding; or

"(D) to the extent required by order of a court pursuant to section 3500 of title 18, United States Code, or rule 16 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, such court being authorized in the issuance of such order to give due consideration to congressional policy favoring the confidentiality of returns and return information as set forth in this title.

However, such return or return information shall not be disclosed as provided in subparagraph (A), (B), or (C) if the Secretary determines that such disclosure would identify a confidential informant or seriously impair a civil or criminal tax investigation.

"(5) PROSPECTIVE JURORS.—In connection with any judicial proceeding described in paragraph (4) to which the United States is a party, the Secretary shall respond to a written inquiry from an attorney of the Department of Justice (including a United States attorney) involved in such proceeding or any person (or his legal representative) who is a party to such proceeding as to whether an individual who is a prospective juror in such proceeding has or has not been the subject of any audit or other tax investigation by the Internal Revenue Service. The Secretary shall limit such response to an affirmative or negative reply to such inquiry.

"(i) DISCLOSURE TO FEDERAL OFFICERS OR EMPLOYEES FOR ADMINISTRATION OF FEDERAL LAWS NOT RELATING TO TAX ADMINISTRATION.—

"(1) NONTAX CRIMINAL INVESTIGATION.—

"(A) INFORMATION FROM TAXPAYER.—A return or taxpayer return information shall, pursuant to, and upon the grant of, an ex parte order by a Federal district court judge as provided by this paragraph, be open, but only to the extent necessary as provided in such order, to officers and employees of a Federal agency personally and directly engaged in and solely for their use in, preparation for any administrative or judicial proceeding (or investigation which may result in such a proceeding) pertaining to the enforcement of a specifically designated Federal criminal statute (not involving tax administration) to which the United States or such agency is or may be a party.

"(B) APPLICATION FOR ORDER.—The head of any Federal agency described in subparagraph (A) or, in the case of the Department of Justice, the Attorney General, the Deputy Attorney General, or an Assistant Attorney General, may authorize an application to a Federal district court judge for the order referred to in subparagraph (A). Upon such application, such judge may grant such order if he determines on the basis of the facts submitted by the applicant that—"(i) there is reasonable cause to believe, based upon information believed to be reliable, that a specific criminal act has been committed;

"(ii) there is reason to believe that such return or return information is probative evidence of a matter in issue related to the commission of such criminal act; and “(iii) the information sought to be disclosed cannot reasonably be obtained from any other source, unless it is determined that, notwithstanding the reasonable availability of the information from another source, the return or return information sought constitutes the most probative evidence of a matter in issue relating to the commission of such criminal act.

However, the Secretary shall not disclose any return or return information under this paragraph if he determines and certifies to the court that such disclosure would identify a confidential informant or seriously impair a civil or criminal tax investigation.

“(2) RETURN INFORMATION OTHER THAN TAXPAYER RETURN INFORMATION.—Upon written request from the head of a Federal agency described in paragraph (1)(A), or in the case of the Department of Justice, the Attorney General, the Deputy Attorney General, or an Assistant Attorney General, the Secretary shall disclose return information (other than taxpayer return information) to officers and employees of such agency personally and directly engaged in, and solely for their use in, preparation for any administrative or judicial proceeding (or investigation which may result in such a proceeding) described in paragraph (1) (A). Such request shall set forth—

“(A) the name and address of the taxpayer with respect to whom such return information relates;
“(B) the taxable period or periods to which the return information relates;
“(C) the statutory authority under which the proceeding or investigation is being conducted; and “(D) the specific reason or reasons why such disclosure is or may be material to the proceeding or investigation.

However, the Secretary shall not disclose any return or return information under this paragraph if he determines that such disclosure would identify a confidential informant or seriously impair a civil or criminal tax investigation.

“(3) DISCLOSURE OF RETURN INFORMATION CONCERNING POSSIBLE CRIMINAL ACTIVITIES.—The Secretary may disclose in writing return information, other than taxpayer return information, which may constitute evidence of a violation of Federal criminal laws to the extent necessary to apprise the head of the appropriate Federal agency charged with the responsibility for enforcing such laws.

“(4) USE IN JUDICIAL OR ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDING.—Any return or return information obtained under paragraph (1), (2), or (3) may be entered into evidence in any administrative or judicial proceeding pertaining to enforcement of a specifically designated Federal criminal statute (not involving tax administration) to which the United States or an agency described in paragraph (1) (A) is a party but, in the case of any return or return information obtained under paragraph (1), only if the court finds that such return or return information is probative of a matter in issue relevant in establishing the commission of a crime or the guilt of a party. However, any return or return information obtained under paragraph (1), (2), or (3) shall not be admitted into evidence in such proceeding if the Secretary determines and notifies the Attorney General or his delegate or the head of such agency that such admission would identify a confidential informant or seriously impair a civil or criminal tax investigation. The admission into evidence of any return or return information contrary to the provisions of this paragraph shall not, as such, constitute reversible error upon appeal of a judgment in such proceeding.

"(5) Renegotiation of Contracts.—A return or return information with respect to the tax imposed by chapter 1 upon a taxpayer subject to the provisions of the Renegotiation Act of 1951 shall, upon request in writing by the Chairman of the Renegotiation Board, be open to officers and employees of such board personally and directly engaged in, and solely for their use in, verifying or analyzing financial information required by such Act to be filed with, or otherwise disclosed to, the board, or to the extent necessary to implement the provisions of section 1481 or 1482. The Chairman of the Renegotiation Board may, upon referral of any matter with respect to such Act to the Department of Justice for further legal action, disclose such return and return information to any employee of such department charged with the responsibility for handling such matters.

"(6) Comptroller General.—

"(A) Returns Available for Inspection.—Except as provided in subparagraph (B), upon written request by the Comptroller General of the United States, returns and return information shall be open to inspection by, or disclosure to, officers and employees of the General Accounting Office for the purpose of, and to the extent necessary in, making—

"(i) an audit of the Internal Revenue Service or the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms which may be required by section 117 of the Budget and Accounting Procedures Act of 1950 (31 U.S.C. 67), or

"(ii) any audit authorized by subsection (p)(6), except that no such officer or employee shall, except to the extent authorized by subsection (f) or (p)(6), disclose to any person, other than another officer or employee of such office whose official duties require such disclosure, any return or return information described in section 4424(a) in a form which can be associated with, or otherwise identify, directly or indirectly, a particular taxpayer, nor shall such officer or employee disclose any other return or return information, except as otherwise expressly provided by law, to any person other than such other officer or employee of such office in a form which can be associated with, or otherwise identify, directly or indirectly, a particular taxpayer.

"(B) Disapproval by Joint Committee on Taxation.—Returns and return information shall not be open to inspection or disclosed under subparagraph (A) with respect to an audit—

"(i) unless the Comptroller General of the United States notifies in writing the Joint Committee on Taxation of such audit, and

"(ii) if the Joint Committee on Taxation disapproves such audit by a vote of at least two-thirds of its members within the 30-day period beginning on the day the Joint Committee on Taxation receives such notice.
“(j) Statistical Use.—

“(1) Department of Commerce.—Upon request in writing by the Secretary of Commerce, the Secretary shall furnish—

“(A) such returns, or return information reflected thereon, to officers and employees of the Bureau of the Census, and as the Secretary may prescribe by regulation for the purpose of, but only to the extent necessary in, the structuring of censuses and national economic accounts and conducting related statistical activities authorized by law.

“(B) such return information reflected on returns of corporations to officers and employees of the Bureau of Economic Analysis,

“(2) Federal Trade Commission.—Upon request in writing by the Chairman of the Federal Trade Commission, the Secretary shall furnish such return information reflected on any return of a corporation with respect to the tax imposed by chapter 1 to officers and employees of the Division of Financial Statistics of the Bureau of Economics of such commission as the Secretary may prescribe by regulation for the purpose of, but only to the extent necessary in, administration by such division of legally authorized economic surveys of corporations.

“(3) Department of Treasury.—Returns and return information shall be open to inspection by or disclosure to officers and employees of the Department of the Treasury whose official duties require such inspection or disclosure for the purpose of, but only to the extent necessary in, preparing economic or financial forecasts, projections, analyses, and statistical studies and conducting related activities. Such inspection or disclosure shall be permitted only upon written request which sets forth the specific reason or reasons why such inspection or disclosure is necessary and which is signed by the head of the bureau or office of the Department of the Treasury requesting the inspection or disclosure.

“(4) Anonymous Form.—No person who receives a return or return information under this subsection shall disclose such return or return information to any person other than the taxpayer to whom it relates except in a form which cannot be associated with, or otherwise identify, directly or indirectly, a particular taxpayer.

“(k) Disclosure of Certain Returns and Return Information for Tax Administration Purposes.—

“(1) Disclosure of accepted offers-in-compromise.—Return information shall be disclosed to members of the general public to the extent necessary to permit inspection of any accepted offer-in-compromise under section 7122 relating to the liability for a tax imposed by this title.

“(2) Disclosure of amount of outstanding lien.—If a notice of lien has been filed pursuant to section 6323(f), the amount of the outstanding obligation secured by such lien may be disclosed to any person who furnishes satisfactory written evidence that he has a right in the property subject to such lien or intends to obtain a right in such property.

“(3) Disclosure of return information to correct misstatements of fact.—The Secretary may, but only following approval by the Joint Committee on Taxation, disclose such return information or any other information with respect to any specific taxpayer to the extent necessary for tax administration purposes to correct a misstatement of fact published or disclosed.
with respect to such taxpayer's return or any transaction of the taxpayer with the Internal Revenue Service.

"(4) Disclosure to competent authority under income tax convention.—A return or return information may be disclosed to a competent authority of a foreign government which has an income tax convention with the United States but only to the extent provided in, and subject to the terms and conditions of, such convention.

"(5) State agencies regulating tax return preparers.—Taxpayer identity information with respect to any income tax return preparer, and information as to whether or not any penalty has been assessed against such income tax return preparer under section 6694, 6695, or 7216, may be furnished to any agency, body, or commission lawfully charged under any State or local law with the licensing, registration, or regulation of income tax return preparers. Such information may be furnished only upon written request by the head of such agency, body, or commission designating the officers or employees to whom such information is to be furnished. Information may be furnished and used under this paragraph only for purposes of the licensing, registration, or regulation of income tax return preparers.

"(6) Disclosure by internal revenue officers and employees for investigative purposes.—An internal revenue officer or employee may, in connection with his official duties relating to any audit, collection activity, or civil or criminal tax investigation or any other offense under the internal revenue laws, disclose return information to the extent that such disclosure is necessary in obtaining information, which is not otherwise reasonably available, with respect to the correct determination of tax, liability for tax, or the amount to be collected or with respect to the enforcement of any other provision of this title. Such disclosures shall be made only in such situations and under such conditions as the Secretary may prescribe by regulation.

"(1) Disclosure of returns and return information for purposes other than tax administration.—

"(1) Disclosure of certain returns and return information to social security administration and railroad retirement board.—The Secretary may, upon written request, disclose returns and return information with respect to—

"(A) taxes imposed by chapters 2, 21, and 24, to the Social Security Administration for purposes of its administration of the Social Security Act;

"(B) a plan to which part I of subchapter D of chapter 1 applies, to the Social Security Administration for purposes of carrying out its responsibility under section 1131 of the Social Security Act, limited, however, to return information described in section 6057(d); and

"(C) taxes imposed by chapter 22, to the Railroad Retirement Board for purposes of its administration of the Railroad Retirement Act.

"(2) Disclosure of returns and return information to the department of labor and pension benefit guaranty corporation.—The Secretary may, upon written request, furnish returns and return information to the proper officers and employees of the Department of Labor and the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation for purposes of, but only to the extent necessary in, the Post, pp. 1689, 1692.

26 USC 7216.

Regulations.

"(3) Disclosure of Returns and Return Information to Privacy Protection Study Commission.—The Secretary may, upon written request, disclose returns and return information to the Privacy Protection Study Commission, or to such members, officers, or employees of such commission as may be named in such written request, to the extent provided under section 5 of the Privacy Act of 1974.

"(4) Disclosure of Returns and Return Information for Use in Personnel or Claimant Representative Matters.—The Secretary may disclose returns and return information—

"(A) upon written request—

"(i) to an employee or former employee of the Department of the Treasury, or to the duly authorized legal representative of such employee or former employee, who is or may be a party to any administrative action or proceeding affecting the personnel rights of such employee or former employee; or

"(ii) to any person, or to the duly authorized legal representative of such person, whose rights are or may be affected by an administrative action or proceeding under section 3 of the Act of July 7, 1884 (23 Stat. 258; 31 U.S.C. 1026), solely for use in the action or proceeding, or in preparation for the action or proceeding, but only to the extent that the Secretary determines that such returns or return information is or may be relevant and material to the action or proceeding; or

"(B) to officers and employees of the Department of the Treasury for use in any action or proceeding described in subparagraph (A), or in preparation for such action or proceeding, to the extent necessary to advance or protect the interests of the United States.

"(5) Department of Health, Education, and Welfare.—Upon written request by the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare, the Secretary may disclose information returns filed pursuant to part III of subchapter A of chapter 61 of this subtitle for the purpose of carrying out, in accordance with an agreement entered into pursuant to section 232 of the Social Security Act, an effective return processing program.

"(6) Disclosure of Return Information to Federal, State, and Local Child Support Enforcement Agencies.—

"(A) Return Information from Internal Revenue Service.—The Secretary may, upon written request, disclose to the appropriate Federal, State, or local child support enforcement agency—

"(i) available return information from the master files of the Internal Revenue Service relating to the address, filing status, amounts and nature of income, and the number of dependents reported on any return filed by, or with respect to, any individual with respect to whom child support obligations are sought to be established or enforced pursuant to the provisions of part D of title IV of the Social Security Act and with respect to any individual to whom such support obligations are owing, and “(ii) available return information reflected on any return filed by, or with respect to, any individual described in clause (i) relating to the amount of such individual’s gross income (as defined in section 61) or consisting of the names and addresses of payors of such income and the names of any dependents reported on such return, but only if such return information is not reasonably available from any other source.

“(B) Restriction on disclosure.—The Secretary shall disclose return information under subparagraph (A) only for purposes of, and to the extent necessary in, establishing and collecting child support obligations from, and locating, individuals owing such obligations.

“(m) Disclosure of Taxpayer Identity Information.—The Secretary is authorized—

“(1) to disclose taxpayer identity information to the press and other media for purposes of notifying persons entitled to tax refunds when the Secretary, after reasonable effort and lapse of time, has been unable to locate such persons, and

“(2) upon written request, to disclose the mailing address of a taxpayer to officers and employees of an agency personally and directly engaged in, and solely for their use in, preparation for any administrative or judicial proceeding (or investigation which may result in such a proceeding) pertaining to the collection or compromise of a Federal claim against such taxpayer in accordance with the provisions of section 3 of the Federal Claims Collection Act of 1966.

“(n) Certain Other Persons.—Pursuant to regulations prescribed by the Secretary, returns and return information may be disclosed to any person, including any person described in section 7513(a), to the extent necessary in connection with the processing, storage, transmission, and reproduction of such returns and return information, and the programming, maintenance, repair, testing, and procurement of equipment, for purposes of tax administration.

“(o) Disclosure of Returns and Return Information With Respect to Certain Taxes.—

“(1) Taxes imposed by subtitle E.—Returns and return information with respect to taxes imposed by subtitle E (relating to taxes on alcohol, tobacco, and firearms) shall be open to inspection by or disclosure to officers and employees of a Federal agency whose official duties require such inspection or disclosure.

“(2) Taxes imposed by chapter 35.—Returns and return information with respect to taxes imposed by chapter 35 (relating to taxes on wagering) shall, notwithstanding any other provision of this section, be open to inspection by or disclosure only to such person or persons and for such purpose or purposes as are prescribed by section 4424.

“(1) Manner, time, and place of inspections.—Requests for the inspection or disclosure of a return or return information and such inspection or disclosure shall be made in such manner and at such time and place as shall be prescribed by the Secretary.

“(2) Procedure.—

“(A) Reproduction of returns.—A reproduction or certified reproduction of a return shall, upon written request, be furnished to any person to whom disclosure or inspection of such return is authorized under this section. A reasonable fee may be prescribed for furnishing such reproduction or certified reproduction.

(B) Disclosure of return information.—Return information disclosed to any person under the provisions of this title may be provided in the form of written documents, reproductions of such documents, films or photoimpressions, or electronically produced tapes, disks, or records, or by any other mode or means which the Secretary determines necessary or appropriate. A reasonable fee may be prescribed for furnishing such return information.

(C) Use of reproductions.—Any reproduction of any return, document, or other matter made in accordance with this paragraph shall have the same legal status as the original, and any such reproduction shall, if properly authenticated, be admissible in evidence in any judicial or administrative proceeding as if it were the original, whether or not the original is in existence.

(3) Records of inspection and disclosure.—

(A) System of recordkeeping.—Except as otherwise provided by this paragraph, the Secretary shall maintain a permanent system of standardized records or accountings of all requests for inspection or disclosure of returns and return information (including the reasons for and dates of such requests) and of returns and return information inspected or disclosed under this section. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 552a(c) of title 5, United States Code, the Secretary shall not be required to maintain a record or accounting of requests for inspection or disclosure of returns and return information, or of returns and return information inspected or disclosed, under the authority of subsections (c), (e), (h)(1), (3)(A), or (4), (i)(4) or (6)(A)(ii), (k)(1), (2), or (6), (1)(1) or (4)(B) or (5), (m), or (n). The records or accountings required to be maintained under this paragraph shall be available for examination by the Joint Committee on Taxation or the Chief of Staff of such joint committee. Such record or accounting shall also be available for examination by such person or persons as may be, but only to the extent, authorized to make such examination under section 552a(c)(3) of title 5, United States Code.

(B) Report by the secretary.—The Secretary shall, within 90 days after the close of each calendar year, furnish to the Joint Committee on Taxation a report with respect to, or summary of, the records or accountings described in subparagraph (A) in such form and containing such information as such joint committee or the Chief of Staff of such joint committee may designate. Such report or summary shall not, however, include a record or accounting of any request by the President under subsection (g) for, or the disclosure in response to such request of, any return or return information with respect to any individual who, at the time of such request, was an officer or employee of the executive branch of the Federal Government. Such report or summary, or any part thereof, may be disclosed by such joint committee to such persons and for such purposes as the joint committee may, by record vote of a majority of the members of the joint committee, determine.

"(C) PUBLIC REPORT ON DISCLOSURES.—The Secretary shall, within 90 days after the close of each calendar year, furnish to the Joint Committee on Taxation for disclosure to the public a report with respect to the records or accountings described in subparagraph (A) which—

"(i) provides with respect to each Federal agency, each agency, body, or commission described in subsection (d) or (1)(3) or (6), and the General Accounting Office the number of—

"(I) requests for disclosure of returns and return information,

"(II) instances in which returns and return information were disclosed pursuant to such requests,

"(III) taxpayers whose returns, or return information with respect to whom, were disclosed pursuant to such requests, and

"(ii) describes the general purposes for which such requests were made,

"(4) SAFEGUARDS.—Any Federal agency described in subsection (h)(2), (i) (1), (2) or (5), (j) (1) or (2), (l) (1), (2), or (5), or (o)(1), the General Accounting Office, or any agency, body, or commission described in subsection (d) or (1)(3) or (6) shall, as a condition for receiving returns or return information—

"(A) establish and maintain, to the satisfaction of the Secretary, a permanent system of standardized records with respect to any request, the reason for such request, and the date of such request made by or of it and any disclosure of return or return information made by or to it;

"(B) establish and maintain, to the satisfaction of the Secretary, a secure area or place in which such returns or return information shall be stored;

"(C) restrict, to the satisfaction of the Secretary, access to the returns or return information only to persons whose duties or responsibilities require access and to whom disclosure may be made under the provisions of this title;

"(D) provide such other safeguards which the Secretary determines (and which he prescribes in regulations) to be necessary or appropriate to protect the confidentiality of the returns or return information;

"(E) furnish a report to the Secretary, at such time and containing such information as the Secretary may prescribe, which describes the procedures established and utilized by such agency, body, or commission or the General Accounting Office for ensuring the confidentiality of returns and return information required by this paragraph; and

"(F) upon completion of use of such returns or return information—

"(i) in the case of an agency, body, or commission described in subsection (d) or (1)(6), return to the Secretary such returns or return information (along with any copies made therefrom) or make such returns or return information undisclosable in any manner and furnish a written report to the Secretary describing such manner; and
"(ii) in the case of an agency described in subsections (h)(2), (i)(1), (2), or (5), (j)(1) or (2), (l)(1), (2), or (5), or (o)(1), the commission described in subsection (l)(3), or the General Accounting Office, either—

"(I) return to the Secretary such returns or return information (along with any copies made therefrom),

"(II) otherwise make such returns or return information undisclosable, or

"(III) to the extent not so returned or made undisclosable, ensure that the conditions of subparagraphs (A), (B), (C), (D), and (E) of this paragraph continue to be met with respect to such returns or return information, except that the conditions of subparagraphs (A), (B), (C), (D), and (E) shall cease to apply with respect to any return or return information if, and to the extent that, such return or return information is disclosed in the course of any judicial or administrative proceeding and made a part of the public record thereof. If the Secretary determines that any such agency, body, or commission or the General Accounting Office has failed to, or does not, meet the requirements of this paragraph, he may, after any proceedings for review established under paragraph (7), take such actions as are necessary to ensure such requirements are met, including refusing to disclose returns or return information to such agency, body, or commission or the General Accounting Office until he determines that such requirements have been or will be met.

"(5) REPORT ON PROCEDURES AND SAFEGUARDS.—After the close of each calendar quarter, the Secretary shall furnish to each committee described in subsection (f)(1) a report which describes the procedures and safeguards established and utilized by such agencies, bodies, or commissions and the General Accounting Office for ensuring the confidentiality of returns and return information as required by this subsection. Such report shall also describe instances of deficiencies in, and failure to establish or utilize, such procedures.

"(6) AUDIT OF PROCEDURES AND SAFEGUARDS.—

"(A) AUDIT BY COMPTROLLER GENERAL.—The Comptroller General may audit the procedures and safeguards established by such agencies, bodies, or commissions pursuant to this subsection to determine whether such safeguards and procedures meet the requirements of this subsection and ensure the confidentiality of returns and return information. The Comptroller General shall notify the Secretary before any such audit is conducted.

"(B) RECORDS OF INSPECTION AND REPORTS BY THE COMPTROLLER GENERAL.—The Comptroller General shall—

"(i) maintain a permanent system of standardized records and accountings of returns and return information inspected by officers and employees of the General Accounting Office under subsection (i) (6)(A)(ii) and shall, within 90 days after the close of each calendar year, furnish to the Secretary a report with respect to, or summary of, such records or accountings in such form and containing such information as the Secretary may prescribe, and “(ii) furnish an annual report to each committee described in subsection (f) and to the Secretary setting forth his findings with respect to any audit conducted pursuant to subparagraph (A).

The Secretary may disclose to the Joint Committee any report furnished to him under clause (i).

“(7) ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW.—The Secretary shall by regulations prescribe procedures which provide for administrative review of any determination under paragraph (4) that any agency, body, or commission described in subsection (d) has failed to meet the requirements of such paragraph.

“(8) STATE LAW REQUIREMENTS.—

“(A) SAFEGUARDS.—Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, no return or return information shall be disclosed after December 31, 1978, to any officer or employee of any State which requires a taxpayer to attach to, or include in, any State tax return a copy of any portion of his Federal return, or information reflected on such Federal return, unless such State adopts provisions of law which protect the confidentiality of the copy of the Federal return (or portion thereof) attached to, or the Federal return information reflected on, such State tax return.

“(B) DISCLOSURE OF RETURNS OR RETURN INFORMATION IN STATE RETURNS.—Nothing in subparagraph (A) shall be construed to prohibit the disclosure by an officer or employee of any State of any copy of any portion of a Federal return or any information on a Federal return which is required to be attached or included in a State return to another officer or employee of such State (or political subdivision of such State) if such disclosure is specifically authorized by State law.

“(q) REGULATIONS.—The Secretary is authorized to prescribe such other regulations as are necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.

(2) CONFORMING AMENDMENT.—The table of sections for subchapter B of chapter 61 is amended by striking out the item relating to section 6103 and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

“Sec. 6103. Confidentiality and disclosure of returns and return information.”

(b) STATISTICAL PUBLICATIONS AND STUDIES.—Section 6108 (relating to publication of statistics of income) is amended to read as follows:

“SEC. 6108. STATISTICAL PUBLICATIONS AND STUDIES.

“(a) PUBLICATION OR OTHER DISCLOSURE OF STATISTICS OF INCOME.—The Secretary shall prepare and publish not less than annually statistics reasonably available with respect to the operations of the internal revenue laws, including classifications of taxpayers and of income, the amounts claimed or allowed as deductions, exemptions, and credits, and any other facts deemed pertinent and valuable.

“(b) SPECIAL STATISTICAL STUDIES.—The Secretary may, upon written request by any party or parties, make special statistical studies and compilations involving return information (as defined in section 6108(b)(2)) and furnish to such party or parties transcripts of any such special statistical study or compilation. A reasonable fee may be prescribed for the cost of the work or services performed for such party or parties.
“(c) ANONYMOUS FORM.—No publication or other disclosure of statistics or other information required or authorized by subsection (a) or special statistical study authorized by subsection (b) shall in any manner permit the statistics, study, or any information so published, furnished, or otherwise disclosed to be associated with, or otherwise identify, directly or indirectly, a particular taxpayer.”

(c) INSPECTION OF CERTAIN RECORDS BY LOCAL OFFICERS.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Section 4102 (relating to inspection of records, returns, etc., by local officers) is amended to read as follows:

“SEC. 4102. INSPECTION OF RECORDS BY LOCAL OFFICERS.

Regulations.

“Under regulations prescribed by the Secretary, records required to be kept with respect to taxes under this part shall be open to inspection by such officers of a State, or a political subdivision of any such State, as shall be charged with the enforcement or collection of any tax on gasoline or lubricating oils.”

(2) CONFORMING AMENDMENT.—The table of sections for subpart B of part III of chapter 32 is amended by striking out the item relating to section 4102 and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

“Sec. 4102. Inspection of records by local officers.”

(d) PENALTY FOR UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION.—

Section 7213 (relating to unauthorized disclosure of information) is amended by striking out subsection (c), redesignating subsections (d) and (e) as (c) and (d), respectively, and by amending subsection (a) to read as follows:

“(a) RETURNS AND RETURN INFORMATION.—

“(1) FEDERAL EMPLOYEES AND OTHER PERSONS.—It shall be unlawful for any officer or employee of the United States or any person described in section 6103(n) (or an officer or employee of any such person), or any former officer or employee, to disclose to any person, except as authorized in this title, any return or return information (as defined in section 6103(b)). Any violation of this paragraph shall be a felony punishable upon conviction by a fine in any amount not exceeding $5,000, or imprisonment of not more than 5 years, or both, together with the costs of prosecution, and if such offense is committed by any officer or employee of the United States, he shall, in addition to any other punishment, be dismissed from office or discharged from employment upon conviction for such offense.

“(2) STATE AND OTHER EMPLOYEES.—It shall be unlawful for any officer, employee, or agent, or former officer, employee, or agent, of any State (as defined in section 6103(b)(5)) or any local child support enforcement agency to disclose to any person, except as authorized in this title, any return or return information (as defined in section 6103(b)) acquired by him or another person under section 6103(d) or (1)(6). Any violation of this paragraph shall be a felony punishable by a fine in any amount not exceeding $5,000, or imprisonment of not more than 5 years, or both, together with the costs of prosecution.

“(3) OTHER PERSONS.—It shall be unlawful for any person to whom any return or return information (as defined in section 6103(b)) is disclosed in a manner unauthorized by this title to thereafter print or publish in any manner not provided by law any such return or return information. Any violation of this paragraph shall be a felony punishable by a fine in any amount not exceeding $5,000, or imprisonment of not more than 5 years, or both, together with the costs of prosecution.

“(4) SOLICITATION.—It shall be unlawful for any person to offer any item of material value in exchange for any return or return information (as defined in section 6103(b)) and to receive as a result of such solicitation any such return or return information. Any violation of this paragraph shall be a felony punishable by a fine in any amount not exceeding $5,000, or imprisonment of not more than 5 years, or both, together with the costs of prosecution.

“(5) SHAREHOLDERS.—It shall be unlawful for any person to whom a return or return information (as defined in section 6103(b)) is disclosed pursuant to the provisions of section 6103(e)(1)(D)(iii) to disclose such return or return information in any manner not provided by law. Any violation of this paragraph shall be a felony punishable by a fine in any amount not to exceed $5,000, or imprisonment of not more than 5 years, or both, together with the costs of prosecution.”

(e) CIVIL DAMAGES FOR UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF RETURNS AND RETURN INFORMATION.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Part I of subchapter A of chapter 75 (relating to miscellaneous penalties and forfeitures) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

“SEC. 7217. CIVIL DAMAGES FOR UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF RETURNS AND RETURN INFORMATION.

“(a) GENERAL RULE.—Whenever any person knowingly, or by reason of negligence, discloses a return or return information (as defined in section 6103(b)) with respect to a taxpayer in violation of the provisions of section 6103, such taxpayer may bring a civil action for damages against such person, and the district courts of the United States shall have jurisdiction of any action commenced under the provisions of this section.

“(b) DAMAGES.—In any suit brought under the provisions of subsection (a), upon a finding of liability on the part of the defendant, the defendant shall be liable to the plaintiff in an amount equal to the sum of—

“(1) actual damages sustained by the plaintiff as a result of the unauthorized disclosure of the return or return information and, in the case of a willful disclosure or a disclosure which is the result of gross negligence, punitive damages, but in no case shall a plaintiff entitled to recovery receive less than the sum of $1,000 with respect to each instance of such unauthorized disclosure; and

“(2) the costs of the action.

“(c) An action to enforce any liability created under this section may be brought, without regard to the amount in controversy, within 2 years from the date on which the cause of action arises or at any time within 2 years after discovery by the plaintiff of the unauthorized disclosure.

“(2) CONFORMING AMENDMENT.—The table of sections for such part is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new item:

“Sec. 7217. Civil damages for unauthorized disclosure of returns and return information.”

(f) PROCESSING OF RETURNS, RETURN INFORMATION, AND OTHER DOCUMENTS.—Section 7513 (relating to reproduction of returns and other documents) is amended by striking out subsection (c) and redesignating subsection (d) as subsection (c).
26 USC 7852.  (g) Other Applicable Rules.—Section 7852 (relating to other rules applicable under title 26) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

"(e) Privacy Act of 1974.—The provisions of subsections (d) (2), (3), and (4), and (g) of section 552a of title 5, United States Code, shall not be applied, directly or indirectly, to the determination of the existence or possible existence of liability (or the amount thereof) of any person for any tax, penalty, interest, fine, forfeiture, or other imposition or offense to which the provisions of this title apply."

(h) Technical and Conforming Amendments.—

1. Section 6106 (relating to publicity of unemployment tax returns) is hereby repealed.

2. Section 6323 (relating to validity and priority of tax liens against certain persons) is amended by striking out paragraph (3) of subsection (i).

3. Subsection (d) of section 7213 (relating to cross references) is amended by striking out paragraph (1) and inserting in lieu thereof:

"(1) Penalties for disclosure of information by preparers of returns.—For penalty for disclosure or use of information by preparers of returns, see section 7216."

4. Section 7515 (relating to publicity of unemployment tax returns) is hereby repealed.

5. Subsection (c) of section 7809 (relating to deposit of collections) is amended by striking out in paragraph (1) "section 7515 (relating to special statistical studies and compilations for other services on request)" and inserting in lieu thereof "section 6108(p) (relating to furnishing of copies of returns or of return information), and section 6108(b) (relating to special statistical studies and compilations)".

6. Subsection (d) of section 4424 (relating to disclosure of wagering tax information) is amended by striking out "6103(d)" and inserting in lieu thereof "6103(f)".

(i) Effective Date.—The amendments made by this section take effect January 1, 1977.

SEC. 1203. INCOME TAX RETURN PREPARERS.

26 USC 7701. (a) Definition.—Section 7701(a) (relating to definitions) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

"(36) Income tax return preparer.—

"(A) In general.—The term 'income tax return preparer' means any person who prepares for compensation, or who employs one or more persons to prepare for compensation, any return of tax imposed by subtitle A or any claim for refund of tax imposed by subtitle A. For purposes of the preceding sentence, the preparation of a substantial portion of a return or claim for refund shall be treated as if it were the preparation of such return or claim for refund.

"(B) Exceptions.—A person shall not be an 'income tax return preparer' merely because such person—

"(i) furnishes typing, reproducing, or other mechanical assistance,

"(ii) prepares a return or claim for refund of the employer (or of an officer or employee of the employer) by whom he is regularly and continuously employed,

"(iii) prepares a return or claim for refund for any trust or estate with respect to which he is a fiduciary,
“(iv) prepares a claim for refund for a taxpayer in response to any notice of deficiency issued to such taxpayer or in response to any waiver of restriction after the commencement of an audit of such taxpayer or another taxpayer if a determination in such audit of such other taxpayer directly or indirectly affects the tax liability of such taxpayer.”

(b) Assessable Penalties Where Preparer Understates Taxpayer’s Liability.

(1) In general.—Subchapter B of chapter 68 (relating to assessable penalties) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

SEC. 6694. UNDERSTATEMENT OF TAXPAYER’S LIABILITY BY INCOME TAX RETURN PREPARER.

“(a) Negligent or Intentional Disregard of Rules and Regulations.—If any part of any understatement of liability with respect to any return or claim for refund is due to the negligent or intentional disregard of rules and regulations by any person who is an income tax return preparer with respect to such return or claim, such person shall pay a penalty of $100 with respect to such return or claim.

“(b) Willful Understatement of Liability.—If any part of any understatement of liability with respect to any return or claim for refund is due to a willful attempt in any manner to understate the liability for a tax by a person who is an income tax return preparer with respect to such return or claim, such person shall pay a penalty of $500 with respect to such return or claim. With respect to any return or claim, the amount of the penalty payable by any person by reason of this subsection shall be reduced by the amount of the penalty paid by such person by reason of subsection (a).

“(c) Extension of Period of Collection Where Preparer Pays 15 Percent of Penalty.

(1) In general.—If, within 30 days after the day on which notice and demand of any penalty under subsection (a) or (b) is made against any person who is an income tax return preparer, such person pays an amount which is not less than 15 percent of the amount of such penalty and files a claim for refund of the amount so paid, no levy or proceeding in court for the collection of the remainder of such penalty shall be made, begun, or prosecuted until the final resolution of a proceeding begun as provided in paragraph (2). Notwithstanding the provisions of section 7421 (a), the beginning of such proceeding or levy during the time such prohibition is in force may be enjoined by a proceeding in the proper court.

(2) Preparer Must Bring Suit in District Court to Determine His Liability for Penalty.—If, within 30 days after the day on which his claim for refund of any partial payment of any penalty under subsection (a) or (b) is denied (or, if earlier, within 30 days after the expiration of 6 months after the day on which he filed the claim for refund), the income tax return preparer fails to begin a proceeding in the appropriate United States district court for the determination of his liability for such penalty, paragraph (1) shall cease to apply with respect to such penalty, effective on the day following the close of the applicable 30-day period referred to in this paragraph.

(3) Suspension of Running of Period of Limitations on Collection.—The running of the period of limitations provided in section 6502 on the collection by levy or by a proceeding in court in respect of any penalty described in paragraph (1) shall be suspended for the period during which the Secretary is prohibited from collecting by levy or a proceeding in court.

“(d) Abatement of Penalty Where Taxpayer's Liability Not Understated.—If at any time there is a final administrative determination or a final judicial decision that there was no understatement of liability in the case of any return or claim for refund with respect to which a penalty under subsection (a) or (b) has been assessed, such assessment shall be abated, and if any portion of such penalty has been paid the amount so paid shall be refunded to the person who made such payment as an overpayment of tax without regard to any period of limitations which, but for this subsection, would apply to the making of such refund.

“(e) Understatement of Liability Defined.—For purposes of this section, the term ‘understatement of liability’ means any understatement of the net amount payable with respect to any tax imposed by subtitle A or any overstatement of the net amount creditable or refundable with respect to any such tax. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (d), the determination of whether or not there is an understatement of liability shall be made without regard to any administrative or judicial action involving the taxpayer.

“(f) Cross Reference.—

"For definition of income tax return preparer, see section 7701 (a)(36)."

(2) Burden of Proof Under 6,694(b).—

(A) Subchapter B of chapter 76 (relating to proceedings by taxpayers and third parties) is amended by redesignating section 7427 as section 7428 and by inserting after section 7426 the following new section:

SEC. 7427. INCOME TAX RETURN PREPARERS.

"In any proceeding involving the issue of whether or not an income tax return preparer has willfully attempted in any manner to understate the liability for tax (within the meaning of section 6694(b)), the burden of proof in respect to such issue shall be upon the Secretary."

(B) The table of sections for such subchapter B is amended by striking out the last item and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"Sec. 7427. Income tax return preparers."

"Sec. 7428. Cross references."

(c) Preparer Must Furnish Copy of Return to Taxpayer and Must Retain Copy or List.—Subchapter B of chapter 61 (relating to information and returns) is amended by inserting after section 6106 the following new section:

SEC. 6107. INCOME TAX RETURN PREPARER MUST FURNISH COPY OF RETURN TO TAXPAYER AND MUST RETAIN A COPY OR LIST.

“(a) Furnishing Copy to Taxpayer.—Any person who is an income tax return preparer with respect to any return or claim for refund shall furnish a completed copy of such return or claim to the taxpayer not later than the time such return or claim is presented for such taxpayer's signature.

“(b) Copy or List To Be Retained by Income Tax Return Preparer.—Any person who is an income tax return preparer with respect to a return or claim for refund shall, for the period ending 3 years after the close of the return period—

"(1) retain a completed copy of such return or claim, or retain, on a list, the name and taxpayer identification number of the taxpayer for whom such return or claim was prepared, and

"(2) make such copy or list available for inspection upon request by the Secretary.

"(c) Regulations.—The Secretary shall prescribe regulations under which, in cases where 2 or more persons are income tax return preparers with respect to the same return or claim for refund, compliance with the requirements of subsection (a) or (b), as the case may be, of one such person shall be deemed to be compliance with the requirements of such subsection by the other persons.

"(d) Definitions.—For purposes of this section, the terms 'return' and 'claim for refund' have the respective meanings given to such terms by section 6696(e), and the term 'return period' has the meaning given to such term by section 6060(c)."

(e) Preparer Must File Annual Information Return.—Part III of subchapter A of chapter 61 (relating to information returns) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

"Subpart F—Information Concerning Income Tax Return Preparers

"Sec. 6060. Information returns of income tax return preparers.

"SEC. 6060. INFORMATION RETURNS OF INCOME TAX RETURN PREPARERS.

"(a) General Rule.—Any person who employs an income tax return preparer to prepare any return or claim for refund other than for such person at any time during a return period shall make a return setting forth the name, taxpayer identification number, and place of work of each income tax return preparer employed by him at any time during such period. For purposes of this section, any individual who in acting as an income tax return preparer is not the employee of another income tax return preparer shall be treated as his own employer. The return required by this section shall be filed, in such manner as the Secretary may by regulations prescribe, on or before the first July 31 following the end of such return period.

"(b) Alternative Reporting.—In lieu of the return required by subsection (a), the Secretary may approve an alternative reporting method if he determines that the necessary information is available to him from other sources.

"(c) Return Period Defined.—For purposes of subsection (a), the term 'return period' means the 12-month period beginning on..."
July 1 of each year, except that the first return period shall be the 6-month period beginning on January 1, 1977, and ending on June 30, 1977."

(f) Other Assessable Penalties With Respect to the Preparation of Income Tax Returns for Other Persons.—Subchapter B of chapter 68 (relating to assessable penalties) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new sections:

26 USC 6695. "Sec. 6695. Other Assessable Penalties With Respect to the Preparation of Income Tax Returns for Other Persons."

(a) Failure to Furnish Copy to Taxpayer.—Any person who is an income tax return preparer with respect to any return or claim for refund who fails to comply with section 6107(a) with respect to such return or claim shall pay a penalty of $25 for such failure, unless it is shown that such failure is due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect.

(b) Failure to Sign Return.—Any person who is an income tax return preparer with respect to any return or claim for refund, who is required by regulations prescribed by the Secretary to sign such return or claim, and who fails to comply with such regulations with respect to such return or claim shall pay a penalty of $25 for such failure, unless it is shown that such failure is due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect.

(c) Failure to Furnish Identifying Number.—Any person who is an income tax return preparer with respect to any return or claim for refund and who fails to comply with section 6109(a)(4) with respect to such return or claim shall pay a penalty of $25 for such failure, unless it is shown that such failure is due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect.

(d) Failure to Retain Copy or List.—Any person who is an income tax return preparer with respect to any return or claim for refund who fails to comply with section 6107(b) with respect to such return or claim shall pay a penalty of $50 for each such failure, unless it is shown that such failure is due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect. The maximum penalty imposed under this subsection on any person with respect to any return period shall not exceed $25,000.

(e) Failure to File Correct Information Return.—Any person required to make a return under section 6060 who fails to comply with the requirements of such section shall pay a penalty of—

(1) $100 for each failure to file a return as required under such section, and

(2) $5 for each failure to set forth an item in the return as required under such section, unless it is shown that such failure is due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect. The maximum penalty imposed under this subsection on any person with respect to any return period shall not exceed $20,000.

(f) Negotiation of Check.—Any person who is an income tax return preparer who endorses or otherwise negotiates (directly or through an agent) any check made in respect of the taxes imposed by subtitle A which is issued to a taxpayer (other than the income tax return preparer) shall pay a penalty of $500 with respect to each such check.
"SEC. 6696. RULES APPLICABLE WITH RESPECT TO SECTIONS 6694 AND 6695.

(a) PENALTIES TO BE ADDITIONAL TO ANY OTHER PENALTIES.—The penalties provided by section 6694 and 6695 shall be in addition to any other penalties provided by law.

(b) DEFICIENCY PROCEDURES NOT TO APPLY.—Subchapter B of chapter 63 (relating to deficiency procedures for income, estate, gift, and certain excise taxes) shall not apply with respect to the assessment or collection of the penalties provided by sections 6694 and 6695.

(c) PROCEDURE FOR CLAIMING REFUND.—Any claim for credit or refund of any penalty paid under section 6694 or 6695 shall be filed in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary.

(d) PERIODS OF LIMITATION.—

(1) ASSESSMENT.—The amount of any penalty under section 6694(a) or under section 6695 shall be assessed within 3 years after the return or claim for refund with respect to which the penalty is assessed was filed, and no proceeding in court without assessment for the collection of such tax shall be begun after the expiration of such period. In the case of any penalty under section 6694(b), the penalty may be assessed, or a proceeding in court for the collection of the penalty may be begun without assessment, at any time.

(2) CLAIM FOR REFUND.—Except as provided in section 6694(d), any claim for refund of an overpayment of any penalty assessed under section 6694 or 6695 shall be filed within 3 years from the time the penalty was paid.

(e) DEFINITIONS.—For purposes of sections 6694 and 6695—

(1) RETURN.—The term ‘return’ means any return of any tax imposed by subtitle A.

(2) CLAIM FOR REFUND.—The term ‘claim for refund’ means a claim for refund of, or credit against, any tax imposed by subtitle A.”

(g) AUTHORITY TO SEEK INJUNCTION AGAINST INCOME TAX RETURN PREPARERS.—Subchapter A of chapter 76 (relating to civil actions by the United States) is amended by redesignating section 7407 as section 7408 and by inserting after section 7406 the following new section:

"SEC. 7407. ACTION TO ENJOIN INCOME TAX RETURN PREPARERS.

(a) AUTHORITY TO SEEK INJUNCTION.—Except as provided in subsection (c), a civil action in the name of the United States to enjoin any person who is an income tax return preparer from further engaging in any conduct described in subsection (b) or from further acting as an income tax return preparer may be commenced at the request of the Secretary. Any action under this section shall be brought in the District Court of the United States for the district in which the income tax preparer resides or has his principal place of business or in which the taxpayer with respect to whose income tax return the action is brought resides. The court may exercise its jurisdiction over such action (as provided in section 7402(a)) separate and apart from any other action brought by the United States against such income tax preparer or any taxpayer.

(b) ADJUDICATION AND DECREES.—In any action under subsection (a), if the court finds—

(1) that an income tax return preparer has—

(A) engaged in any conduct subject to penalty under section 6694 or 6695, or subject to any criminal penalty provided by this title,
“(B) misrepresented his eligibility to practice before the Internal Revenue Service, or otherwise misrepresented his experience or education as an income tax return preparer,

“(C) guaranteed the payment of any tax refund or the allowance of any tax credit, or “(D) engaged in any other fraudulent or deceptive conduct which substantially interferes with the proper administration of the Internal Revenue laws, and the court may enjoin such person from further engaging in such conduct. If the court finds that an income tax return preparer has continually or repeatedly engaged in any conduct described in subparagraphs (A) through (D) of this subsection and that an injunction prohibiting such conduct would not be sufficient to prevent such person's interference with the proper administration of this title, the court may enjoin such person from acting as an income tax return preparer.

“(2) that injunctive relief is appropriate to prevent the recurrence of such conduct,

“(c) Bond To Stay Injunction.—No action to enjoin under subsection (b)(1)(A) shall be commenced or pursued with respect to any income tax return preparer who files and maintains, with the Secretary in the internal revenue district in which is located such preparer’s legal residence or principal place of business, a bond in a sum of $50,000 as surety for the payment of penalties under section 6694 and 6695.”

(3) Section 6511(g) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following paragraph:

“(7) For a period of limitations for refund of an overpayment of penalties imposed under section 6694 or 6695, see section 6696(d)(2).”

(i) Conforming Amendments.—

(1) The table of subparts for part III of such chapter A of chapter 61 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new item:

“Subpart F. Information concerning income tax return preparers.”

(2) The table of sections for subchapter B of chapter 61 is amended by inserting immediately after the item relating to section 6106 the following new item:

“Sec. 6107. Income tax return preparer must furnish copy of return to taxpayer and must retain a copy or list.”

(3) The table of sections for subchapter B of chapter 68 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new items:

“Sec. 6694. Understatement of taxpayer’s liability by income tax return preparer.

“Sec. 6695. Other assessable penalties with respect to the preparation of income tax returns for other persons.

“Sec. 6696. Rules applicable with respect to sections 6694 and 6695.”
(4) The table of sections for subchapter A of chapter 76 is amended by striking out the last item and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"Sec. 7407. Action to enjoin income tax return preparers."
"Sec. 7408. Cross references."

(j) Effective Date.—The amendments made by this section shall apply to documents prepared after December 31, 1976.

SEC. 1204. JEOPARDY AND TERMINATION ASSESSMENTS.

(a) Review of Jeopardy and Termination Assessments.—Subchapter B of chapter 76 (relating to proceedings by taxpayers and third parties) is amended by inserting after section 7428 the following new section:

"SEC. 7429. REVIEW OF JEOPARDY ASSESSMENT PROCEDURES.

"(a) Administrative Review.—

"(1) Information to taxpayer.—Within 5 days after the day on which an assessment is made under section 6851(a), 6861(a), or 6862, the Secretary shall provide the taxpayer with a written statement of the information upon which the Secretary relies in making such assessment.

"(2) Request for review.—Within 30 days after the day on which the taxpayer is furnished the written statement described in paragraph (1), or within 30 days after the last day of the period within which such statement is required to be furnished, the taxpayer may request the Secretary to review the action taken.

"(3) Redetermination by Secretary.—After a request for review is made under paragraph (2), the Secretary shall determine whether or not—

"(A) the making of the assessment under section 6851, 6861, or 6862, as the case may be, is reasonable under the circumstances, and

"(B) the amount so assessed or demanded as a result of the action taken under section 6851, 6861, or 6862 is appropriate under the circumstances.

"(b) Judicial Review.—

"(1) Actions permitted.—Within 30 days after the earlier of—

"(A) the day the Secretary notifies the taxpayer of his determination described in subsection (a) (3), or

"(B) the 16th day after the request described in subsection (a) (2) was made, the taxpayer may bring a civil action against the United States in a district court of the United States for a determination under this subsection.

"(2) Determination by district court.—Within 20 days after an action is commenced under paragraph (1), the district court shall determine whether or not—

"(A) the making of the assessment under section 6851, 6861, or 6862, as the case may be, is reasonable under the circumstances, and

"(B) the amount so assessed or demanded as a result of the action taken under section 6851, 6861, or 6862, is appropriate under the circumstances.

"(3) Order of district court.—If the court determines that the making of such assessment is unreasonable or that the amount assessed or demanded is inappropriate, the court may order the Secretary to abate such assessment, to redetermine (in whole or in part) the amount assessed or demanded, or to take such other action as the court finds appropriate.

"(c) Extension of 20-Day Period Where Taxpayer So Requests.—If the taxpayer requests an extension of the 20-day period set forth in subsection (b) (2) and establishes reasonable grounds why such extension should be granted, the district court may grant an extension of not more than 40 additional days.

"(d) Computation of Days.—For purposes of this section, Saturday, Sunday, or a legal holiday in the District of Columbia shall not be counted as the last day of any period.

"(e) Venue.—A civil action under subsection (b) shall be commenced only in the judicial district described in section 1402(a) (1) or (2) of title 28, United States Code.

"(f) Finality of Determination.—Any determination made by a district court under this section shall be final and conclusive and shall not be reviewed by any other court.

"(g) Burden of Proof.—

"(1) Reasonableness of Termination or Jeopardy Assessment.—In an action under subsection (b) involving the issue of whether the making of an assessment under section 6851, 6861, or 6862 is reasonable under the circumstances, the burden of proof in respect to such issue shall be upon the Secretary.

"(2) Reasonableness of Amount of Assessment.—In an action under subsection (b) involving the issue of whether an amount assessed or demanded as a result of action taken under section 6851, 6861, or 6862 is appropriate under the circumstances, the Secretary shall provide a written statement which contains any information with respect to which his determination of the amount assessed was based, but the burden of proof in respect of such issue shall be upon the taxpayer.

(b) Jeopardy Assessment of Income Tax.—

(1) Termination Assessments.—So much of section 6851 (relating to termination of taxable year) as precedes subsection (c) is amended to read as follows:

26 USC 6851. "SEC. 6851. TERMINATION ASSESSMENTS OF INCOME TAX.

"(a) Authority for Making.—

"(1) In General.—If the Secretary finds that a taxpayer designs quickly to depart from the United States or to remove his property therefrom, or to conceal himself or his property therein, or to do any other act (including in the case of a corporation distributing all or a part of its assets in liquidation or otherwise) tending to prejudice or to render wholly or partially ineffectual proceedings to collect the income tax for the current or the immediately preceding taxable year unless such proceeding be brought without delay, the Secretary shall immediately make a determination of tax for the current taxable year or for the preceding taxable year, or both, as the case may be, and notwithstanding any other provision of law, such tax shall become immediately due and payable. The Secretary shall immediately assess the amount of the tax so determined (together with all interest, additional amounts, and additions to the tax provided by law) for the current taxable year or such preceding taxable year, or both, as the case may be, and shall cause notice of such determination and assessment to be given the taxpayer, together with a demand for immediate payment of such tax.
“(2) COMPUTATION OF TAX.—In the case of a current taxable year, the Secretary shall determine the tax for the period beginning on the first day of such current taxable year and ending on the date of the determination under paragraph (1) as though such period were a taxable year of the taxpayer, and shall take into account any prior determination made under this subsection with respect to such current taxable year.

“(3) TREATMENT OF AMOUNTS COLLECTED.—Any amounts collected as a result of any assessments under this subsection shall, to the extent thereof, be treated as a payment of tax for such taxable year.

“(4) THIS SECTION INAPPLICABLE WHERE SECTION 6861 APPLIES.—This section shall not authorize any assessment of tax for the preceding taxable year which is made after the due date of the taxpayer’s return for such taxable year (determined with regard to any extensions).

“(b) NOTICE OF DEFICIENCY.—If an assessment of tax is made under the authority of subsection (a), the Secretary shall mail a notice under section 6212(a) for the taxpayer’s full taxable year (determined without regard to any action taken under subsection (a)) with respect to which such assessment was made within 60 days after the later of (i) the due date of the taxpayer’s return for such taxable year (determined with regard to any extensions), or (ii) the date such taxpayer files such return. Such deficiency may be in an amount greater or less than the amount assessed under subsection (a).”

“(2) BONDS.—Section 6851 is amended by striking out subsection (e) (relating to bonds) and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

“(e) SECTIONS 6861(f) AND (g) TO APPLY.—The provisions of section 6861(f) (relating to collection of unpaid amounts) and 6861(g) (relating to abatement if jeopardy does not exist) shall apply with respect to any assessment made under subsection (a).

“(f) CROSS REFERENCES.—

“(1) For provisions permitting immediate levy in case of jeopardy, see section 6331(a).

“(2) For provisions relating to the review of jeopardy, see section 7429.”

(c) TECHNICAL AND CONFORMING AMENDMENTS.—

(1) Section 1346(e) of title 28, United States Code (relating to jurisdiction of district courts with the United States as defendant) is amended by inserting “or section 7429” immediately after “section 7426”.

(2) Section 443(a)(3) (relating to returns for terminated period) is repealed.

(3) Section 6091(b) (relating to place for filing returns) is amended—

(A) by striking out “and” at the end of paragraph (1)(B) (iii) thereof, and by striking out paragraph (1)(B) (iv) and the matter following such paragraph and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

“(iv) nonresident alien persons, and

“(v) persons with respect to whom an assessment was made under section 6851(a) (relating to termination assessments) with respect to the taxable year, shall be made at such place as the Secretary may by regulations designate.”; and

(B) by striking out “and” at the end of paragraph (2)(B) (ii), and by striking out paragraph (2)(B) (iii) and the

(6) Section 6213(a) (relating to time for filing petition with the Tax Court) is amended by inserting “section 6851 or” before “section 6861”.

26 USC 6863.

(7) Section 6863(a) (relating to bond to stay collection) is amended—

(A) by striking out “6861” and inserting in lieu thereof “6851, 6861,”;

(B) by striking out “a jeopardy assessment” in the first sentence thereof and inserting in lieu thereof “an assessment”; and

(C) by striking out “the jeopardy assessment” each place it appears therein and inserting in lieu thereof “such assessment”.

(8) Section 6863(b)(3)(A) (relating to stay of sale of seized property) is amended to read as follows:

“(A) GENERAL RULE.—Where, notwithstanding the provisions of section 6213(a), an assessment has been made under section 6851 or 6861, the property seized for collection of the tax shall not be sold—

“(i) before the expiration of the periods described in subsection (c)(1) (A) and (B), “(ii) before the issuance of the notice of deficiency described in section 6851(b) or 6861(b), and the expiration of the period provided in section 6213(a) for filing a petition with the Tax Court, and

“(iii) if a petition is filed with the Tax Court (whether before or after the making of such assessment), before the expiration of the period during which the assessment of the deficiency would be prohibited if neither sections 6851(a) nor 6861(a) were applicable.

Clauses (ii) and (iii) shall not apply in the case of a termination assessment under section 6851 if the taxpayer does not file a return for the taxable year by the due date (determined with regard to any extensions).”

(9) Section 6863 (relating to stay of sale of jeopardy assessments) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

“(c) STAY OF SALE OF SEIZED PROPERTY PENDING DISTRICT COURT DETERMINATION UNDER SECTION 7429.—
“(1) General rule.—Where a jeopardy assessment has been made under section 6852(a), the property seized for the collection of the tax shall not be sold—

“(A) if a civil action is commenced in accordance with section 7429(b), on or before the day on which the district court judgment in such action becomes final, or

“(B) if subparagraph (A) does not apply, before the day after the expiration of the period provided in section 7429(a) for requesting an administrative review, and if such review is requested, before the day after the expiration of the period provided in section 7429(b), for commencing an action in the district court.

“(2) Exceptions.—With respect to any property described in paragraph (1), the exceptions provided by subsection (b)(3)(B) shall apply.”

“(10) Section 7103(a)(4) (relating to a cross reference) is repealed.

“(11) Section 7421(a)(relating to prohibition of suits to restrain assessment or collection of taxes) is amended by striking out “and 7426(a) and (b)(1)” and inserting in lieu thereof “7426(a) and (b)(1), and 7429(b)”.

“(12) The table of sections for part I of subchapter A of chapter 70 is amended to read as follows:

“Sec. 6851. Termination assessments of income tax.”

“(13) The table of sections for subchapter B of chapter 76 is amended by inserting after the item relating to section 7428 the following:

“Sec. 7429. Review of jeopardy assessment procedures.”

(d) Effective date.—The amendments made by this section apply with respect to action taken under section 6851, 6861, or 6862 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 where the notice and demand takes place after December 31, 1976.

SEC. 1205. ADMINISTRATIVE SUMMONS.

(a) Requirement that notice be served on person whose books, etc., are being summoned.—Subchapter A of chapter 78 (relating to examination and inspection) is amended by redesignating section 7609 as section 7611 and by inserting after section 7608 the following new sections:

“SEC. 7609. SPECIAL PROCEDURES FOR THIRD-PARTY SUMMONSES.

“(a) Notice.—

“(1) In general.—If—

“(A) any summons described in subsection (c) is served on any person who is a third-party recordkeeper; and

“(B) the summons requires the production of any portion of records made or kept of the business transactions or affairs of any person (other than the person summoned) who is identified in the description of the records contained in the summons, then notice of the summons shall be given to any person so identified within 3 days of the day on which such service is made, but no later than the 14th day before the day fixed in the summons as the day upon which such records are to be examined. Such notice shall be accompanied by a copy of the summons which has been served and shall contain directions for staying compliance with the summons under subsection (b)(2).

"(2) Sufficiency of notice.—Such notice shall be sufficient if, on or before such third day, such notice is served in the manner provided in section 7603 (relating to service of summons) upon the person entitled to notice, or is mailed by certified or registered mail to the last known address of such person, or, in the absence of a last known address, is left with the person summoned. If such notice is mailed, it shall be sufficient if mailed to the last known address of the person entitled to notice or, in the case of notice to the Secretary under section 6003 of the existence of a fiduciary relationship, to the last known address of the fiduciary of such person, even if such person or fiduciary is then deceased, under a legal disability, or no longer in existence.

"(3) Third-party recordkeeper defined.—For purposes of this subsection, the term ‘third-party recordkeeper’ means—

(A) any mutual savings bank, cooperative bank, domestic building and loan association, or other savings institution chartered and supervised as a savings and loan association under Federal or State law, any bank (as defined in section 581), or any credit union (within the meaning of section 501(c)(14)(A));

(B) any consumer reporting agency (as defined under section 603(d) of the Fair Credit Reporting Act (15 U.S.C. 1681a(f)));

(C) any person extending credit through the use of credit cards or similar devices;

(D) any broker (as defined in section 3(a)(4) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (15 U.S.C. 78c(a)(4)));

(E) any attorney; and

(F) any accountant.

"(4) Exceptions.—Paragraph (1) shall not apply to any summons—

(A) served on the person with respect to whose liability the summons is issued, or any officer or employee of such person,

(B) to determine whether or not records of the business transactions or affairs of an identified person have been made or kept, or

(C) described in subsection (f).

"(5) Nature of summons.—Any summons to which this subsection applies (and any summons in aid of collection described in subsection (c)(2)(B)) shall identify the taxpayer to whom the summons relates or the other person to whom the records pertain and shall provide such other information as will enable the person summoned to locate the records required under the summons.

(b) Right To intervene; Right to Stay Compliance.—

(1) Intervention.—Notwithstanding any other law or rule of law, any person who is entitled to notice of a summons under subsection (a) shall have the right to intervene in any proceeding with respect to the enforcement of such summons under section 7604.

(2) Right to stay compliance.—Notwithstanding any other law or rule of law, any person who is entitled to notice of a summons under subsection (a) shall have the right to stay compliance with the summons if, not later than the 14th day after the day such notice is given in the manner provided in subsection (a)
"(A) notice in writing is given to the person summoned not to comply with the summons, and
"(B) a copy of such notice not to comply with the summons is mailed by registered or certified mail to such person and to such office as the Secretary may direct in the notice referred to in subsection (a)(1).

"(c) Summons to Which Section Applies.—
"(1) In general.—Except as provided in paragraph (2), a summons is described in this subsection if it is issued under paragraph (2) of section 7602 or under section 6420(e)(2), 6421(f)(2), 6424(d)(2), or 6427(e)(2) and requires the production of records.

"(2) Exceptions.—A summons shall not be treated as described in this subsection if—

"(A) it is solely to determine the identity of any person having a numbered account (or similar arrangement) with a bank or other institution described in subsection (a)(3)(A), or

"(B) it is in aid of the collection of—

"(i) the liability of any person against whom an assessment has been made or judgment rendered, or

"(ii) the liability at law or in equity of any transferee or fiduciary of any person referred to in clause (i).

"(3) Records; Certain Related Testimony.—For purposes of this section—

"(A) the term 'records' includes books, papers, or other data, and

"(B) a summons requiring the giving of testimony relating to records shall be treated as a summons requiring the production of such records.

"(d) Restriction on Examination of Records.—No examination of any records required to be produced under a summons as to which notice is required under subsection (a) may be made—

"(1) before the expiration of the 14-day period allowed for the notice not to comply under subsection (b)(2), or

"(2) when the requirements of subsection (b)(2) have been met, except in accordance with an order issued by a court of competent jurisdiction authorizing examination of such records or with the consent of the person staying compliance.

"(e) Suspension of Statute of Limitations.—If any person takes any action as provided in subsection (b) and such person is the person with respect to whose liability the summons is issued (or is the agent, nominee, or other person acting under the direction or control of such person), then the running of any period of limitations under section 6501 (relating to the assessment and collection of tax) or under section 6531 (relating to criminal prosecutions) with respect to such person shall be suspended for the period during which a proceeding, and appeals therein, with respect to the enforcement of such summons is pending.

"(f) Additional Requirement in the Case of a John Doe Summons.—Any summons described in subsection (c) which does not identify the person with respect to whose liability the summons is issued may be served only after a court proceeding in which the Secretary establishes that—

"(1) the summons relates to the investigation of a particular person or ascertainable group or class of persons, “(2) there is a reasonable basis for believing that such person or group or class of persons may fail or may have failed to comply with any provision of any internal revenue law, and
“(3) the information sought to be obtained from the examination of the records (and the identity of the person or persons with respect to whose liability the summons is issued) is not readily available from other sources.
“(g) SPECIAL EXCEPTION FOR CERTAIN SUMMONSES.—In the case of any summons described in subsection (c), the provisions of subsections (a) (1) and (b) shall not apply if, upon petition by the Secretary, the court determines, on the basis of the facts and circumstances alleged, that there is reasonable cause to believe the giving of notice may lead to attempts to conceal, destroy, or alter records relevant to the examination, to prevent the communication of information from other persons through intimidation, bribery, or collusion, or to flee to avoid prosecution, testifying, or production of records.
“(h) JURISDICTION OF DISTRICT COURT.—
“(1) The United States district court for the district within which the person to be summoned resides or is found shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine proceedings brought under subsections (f) or (g). The determinations required to be made under subsections (f) and (g) shall be made ex parte and shall be made solely upon the petition and supporting affidavits. An order denying the petition shall be deemed a final order which may be appealed.
“(2) Except as to cases the court considers of greater importance, a proceeding brought for the enforcement of any summons, or a proceeding under this section, and appeals, take precedence on the docket over all cases and shall be assigned for hearing and decided at the earliest practicable date.

SEC. 7610. FEES AND COSTS FOR WITNESSES.
“(a) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary shall by regulations establish the rates and conditions under which payment may be made of—
“(1) fees and mileage to persons who are summoned to appear before the Secretary, and
“(2) reimbursement for such costs that are reasonably necessary which have been directly incurred in searching for, reproducing, or transporting books, papers, records, or other data required to be produced by summons.
“(b) EXCEPTIONS.—No payment may be made under paragraph (2) of subsection (a) if—
“(1) the person with respect to whose liability the summons is issued has a proprietary interest in the books, papers, records or other data required to be produced, or
“(2) the person summoned is the person with respect to whose liability the summons is issued or an officer, employee, agent, accountant, or attorney of such person who, at the time the summons is served, is acting as such.
“(c) SUMMONS TO WHICH SECTION APPLIES.—This section applies with respect to any summons authorized under section 6420(e)(2), 6421(f)(2), 6424(d)(2), 6427(e)(2), or 7602.

(b) CLERICAL AMENDMENT.—The table of sections for such subchapter A is amended by striking out the item relating to section 7609 and inserting in lieu thereof the following:
(a) IN GENERAL.—Section 6213(b) (relating to exceptions to restrictions on assessment in certain cases) is amended—

(1) by redesignating paragraphs (2) and (3) as paragraphs (3) and (4), respectively, and

(2) by striking out paragraph (1) and inserting in lieu thereof the following new paragraphs:

"(1) ASSESSMENTS ARISING OUT OF MATHEMATICAL OR CLERICAL ERRORS.—If the taxpayer is notified that, on account of a mathematical or clerical error appearing on the return, an amount of tax in excess of that shown on the return is due, and that an assessment of the tax has been or will be made on the basis of what would have been the correct amount of tax but for the mathematical or clerical error, such notice shall not be considered as a notice of deficiency for the purposes of subsection (a) (prohibiting assessment and collection until notice of the deficiency has been mailed), or of section 6212(c)(1) (restricting further deficiency letters), or of section 6512 (a) (prohibiting credits or refunds after petition to the Tax Court), and the taxpayer shall have no right to file a petition with the Tax Court based on such notice, nor shall such assessment or collection be prohibited by the provisions of subsection (a) of this section. Each notice under this paragraph shall set forth the error alleged and an explanation thereof.

(2) ABATEMENT OF ASSESSMENT OF MATHEMATICAL OR CLERICAL ERRORS.—

(A) REQUEST FOR ABATEMENT.—Notwithstanding section 6404(b), a taxpayer may file with the Secretary within 60 days after notice is sent under paragraph (1) a request for an abatement of any assessment specified in such notice, and upon receipt of such request, the Secretary shall abate the assessment. Any reassessment of the tax with respect to which an abatement is made under this subparagraph shall be subject to the deficiency procedures prescribed by this subchapter.

(B) STAY OF COLLECTION.—In the case of any assessment referred to in paragraph (1), notwithstanding paragraph (1), no levy or proceeding in court for the collection of such assessment shall be made, begun, or prosecuted during the period in which such assessment may be abated under this paragraph."

(b) DEFINITIONS RELATING TO MATHEMATICAL OR CLERICAL ERRORS.—

Section 6213 is amended by redesignating subsection (f) as subsection (g), and by inserting immediately after subsection (e) the following new subsection:

"(f) DEFINITIONS.—For purposes of this section—

(1) RETURN.—The term 'return' includes any return, statement, schedule, or list, and any amendment or supplement thereto, filed with respect to any tax imposed by subtitle A or B, or chapter 42 or 43.

(2) MATHEMATICAL OR CLERICAL ERROR.—The term 'mathematical or clerical error' means—"
“(A) an error in addition, subtraction, multiplication, or division shown on any return,

“(B) an incorrect use of any table provided by the Internal Revenue Service with respect to any return if such incorrect use is apparent from the existence of other information on the return,

“(C) an entry on a return of an item which is inconsistent with another entry of the same or another item on such return,

“(D) an omission of information which is required to be supplied on the return to substantiate an entry on the return, and “(E) an entry on a return of a deduction or credit in an amount which exceeds a statutory limit imposed by subtitle A or B, or chapter 42 or 43, if such limit is expressed—

“(i) as a specified monetary amount, or

“(ii) as a percentage, ratio, or fraction, and if the items entering into the application of such limit appear on such return.”

(c) TECHNICAL AND CONFORMING AMENDMENTS.—

26 USC 6213.

(1) Section 6213(b)(3) (relating to assessments arising out of tentative carryback adjustments), as redesignated by subsection (a), is amended—

(A) by striking out “he may assess” and inserting in lieu thereof “he may assess without regard to the provisions of paragraph (2)”, and

(B) by striking out “mathematical error” and inserting in lieu thereof “mathematical or clerical error”.

26 USC 6201.

(2) Section 6201(a)(3) (relating to assessments regarding erroneous income tax prepayment credits) and section 6201(a)(4) (relating to assessments regarding erroneous credit under section 39 or 43) are each amended—

(A) by striking out “mathematical error” and inserting in lieu thereof “mathematical or clerical error”, and

(B) by inserting immediately before the period at the end thereof the following: “, except that the provisions of section 6213(b)(2) (relating to abatement of mathematical or clerical error assessments) shall not apply with regard to any assessment under this paragraph.”

26 USC 6212.

(3) Section 6212(c)(1) (relating to deficiency letters) is amended by striking out “(relating to mathematical errors)” and inserting in lieu thereof “(relating to mathematical or clerical errors)”.

26 USC 6213 note.

(d) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendments made by this section shall apply with respect to returns (within the meaning of section 6213(f)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954) filed after December 31, 1976.

SEC. 1207. WITHHOLDING.

(a) WITHHOLDING STATE AND DISTRICT INCOME TAXES FROM COMPENSATION OF MEMBERS OF ARMED FORCES WHO ARE RESIDENTS OF THE STATE OR DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA.—

(1) WITHHOLDING OF STATE INCOME TAXES.—The last sentence of section 5517(a) of title 5, United States Code, is amended to read as follows: “In the case of pay for service as a member of the armed forces, the preceding sentence shall be applied by substituting ‘who are residents of the State with which the agreement is made' for 'whose regular place of Federal employment is within the State with which the agreement is made.'

(2) WITHHOLDING OF DISTRICT INCOME TAXES.—Subsection (a) of section 5516 of title 5, United States Code, is amended—

(A) by striking out in the third sentence "pay for service as a member of the armed forces, or to"; and

(B) by adding after the third sentence the following new sentence: "In the case of pay for service as a member of the armed forces, the second sentence of this subsection shall be applied by substituting 'who are residents of the District of Columbia' for 'whose regular place of employment is within the District of Columbia.'"

(b) WITHHOLDING STATE AND CITY INCOME TAXES FROM THE COMPENSATION OF MEMBERS OF THE NATIONAL GUARD OR THE READY RESERVE.—Section 5517 of title 5, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

"(d) For the purpose of this section and sections 5516 and 5520, the terms 'serve as a member of the armed forces' and 'service as a member of the Armed Forces' do not include—

"(1) participation in exercises or the performance of duty under section 502 of title 32, United States Code, by a member of the National Guard; and

"(2) participation in scheduled drills or training periods, or service on active duty for training, under section 270(a) of title 10, United States Code, by a member of the Ready Reserve."

(c) VOLUNTARY WITHHOLDING OF STATE INCOME TAXES FROM THE COMPENSATION OF FEDERAL EMPLOYEES.—Paragraphs (1) and (2) of section 5517(a) of title 5, United States Code, are amended to read as follows:

"(1) provides for the collection of a tax either by imposing on employers generally the duty of withholding sums from the pay of employees and making returns of the sums to the State, or by granting to employers generally the authority to withhold sums from the pay of employees if any employee voluntarily elects to have such sums withheld; and

"(2) imposes the duty or grants the authority to withhold generally with respect to the pay of employees who are residents of the State;".

(d) WITHHOLDING TAX ON CERTAIN GAMBLING WINNINGS.—Section 3402 (relating to income tax collected at source) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

"(q) EXTENSION OF WITHHOLDING TO CERTAIN GAMBLING WINNINGS.—

"(1) General rule.—Every person, including the Government of the United States, a State, or a political subdivision thereof, or any instrumentalities of the foregoing, making any payment of winnings which are subject to withholding shall deduct and withhold from such payment a tax in an amount equal to 20 percent of such payment.

"(2) Exemption where tax otherwise withheld.—In the case of any payment of winnings which are subject to withholding made to a nonresident alien individual or a foreign corporation, the tax imposed under paragraph (1) shall not apply to any such payment subject to tax under section 1441(a) (relating to withholding on nonresident aliens) or tax under section 1442(a) (relating to withholding on foreign corporations)."
Definition.

“(3) Winnings which are subject to withholding.—For purposes of this subsection, the term ‘winnings which are subject to withholding’ means proceeds from a wager determined in accordance with the following:

“(A) In general.—Except as provided in subparagraphs (B) and (C), proceeds of more than $1,000 from a wagering transaction, if the amount of such proceeds is at least 300 times as large as the amount wagered.

“(B) State-conducted lotteries.—Proceeds of more than $5,000 from a wager placed in a lottery conducted by an agency of a State acting under authority of State law, but only if such wager is placed with the State agency conducting such lottery, or with its authorized employees or agents.

“(C) Sweepstakes, wagering pools, and other lotteries.—Proceeds of more than $1,000 from a wager placed in a sweepstakes, wagering pool, or lottery (other than a wager described in subparagraph (B)).

“(4) Rules for determining proceeds from a wager.—For purposes of this subsection—

“(A) proceeds from a wager shall be determined by reducing the amount received by the amount of the wager, and “(B) proceeds which are not money shall be taken into account at their fair market value.

“(5) Exemption for bingo, keno, and slot machines.—The tax imposed under paragraph (1) shall not apply to winnings from a slot machine, keno, and bingo.

“(6) Statement by recipient.—Every person who is to receive a payment of winnings which are subject to withholding shall furnish the person making such payment a statement, made under the penalties of perjury, containing the name, address, and taxpayer identification number of the person receiving the payment and of each person entitled to any portion of such payment.

“(7) Coordination with other sections.—For purposes of sections 3403 and 3404 and for purposes of so much of subtitle F (except section 7205) as relates to this chapter, payments to any person of winnings which are subject to withholding shall be treated as if they were wages paid by an employer to an employee.”

(e) Withholding of Federal taxes on certain individuals engaged in fishing.—

(1) In general.—

(A) Section 3121(b) (defining employment) is amended by striking out “or” at the end of paragraph (18), by striking out the period at the end of paragraph (19) and inserting in lieu thereof “; or”, and by adding after paragraph (19) the following new paragraph:

“(20) Service performed by an individual on a boat engaged in catching fish or other forms of aquatic animal life under an arrangement with the owner or operator of such boat pursuant to which—

“(A) such individual does not receive any cash remuneration (other than as provided in subparagraph (B)),

“(B) such individual receives a share of the boat’s (or the boats’ in the case of a fishing operation involving more than one boat) catch of fish or other forms of aquatic animal life or a share of the proceeds from the sale of such catch, and

"(C) the amount of such individual's share depends on the amount of the boat's (or the boats' in the case of a fishing operation involving more than one boat) catch of fish or other forms of aquatic animal life, but only if the operating crew of such boat (or each boat from which the individual receives a share in the case of a fishing operation involving more than one boat) is normally made up of fewer than 10 individuals."

(B) Section 1402(c)(2) (defining trade or business) is amended by striking out "and" at the end of subparagraph (D), by striking out the semicolon at the end of subparagraph (E) and inserting in lieu thereof ", and", and by adding after subparagraph (E) the following new subparagraph:

"(F) service described in section 3121(b)(20);".

(C) Section 3401(a) (defining wages for purposes of withholding) is amended by striking out the period at the end of paragraph (16) and inserting in lieu thereof ", or", and by adding after paragraph (16) the following new paragraph:

"(17) for service described in section 3121(b)(20)."

(2) CONFORMING AMENDMENTS.—

(A) Section 210(a) of the Social Security Act is amended by striking out "or" at the end of paragraph (18), by striking out the period at the end of paragraph (19) and inserting in lieu thereof ", or," and by adding after paragraph (19) the following new paragraph:

"(20) Service performed by an individual on a boat engaged in catching fish or other forms of aquatic animal life under an arrangement with the owner or operator of such boat pursuant to which—

"(A) such individual does not receive any cash remuneration (other than as provided in subparagraph (B)),

"(B) such individual receives a share of the boat's (or the boats' in the case of a fishing operation involving more than one boat) catch of fish or other forms of aquatic animal life or a share of the proceeds from the sale of such catch, and

"(C) the amount of such individual's share depends on the amount of the boat's (or boats' in the case of a fishing operation involving more than one boat) catch of fish or other forms of aquatic animal life, but only if the operating crew of such boat (or each boat from which the individual receives a share in the case of a fishing operation involving more than one boat) is normally made up of fewer than 10 individuals."

(B) Section 211(c)(2) of such Act is amended by striking out "and" at the end of subparagraph (D), by striking out the semicolon at the end of subparagraph (E), and inserting in lieu thereof ", and" and by adding after subparagraph (E) the following new paragraph:

"(F) service described in section 210(a)(20);".

(3) REPORTING REQUIREMENT.—

(A) Subpart B of part III of subchapter A of chapter 61 (relating to information concerning transactions with other persons) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

26 USC 6050A. "SEC. 6050A. REPORTING REQUIREMENTS OF CERTAIN FISHING BOAT OPERATORS.

"(a) Reports.—The operator of a boat on which one or more individuals, during a calendar year, perform services described in section 3121(b)(20) shall submit to the Secretary (at such time, and in such manner and form, as the Secretary shall by regulations prescribe) information respecting—

"(1) the identity of each individual performing such services;
"(2) the percentage of each such individual's share of the catches of fish or other forms of aquatic animal life, and the percentage of the operator's share of such catches;
"(3) if such individual receives his share in kind, the type and weight of such share, together with such other information as the Secretary may prescribe by regulations reasonably necessary to determine the value of such share; and
"(4) if such individual receives a share of the proceeds of such catches, the amount so received.

"(b) Written Statement.—Every person making a return under subsection (a) shall furnish to each person whose name is set forth in such return a written statement showing the information relating to such person contained in such return. The written statement required under the preceding sentence shall be furnished to the person on or before January 31 of the year following the calendar year for which the return under subsection (a) was made."

26 USC 6652. (B) Section 6652(b) (relating to failure to file certain information returns) is amended by inserting after "withheld),' the following: "in the case of each failure to make a return required by section 6050A(a) (relating to reporting requirements of certain fishing boat operators)."

(C) Section 6652(b) is further amended by inserting after "tips),' the following: "or section 6050A(b) (relating to statements furnished by certain fishing boat operators)."

(f) Effective Dates.—

(1) Subsection (a).—The amendments made by subsection (a) shall apply to wages withheld after the 120-day period following any request for an agreement after the date of the enactment of this Act.

(2) Subsections (b) and (c).—The amendments made by subsections (b) and (c) shall apply to wages withheld after the 120-day period following the date of the enactment of this Act.

(3) Subsection (d).—The amendments made by subsection (d) shall apply to payments of winnings made after the 90th day after the date of the enactment of this Act.

(4) Subsection (e).—

(A) The amendments made by paragraphs (1)(A) and (2)(A) of subsection (e) shall apply to services performed after December 31, 1971. The amendments made by paragraphs (1)(B), (1)(C), and (2)(B) of such subsection shall apply to taxable years ending after December 31, 1971. The amendments made by paragraph (3) of such subsection shall apply to calendar years beginning after the date of the enactment of this Act.

(B) Notwithstanding subparagraph (A), if the owner or operator of any boat treated a share of the boat's catch of fish or other aquatic animal life (or a share of the proceeds therefrom) received by an individual after December 31, 1971, and before the date of the enactment of this Act for services performed by such individual after December 31, 1971, on such boat as being subject to the tax under chapter 21 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, then the amendments made by paragraphs (1) (A) and (B) and (2) of subsection (e) shall not apply with respect to such services performed by such individual (and the share of the catch, or proceeds therefrom, received by him for such services).

SEC. 1208. STATE-CONDUCTED LOTTERIES.

(a) Exemption From Wagering Tax.—Paragraph (3) of section 4402 (relating to State-conducted sweepstakes) is amended to read as follows:

"(3) State-conducted lotteries, etc.—On any wager placed in a sweepstakes, wagering pool, or lottery which is conducted by an agency of a State acting under authority of State law, but only if such wager is placed with the State agency conducting such sweepstakes, wagering pool, or lottery, or with its authorized employees or agents."

(b) Exemption From Occupational Tax on Coin-Operated Devices.—Section 4462(b) (relating to exclusions from definition of coin-operated gaming devices) is amended—

(1) by striking out "or" at the end of paragraph (1),
(2) by striking out the period at the end of paragraph (2) and inserting in lieu thereof "; or", and
(3) by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

"(3) a vending machine which—
(A) dispenses tickets on a sweepstakes, wagering pool, or lottery which is conducted by an agency of a State acting under authority of State law, and
(B) is maintained by the State agency conducting such sweepstakes, wagering pool, or lottery, or by its authorized employees or agents."

(c) Effective Dates.—

(1) The amendment made by subsection (a) shall apply with respect to wagers placed after March 10, 1964.
(2) The amendments made by subsection (b) shall apply with respect to periods after March 10, 1964.

SEC. 1209. MINIMUM EXEMPTION FROM LEVY FOR WAGES, SALARY, AND OTHER INCOME.

(a) General Rule.—Subsection (a) of section 6334 (relating to property exempt from levy) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

"(9) Minimum exemption for wages, salary, and other income.—Any amount payable to or received by an individual as wages or salary for personal services, or as income derived from other sources, during any period, to the extent that the total of such amounts payable to or received by him during such period does not exceed the applicable exempt amount determined under subsection (d)."

(b) Determination of Exempt Amount.—Section 6334 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

"(d) Exempt Amount of Wages, Salary, or Other Income.—

"(1) Individuals on weekly basis.—In the case of an individual who is paid or receives all of his wages, salary, and other income on a weekly basis, the amount of the wages, salary, and other income payable to or received by him during any week which is exempt from levy under subsection (a)(9) shall be—

"(A) $50, plus

"(B) $15 for each individual who is specified in a written statement which is submitted to the person on whom notice of levy is served and which is verified in such manner as the Secretary shall prescribe by regulations and—

"(i) over half of whose support for the payroll period was received from the taxpayer,

"(ii) who is the spouse of the taxpayer, or who bears a relationship to the taxpayer specified in paragraphs (1) through (9) of section 152(a) (relating to definition of dependents), and

"(iii) who is not a minor child of the taxpayer with respect to whom amounts are exempt from levy under subsection (a)(8) for the payroll period.

For purposes of subparagraph (B)(ii) of the preceding sentence, ‘payroll period’ shall be substituted for ‘taxable year’ each place it appears in paragraph (9) of section 152(a).

Regulations.

(2) INDIVIDUALS ON BASIS OTHER THAN WEEKLY.—In the case of any individual not described in paragraph (1), the amount of the wages, salary, and other income payable to or received by him during any applicable pay period or other fiscal period (as determined under regulations prescribed by the Secretary) which is exempt from levy under subsection (a)(9) shall be an amount (determined under such regulations) which as nearly as possible will result in the same total exemption from levy for such individual over a period of time as he would have under paragraph (1) if (during such period of time) he were paid or received such wages, salary, and other income on a regular weekly basis.”

(c) CONFORMING AMENDMENT.—The paragraph heading for paragraph (8) of section 6334(a) is amended to read as follows:

“(8) JUDGMENTS FOR SUPPORT OF MINOR CHILDREN.—”

(d) LEVY ON WAGES, ETC., TO BE CONTINUING.—

26 USC 6331.

(1) Subsection (d) of section 6331 (relating to levy on salaries and wages) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

“(3) CONTINUING LEVY ON SALARY AND WAGES.—

“(A) EFFECT OF LEVY.—The effect of a levy on salary or wages payable to or received by a taxpayer shall be continuous from the date such levy is first made until the liability out of which such levy arose is satisfied or becomes unenforceable by reason of lapse of time.

“(B) RELEASE AND NOTICE OF RELEASE.—With respect to a levy described in subparagraph (A), the Secretary shall promptly release the levy when the liability out of which such levy arose is satisfied or becomes unenforceable by reason of lapse of time, and shall promptly notify the person upon whom such levy was made that such levy has been released.”

(2) The second sentence of section 6331(b) (relating to seizure and sale of property) is amended by striking out “A levy” and inserting in lieu thereof “Except as otherwise provided in subsection (d)(3), a levy”.

26 USC 6332.

(3) The first sentence of section 6332(c)(1) (relating to enforcement of levy) is amended by striking out “from the date of such levy” and inserting in lieu thereof “from the date of such levy
(or, in the case of a levy described in section 6331(d)(3), from the date such person would otherwise have been obligated to pay over such amounts to the taxpayer).

(4) Paragraph (1) of section 6331(d) (relating to levy on salaries and wages) is amended by striking out the last sentence.

(c) Effective Date.—The amendments made by this section shall apply only with respect to levies made after December 31, 1976.

SEC. 1210. JOINT COMMITTEE REFUND CASES.

(a) In General.—Section 6405(a) (relating to reports of refunds and credits) is amended to read as follows:

"(a) By Treasury to Joint Committee.—No refund or credit of any income, war profits, excess profits, estate, or gift tax, or any tax imposed with respect to private foundations and pension plans under chapters 42 and 43, in excess of $200,000 shall be made until after the expiration of 30 days from the date upon which a report giving the name of the person to whom the refund or credit is to be made, the amount of such refund or credit, and a summary of the facts and the decision of the Secretary, is submitted to the Joint Committee on Taxation."

(b) Tentative Refunds.—Section 6405(c) is amended by striking out "$100,000" and inserting in lieu thereof "$200,000".

(c) Audit.—Section 8023(a) (relating to powers to obtain information from the Internal Revenue Service) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new sentence: "In the investigation by the Joint Committee on Taxation of the administration of the internal revenue taxes by the Internal Revenue Service, the Chief of Staff of the Joint Committee on Taxation is authorized to secure directly from the Internal Revenue Service such tax returns, or copies of tax returns, and other relevant information, as the Chief of Staff deems necessary for such investigation, and the Internal Revenue Service is authorized and directed to furnish such tax returns and information to the Chief of Staff together with a brief report, with respect to each return, as to any action taken or proposed to be taken by the Service as a result of any audit of the return."

(d) Effective Dates.—

(1) The amendments made by subsections (a) and (b) shall take effect on the date of the enactment of this Act, except that such amendments shall not apply with respect to any refund or credit with respect to which a report has been made before the date of the enactment of this Act under subsection (a) or (c) of section 6405 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

(2) The amendment made by subsection (c) shall take effect on January 1, 1977.

SEC. 1211. SOCIAL SECURITY ACCOUNT NUMBERS.

(a) Section 208(g) of the Social Security Act is amended, in the matter preceding clause (1) thereof, by striking out "entitled-" and inserting in lieu thereof "entitled, or for any other purpose-".

(b) Section 205(c)(2) of such Act is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subparagraphs:

"(C)(i) It is the policy of the United States that any State (or political subdivision thereof) may, in the administration of any tax, general public assistance, driver's license, or motor vehicle registration law within its jurisdiction, utilize the social security account numbers issued by the Secretary for the purpose of establishing the identification of individuals affected by such law, and may require any individual who is or appears to be so affected to furnish to such State (or political subdivision thereof) or any agency thereof having administrative responsibility for the law involved, the social security account number (or numbers, if he has more than one such number) issued to him by the Secretary.

(ii) If and to the extent that any provision of Federal law heretofore enacted is inconsistent with the policy set forth in clause (i) of this subparagraph, such provision shall, on and after the date of the enactment of this subparagraph, be null, void, and of no effect.

(iii) For purposes of clause (i) of this subparagraph, an agency of a State (or political subdivision thereof) charged with the administration of any general public assistance, driver’s license, or motor vehicle registration law which did not use the social security account number for identification under a law or regulation adopted before January 1, 1975, may require an individual to disclose his or her social security number to such agency solely for the purpose of administering the laws referred to in clause (i) above and for the purpose of responding to requests for information from an agency operating pursuant to the provisions of part A or D of title IV of the Social Security Act.

(iv) For purposes of this subparagraph, the term ‘State’ includes the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, Guam, the Commonwealth of the Northern Marianas, and the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands.

(c) Section 6109 (relating to identifying numbers) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

(d) Use of Social Security Account Number.—The social security account number issued to an individual for purposes of section 205(c)(2)(A) of the Social Security Act shall, except as shall otherwise be specified under regulations of the Secretary, be used as the identifying number for such individual for purposes of this title.

(d) (1) Section 208 of the Social Security Act is amended by inserting after subsection (g) the following new subsection:

(h) discloses, uses, or compels the disclosure of the social security number of any person in violation of the laws of the United States;

(2) section 208(g)(2) of such Act is amended by adding “or” at the end thereof.

SEC. 1212. ABATEMENT OF INTEREST WHEN RETURN IS PREPARED FOR TAXPAYER BY THE INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE.

(a) In General.—Section 6404 (relating to abatements) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

(d) Assessments Attributable to Certain Mathematical Errors by Internal Revenue Service.—In the case of an assessment of any tax imposed by chapter 1 attributable in whole or in part to a mathematical error described in section 6213(f)(2)(A), if the return was prepared by an officer or employee of the Internal Revenue Service acting in his official capacity to provide assistance to taxpayers in the preparation of income tax returns, the Secretary is authorized to abate the assessment of all or any part of any interest on such deficiency for any period ending on or before the 30th day following the date of notice and demand by the Secretary for payment of the deficiency.

(b) Effective Date.—The amendment made by subsection (a) shall apply with respect to returns filed for taxable years ending after the date of the enactment of this Act.
TITLE XIII—TAX EXEMPT ORGANIZATIONS

SEC. 1301. DISPOSITION OF PRIVATE FOUNDATION PROPERTY UNDER TRANSITION RULES OF TAX REFORM ACT OF 1969.

(a) In General.—Paragraph (2) of section 101(1) of the Tax Reform Act of 1969 (relating to private foundations savings provisions) is amended—

(1) by striking out “and” at the end of subparagraph (D);
(2) by striking out the period at the end of subparagraph (E) and inserting in lieu thereof “; and”; and
(3) by adding at the end thereof the following new subparagraph:

“(F) the sale, exchange, or other disposition (other than by lease) of property which is owned by a private foundation to a disqualified person if—

“(i) such foundation is leasing substantially all of such property under a lease to which subparagraph (C) applies.
“(ii) the disposition to such disqualified person occurs before January 1, 1978, and
“(iii) such foundation receives in return for the disposition to such disqualified person an amount which equals or exceeds the fair market value of such property at the time of the disposition or at the time (after June 30, 1976) a contract for the disposition was previously executed in a transaction which would not constitute a prohibited transaction (within the meaning of section 503(b) or any corresponding provision of prior law).”.

(b) Effective Date.—The amendments made by subsection (a) shall apply to dispositions after the date of the enactment of this Act in taxable years ending after such date.

SEC. 1302. NEW PRIVATE FOUNDATION SET-ASIDES.

(a) In General.—Section 4942(g)(2) (relating to definition of qualifying distributions) is amended to read as follows:

“(2) CERTAIN SET-ASIDES.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—For all taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1975, subject to such terms and conditions as may be prescribed by the Secretary, an amount set aside for a specific project which comes within one or more purposes described in section 170(c)(2)(B) may be treated as a qualifying distribution if it meets the requirements of subparagraph (B).

“(B) REQUIREMENTS.—An amount set aside for a specific project shall meet the requirements of this subparagraph if at the time of the set-aside the foundation establishes to the satisfaction of the Secretary that the amount will be paid for the specific project within 5 years, and either—

“(i) at the time of the set-aside the private foundation establishes to the satisfaction of the Secretary that the project is one which can better be accomplished by such set-aside than by immediate payment of funds, or “(ii) (I) the project will not be completed before the end of the taxable year of the foundation in which the set-aside is made,
“(II) the private foundation in each taxable year beginning after December 31, 1975 (or after the end of the fourth taxable year following the year of its creation, whichever is later), distributes amounts, in cash or its equivalent, equal to not less than the distributable amount determined under subsection (d) (without regard to subsection (i)) for purposes described in section 170(c)(2)(B) (including but not limited to payments with respect to set-asides which were treated as qualifying distributions in one or more prior years), and

“(III) the private foundation has distributed (including but not limited to payments with respect to set-asides which were treated as qualifying distributions in one or more prior years) during the four taxable years immediately preceding its first taxable year beginning after December 31, 1975, or the fifth taxable year following the year of its creation, whichever is later, an aggregate amount, in cash or its equivalent, of not less than the sum of the following: 80 percent of the first preceding taxable year’s distributable amount; 60 percent of the second preceding taxable year’s distributable amount; 40 percent of the third preceding taxable year’s distributable amount; and 20 percent of the fourth preceding taxable year’s distributable amount.

“(C) CERTAIN FAILURES TO DISTRIBUTE.—If, for any taxable year to which clause (ii) (II) of subparagraph (B) applies, the private foundation fails to distribute in cash or its equivalent amounts not less than those required by such clause and—

“(i) the failure to distribute such amounts was not willful and was due to reasonable cause, and

“(ii) the foundation distributes an amount in cash or its equivalent which is not less than the difference between the amounts required to be distributed under clause (ii) (II) of subparagraph (B) and the amounts actually distributed in cash or its equivalent during that taxable year within the initial correction period provided in subsection (j)(2), such distribution in cash or its equivalent shall be treated for the purposes of this subparagraph as made during such year.

“(D) REDUCTION IN DISTRIBUTION AMOUNT.—If, during the taxable years in the adjustment period for which the organization is a private foundation, the foundation distributes amounts in cash or its equivalent which exceed the amount required to be distributed under clause (ii) (II) of subparagraph (B) (including but not limited to payments with respect to set-asides which were treated as qualifying distributions in prior years), then for purposes of this subsection the distribution required under clause (ii) (II) of subparagraph (B) for the taxable year shall be reduced by an amount equal to such excess.

“(E) ADJUSTMENT PERIOD.—For purposes of subparagraph (D), with respect to any taxable year of a private foundation, the taxable years in the adjustment period are the taxable years (not exceeding 5 beginning after December 31, 1975, and immediately preceding the taxable year.

In the case of a set-aside which satisfies the requirements of clause (i) of subparagraph (B), for good cause shown, the period for paying the amount set aside may be extended by the Secretary.”

26 USC 6501.

(b) STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS.—Subsection (n) of section 6501 (relating to limitations on assessments and collections) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:
“(3) Certain set-asides described in section 4942(g)(2).—In the case of a deficiency attributable to the failure of an amount set aside by a private foundation for a specific project to be treated as a qualifying distribution under the provisions of section 4942(g)(2) (B) (i) (II), such deficiency may be assessed at any time before the expiration of 2 years after the expiration of the period within which a deficiency may be assessed for the taxable year to which the amount set aside relates.”

(c) Effective Date.—The amendments made by this section shall apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1974.

SEC. 1303. MINIMUM DISTRIBUTION AMOUNT FOR PRIVATE FOUNDATIONS.

(a) In General.—Subsection (e) of section 4942 (relating to minimum investment return) is amended to read as follows:

“(e) Minimum Investment Return.—

“(1) In general.—For purposes of subsection (d), the minimum investment return for any private foundation for any taxable year is 5 percent of the excess of—

“(A) the aggregate fair market value of all assets of the foundation other than those which are used (or held for use) directly in carrying out the foundation’s exempt purpose, over

“(B) the acquisition indebtedness with respect to such assets (determined under section 514(c)(1) without regard to the taxable year in which the indebtedness was incurred).

“(2) Valuation.—

“(A) In general.—For purposes of paragraph (1)(A), the fair market value of securities for which market quotations are readily available shall be determined on a monthly basis. For all other assets, the fair market value shall be determined at such times and in such manner as the Secretary shall by regulations prescribe.

“(B) Reductions in value for blockage or similar factors.—In determining the value of any securities under this paragraph, the fair market value of such securities (determined without regard to any reduction in value) shall not be reduced unless, and only to the extent that, the private foundation establishes that as a result of—

“(i) the size of the block of such securities, “(ii) the fact that the securities held are securities in a closely held corporation, or

“(iii) the fact that the sale of such securities would result in a forced or distress sale, the securities could not be liquidated within a reasonable period of time except at a price less than such fair market value. Any reduction in value allowable under this subparagraph shall not exceed 10 percent of such fair market value.”

(b) Effective Date.—The amendment made by this section applies to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1975.

SEC. 1304. EXTENSION OF TIME TO AMEND CHARITABLE REMAINDER TRUST GOVERNING INSTRUMENT.

(a) Extension of Time.—Section 2055(e)(3) (relating to the allowance of deductions in certain cases) is amended—

(1) by striking out “September 21, 1974,” and inserting in lieu thereof “December 31, 1977,” and

(2) by striking out “December 31, 1975” each place it appears and inserting in lieu thereof “December 31, 1977.”

(b) Effective Date.—The amendment made by this section applies to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1974.
(b) Extension of Period for Filing Claim for Refund of Estate Tax Paid.—A claim for refund or credit of an overpayment of the tax imposed by section 2001 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 allowable under section 2055(e) (3) of such Code (as amended by subsection (a)) shall not be denied because of the expiration of the time for filing such a claim under section 6511 (a) if such claim is filed not later than June 30, 1978.

(c) Effective Date.—The amendments made by this section shall apply in the case of decedents dying after December 31, 1969.

SEC. 1305. UNRELATED TRADE OR BUSINESS INCOME OF TRADE SHOWS, STATE FAIRS, ETC.

26 USC 513.

(a) In General.—Section 513 (relating to unrelated trade or business) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

“(d) Certain Activities of Trade Shows, State Fairs, Etc.—

“(1) General rule.—The term ‘unrelated trade or business’ does not include qualified public entertainment activities of an organization described in paragraph (2) (C), or qualified convention and trade show activities of an organization described in paragraph (3) (C).

“(2) Qualified Public Entertainment Activities.—For purposes of this subsection:

“(A) Public Entertainment Activity.—The term ‘public entertainment activity’ means any entertainment or recreational activity of a kind traditionally conducted at fairs or expositions promoting agricultural and educational purposes, including, but not limited to, any activity one of the purposes of which is to attract the public to fairs or expositions or to promote the breeding of animals or the development of products or equipment.

“(B) Qualified Public Entertainment Activity.—The term ‘qualified public entertainment activity’ means a public entertainment activity which is conducted by a qualifying organization described in subparagraph (C) in—

“(i) conjunction with an international, national, State, regional, or local fair or exposition, “(ii) accordance with the provisions of State law which permit the activity to be operated or conducted solely by such an organization, or by an agency, instrumentality, or political subdivision of such State, or

“(iii) accordance with the provisions of State law which permit such an organization to be granted a license to conduct not more than 20 days of such activity on payment to the State of a lower percentage of the revenue from such licensed activity than the State requires from organizations not described in section 501(c) (3), (4), or (5).

“(C) Qualifying Organization.—For purposes of this paragraph, the term ‘qualifying organization’ means an organization which is described in section 501(c) (3), (4), or (5) which regularly conducts, as one of its substantial exempt purposes, an agricultural and educational fair or exposition.

“(3) Qualified Convention and Trade Show Activities.—

“(A) Convention and Trade Show Activity.—The term ‘convention and trade show activity’ means any activity of a kind traditionally conducted at conventions, annual meetings, or trade shows, including, but not limited to, any activity one of the purposes of which is to attract persons in an industry generally (without regard to membership in the sponsoring organization) as well as members of the public to the show for the purpose of displaying industry products or to stimulate interest in, and demand for, industry products or services, or to educate persons engaged in the industry in the development of new products and services or new rules and regulations affecting the industry.

"(B) QUALIFIED CONVENTION AND TRADE SHOW ACTIVITY.—The term ‘qualified convention and trade show activity’ means a convention and trade show activity carried out by a qualifying organization described in subparagraph (C) in conjunction with an international, national, State, regional, or local convention, annual meeting, or show conducted by an organization described in subparagraph (C) if one of the purposes of such organization in sponsoring the activity is the promotion and stimulation of interest in, and demand for, the products and services of that industry in general, and the show is designed to achieve such purpose through the character of the exhibits and the extent of the industry products displayed.

“(C) QUALIFYING ORGANIZATION.—For purposes of this paragraph, the term ‘qualifying organization’ means an organization described in section 501(c)(5) or (6) which regularly conducts as one of its substantial exempt purposes a show which stimulates interest in, and demand for, the products of a particular industry or segment of such industry.

"(4) SUCH ACTIVITIES NOT TO AFFECT EXEMPT STATUS.—An organization described in section 501(c)(3), (4), or (5) shall not be considered as not entitled to the exemption allowed under section 501(a) solely because of qualified public entertainment activities conducted by it.”

(b) EFFECTIVE DATES.—The amendments made by subsection (a) apply to qualified public entertainment activities in taxable years beginning after December 31, 1962, and to qualified convention and trade show activities in taxable years beginning after the date of enactment of this Act.

SEC. 1306. DECLARATORY JUDGMENTS WITH RESPECT TO SECTION 501(c)(3) STATUS AND CLASSIFICATION.

(a) GENERAL RULE.—Subchapter B of chapter 76 (relating to proceedings by taxpayers and third parties) is amended by redesignating section 7428 as 7430, and by inserting after section 7427 the following new section:

"SEC. 7428. DECLARATORY JUDGMENTS RELATING TO STATUS AND CLASSIFICATION OF ORGANIZATIONS UNDER SECTION 501(c)(3), ETC.

"(a) CREATION OF REMEDY.—In a case of actual controversy involving—

"(1) a determination by the Secretary—

"(A) with respect to the initial qualification or continuing qualification of an organization as an organization described in section 501(c)(3) which is exempt from tax under section 501(a) or as an organization described in section 170(c)(2),

"(B) with respect to the initial classification or continuing classification of an organization as a private foundation (as defined in section 509(a)), or “(C) with respect to the initial classification or continuing classification of an organization as a private operating foundation (as defined in section 4942(j)(3)), or “(2) a failure by the Secretary to make a determination with respect to an issue referred to in paragraph (1), upon the filing of an appropriate pleading, the United States Tax Court, the United States Court of Claims, or the district court of the United States for the District of Columbia may make a declaration with respect to such initial qualification or continuing qualification or with respect to such initial classification or continuing classification. Any such declaration shall have the force and effect of a decision of the Tax Court or a final judgment or decree of the district court or the Court of Claims, as the case may be, and shall be reviewable as such.

“(1) PETITIONER.—A pleading may be filed under this section only by the organization the qualification or classification of which is at issue.
“(2) EXHAUSTION OF ADMINISTRATIVE REMEDIES.—A declaratory judgment or decree under this section shall not be issued in any proceeding unless the Tax Court, the Court of Claims, or the district court of the United States for the District of Columbia determines that the organization involved has exhausted administrative remedies available to it within the Internal Revenue Service. An organization requesting the determination of an issue referred to in subsection (a) (1) shall be deemed to have exhausted its administrative remedies with respect to a failure by the Secretary to make a determination with respect to such issue at the expiration of 270 days after the date on which the request for such determination was made if the organization has taken, in a timely manner, all reasonable steps to secure such determination.
“(3) TIME FOR BRINGING ACTION.—If the Secretary sends by certified or registered mail notice of his determination with respect to an issue referred to in subsection (a) (1) to the organization referred to in paragraph (1), no proceeding may be initiated under this section by such organization unless the pleading is filed before the 91st day after the date of such mailing.

“(c) VALIDATION OF CERTAIN CONTRIBUTIONS MADE DURING PENDENCY OF PROCEEDINGS.—
“(1) IN GENERAL.—If—
“(A) the issue referred to in subsection (a) (1) involves the revocation of a determination that the organization is described in section 170(c)(2), “(B) a proceeding under this section is initiated within the time provided by subsection (b) (3), and
“(C) either—
“(i) a decision of the Tax Court has become final (within the meaning of section 7481), or “(ii) a judgment of the district court of the United States for the District of Columbia has been entered, or “(iii) a judgment of the Court of Claims has been entered,” and such decision or judgment, as the case may be, determines that the organization was not described in section 170(c)(2), then, notwithstanding such decision or judgment, such organization shall be treated as having been described in section 170(c)(2) for purposes of section 170 for the period beginning on the date on which the notice of the revocation was published and ending on the date on which the court first determined in such proceeding that the organization was not described in section 170(c)(2).

"(2) LIMITATION.—Paragraph (1) shall apply only—

"(A) with respect to individuals, and only to the extent that the aggregate of the contributions made by any individual to or for the use of the organization during the period specified in paragraph (1) does not exceed $1,000 (for this purpose treating a husband and wife as one contributor), and

"(B) with respect to organizations described in section 170(c)(2) which are exempt from tax under section 501(a) (for this purpose excluding any such organization with respect to which there is pending a proceeding to revoke the determination under section 170(c)(2)).

"(3) EXCEPTION.—This subsection shall not apply to any individual who was responsible, in whole or in part, for the activities (or failures to act) on the part of the organization which were the basis for the revocation."

(b) TECHNICAL AND CONFORMING AMENDMENTS.—

(1) Section 7451 (relating to fee for filing petition) is amended by inserting before the period at the end thereof the following:
"or under section 7428"

(2) Section 7459(c) (relating to date of decision) is amended by inserting after "under part IV of this subchapter? the following: "or under section 7428"

(3) Section 7476(c) (relating to use of Tax Court comission-ers) is amended by striking out "this section" and inserting in lieu thereof "this section or section 7428"

(4) Section 7482(b)(1) (relating to venue for review of Tax Court decisions) is amended by striking out "or" at the end of subparagraph (C), by striking out the period at the end of sub-paragraph (D) and inserting in lieu thereof "or", and by inserting after subparagraph (D) the following new subparagraph:

"(E) in the case of an organization seeking a declaratory decision under section 7428, the principal office or agency of the organization."

(5) Section 7482(b)(1) is further amended by striking out
"section 7476" in the last sentence and inserting in lieu thereof
"section 7428, 7476."

(6) The table of sections for subchapter B of chapter 76 is amended by striking out the item relating to section 7428 and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"Sec. 7428. Declaratory judgments relating to status and classification of organizations under section 501(e)(3), etc.
"Sec. 7430. Cross references."

(7) Section 1346(e) of title 28, United States Code (relating to jurisdiction of district courts with the United States as defendant), is amended by inserting "or section 7428 (in the case of the United States district court for the District of Columbia)" immediately after "section 7426":

(8) Section 2201 of title 28, United States Code (relating to creation of declaratory judgment remedy), is amended by striking out "taxes" and inserting in lieu thereof "taxes other than actions brought under section 7428 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954".

(9) (A) Chapter 92 of title 28, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

28 USC 1507. § 1507. Jurisdiction for certain declaratory judgments

"The Court of Claims shall have jurisdiction to hear any suit for and issue a declaratory judgment under section 7428 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954."

(B) The table of sections for such chapter is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new item:

"1507. Jurisdiction for certain declaratory judgments."

26 USC 7428 note. (c) Effective Date.—The amendments made by this section shall apply with respect to pleadings filed with the United States Tax Court, the district court of the United States for the District of Columbia, or the United States Court of Claims more than 6 months after the date of the enactment of this Act but only with respect to determinations (or requests for determinations) made after January 1, 1976.

SEC. 1307. LOBBYING BY PUBLIC CHARITIES.

(a) Loss of Exempt Status.—

26 USC 501. (1) Loss of exempt status because of substantial lobbying.—Section 501 (relating to exemption from income tax) is amended by redesignating subsection (h) as subsection (i) and by inserting after subsection (g) the following new subsection:

"(h) Expenditures by public charities to influence legislation.—

"(1) General rule.—In the case of an organization to which this subsection applies, exemption from taxation under subsection (a) shall be denied because a substantial part of the activities of such organization consists of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting, to influence legislation, but only if such organization normally—

"(A) makes lobbying expenditures in excess of the lobbying ceiling amount for such organization for each taxable year, or

"(B) makes grass roots expenditures in excess of the grass roots ceiling amount for such organization for each taxable year.

"(2) Definitions.—For purposes of this subsection—

"(A) Lobbying expenditures.—The term 'lobbying expenditures' means expenditures for the purpose of influencing legislation (as defined in section 4911(d)).

"(B) Lobbying ceiling amount.—The lobbying ceiling amount for any organization for any taxable year is 300 percent of the lobbying nontaxable amount for such organization for such taxable year, determined under section 4911.

"(C) Grass roots expenditures.—The term 'grass roots expenditures' means expenditures for the purpose of influencing legislation (as defined in section 4911(d) without regard to paragraph (1) (B) thereof).

"(D) Grass roots ceiling amount.—The grass roots ceiling amount for any organization for any taxable year is 300 percent of the grass roots nontaxable amount for such organization for such taxable year, determined under section 4911.

"(3) Organizations to which this subsection applies.—This subsection shall apply to any organization which has elected (in such manner and at such time as the Secretary may prescribe) to have the provisions of this subsection apply to such organization and which, for the taxable year which includes the date the election is made, is described in subsection (c) (3) and—
(A) is described in paragraph (4), and
(B) is not a disqualified organization under paragraph (5).

(4) Organizations permitted to elect to have this subsection apply.—An organization is described in this paragraph if it is described in—
(A) section 170(b) (1) (A) (ii) (relating to educational institutions),
(B) section 170(b) (1) (A) (iii) (relating to hospitals and medical research organizations),
(C) section 170(b) (1) (A) (iv) (relating to organizations supporting government schools),
(D) section 170(b) (1) (A) (vi) (relating to organizations publicly supported by charitable contributions),
(E) section 509(a) (2) (relating to organizations publicly supported by admissions, sales, etc.), or
(F) section 509(a) (3) (relating to organizations supporting certain types of public charities) except that for purposes of this subparagraph, section 509(a) (3) shall be applied without regard to the last sentence of section 509(a).

(5) Disqualified organizations.—For purposes of paragraph (3) an organization is a disqualified organization if it is—
(A) described in section 170(b) (1) (A) (i) (relating to churches),
(B) an integrated auxiliary of a church or of a convention or association of churches, or
(C) a member of an affiliated group of organizations (within the meaning of section 4911(f) (2)) if one or more members of such group is described in subparagraph (A) or (B).

(6) Years for which election is effective.—An election by an organization under this subsection shall be effective for all taxable years of such organization which—
(A) end after the date the election is made, and
(B) begin before the date the election is revoked by such organization (under regulations prescribed by the Secretary).

(7) No effect on certain organizations.—With respect to any organization for a taxable year for which—
(A) such organization is a disqualified organization (within the meaning of paragraph (5)), or
(B) an election under this subsection is not in effect for such organization, nothing in this subsection or in section 4911 shall be construed to affect the interpretation of the phrase, `no substantial part of the activities of which is carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting, to influence legislation,' under subsection (c) (3).

(8) Affiliated organizations.—

"For rules regarding affiliated organizations, see section 4911(f)."

(2) Status of organization which ceases to qualify for exemption under section 501(c) (3) because of substantial lobbying.—Part I of subchapter F of chapter 1 (relating to general rules as to exempt organizations) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

26 USC 504.
"SEC. 504. STATUS AFTER ORGANIZATION CEASES TO QUALIFY FOR EXEMPTION UNDER SECTION 501(c)(3) BECAUSE OF SUBSTANTIAL LOBBYING.

"(a) General Rule.—An organization which—
"(1) was exempt (or was determined by the Secretary to be exempt) from taxation under section 501(a) by reason of being an organization described in section 501(c)(3), and
"(2) is not an organization described in section 501(c)(3) by reason of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting, to influence legislation, shall not at any time thereafter be treated as an organization described in section 501(c)(4).

"(b) Regulations to Prevent Avoidance.—The Secretary shall prescribe such regulations as may be necessary or appropriate to prevent the avoidance of subsection (a), including regulations relating to a direct or indirect transfer of all or part of the assets of an organization to an organization controlled (directly or indirectly) by the same person or persons who control the transferor organization.

"(c) Churches, Etc.—Subsection (a) shall not apply to any organization which is a disqualified organization within the meaning of section 501(h)(5) (relating to churches, etc.) for the taxable year immediately preceding the first taxable year for which such organization is described in paragraph (2) of subsection (a)."

(3) Rules of Interpretation.—It is the intent of Congress that enactment of this section is not to be regarded in any way as an approval or disapproval of the decision of the Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit in Christian Echoes National Ministry, Inc. versus United States, 470 F.2d 849 (1972), or of the reasoning in any of the opinions leading to that decision.

26 USC 6033.

(4) Disclosure.—Section 6033(b) (relating to information required to be furnished annually by certain exempt organizations) is amended by striking out "and" at the end of paragraph (6), by striking out the period at the end of paragraph (7) and inserting in lieu thereof ", and", and by adding at the end thereof the following:

"(8) in the case of an organization with respect to which an election under section 501(h) is effective for the taxable year, the following amounts for such organization for such taxable year:
"(A) the lobbying expenditures (as defined in section 4911(c)(1)), "(B) the lobbying nontaxable amount (as defined in section 4911(c)(2)), "(C) the grass roots expenditures (as defined in section 4911(c)(3)), and
"(D) the grass roots nontaxable amount (as defined in section 4911(c)(4)).

For purposes of paragraph (8), if section 4911(f) applies to the organization for the taxable year, such organization shall furnish the amounts with respect to the affiliated group as well as with respect to such organization.

(b) Taxes on Excess Expenditures to Influence Legislation.—Subtitle D (relating to miscellaneous excise taxes) is amended by inserting before chapter 42 the following new chapter:
CHAPTER 41—PUBLIC CHARITIES

SEC. 4911. TAX ON EXCESS EXPENDITURES TO INFLUENCE LEGISLATION.

(a) Tax imposed.—

(1) In general.—There is hereby imposed on the excess lobbying expenditures of any organization to which this section applies a tax equal to 25 percent of the amount of the excess lobbying expenditures for the taxable year.

(2) Organizations to which this section applies.—This section applies to any organization with respect to which an election under section 501(h) (relating to lobbying expenditures by public charities) is in effect for the taxable year.

(b) Excess lobbying expenditures.—For purposes of this section, the term ‘excess lobbying expenditures’ means, for a taxable year, the greater of—

(1) the amount by which the lobbying expenditures made by the organization during the taxable year exceed the lobbying nontaxable amount for such organization for such taxable year, or

(2) the amount by which the grass roots expenditures made by the organization during the taxable year exceed the grass roots nontaxable amount for such organization for such taxable year.

(c) Definitions.—For purposes of this section—

(1) Lobbying expenditures.—The term ‘lobbying expenditures’ means expenditures for the purpose of influencing legislation (as defined in subsection (d)).

(2) Lobbying nontaxable amount.—The lobbying nontaxable amount for any organization for any taxable year is the lesser of (A) $1,000,000 or (B) the amount determined under the following table:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>If the proposed expenditures are</th>
<th>The lobbying nontaxable amount is</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Not over $500,000</td>
<td>20 percent of the exempt purpose expenditures.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Over $500,000 but not over $1,000,000</td>
<td>$100,000, plus 15 percent of the excess of the exempt purpose expenditures over $500,000.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Over $1,000,000 but not over $1,500,000</td>
<td>$175,000 plus 10 percent of the excess of the exempt purpose expenditures over $1,000,000.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Over $1,500,000</td>
<td>$225,000 plus 5 percent of the excess of the exempt purpose expenditures over $1,500,000.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

(3) Grass roots expenditures.—The term ‘grass roots expenditures’ means expenditures for the purpose of influencing legislation (as defined in subsection (d) without regard to paragraph (1)(B) thereof).

(4) Grass roots nontaxable amount.—The grass roots nontaxable amount for any organization for any taxable year is 25 percent of the lobbying nontaxable amount (determined under paragraph (2)) for such organization for such taxable year.

(d) Influencing legislation.—

(1) General rule.—Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (2), for purposes of this section, the term ‘influencing legislation’ means—

(A) any attempt to influence any legislation through an attempt to affect the opinions of the general public or any segment thereof, and

(2) General rule for grass roots expenditures.—For purposes of clause (A), the term ‘grass roots expenditures’ means grass roots expenditures (as defined in subsection (c)(3)).
“(B) any attempt to influence any legislation through communication with any member or employee of a legislative body, or with any government official or employee who may participate in the formulation of the legislation.

“(2) Exceptions.—For purposes of this section, the term ‘influencing legislation’, with respect to an organization, does not include—

“(A) making available the results of nonpartisan analysis, study, or research;

“(B) providing of technical advice or assistance (where such advice would otherwise constitute the influencing of legislation) to a governmental body or to a committee or other subdivision thereof in response to a written request by such body or subdivision, as the case may be;

“(C) appearances before, or communications to, any legislative body with respect to a possible decision of such body which might affect the existence of the organization, its powers and duties, tax-exempt status, or the deduction of contributions to the organization;

“(D) communications between the organization and its bona fide members with respect to legislation or proposed legislation of direct interest to the organization and such members, other than communications described in paragraph (3); and

“(E) any communication with a government official or employee, other than—

“(i) a communication with a member or employee of a legislative body (where such communication would otherwise constitute the influencing of legislation), or—

“(ii) a communication the principal purpose of which is to influence legislation.

“(3) Communications with members.—

“(A) A communication between an organization and any bona fide member of such organization to directly encourage such member to communicate as provided in paragraph (1), (B) shall be treated as a communication described in paragraph (1) (B).

“(B) A communication between an organization and any bona fide member of such organization to directly encourage such member to urge persons other than members to communicate as provided in either subparagraph (A) or subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) shall be treated as a communication described in paragraph (1) (A).

“(e) Other Definitions and Special Rules.—For purposes of this section—

“(1) Exempt purpose expenditures.—

“(A) In general.—The term ‘exempt purpose expenditures’ means, with respect to any organization for any taxable year, the total of the amounts paid or incurred by such organization to accomplish purposes described in section 170(c) (2) (B) (relating to religious, charitable, educational, etc., purposes).

“(B) Certain amounts included.—The term ‘exempt purpose expenditures’ includes—

“(i) administrative expenses paid or incurred for purposes described in section 170(c) (2) (B), and “(ii) amounts paid or incurred for the purpose of influencing legislation (whether or not for purposes described in section 170(c)(2)(B)).

“(C) CERTAIN AMOUNTS EXCLUDED.—The term ‘exempt purpose expenditures’ does not include amounts paid or incurred to or for—

“(i) a separate fundraising unit of such organization, or

“(ii) one or more other organizations, if such amounts are paid or incurred primarily for fundraising.

“(2) LEGISLATION.—The term ‘legislation’ includes action with respect to Acts, bills, resolutions, or similar items by the Congress, any State legislature, any local council, or similar governing body, or by the public in a referendum, initiative, constitutional amendment, or similar procedure.

“(3) ACTION.—The term ‘action’ is limited to the introduction, amendment, enactment, defeat, or repeal of Acts, bills, resolutions, or similar items.

“(4) DEPRECIATION, ETC., TREATED AS EXPENDITURES.—In computing expenditures paid or incurred for the purpose of influencing legislation (within the meaning of subsection (b)(1) or (b)(2)) or exempt purpose expenditures (as defined in paragraph (1)), amounts properly chargeable to capital account shall not be taken into account. There shall be taken into account a reasonable allowance for exhaustion, wear and tear, obsolescence, or amortization. Such allowance shall be computed only on the basis of the straight-line method of depreciation. For purposes of this section, a determination of whether an amount is properly chargeable to capital account shall be made on the basis of the principles that apply under subtitle A to amounts which are paid or incurred in a trade or business.

“(f) AFFILIATED ORGANIZATIONS.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (4), if for a taxable year two or more organizations described in section 501(c)(3) are members of an affiliated group of organizations as defined in paragraph (2), and an election under section 501(h) is effective for at least one such organization for such year, then—

“(A) the determination as to whether excess lobbying expenditures have been made and the determination as to whether the expenditure limits of section 501(h)(1) have been exceeded shall be made as though such affiliated group is one organization,

“(B) if such group has excess lobbying expenditures, each such organization as to which an election under section 501(h) is effective for such year shall be treated as an organization which has excess lobbying expenditures in an amount which equals such organization’s proportionate share of such group’s excess lobbying expenditures,

“(C) if the expenditure limits of section 501(h)(1) are exceeded, each such organization as to which an election under section 501(h) is effective for such year shall be treated as an organization which is not described in section 501(c)(3) by reason of the application of 501(h), and

“(D) subparagraphs (C) and (D) of subsection (d)(2), paragraph (3) of subsection (d), and clause (1) of subsec-

26 USC 170.

26 USC 1.

Ante, p. 1720.
tion (e) (1) (C) shall be applied as if such affiliated group were one organization.

"(2) DEFINITION OF AFFILIATION.—For purposes of paragraph (1), two organizations are members of an affiliated group of organizations but only if—

"(A) the governing instrument of one such organization requires it to be bound by decisions of the other organization on legislative issues, or

"(B) the governing board of one such organization includes persons who—

"(i) are specifically designated representatives of another such organization or are members of the governing board, officers, or paid executive staff members of such other organization, and

"(ii) by aggregating their votes, have sufficient voting power to cause or prevent action on legislative issues by the first such organization.

Regulations.

"(3) DIFFERENT TAXABLE YEARS.—If members of an affiliated group of organizations have different taxable years, their expenditures shall be computed for purposes of this section in a manner to be prescribed by regulations promulgated by the Secretary.

"(4) LIMITED CONTROL.—If two or more organizations are members of an affiliated group of organizations (as defined in paragraph (2) without regard to subparagraph (B) thereof), no two members of such affiliated group are affiliated (as defined in paragraph (2) without regard to subparagraph (A) thereof), and the governing instrument of no such organization requires it to be bound by decisions of any of the other such organizations on legislative issues other than as to action with respect to Acts, bills, resolutions, or similar items by the Congress, then—

"(A) in the case of any organization whose decisions bind one or more members of such affiliated group, directly or indirectly, the determination as to whether such organization has paid or incurred excess lobbying expenditures and the determination as to whether such organization has exceeded the expenditure limits of section 501(h) (1) shall be made as though such organization has paid or incurred those amounts paid or incurred by such members of such affiliated group to influence legislation with respect to Acts, bills, resolutions, or similar items by the Congress, and

"(B) in the case of any organization to which subparagraph (A) does not apply, but which is a member of such affiliated group, the determination as to whether such organization has paid or incurred excess lobbying expenditures and the determination as to whether such organization has exceeded the expenditure limits of section 501(h) (1) shall be made as though such organization is not a member of such affiliated group.”.

(c) DISALLOWING OF DEDUCTION FOR CONTRIBUTION TO INFLUENCE LEGISLATION.—Section 170(f) (relating to disallowance of charitable contribution deductions in certain cases) is amended by striking out paragraph (6) and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"(6) DEDUCTIONS FOR OUT-OF-POCKET EXPENDITURES.—No deduction shall be allowed under this section for an out-of-pocket expenditure made by any person on behalf of an organization described in subsection (c) (other than an organization described in section 501(h) (6) (relating to churches, etc.) if the expenditure is made for the purpose of influencing legislation (within the meaning of section 501(c)(3)).”.

(d) Technical Amendments.—

(1) Amendments conforming to new section 501(h).—

(A) Section 501(c)(3) is amended by striking out “no substantial part of the activities of which is carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting, to influence legislation,” and inserting in lieu thereof “no substantial part of the activities of which is carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting, to influence legislation (except as otherwise provided in subsection (h)).”.

(B) The following sections are amended by striking out “no substantial part of the activities of which is carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting, to influence legislation,” each place it appears and inserting in lieu thereof in each such place “which is not disqualified for tax exemption under section 501(c)(3) by reason of attempting to influence legislation”:

SEC. 1501. RETIREMENT SAVINGS FOR CERTAIN MARRIED INDIVIDUALS.

(a) ALLOWANCE OF DEDUCTION.—Part VII of subchapter B of chapter 1 (relating to additional itemized deductions for individuals) is amended by redesignating section 220 as 221 and by inserting after section 219 the following new section:

"SEC. 220. RETIREMENT SAVINGS FOR CERTAIN MARRIED INDIVIDUALS.

"(a) DEDUCTION ALLOWED.—In the case of an individual, there is allowed as a deduction amounts paid in cash for a taxable year by or on behalf of such individual for the benefit of himself and his spouse—

"(1) to an individual retirement account described in section 408(a),

"(2) for an individual retirement annuity described in section 408(b), or

"(3) for a retirement bond described in section 409 (but only if the bond is not redeemed within 12 months of the date of its issuance).

For purposes of this title, any amount paid by an employer to such a retirement account or for such a retirement annuity or retirement bond constitutes payment of compensation to the employee (other than a self-employed individual who is an employee within the meaning of section 401(c)(1)) includible in his gross income, whether or not a deduction for such payment is allowable under this section to the employee after the application of subsection (b).

"(b) LIMITATIONS AND RESTRICTIONS.—

"(1) MAXIMUM DEDUCTION.—The amount allowable as a deduction under subsection (a) to an individual for any taxable year may not exceed—

"(A) twice the amount paid to the account or annuity, or for the bond, established for the individual or for his spouse to or for which the lesser amount was paid for the taxable year,

"(B) an amount equal to 15 percent of the compensation includible in the individual's gross income for the taxable year, or

"(C) $1,750,

whichver is the smallest amount.

"(2) ALTERNATIVE DEDUCTION.—No deduction is allowed under subsection (a) for the taxable year if the individual claims the deduction allowed by section 219 for the taxable year.

"(3) COVERAGE UNDER CERTAIN OTHER PLANS.—No deduction is allowed under subsection (a) for an individual for the taxable year if for any part of such year—

"(A) he or his spouse was an active participant in—

"(i) a plan described in section 401(a) which includes a trust exempt from tax under section 501(a),

"(ii) an annuity plan described in section 403(a),

"(iii) a qualified bond purchase plan described in section 405(a), or “(iv) a plan established for its employees by the United States, by a State or political subdivision thereof, or by an agency or instrumentality of any of the foregoing, or “(B) amounts were contributed by his employer, or his spouse’s employer, for an annuity contract described in section 403(b) (whether or not his, or his spouse’s, rights in such contract are nonforfeitable).

“(4) Contributions after age 70 1/2.—No deduction is allowed under subsection (a) with respect to any payment which is made for a taxable year of an individual if either the individual or his spouse has attained age 70 1/2 before the close of such taxable year.

“(5) Recontributed Amounts.—No deduction is allowed under this section with respect to a rollover contribution described in section 402(a)(5), 403(a)(4), 408(d)(3), or 409(b)(3)(C).

“(6) Amounts contributed under endowment contract.—In the case of an endowment contract described in section 408(b), no deduction is allowed under subsection (a) for that portion of the amounts paid under the contract for the taxable year properly allocable, under regulations prescribed by the Secretary, to the cost of life insurance.

“(7) Employed Spouses.—No deduction is allowed under subsection (a) with respect to a payment described in subsection (a) made for any taxable year of the individual if the spouse of the individual has any compensation (determined without regard to section 911) for the taxable year of such spouse ending with or within such taxable year.

“(c) Definitions and Special Rules.—

“(1) Compensation.—For purposes of this section, the term ‘compensation’ includes earned income as defined in section 401(c)(2).

“(2) Married Individuals.—This section shall be applied without regard to any community property laws.

“(3) Determination of Marital Status.—The determination of whether an individual is married for purposes of this section shall be made in accordance with the provisions of section 143(a).

“(4) Time When Contributions Deemed Made.—For purposes of this section, a taxpayer shall be deemed to have made a contribution on the last day of the preceding taxable year if the contribution is made on account of such taxable year and is made not later than 45 days after the end of such taxable year.

“(5) Participation in Governmental Plans by Certain Individuals.—A member of a reserve component of the armed forces or a volunteer firefighter is not considered to be an active participant in a plan described in subsection (b)(3)(A)(iv) if, under section 219(c)(4), he is not considered to be an active participant in such a plan.”

(b) Conforming Amendments.—

(1) Paragraph (10) of section 62 (relating to retirement savings) is amended by inserting before the period the following: “and the deduction allowed by section 220 (relating to retirement savings for certain married individuals)”.

(3) Subsection (a) of section 415 (relating to limitations on benefits and contributions under qualified plans) is amended—

(A) by striking out “In the case” in paragraph (2) and inserting in lieu thereof “Except as provided in paragraph (3), in the case,” and

26 USC 403.

26 USC 62.

26 USC 408.

26 USC 415.
(B) by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

"(3) ACCOUNTS, ETC., ESTABLISHED FOR NON-EMPLOYED SPOUSE.—Paragraph (2) shall not apply for any year to an account, annuity, or bond described in section 408(a), 408(b), or 409, respectively, established for the benefit of the spouse of the individual contributing to such account, or for such annuity or bond, if a deduction is allowed under section 220 to such individual with respect to such contribution for such year."

26 USC 219.

(4) Section 219 (relating to retirement savings) is amended—

(A) by striking out "during" in subsection (a) and inserting in lieu thereof "for",

(B) by adding at the end of subsection (b) the following new paragraph:

"(6) ALTERNATIVE DEDUCTION.—No deduction is allowed under subsection (a) for the taxable year if the individual claims the deduction allowed by section 220 for the taxable year."

(C) by adding at the end of subsection (c) (2) the following new sentence: "For purposes of this section, the determination of whether an individual is married shall be made in accordance with the provisions of section 143(a).", and

(D) by adding at the end of subsection (c) the following new paragraph:

"(3) TIME WHEN CONTRIBUTIONS DEEMED MADE.—For purposes of this section, a taxpayer shall be deemed to have made a contribution on the last day of the preceding taxable year if the contribution is made on account of such taxable year and is made not later than 45 days after the end of such taxable year."

26 USC 408.

(5) Paragraph (4) of section 408(d) (relating to excess contributions returned before due date of return) is amended—

(A) by inserting "or 220" after "219"; and

(B) by striking out the last sentence and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "In the case of such a distribution, for purposes of section 61, any net income described in subparagraph (C) shall be deemed to have been earned and receivable in the taxable year in which such excess contribution is made."

26 USC 409.

(6) Paragraph (4) of section 409(a) (relating to retirement bonds) is amended by striking out "in any taxable year" and inserting in lieu thereof "for any taxable year."

26 USC 3401.

(7) Paragraph (12) of section 3401(a) (relating to definition of wages) is amended by inserting "or 220(a)" after "219(a)".

26 USC 4973.

(8) Section 4973 (relating to tax on excess contributions to individual retirement accounts, etc.) is amended—

(A) by striking out "such individual" in the last sentence of subsection (a) and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "the individual to whom a deduction is allowed for the taxable year under section 219 (determined without regard to subsection (b) (1) thereof) or section 220 (determined without regard to subsection (b) (1) thereof), whichever is appropriate;"

(B) by inserting "or 220" after "219" in subsection (b) (1) (B); and

(C) by striking out paragraph (2) of subsection (b) and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"(2) the amount determined under this subsection for the preceding taxable year, reduced by the excess (if any) of the maximum amount allowable as a deduction under section 219 or 220 for the taxable year over the amount contributed to the accounts or for the annuities or bonds for the taxable year and reduced by the sum of the distributions out of the account (for the taxable year and all prior taxable years) which were included in the gross income of the payee under section 408(d)(1).

For purposes of this subsection, any contribution which is distributed from the individual retirement account, individual retirement annuity, or bond in a distribution to which section 408(d)(4) applies shall be treated as an amount not contributed if such distribution consists of an excess contribution solely because of employer contributions to a plan or contract described in section 219(b)(2) or by reason of the application of section 219(b)(1) (without regard to the $1,500 limitation) or section 220(b)(1) (without regard to the $1,750 limitation) and only if such distribution does not exceed the excess of $1,500 or $1,750 if applicable, over the amount described in paragraph (1)(B).

(9) Subsection (d) of section 6047 (relating to other programs) is amended by inserting "or 220(a)" after "219(a)"

(2) by striking out "December 31, 1976" in subsection (d) and inserting in lieu thereof "December 31, 1977".

SEC. 1507. CONSOLIDATED RETURNS FOR LIFE AND OTHER INSURANCE COMPANIES.

(a) In General.—Section 1504(c) (relating to the definition of includible insurance companies) is amended to read as follows:

"(c) INCLUDIBLE INSURANCE COMPANIES.—Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (2) of subsection (b)—

"(1) Two or more domestic insurance companies each of which is subject to tax under section 802 shall be treated as includible corporations for purposes of applying subsection (a) to such insurance companies alone.

"(2) (A) If an affiliated group (determined without regard to subsection (b)(2) includes one or more domestic insurance companies taxed under section 802 or 821, the common parent of such group may elect (pursuant to regulations prescribed by the Secretary) to treat all such companies as includible corporations for purposes of applying subsection (a) except that no such company shall be so treated until it has been a member of the affiliated group for the 5 taxable years immediately preceding the taxable year for which the consolidated return is filed.

"(B) If an election under this paragraph is in effect for a taxable year—

"(1) section 243(b)(6) and the exception provided under section 243(b)(5) with respect to subsections (b)(2) and (c) of this section,

"(ii) section 542(b)(5), and

"(iii) subsection (a)(4) and (b)(2)(D) of section 1563, and the reference to section 1563(b)(2)(D) contained in section 1563(b)(3)(C), shall not be effective for such taxable year.

(b) Special Rules and Conforming Amendments.—

(1) Section 821 (relating to tax on mutual insurance companies to which part II applies, as amended by section 1901(a)(104)(C) of this Act,) is amended by redesignating subsection (e) as subsection (f), and by adding after subsection (d) the following new subsection:

"(e) TAX APPLICABLE TO MEMBER OF GROUP FILING CONSOLIDATED RETURN.—Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, if a mutual insurance company to which this section applies joins in the filing of a consolidated return (or is required to so file), the applicable tax shall consist of a normal tax and a surtax computed as provided in section 11 as though the mutual insurance company taxable income of such company were the taxable income referred to in section 11."

(2) Section 843 (relating to annual accounting period) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following sentence:

"Under regulations prescribed by the Secretary, an insurance company which joins in the filing of a consolidated return (or is required to so file) may adopt the taxable year of the common parent corporation even though such year is not a calendar year."

(3) Section 1503 (relating to computation and payment of tax) is amended by adding the following new subsection:

"(c) SPECIAL RULE FOR APPLICATION OF CERTAIN LOSSES AGAINST INCOME OF INSURANCE COMPANIES TAXED UNDER SECTION 802.—

"(1) IN GENERAL.—If an election under section 1504(c) (2) is in effect for the taxable year and the consolidated taxable income of the members of the group not taxed under section 802 results in a consolidated net operating loss for such taxable year, then under regulations prescribed by the Secretary, the amount of such loss which cannot be absorbed in the applicable carryback periods against the taxable income of such members not taxed under section 802 shall be taken into account in determining the consolidated taxable income of the affiliated group for such taxable year to the extent of 35 percent of such loss or 35 percent of the taxable income of the members taxed under section 802, whichever is less. The unused portion of such loss shall be available as a carryover, subject to the same limitations (applicable to the sum of the loss for the carryover year and the loss (or losses) carried over to such year), in applicable carryover years. For purposes of this subsection, in determining the taxable income of each insurance company subject to tax under section 802, section 802(b) (3) shall not be taken into account. For taxable years ending with or within calendar year 1981, '25 percent' shall be substituted for '35 percent' each place it appears in the first sentence of this subsection. For taxable years ending with or within calendar year 1982, '30 percent' shall be substituted for '35 percent' each place it appears in that sentence.

"(2) LOSSES OF RECENT NONLIFE AFFILIATES.—Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (1), a net operating loss for a taxable year of a member of the group not taxed under section 802 shall not be taken into account in determining the taxable income of a member taxed under section 802 (either for the taxable year or as a carryover or carryback) if such taxable year precedes the sixth taxable year such members have been members of the same affiliated group (determined without regard to section 1504(b) (2))."

(26 USC 1504) note.

(2) EFFECTIVE DATE AND TRANSITIONAL RULES.—

(1) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendments made by subsections (a) and (b) shall apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1980.

(2) TRANSITION RULES WITH RESPECT TO CARRYOVERS OR CARRYBACKS RELATING TO PRE-ELECTION TAXABLE YEARS AND NONTERMINATION OF GROUP.—
(A) LIMITATIONS ON CARRYOVERS OR CARRYBACKS FOR GROUPS ELECTING UNDER SECTION 1504(C)(2).—If an affiliated group elects to file a consolidated return pursuant to section 1504(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, a carryover of a loss or credit from a taxable year ending before January 1, 1981, and losses or credits which may be carried back to taxable years ending before such date, shall be taken into account as if this section had not been enacted.

(B) NONTERMINATION OF AFFILIATED GROUP.—The mere election to file a consolidated return pursuant to such section 1504(c)(2) shall not cause the termination of an affiliated group filing consolidated returns.

SEC. 1508. TREATMENT OF CERTAIN LIFE INSURANCE CONTRACTS GUARANTEED RENEWABLE.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Paragraph (d)(5) of section 809 (relating to certain nonparticipating contracts) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following sentence: “For purposes of this paragraph, the period for which any contract is issued or renewed includes the period for which such contract is guaranteed renewable.”

(b) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendment made by subsection (a) shall apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1957.

SEC. 1509. STUDY OF EXPANDED PARTICIPATION IN INDIVIDUAL RETIREMENT ACCOUNTS.

The Joint Committee on Taxation shall carry out a study with respect to broadening the class of individuals who are eligible to claim a deduction for retirement savings under section 219 or 220 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 to include individuals who are participants in pension plans described in section 401(a) of such Code (relating to qualified pension, profit-sharing, and stock bonus plans) or similar plans established for its employees by the United States, by a State or political division thereof, or by an agency or instrumentality of the United States or a State or political division thereof. The Joint Committee shall report its findings to the Committee on Ways and Means of the House of Representatives and to the Committee on Finance of the Senate.

SEC. 1510. TAXABLE STATUS OF PENSION BENEFIT GUARANTY CORPORATION.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Section 4002(g)(1) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (29 U.S.C. 1302(f)(1)) is amended by inserting “by the United States (other than taxes imposed under chapter 21 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, relating to Federal Insurance Contributions Act, and chapter 23 of such Code, relating to Federal Unemployment Tax Act), or” immediately after “imposed”.

(b) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendment made by subsection (a) shall take effect on September 2, 1974.

SEC. 1511. LEVEL PREMIUM PLANS COVERING OWNER-EMPLOYEES.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Section 415(c) (relating to limitation for defined contribution plans) is amended by adding after paragraph (6) the following new paragraph:

“(7) CERTAIN LEVEL PREMIUM ANNUITY CONTRACTS UNDER PLANS BENEFITING OWNER-EMPLOYEES.—Paragraph (1)(B) shall not apply to a contribution described in section 401(e) which is made on behalf of a participant for a year to a plan which benefits an owner-employee (within the meaning of section 401(c)(3)), if—

“(A) the annual addition determined under this section with respect to the participant for such year consists solely of such contribution, and
“(B) the participant is not an active participant at any time during such year in a defined benefit plan maintained by the employer.

For purposes of this section and section 401(e), in the case of a plan which provides contributions or benefits for employees who are not owner-employees, such plan will not be treated as failing to satisfy section 401(a)(4) merely because contributions made on behalf of employees who are not owner-employees are not permitted to exceed the limitations of paragraph (1)(B).”

(b) Effective Date.—The amendment made by this section shall apply for years beginning after December 31, 1975.

SEC. 1512. LUMP-SUM DISTRIBUTIONS FROM QUALIFIED PENSION, ETC., PLANS.

(a) In General.—Section 402(e)(4) (relating to definitions and special rules) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subparagraph:

“(L) Election to treat pre-1974 participation as post-1973 participation.—For purposes of subparagraph (E), subsection (a)(2), and section 403(a)(2), if a taxpayer elects (at the time and in the manner provided under regulations prescribed by the Secretary), all calendar years of an employee’s active participation in all plans in which the employee has been an active participant shall be considered years of active participation by such employee after December 31, 1973. An election made under this subparagraph, once made, shall be irrevocable and shall apply to all lump-sum distributions received by the taxpayer with respect to the employee. This subparagraph shall not apply if the taxpayer received a lump-sum distribution in a previous taxable year of the employee beginning after December 31, 1975, unless no portion of such lump-sum distribution was treated under subsection (a)(2) or section 403(a)(2) as gain from the sale or exchange of a capital asset held for more than 6 months.”

(b) Effective Date.—The amendment made by this section shall apply to distributions and payments made after December 31, 1975, in taxable years beginning after such date.

TITLE XVI—REAL ESTATE INVESTMENT TRUSTS

SEC. 1601. DEFICIENCY DIVIDEND PROCEDURE.

(a) In General.—

(1) Part II of subchapter M of chapter 1 (relating to real estate investment trusts) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

“SEC. 859. DEDUCTION FOR DEFICIENCY DIVIDENDS.

“(a) General Rule.—If a determination (as defined in subsection (c)) with respect to a real estate investment trust results in any adjustment (as defined in subsection (b)(1)) for any taxable year, a deduction shall be allowed to such trust for the amount of deficiency dividends (as defined in subsection (d)) for purposes of determining the deduction for dividends paid (for purposes of section 857) for such year.

"(b) Rules for Application of Section.—

"(1) Adjustment.—For purposes of this section, the term ‘adjustment’ means—

"(A) any increase in the sum of—

"(i) the real estate investment trust taxable income of the real estate investment trust (determined without regard to the deduction for dividends paid (as defined in section 561) and by excluding any net capital gain), and

"(ii) the excess of the net income from foreclosure property (as defined in section 857(b)(4)(B)) over the tax on such income imposed by section 857(b)(4)(A),

"(B) any increase in the amount of the excess described in section 857(b)(3)(A)(ii) (relating to the excess of the net capital gain over the deduction for capital gains dividends paid), and

"(C) any decrease in the deduction for dividends paid (as defined in section 561) determined without regard to capital gains dividends.

"(2) Interest and Additions to Tax Determined With Respect to the Amount of Deficiency Dividend Deduction Allowed.—For purposes of determining interest, additions to tax, and additional amounts—

"(A) the tax imposed by this chapter (after taking into account the deduction allowed by subsection (a)) on the real estate investment trust for the taxable year with respect to which the determination is made shall be deemed to be increased by an amount equal to the deduction allowed by subsection (a) with respect to such taxable year,

"(B) the last date prescribed for payment of such increase in tax shall be deemed to have been the last date prescribed for the payment of tax (determined in the manner provided by section 6601(c)) for the taxable year with respect to which the determination is made, and

"(C) such increase in tax shall be deemed to be paid as of the date the claim for the deficiency dividend deduction is filed.

"(3) Credit or Refund.—If the allowance of a deficiency dividend deduction results in an overpayment of tax for any taxable year, credit or refund with respect to such overpayment shall be made as if on the date of the determination 2 years remained before the expiration of the period of limitations on the filing of claim for refund for the taxable year to which the overpayment relates.

"(c) Determination.—For purposes of this section, the term ‘determination’ means—

"(1) a decision by the Tax Court, or a judgment, decree, or other order by any court of competent jurisdiction, which has become final;

"(2) a closing agreement made under section 7121; or

"(3) under regulations prescribed by the Secretary, an agreement signed by the Secretary and by, or on behalf of, the real estate investment trust relating to the liability of such trust for tax.
"(d) DEFICIENCY DIVIDENDS.—

"(1) DEFINITION.—For purposes of this section, the term 'deficiency dividends' means a distribution of property made by the real estate investment trust on or after the date of the determination and before filing claim under subsection (e), which would have been includible in the computation of the deduction for dividends paid under section 561 for the taxable year with respect to which the liability for tax resulting from the determination exists, if distributed during such taxable year. No distribution of property shall be considered as deficiency dividends for purposes of subsection (a) unless distributed within 90 days after the determination, and unless a claim for a deficiency dividend deduction with respect to such distribution is filed pursuant to subsection (e).

"(2) LIMITATIONS.—

"(A) ORDINARY DIVIDENDS.—The amount of deficiency dividends (other than deficiency dividends qualifying as capital gain dividends) paid by a real estate investment trust for the taxable year with respect to which the liability for tax resulting from the determination exists shall not exceed the sum of—

"(i) the excess of the amount of increase referred to in subparagraph (A) of subsection (b) (1) over the amount of any increase in the deduction for dividends paid (computed without regard to capital gain dividends) for such taxable year which results from such determination, and

"(ii) the amount of decrease referred to in subparagraph (C) of subsection (b) (1).

"(B) CAPITAL GAIN DIVIDENDS.—The amount of deficiency dividends qualifying as capital gain dividends paid by a real estate investment trust for the taxable year with respect to which the liability for tax resulting from the determination exists shall not exceed the amount by which (i) the increase referred to in subparagraph (B) of subsection (b) (1) exceeds (ii) the amount of any dividends paid during such taxable year which are designated as capital gain dividends after such determination.

"(3) EFFECT ON DIVIDENDS PAID DEDUCTION.—

"(A) FOR TAXABLE YEAR IN WHICH PAID.—Deficiency dividends paid in any taxable year shall not be included in the amount of dividends paid for such year for purposes of computing the dividends paid deduction for such year.

"(B) FOR PRIOR TAXABLE YEAR.—Deficiency dividends paid in any taxable year shall not be allowed for purposes of section 858(a) in the computation of the dividends paid deduction for the taxable year preceding the taxable year in which paid.

"(e) CLAIM REQUIRED.—No deficiency dividend deduction shall be allowed under subsection (a) unless (under regulations prescribed by the Secretary) claim therefor is filed within 120 days after the date of the determination.

"(f) SUSPENSION OF STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS AND STAY OF COLLECTION.—

"(1) SUSPENSION OF RUNNING OF STATUTE.—If the real estate investment trust files a claim as provided in subsection (e), the running of the statute of limitations provided in section 6501 on the making of assessments, and the bringing of distraint or a proceeding in court for collection, in respect of the deficiency established by a determination under this section, and all interest, additions to tax, additional amounts, or assessable penalties in respect thereof, shall be suspended for a period of 2 years after the date of the determination.

"(2) Stay of Collection.—In the case of any deficiency established by a determination under this section—

"(A) the collection of the deficiency, and all interest, additions to tax, additional amounts, and assessable penalties in respect thereof, shall, except in cases of jeopardy, be stayed until the expiration of 120 days after the date of the determination, and

"(B) if claim for a deficiency dividend deduction is filed under subsection (e), the collection of such part of the deficiency as is not reduced by the deduction for deficiency dividends provided in subsection (a) shall be stayed until the date the claim is disallowed (in whole or in part), and if disallowed in part collection shall be made only with respect to the part disallowed.

No distraint or proceeding in court shall be begun for the collection of an amount the collection of which is stayed under subparagraph (A) or (B) during the period for which the collection of such amount is stayed.

"(g) Deduction Denied in Case of Fraud.—No deficiency dividend deduction shall be allowed under subsection (a) if the determination contains a finding that any part of any deficiency attributable to an adjustment with respect to the taxable year is due to fraud with intent to evade tax or to willful failure to file an income tax return within the time prescribed by law or prescribed by the Secretary in pursuance of law.

"(h) Penalty.—

"For assessable penalty with respect to liability for tax of real estate investment trust which is allowed a deduction under subsection (a), see section 6697."

(2) The table of sections for such part II is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new item:

"See. 859. Deduction for deficiency dividends."

(b) Penalty.—

(1) Subchapter B of chapter 68 (relating to assessable penalties) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

"SEC. 6697. ASSESSABLE PENALTIES WITH RESPECT TO LIABILITY FOR TAX OF REAL ESTATE INVESTMENT TRUSTS.

"(a) Civil Penalty.—In addition to any other penalty provided by law, any real estate investment trust whose tax liability for any taxable year is deemed to be increased pursuant to section 859(b) (2) (A) (relating to interest and additions to tax determined with respect to the amount of the deduction for deficiency dividends allowed) shall pay a penalty in an amount equal to the amount of interest for which such trust is liable that is attributable solely to such increase.

"(b) 50-Percent Limitation.—The penalty payable under this section with respect to any determination shall not exceed one-half of the amount of the deduction allowed by section 859(a) for such taxable year.
(c) Deficiency Procedures Not To Apply.—Subchapter B of chapter 63 (relating to deficiency procedure for income, estate, gift, and certain excise taxes) shall not apply in respect of the assessment or collection of any penalty imposed by subsection (a).

(2) The table of sections for such subchapter B is amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

"Sec. 6697. Assessable penalties with respect to liability for tax of real estate investment trusts."

(c) Late Designation and Payment of Capital Gain Dividend.—

The first sentence of subparagraph (C) of section 857(b)(3) (defining capital gain dividend) is amended by inserting before the period at the end thereof the following: "; except that, if there is an increase in the excess described in subparagraph (A)(ii) of this paragraph for such year which results from a determination (as defined in section 859(c)), such designation may be made with respect to such increase at any time before the expiration of 120 days after the date of such determination."

26 USC 316.

(d) Definition of Dividend.—Subsection (b) of section 316 (relating to the definition of dividend) is amended by adding a new paragraph (3) at the end thereof, to read as follows:

"(3) Deficiency dividend distributions by a real estate investment trust.—The term 'dividend' also means any distribution of property (whether or not a dividend as defined in subsection (a)) which constitutes a 'deficiency dividend' as defined in section 859(d)."

26 USC 381.

(e) Carryover of Deficiency Dividend.—Section 381(c) (relating to carryovers in certain corporate acquisitions) is amended by adding a new paragraph (25) at the end thereof, to read as follows:

"(25) Deficiency dividend of real estate investment trust.—If the acquiring corporation pays a deficiency dividend (as defined in section 859(d)) with respect to the distributor or transferor corporation, such distributor or transferor corporation shall, with respect to such payments, be entitled to the deficiency dividend deduction provided in section 859."

(f) Technical Amendments.—

Section 6422 (relating to certain cross references) is amended by adding a new paragraph (14) at the end thereof to read as follows:

"(14) for credit or refund in case of deficiency dividends paid by a real estate investment trust, see section 859."

26 USC 6503.

Section 6503(i) (relating to certain cross references) is amended by adding a new paragraph (5) at the end thereof, to read as follows:

"(5) Deficiency dividends of a real estate investment trust, see section 859(f)."

26 USC 6515.

Section 6515 (relating to certain cross references) is amended by adding a new paragraph (8) at the end thereof, to read as follows:

"(8) Deficiency dividends of a real estate investment trust, see section 859."
“(7) A corporation, trust, or association which fails to meet the requirements of paragraph (2) or (3), or of both such paragraphs, for any taxable year shall nevertheless be considered to have satisfied the requirements of such paragraphs for such taxable year if—

“(A) the nature and amount of each item of its gross income described in such paragraphs is set forth in a schedule attached to its income tax return for such taxable year; “(B) the inclusion of any incorrect information in the schedule referred to in subparagraph (A) is not due to fraud with intent to evade tax; and “(C) the failure to meet the requirements of paragraph
(2) or (3), or of both such paragraphs, is due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect.”.

(b) IMPOSITION OF SPECIAL TAXES.—

(1) Section 857(b) (relating to method of taxation of real estate investment trusts, etc.) is amended by redesignating paragraph (5) as paragraph (7) and by inserting after paragraph
(4) the following new paragraph:

“(5) IMPOSITION OF TAX IN CASE OF FAILURE TO MEET CERTAIN REQUIREMENTS.—If section 856(c)(7) applies to a real estate investment trust for any taxable year, there is hereby imposed on such trust a tax in an amount equal to the greater of—

“(A) the excess of—

“(i) 95 percent (90 percent in the case of taxable years beginning before January 1, 1980) of the gross income (excluding gross income from prohibited transactions) of the real estate investment trust, over “(ii) the amount of such gross income which is derived from sources referred to in section 856(c)(2); or “(B) the excess of—

“(i) 75 percent of the gross income (excluding gross income from prohibited transactions) of the real estate investment trust, over “(ii) the amount of such gross income which is derived from sources referred to in section 856(c)(3), multiplied by a fraction the numerator of which is the real estate investment trust taxable income for the taxable year (determined without regard to the deductions provided in paragraphs (2)(B) and (2)(E), without regard to any net operating loss deduction, and by excluding any net capital gain) and the denominator of which is the gross income for the taxable year (excluding gross income from prohibited transactions; gross income and gain from foreclosure property (as defined in section 856(e), but only to the extent such gross income and gain is not described in subparagraph (A), (B), (C), (D), (E), or (G) of section 856(c)(3)); long-term capital gain; and short-term capital gain to the extent of any short-term capital loss).”.

(2) Section 857(b)(2) (relating to real estate investment trust taxable income) is amended by inserting after subparagraph (D) as redesignated by section 1606(a) of this Act the following new subparagraph:

“(E) There shall be deducted an amount equal to the tax imposed by paragraph (5) for the taxable year.”.
SEC. 1603. TREATMENT OF PROPERTY HELD FOR SALE TO CUSTOMERS.

(a) ELIMINATION OF HOLDING FOR SALE RULE AS QUALIFICATION REQUIREMENT.—Section 856(a) (defining real estate investment trust) is amended by striking out paragraph (4).

(b) TAX ON INCOME FROM PROPERTY DESCRIBED IN SECTION 1221(1) THAT IS NOT FORECLOSURE PROPERTY.—Section 857(b) (relating to method of taxation of real estate investment trusts, etc.) is amended by inserting after paragraph (5) (as added by section 1602(b) (1) of this Act) the following new paragraph:

“(6) INCOME FROM PROHIBITED TRANSACTIONS.—

“(A) IMPOSITION OF TAX.—There is hereby imposed for each taxable year of every real estate investment trust a tax equal to 100 percent of the net income derived from prohibited transactions.

“(B) DEFINITIONS.—For purposes of this part—

“(i) the term ‘net income derived from prohibited transactions’ means the excess of the gain from prohibited transactions over the deductions allowed by this chapter which are directly connected with prohibited transactions;

“(ii) the term ‘net loss derived from prohibited transactions’ means the excess of the deductions allowed by this chapter which are directly connected with prohibited transactions over the gain from prohibited transactions; and

“(iii) the term ‘prohibited transaction’ means a sale or other disposition of property described in section 1221(1) which is not foreclosure property.”

(c) TECHNICAL AMENDMENTS.—

(1) So much of paragraph (3) of section 856(c) (relating to limitations) as precedes subparagraph (A) thereof is amended to read as follows:

“(3) at least 75 percent of its gross income (excluding gross income from prohibited transactions) is derived from—”.

(2) Section 856(c) (2) (relating to limitations) is amended by inserting before the semicolon in subparagraph (D) thereof “which is not property described in section 1221(1)”.

(3) Section 856(c) (3) (relating to limitations) is amended by inserting before the semicolon in subparagraph (C) thereof “which is not property described in section 1221(1)”.

(4) Section 856(e) (1) (defining foreclosure property) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following sentence: “Such term does not include property acquired by the real estate investment trust as a result of indebtedness arising from the sale or other disposition of property of the trust described in section 1221(1) which was not originally acquired as foreclosure property.”

(5) Section 857(b) (2) (relating to real estate investment trust taxable income) is amended by adding a new subparagraph (F) immediately after subparagraph (E) (as added by section 1602(b) (2) of this Act), to read as follows:

“(F) There shall be excluded an amount equal to any net income derived from prohibited transactions and there shall be included an amount equal to any net loss derived from prohibited transactions.”
SEC. 1604. OTHER CHANGES IN LIMITATIONS AND REQUIREMENTS.

(a) INCREASE IN 90-PERCENT GROSS INCOME REQUIREMENT TO 95 PERCENT.—Section 856(c) (2) (relating to limitations) is amended by striking out "90 percent of its gross income" and inserting in lieu thereof "95 percent (90 percent for taxable years beginning before January 1, 1980) of its gross income (excluding gross income from prohibited transactions)".

(b) APPORTIONMENT OF RENTAL INCOME AND CHARGES FOR CUSTOMARY SERVICES; CHANGE IN DEFINITION OF INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR.—Subsection (d) of section 856 (defining rents from real property) is amended to read as follows:

"(d) RENTS FROM REAL PROPERTY DEFINED.—

"(1) Amounts included.—For purposes of paragraphs (2) and (3) of subsection (c), the term ‘rents from real property’ includes (subject to paragraph (2))—

"(A) rents from interests in real property,

"(B) charges for services customarily furnished or rendered in connection with the rental of real property, whether or not such charges are separately stated, and

"(C) rent attributable to personal property which is leased under, or in connection with, a lease of real property, but only if the rent attributable to such personal property for the taxable year does not exceed 15 percent of the total rent for the taxable year attributable to both the real and personal property leased under, or in connection with, such lease.

For purposes of subparagraph (C), with respect to each lease of real property, rent attributable to personal property for the taxable year is that amount which bears the same ratio to total rent for the taxable year as the average of the adjusted bases of the personal property at the beginning and at the end of the taxable year bears to the average of the aggregate adjusted bases of both the real property and the personal property at the beginning and at the end of such taxable year.

"(2) Amounts excluded.—For purposes of paragraphs (2) and (3) of subsection (c), the term ‘rents from real property’ does not include—

"(A) except as provided in paragraph (4), any amount received or accrued, directly or indirectly, with respect to any real or personal property, if the determination of such amount depends in whole or in part on the income or profits derived by any person from such property (except that any amount so received or accrued shall not be excluded from the term ‘rents from real property’ solely by reason of being based on a fixed percentage or percentages of receipts or sales);

"(B) any amount received or accrued directly or indirectly from any person if the real estate investment trust owns, directly or indirectly—

"(i) in the case of any person which is a corporation, stock of such person possessing 10 percent or more of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock entitled to vote, or 10 percent or more of the total number of shares of all classes of stock of such person; or

"(ii) in the case of any person which is not a corporation, an interest of 10 percent or more in the assets or net profits of such person; and

"(C) any amount received or accrued, directly or indirectly, with respect to any real or personal property if the real estate investment trust furnishes or renders services to the tenants of such property, or manages or operates such property, other than through an independent contractor from whom the trust itself does not derive or receive any income.

"(3) INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR DEFINED.—For purposes of this subsection and subsection (e), the term 'independent contractor' means any person—

"(A) who does not own, directly or indirectly, more than 35 percent of the shares, or certificates of beneficial interest, in the real estate investment trust; and

"(B) if such person is a corporation, not more than 35 percent of the total combined voting power of whose stock (or 35 percent of the total shares of all classes of whose stock), or, if such person is not a corporation, not more than 35 percent of the interest in whose assets or net profits is owned, directly or indirectly, by one or more persons owning 35 percent or more of the shares or certificates of beneficial interest in the trust.

"(4) SPECIAL RULE FOR CERTAIN CONTINGENT RENTS.—Where a real estate investment trust receives or accrues, with respect to real or personal property, any amount which would be excluded from the term 'rents from real property' solely because the tenant of the real estate investment trust receives or accrues, directly or indirectly, from subtenants any amount the determination of which depends in whole or in part on the income or profits derived by any person from such property, only a proportionate part (determined pursuant to regulations prescribed by the Secretary) of the amount received or accrued by the real estate investment trust from that tenant will be excluded from the term 'rents from real property'.

"(5) CONSTRUCTIVE OWNERSHIP OF STOCK.—For purposes of this subsection, the rules prescribed by section 318(a) for determining the ownership of stock shall apply in determining the ownership of stock, assets, or net profits of any person; except that '10 percent' shall be substituted for '50 percent' in subparagraph (C) of section 318(a)(2) and 318(a)(3)."

(c) COMMITMENT FEES.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Paragraphs (2) and (3) of section 856(c) (relating to limitations) are each amended by striking out "and" after the semicolon at the end of subparagraph (E), by inserting "and" after the semicolon at the end of subparagraph (F), and by adding at the end thereof the following new subparagraph:

"(G) amounts (other than amounts the determination of which depends in whole or in part on the income or profits of any person) received or accrued as consideration for entering into agreements (i) to make loans secured by mortgages on real property or on interests in real property or (ii) to purchase or lease real property (including interests in real property and interests in mortgages on real property);"

(2) CONFORMING AMENDMENT.—Section 857(b)(4)(B) (relating to net income from foreclosure property) is amended by striking out "(D), or (E)" in subdivision (i) and inserting in lieu thereof "(D), (E), or (G)".

(d) INCOME FROM SALE OF MORTGAGES HELD LESS THAN 4 YEARS.—Section 856(c)(4) (relating to limitations) is amended to read as follows:

"(4) less than 30 percent of its gross income is derived from the sale or other disposition of—"
“(A) stock or securities held for less than 6 months;
“(B) section 1221(1) property (other than foreclosure property); and “(C) real property (including interests in real property and interests in mortgages on real property) held for less than 4 years other than—“(i) property compulsorily or involuntarily converted within the meaning of section 1033, and “(ii) property which is foreclosure property within the definition of section 856(e) ; and”.

(e) Options To Purchase Real Property Treated As Interests In Real Property.—Section 856(c) (6) (C) (relating to limitations) is amended to read as follows:

“(C) The term ‘interests in real property’ includes fee ownership and co-ownership of land or improvements thereon, leaseholds of land or improvements thereon, options to acquire land or improvements thereon, and options to acquire leaseholds of land or improvements thereon, but does not include mineral, oil, or gas royalty interests.”

(f) Real Estate Investment Trusts May Be Incorporated.—

(1) In General.—So much of subsection (a) of section 856 (defining real estate investment trust) as precedes paragraph (3) thereof is amended to read as follows:

“(a) In General.—For purposes of this title, the term ‘real estate investment trust’ means a corporation, trust, or association—
“(1) which is managed by one or more trustees or directors;
“(2) the beneficial ownership of which is evidenced by transferable shares, or by transferable certificates of beneficial interest;”.

(2) Exception for Financial Institutions and Insurance Companies.—Section 856(a) (defining real estate investment trust) is amended by inserting after paragraph (3) the following new paragraph:

“(4) which is neither (A) a financial institution to which section 585, 586, or 593 applies, nor (B) an insurance company to which subchapter L applies;”.

(3) Conforming Amendments.—

(A) So much of section 856(c) (relating to limitations) as precedes paragraph (1) thereof is amended by striking out “A trust or association” and inserting in lieu thereof “A corporation, trust, or association”.

(B) The second sentence of section 857(d) (relating to earnings and profits) is amended by striking out “a domestic unincorporated trust,” and inserting in lieu thereof “a domestic corporation, trust.”.

(g) Interest.—Section 856 (relating to definition of real estate investment trust) is amended by adding after subsection (e) the following new subsection:

“(f) Interest.—For purposes of paragraphs (2) (B) and (3) (B) of subsection (c), the term ‘interest’ does not include any amount received or accrued, directly or indirectly, if the determination of such amount depends in whole or in part on the income or profits of any person except that:
“(1) any amount so received or accrued shall not be excluded from the term ‘interest’ solely by reason of being based on a fixed percentage or percentages of receipts or sales, and
“(2) where a real estate investment trust receives or accrues any amount which would be excluded from the term ‘interest’ solely because the debtor of the real estate investment trust receives or accrues any amount the determination of which depends in whole or in part on the income or profits of any person, only a proportionate part (determined pursuant to regulations prescribed by the Secretary) of the amount received or accrued by the real estate investment trust from such debtor will be excluded from the term 'interest'.

The provisions of this subsection shall apply only with respect to amounts received or accrued pursuant to loans made after May 27, 1976. For purposes of the preceding sentence, a loan is considered to be made before May 28, 1976, if such loan is made pursuant to a binding commitment entered into before May 28, 1976."

26 USC 858.

(h) CERTAIN DIVIDENDS.—The first sentence of section 858(a) (relating to dividends paid by real estate investment trust after close of taxable year) is amended—

(1) by inserting "(and specifies in dollar amounts)" after "to the extent the trust elects in such return", and

(2) by striking out "paid during such taxable year" and inserting in lieu thereof "paid only during such taxable year".

(i) ADOPTION OF ANNUAL ACCOUNTING PERIOD.—

(1) Part II of subchapter M of chapter 1 (relating to real estate investment trusts) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

26 USC 860.

"SEC. 860. ADOPTION OF ANNUAL ACCOUNTING PERIOD.

"For purposes of this subtitle, a real estate investment trust shall not change to or adopt any annual accounting period other than the calendar year."

(2) The table of sections for such part II is amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

"Sec. 860. Adoption of annual accounting period."

26 USC 857.

(j) CHANGE IN DISTRIBUTION REQUIREMENTS.—Section 857(a)(1) (relating to requirements applicable to real estate investment trusts) is amended to read as follows:

"(1) the deduction for dividends paid during the taxable year (as defined in section 561, but determined without regard to capital gains dividends) equals or exceeds—

"(A) the sum of—

"(i) 95 percent (90 percent for taxable years beginning before January 1, 1980) of the real estate investment trust taxable income for the taxable year (determined without regard to the deduction for dividends paid (as defined in section 561) and by excluding any net capital gain); and

"(ii) 95 percent (90 percent for taxable years beginning before January 1, 1980) of the excess of the net income from foreclosure property over the tax imposed on such income by subsection (b)(4)(A); minus

"(B) the sum of—

"(i) the amount of any penalty imposed on the real estate investment trust by section 6697 which is paid by such trust during the taxable year; and

"(ii) the net loss derived from prohibited transactions, and"

"(k) MANNER AND EFFECT OF TERMINATION OR REVOCATION OF ELECTION.—"
(1) IN GENERAL.—Section 856 (relating to definition of real estate investment trust) is amended by adding after subsection (f) (as added by section 1604(g) of this Act) the following new subsection:

"(g) TERMINATION OF ELECTION.—

"(1) FAILURE TO QUALIFY.—An election under subsection (c) (1) made by a corporation, trust, or association shall terminate if the corporation, trust, or association is not a real estate investment trust to which the provisions of this part apply for the taxable year with respect to which the election is made, or for any succeeding taxable year. Such termination shall be effective for the taxable year for which the corporation, trust, or association is not a real estate investment trust to which the provisions of this part apply, and for all succeeding taxable years.

"(2) REVOCATION.—An election under subsection (c) (1) made by a corporation, trust, or association may be revoked by it for any taxable year after the first taxable year for which the election is effective. A revocation under this paragraph shall be effective for the taxable year in which made and for all succeeding taxable years. Such revocation must be made on or before the 90th day after the first day of the first taxable year for which the revocation is to be effective. Such revocation shall be made in such manner as the Secretary shall prescribe by regulations.

"(3) ELECTION AFTER TERMINATION OR REVOCATION.—Except as provided in paragraph (4), if a corporation, trust, or association has made an election under subsection (c) (1) and such election has not been terminated or revoked under subsection (g), such corporation, trust, or association (and any successor corporation, trust, or association) shall not be eligible to make an election under subsection (c) (1) for any taxable year prior to the fifth taxable year which begins after the first taxable year for which such termination or revocation is effective.

"(4) EXCEPTION.—If the election of a corporation, trust, or association has been terminated under paragraph (1), paragraph (3) shall not apply if—

"(A) the corporation, trust, or association does not willfully fail to file within the time prescribed by law an income tax return for the taxable year with respect to which the termination of the election under subsection (c) (1) occurs;

"(B) the inclusion of any incorrect information in the return referred to in subparagraph (A) is not due to fraud with intent to evade tax; and

"(C) the corporation, trust, or association establishes to the satisfaction of the Secretary that its failure to qualify as a real estate investment trust to which the provisions of this part apply is due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect.

(2) CONFORMING AMENDMENTS.—

(A) Section 856(c) (1) (relating to limitations) is amended by striking out the semicolon at the end and inserting in lieu thereof "and such election has not been terminated or revoked under subsection (g)");

(B) Section 857(a) (relating to requirements applicable to real estate investment trust) is amended by striking out "(other than subsection (d) of this section)" and inserting in lieu thereof "(other than subsection (d) of this section and subsection (g) of section 856)".
SEC. 1605. EXCISE TAX.
(a) IMPOSITION OF TAX.—Subtitle D (relating to miscellaneous excise taxes) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new chapter:

“CHAPTER 44—REAL ESTATE INVESTMENT TRUSTS

26 USC 4981. “SEC. 4981. EXCISE TAX BASED ON CERTAIN REAL ESTATE INVESTMENT TRUST TAXABLE INCOME NOT DISTRIBUTED DURING THE TAXABLE YEAR.

“Effective with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1979, there is hereby imposed on each real estate investment trust for the taxable year a tax equal to 3 percent of the amount (if any) by which 75 percent of the real estate investment trust taxable income (as defined in section 857(h)(2), but determined without regard to section 857(b)(2)(B), and by excluding any net capital gain for the taxable year) exceeds the amount of the dividends paid deduction (as defined in section 561, but computed without regard to capital gains dividends as defined in section 857(b)(3)(C) and without regard to any dividend paid after the close of the taxable year) for the taxable year. For purposes of the preceding sentence, the determination of the real estate investment trust taxable income shall be made by taking into account only the amount and character of the items of income and deduction as reported by such trust in its return for the taxable year.”

(b) TECHNICAL AMENDMENTS.—

26 USC 275. (1) Paragraph (6) of section 275(a) (relating to denial of deduction for certain taxes) is amended by striking out “and chapter 43,” and inserting in lieu thereof “, chapter 43, and chapter 44.”

26 USC 857. (2) Section 857 (relating to taxation of real estate investment trusts and their beneficiaries) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

“(e) CROSS REFERENCE.—

“For provisions relating to excise tax based on certain real estate investment trust taxable income not distributed during the taxable year, see section 4981.”

26 USC 6161. (3) Section 6161(b)(1) relating to extensions of time for payment of tax), as amended by this Act, is amended by striking out “42 or 43” and inserting in lieu thereof “42, 43, or 44”. The second sentence of section 6161(b) is amended by striking out “or chapter 43” and inserting in lieu thereof “43, or 44”.

26 USC 6211. (4) Section 6211 (defining deficiency) is amended—
(A) by striking out “and 43” in subsection (a) and inserting in lieu thereof “43, and 44”,
(B) by striking out “or 43” in subsection (a) and inserting in lieu thereof “43, or 44”, and
(C) by striking out “or 43” in subsection (b)(2) and inserting in lieu thereof “43, or 44”.

26 USC 6212. (5) Section 6212 (relating to notice of deficiency) is amended—
(A) by striking out “or 43” in subsection (a) and inserting in lieu thereof “43, or 44”, Section 6213(a) (relating to restrictions applicable to deficiencies and petition to Tax Court) is amended by striking out "or 43" and inserting in lieu thereof "43, or 44".

Section 6214 (relating to determinations by Tax Court) is amended—

(A) by striking out "or 43" in the heading of subsection (c) and inserting in lieu thereof "43, or 44", and

(B) by striking out "or 43" each place it appears in subsection (c) and inserting in lieu thereof "43, or 44", and

(C) by striking out "or 43" in subsection (d) and inserting in lieu thereof "43, or 44".

Section 6344(a)(1) (relating to cross references) is amended by striking out "or 43" and inserting in lieu thereof "43, or 44".

Section 6512 (relating to limitations in case of petition to Tax Court) is amended by striking out "or 43" each place it appears and inserting in lieu thereof "43, or 44".

Section 6601(c) (relating to suspension of interest in certain income, etc. tax cases) is amended by striking out in the heading thereof "or 43" and inserting in lieu thereof "43, or 44".

Section 7422 (relating to civil actions for refund) is amended by striking out "or 43" in subsection (e) and inserting in lieu thereof "43, or 44".

(c) CLERICAL AMENDMENT.—The table of chapters for subtitle D is amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

"Chapter 44. Real estate investment trusts."

SEC. 1606. ALLOWANCE OF NET OPERATING LOSS CARRYOVER.

(a) ALLOWANCE OF DEDUCTION.—Section 857(b)(2) (relating to real estate investment trust taxable income) is amended by striking out subparagraph (E) and by redesignating subparagraph (F) as subparagraph (D).

(b) YEARS TO WHICH LOSS MAY BE CARRIED.—Section 172(b)(1) (relating to years to which a net operating loss may be carried) is amended by inserting after subparagraph (D) thereof the following:

"(E) In the case of a taxpayer which has a net operating loss for any taxable year for which the provisions of part II of subchapter M (relating to real estate investment trusts) apply to such taxpayer, such loss shall not be a net operating loss carryback to any taxable year preceding the taxable year of such loss and shall be a net operating loss carryover to each of the 8 taxable years following the taxable year of such loss, except, in the case of a net operating loss for a taxable year ending before January 1, 1976, such loss shall not be carried to the 6th, 7th, or 8th taxable year following the taxable year of such loss unless part II of subchapter M applied to the taxpayer for the taxable year to which the loss is carried and for all intervening taxable years following the year of loss.
A net operating loss shall not be carried back to a taxable year for which part II of subchapter M applied to the taxpayer.

(c) Determination of the Amount of the Net Operating Loss and the Carryover.—Section 172(d) (relating to modifications in computing net operating loss) is amended by adding a new paragraph (7) at the end thereof, to read as follows:

“(7) In the case of any taxable year for which part II of subchapter M (relating to real estate investment trusts) applies to the taxpayer—

“(A) the net operating loss for such taxable year shall be computed by taking into account the adjustments described in section 857(b)(2) (other than the deduction for dividends paid described in section 857(b)(2)(B)); and

“(B) where such taxable year is a ‘prior taxable year’ referred to in paragraph (2) of subsection (b), the term ‘taxable income’ in such paragraph shall mean ‘real estate investment trust taxable income’ (as defined in section 857(b)(2)).”

(d) Conforming Amendment.—Subparagraph (B) of section 857(b)(2) (relating to real estate investment trust taxable income), as redesignated by section 1607(b) of this Act, is amended by striking out “subparagraph (F)” and inserting in lieu thereof “subparagraph (D)”.

SEC. 1607. ALTERNATIVE TAX IN CASE OF CAPITAL GAINS.

(a) Alternative Tax.—Section 857(b)(3)(A) (relating to imposition of tax on capital gain) is amended to read as follows:

“(A) Alternative tax in case of capital gains.—If for any taxable year a real estate investment trust has a net capital gain, then, in lieu of the tax imposed by subsection (b)(1), there is hereby imposed a tax (if such tax is less than the tax imposed by such subsection) which shall consist of the sum of—

“(i) a tax, computed as provided in subsection (b)(1), on the real estate investment trust taxable income (determined by excluding such net capital gain and by computing the deduction for dividends paid without regard to capital gain dividends), and

“(ii) a tax of 30 percent of the excess of the net capital gain over the deduction for dividends paid (as defined in section 561) determined with reference to capital gains dividends only.”

(b) Conforming Amendments.—

(1)(A) Section 857(b)(2) (relating to method of taxation of real estate investment trust taxable income) is amended by deleting subparagraph (A) and redesignating subparagraphs (B), (C), and (D) as subparagraphs (A), (B), and (C), respectively.

(B) Subsection (e)(2) of section 46 (relating to investment credit) is amended—

(i) by striking out “857(b)(2)(C)” in subparagraph (B) and inserting in lieu thereof “857(b)(2)(B)”, and

(ii) by inserting “determined without regard to any deduction for capital gains dividends (as defined in section 857(b)(3)(C)) and by excluding any net capital gain” immediately before the period at the end of the last sentence thereof.
(C) Section 443(e)(5) (relating to cross references) is amended by striking out "857(b)(2)(D)" and inserting in lieu thereof "857(b)(2)(C)".

(2) Subparagraph (B) of section 857(b)(2) (relating to real estate investment trust taxable income), as redesignated by paragraph (1) of this subsection, is amended by striking out "shall be computed without regard to capital gains dividends and"

(3) Section 857(b)(3)(C) (relating to definition of capital gain dividend) is amended by inserting after the second sentence thereof the following: "For purposes of this subparagraph, the net capital gain shall be deemed not to exceed the real estate investment trust taxable income (determined without regard to the deduction for dividends paid (as defined in section 561) for the taxable year)."

SEC. 1608. EFFECTIVE DATE FOR TITLE.

(a) Deficiency Dividend Procedures.—The amendments made by section 1601 shall apply with respect to determinations (as defined in section 859(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954) occurring after the date of the enactment of this Act. If the amendments made by section 1601 apply to a taxable year ending on or before the date of enactment of this Act:

(1) the reference to section 857(b)(3)(A)(ii) in sections 857(b)(3)(C) and 859(b)(1)(B) of such Code, as amended, shall be considered to be a reference to section 857(b)(3)(A) of such Code, as in effect immediately before the enactment of this Act, and

(2) the reference to section 857(b)(2)(B) in section 859(a) of such Code, as amended, shall be considered to be a reference to section 857(b)(2)(C) of such Code, as in effect immediately before the enactment of this Act.

(b) Trust Not Disqualified in Certain Cases Where Income Tests Not Met.—The amendment made by section 1602 shall apply to taxable years of real estate investment trusts beginning after the date of the enactment of this Act. In addition, the amendments made by section 1602 shall apply to a taxable year of a real estate investment trust beginning before the date of the enactment of this Act if, as the result of a determination (as defined in section 859(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954) with respect to such trust occurring after the date of enactment of this Act, such trust for such taxable years does not meet, the requirements of section 856(c)(2) or section 856(c)(3), or of both such sections, of such Code as in effect for such taxable year. In any case, the amendment made by section 1602(a) requiring a schedule to be attached to the income tax return of certain real estate investment trusts shall apply only to taxable years of such trusts beginning after the date of the enactment of this Act. If the amendments made by section 1602 apply to a taxable year ending on or before the date of enactment of this Act, the reference to paragraph (2)(B) in section 857(b)(5) of such Code, as amended, shall be considered to be a reference to paragraph (2)(C) of section 857(b) of such Code, as in effect immediately before the enactment of this Act.

(c) Alternative Tax and Net Operating Loss.—The amendments made by sections 1606 and 1607 shall apply to taxable years ending after the date of the enactment of this Act, except that in the case of a taxpayer which has a net operating loss (as defined in section 172(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954) for any taxable year ending after the date of enactment of this Act for which the provisions of part II of subchapter M of chapter 1 of subtitle A of such Code apply to such taxpayer, such loss shall not be a net operating loss carryback under section 172 of such Code to any taxable year ending on or before the date of enactment of this Act.

(d) Other Amendments.—

(1) Except as provided in paragraphs (2) and (3), the amendments made by sections 1603, 1604, and 1605 shall apply to taxable years of real estate investment trusts beginning after the date of the enactment of this Act.

(2) If, as a result of a determination (as defined in section 859(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954), occurring after the date of enactment of this Act, with respect to the real estate investment trust, such trust does not meet the requirement of section 856(a)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (as in effect before the amendment of such section by this Act) for any taxable year beginning on or before the date of the enactment of this Act, such trust may elect, within 60 days after such determination in the manner provided in regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury or his delegate, to have the provisions of section 1603 (other than paragraphs (1), (2), (3), and (4) of section 1603(c)) apply with respect to such taxable year. Where the provisions of section 1603 apply to a real estate investment trust with respect to any taxable year beginning on or before the date of the enactment of this Act—

(A) credit or refund of any overpayment of tax which results from the application of section 1603 to such taxable year shall be made as if on the date of the determination (as defined in section 859(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954) 2 years remained before the expiration of the period of limitation prescribed by section 6511 of such Code on the filing of claim for refund for the taxable year to which the overpayment relates,

(B) the running of the statute of limitations provided in section 6501 of such Code on the making of assessments, and the bringing of distraint or a proceeding in court for collection, in respect of any deficiency (as defined in section 6211 of such Code) established by such a determination, and all interest, additions to tax, additional amounts, or assessable penalties in respect thereof, shall be suspended for a period of 2 years after the date of such determination, and

(C) the collection of any deficiency (as defined in section 6211 of such Code) established by such determination and all interest, additions to tax, additional amounts, and assessable penalties in respect thereof shall, except in cases of jeopardy, be stayed until the expiration of 60 days after the date of such determination.

No distraint or proceeding in court shall be begun for the collection of an amount the collection of which is stayed under subparagraph (C) during the period for which the collection of such amount is stayed.

(3) Section 856(g)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as added by section 1604 of this Act, shall not apply with respect to a termination of an election, filed by a taxpayer under section 856(c)(1) of such Code on or before the date of the enactment of this Act, unless the provisions of part II of subchapter M of chapter 1 of subtitle A of such Code apply to such taxpayer for a taxable year ending after the date of the enactment of this Act for which such election is in effect.
TITILE XVII—RAILROAD AND AIRLINE PROVISIONS

SEC. 1701. CERTAIN PROVISIONS RELATING TO RAILROADS.

(a) Treatment of Certain Railroad Ties.—Section 263 (relating to capital expenditures) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

"(g) Railroad Ties.—In the case of a domestic common carrier by rail (including a railroad switching or terminal company) which uses the retirement-replacement method of accounting for depreciation of its railroad track, expenditures for acquiring and installing replacement ties of any material (and fastenings related to such ties) shall be accorded the same tax accounting treatment as expenditures for replacement ties of wood (and fastenings related to such ties)."

(b) Increase in 50-Percent Limitation.—Subsection (a) of section 46 (relating to determination of amount of investment credit) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

"(B) Alternative Limitation in the Case of Certain Railroads.—

"(A) In General.—If, for a taxable year ending after calendar year 1976, and before calendar year 1983, the amount of the qualified investment of the taxpayer which is attributable to railroad property is 25 percent or more of his aggregate qualified investment, then subparagraph (C) of paragraph (3) of this subsection shall be applied by substituting for 50 percent his applicable percentage for such year.

"(B) Applicable Percentage.—The applicable percentage of any taxpayer for any taxable year under this paragraph is—

"(i) 50 percent, plus

"(ii) that portion of the tentative percentage for the taxable year which the taxpayer's amount of qualified investment which is railroad property bears to his aggregate qualified investment.

If the proportion referred to in clause (ii) is 75 percent or more, the applicable percentage of the taxpayer for the year shall be 50 percent plus the tentative percentage for such year.

"(C) Tentative Percentage.—For purposes of subparagraph (B), the tentative percentage shall be determined under the following table:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>If the taxable year ends in:</th>
<th>The tentative percentage is:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1977 or 1978</td>
<td>50</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1979</td>
<td>40</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1980</td>
<td>30</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1981</td>
<td>20</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1982</td>
<td>10</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

"(D) Railroad Property Defined.—For purposes of this paragraph, the term ‘railroad property’ means section 38 property used by the taxpayer directly in connection with the trade or business carried on by the taxpayer of operating a railroad (including a railroad switching or terminal company)."
(a) In General.—Section 185 (relating to amortization of railroad grading and tunnel bores) is amended by redesignating subsections (d), (e), (f), (g), and (h) as subsections (f), (g), (h), (i), and (j), respectively, and by inserting after subsection (c) the following new subsections:

"(d) Election With Respect to Pre-1969 Property.—A taxpayer may, for any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1974, elect for purposes of this section to treat the term ‘qualified railroad grading and tunnel bores’ as including pre-1969 railroad grading and tunnel bores. An election under this subsection shall be made by filing with the Secretary, in such manner, in such form, and within such time, as the Secretary may by regulations prescribe, a statement of such election. The election under this subsection shall remain in effect for all taxable years, after the first year for which it is effective, for which an election under subsection (c) is effective. The election under this subsection shall apply to all pre-1969 railroad grading and tunnel bores of the taxpayer, unless, on application by the taxpayer, the Secretary permits him, subject to such conditions as the Secretary deems necessary, to revoke such election.

"(e) Adjusted Basis for Pre-1969 Railroad Grading and Tunnel Bores.—

"(1) In General.—The adjusted basis of any pre-1969 railroad grading and tunnel bore shall be determined under this subsection.

"(2) Property Acquired or Constructed After February 28, 1913.—

"(A) In the case of pre-1969 railroad grading and tunnel bores—

"(i) acquired by the taxpayer after February 28, 1913, or

"(ii) the construction of which was completed by the taxpayer after February 28, 1913, the adjusted basis of such property shall be equal to the adjusted basis (for determining gain) of such property in the hands of the taxpayer.

"(B) In the case of property described in subparagraph (A)(i)—

"(i) which was in existence on February 28, 1913,

"(ii) for which the taxpayer has a substituted basis, and

"(iii) such substituted basis for which would, but for the provisions of this section, be determined under section 1053, then the adjusted basis of such property shall be determined as if such property were property described in paragraph (3)(A).

"(3) Property Acquired or Constructed Before March 1, 1913.—

"(A) In the case of pre-1969 railroad grading and tunnel bores—

"(i) acquired by the taxpayer before March 1, 1913, or

"(ii) the construction of which was completed by the taxpayer before March 1, 1913, the adjusted basis of such property shall be determined under the provisions of subparagraph (B), (C), or (D) of this paragraph.

"(B) In the case of any property valued under an original valuation made by the Interstate Commerce Commission pursuant to section 19a of part I of the Interstate Commerce Act (49 U.S.C. 19a), the adjusted basis of such property shall be equal to the amount ascertained by the Interstate Commerce Commission as of the date of such valuation to be such property's cost of reproduction new (as the term 'cost of reproduction new' is used in such section 19a).

"(C) In the case of property which was not valued by the Interstate Commerce Commission in the manner described in subparagraph (B), but which was valued under an original valuation made by a comparable State regulatory body, the adjusted basis of such property shall be equal to the amount ascertained by such State regulatory body as of the date of its original valuation to be such property's value.

"(D) If, in the case of any property to which this paragraph applies—

"(i) neither subparagraph (B) nor (C) applies, or

"(ii) notwithstanding subparagraphs (B) and (C), either the taxpayer or the Secretary can establish the adjusted basis (for purposes of determining gain) of such property in the hands of the taxpayer, then the adjusted basis of such property shall be equal to its adjusted basis (for purposes of determining gain) in the hands of the taxpayer."

(b) Definition of Pre-1969 Railroad Grading and Tunnel Bores.—Subsection (f) of section 185 (as redesignated by subsection 26 USC 185.
(a) of this section) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

"(3) PRE-1969 RAILROAD GRADING AND TUNNEL BORES.—The term 'pre-1969 railroad grading and tunnel bores' means railroad grading and tunnel bores the original use of which com-cences before January 1, 1969".

Subsection (a) of section 46 (relating to determination of amount of investment credit) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

"(9) Alternative Limitation in the Case of Certain Airlines.—

"(A) In General.—If, for a taxable year ending after calendar year 1976 and before calendar year 1983, the amount of the qualified investment of the taxpayer which is attributable to airline property is 25 percent or more of his aggregate qualified investment, then subparagraph (C) of paragraph (3) of this subsection shall be applied by substituting for 50 percent his applicable percentage for such year.

"(B) Applicable Percentage.—The applicable percentage of any taxpayer for any taxable year under this paragraph is—

"(i) 50 percent, plus

"(ii) that portion of the tentative percentage for the taxable year which the taxpayer's amount of qualified investment which is airline property bears to his aggregate qualified investment.

If the proportion referred to in clause (ii) is 75 percent or more, the applicable percentage of the taxpayer for the year shall be 50 percent plus the tentative percentage for such year.

"(C) Tentative Percentage.—For purposes of subparagraph (B), the tentative percentage shall be determined under the following table:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Year ends in:</th>
<th>The tentative percentage is:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1977 or 1978</td>
<td>50</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1979</td>
<td>40</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1980</td>
<td>30</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1981</td>
<td>20</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1982</td>
<td>10</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

"(D) Airline Property Defined.—For purposes of this paragraph, the term 'airline property' means section 38 property used by the taxpayer directly in connection with the trade or business carried on by the taxpayer of the furnishing or sale of transportation as a common carrier by air subject to the jurisdiction of the Civil Aeronautics Board or the Federal Aviation Administration."

TITLE XVIII—INTERNATIONAL TRADE AMENDMENTS

SEC. 1801. UNITED STATES INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION.

(a) Terms of Office.—The last sentence of section 330(b) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1330(b)) is amended to read as follows: "The term of office of each commissioner appointed after such date shall expire 9 years from the date of the expiration of the term for which his predecessor was appointed, except that—

"(1) any commissioner appointed to fill a vacancy occurring prior to the expiration of the term for which his predecessor was appointed shall be appointed for the remainder of such term, and

"(2) any commissioner may continue to serve as a commissioner after an expiration of his term of office until his successor is appointed and qualified."

(b) Voting Procedures.—Section 330(d) of the Tariff Act of 1930 is amended by—

(1) redesignating paragraph (2) as paragraph (5); and
(2) striking out paragraph (1) and inserting in lieu thereof the following new paragraphs:

"(1) In a proceeding in which the Commission is required to determine—

"(A) under section 201 of the Trade Act of 1974, whether increased imports of an article are a substantial cause of serious injury, or the threat thereof, as described in subsection (b)(1) of that section (hereafter in this subsection referred to as 'serious injury'), or

"(B) under section 406 of such Act, whether market disruption exists, and the commissioners voting are equally divided with respect to such determination, then the determination agreed upon by either group of commissioners may be considered by the President as the determination of the Commission.

“(2) If under section 201 or 406 of the Trade Act of 1974 there is an affirmative determination of the Commission, or a determination of the Commission which the President may consider an affirmative determination under paragraph (1), that serious injury or market disruption exists, respectively, and a majority of the commissioners voting are unable to agree on a finding or recommendation described in section 201(d)(1) of such Act or the finding described in section 406(a)(3) of such Act, as the case may be (hereafter in this subsection referred to as a ‘remedy finding’), then——

“A(A) if a plurality of not less than three commissioners so voting agree on a remedy finding, such remedy finding shall, for purposes of sections 202 and 203 of such Act, be treated as the remedy finding of the Commission, or

“A(B) if two groups, both of which include not less than 3 commissioners, each agree upon a remedy finding and the President reports under section 203(b) of such Act that——

“(i) he is taking the action agreed upon by one such group, then the remedy finding agreed upon by the other group shall, for purposes of sections 202 and 203 of such Act, be treated as the remedy finding of the Commission, or

“(ii) he is taking action which differs from the action agreed upon by both such groups, or that he will not take any action, then the remedy finding agreed upon by either such group may be considered by the Congress as the remedy finding of the Commission and shall, for purposes of sections 202 and 203 of such Act, be treated as the remedy finding of the Commission.

“(3) In any proceeding to which paragraph (1) applies in which the commissioners voting are equally divided on a determination that serious injury exists, or that market disruption exists, the Commission shall report to the President the determination of each group of commissioners. In any proceeding to which paragraph (2) applies, the Commission shall report to the President the remedy finding of each group of commissioners voting.

“(4) In a case to which paragraph (2)(B)(ii) applies, for purposes of section 203(c)(1) of the Trade Act of 1974, notwithstanding section 152(a)(1)(A) of such Act, the second blank space in the concurrent resolution described in such section 152 shall be filled with the appropriate date and the following: ‘The action which shall take effect under section 203(c)(1) of the Trade Act of 1974 is the finding or recommendation agreed upon by Commissioners——,——, and———.’ The three blank spaces shall be filled with the names of the appropriate Commissioners.”

c EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendments made by subsection (b) shall apply to determinations, findings, and recommendations made under sections 201 and 406 of the Trade Act of 1974 after the date of the enactment of this Act.

SEC. 1802. TRADE ACT OF 1974 AMENDMENTS.

Section 502(b) of the Trade Act of 1974 (Public Law 93–618; 88 Stat. 1978) is amended——

(1) by striking out “and” at the end of paragraph (5),
(2) by striking out the period at the end of paragraph (6) and inserting in lieu thereof "; and",
(3) by inserting immediately after paragraph (6) the following new paragraph:
"(7) if such country aids or abets, by granting sanctuary from prosecution to, any individual or group which has committed an act of international terrorism." ; and
(4) by striking out "and (6)" in the unnumbered paragraph at the end of such section and inserting in lieu thereof "(6), and (7)".

SEC. 1904. AMENDMENTS OF SUBTITLE D; MISCELLANEOUS EXCISE TAXES.

(a) IN GENERAL.—

(1) AMENDMENTS OF CHAPTER 31.—

(A) So much of chapter 31 (relating to retailers excise taxes) as precedes section 4041 is amended to read as follows:

"CHAPTER 31—SPECIAL FUELS"

"Sec. 4041. Imposition of tax."

(B) Section 4041(g) (relating to exemptions from fuel taxes) is amended to read as follows:

"(g) OTHER EXEMPTIONS.—Under regulations prescribed by the Secretary, no tax shall be imposed under this section—

"(1) on any liquid sold for use or used as supplies for vessels or aircraft (within the meaning of section 4221(d)(8));

"(2) with respect to the sale of any liquid for the exclusive use of any State, any political subdivision of a State, or the District of Columbia, or with respect to the use by any of the foregoing of any liquid as a fuel;"
“(3) upon the sale of any liquid for export, or for shipment to a possession of the United States, and in due course so exported or shipped; and

“(4) with respect to the sale of any liquid to a nonprofit educational organization for its exclusive use, or with respect to the use by a nonprofit educational organization of any liquid as a fuel. For purposes of paragraph (4), the term ‘nonprofit educational organization’ means an educational organization described in section 170 (b) (1) (A) (ii) which is exempt from income tax under section 501(a). The term also includes a school operated as an activity of an organization described in section 501(e) (3) which is exempt from income tax under section 501(a), if such school normally maintains a regular faculty and curriculum and normally has a regularly enrolled body of pupils or students in attendance at the place where its educational activities are regularly carried on.”

(C) Section 4041 (relating to tax on fuels) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

“(i) Sales by United States, Etc.—The taxes imposed by this section shall apply with respect to liquids sold at retail by the United States, or by any agency or instrumentality of the United States, unless sales by such agency or instrumentality are by statute specifically exempted from such taxes.”

(D) Chapter 31 is amended by striking out section 4042 (a cross reference) and subchapter F (special provisions applicable to retailers taxes).

(2) Amendments of section 4216.—

(A) Section 4216 (relating to definition of price) is amended by redesignating subsections (e), (f), and (g) as subsections (d), (e), and (f), respectively.

(B) Paragraphs (3), (4), and (5) of section 4216 (b) (relating to constructive sales price) are each amended by striking out “subsections (a) and (f)” each place it appears and inserting in lieu thereof “subsections (a) and (e)”.

"CHAPTER 34—POLICIES ISSUED BY FOREIGN INSURERS"

26 USC 4371.

"SEC. 4371. IMPOSITION OF TAX."

"There is hereby imposed, on each policy of insurance, indemnity bond, annuity contract, or policy of reinsurance issued by any foreign insurer or reinsurer, a tax at the following rates:

"(1) CASUALTY INSURANCE AND INDEMNITY BONDS.—4 cents on each dollar, or fractional part thereof, of the premium paid on the policy of casualty insurance or the indemnity bond, if issued to or for, or in the name of, an insured as defined in section 4372(d);

"(2) LIFE INSURANCE, SICKNESS AND ACCIDENT POLICIES, AND ANNUITY CONTRACTS.—1 cent on each dollar, or fractional part thereof, of the premium paid on the policy of life, sickness, or accident insurance, or annuity contract, unless the insurer is subject to tax under section 819; and

"(3) REINSURANCE.—1 cent on each dollar, or fractional part thereof, of the premium paid on the policy of reinsurance covering any of the contracts taxable under paragraph (1) or (2).

26 USC 4372.

"SEC. 4372. DEFINITIONS."

"(a) FOREIGN INSURER OR REINSURER.—For purposes of section 4371, the term "foreign insurer or reinsurer" means an insurer or reinsurer who is a nonresident alien individual, or a foreign partnership, or a foreign corporation. The term includes a nonresident alien individual, foreign partnership, or foreign corporation which shall become bound by an obligation of the nature of an indemnity bond. The term does not include a foreign government, or municipal or other corporation exercising the taxing power.

“(b) Policy of Casualty Insurance.—For purposes of section 4371(1), the term ‘policy of casualty insurance’ means any policy (other than life) or other instrument by whatever name called whereby a contract of insurance is made, continued, or renewed.

“(c) Indemnity Bond.—For purposes of this chapter, the term ‘indemnity bond’ means any instrument by whatever name called whereby an obligation of the nature of an indemnity, fidelity, or surety bond is made, continued, or renewed. The term includes any bond for indemnifying any person who shall have become bound or engaged as surety, and any bond for the due execution or performance of any contract, obligation, or requirement, or the duties of any office or position, and to account for money received by virtue thereof, where a premium is charged for the execution of such bond.

“(d) Insured.—For purposes of section 4371(1), the term ‘insured’ means—

“(1) a domestic corporation or partnership, or an individual resident of the United States, against, or with respect to, hazards, risks, losses, or liabilities wholly or partly within the United States, or

“(2) a foreign corporation, foreign partnership, or nonresident individual, engaged in a trade or business within the United States, against, or with respect to, hazards, risks, losses, or liabilities within the United States.

“(e) Policy of Life, Sickness, or Accident Insurance, or Annuity Contract.—For purposes of section 4371(2), the term ‘policy of life, sickness, or accident insurance, or annuity contract’ means any policy or other instrument by whatever name called whereby a contract of insurance or an annuity contract is made, continued, or renewed with respect to the life or hazards to the person of a citizen or resident of the United States.

“(f) Policy of Reinsurance.—For purposes of section 4371(3), the term ‘policy of reinsurance’ means any policy or other instrument by whatever name called whereby a contract of reinsurance is made, continued, or renewed against, or with respect to, any of the hazards, risks, losses, or liabilities covered by contracts taxable under paragraph (1) or (2) of section 4371.

“SEC. 4373. EXEMPTIONS.

“The tax imposed by section 4371 shall not apply to—

“(1) Domestic agent.—Any policy, indemnity bond, or annuity contract signed or countersigned by an officer or agent of the insurer in a State, or in the District of Columbia, within which such insurer is authorized to do business; or

“(2) Indemnity bond.—Any indemnity bond required to be filed by any person to secure payment of any pension, allowance, allotment, relief, or insurance by the United States, or to secure a duplicate for, or the payment of, any bond, note, certificate of indebtedness, war-saving certificate, warrant, or check, issued by the United States.

“SEC. 4374. LIABILITY FOR TAX.

“The tax imposed by this chapter shall be paid, on the basis of a return, by any person who makes, signs, issues, or sells any of the documents and instruments subject to the tax, or for whose use or benefit the same are made, signed, issued, or sold. The United States or any agency or instrumentality thereof shall not be liable for the tax.”

(13) Amendment of Section 4493.

(B) SAVINGS PROVISION.—Notwithstanding the amendments made by subparagraph (A), in the case of a bond the interest on which is not excludable from gross income—

(i) which was issued after January 22, 1951, with a call date not more than 3 years after the date of such issue, and

(ii) which was acquired by the taxpayer after January 22, 1954, and before January 1, 1958, the bond premium for a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1975, shall not be determined under section 171(b) (1) (B) (i) but shall be determined with reference to the amount payable on maturity, and if the bond is called before its maturity, the bond premium for the year in which the bond is called shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of section 171(b) (2).

(A) REPEAL.—Section 333 (relating to election as to recognition of gain in certain liquidations) is amended by striking out subsection (g) (relating to the liquidation of certain personal holding companies).

(B) SAVINGS PROVISION.—Notwithstanding subparagraph (A), if any corporation meets all the requirements of section 333(g) (2) (B), as in effect before its repeal by this Act, the liquidation of such corporation shall be treated as if paragraphs (2), (3), and (4) of section 333(g) had not been repealed.

(C) PHASE-IN OF 12-MONTH HOLDING PERIOD REQUIREMENT.—For purposes of subparagraph (B), the period for holding of stock specified in section 333(g) (2) (A)(ii), as in effect before such repeal, shall—

(i) in the case of taxable years beginning in 1977, be considered to be "9 months"; and

(ii) in the case of taxable years beginning after December 31, 1977, be considered to be "1 year".

26 USC 453

(A) REPEAL.—Section 453(b) (2) (relating to limitation on use of installment sales method) is amended to read as follows:

"(2) LIMITATION.—Paragraph (1) shall apply only if in the taxable year of the sale or other disposition—

"(A) there are no payments, or

"(B) the payments (exclusive of evidences of indebtedness of the purchaser) do not exceed 30 percent of the selling price."

(B) SAVINGS PROVISION.—Notwithstanding subparagraph (A), in the case of installment payments received during taxable years beginning after December 31, 1976, on account of a sale or other disposition made during a taxable year beginning before January 1, 1954, subsection (b) (1) of section 453 (relating to sales of realty and casual sales of personality) shall apply only if the income was (by reason of section 44(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939) returnable on the basis and in the manner prescribed in section 44(a) of such Code.

(8) Amendments of section 512.

(A) Repeal.—Section 512(b) (relating to unrelated business taxable income) is amended by striking out paragraphs (13) and (14) and by redesignating paragraphs (15), (16), and (17) as paragraphs (13), (14), and (15), respectively.

(B) Savings provision.—Notwithstanding subparagraph (A), income received in a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1975, shall be excluded from gross income in determining unrelated business taxable income, if such income would have been excluded by paragraph (13) or (14) of section 512(b) if received in a taxable year beginning before such date. Any deductions directly connected with income excluded under the preceding sentence in determining unrelated business taxable income shall also be excluded for such purpose.

(9) Amendment of section 545.

(A) Repeal.—Section 545(b) (relating to adjustments in computing undistributed personal holding company income) is amended by striking out paragraph (9) (relating to deductions on account of certain liens in favor of the United States).

(B) Savings provision.—Notwithstanding subparagraph (A), if any amount was deducted under paragraph (9) of section 545(b) in a taxable year beginning before January 1, 1977, on account of a lien which is satisfied or released in a taxable year beginning on or after such date, the amount so deducted shall be included in income, for purposes of section 545, as provided in the second sentence of such paragraph. Shareholders of any corporation which has amounts included in its income by reason of the preceding sentence may elect to compute the income tax on dividends attributable to amounts so included as provided in the third sentence of such paragraph.

(10) Amendments of section 691.

(A) Repeal.—Section 691 (relating to income in respect of decedents) is amended by striking out subsection (e) (relating to certain installment obligations transmitted at death) and by redesignating subsection (f) as subsection (e).

SEC. 1952. PROVISIONS OF SUBCHAPTER D OF CHAPTER 39; COTTON FUTURES.

(a) Short Title.—This section may be cited as the “United States Cotton Futures Act.”

(b) Repeal of Tax on Cotton Futures.—Subchapter D of chapter 39 (relating to tax on cotton futures) is repealed.

(c) Definitions.—For purposes of this section—

(1) Cotton futures contract.—The term “cotton futures contract” means any contract of sale of cotton for future delivery made at, on, or in any exchange, board of trade, or similar institution or place of business which has been designated a “contract market” by the Commodity Futures Trading Commission pursuant to the Commodity Exchange Act and the term “contract of sale” as so used shall be held to include sales, agreements of sale, and agreements to sell.

(2) Future delivery.—The term “future delivery” shall not include any cash sale of cotton for deferred shipment or delivery.

(3) Person.—The term “person” includes an individual, trust, estate, partnership, association, company, or corporation.

(4) Secretary.—The term “Secretary” means the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States.

(5) Standards.—The term “standards” means the official cotton standards of the United States established by the Secretary pursuant to the United States Cotton Standards Act, as amended.

(d) Bona Fide Spot Markets and Commercial Differences.—

(1) Definition.—For purposes of this section, the only markets which shall be considered bona fide spot markets shall be those which the Secretary shall, from time to time, after investigation, determine and designate to be such, and of which he shall give public notice.
(2) Determination.—In determining, pursuant to the provisions of this section, what markets are bona fide spot markets, the Secretary is directed to consider only markets in which spot cotton is sold in such volume and under such conditions as customarily to reflect accurately the value of middling cotton and the differences between the prices or values of middling cotton and of other grades of cotton for which standards shall have been established by the Secretary; except that if there are not sufficient places, in the markets of which are made bona fide sales of spot cotton of grades for which standards are established by the Secretary, to enable him to designate at least five spot markets in accordance with subsection (f)(3), he shall, from data as to spot sales collected by him, make rules and regulations for determining the actual commercial differences in the value of spot cotton of the grades established by him as reflected by bona fide sales of spot cotton, of the same or different grades, in the market selected and designated by him, from time to time, for that purpose, and in that event differences in value of cotton of various grades involved in contracts made pursuant to subsection (f)(1) and (2) shall be determined in compliance with such rules and regulations. It shall be the duty of any person engaged in the business of dealing in cotton, when requested by the Secretary or any agent acting under his instructions, to answer correctly to the best of his knowledge, under oath or otherwise, all questions touching his knowledge of the number of bales, the classification, the price or bona fide price offered, and other terms of purchase or sale, of any cotton involved in any transaction participated in by him, or to produce all books, letters, papers, or documents in his possession or under his control relating to such matter.

(3) Withholding Information.—Any person engaged in the business of dealing in cotton who shall, within a reasonable time prescribed by the Secretary or any agent acting under his instructions, willfully fail or refuse to answer questions or to produce books, letters, papers, or documents, as required under paragraph (2) of this subsection, or who shall willfully give any answer that is false or misleading, shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $500.

(e) Form and Validity of Cotton Futures Contracts.—Each cotton futures contract shall be a basis grade contract, or a tendered grade contract, or a specific grade contract as specified in subsections (f), (g), or (h) and shall be in writing plainly stating, or evidenced by written memorandum showing, the terms of such contract, including the quantity of the cotton involved and the names and addresses of the seller and buyer in such contract, and shall be signed by the party to be charged, or by his agent in his behalf. No cotton futures contract which does not conform to such requirements shall be enforceable by, or on behalf of, any party to such contract or his privies.

(f) Basis Grade Contracts.—

(1) Conditions.—Each basis grade cotton futures contract shall comply with each of the following conditions:

(A) Conformity with Regulations.—Conform to the regulations made pursuant to this section.

(B) Specification of Grade, Price, and Dates of Sale and Settlement.—Specify the basis grade for the cotton involved in the contract, which shall be one of the grades for which standards are established by the Secretary, except grades prohibited from being delivered on a contract made under this subsection by subparagraph (E), the price per pound at which the cotton of such basis grade is contracted to be bought or sold, the date when the purchase or sale was made, and the month or months in which the contract is to be fulfilled or settled; except that middling shall be deemed the basis grade incorporated into the contract if no other basis grade be specified either in the contract or in the memorandum evidencing the same.

(C) Provision for delivery of standard grades only.—Provide that the cotton dealt with therein or delivered thereunder shall be of or within the grades for which standards are established by the Secretary except grades prohibited from being delivered on a contract made under this subsection by subparagraph (E) and no other grade or grades.

(D) Provision for settlement on basis of actual commercial differences.—Provide that in case cotton of grade other than the basis grade be tendered or delivered in settlement of such contract, the differences above or below the contract price which the receiver shall pay for such grades other than the basis grade shall be the actual commercial differences, determined as hereinafter provided.

(E) Prohibition of delivery of inferior cotton.—Provide that cotton that, because of the presence of extraneous matter of any character, or irregularities or defects, is reduced in value below that of low middling, or cotton that is below the grade of low middling, or, if tinged, cotton that is below the grade of strict middling, or, if yellow stained, cotton that is below the grade of good middling, the grades mentioned being of the official cotton standards of the United States, or cotton that is less than seven-eighths of an inch in length of staple, or cotton of perished staple, or of immature staple, or cotton that is “gin cut” or reginned, or cotton that is “repacked” or “false packed” or “mixed packed” or “water packed”, shall not be delivered on, under, or in settlement of such contract.

(F) Provisions for tender in full, notice of delivery date, and certificate of grade.—Provide that all tenders of cotton under such contract shall be the full number of bales involved therein, except that such variations of the number of bales may be permitted as is necessary to bring the total weight of the cotton tendered within the provisions of the contract as to weight; that, on the fifth business day prior to delivery, the person making the tender shall give to the person receiving the same written notice of the date of delivery, and that, on or prior to the date so fixed for delivery, and in advance of final settlement of the contract, the person making the tender shall furnish to the person receiving the same a written notice or certificate stating the grade of each individual bale to be delivered and, by means of marks or numbers, identifying each bale with its grade.

(G) Provision for tender and settlement in accordance with government classification.—Provide that all tenders of cotton and settlements therefor under such contract shall be in accordance with the classification thereof made under the regulations of the Secretary by such officer or officers of the Government as shall be designated for the purpose, and the costs of such classification shall be fixed, assessed, collected, and paid as provided in such regulations. The Secretary is authorized to prescribe regulations for carrying out the purposes of this subparagraph and the certificates of the officers of the Government as to the classification of any cotton for the purposes of this subparagraph shall be accepted in the courts of the United States in all suits between the parties to such contract, or their privies, as prima facie evidence of the true classification of the cotton involved.

(2) INCORPORATION OF CONDITIONS IN CONTRACTS.—The provisions of paragraphs (1)(C), (D), (E), (F), and (G) shall be deemed fully incorporated into any such contract if there be written or printed thereon, or on the memorandums evidencing the same, at or prior to the time the same is signed, the phrase “Subject to United States Cotton Futures Act, subsection (f).”

(3) DELIVERY ALLOWANCES.—For the purpose of this subsection, the differences above or below the contract price which the receiver shall pay for cotton of grades above or below the basic grade in the settlement of a contract of sale for the future delivery of cotton shall be determined by the actual commercial differences in value thereof upon the sixth business day prior to the day fixed, in accordance with paragraph (1)(F), for the delivery of cotton on the contract, established by the sale of spot cotton in the spot markets of not less than five places designated for the purpose from time to time by the Secretary, as such values were established by the sales of spot cotton, in such designated five or more markets. For purposes of this paragraph, such values in the such spot markets shall be based upon the standards for grades of cotton established by the Secretary. Whenever the value of one grade is to be determined from the sale or sales of spot cotton of another grade or grades, such value shall be fixed in accordance with rules and regulations which shall be prescribed for the purpose by the Secretary.

(g) TENDERED GRADE CONTRACTS.—

(1) CONDITIONS.—Each tendered grade cotton future contract shall comply with each of the following conditions:

(A) COMPLIANCE WITH SUBSECTION (f).—Comply with all the terms and conditions of subsection (f) not inconsistent with this subsection; and

(B) PROVISION FOR CONTINGENT SPECIFIC PERFORMANCE.—Provide that, in case cotton of grade or grades other than the basic grade specified in the contract shall be tendered in performance of the contract, the parties to such contract may agree, at the time of the tender, as to the price of the grade or grades so tendered, and that if they shall not agree as to such price, then, and in that event, the buyer of said contract shall have the right to demand the specific fulfillment of such contract by the actual delivery of cotton of the basic grade named therein and at the price specified for such basic grade in said contract.

(2) INCORPORATION OF CONDITIONS IN CONTRACT.—Contracts made in compliance with this subsection shall be known as “subsection (g) Contracts”. The provisions of this subsection shall be deemed fully incorporated into any such contract if there be written or printed thereon, or on the memorandum evidencing the same, at or prior to the time the same is signed, the phrase “Subject to United States Cotton Futures Act, subsection (g)”.

Ante, p. 1841.
(3) Application of subsection.—Nothing in this subsection shall be so construed as to authorize any contract in which, or in the settlement of or in respect to which, any device or arrangement whatever is resorted to, or any agreement is made, for the determination or adjustment of the price of the grade or grades tendered other than the basis grade specified in the contract by any "fixed difference" system, or by arbitration, or by any other method not provided for by this section.

(h) Specific Grade Contracts.—

(1) Conditions.—Each specific grade cotton futures contract shall comply with each of the following conditions:

(A) Conformity with rules and regulations.—Conform to the rules and regulations made pursuant to this section.

(B) Specification of grade, price, dates of sale and delivery.—Specify the grade, type, sample, or description of the cotton involved in the contract, the price per pound at which such cotton is contracted to be bought or sold, the date of the purchase or sale, and the time when shipment or delivery of such cotton is to be made.

(C) Prohibition of delivery of other than specified grade.—Provide that cotton of or within the grade or of the type, or according to the sample or description, specified in the contract shall be delivered thereunder, and that no cotton which does not conform to the type, sample, or description, or which is not of or within the grade specified in the contract shall be tendered or delivered thereunder.

(D) Provision for specific performance.—Provide that the delivery of cotton under the contract shall not be effected by means of "setoff" or "ring" settlement, but only by the actual transfer of the specified cotton mentioned in the contract.

(2) Incorporation of conditions in contract.—The provisions of paragraphs (1)(A), (C), and (D) shall be deemed fully incorporated into any such contract if there be written or printed thereon, or on the document or memorandum evidencing the same, at or prior to the time the same is entered into, the words "Subject to United States Cotton Futures Act, subsection (h)."

(3) Application of subsection.—This subsection shall not be construed to apply to any contract of sale made in compliance with subsection (f) or (g).

(i) Liability of principal for acts of agent.—When construing and enforcing the provisions of this section, the act, omission, or failure of any official, agent, or other person acting for or employed by any association, partnership, or corporation within the scope of his employment or office shall, in every case, also be deemed the act, omission, or failure of such association, partnership, or corporation, as well as that of the person.

(j) Regulations.—The Secretary is authorized to make such regulations with the force and effect of law as he determines may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this section and the powers vested in him by this section.

(k) Violations.—Any person who knowingly violates any regulation made in pursuance of this section, shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not less than $100 nor more than $500, for each violation thereof, in the discretion of the court, and, in case of natural persons, may, in addition be punished by imprisonment for not less than 30 days nor more than 90 days, for each violation, in the discretion of the
(1) Applicability to Contracts Prior to Effective Date.—The provisions of this section shall not apply to any cotton futures contract entered into prior to the effective date of this section or to any act or failure to act by any person prior to such effective date and all such prior contracts, acts or failure to act shall continue to be governed by the applicable provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as in effect prior to the enactment of this section. All designations of bona fide spot markets and all rules and regulations issued by the Secretary pursuant to the applicable provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 which were in effect on the effective date of this section, shall remain fully effective as designations and regulations under this section until superseded, amended, or terminated by the Secretary.

(m) Authorization.—There are authorized to be appropriated such sums as may be necessary to carry out this section.

(n) Conforming and Clerical Amendments.—

(1) Section 6808 (relating to cross references) is amended by striking out paragraph (2), and by redesignating paragraphs (3), (6), and (11) as paragraphs (1), (2), and (3), respectively.

(2) (A) Section 7233 (relating to failure to pay tax on cotton futures) is repealed.

(B) The table of sections for part II of subchapter A of chapter 75 is amended by striking out the item relating to section 7233.

(3) (A) Section 7263 (relating to penalties concerning cotton futures) is repealed.

(B) The table of sections for subchapter B of chapter 75 is amended by striking out the items relating to subchapter E.

(4) (A) Subchapter E of chapter 76 (relating to miscellaneous provisions regarding cotton futures contracts) is repealed.

(B) The table of subchapters for chapter 76 is amended by striking out the items relating to subchapter E.

(5) Chapter 39 (relating to regulatory taxes) is amended by striking out the chapter heading and the table of subchapters.

(6) The table of chapters for subtitle D is amended by striking out the item relating to chapter 39.

(o) Effective Date.—The provisions of this section shall take effect on the 90th day after the date of the enactment of this Act.

TITLE XX—ESTATE AND GIFT TAXES

SEC. 2001. Unified Rate Schedule for Estate and Gift Taxes; Unified Credit in Lieu of Specific Exemptions.

(a) Changes in Estate Tax.—

(1) Imposition of Tax; Rate Schedule.—Section 2001 (relating to rate of tax) is amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 2001. Imposition and Rate of Tax."

"(a) Imposition.—A tax is hereby imposed on the transfer of the taxable estate of every decedent who is a citizen or resident of the United States."

"(b) Computation of Tax.—The tax imposed by this section shall be the amount equal to the excess (if any) of—"

"(1) a tentative tax computed in accordance with the rate schedule set forth in subsection (c) on the sum of—"
(A) the amount of the taxable estate, and
(B) the amount of the adjusted taxable gifts, over
(2) the aggregate amount of tax payable under chapter 12 with respect to gifts made by the decedent after December 31, 1976.

For purposes of paragraph (1)(B), the term 'adjusted taxable gifts' means the total amount of the taxable gifts (within the meaning of section 2503) made by the decedent after December 31, 1976, other than gifts which are includible in the gross estate of the decedent.

(c) ADJUSTMENT TO CREDIT FOR CERTAIN GIFTS MADE BEFORE 1977.—The amount of the credit allowable under subsection (a) shall be reduced by an amount equal to 20 percent of the aggregate amount allowed as a specific exemption under section 2521 (as in effect before its repeal by the Tax Reform Act of 1976) with respect to gifts made by the decedent after September 8, 1976.

(d) LIMITATION BASED ON AMOUNT OF TAX.—The amount of the credit allowed by subsection (a) shall not exceed the amount of the tax imposed by section 2001.

26 USC 2012.

(3) TERMINATION OF CREDIT FOR GIFT TAX.—Section 2012 (relating to credit for gift tax) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

(6) SECTION INAPPLICABLE TO GIFTS MADE AFTER DECEMBER 31, 1976.—No credit shall be allowed under this section with respect to the amount of any tax paid under chapter 12 on any gift made after December 31, 1976.

26 USC 2052.

(4) REPEAL OF SPECIFIC EXEMPTION.—Section 2052 (relating to exemption for purposes of the estate tax) is hereby repealed.

(b) ADJUSTMENTS FOR GIFTS MADE WITHIN 3 YEARS OF DECEASED'S DEATH.

Section 2035 (relating to transactions in contemplation of death) is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 2035. ADJUSTMENTS FOR GIFTS MADE WITHIN 3 YEARS OF DECEASED'S DEATH.

(a) INCLUSION OF GIFTS MADE BY DECEASED.—Except as provided in subsection (b), the value of the gross estate shall include the value of all property to the extent of any interest therein of which the decedent has at any time made a transfer, by trust or otherwise, during the 3-year period ending on the date of the decedent's death.

(b) EXCEPTIONS.—Subsection (a) shall not apply to—

(1) any bona fide sale for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth, and

(2) any gift excludable in computing taxable gifts by reason of section 2503(b) (relating to $3,000 annual exclusion for purposes of the gift tax) determined without regard to section 2513(a).

(c) INCLUSION OF GIFT TAX ON CERTAIN GIFTS MADE DURING 3 YEARS BEFORE DECEASED'S DEATH.—The amount of the gross estate (determined without regard to this subsection) shall be increased by the amount of any tax paid under chapter 12 by the decedent or his estate on any gift made by the decedent or his spouse after December 31, 1976, and during the 3-year period ending on the date of the decedent's death."

(b) CHANGES IN GIFT TAX.—

(1) RATE OF TAX.—Subsection (a) of section 2502 (relating to rate of gift tax) is amended to read as follows:

"(a) Computation of Tax.—The tax imposed by section 2501 for each calendar quarter shall be an amount equal to the excess of—

"(1) a tentative tax, computed in accordance with the rate schedule set forth in section 2001(c), on the aggregate sum of the taxable gifts for such calendar quarter and for each of the preceding calendar years and calendar quarters, over

"(2) a tentative tax, computed in accordance with such rate schedule, on the aggregate sum of the taxable gifts for each of the preceding calendar years and calendar quarters."

(2) UNIFIED CREDIT.—Subchapter A of chapter 12 (relating to determination of gift tax liability) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

"SEC. 2505. UNIFIED CREDIT AGAINST GIFT TAX.

"(a) GENERAL RULE.—In the case of a citizen or resident of the United States, there shall be allowed as a credit against the tax imposed by section 2501 for each calendar quarter an amount equal to—

"(1) $47,000, reduced by

"(2) the sum of the amounts allowable as a credit to the individual under this section for all preceding calendar quarters.

"(b) PHASE-IN OF $47,000 CREDIT.—

Subsection (a)(1) shall be applied by substituting for '$47,000' the following amount:

In the case of gifts made:

- After December 31, 1976, and before July 1, 1977: $6,000
- After June 30, 1977, and before January 1, 1978: $30,000
- After December 31, 1977, and before January 1, 1979: $34,000
- After December 31, 1978, and before January 1, 1980: $38,000
- After December 31, 1979, and before January 1, 1981: $42,000

(c) ADJUSTMENT TO CREDIT FOR CERTAIN GIFTS MADE BEFORE 1977.—The amount allowable under subsection (a) shall be reduced by an amount equal to 20 percent of the aggregate amount allowed as a specific exemption under section 2521 (as in effect before its repeal by the Tax Reform Act of 1976) with respect to gifts made by the individual after September 8, 1976.

(d) LIMITATION BASED ON AMOUNT OF TAX.—The amount of the credit allowed under subsection (a) for any calendar quarter shall not exceed the amount of the tax imposed by section 2501 for such calendar quarter.

(3) REPEAL OF SPECIFIC EXEMPTION.—Section 2521 (relating to specific exemption in the case of the gift tax) is hereby repealed.

(c) TECHNICAL, CLERICAL, AND CONFORMING CHANGES.—

(1) CHANGES IN ESTATE TAX.—

(A) CREDIT FOR STATE DEATH TAXES.—Section 2011 (relating to credit for State death taxes) is amended—

(i) by striking out "taxable estate" each place it appears in subsection (b) (including the heading to the table) and inserting in lieu thereof "adjusted taxable estate";

(ii) by adding at the end of subsection (b) the following new sentence:
"Adjusted taxable estate." "For purposes of this section, the term 'adjusted taxable estate' means the taxable estate reduced by $60,000.", (iii) by striking out "taxable estate" each place it appears in subsection (e) and inserting in lieu thereof "adjusted taxable estate"; and (iv) by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

"(f) LIMITATION BASED ON AMOUNT OF TAX.—The credit provided by this section shall not exceed the amount of the tax imposed by section 2001, reduced by the amount of the unified credit provided by section 2010."

26 USC 2012. (B) CREDIT FOR GIFT TAX.—Subsection (a) of section 2012 (relating to credit for gift tax) is amended by striking out "provided by section 2011" and inserting in lieu thereof "provided by section 2011 and the unified credit provided by section 2010".

26 USC 2101. (D) RATE OF TAX IN CASE OF NONRESIDENTS NOT CITIZENS.—Section 2101 (relating to tax imposed in the case of estates of nonresidents not citizens) is amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 2101. TAX IMPOSED.

"(a) IMPOSITION.—Except as provided in section 2107, a tax is hereby imposed on the transfer of the taxable estate (determined as provided in section 2106) of every decedent nonresident not a citizen of the United States. (b) COMPUTATION OF TAX.—The tax imposed by this section shall be the amount equal to the excess (if any) of—

"(1) a tentative tax computed in accordance with the rate schedule set forth in subsection (d) on the sum of—

"(A) the amount of the taxable estate, and (B) the amount of the adjusted taxable gifts, over

"(2) a tentative tax computed in accordance with the rate schedule set forth in subsection (d) on the amount of the adjusted taxable gifts.

"(c) ADJUSTMENTS FOR TAXABLE GIFTS.—

"(1) ADJUSTED TAXABLE GIFTS DEFINED.—For purposes of this section, the term 'adjusted taxable gifts' means the total amount of the taxable gifts (within the meaning of section 2503 as modified by section 2511) made by the decedent after December 31, 1976, other than gifts which are includible in the gross estate of the decedent.

"(2) ADJUSTMENT FOR CERTAIN GIFT TAX.—For purposes of this section, the rules of section 2001(d) shall apply.
"(d) Rate Schedule.—
"If the amount with respect to which the tentative tax to be computed is:

(E) Credit in case of estate of nonresidents not citizens.—
(i) Section 2102 (relating to credits against tax in case of estates of nonresidents not citizens) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

"(c) Unified Credit.—
"(1) In general.—A credit of $3,600 shall be allowed against the tax imposed by section 2101.
"(2) Residents of Possessions of the United States.—In the case of a decedent who is considered to be a 'nonresident not a citizen of the United States' under section 2209, the credit under this subsection shall be the greater of:

(A) $3,600, or
(B) that proportion of $15,075 which the value of that part of the decedent's gross estate which at the time of his death is situated in the United States bears to the value of his entire gross estate wherever situated.

"(3) Phase-in of Paragraph (2)(B) Amount.—In the case of a decedent dying before 1981, paragraph (2)(B) shall be applied:

(A) in the case of a decedent dying during 1977, by substituting `$8,480' for `$15,075',

(B) in the case of a decedent dying during 1978, by substituting `$10,080' for `$15,075',

(C) in the case of a decedent dying during 1979, by substituting `$11,680' for `$15,075', and

(D) in the case of a decedent dying during 1980, by substituting `$13,388' for `$15,075'.

"(4) Limitation Based on Amount of Tax.—The credit allowed under this subsection shall not exceed the amount of the tax imposed by section 2101.

"(5) Application of Other Credits.—For purposes of subsection (a), sections 2011 to 2013, inclusive, shall be applied as if the credit allowed under this subsection were allowed under section 2101.

(ii) Subsection (c) of section 2107 (relating to expatriation to avoid tax) is amended to read as follows:

"(c) Credits.—
"(1) Unified Credit.—

(A) In general.—A credit of $13,000 shall be allowed against the tax imposed by subsection (a).

(B) Limitation Based on Amount of Tax.—The credit allowed under this paragraph shall not exceed the amount of the tax imposed by subsection (a).

(2) Other Credits.—The tax imposed by subsection (a) shall be credited with the amounts determined in accordance with sub-sections (a) and (b) of section 2102. For purposes of subsection (a) of section 2102, sections 2011 to 2013, inclusive, shall be applied as if the credit allowed under paragraph (1) were allowed under section 2010."

(F) REPEAL OF SPECIFIC EXEMPTION.—Paragraph (3) of section 2106(a) (relating to specific exemption in case of decedents nonresidents not citizens) is hereby repealed.

(G) CREDIT FOR FOREIGN DEATH TAXES.—Paragraph (2) of section 2014(b) (relating to limitations on credit) is amended by striking out "sections 2011 and 2012" and inserting in lieu thereof "sections 2010, 2011, and 2012".

(H) LIABILITY OF LIFE INSURANCE BENEFICIARIES.—The first sentence of section 2206 (relating to liability of life insurance beneficiaries) is amended by striking out "the sum of the taxable estate and the amount of the exemption allowed in computing the taxable estate, determined under section 2051" and inserting in lieu thereof "the taxable estate".

(I) LIABILITY OF RECIPIENTS OF CERTAIN PROPERTY.—The first sentence of section 2207 (relating to liability of recipient of property over which decedent had power of appointment) is amended by striking out "the sum of the taxable estate and the amount of the exemption allowed in computing the taxable estate, determined under section 2052, or section 2106(a), as the case may be" and inserting in lieu thereof "the taxable estate".

(J) RETURN BY EXECUTOR.—Subsection (a) of section 6018 (relating to estate tax returns by executor) is amended—

(i) by striking out "$60,000" in paragraph (1) and inserting in lieu thereof "$175,000";

(ii) by striking out "$30,000" in paragraph (2) and inserting in lieu thereof "$60,000"; and

(iii) by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraphs:

"(3) PHASE-IN OF FILING REQUIREMENT AMOUNT.—In the case of a decedent dying before 1981, paragraph (1) shall be applied—

"(A) in the case of a decedent dying during 1977, by substituting "$120,000" for "$175,000";

"(B) in the case of a decedent dying during 1978, by substituting "$134,000" for "$175,000";

"(C) in the case of a decedent dying during 1979, by substituting "$147,000" for "$175,000";

"(D) in the case of a decedent dying during 1980, by substituting "$161,000" for "$175,000".

"(4) ADJUSTMENT FOR CERTAIN GIFTS.—The amount applicable under paragraph (1) and the amount set forth in paragraph (2) shall each be reduced (but not below zero) by the sum of—

"(A) the amount of the adjusted taxable gifts (within the meaning of section 2001(b)) made by the decedent after December 31, 1976, plus

"(B) the aggregate amount allowed as a specific exemption under section 2521 (as in effect before its repeal by the Tax Reform Act of 1976) with respect to gifts made by the decedent after September 8, 1976."

(K) REVOCABLE TRANSFERS.—

(i) Paragraph (1) of section 2038(a) (relating to revocable transfers) is amended by striking out "in con-templeation of decedent's death” and inserting in lieu thereof “during the 3-year period ending on the date of the decedent's death”.

(ii) Paragraph (2) of section 2038(a) (relating to revocable transfer) is amended by striking out “in contemplation of his death” and inserting in lieu thereof “during the 3-year period ending on the date of the decedent's death”.

(L) Property within the United States.—Subsection (b) of section 2104 (relating to revocable transfers and transfers in contemplation of death) is amended by striking out “AND TRANSFERS IN CONTEMPLATION OF DEATH” in the subsection heading and inserting in lieu thereof “AND TRANSFERS WITHIN 3 YEARS OF DEATH”.

(M) Prior Interests.—Section 2044 (relating to prior interests) is amended by striking out “specifically provided therein” and inserting in lieu thereof “specifically provided by law”.

(N) Clerical Amendments.—
(i) The item relating to section 2001 in the table of sections for part I of subchapter A of chapter 11 is amended to read as follows:

“Sec. 2001. Imposition and rate of tax.”

(ii) The table of sections for part II of subchapter A of chapter 11 is amended by inserting before the item relating to section 2011 the following new item:

(iii) The table of sections for part III of subchapter A of chapter 11 is amended by striking out the item relating to section 2035 and inserting in lieu thereof the following new item:

“Sec. 2035. Adjustments for gifts made within 3 years of decedent's death.”

(iv) The table of sections for part IV of subchapter A of chapter 11 is amended by striking out the item relating to section 2052.

(2) Changes in Gift Tax.—
(A) Taxable Gifts for Preceding Years and Quarters.—Subsection (a) of section 2504 (relating to taxable gifts for preceding years and quarters) is amended by striking out “except that” and all that follows and inserting in lieu thereof “except that the specific exemption in the amount, if any, allowable under section 2521 (as in effect before its repeal by the Tax Reform Act of 1976) shall be applied in all computations in respect of calendar years or calendar quarters ending before January 1, 1977, for purposes of computing the tax for any calendar quarter.”

(B) Clerical Amendments.—
(i) The table of sections for subchapter A of chapter 12 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new item:

(ii) The table of sections for subchapter C of chapter 12 is amended by striking out the item relating to section 2521.

26 USC 2001 note.

(1) The amendments made by subsections (a) and (c) (1) shall apply to the estates of decedents dying after December 31, 1976; except that the amendments made by subsection (a) (5) and subparagraphs (K) and (L) of subsection (c) (1) shall not apply to transfers made before January 1, 1977.

26 USC 2502 note.

(2) The amendments made by subsections (b) and (c) (2) shall apply to gifts made after December 31, 1976.

SEC. 2002. INCREASE IN LIMITATIONS ON MARITAL DEDUCTIONS; FRACTIONAL INTERESTS OF SPOUSE.

(a) Increase in Estate Tax Marital Deduction.—Paragraph (1) of section 2056 (c) (relating to limitation on marital deduction) is amended to read as follows:

“(1) Limitation.—

“(A) In General.—The aggregate amount of the deductions allowed under this section (computed without regard to this subsection) shall not exceed the greater of—

“(i) $250,000, or

“(ii) 50 percent of the value of the adjusted gross estate (as defined in paragraph (2)).

“(B) Adjustment for Certain Gifts to Spouse.—If a deduction is allowed to the decedent under section 2523 with respect to any gift made to his spouse after December 31, 1976, the limitation provided by subparagraph (A) (determined without regard to this subparagraph) shall be reduced (but not below zero) by the excess (if any) of—

“(i) the aggregate of the deductions allowed to the decedent under section 2523 with respect to gifts made after December 31, 1976, over

“(ii) the aggregate of the deductions which would have been allowable under section 2523 with respect to gifts made after December 31, 1976, if the amount deductible under such section with respect to any gift were 50 percent of its value.

“(C) Community Property Adjustment.—The $250,000 amount set forth in subparagraph (A) (i) shall be reduced by the excess (if any) of—

“(i) the amount of the subtraction determined under clauses (i), (ii), and (iii) of paragraph (2) (B), over

“(ii) the excess of the aggregate of the deductions allowed under sections 2053 and 2054 over the amount taken into account with respect to such deductions under clause (iv) of paragraph (2) (B).”

(b) Increase in Gift Tax Marital Deduction.—Subsection (a) of section 2523 (relating to deduction for gift to spouse) is amended to read as follows:

“(a) Allowance of Deduction.—

“(1) In General.—Where a donor who is a citizen or resident transfers during the calendar quarter by gift an interest in property to a donee who at the time of the gift is the donor’s spouse, there shall be allowed as a deduction in computing taxable gifts for the calendar quarter an amount with respect to such interest equal to its value.

“(2) Limitation.—The aggregate of the deductions allowed under paragraph (1) for any calendar quarter shall not exceed the sum of—
“(A) $100,000 reduced (but not below zero) by the aggregate of the deductions allowed under this section for preceding calendar quarters beginning after December 31, 1976; plus “(B) 50 percent of the lesser of—
“(i) the amount of the deductions allowable under paragraph (1) for such calendar quarter (determined without regard to this paragraph); or “(ii) the amount (if any) by which the aggregate of the amounts determined under clause (i) for the calendar quarter and for each preceding calendar quarter beginning after December 31, 1976, exceeds $200,000.”

(c) Fractional Interest of Spouse.—

(1) In general.—Section 2040 (relating to joint interests) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

“(b) Certain Joint Interests of Husband and Wife.—

“(1) Interests of spouse excluded from gross estate.—Notwithstanding subsection (a), in the case of any qualified joint interest, the value included in the gross estate with respect to such interest by reason of this section is one-half of the value of such qualified joint interest.

“(2) Qualified joint interest defined.—For purposes of paragraph (1), the term ‘qualified joint interest’ means any interest in property held by the decedent and the decedent’s spouse as joint tenants or as tenants by the entirety, but only if—

“(A) such joint interest was created by the decedent, the decedent’s spouse, or both,

“(B) (i) in the case of personal property, the creation of such joint interest constituted in whole or in part a gift for purposes of chapter 12, or

“(ii) in the case of real property, an election under section 2515 applies with respect to the creation of such joint interest, and

“(C) in the case of a joint tenancy, only the decedent and the decedent’s spouse are joint tenants.”

(2) Amendment of related gift tax provision.—Subsection (c) of section 2515 (relating to election with respect to tenancies by the entirety) is amended to read as follows:

“(c) Exercise of Election.—

“(1) In general.—The election provided by subsection (a) shall be exercised by including such creation of a tenancy by the entirety as a transfer by gift, to the extent such transfer constitutes a gift (determined without regard to this section), in the gift tax return of the donor for the calendar quarter in which such tenancy by the entirety was created, filed within the time prescribed by law, irrespective of whether or not the gift exceeds the exclusion provided by section 2503(b).

“(2) Subsequent additions in value.—If the election provided by subsection (a) has been made with respect to the creation of any tenancy by the entirety, such election shall also apply to each addition made to the value of such tenancy by the entirety.

“(3) Certain actuarial computations not required.—In the case of any election under subsection (a) with respect to any property, the retained interest of each spouse shall be treated as one-half of the value of their joint interest.”
26 USC 2040. (3) CLERICAL AMENDMENT.—Section 2040 is amended by striking out "The value" and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "(a) GENERAL RULE.—The value":

(d) EFFECTIVE DATES.—

(1) (A) Except as provided in subparagraph (B), the amendment made by subsection (a) shall apply with respect to the estates of decedents dying after December 31, 1976.

(B) If—

(i) the decedent dies after December 31, 1976, and before January 1, 1979,
(ii) by reason of the death of the decedent property passes from the decedent or is acquired from the decedent under a will executed before January 1, 1977, or a trust created before such date, which contains a formula expressly providing that the spouse is to receive the maximum amount of property qualifying for the marital deduction allowable by Federal law,
(iii) the formula referred to in clause (ii) was not amended at any time after December 31, 1976, and before the death of the decedent, and
(iv) the State does not enact a statute applicable to such estate which construes this type of formula as referring to the marital deduction allowable by Federal law as amended by subsection (a), then the amendment made by subsection (a) shall not apply to the estate of such decedent.

(2) The amendment made by subsection (b) shall apply to gifts made after December 31, 1976.

(3) The amendments made by subsection (c) shall apply to joint interests created after December 31, 1976.

SEC. 2003. VALUATION FOR PURPOSES OF THE FEDERAL ESTATE TAX OF CERTAIN REAL PROPERTY DEVOTED TO FARMING OR CLOSELY HELD BUSINESSES.

(a) GENERAL RULE.—Part III of subchapter A of chapter 11 (relating to gross estate) is amended by inserting after section 2032 the following new section:

26 USC 2032A. "SEC. 2032A. VALUATION OF CERTAIN FARM, ETC., REAL PROPERTY.

(a) VALUE BASED ON USE UNDER WHICH PROPERTY QUALIFIES.—

"(1) GENERAL RULE.—If—

"(A) the decedent was (at the time of his death) a citizen or resident of the United States, and

"(B) the executor elects the application of this section and files the agreement referred to in subsection (d)(2), then, for purposes of this chapter, the value of qualified real property shall be its value for the use under which it qualifies, under subsection (b), as qualified real property.

"(2) LIMITATION.—The aggregate decrease in the value of qualified real property taken into account for purposes of this chapter which results from the application of paragraph (1) with respect to any decedent shall not exceed $500,000.

(b) QUALIFIED REAL PROPERTY.—

"(1) In general.—For purposes of this section, the term 'qualified real property' means real property located in the United States which, on the date of the decedent's death, was being used for a qualified use, but only if—“(A) 50 percent or more of the adjusted value of the gross estate consists of the adjusted value of real or personal property which—“(i) on the date of the decedent’s death, was being used for a qualified use, and “(ii) was acquired from or passed from the decedent to a qualified heir of the decedent.
“(B) 25 percent or more of the adjusted value of the gross estate consists of the adjusted value of real property which meets the requirements of subparagraphs (A)(ii) and (C), “(C) during the 8-year period ending on the date of the decedent’s death there have been periods aggregating 5 years or more during which—
“(i) such real property was owned by the decedent or a member of the decedent’s family and used for a qualified use, and “(ii) there was material participation by the decedent or a member of the decedent’s family in the operation of the farm or other business, and “(D) such real property is designated in the agreement referred to in subsection (d)(2).
“(2) QUALIFIED USE.—For purposes of this section, the term ‘qualified use’ means the devotion of the property to any of the following:
“(A) use as a farm for farming purposes, or “(B) use in a trade or business other than the trade or business of farming.
“(3) ADJUSTED VALUE.—For purposes of paragraph (1), the term ‘adjusted value’ means—
“(A) in the case of the gross estate, the value of the gross estate for purposes of this chapter (determined without regard to this section), reduced by any amounts allowable as a deduction under paragraph (4) of section 2053(a), or “(B) in the case of any real or personal property, the value of such property for purposes of this chapter (determined without regard to this section), reduced by any amounts allowable as a deduction in respect of such property under paragraph (4) of section 2053(a).
“(c) TAX TREATMENT OF DISPOSITIONS AND FAILURES TO USE FOR QUALIFIED USE.—
“(1) IMPOSITION OF ADDITIONAL ESTATE TAX.—If, within 15 years after the decedent’s death and before the death of the qualified heir—
“(A) the qualified heir disposes of any interest in qualified real property (other than by a disposition to a member of his family), or “(B) the qualified heir ceases to use for the qualified use the qualified real property which was acquired (or passed) from the decedent, then, there is hereby imposed an additional estate tax.
“(2) AMOUNT OF ADDITIONAL TAX.—
“(A) IN GENERAL.—The amount of the additional tax imposed by paragraph (1) with respect to any interest shall be the amount equal to the lesser of—
“(i) the adjusted tax difference attributable to such interest, or “(ii) the excess of the amount realized with respect to the interest (or, in any case other than a sale or exchange at arm’s length, the fair market value of the interest) over the value of the interest determined under subsection (a).

“(B) Adjusted tax difference attributable to interest.—For purposes of subparagraph (A), the adjusted tax difference attributable to an interest is the amount which bears the same ratio to the adjusted tax difference with respect to the estate (determined under subparagraph (C)) as—

“(i) the excess of the value of such interest for purposes of this chapter (determined without regard to subsection (a)) over the value of such interest determined under subsection (a), bears to

“(ii) a similar excess determined for all qualified real property.

“(C) Adjusted tax difference with respect to the estate.—For purposes of subparagraph (B), the term ‘adjusted tax difference with respect to the estate’ means the excess of what would have been the estate tax liability but for subsection (a) over the estate tax liability. For purposes of this subparagraph, the term ‘estate tax liability’ means the tax imposed by section 2001 reduced by the credits allowable against such tax.

“(D) Partial dispositions.—For purposes of this paragraph, where the qualified heir disposes of a portion of the interest acquired by (or passing to) such heir (or a predecessor qualified heir) or there is a cessation of use of such a portion—

“(i) the value determined under subsection (a) taken into account under subparagraph (A) (ii) with respect to such portion shall be its pro rata share of such value of such interest, and

“(ii) the adjusted tax difference attributable to the interest taken into account with respect to the transaction involving the second or any succeeding portion shall be reduced by the amount of the tax imposed by this subsection with respect to all prior transactions involving portions of such interest.

“(3) Phaseout of additional tax between 10th and 15th years.—If the date of the disposition or cessation referred to in paragraph (1) occurs more than 120 months and less than 180 months after the date of the death of the decedent, the amount of the tax imposed by this subsection shall be reduced (but not below zero) by an amount determined by multiplying the amount of such tax (determined without regard to this paragraph) by a fraction—

“(A) the numerator of which is the number of full months after such death in excess of 120, and “(B) the denominator of which is 60.

“(4) Only 1 additional tax imposed with respect to any 1 portion.—In the case of an interest acquired from (or passing from) any decedent, if subparagraph (A) or (B) of paragraph (1) applies to any portion of an interest, subparagraph (B) or
(A), as the case may be, of paragraph (1) shall not apply with respect to the same portion of such interest.

(5) DUE DATE.—The additional tax imposed by this subsection shall become due and payable on the day which is 6 months after the date of the disposition or cessation referred to in paragraph (1).

(6) LIABILITY FOR TAX.—The qualified heir shall be personally liable for the additional tax imposed by this subsection with respect to his interest.

(7) CESSATION OF QUALIFIED USE.—For purposes of paragraph (1)(B), real property shall cease to be used for the qualified use if—

"(A) such property ceases to be used for the qualified use set forth in subparagraph (A) or (B) of subsection (b)(2) under which the property qualified under subsection (b), or

"(B) during any period of 8 years ending after the date of the decedent's death and before the date of the death of the qualified heir, there had been periods aggregating 3 years or more during which—

"(i) in the case of periods during which the property was held by the decedent, there was no material participation by the decedent or any member of his family in the operation of the farm or other business, and

"(ii) in the case of periods during which the property was held by any qualified heir, there was no material participation by such qualified heir or any member of his family in the operation of the farm or other business.

(d) ELECTION; AGREEMENT.—

(1) ELECTION.—The election under this section shall be made not later than the time prescribed by section 6075(a) for filing the return of tax imposed by section 2001 (including extensions thereof), and shall be made in such manner as the Secretary shall by regulations prescribe.

(2) AGREEMENT.—The agreement referred to in this paragraph is a written agreement signed by each person in being who has an interest (whether or not in possession) in any property designated in such agreement consenting to the application of subsection (c) with respect to such property.

(e) DEFINITIONS; SPECIAL RULES.—For purposes of this section—

(1) QUALIFIED HEIR.—The term 'qualified heir' means, with respect to any property, a member of the decedent's family who acquired such property (or to whom such property passed) from the decedent. If a qualified heir disposes of any interest in qualified real property to any member of his family, such member shall thereafter be treated as the qualified heir with respect to such interest.

(2) MEMBER OF FAMILY.—The term 'member of the family' means, with respect to any individual, only such individual's ancestor or lineal descendant, a lineal descendant of a grandparent of such individual, the spouse of such individual, or the spouse of any such descendant. For purposes of the preceding sentence, a legally adopted child of an individual shall be treated as a child of such individual by blood.

(3) CERTAIN REAL PROPERTY INCLUDED.—In the case of real property which meets the requirements of subparagraph (C) of subsection (b)(1), residential buildings and related improvements on such real property occupied on a regular basis by the owner or lessee of such real property or by persons employed by such owner or lessee for the purpose of operating or maintaining such real property, and roads, buildings, and other structures and improvements functionally related to the qualified use shall be treated as real property devoted to the qualified use.

"(4) Farm.—The term ‘farm’ includes stock, dairy, poultry, fruit, fur-bearing animal, and truck farms, plantations, ranches, nurseries, ranges, greenhouses or other similar structures used primarily for the raising of agricultural or horticultural commodities, and orchards and woodlands.

(5) Farming purposes.—The term ‘farming purposes’ means—

(A) cultivating the soil or raising or harvesting any agricultural or horticultural commodity (including the raising, shearing, feeding, caring for, training, and management of animals) on a farm;

(B) handling, drying, packing, grading, or storing on a farm any agricultural or horticultural commodity in its unmanufactured state, but only if the owner, tenant, or operator of the farm regularly produces more than one-half of the commodity so treated; and

(C)(i) the planting, cultivating, caring for, or cutting of trees, or

(ii) the preparation (other than milling) of trees for market.

(6) Material participation.—Material participation shall be determined in a manner similar to the manner used for purposes of paragraph (1) of section 1402(a) (relating to net earnings from self-employment).

(7) Method of valuing farms.—

(A) In general.—Except as provided in subparagraph (B), the value of a farm for farming purposes shall be determined by dividing—

(i) the excess of the average annual gross cash rental for comparable land used for farming purposes and located in the locality of such farm over the average annual State and local real estate taxes for such comparable land, by

(ii) the average annual effective interest rate for all new Federal Land Bank loans.

For purposes of the preceding sentence, each average annual computation shall be made on the basis of the 5 most recent calendar years ending before the date of the decedent’s death.

(B) Exception.—The formula provided by subparagraph (A) shall not be used—

(i) where it is established that there is no comparable land from which the average annual gross cash rental may be determined, or

(ii) where the executor elects to have the value of the farm for farming purposes determined under paragraph (8).

(8) Method of valuing closely held business interests, etc.—In any case to which paragraph (7) (A) does not apply, the following factors shall apply in determining the value of any qualified real property:

(A) The capitalization of income which the property can be expected to yield for farming or closely held business purposes over a reasonable period of time under prudent management using traditional cropping patterns for the area, taking into account soil capacity, terrain configuration, and similar factors,

"(B) The capitalization of the fair rental value of the land for farm land or closely held business purposes,

"(C) Assessed land values in a State which provides a differential or use value assessment law for farmland or closely held business,

"(D) Comparable sales of other farm or closely held business land in the same geographical area far enough removed from a metropolitan or resort area so that nonagricultural use is not a significant factor in the sales price, and

"(E) Any other factor which fairly values the farm or closely held business value of the property.

"(f) Statute of Limitations.—If qualified real property is disposed of or ceases to be used for a qualified use, then—

"(1) the statutory period for the assessment of any additional tax under subsection (c) attributable to such disposition or cessation shall not expire before the expiration of 3 years from the date the Secretary is notified (in such manner as the Secretary may by regulations prescribe) of such disposition or cessation, and

"(2) such additional tax may be assessed before the expiration of such 3-year period notwithstanding the provisions of any other law or rule of law which would otherwise prevent such assessment.

"(g) Application of This Section and Section 6324B to Interests in Partnerships, Corporations, and Trusts.—The Secretary shall prescribe regulations setting forth the application of this section and section 6324B in the case of an interest in a partnership, corporation, or trust which, with respect to the decedent, is an interest in a closely held business (within the meaning of paragraph (1) of section 6166(b))."

(b) Special Lien.—Subchapter C of chapter 64 (relating to lien for taxes) is amended by inserting after section 6324A the following new section:

"SEC. 6324B. SPECIAL LIEN FOR ADDITIONAL ESTATE TAX ATTRIBUTABLE TO FARM, ETC., VALUATION.

"(a) General Rule.—In the case of any interest in qualified real property (within the meaning of section 2032A(b)), an amount equal to the adjusted tax difference attributable to such interest (within the meaning of section 2032A(c)(2)(B)) shall be a lien in favor of the United States on the property in which such interest exists.

"(b) Period of Lien.—The lien imposed by this section shall arise at the time an election is filed under section 2032A and shall continue with respect to any interest in the qualified farm real property—

"(1) until the liability for tax under subsection (c) of section 2032A with respect to such interest has been satisfied or has become unenforceable by reason of lapse of time, or

"(2) until it is established to the satisfaction of the Secretary that no further tax liability may arise under section 2032A(c) with respect to such interest.

"(c) Certain Rules Made Applicable.—The rules set forth in paragraphs (1), (3), and (4) of section 6324A(d) shall apply with respect to the lien imposed by this section as if it were a lien imposed by section 6324A.
“(d) Substitution of Security for Lien.—To the extent provided in regulations prescribed by the Secretary, the furnishing of security may be substituted for the lien imposed by this section.”

26 USC 2032A note.

(a) General Rule.—Subchapter B of chapter 62 (relating to extensions of time for payment of tax) is amended by redesignating section 6166 as section 6166A and by inserting after section 6165 the following new section:

“SEC. 6166. Alternate extension of time for payment of estate tax where estate consists largely of interest in closely held business.

“(a) 5-Year Deferral; 10-Year Installment Payment.—

“(1) In general.—If the value of an interest in a closely held business which is included in determining the gross estate of a decedent who was (at the date of his death) a citizen or resident of the United States exceeds 65 percent of the adjusted gross estate, the executor may elect to pay part or all of the tax imposed by section 2001 in 2 or more (but not exceeding 10) equal installments.

“(2) Limitation.—The maximum amount of tax which may be paid in installments under this subsection shall be an amount which bears the same ratio to the tax imposed by section 2001 (reduced by the credits against such tax) as—

“(A) the closely held business amount, bears to “(B) the amount of the adjusted gross estate.

“(3) Date for Payment of Installments.—If an election is made under paragraph (1), the first installment shall be paid on or before the date selected by the executor which is not more than 5 years after the date prescribed by section 6151(a) for payment of the tax, and each succeeding installment shall be paid on or before the date which is 1 year after the date prescribed by this paragraph for payment of the preceding installment.

"(4) Eligibility for election.—No election may be made under this section by the executor of the estate of any decedent if an election under section 6166A applies with respect to the estate of such decedent.

"(b) Definitions and Special Rules.—

"(1) Interest in closely held business.—For purposes of this section, the term 'interest in a closely held business' means—

"(A) an interest as a proprietor in a trade or business carried on as a proprietorship;

"(B) an interest as a partner in a partnership carrying on a trade or business, if—

"(i) 20 percent or more of the total capital interest in such partnership is included in determining the gross estate of the decedent, or

"(ii) such partnership had 15 or fewer partners; or

"(C) stock in a corporation carrying on a trade or business if—

"(i) 20 percent or more in value of the voting stock of such corporation is included in determining the gross estate of the decedent, or

"(ii) such corporation had 15 or fewer shareholders.

"(2) Rules for applying paragraph (1).—For purposes of paragraph (1)—

"(A) Time for testing.—Determinations shall be made as of the time immediately before the decedent's death.

"(B) Certain interests held by husband and wife.—Stock or a partnership interest which—

"(i) is community property of a husband and wife (or the income from which is community income) under the applicable community property law of a State, or

"(ii) is held by a husband and wife as joint tenants, tenants by the entirety, or tenants in common, shall be treated as owned by one shareholder or one partner, as the case may be.

"(C) Indirect ownership.—Property owned, directly or indirectly, by or for a corporation, partnership, estate, or trust shall be considered as being owned proportionately by or for its shareholders, partners, or beneficiaries. For purposes of the preceding sentence, a person shall be treated as a beneficiary of any trust only if such person has a present interest in the trust.

"(3) Farmhouses and certain other structures taken into account.—For purposes of the 65-percent requirement of subsection (a)(1), an interest in a closely held business which is the business of farming includes an interest in residential buildings and related improvements on the farm which are occupied on a regular basis by the owner or lessee of the farm or by persons employed by such owner or lessee for purposes of operating or maintaining the farm.

"(4) Value.—For purposes of this section, value shall be value determined for purposes of chapter 11 (relating to estate tax).

"(5) Closely held business amount.—For purposes of this section, the term 'closely held business amount' means the value of the interest in a closely held business which qualifies under subsection (a)(1).

"(6) ADJUSTED GROSS ESTATE.—For purposes of this section, the term, 'adjusted gross estate' means the value of the gross estate reduced by the sum of the amounts allowable as a deduction under section 2053 or 2054. Such sum shall be determined on the basis of the facts and circumstances in existence on the date (including extensions) for filing the return of tax imposed by section 2001 (or, if earlier, the date on which such return is filed).

"(c) SPECIAL RULE FOR INTERESTS IN 2 OR MORE CLOSELY HELD BUSINESSES.—For purposes of this section, interests in 2 or more closely held businesses, with respect to each of which there is included in determining the value of the decedent's gross estate more than 20 percent of the total value of each such business, shall be treated as an interest in a single closely held business. For purposes of the 20-percent requirement of the preceding sentence, an interest in a closely held business which represents the surviving spouse's interest in property held by the decedent and the surviving spouse as community property or as joint tenants, tenants by the entirety, or tenants in common shall be treated as having been included in determining the value of the decedent's gross estate.

"(d) ELECTION.—Any election under subsection (a) shall be made not later than the time prescribed by section 6075 (a) for filing the return of tax imposed by section 2001 (including extensions thereof), and shall be made in such manner as the Secretary shall by regulations prescribe. If an election under subsection (a) is made, the provisions of this subtitle shall apply as though the Secretary were extending the time for payment of the tax.

"(e) PRORATION OF DEFICIENCY TO INSTALLMENTS.—If an election is made under subsection (a) to pay any part of the tax imposed by section 2001 in installments and a deficiency has been assessed, the deficiency shall (subject to the limitation provided by subsection (a)(2)) be prorated to the installments payable under subsection (a). The part of the deficiency so prorated to any installment the date for payment of which has not arrived shall be collected at the same time as, and as a part of, such installment. The part of the deficiency so prorated to any installment the date for payment of which has arrived shall be paid upon notice and demand from the Secretary. This subsection shall not apply if the deficiency is due to negligence, to intentional disregard of rules and regulations, or to fraud with intent to evade tax.

"(f) TIME FOR PAYMENT OF INTEREST.—If the time for payment of any amount of tax has been extended under this section—

"(1) INTEREST FOR FIRST 5 YEARS.—Interest payable under section 6601 of any unpaid portion of such amount attributable to the first 5 years after the date prescribed by section 6151 (a) for payment of the tax shall be paid annually.

"(2) INTEREST FOR PERIODS AFTER FIRST 5 YEARS.—Interest payable under section 6601 on any unpaid portion of such amount attributable to any period after the 5-year period referred to in paragraph (1) shall be paid annually at the same time as, and as a part of, each installment payment of the tax.

"(3) INTEREST IN THE CASE OF CERTAIN DEFICIENCIES.—In the case of a deficiency to which subsection (e) applies which is assessed after the close of the 5-year period referred to in paragraph (1), interest attributable to such 5-year period, and interest assigned under paragraph (2) to any installment the date for payment of which has arrived on or before the date of the assessment of the deficiency, shall be paid upon notice and demand from the Secretary.

"(4) SELECTION OF SHORTER PERIOD.—If the executor has selected a period shorter than 5 years under subsection (a)(3), such shorter period shall be substituted for 5 years in paragraphs (1), (2), and (3) of this subsection.

"(g) ACCELERATION OF PAYMENT.—

"(1) Disposition of interest; withdrawal of funds from business.—

"(A) If—

"(i) one-third or more in value of an interest in a closely held business which qualifies under subsection (a)(1) is distributed, sold, exchanged, or otherwise disposed of, or

"(ii) aggregate withdrawals of money and other property from the trade or business, an interest in which qualifies under subsection (a)(1), made with respect to such interest, equal or exceed one-third of the value of such trade or business, then the extension of time for payment of tax provided in subsection (a) shall cease to apply, and any unpaid portion of the tax payable in installments shall be paid upon notice and demand from the Secretary.

"(B) In the case of a distribution in redemption of stock to which section 303 (or so much of section 304 as relates to section 303) applies—

"(i) subparagraph (A)(i) does not apply with respect to the stock redeemed; and for purposes of such subparagraph the interest in the closely held business shall be considered to be such interest reduced by the value of the stock redeemed, and

"(ii) subparagraph (A)(ii) does not apply with respect to withdrawals of money and other property distributed; and for purposes of such subparagraph the value of the trade or business shall be considered to be such value reduced by the amount of money and other property distributed.

This subparagraph shall apply only if, on or before the date prescribed by subsection (a)(3) for the payment of the first installment which becomes due after the date of the distribution (or, if earlier, on or before the day which is 1 year after the date of the distribution), there is paid an amount of the tax imposed by section 2001 not less than the amount of money and other property distributed.

"(C) Subparagraph (A)(i) does not apply to an exchange of stock pursuant to a plan of reorganization described in subparagraph (D), (E), or (F) of section 368(a)(1) nor to an exchange to which section 355 (or so much of section 356 as relates to section 355) applies; but any stock received in such an exchange shall be treated for purposes of subparagraph (A)(i) as an interest qualifying under subsection (a)(1).

"(D) Subparagraph (A)(i) does not apply to a transfer of property of the decedent to a person entitled by reason of the decedent's death to receive such property under the decedent's will, the applicable law of descent and distribution, or a trust created by the decedent.

"(2) Undistributed income of estate.—

"(A) If an election is made under this section and the estate has undistributed net income for any taxable year ending on or after the due date for the first installment, the executor shall, on or before the date prescribed by law for filing the income tax return for such taxable year (including extensions thereof), pay an amount equal to such undistributed net income in liquidation of the unpaid portion of the tax payable in installments.

"(B) For purposes of subparagraph (A), the undistributed net income of the estate for any taxable year is the amount by which the distributable net income of the estate for such taxable year (as defined in section 643) exceeds the sum of—

"(i) the amounts for such taxable year specified in paragraphs (1) and (2) of section 661(a) (relating to deductions for distributions, etc.);

"(ii) the amount of tax imposed for the taxable year on the estate under chapter 1; and

"(iii) the amount of the tax imposed by section 2001 (including interest) paid by the executor during the taxable year (other than any amount paid pursuant to this paragraph).

"(3) Failure to pay installment.—If any installment under this section is not paid on or before the date fixed for its payment by this section (including any extension of time for the payment of such installment), the unpaid portion of the tax payable in installments shall be paid upon notice and demand from the Secretary.

"(h) Election in case of certain deficiencies.—

"(1) In general.—If—

"(A) a deficiency in the tax imposed by section 2001 is assessed,

"(B) the estate qualifies under subsection (a)(1), and

"(C) the executor has not made an election under subsection (a), the executor may elect to pay the deficiency in installments. This subsection shall not apply if the deficiency is due to negligence, to intentional disregard of rules and regulations, or to fraud with intent to evade tax.

"(2) Time of election.—An election under this subsection shall be made not later than 60 days after issuance of notice and demand by the Secretary for the payment of the deficiency, and shall be made in such manner as the Secretary shall by regulations prescribe.

"(3) Effect of election on payment.—If an election is made under this subsection, the deficiency shall (subject to the limitation provided by subsection (a)(2)) be prorated to the installments which would have been due if an election had been timely made under subsection (a) at the time the estate tax return was filed. The part of the deficiency so prorated to any installment the date for payment of which would have arrived shall be paid at the time of the making of the election under this subsection. The portion of the deficiency so prorated to installments the date for payment of which would not have so arrived shall be paid at the time such installments would have been due if such an election had been made.

"(i) Regulations.—The Secretary shall prescribe such regulations as may be necessary to the application of this section.

"(j) Cross References.—

"(1) Security.—
For authority of the Secretary to require security in the case of an extension under this section, see section 6165.

"(2) Lien.—
For special lien (in lieu of bond) in the case of an extension under this section, see section 6324A.

"(3) Period of limitation.—
For extension of the period of limitation in the case of an extension under this section, see section 6503(d).

"(4) Interest.—
For provisions relating to interest on tax payable in installments under this section, see subsection (j) of section 6601.

(b) 4-Percent Interest Rate.—Section 6601 (relating to interest on underpayment, nonpayment, or extension of time for payment of tax) is amended by redesignating subsection (j) as subsection (k) and by inserting after subsection (i) the following new subsection:

"(j) 4-Percent Rate on Certain Portion of Estate Tax Extended
Under Section 6166.—

"(1) In general.—If the time for payment of an amount of tax imposed by chapter 11 is extended as provided in section 6166, interest on the 4-percent portion of such amount shall (in lieu of the annual rate provided by subsection (a)) be paid at the rate of 4 percent. For purposes of this subsection, the amount of any deficiency which is prorated to installments payable under section 6166 shall be treated as an amount of tax payable in installments under such section.

"(2) 4-Percent Portion.—For purposes of this subsection, the term '4-percent portion' means the lesser of—

"(A) $345,800 reduced by the amount of the credit allowable under section 2010(a); or

"(B) the amount of the tax imposed by chapter 11 which is extended as provided in section 6166.

"(3) Treatment of Payments.—If the amount of tax imposed by chapter 11 which is extended as provided in section 6166 exceeds the 4-percent portion, any payment of a portion of such amount shall, for purposes of computing interest for periods after such payment, be treated as reducing the 4-percent portion by an amount which bears the same ratio to the amount of such payment as the amount of the 4-percent portion (determined without regard to this paragraph) bears to the amount of the tax which is extended as provided in section 6166.

(c) Reasonable Cause Substituted for Undue Hardship in Determining Eligibility for Extensions of Payment of Estate Tax.—

(1) Paragraph (2) of section 6161(a) (relating to extension of time for paying estate tax) is amended to read as follows:

"(2) Estate tax.—The Secretary may, for reasonable cause, extend the time for payment of—

"(A) any part of the amount determined by the executor as the tax imposed by chapter 11, or

"(B) any part of any installment under section 6166 or 6166A (including any part of a deficiency prorated to any installment under such section),

26 USC 6601.
for a reasonable period not in excess of 10 years from the date prescribed by section 6151(a) for payment of the tax (or, in the case of an amount referred to in subparagraph (B), if later, not beyond the date which is 12 months after the due date for the last installment)."

26 USC 6161.

(2) Subsection (b) of section 6161 (relating to extension of time for payment of certain deficiencies) is amended to read as follows:

"(b) AMOUNT DETERMINED AS DEFICIENCY.—

"(1) INCOME, GIFT, AND CERTAIN OTHER TAXES.—Under regulations prescribed by the Secretary, the Secretary may extend the time for the payment of the amount determined as a deficiency of a tax imposed by chapter 1, 12, 41, 42, 43, or 44 for a period not to exceed 18 months from the date fixed for the payment of the deficiency, and in exceptional cases, for a further period not to exceed 12 months. An extension under this paragraph may be granted only where it is shown to the satisfaction of the Secretary that payment of a deficiency upon the date fixed for the payment thereof will result in undue hardship to the taxpayer in the case of a tax imposed by chapter 1, 41, 42, 43, or 44, or to the donor in the case of a tax imposed by chapter 12.

"(2) ESTATE TAX.—Under regulations prescribed by the Secretary, the Secretary may, for reasonable cause, extend the time for the payment of any deficiency of a tax imposed by chapter 11 for a reasonable period not to exceed 4 years from the date otherwise fixed for the payment of the deficiency.

"(3) NO EXTENSION FOR CERTAIN DEFICIENCIES.—No extension shall be granted under this subsection for any deficiency if the deficiency is due to negligence, to intentional disregard of rules and regulations, or to fraud with intent to evade tax."

(3) Subsection (b) of section 6163 (relating to extension to prevent undue hardship in case of reversionary or remainder interest) is amended to read as follows:

"(b) EXTENSION FOR REASONABLE CAUSE.—At the expiration of the period of postponement provided for in subsection (a), the Secretary may, for reasonable cause, extend the time for payment for a reasonable period or periods not in excess of 3 years from the expiration of the period of postponement provided in subsection (a)."

26 USC 6503.

(4) Subsection (d) of section 6503 (relating to extensions of time for payment of estate tax) is amended by striking out "section 6166" and inserting in lieu thereof "section 6163, 6166, or 6166A."

(d) SPECIAL LIEN FOR ESTATE TAX DEFERRED UNDER SECTION 6166.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Subchapter C of chapter 64 (relating to lien for taxes) is amended by inserting after section 6324 the following new section:

26 USC 6324A. "SEC. 6324A. SPECIAL LIEN FOR ESTATE TAX DEFERRED UNDER SECTION 6166 OR 6166A.

"(a) GENERAL RULE.—In the case of any estate with respect to which an election has been made under section 6166 or 6166A, if the executor makes an election under this section (at such time and in such manner as the Secretary shall by regulations prescribe) and files the agreement referred to in subsection (c), the deferred amount (plus any interest, additional amount, addition to tax, assessable penalty, and costs attributable to the deferred amount) shall be a lien in favor of the United States on the section 6166 lien property.

"(b) SECTION 6166 LIEN PROPERTY.—
“(1) In General.—For purposes of this section, the term ‘section 6166 lien property’ means interests in real and other property to the extent such interests—

“(A) can be expected to survive the deferral period, and “(B) are designated in the agreement referred to in subsection (c).

“(2) Maximum Value of Required Property.—The maximum value of the property which the Secretary may require as section 6166 lien property with respect to any estate shall be a value which is not greater than the sum of—

“(A) the deferred amount, and “(B) the aggregate interest amount.

For purposes of the preceding sentence, the value of any property shall be determined as of the date prescribed by section 6151 (a) for payment of the tax imposed by chapter 11 and shall be determined by taking into account any encumbrance such as a lien under section 6324B.

“(3) Partial Substitution of Bond for Lien.—If the value required as section 6166 lien property pursuant to paragraph (2) exceeds the value of the interests in property covered by the agreement referred to in subsection (c), the Secretary may accept bond in an amount equal to such excess conditioned on the payment of the amount extended in accordance with the terms of such extension.

“(c) Agreement.—The agreement referred to in this subsection is a written agreement signed by each person in being who has an interest (whether or not in possession) in any property designated in such agreement—

“(1) consenting to the creation of the lien under this section with respect to such property, and

“(2) designating a responsible person who shall be the agent for the beneficiaries of the estate and for the persons who have consented to the creation of the lien in dealings with the Secretary on matters arising under section 6166 or 6166A or this section.

“(d) Special Rules.—

“(1) Requirement That Lien Be Filed.—The lien imposed by this section shall not be valid as against any purchaser, holder of a security interest, mechanic’s lien, or judgment lien creditor until notice thereof which meets the requirements of section 6323 (f) has been filed by the Secretary. Such notice shall not be required to be refiled.

“(2) Period of Lien.—The lien imposed by this section shall arise at the time the executor is discharged from liability under section 2204 (or, if earlier, at the time notice is filed pursuant to paragraph (1)) and shall continue until the liability for the deferred amount is satisfied or becomes unenforceable by reason of lapse of time.

“(3) Priorities.—Even though notice of a lien imposed by this section has been filed as provided in paragraph (1), such lien shall not be valid—

“(A) Real Property Tax and Special Assessment Liens.—To the extent provided in section 6323(b) (6).

“(B) Real Property Subject to a Mechanic’s Lien for Repairs and Improvements.—In the case of any real property subject to a lien for repair or improvement, as against a mechanic’s lienor.
“(C) Real property construction or improvement financing agreement.—As against any security interest set forth in paragraph (3) of section 6323(c) (whether such security interest came into existence before or after tax lien filing), Subparagraphs (B) and (C) shall not apply to any security interest which came into existence after the date on which the Secretary filed notice (in a manner similar to notice filed under section 6323(f)) that payment of the deferred amount has been accelerated under section 6166(g) or 6166A(h).

“(4) Lien to be in lieu of section 6324 lien.—If there is a lien under this section on any property with respect to any estate, there shall not be any lien under section 6324 on such property with respect to the same estate.

“(5) Additional lien property required in certain cases.—If at any time the value of the property covered by the agreement is less than the unpaid portion of the deferred amount and the aggregate interest amount, the Secretary may require the addition of property to the agreement (but he may not require under this paragraph that the value of the property covered by the agreement exceed such unpaid portion). If property having the required value is not added to the property covered by the agreement (or if other security equal to the required value is not furnished) within 90 days after notice and demand therefor by the Secretary, the failure to comply with the preceding sentence shall be treated as an act accelerating payment of the installments under section 6166(g) or 6166A(h).

“(6) Lien to be in lieu of bond.—The Secretary may not require under section 6165 the furnishing of any bond for the payment of any tax to which an agreement which meets the requirements of subsection (c) applies.

“(e) Definitions.—For purposes of this section—

“(1) Deferred amount.—The term ‘deferred amount’ means the aggregate amount deferred under section 6166 or 6166A (determined as of the date prescribed by section 6151(a) for payment of the tax imposed by chapter 11).

“(2) Aggregate interest amount.—The term ‘aggregate interest amount’ means the aggregate amount of interest which will be payable over the deferral period with respect to the deferred amount (determined as of the date prescribed by section 6151(a) for payment of the tax imposed by chapter 11).

“(3) Deferral period.—The term ‘deferral period’ means the period for which the payment of tax is deferred pursuant to the election under section 6166 or 6166A.

“(4) Application of definitions in case of deficiencies.—In the case of a deficiency, a separate deferred amount, aggregate interest amount, and deferral period shall be determined as of the due date of the first installment after the deficiency is prorated to installments under section 6166 or 6166A.’’

(2) Discharge of executor from personal liability.—Section 26 USC 2204 (relating to discharge of fiduciary from personal liability) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

“(c) Special lien under section 6324A.—For purposes of the second sentence of subsection (a) and the last sentence of subsection (b), an agreement which meets the requirements of section 6324A (relating to special lien for estate tax deferred under section 6166 or 6166A) shall be treated as the furnishing of bond with respect to the amount for which the time for payment has been extended under section 6166 or 6166A.”

(e) Amendments of Section 303.—

(1) Extension of Period for Distribution.—Paragraph (1) of section 303(b) (relating to distributions in redemption of stock to pay death taxes) is amended by striking out “or” at the end of subparagraph (A), by striking out the period at the end of subparagraph (B) and inserting in lieu thereof “, or ”, and by adding at the end thereof the following new subparagraph:

“(C) If an election has been made under section 6166 or 6166A and if the time prescribed by this subparagraph expires at a later date than the time determined under section 6166 or 6166A for the payment of the installments.”

(2) Relationship of Stock to Decedent’s Estate.—

(A) Subparagraph (A) of section 303(b) (2) is amended to read as follows:

“(A) In General.—Subsection (a) shall apply to a distribution by a corporation only if the value (for Federal estate tax purposes) of all of the stock of such corporation which is included in determining the value of the decedent’s gross estate exceeds 50 percent of the excess of—

“(i) the value of the gross estate of such decedent, over
“(ii) the sum of the amounts allowable as a deduction under section 2053 or 2054.”

(B) The first sentence of subparagraph (B) of section 303 (b) (2) is amended by striking out “the 35 percent and 50 percent requirements” and inserting in lieu thereof “the 50 percent requirement”.

(3) Relationship of Shareholder to Estate Tax.—Subsection (b) of section 303 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraphs:

“(3) Relationship of Shareholder to Estate Tax.—Subsection (a) shall apply to a distribution by a corporation only to the extent that the interest of the shareholder is reduced directly (or through a binding obligation to contribute) by any payment of an amount described in paragraph (1) or (2) of subsection (a).

“(4) Additional Requirements for Distributions Made More Than 4 Years After Decedent’s Death.—In the case of amounts distributed more than 4 years after the date of the decedent’s death, subsection (a) shall apply to a distribution by a corporation only to the extent of the lesser of—

“(A) the aggregate of the amounts referred to in paragraph (1) or (2) of subsection (a) which remained unpaid immediately before the distribution, or “(B) the aggregate of the amounts referred to in paragraph (1) or (2) of subsection (a) which are paid during the 1-year period beginning on the date of such distribution.”

(4) Stock with Substituted Basis.—Subsection (c) of section 303 (relating to stock with substituted basis) is amended by striking out “limitation specified in subsection (b)(1)” and inserting in lieu thereof “limitations specified in subsection (b)”.

(f) Technical, Clerical, and Conforming Changes.—

(1) The table of sections for subchapter C of chapter 64 is amended by inserting after the item relating to section 6324 the following new item:
"Sec. 6324A. Special lien for estate tax deferred under section 6166 or 6166A."

26 USC 7403.
(2) Section 7403(a) (relating to action to enforce lien or to subject property to payment of tax) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new sentence: "For purposes of the preceding sentence, any acceleration of payment under section 6166 (g) or 6166A(h) shall be treated as a neglect to pay tax."

Ante, p. 1862.
26 USC 2011.
(3) Paragraph (2) of section 2011(c) (relating to credit for State death taxes) is amended by striking out "section 6161" and inserting in lieu thereof "section 6161, 6166 or 6166A."

26 USC 2204.
(4) The last sentence of section 2204(b) is amended by striking out "has not been extended under" and inserting in lieu thereof "has been extended under".

(5) The table of sections for subchapter B of chapter 62 is amended by striking out the item relating to section 6166 and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"Sec. 6166. Alternate extension of time for payment of estate tax where estate consists largely of interest in closely held business.

"Sec. 6166A. Extension of time for payment of estate tax where estate tax consists largely of interest in closely held business."

(6) Subsections (a) and (b) of section 2204 (relating to discharge of fiduciary from personal liability) are as amended by striking out "or 6166" and inserting in lieu thereof "6166 or 6166A."

26 USC 6166
(g) Effective Date.—The amendments made by this section shall apply to the estates of decedents dying after December 31, 1976.

SEC. 2005. CARRYOVER BASIS.
(a) General Rule.—

26 USC 1014.
(1) Amendment of section 1014.—Subsection (d) of section 1014 (relating to basis of property acquired from a decedent) is amended to read as follows:

"(d) Decedents Dying After December 31, 1976.—In the case of a decedent dying after December 31, 1976, the section shall not apply to any property for which a carryover basis is provided by section 1023."

(2) Carryover Basis.—Part II of subchapter O of chapter 1 (relating to basis rules of general application) is amended by redesignating section 1023 as section 1024 and by inserting after section 1022 the following new section:

26 USC 1023.
"SEC. 1023. CARRYOVER BASIS FOR CERTAIN PROPERTY ACQUIRED FROM A DECEDED DATING AFTER DECEMBER 31, 1976.

"(a) General Rule.—

"(1) Carryover Basis.—Except as otherwise provided in this section, the basis of carryover basis property acquired from a decedent dying after December 31, 1976, in the hands of the person so acquiring it shall be the adjusted basis of the property immediately before the death of the decedent, further adjusted as provided in this section.

"(2) Loss on Personal and Household Effects.—In the case of any carryover basis property which, in the hands of the decedent, was a personal or household effect, for purposes of determining loss, the basis of such property in the hands of the person acquiring such property from the decedent shall not exceed its fair market value.

"(b) Carryover Basis Property Defined.—

"(1) In General.—For purposes of this section, the term 'carryover basis property' means any property which is acquired from or passed from a decedent (within the meaning of section 1014(b)) and which is not excluded pursuant to paragraph (2) or (3).

"(2) Certain property not carryover basis property.—The term 'carryover basis property' does not include—

"(A) any item of gross income in respect of a decedent described in section 691;

"(B) property described in section 2042 (relating to proceeds of life insurance);

"(C) a joint and survivor annuity under which the surviving annuitant is taxable under section 72, and payments and distributions under a deferred compensation plan described in part I of subchapter D of chapter 1 to the extent such payments and distributions are taxable to the decedent's beneficiary under chapter 1;

"(D) property included in the decedent's gross estate by reason of section 2035, 2038, or 2041 which has been disposed of before the decedent's death in a transaction in which gain or loss is recognizable for purposes of chapter 1;

"(E) stock or a stock option passing from the decedent to the extent income in respect of such stock or stock option is includable in gross income under section 422(c)(1), 423(c), or 424(c)(1); and

"(F) property described in section 1014(b)(5).

"(3) $10,000 exclusion for certain assets.—

"(A) Exclusion.—The term 'carryover basis property' does not include any asset—

"(i) which, in the hands of the decedent, was a personal or household effect, and

"(ii) with respect to which the executor has made an election under this paragraph.

"(B) Limitation.—The fair market value of all assets designated under this subsection with respect to any decedent shall not exceed $10,000.

"(C) Election.—An election under this paragraph with respect to any asset shall be made by the executor not later than the date prescribed by section 6075(a) for filing the return of the tax imposed by section 2001 or 2101 (including extensions thereof), and shall be made in such manner as the Secretary shall by regulations prescribe.

"(c) Increase in basis for Federal and State estate taxes attributable to appreciation.—The basis of appreciated carryover basis property (determined after any adjustment under subsection (h)) which is subject to the tax imposed by section 2001 or 2101 in the hands of the person acquiring it from the decedent shall be increased by an amount which bears the same ratio to the Federal and State estate taxes as—

"(1) the net appreciation in value of such property, bears to

"(2) the fair market value of all property which is subject to the tax imposed by section 2001 or 2101.

"(d) $60,000 minimum for bases of carryover basis properties.—

"(1) In general.—If $60,000 exceeds the aggregate bases (as determined after any adjustment under subsection (h) or (c)) of all carryover basis property, the basis of each appreciated carryover basis property (after any adjustment under subsection (h) or (c)) shall be increased by an amount which bears the same ratio to the amount of such excess as—“(A) the net appreciation in value of such property, bears to “(B) the net appreciation in value of all such property.
“(2) Special rule for personal or household effect.—For purposes of paragraph (1), the basis of any property which is a personal or household effect shall be treated as not greater than the fair market value of such property.
“(3) Nonresident not citizen.—This subsection shall not apply to any carryover basis property acquired from any decedent who was (at the time of his death) a nonresident not a citizen of the United States.

“(e) Further increase in basis for certain state succession tax paid by transferee of property.—If—
“(1) any person acquires appreciated carryover basis property from a decedent, and
“(2) such person actually pays an amount of estate, inheritance, legacy, or succession taxes with respect to such property to any State or the District of Columbia for which the estate is not liable, then the basis of such property (after any adjustment under subsection (h), (c), or (d)) shall be increased by an amount which bears the same ratio to the aggregate amount of all such taxes paid by such person as—
“(A) the net appreciation in value of such property, bears to “(B) the fair market value of all property acquired by such person which is subject to such taxes.

“(f) Special rules and definitions for application of subsections (c), (d), and (e).—
“(1) Fair market value limitation.—The adjustments under subsections (c), (d), and (e) shall not increase the basis of property above its fair market value.
“(2) Net appreciation.—For purposes of this section, the net appreciation in value of any property is the amount by which the fair market value of such property exceeds the adjusted basis of such property immediately before the death of the decedent (as determined after any adjustment under subsection (h)). For purposes of subsection (d), such adjusted basis shall be increased by the amount of any adjustment under subsection (c), and, for purposes of subsection (e), such adjusted basis shall be increased by the amount of any adjustment under subsection (c) or (d).
“(3) Federal and state estate taxes.—For purposes of subsection (c), the term 'Federal and State estate taxes' means—
“(A) the tax imposed by section 2001 or 2101, reduced by the credits against such tax, and “(B) any estate, inheritance, legacy, or succession taxes, for which the estate is liable, actually paid by the estate to any State or the District of Columbia.
“(4) Certain marital and charitable deduction property treated as not subject to tax.—For purposes of subsections (c) and (e), property shall be treated as not subject to a tax—
“(A) with respect to the tax imposed by section 2001 or 2101, to the extent that a deduction is allowable with respect to such property under section 2055 or 2056 or under section 2106(a) (2), and
“(B) with respect to State estate taxes and with respect to the State taxes referred to in subsection (e) (2), to the extent that such property is not subject to such taxes.
“(5) Appreciated carryover basis property.—For purposes of this section, the term ‘appreciated carryover basis property’ means any carryover basis property if the fair market value of such property exceeds the adjusted basis of such property immediately before the death of the decedent.

“(g) Other Special Rules and Definitions.—

“(1) Fair market value.—For purposes of this section, when not otherwise distinctly expressed, the term ‘fair market value’ means value as determined under chapter 11.

“(3) Decedent’s basis unknown.—If the facts necessary to determine the basis (unadjusted) of carryover basis property immediately before the death of the decedent are unknown to the person acquiring such property from the decedent, such basis shall be treated as being the fair market value of such property as of the date (or approximate date) at which such property was acquired by the decedent or by the last preceding owner in whose hands it did not have a basis determined in whole or in part by reference to its basis in the hands of a prior holder.

“(4) Certain mortgages.—For purposes of subsections (c), (d), and (e), if—

“(A) there is an unpaid mortgage on, or indebtedness in respect of, property, “(B) such mortgage or indebtedness does not constitute a liability of the estate, and

“(C) such property is included in the gross estate undiminished by such mortgage or indebtedness, then the fair market value of such property to be treated as included in the gross estate shall be the fair market value of such property, diminished by such mortgage or indebtedness.

“(h) Adjustment to Basis for December 31, 1976, Fair Market Value.—

“(1) Marketable bonds and securities.—If the adjusted basis immediately before the death of the decedent of any property which is carryover basis property reflects the adjusted basis of any marketable bond or security on December 31, 1976, and if the fair market value of such bond or security on December 31, 1976, exceeded its adjusted basis on such date, then, for purposes of determining gain, the adjusted basis of such property shall be increased by the amount of such excess.

“(2) Property other than marketable bonds and securities.—

“(A) In general.—If—

“(i) the adjusted basis immediately before the death of the decedent of any property which is carryover basis property reflects the adjusted basis on December 31, 1976, of any property other than a marketable bond or security, and

“(ii) the value of such carryover basis property (as determined with respect to the estate of the decedent without regard to section 2032) exceeds the adjusted basis of such property immediately before the death of the decedent (determined without regard to this subsection), then, for purposes of determining gain, the adjusted basis of such property immediately before the death of the decedent...

(determined without regard to this subsection) shall be increased by the amount determined under subparagraph (B).

"(B) AMOUNT OF INCREASE.—The amount of the increase under this subparagraph for any property is the sum of—

"(i) the excess referred to in subparagraph (A)(ii), reduced by an amount equal to all adjustments for depreciation, amortization, or depletion for the holding period of such property, and then multiplied by the applicable fraction determined under subparagraph (C), and

"(ii) the adjustments to basis for depreciation, amortization, or depletion which are attributable to that portion of the holding period for such property which occurs before January 1, 1977.

"(C) APPLICABLE FRACTION.—For purposes of subparagraph (B)(i), the term ‘applicable fraction’ means, with respect to any property, a fraction—

"(i) the numerator of which is the number of days in the holding period with respect to such property which occurs before January 1, 1977, and

"(ii) the denominator of which is the total number of days in such holding period.

"(D) SUBSTANTIAL IMPROVEMENTS.—Under regulations prescribed by the Secretary, if there is a substantial improvement of any property, such substantial improvement shall be treated as a separate property for purposes of this paragraph.

"(E) DEFINITIONS.—For purposes of this paragraph—

"(i) The term ‘marketable bond or security’ means any security for which, as of December 1976, there was a market on a stock exchange, in an over-the-counter market, or otherwise.

"(ii) The term ‘holding period’ means, with respect to any carryover basis property, the period during which the decedent (or, if any other person held such property immediately before the death of the decedent, such other person) held such property as determined under section 1223; except that such period shall end on the date of the decedent’s death.

"(i) REGULATIONS.—The Secretary shall prescribe such regulations as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this section.”

26 USC 1016.

(3) AMENDMENT OF SECTION 1016.—Section 1016(a) (relating to adjustments to basis) is amended by striking out the period at the end thereof and by inserting in lieu thereof a semicolon and by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

"(23) to the extent provided in section 1023, relating to carryover basis for certain property acquired from a decedent dying after December 31, 1976.”

26 USC 691.

(A) Section 691(c)(2)(A) (relating to deduction for estate tax in case of income in respect of decedents) is amended to read as follows:

"(A) The term ‘estate tax’ means Federal and State estate taxes (within the meaning of section 1023(f)(3)).”

(B) Section 691(c)(2)(C) is amended to read as follows:

"(C) The estate tax attributable to such net value shall be an amount which bears the same ratio to the estate tax as such net value bears to the value of the gross estate.”
(5) Repeal of section 1246(e).—Section 1246 (relating to gain on foreign investment company stock) is amended by striking out subsection (e) and by redesignating subsections (f) and (g) as subsections (e) and (f), respectively.

(b) Nonrecognition of gain where certain appreciated carryover basis property is used in satisfaction of a pecuniary request.—Part III of subchapter O of chapter 1 (relating to common nontaxable exchanges) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

"SEC. 1040. USE OF CERTAIN APPRECIATED CARRYOVER BASIS PROPERTY TO SATISFY PECUNIARY REQUEST."

"(a) General Rule.—If the executor of the estate of any decedent satisfies the right of any person to receive a pecuniary bequest with appreciated carryover basis property (as defined in section 1023(f)(5)), then gain on such exchange shall be recognized to the estate only to the extent that, on the date of such exchange, the fair market value of such property exceeds the value of such property for purposes of chapter 11.

"(b) Similar Rule for Certain Trusts.—To the extent provided in regulations prescribed by the Secretary, a rule similar to the rule provided in subsection (a) shall apply where—

"(1) by reason of the death of the decedent, a person has a right to receive from a trust a specific dollar amount which is the equivalent of a pecuniary bequest, and

"(2) the trustee of the trust satisfies such right with carryover basis property to which section 1023 applies.

"(c) Basis of Property Acquired in Exchange Described in Subsection (a) or (b).—The basis of property acquired in an exchange with respect to which gain realized is not recognized by reason of subsection (a) or (b) shall be the basis of such property immediately before the exchange, increased by the amount of the gain recognized to the estate or trust on the exchange."

(c) Limitation of Increase in Basis for Gift Tax Paid to That Portion of Gift Tax Attributable to Net Appreciation in Value.—Subsection (d) of section 1015 (relating to increased basis for gift tax paid) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

"(6) Special Rule for Gifts Made After December 31, 1976.—

(A) In General.—In the case of any gift made after December 31, 1976, the increase in basis provided by this subsection with respect to any gift for the gift tax paid under chapter 12 shall be an amount (not in excess of the amount of tax so paid) which bears the same ratio to the amount of tax so paid as—"(i) the net appreciation in value of the gift, bears to

"(ii) the amount of the gift.

"(B) Net Appreciation.—For purposes of paragraph (1), the net appreciation in value of any gift is the amount by which the fair market value of the gift exceeds the donor's adjusted basis immediately before the gift."

(d) Information Requirement.—

(1) In General.—Subpart A of part III of subchapter A of chapter 61 (relating to information concerning persons subject to special provisions) is amended by inserting after section 6039 the following new section:
"SEC. 6039A. INFORMATION REGARDING CARRYOVER BASIS PROPERTY ACQUIRED FROM A DECEDENT.

(a) In General.—Every executor (as defined in section 2203) shall furnish the Secretary such information with respect to carryover basis property to which section 1023 applies as the Secretary may by regulations prescribe.

(b) Statements To Be Furnished to Persons Who Acquire Property From a Decedent.—Every executor who is required to furnish information under subsection (a) shall furnish in writing to each person acquiring an item of such property from the decedent (or to whom the item passes from the decedent) the adjusted basis of such item.

(2) Penalties.—Subchapter B of chapter 68 (relating to assessable penalties) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

"SEC. 6694. FAILURE TO FILE INFORMATION WITH RESPECT TO CARRYOVER BASIS PROPERTY.

(a) Information Required To Be Furnished to the Secretary.—Any executor who fails to furnish information required under subsection (a) of section 6039A on the date prescribed therefor (determined with regard to any extension of time for filing), unless it is shown that such failure is due to reasonable cause and not to wilful neglect, shall pay a penalty of $100 for each such failure, but the total amount imposed for all such failures shall not exceed $5,000.

(b) Information Required To Be Furnished to Beneficiaries.—Any executor who fails to furnish in writing to each person described in subsection (b) of section 6039A the information required under such subsection, unless it is shown that such failure is due to reasonable cause and not to wilful neglect, shall pay a penalty of $50 for each such failure, but the total amount imposed for all such failures shall not exceed $2,500.

(e) Clerical Amendments.—

(1) The table of sections for part II of subchapter O of chapter 1 is amended by striking out the item relating to section 1023 and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"Sec. 1024. Cross references."

(2) The table of sections for part III of subchapter O of chapter 1 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

"Sec. 1040. Use of certain appreciated carryover basis property to satisfy pecuniary bequest."

(3) The table of sections for part III of subchapter A of chapter 61 is amended by inserting after the item relating to section 6039 the following:

"Sec. 6039A. Information regarding carryover basis property acquired from a decedent."

(4) The table of sections for subchapter B of chapter 68 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

"Sec. 6694. Failure to file information with respect to carryover basis property."

(f) Effective Dates.—

(1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), the amendments made by this section shall apply in respect of decedents dying after December 31, 1976.
SEC. 2006. CERTAIN GENERATION-SKIPPING TRANSFERS.

(a) Imposition of Tax.—Subtitle B (relating to estate and gift taxes) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new chapter:

"CHAPTER 13—TAX ON CERTAIN GENERATION-SKIPPING TRANSFERS

"Subchapter A. Tax imposed.
"Subchapter B. Definitions and special rules.
"Subchapter C. Administration.

"Subchapter A—Tax Imposed

Sec. 2601. Tax imposed.
Sec. 2602. Amount of tax.
Sec. 2603. Liability for tax.

"SEC. 2601. TAX IMPOSED.

A tax is hereby imposed on every generation-skipping transfer in the amount determined under section 2602.

"SEC. 2602. AMOUNT OF TAX.

(a) General Rule.—The amount of the tax imposed by section 2601 with respect to any transfer shall be the excess of—

(1) a tentative tax computed in accordance with the rate schedule set forth in section 2001(c) (as in effect on the date of transfer) on the sum of—

(A) the fair market value of the property transferred determined as of the date of transfer (or in the case of an election under subsection (d), as of the applicable valuation date prescribed by section 2032),

(B) the aggregate fair market value (determined for purposes of this chapter) of all prior transfers of the deemed transferor to which this chapter applied,

(C) the amount of the adjusted taxable gifts (within the meaning of section 2001(b)) made by the deemed transferor before this transfer, and

(D) if the deemed transferor has died at the same time as, or before, this transfer, the taxable estate of the deemed transferor, over

(2) a tentative tax (similarly computed) on the sum of the amounts determined under subparagraphs (B), (C), and (D) of paragraph (1).

(b) Multiple Simultaneous Transfers.—If two or more transfers which are taxable under section 2601 and which have the same deemed transferor occur by reason of the same event, the tax imposed by section 2601 on each such transfer shall be the amount which bears the same ratio to—

(1) the amount of the tax which would be imposed by section 2601 if the aggregate of such transfers were a single transfer, as

(2) the fair market value of the property transferred in such transfer bears to the aggregate fair market value of all property transferred in such transfers.

(c) Deductions, Credits, Etc.—
“(1) GENERAL RULE.—Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, no deduction, exclusion, exemption, or credit shall be allowed against the tax imposed by section 2601.

“(2) CHARITABLE DEDUCTIONS ALLOWED.—The deduction under section 2055, 2106(a) (2), or 2522, whichever is appropriate, shall be allowed in determining the tax imposed by section 2601.

“(3) UNUSED PORTION OF UNIFIED CREDIT.—If the generation-skipping transfer occurs at the same time as, or after, the death of the deemed transferor, then the portion of the credit under section 2010(a) (relating to unified credit) which exceeds the sum of—

“(A) the tax imposed by section 2001, and

shall be allowed as a credit against the tax imposed by section 2601. The amount of the credit allowed by the preceding sentence shall not exceed the amount of the tax imposed by section 2601.

“(4) CREDIT FOR TAX ON PRIOR TRANSFERS.—The credit under section 2013 (relating to credit for tax on prior transfers) shall be allowed against the tax imposed by section 2601. For purposes of the preceding sentence, section 2013 shall be applied as if so much of the property subject to tax under section 2601 as is not taken into account for purposes of determining the credit allowable by section 2013 with respect to the estate of the deemed transferor passed from the transferor (as defined in section 2013) to the deemed transferor.

“(5) COORDINATION WITH ESTATE TAX.—

“(A) ADJUSTMENTS TO MARITAL DEDUCTION.—If the generation-skipping transfer occurs at the same time as, or within 9 months after, the death of the deemed transferor, for purposes of section 2056 (relating to bequests, etc., to surviving spouse), the value of the gross estate of the deemed transferor shall be deemed to be increased by the amount of such transfer.

“(B) CERTAIN EXPENSES ATTRIBUTABLE TO GENERATION-SKIPPING TRANSFER.—If the generation-skipping transfer occurs at the same time as, or after, the death of the deemed transferor, for purposes of this section, the amount taken into account with respect to such transfer shall be reduced—

“(i) in the case of a taxable termination, by any item referred to in section 2053 or 2054 to the extent that a deduction would have been allowable under such section for such item if the amount of the trust had been includible in the deemed transferor’s gross estate and if the deemed transferor had died immediately before such transfer, or

“(ii) in the case of a taxable distribution, by any expense incurred in connection with the determination, collection, or refund of the tax imposed by section 2601 on such transfer.

“(C) CREDIT FOR STATE INHERITANCE TAX.—If the generation-skipping transfer occurs at the same time as, or after, the death of the deemed transferor, there shall be allowed as a credit against the tax imposed by section 2601 an amount equal to that portion of the estate, inheritance, legacy, or succession tax actually paid to any State or the District of Columbia in respect of any property included in the gener-tion-skipping transfer, but only to the extent of the lesser of—

"(i) that portion of such taxes which is levied on such transfer, or

"(ii) the excess of the limitation applicable under section 2011(b) if the adjusted taxable estate of the decedent had been increased by the amount of the transfer and all prior generation-skipping transfers to which this subparagraph applied which had the same deemed transferor, over the sum of the amount allowable as a credit under section 2011 with respect to the estate of the decedent plus the aggregate amounts allowable under this subparagraph with respect to such prior generation-skipping transfers.

"(d) Alternate Valuation.—

"(1) In general.—In the case of—

"(A) 1 or more generation-skipping transfers from the same trust which have the same deemed transferor and which are taxable terminations occurring at the same time as the death of such deemed transferor; or

"(B) 1 or more generation-skipping transfers from the same trust with different deemed transferors—

"(i) which are taxable terminations occurring on the same day; and

"(ii) which would, but for section 2613(b)(2), have occurred at the same time as the death of the individuals who are the deemed transferors with respect to the transfers;

the trustee may elect to value all of the property transferred in such transfers in accordance with section 2032.

"(2) Special rules.—If the trustee makes an election under paragraph (1) with respect to any generation-skipping transfer, section 2032 shall be applied by taking into account (in lieu of the date of the decedent’s death) the following date:

"(A) in the case of any generation-skipping transfer described in paragraph (1)(A), the date of the death of the deemed transferor described in such paragraph, or

"(B) in the case of any generation-skipping transfer described in paragraph (1)(B), the date on which such transfer occurred.

"(e) Transfers Within 3 Years of Death of Deemed Transferor.—Under regulations prescribed by the Secretary, the principles of section 2035 shall apply with respect to transfers made during the 3-year period ending on the date of the deemed transferor’s death. In the case of any transfer to which this subsection applies, the amount of the tax imposed by this chapter shall be determined as if the transfer occurred after the death of the deemed transferor and appropriate adjustments shall be made with respect to the amount of any prior transfer which is taken into account under subparagraph (B) or (C) of subsection (a)(1).

"SEC. 2603. LIABILITY FOR TAX.

"(a) Personal Liability.—

"(1) In general.—If the tax imposed by section 2601 is not paid, when due then—

"(A) except to the extent provided in paragraph (2), the trustee shall be personally liable for any portion of such tax which is attributable to a taxable termination, and “(B) the distributee of the property shall be personally liable for such tax to the extent provided in paragraph (3).

“(2) LIMITATION OF PERSONAL LIABILITY OF TRUSTEE WHO RELIES ON CERTAIN INFORMATION FURNISHED BY THE SECRETARY.—

“(A) INFORMATION WITH RESPECT TO RATES.—The trustee shall not be personally liable for any increase in the tax imposed by section 2601 which is attributable to the application to the transfer of rates of tax which exceeds the rates of tax furnished by the Secretary to the trustee as being the rates at which the transfer may reasonably be expected to be taxed.

“(B) AMOUNT OF REMAINING EXCLUSION.—The trustee shall not be personally liable for any increase in the tax imposed by section 2601 which is attributable to the fact that—“(i) the amount furnished by the Secretary to the trustee as being the amount of the exclusion for a transfer to a grandchild of the grantor of the trust which may reasonably be expected to remain with respect to the deemed transferor, is less than

“(ii) the amount of such exclusion remaining with respect to such deemed transferor.

“(3) LIMITATION ON PERSONAL LIABILITY OF DISTRIBUTEE.—The distributee of the property shall be personally liable for the tax imposed by section 2601 only to the extent of an amount equal to the fair market value (determined as of the time of the distribution) of the property received by the distributee in the distribution.

“(b) LIEN.—The tax imposed by section 2601 on any transfer shall be a lien on the property transferred until the tax is paid in full or becomes unenforceable by reason of lapse of time.

“Subchapter B—Definitions and Special Rules

“Sec. 2611. Generation-skipping transfer.
“Sec. 2612. Deemed transferor.
“Sec. 2613. Other definitions.
“Sec. 2614. Special rules.

26 USC 2611. “SEC. 2611. GENERATION-SKIPPING TRANSFER.

“(a) GENERATION-SKIPPING TRANSFER DEFINED.—For purposes of this chapter, the terms ‘generation-skipping transfer’ and ‘transfer’ mean any taxable distribution or taxable termination with respect to a generation-skipping trust or trust equivalent.

“(b) GENERATION-SKIPPING TRUST.—For purposes of this chapter, the term ‘generation-skipping trust’ means any trust having younger generation beneficiaries (within the meaning of section 2613(c)(1)) who are assigned to more than one generation.

“(c) ASCERTAINMENT OF GENERATION.—For purposes of this chapter, the generation to which any person (other than the grantor) belongs shall be determined in accordance with the following rules:

“(1) an individual who is a lineal descendent of a grandparent of the grantor shall be assigned to that generation which results from comparing the number of generations between the grandparent and such individual with the number of generations between the grandparent and the grantor,

“(2) an individual who has been at any time married to a person described in paragraph (1) shall be assigned to the generation of the person so described and an individual who has been at any time married to the grantor shall be assigned to the grantor’s generation,
“(3) a relationship by the half blood shall be treated as a relationship by the whole blood, “(4) a relationship by legal adoption shall be treated as a relationship by blood,
“(5) an individual who is not assigned to a generation by reason of the foregoing paragraphs shall be assigned to a generation on the basis of the date of such individual’s birth, with—“(A) an individual born not more than 12½ years after the date of the birth of the grantor assigned to the grantor’s generation,
“(B) an individual born more than 12½ years but not more than 37½ years after the date of the birth of the grantor assigned to the first generation younger than the grantor, and “(C) similar rules for a new generation every 25 years, “(6) an individual who, but for this paragraph, would be assigned to more than one generation shall be assigned to the youngest such generation, and “(7) if any beneficiary of the trust is an estate or a trust, partnership, corporation, or other entity (other than an organization described in section 511(a)(2) and other than a charitable trust described in section 511(b)(2)), each individual having an indirect interest or power in the trust through such entity shall be -treated as a beneficiary of the trust and shall be assigned to a generation under the foregoing provisions of this subsection.
“(d) GENERATION-SKIPPING TRUST EQUIVALENT.—
“(1) IN GENERAL.—For purposes of this chapter, the term ‘generation-skipping trust equivalent’ means any arrangement which, although not a trust, has substantially the same effect as a generation-skipping trust.
“(2) EXAMPLES OF ARRANGEMENTS TO WHICH SUBSECTION RELATES.—Arrangements to be taken into account for purposes of determining whether or not paragraph (1) applies include (but are not limited to) arrangements involving life estates and remainders, estates for years, insurance and annuities, and split interests.
“(3) REFERENCES TO TRUST INCLUDE REFERENCES TO TRUST EQUIVA-LENLETS.—Any reference in this chapter in respect of a generationskipping trust shall include the appropriate reference in respect of a generation-skipping trust equivalent.

"SEC. 2612. DEEMED TRANSFEROR.
“(a) General Rule.—For purposes of this chapter, the deemed transferor with respect to a transfer is—“(1) except as provided in paragraph (2), the parent of the transferee of the property who is more closely related to the grantor of the trust than the other parent of such transferee (or if neither parent is related to such grantor, the parent having a closer affinity to the grantor), or “(2) if the parent described in paragraph (1) is not a younger generation beneficiary of the trust but 1 or more ancestors of the transferee is a younger generation beneficiary related by blood or adoption to the grantor of the trust, the youngest of such ancestors.
“(b) Determination of Relationship.—For purposes of subsection (a), a parent related to the grantor of the trust by blood or adoption is more closely related than a parent related to such grantor by marriage.
"SEC. 2613. OTHER DEFINITIONS.

"(a) TAXABLE DISTRIBUTION.—For purposes of this chapter—

"(1) IN GENERAL.—The term `taxable distribution' means any distribution which is not out of the income of the trust (within the meaning of section 643(b)) from a generation-skipping trust to any younger generation beneficiary who is assigned to a generation younger than the generation assignment of any other person who is a younger generation beneficiary. For purposes of the preceding sentence, an individual who at no time has had anything other than a future interest or future power (or both) in the trust shall not be considered as a younger generation beneficiary.

"(2) SOURCE OF DISTRIBUTION.—If, during the taxable year of the trust, there are distributions out of the income of the trust (within the meaning of section 643(b)) and out of other amounts, for purposes of paragraph (1) the distributions of such income shall be deemed to have been made to the beneficiaries (to the extent of the aggregate distributions made to each such beneficiary during such year) in descending order of generations, beginning with the beneficiaries assigned to the oldest generation.

"(3) PAYMENT OF TAX.—If any portion of the tax imposed by this chapter with respect to any transfer is paid out of the income or corpus of the trust, an amount equal to the portion so paid shall be deemed to be a generation-skipping transfer.

"(4) CERTAIN DISTRIBUTIONS EXCLUDED FROM TAX.—The term `taxable distribution' does not include—

"(A) any transfer to the extent such transfer is to a grandchild of the grantor of the trust and does not exceed the limitation provided by subsection (b)(6), and

"(B) any transfer to the extent such transfer is subject to tax imposed by chapter 11 or 12.

"(b) TAXABLE TERMINATION.—For purposes of this chapter—

"(1) IN GENERAL.—The term `taxable termination' means the termination (by death, lapse of time, exercise or nonexercise, or otherwise) of the interest or power in a generation-skipping trust of any younger generation beneficiary who is assigned to any generation older than the generation assignment of any other person who is a younger generation beneficiary of that trust. Such term does not include a termination of the interest or power of any person who at no time has had anything other than a future interest or future power (or both) in the trust.

"(2) TIME CERTAIN TERMINATIONS DEEMED TO OCCUR.—

"(A) WHERE 2 OR MORE BENEFICIARIES ARE ASSIGNED TO SAME GENERATION.—In any case where 2 or more younger generation beneficiaries of a trust are assigned to the same generation, except to the extent provided in regulations prescribed by the Secretary, the transfer constituting the termination with respect to each such beneficiary shall be treated as occurring at the time when the last such termination occurs.

"(B) SAME BENEFICIARY HAS MORE THAN 1 INTEREST OR POWER.—In any case where a younger generation beneficiary of a trust has both an interest and a power, or more than 1 interest or power, in the trust, except to the extent provided in regulations prescribed by the Secretary, the termination with respect to each such interest or power shall be treated as occurring at the time when the last such termination occurs.

"(C) UNUSUAL ORDER OF TERMINATION.—

"(i) IN GENERAL.—If—“(I) but for this subparagraph, there would have been a termination (determined after the application of subparagraphs (A) and (B)) of an interest or power of a younger generation beneficiary (hereinafter in this subparagraph referred to as the ‘younger beneficiary’), and “(II) at the time such termination would have occurred, a beneficiary (hereinafter in this subpara-graph referred to as the ‘older beneficiary’) of the trust assigned to a higher generation than the generation of the younger beneficiary has a present interest or power in the trust, then, except to the extent provided in regulations prescribed by the Secretary, the transfer constituting the termination with respect to the younger beneficiary shall be treated as occurring at the time when the termination of the last present interest or power of the older beneficiary occurs.
“(ii) Special rules.—If clause (i) applies with respect to any younger beneficiary—“(I) this chapter shall be applied first to the termination of the interest or power of the older beneficiary as if such termination occurred before the termination of the power or interest of the younger beneficiary; and “(II) the value of the property taken into account for purposes of determining the tax (if any) imposed by this chapter with respect to the termination of the interest or power of the younger beneficiary shall be reduced by the tax (if any) imposed by this chapter with respect to the termination of the interest or power of the older beneficiary.
“(D) Special rule.—Subparagraphs (A) and (C) shall also apply where a person assigned to the same generation as, or a higher generation than, the person whose power or interest terminates has a present power or interest immediately after the termination and such power or interest arises as a result of such termination.
“(3) Deemed transferees of certain terminations.—Where, at the time of any termination, it is not clear who will be the transferee of any portion of the property transferred, except to the extent provided in regulations prescribed by the Secretary, such portion shall be deemed transferred pro rata to all beneficiaries of the trust in accordance with the amount which each of them would receive under a maximum exercise of discretion on their behalf. For purposes of the preceding sentence, where it is not clear whether discretion will be exercised per stirpes or per capita, it shall be presumed that the discretion will be exercised per stirpes.
“(4) Termination of power.—In the case of the termination of any power, the property transferred shall be deemed to be the property subject to the power immediately before the termination (determined without the application of paragraph (2)).
“(5) Certain terminations excluded from tax.—The term
‘taxable termination’ does not include—“(A) any transfer to the extent such transfer is to a grandchild of the grantor of the trust and does not exceed the limitation provided by paragraph (6), and
"(B) any transfer to the extent such transfer is subject to a tax imposed by chapter 11 or 12.

"(6) $250,000 LIMIT ON EXCLUSION OF TRANSFERS TO GRANDCHILDREN.—In the case of any deemed transferor, the maximum amount excluded from the terms 'taxable distribution' and 'taxable termination' by reason of provisions exempting from such terms transfers to the grandchildren of the grantor of the trust shall be $250,000. The preceding sentence shall be applied to transfers from one or more trusts in the order in which such transfers are made or deemed made.

"(7) COORDINATION WITH SUBSECTION (a).—

"(A) TERMINATIONS TAKE PRECEDENCE OVER DISTRIBUTIONS.—If—

"(i) the death of an individual or any other occurrence is a taxable termination with respect to any property, and

"(ii) such occurrence also requires the distribution of part or all of such property in a distribution which would (but for this subparagraph) be a taxable distribution, then a taxable distribution shall be deemed not to have occurred with respect to the portion described in clause (i).

"(B) CERTAIN PRIOR TRANSFERS.—To the extent that—"(i) the deemed transferor in any prior transfer of the property of the trust being transferred in this transfer was assigned to the same generation as (or a lower generation than) the generation assignment of the deemed transferor in this transfer,

"(ii) the transferee in such prior transfer was assigned to the same generation as (or a higher generation than) the generation assignment of the transferee in this transfer, and

"(iii) such transfers do not have the effect of avoiding tax under this chapter with respect to any transfer, the terms 'taxable termination' and 'taxable distribution' do not include this later transfer.

"(c) YOUNGER GENERATION BENEFICIARY; BENEFICIARY.—For purposes of this chapter—

"(1) YOUNGER GENERATION BENEFICIARY.—The term 'younger generation beneficiary' means any beneficiary who is assigned to a generation younger than the grantor's generation.

"(2) TIME FOR ASCERTAINING YOUNGER GENERATION BENEFICIARIES.—A person is a younger generation beneficiary of a trust with respect to any transfer only if such person was a younger generation beneficiary of the trust immediately before the transfer (or, in the case of a series of related transfers, only if such person was a younger generation beneficiary of the trust immediately before the first of such transfers).

"(3) BENEFICIARY.—The term 'beneficiary' means any person who has a present or future interest or power in the trust.

"(d) INTEREST OR POWER.—For purposes of this chapter—

"(1) INTEREST.—A person has an interest in a trust if such person—

"(A) has a right to receive income or corpus from the trust, or

"(B) is a permissible recipient of such income or corpus.

"(2) POWER.—The term 'power' means any power to establish or alter beneficial enjoyment of the corpus or income of the trust.
“(e) Limited Power To Appoint Among Lineal Descendants of Grantor Not Taken Into Account in Certain Cases.—For purposes of this chapter, if any individual does not have any present or future power in the trust other than a power to dispose of the corpus of the trust or the income therefrom to a beneficiary or a class of beneficiaries who are lineal descendants of the grantor assigned to a generation younger than the generation assignment of such individual, then such individual shall be treated as not having any power in the trust.

“(f) Effect of Adoption.—For purposes of this chapter, a relationship by legal adoption shall be treated as a relationship by blood.

“SEC. 2614. SPECIAL RULES.

“(a) Basis Adjustment.—If property is transferred to any person pursuant to a generation-skipping transfer which occurs before the death of the deemed transferor, the basis of such property in the hands of the transferee shall be increased (but not above the fair market value of such property) by an amount equal to that portion of the tax imposed by section 2601 with respect to the transfer which is attributable to the excess of the fair market value of such property over its adjusted basis immediately before the transfer. If property is transferred in a generation-skipping transfer subject to tax under this chapter which occurs at the same time as, or after, the death of the deemed transferor, the basis of such property shall be adjusted in a manner similar to the manner provided by section 1023 without regard to subsection (d) thereof (relating to basis of property passing from a decedent dying after December 31, 1976).

“(b) Nonresidents Not Citizens of the United States.—If the deemed transferor of any transfer is, at the time of the transfer, a nonresident not a citizen of the United States and—

“(1) if the deemed transferor is alive at the time of the transfer, there shall be taken into account only property which would be taken into account for purposes of chapter 12, or

“(2) if the deemed transferor has died at the same time as, or before, the transfer, there shall be taken into account only property which would be taken into account for purposes of chapter 11.

“(c) Disclaimers.—

“For provisions relating to the effect of a qualified disclaimer for purposes of this chapter, see section 2518.

“Subchapter C—Administration

“Sec. 2622. Regulations.

“SEC. 2621. ADMINISTRATION.

“(a) General Rule.—Insofar as applicable and not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter—

“(1) if the deemed transferor is not alive at the time of the transfer, all provisions of subtitle F (including penalties) applicable to chapter 11 or section 2001 are hereby made applicable in respect of this chapter or section 2601, as the case may be, and

“(2) if the deemed transferor is alive at the time of the transfer, all provisions of subtitle F (including penalties) applicable to chapter 12 or section 2501 are hereby made applicable in respect of this chapter or section 2601, as the case may be.

“(b) Sections 6166 and 6166A Not Applicable.—For purposes of this chapter, sections 6166 and 6166A (relating to extensions of time for payment of estate tax where estate consists largely of interest in closely held business) shall not apply.

(c) Return Requirements.—

(1) In General.—The Secretary shall prescribe by regulations the person who is required to make the return with respect to the tax imposed by this chapter and the time by which any such return must be filed. To the extent practicable, such regulations shall provide that—

(A) the person who is required to make such return shall be—

(i) in the case of a taxable distribution, the distributee, or
(ii) in the case of a taxable termination, the trustee; and

(B) the return shall be filed—

(i) in the case of a generation-skipping transfer occurring before the death of the deemed transferor, on or before the 90th day after the close of the taxable year of the trust in which such transfer occurred, or
(ii) in the case of a generation-skipping transfer occurring at the same time as, or after, the death of the deemed transferor, on or before the 90th day after the last day prescribed by law (including extensions) for filing the return of tax under chapter 11 with respect to the estate of the deemed transferor (or if later, the day which is 9 months after the day on which such generation-skipping transfer occurred).

Regulations.

(2) Information Returns.—The Secretary may by regulations require the trustee to furnish the Secretary with such information as he determines to be necessary for purposes of this chapter.

Regulations.

SEC. 2622. REGULATIONS.

The Secretary shall prescribe such regulations as may be necessary or appropriate to carry out the purposes of this chapter, including regulations providing the extent to which substantially separate and independent shares of different beneficiaries in the trust shall be treated as separate trusts.

(b) Technical, Clerical, and Conforming Changes.—

(1) Clerical Change.—The table of chapters for subtitle B is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new item:

"Chapter 13. Tax on certain generation-skipping transfers."

26 USC 2013.

(2) Credit for Tax on Prior Transfers.—Section 2013 (relating to credit for tax on prior transfers) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

"(g) Treatment of Tax Imposed on Certain Generation-Skipping Transfers.—If any property was transferred to the decedent in a transfer which is taxable under section 2601 (relating to tax imposed on generation-skipping transfers) and if the deemed transferor (as defined in section 2612) is not alive at the time of such transfer, for purposes of this section—

(1) such property shall be deemed to have passed to the decedent from the deemed transferor;

(2) the tax payable under section 2601 on such transfer shall be treated as a Federal estate tax payable with respect to the estate of the deemed transferor; and"
“(3) the amount of the taxable estate of the deemed transferor shall be increased by the value of such property as determined for purposes of the tax imposed by section 2601 on the transfer.”

(3) INCOME IN RESPECT OF A DECEDED.—Subsection (c) of section 691 (relating to deduction for estate tax) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

“(3) SPECIAL RULE FOR GENERATION-SKIPPING TRANSFERS.—For purposes of this section—

“(A) the tax imposed by section 2601 or any State inheritance tax described in section 2602(c)(5)(C) on any generation-skipping transfer shall be treated as a tax imposed by section 2001 on the estate of the deemed transferor (as defined in section 2612(a));

“(B) any property transferred in such a transfer shall be treated as if it were included in the gross estate of the deemed transferor at the value of such property taken into account for purposes of the tax imposed by section 2601; and

“(C) under regulations prescribed by the secretary, any item of gross income subject to the tax imposed under section 2601 shall be treated as income described in subsection (a) if such item is not properly includible in the gross income of the trust on or before the date of the generation-skipping transfer (within the meaning of section 2611(a)) and if such transfer occurs at or after the death of the deemed transferor (as so defined).”

(4) SPECIAL RULES FOR GENERATION-SKIPPING TRANSFERS.—Section 303 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

“(d) SPECIAL RULES FOR GENERATION-SKIPPING TRANSFERS.—Under regulations prescribed by the Secretary, where stock in a corporation is subject to tax under section 2601 as a result of a generation-skipping transfer (within the meaning of section 2611(a)), which occurs at or after the death of the deemed transferor (within the meaning of section 2612)—

“(1) the stock shall be deemed to be included in the gross estate of the deemed transferor;

“(2) taxes of the kind referred to in subsection (a)(1) which are imposed because of the generation-skipping transfer shall be treated as imposed because of the deemed transferor’s death (and for this purpose the tax imposed by section 2601 shall be treated as an estate tax);

“(3) the period of distribution shall be measured from the date of the generation-skipping transfer; and

“(4) the relationship of stock to the decedent’s estate shall be measured with reference solely to the amount of the generation-skipping transfer.”

(c) EFFECTIVE DATES.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in paragraph (2), the amendments made by this section shall apply to any generation-skipping transfer (within the meaning of section 2611(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954) made after April 30, 1976.

(2) EXCEPTIONS.—The amendments made by this section shall not apply to any generation-skipping transfer—

(A) under a trust which was irrevocable on April 30, 1976, but only to the extent that the transfer is not made out of corpus added to the trust after April 30, 1976, or
(B) in the case of a decedent dying before January 1, 1982, pursuant to a will (or revocable trust) which was in existence on April 30, 1976, and was not amended at any time after that date in any respect which will result in the creation of, or increasing the amount of, any generation-skipping transfer. For purposes of subparagraph (B), if the decedent on April 30, 1976, was under a mental disability to change the disposition of his property, the period set forth in such subparagraph shall not expire before the date which is 2 years after the date on which he first regains his competence to dispose of such property.

(3) Trust equivalents.—For purposes of paragraph (2), in the case of a trust equivalent within the meaning of subsection (d) of section 2611 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, the provisions of such subsection (d) shall apply.

SEC. 2007. ORPHANS' EXCLUSION.

(a) General rule.—Part IV of subchapter A of chapter 11 (relating to taxable estate) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

26 USC 2057.

"SEC. 2057. BEQUESTS, ETC., TO CERTAIN MINOR CHILDREN.

"(a) Allowance of deduction.—For purposes of the tax imposed by section 2001, if—

"(1) the decedent does not have a surviving spouse, and

"(2) the decedent is survived by a minor child who, immediately after the death of the decedent, has no known parent, then the value of the taxable estate shall be determined by deducting from the value of the gross estate an amount equal to the value of any interest in property which passes or has passed from the decedent to such child, but only to the extent that such interest is included in determining the value of the gross estate.

"(b) Limitation.—The aggregate amount of the deductions allowed under this section (computed without regard to this subsection) with respect to interests in property passing to any minor child shall not exceed an amount equal to $5,000 multiplied by the excess of 21 over the age (in years) which such child has attained on the date of the decedent's death.

"(c) Limitation in the case of life estate or other terminable interest.—A deduction shall be allowed under this section with respect to any interest in property passing to any minor child only to the extent that a deduction would have been allowable under section 2056(b) if such interest had passed to a surviving spouse of the decedent. For purposes of this subsection, an interest shall not be treated as terminable solely because the property will pass to another person if the child dies before the youngest child of the decedent attains age 21.

"(d) Definitions.—For purposes of this section—

"(1) Minor child.—The term 'minor child' means any child of the decedent who has not attained the age of 21 before the date of the decedent's death.

"(2) Adopted children.—A relationship by legal adoption shall be treated as replacing a relationship by blood.

"(3) Property passing from the decedent.—The determination of whether an interest in property passes from the decedent to any person shall be made in accordance with section 2056(d).

(b) Clerical Amendment.—The table of sections for part IV of subchapter A of chapter 11 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new item:

"Sec. 2057. Bequests, etc., to certain minor children."

(c) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendments made by this section shall apply to the estates of decedents dying after December 31, 1976.

SEC. 2008. ADMINISTRATIVE CHANGES.

(a) FURNISHING OF STATEMENT EXPLAINING ESTATE OR GIFT VALUATION.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Chapter 77 (relating to miscellaneous provisions) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

"SEC. 7517. FURNISHING ON REQUEST OF STATEMENT EXPLAINING ESTATE OR GIFT VALUATION.

"(a) GENERAL RULE.—If the Secretary makes a determination or a proposed determination of the value of an item of property for purposes of the tax imposed under chapter 11, 12, or 13, he shall furnish, on the written request of the executor, donor, or the person required to make the return of the tax imposed by chapter 13 (as the case may be), to such executor, donor, or person a written statement containing the material required by subsection (b). Such statement shall be furnished not later than 45 days after the later of the date of such request or the date of such determination or proposed determination.

"(b) CONTENTS OF STATEMENT.—A statement required to be furnished under subsection (a) with respect to the value of an item of property shall—

"(1) explain the basis on which the valuation was determined or proposed,

"(2) set forth any computation used in arriving at such value, and

"(3) contain a copy of any expert appraisal made by or for the Secretary.

"(c) EFFECT OF STATEMENT.—Except to the extent otherwise provided by law, the value determined or proposed by the Secretary with respect to which a statement is furnished under this section, and the method used in arriving at such value, shall not be binding on the Secretary."

(2) CONFORMING AND CLERICAL AMENDMENTS.—

(A) Section 2031 (defining gross estate) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

"(c) CROSS REFERENCE.—

"For executor's right to be furnished on request a statement regarding any valuation made by the Secretary within the gross estate, see section 7517."

(B) Section 2512 (relating to valuation of gifts) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

"(c) CROSS REFERENCE.—

"For individual's right to be furnished on request a statement regarding any valuation made by the Secretary of a gift by that individual, see section 7517."

(C) The table of sections for chapter 77 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

"Sec. 7517. Furnishing on request of statement explaining estate or gift valuation."
(b) Special Rule for Filing Returns Where Gifts in Calendar Quarter Total $25,000 or Less.—Subsection (b) of section 6075 relating to gift tax returns is amended to read as follows:

"(b) Gift Tax Returns.—

(1) General rule.—Except as provided in paragraph (2), returns made under section 6019 (relating to gift taxes) shall be filed on or before the 15th day of the second month following the close of the calendar quarter.

(2) Special rule where gifts in a calendar quarter total $25,000 or less.—If the total amount of taxable gifts made by a person during a calendar quarter is $25,000 or less, the return under section 6019 for such quarter shall be filed on or before the 15th day of the second month after—

(A) the close of the first subsequent calendar quarter in the calendar year in which the sum of—

(i) the taxable gifts made during such subsequent quarter, plus

(ii) all other taxable gifts made during the calendar year and for which a return has not yet been required to be filed under this subsection, exceeds $25,000, or

(B) if a return is not required to be filed under subparagraph (A), the close of the fourth calendar quarter of the calendar year.

(3) Nonresidents not citizens of the United States.—In the case of a nonresident not a citizen of the United States, paragraph (2) shall be applied by substituting "$12,500" for "$25,000" each place it appears."

(c) Public Index of Filed Tax Liens.—

(1) Initial Filing of Notice.—

(A) Section 6323(f) (relating to filing of notice of lien) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

"(4) Index.—The notice of lien referred to in subsection (a) shall not be treated as meeting the filing requirements under paragraph (1) unless the fact of filing is entered and recorded in a public index at the district office of the Internal Revenue Service for the district in which the property subject to the lien is situated."

(B) Paragraph (2) of section 6323(f) is amended by striking out "paragraph (1)" and inserting in lieu thereof "paragraphs (1) and (4)".

(2) Refiling of Notice.—Section 6323(g)(2)(A) (relating to refiling of notice of lien) is amended to read as follows:

"(A) if such notice of lien is refiled in the office in which the prior notice of lien was filed and the fact of refiling is entered and recorded in an index in accordance with subsection (f)(4); and ".

(d) Effective Dates.—

(1) The amendments made by subsection (a)—

(A) insofar as they relate to the tax imposed under chapter 11 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, shall apply to the estates of decedents dying after December 31, 1976, and

(B) insofar as they relate to the tax imposed under chapter 12 of such Code, shall apply to gifts made after December 31, 1976.
(2) The amendment made by subsection (b) shall apply to gifts made after December 31, 1976.

(3) The amendment made by subsection (c) shall take effect—
   (A) in the case of liens filed before the date of the enactment of this Act, on the 270th day after such date of enactment, or
   (B) in the case of liens filed on or after the date of enactment of this Act, on the 120th day after such date of enactment.

SEC. 2009. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.
   (a) INCLUSION OF STOCK IN DECEDENT’S ESTATE WHERE DECEDENT RETAINED VOTING RIGHTS.—Subsection (a) of section 2036 (relating to transfer with retained life estate) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new sentence:
   “For purposes of paragraph (1), the retention of voting rights in retained stock shall be considered to be a retention of the enjoyment of such stock.”

   (b) DISCLAIMERS.—
   (1) AMENDMENT OF GIFT TAX PROVISIONS.—Subchapter B of chapter 12 (relating to transfers for purposes of the gift tax) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

   “SEC. 2518. DISCLAIMERS.
   “(a) GENERAL RULE.—For purposes of this Subtitle, if a person makes a qualified disclaimer with respect to any interest in property, this Subtitle shall apply with respect to such interest as if the interest had never been transferred to such person.
   “(b) QUALIFIED DISCLAIMER DEFINED.—For purposes of subsection (a), the term ‘qualified disclaimer’ means an irrevocable and unqualified refusal by a person to accept an interest in property but only if—
       “(1) such refusal is in writing,
       “(2) such writing is received by the transferor of the interest, his legal representative, or the holder of the legal title to the property to which the interest relates not later than the date which is 9 months after the later of—
           “(A) the day on which the transfer creating the interest in such person is made, or “(B) the day on which such person attains age 21, “(3) such person has not accepted the interest or any of its benefits, and “(4) as a result of such refusal, the interest passes to a person other than the person making the disclaimer (without any direction on the part of the person making the disclaimer).
   “(c) OTHER RULES.—For purposes of subsection (a)—
       “(1) DISCLAIMER OF UNDIVIDED PORTION OF INTEREST.—A disclaimer with respect to an undivided portion of an interest which meets the requirements of the preceding sentence shall be treated as a qualified disclaimer of such portion of the interest.
       “(2) POWERS.—A power with respect to property shall be treated as an interest in such property.”

   (2) AMENDMENT OF ESTATE TAX PROVISIONS.—Part III of subchapter A of chapter 11 (relating to gross estate) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:
SEC. 2045. DISCLAIMERS.

For provisions relating to the effect of a qualified disclaimer for purposes of this chapter, see section 2518.

(8) CLERICAL AMENDMENTS.—

(A) The table of sections for subchapter B of chapter 12 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

"Sec. 2518. Disclaimers."

(B) The table of sections for part III of subchapter A of chapter 11 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

"Sec. 2045. Disclaimers."

(4) TECHNICAL AND CONFORMING CHANGES.—

(A) Paragraph (2) of section 2041(a) (relating to release of general powers of appointment) is amended by striking out the second sentence thereof.

(B) The first sentence of subsection (a) of section 2055 (relating to transfers for public, charitable, and religious uses) is amended by striking out "(including the interest which falls into any such bequest, legacy, devise, or transfer as a result of an irrevocable disclaimer of a bequest, legacy, devise, transfer, or power, if the disclaimer is made before the date prescribed for the filing of the estate tax return)".

(C) The second sentence of subsection (a) of section 2055 is amended—

(i) by striking out "an irrevocable" and inserting in lieu thereof "a qualified", and

(ii) by striking out "such irrevocable" and inserting in lieu thereof "such qualified".

(D) Section 2056 (relating to bequests, etc., to surviving spouse) is amended by striking out subsection (d) and by redesignating subsection (e) as subsection (d).

(E) Subsection (a) of section 2056 is amended by striking out "subsections (b), (c), and (d)" and inserting in lieu thereof "subsections (b) and (c)".

(F) Subsection (b) of section 2514 (relating to powers of appointment for purposes of the gift tax) is amended by striking out the second sentence thereof.

(c) CERTAIN RETIREMENT BENEFITS.—

(1) EXCLUSION FROM GROSS ESTATE OF INDIVIDUAL RETIREMENT ACCOUNTS, ETC.—Section 2039 (relating to annuities) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

"(e) EXCLUSION OF INDIVIDUAL RETIREMENT ACCOUNTS, ETC.—Notwithstanding the provisions of this section or of any other provision of law, there shall be excluded from the value of the gross estate the value of an annuity receivable by any beneficiary (other than the executor) under—

"(1) an individual retirement account described in section 408(a),

"(2) an individual retirement annuity described in section 408(b), or

"(3) a retirement bond described in section 409(a)."

If any payment to an account described in paragraph (1) or for an annuity described in paragraph (2) or a bond described in paragraph (3) was not allowable as a deduction under section 219 and was not a rollover contribution described in section 402(a)(5), 403(a)(4), 408 (d)(3), or 409(b)(3)(C), the preceding sentence shall not apply to that portion of the value of the amount receivable under such account, annuity, or bond (as the case may be) which bears the same ratio to the total value of the amount so receivable as the total amount which was paid to or for such account, annuity, or bond and which was not allowable as a deduction under section 219 and was not such a rollover contribution bears to the total amount paid to or for such account, annuity, or bond. For purposes of this subsection, the term 'annuity' means an annuity contract or other arrangement providing for a series of substantially equal periodic payments to be made to a beneficiary (other than the executor) for his life or over a period extending for at least 36 months after the date of the decedent's death."

(2) Exclusion from gross estate of self-employed plans.—
The fifth sentence of section 2039(c) (relating to exemption of annuities under certain trusts and plans) is amended to read as follows: “For purposes of this subsection, contributions or payments on behalf of the decedent while he was an employee within the meaning of section 401(c)(1) made under a trust or plan described in paragraph (1) or (2) shall, to the extent allowable as a deduction under section 404, be considered to be made by a person other than the decedent and, to the extent not so allowable, shall be considered to be made by the decedent.”

(3) Exclusion inapplicable in case of lump sum distributions.—The first sentence of subsection (c) of section 2039 (relating to exemption of annuities under certain trusts and plans) is amended by striking out “other payment receivable by any bene-iciary” and inserting in lieu thereof “other payment (other than a lump sum distribution described in section 402(e)(4), determined without regard to the next to the last sentence of section 402(e)(4)(A)) receivable by any beneficiary”.

(4) Gift tax treatment of elections under certain retirement plans.—

(A) Individual retirement accounts, etc.—

(i) Subsection (a) of section 2517 (relating to certain annuities under qualified plans) is amended by striking out “or” at the end of paragraph (3), by striking out the period at the end of paragraph (4) and inserting in lieu thereof “; or”, and by inserting after paragraph
(4) the following new paragraph:

“(5) an individual retirement account described in section 408
(a) an individual retirement annuity described in section 408
(b), or a retirement bond described in section 409(a).”

(ii) Subsection (b) of section 2517 (relating to transfers attributable to employee contributions) is amended by striking out “other than paragraph (4)” and inserting in lieu thereof “other than paragraphs (4) and (5)”.

(iii) Subsection (c) of section 2517 (defining employee) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new sentence: “In the case of a retirement plan described in paragraph (5) of subsection (a), such term means the individual for whose benefit the plan was established.”

(B) Self-employed plans.—The last sentence of section 2517(b) (relating to transfers attributable to employee contributions) is amended to read as follows: "For purposes of this subsection, contributions or payments on behalf of an individual while he was an employee within the meaning of section 401(c) (1) made under a trust or plan described in paragraph (1) or (2) of subsection (a) shall, to the extent allowable as a deduction under section 404, be considered to be made by a person other than such individual and, to the extent not so allowable, shall be considered to be made by such individual."

(5) GIFT TAX TREATMENT OF CERTAIN COMMUNITY PROPERTY.—

Section 2517 (relating to certain annuities under qualified plans) is amended by redesignating subsection (c) (as amended by paragraph (4) (A) (iii)) as subsection (d) and by inserting after subsection (b) the following new subsection:

"(c) EXEMPTION OF CERTAIN ANNUITY INTERESTS CREATED BY COMMUNITY PROPERTY LAWS.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in the case of an employee on whose behalf contributions or payments are made—

"(1) by his employer or former employer under a trust or plan described in paragraph (1) or (2) of subsection (a), or toward the purchase of a contract described in paragraph (5) of subsection (a), which under subsection (b) are not considered as contributed by the employee, or

"(2) by the employee to a retirement plan described in paragraph (5) of subsection (a), a transfer of benefits attributable to such contributions or payments shall, for purposes of this chapter, not be considered as a transfer by the spouse of the employee to the extent that the value of any interest of such spouse in such contributions or payments or in such trust or plan or such contract—

"(A) is attributable to such contribution or payments, and

"(B) arises solely by reason of such spouse's interest in community income under the community property laws of the State."

(d) INCOME TAX TREATMENT OF CERTAIN EXPENSES OF ESTATE.—Section 642(g) (relating to disallowance of double deductions) is amended by inserting after "shall not be allowed as a deduction" the following: "(or as an offset against the sales price of property in determining gain or loss)").

(e) EFFECTIVE DATES.—

(1) FOR SUBSECTION (a).—The amendment made by subsection (a) shall apply to transfers made after June 22, 1976.

(2) FOR SUBSECTION (b).—The amendments made by subsection (b) shall apply with respect to transfers creating an interest in the person disclaiming made after December 31, 1976.

(3) FOR SUBSECTION (c).—

(A) The amendments made by paragraphs (1), (2), and (3) of subsection (c) shall apply to the estates of decedents dying after December 31, 1976.

(B) The amendments made by paragraphs (4) and (5) of subsection (c) shall apply to transfers made after December 31, 1976.

(4) FOR SUBSECTION (d).—The amendment made by subsection (d) shall apply to taxable years ending after the date of the enactment of this Act.
SEC. 2010. CREDIT AGAINST CERTAIN ESTATE TAXES

(a) IN GENERAL.—Subject to the provisions of subsections (b), (c), and (d), credit against the tax imposed by chapter 11 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (relating to estate tax) with respect to the estate of Le Verne Redfield shall be allowed by the Secretary of the Treasury or his delegate for the conveyance of real property located within the boundaries of the Toiyabe National Forest.

(b) AMOUNT OF CREDIT.—The amount treated as a credit shall be equal to the fair market value of the real property transferred as of the valuation date used for purposes of the tax imposed (and interest thereon) by chapter 11 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

(c) DEED REQUIREMENTS.—The provisions of this section shall apply only if the executrixes of the estate execute a deed (in accordance with the laws of the State in which such real estate is situated) transferring title to the United States which is satisfactory to the Attorney General or his designee.

(d) ACCEPTANCE AS NATIONAL FOREST.—The provisions of this section shall apply only if the real property transferred is accepted by the Secretary of Agriculture and added to the Toiyabe National Forest. The lands shall be transferred to the Secretary of Agriculture without reimbursement or payment from the Department of Agriculture.

(e) INTEREST.—Unless the Secretary of Agriculture determines and certifies to the Secretary of the Treasury that there has been an expeditious transfer of the real property under this section, no interest payable with respect to the tax imposed by chapter 11 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 shall be deemed to be waived by reason of the provisions of this section for any period before the date of such transfer.

(f) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The provisions of this section shall be effective on the date of the enactment of this Act.

TITLE XXI—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

SEC. 2101. TAX TREATMENT OF CERTAIN HOUSING ASSOCIATIONS.

(a) GENERAL RULE.—Subchapter F of chapter 1 (relating to exempt organizations) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new part:

"PART VII—CERTAIN HOMEOWNERS ASSOCIATIONS

"Sec. 528. Certain homeowners associations.

"SEC. 528. CERTAIN HOMEOWNERS ASSOCIATIONS.

"(a) General Rule.—A homeowners association (as defined in subsection (c)) shall be subject to taxation under this subtitle only to the extent provided in this section. A homeowners association shall be considered an organization exempt from income taxes for the purpose of any law which refers to organizations exempt from income taxes.

"(b) Tax Imposed.—

"(1) IN GENERAL.—A tax is hereby imposed for each taxable year on the homeowners association taxable income of every homeowners association. Such tax shall consist of a normal tax and surtax computed as provided in section 11 as though the homeowners association were a corporation and as though the homeowners association taxable income were the taxable income referred to in section 11. For purposes of this subsection, the surtax exemption provided by section 11(d) shall not be allowed.

"(2) Alternative tax in case of capital gains.—If for any taxable year any homeowners association has a net capital gain, then in lieu of the tax imposed by paragraph (1), there is hereby imposed a tax (if such tax is less that the tax imposed by paragraph (1)) which shall consist of the sum of—

"(A) a partial tax, computed as provided by paragraph (1), on the homeowners association taxable income determined by reducing such income by the amount of such gain, and

"(B) a tax of 30 percent of such gain.

"(c) Homeowners Association Defined.—For purposes of this section—

"(1) Homeowners Association.—The term 'homeowners association' means an organization which is a condominium management association or a residential real estate management association if—

"(A) such organization is organized and operated to provide for the acquisition, construction, management, maintenance, and care of association property,

"(B) 60 percent or more of the gross income of such organization for the taxable year consists solely of amounts received as membership dues, fees, or assessments from—

"(i) owners of residential units in the case of a condominium management association, or

"(ii) owners of residences or residential lots in the case of a residential real estate management association.

"(C) 90 percent or more of the expenditures of the organization for the taxable year are expenditures for the acquisition, construction, management, maintenance, and care of association property,

"(D) no part of the net earnings of such organization inures (other than by acquiring, constructing, or providing management, maintenance, and care of association property, and other than by a rebate of excess membership dues, fees, or assessments) to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, and

"(E) such organization elects (at such time and in such manner as the Secretary by regulations prescribes) to have this section apply for the taxable year.

"(2) Condominium Management Association.—The term 'condominium management association' means any organization meeting the requirement of subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) with respect to a condominium project substantially all of the units of which are used as residences.

"(3) Residential Real Estate Management Association.—The term 'residential real estate management association' means any organization meeting the requirements of subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) with respect to a subdivision, development, or similar area substantially all the lots or buildings of which may only be used by individuals for residences.

"(4) Association Property.—The term 'association property' means—

"(A) property held by the organization,
“(B) property commonly held by the members of the organization, “(C) property within the organization privately held by the members of the organization, and “(D) property owned by a governmental unit and used for the benefit of residents of such unit.

“(d) Homeowners Association Taxable Income Defined.—

“(1) Taxable Income Defined.—For purposes of this section, the homeowners association taxable income of any organization for any taxable year is an amount equal to the excess (if any) of—

“(A) the gross income for the taxable year (excluding any exempt function income), over “(B) the deductions allowed by this chapter which are directly connected with the production of the gross income (excluding exempt function income), computed with the modifications provided in paragraph (2).

“(2) Modifications.—For purposes of this subsection—

“(A) there shall be allowed a specific deduction of $100, “(B) no net operating loss deduction shall be allowed under section 172, and
“(C) no deduction shall be allowed under part VIII of subchapter B (relating to special deductions for corporations).

“(3) Exempt Function Income.—For purposes of this subsection, the term ‘exempt function income’ means any amount received as membership dues, fees, or assessments from—

“(A) owners of condominium housing units in the case of a condominium management association, or “(B) owners of real property in the case of a residential real estate management association.”

(b) Section 216(c) (relating to treatment of property subject to depreciation) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new sentence: “The preceding sentence shall not be construed to limit or deny a deduction for depreciation under 167(a) by a cooperative housing corporation with respect to property owned by such a corporation and leased to tenant-stockholders.”

(c) Requirement of Return.—Section 6012(a) (relating to persons required to make returns of income) is amended by striking out “and” at the end of paragraph (5), by inserting “and” at the end of paragraph (6), and by inserting after paragraph (6) the following new paragraph:

“(7) Every homeowners association (within the meaning of section 528(c)(1)) which has homeowners association taxable income (within the meaning of section 528(d)) for the taxable year.”

(d) Clerical Amendment.—The table of parts for subchapter F of chapter 1 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new item:

“Part VII. Certain homeowners associations.”

(e) Effective Date.—Except as provided in subsection (f)(2), the amendments made by this section shall apply to taxable years begin-

(f) Certain Stock of Cooperative Housing Corporations.—

(1) Section 216(b) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

26 USC 216.

26 USC 216.

26 USC 6012.

26 USC 528.

Aante, p. 1897.
"(5) Stock acquired through foreclosure by lending institution.—If a bank or other lending institution acquires by foreclosure (or by instrument in lieu of foreclosure) the stock of a tenant-stockholder, and a lease or the right to occupy an apartment or house to which such stock is appurtenant, such bank or other lending institution shall be treated as a tenant-stockholder for a period not to exceed three years from the date of acquisition. The preceding sentence shall apply even though, by agreement with the cooperative housing corporation, the bank (or other lending institution) or its nominee may not occupy the house or apartment without the prior approval of such corporation."

(2) The amendment made by paragraph (1) shall apply to stock acquired by banks or other lending institutions after the date of the enactment of this Act.

SEC. 2102. TREATMENT OF CERTAIN DISASTER PAYMENTS.

(a) General Rule.—Subsection (d) of section 451 (relating to special rule for crop insurance proceeds) is amended by inserting after the first sentence the following new sentence: "For purposes of the preceding sentence, payments received under the Agricultural Act of 1949, as amended, as a result of (1) destruction or damage to crops caused by drought, flood, or any other natural disaster, or (2) the inability to plant crops because of such a natural disaster shall be treated as insurance proceeds received as a result of destruction or damage to crops."

(b) Technical Amendment.—The subsection heading for such subsection (d) is amended by striking out "Proceeds" and inserting in lieu thereof "Proceeds or Disaster Payments."

(c) Effective Date.—The amendments made by this section shall apply to payments received after December 31, 1973, in taxable years ending after such date.

SEC. 2103. TAX TREATMENT OF CERTAIN 1972 DISASTER LOSSES.

(a) Application of Section.—This section shall apply to any individual—

(1) who was allowed a deduction under section 165 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (relating to losses) for a loss attributable to a disaster occurring during calendar year 1972 which was determined by the President, under section 102 of the Disaster Relief Act of 1970, to warrant disaster assistance by the Federal Government,

(2) who in connection with such disaster—

(A) received income in the form of cancellation of a disaster loan under section 7 of the Small Business Act or an emergency loan under subtitle C of the Consolidated Farm and Rural Development Act, or

(B) received income in the form of compensation (not taken into account in computing the amount of the deduction) for such loss in settlement of any claim of the taxpayer against a person for that person's liability in tort for the damage or destruction of that taxpayer's property in connection with the disaster, and

(3) who elects (at such time and in such manner as the Secretary of the Treasury or his delegate may by regulations prescribe) to take the benefits of this section.

(b) Effect of Election.—In the case of any individual to whom this section applies—
(1) the tax imposed by chapter 1 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 for the taxable year in which the income taken into account is received or accrued which is attributable to such income shall not exceed the additional tax under such chapter which would have been payable for the year in which the deduction for the loss was taken if such deduction had not been taken for such year,

(2) any amount of tax imposed by chapter 1 attributable to the income taken into account which, on October 1, 1975, was unpaid may be paid in 3 equal annual installments (with the first such installment due and payable on April 15, 1977), and

(3) no interest on any deficiency shall be payable for any period before April 16, 1977, to the extent such deficiency is attributable to the receipt of such compensation, and no interest on any installment referred to in paragraph (2) shall be payable for any period before the due date of such installment.

c) INCOME TAKEN INTO ACCOUNT.—For purposes of this section, the income taken into account is—

(1) in the case of an individual described in subsection (a) (2) (A), the amount of income (not in excess of $5,000) attributable to the cancellation of a disaster loan under section 7 of the Small Business Act or an emergency loan under subtitle C of the Consolidated Farm and Rural Development Act received by reason of the disaster described in subsection (a) (1), or

(2) in the case of an individual described in subsection (a) (2) (B), the amount of compensation (not in excess of $5,000) for the loss in settlement of any claim of the taxpayer against a person for that person’s liability in tort for the damage or destruction of that taxpayer’s property in connection with the disaster described in subsection (a) (1).

d) PHASEOUT WHERE ADJUSTED GROSS INCOME EXCEEDS $15,000.—If for the taxable year for which the deduction for the loss was taken the individual’s adjusted gross income exceeded $15,000, the $5,000 limit set forth in paragraph (1) or (2) of subsection (c) (whichever applies) shall be reduced by one dollar for each full dollar that such adjusted gross income exceeds $15,000. In the case of a married individual filing a separate return, the preceding sentence shall be applied by substituting “$7,500” for “$15,000”.

e) STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS.—If refund or credit of any overpayment of income tax resulting from an election made under this section is prevented on the date of the enactment of this Act, or at any time within one year after such date, by the operation of any law, or rule of law, refund or credit of such overpayment (to the extent attributable to such election) may, nevertheless, be made or allowed if claim therefore is filed within one year after such date. If the taxpayer makes an election under this section and if assessment of any deficiency for any taxable year resulting from such election is prevented on the date of the enactment of this Act, or at any time within one year after such date, by the operation of any law or rule of law, such assessment (to the extent attributable to such election) may, nevertheless, be made if made within one year after such date.

SEC. 2104. TAX TREATMENT OF CERTAIN DEBTS OWED BY POLITICAL PARTIES, ETC., TO ACCRUAL BASIS TAXPAYERS.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Section 271 (relating to debts owed by political parties, etc.) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:
“(c) Exception.—In the case of a taxpayer who uses an accrual method of accounting, subsection (a) shall not apply to a debt which accrued as a receivable on a bona fide sale of goods or services in the ordinary course of the taxpayer’s trade or business if—

“(1) for the taxable year in which such receivable accrued, more than 30 percent of all receivables which accrued in the ordinary course of the trades and businesses of the taxpayer were due from political parties, and

“(2) the taxpayer made substantial continuing efforts to collect on the debt.”

26 USC 271

(b) Effective Date.—The amendment made by subsection (a) shall apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1975.

SEC. 2105. TAX-EXEMPT BONDS FOR STUDENT LOANS.

(a) In General.—Section 103(a) (relating to interest on certain governmental obligations) is amended by striking out “or” at the end of paragraph (2), striking out the period at the end of paragraph (3) and inserting in lieu thereof “; or”, and by adding at the end thereof the following:

“(4) qualified scholarship funding bonds.”

(b) Definition of Qualified Scholarship Funding Bonds.—Section 103 is amended by redesignating subsection (f) as (g), and by inserting after subsection (e) the following new subsection:

“(f) Qualified Scholarship Funding Bonds.—For purposes of subsection (a), the term ‘qualified scholarship funding bonds’ means obligations issued by a corporation which—

“(1) is a corporation not for profit established and operated exclusively for the purpose of acquiring student loan notes incurred under the Higher Education Act of 1965, and

“(2) is organized at the request of a State or one or more political subdivisions thereof or is requested to exercise such power by one or more political subdivisions and required by its corporate charter and bylaws, or required by State law, to devote any income (after payment of expenses, debt service, and the creation of reserves for the same) to the purchase of additional student loan notes or to pay over any income to the State or a political subdivision thereof.”

(c) Conforming Amendments.—

(1) Section 103(d) (relating to arbitrage bonds) is amended by redesignating paragraph (5) as paragraph (6) and inserting after paragraph (4) the following new paragraph:

“(5) Student Loan Incentive Payments.—Payments made by the Commissioner of Education pursuant to section 2 of the Emergency Insured Student Loan Act of 1969 are not to be taken into account, for purposes of subsection (d)(2)(A), in determining yields on student loan notes.”

(2) Section 103(d) (relating to arbitrage bonds) is amended by striking out “(a) (1)” each place it appears in paragraph (1) (including the heading) and paragraph (2) and inserting in lieu thereof “(a) (1) or (4)”.

(d) Effective Date.—The amendments made by this section apply to obligations issued on or after the date of the enactment of this Act.

SEC. 2106. PERSONAL HOLDING COMPANY INCOME AMENDMENTS.

(a) In General.—Section 543(a)(6) (relating to definition of personal holding company income) is amended to read as follows:

“(6) Use of Corporate Property by Shareholder.—
“(A) Amounts received as compensation (however designated and from whomever received) for the use of, or the right to use, tangible property of the corporation in any case where, at any time during the taxable year, 25 percent or more in value of the outstanding stock of the corporation is owned, directly or indirectly, by or for an individual entitled to the use of the property (whether such right is obtained directly from the corporation or by means of a sublease or other arrangement).

“(B) Subparagraph (A) shall apply only to a corporation which has personal holding company income in excess of 10 percent of its ordinary gross income.

“(C) For purposes of the limitation in subparagraph (B), personal holding company income shall be computed—

“(i) without regard to subparagraph (A) or paragraph (2),

“(ii) by excluding amounts received as compensation for the use of (or right to use) intangible property (other than mineral, oil, or gas royalties or copyright royalties) if a substantial part of the tangible property used in connection with such intangible property is owned by the corporation and all such tangible and intangible property is used in the active conduct of a trade or business by an individual or individuals described in subparagraph (A), and

“(iii) by including copyright royalties and adjusted income from mineral, oil, and gas royalties.”

(b) Effective Date.—The amendment made by subsection (a) shall apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1976.

(b) Effective Date.—The amendments made by this section shall apply to parts and accessories sold after the date of the enactment of this Act.

SEC. 2109. EXCLUSION FROM EXCISE TAX ON CERTAIN ARTICLES RESOLD AFTER MODIFICATION.

(a) In General.—Section 4063 (relating to exemptions from excise tax on motor vehicles) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:
"(d) Resale After Certain Modifications.—Under regulations prescribed by the Secretary, the tax imposed by section 4061 shall not apply to the resale of any article described in section 4061(a)(1) if before such resale such article was merely combined with any coupling device (including any fifth wheel), wrecker crane, loading and unloading equipment (including any crane, hoist, winch, or power liftgate), aerial ladder or tower, snow and ice control equipment, earthmoving, excavation and construction equipment, spreader, sleeper cab, cab shield, or wood or metal floor."

(b) Effective Date.—The amendment made by this section shall apply to the resale of any article on or after the date of the enactment of this Act.

SEC. 2110. FRANCHISE TRANSFERS.

(a) Application of Franchise Rules to Partnerships.—Section 751(c) (relating to unrealized receivables of a partnership), as amended by this Act, is amended—

(1) by striking out "farm land (as defined in section 1252 (a))," and inserting in lieu thereof "farm land (as defined in section 1252(a)), franchises, trademarks, or trade names (referred to in section 1253(a))," and

(2) by striking out "1252(a)" and inserting in lieu thereof "1252(a), 1253(a)".

(b) Effective Date.—Subsection (a) shall apply to transactions described in sections 731, 736, 741, or 751 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 which occur after December 31, 1976, in taxable years ending after that date.

SEC. 2111. EMPLOYER'S DUTIES IN CONNECTION WITH THE RECORDING AND REPORTING OF TIPS.

(a) Suspension of Rulings.—Until January 1, 1979, the law with respect to the duty of an employer under section 6041(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 to report charge account tips of employees to the Internal Revenue Service (other than charge account tips included in statements furnished to the employer under section 6053(a) of such Code) shall be administered—

(1) without regard to Revenue Rulings 75-400 and 76-231, and

(2) in accordance with the manner in which such law was administered before the issuance of such rulings.

(b) Effective Date.—This section shall take effect on January 1, 1976.

SEC. 2112. TREATMENT OF CERTAIN POLLUTION CONTROL FACILITIES.

(a) Availability of Investment Credit for Certain Pollution Control Facilities.—

(1) In General.—Section 48(a)(8) (relating to amortized property) is amended by striking out "169," and by striking out the second sentence thereof.

(2) Applicable Percentage in Determining Amount of Credit.—Section 46(c) (relating to qualified investment) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

"(5) Applicable Percentage in the Case of Certain Pollution Control Facilities.—Notwithstanding subsection (c)(2), in the case of property—

"(A) with respect to which an election under section 169 applies, and
(B) the useful life of which (determined without regard to section 169) is not less than 5 years, 50 percent shall be the applicable percentage for purposes of applying paragraph (1) with respect to so much of the adjusted basis of the property as (after the application of section 169(f)) constitutes the amortizable basis for purposes of section 169."

(b) Definition of Certified Pollution Control Facilities.—Paragraph (1) of section 169(d) (defining certified pollution control facilities) is amended—

(1) by striking out "January 1, 1969," and inserting in lieu thereof "January 1, 1976,;"

(2) by striking out "or storing" and inserting in lieu thereof "storing, or preventing the creation or emission of"; and

(3) by striking out "and" at the end of subparagraph (A), by striking out the period at the end of subparagraph (B) and inserting in lieu thereof "; and", and by adding at the end thereof the following new subparagraph:

"(C) does not significantly—

"(i) increase the output or capacity, extend the useful life, or reduce the total operating costs of such plant or other property (or any unit thereof), or

"(ii) alter the nature of the manufacturing or production process or facility."

(c) Extension of Amortization.—Paragraph (4) of section 169(d) (relating to new identifiable treatment facility) is amended to read as follows:

"(4) New Identifiable Treatment Facility.—

"(A) In General.—For purposes of paragraph (1), the term 'new identifiable treatment facility' includes only tangible property (not including a building and its structural components, other than a building which is exclusively a treatment facility) which is of a character subject to the allowance for depreciation provided in section 167, which is identifiable as a treatment facility, and which is property—

"(i) the construction, reconstruction, or erection of which is completed by the taxpayer after December 31, 1968, or

"(ii) acquired after December 31, 1968, if the original use of the property commences with the taxpayer and commences after such date.

In applying this section in the case of property described in clause (i) there shall be taken into account only that portion of the basis which is properly attributable to construction, reconstruction, or erection after December 31, 1968.

"(B) Certain Plants, etc., Placed in Operation After 1968.—In the case of any treatment facility used in connection with any plant or other property not in operation before January 1, 1969, the preceding sentence shall be applied by substituting December 31, 1975, for December 31, 1968."

(d) Effective Dates.—

(1) The amendments made by subsection (a) shall apply to—

(A) property acquired by the taxpayer after December 31, 1976, and

(B) property the construction, reconstruction, or erection of which was completed by the taxpayer after December 31, 1976, (but only to the extent of the basis thereof attributable to construction, reconstruction, or erection after such date), in taxable years beginning after such date.

(2) The amendments made by subsection (b) shall apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1975. Such amendments shall not apply in the case of any property with respect to which the amortization period under section 169 of the Internal

SEC. 2113. CLARIFICATION OF STATUS OF CERTAIN FISHERMEN'S ORGANIZATIONS.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Section 501 (relating to exemption from tax on corporations, etc.) is amended by redesignating subsection (g) as (h) and by inserting after subsection (f) the following new subsection:

“(g) DEFINITION OF AGRICULTURAL.—For purposes of subsection (c)(5), the term ‘agricultural’ includes the art or science of cultivating land, harvesting crops or aquatic resources, or raising livestock.”

(b) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendment made by this section applies to taxable years ending after December 31, 1975.

SEC. 2114. APPLICATION OF SECTION 6013(e) OF THE INTERNAL REVE-NUE CODE OF 1954.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Section 3 of the Act of January 12, 1971, Public Law 91-679 (84 Stat. 2064), is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new sentences: “Upon application by a taxpayer, the Secretary of the Treasury shall redetermine the liability for tax (including interest, penalties, and other amounts) of such taxpayer for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1961, and ending before January 13, 1971. The preceding sentence shall apply solely to a taxpayer to whom the application of the provisions of section 6013(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as added by this Act, for such taxable years is prevented by the operation of res judicata, and such redetermination shall be made without regard to such rule of law. Any overpayment of tax by such taxpayer for such taxable years resulting from the redetermination made under this Act shall be refunded to such taxpayer.”

(b) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The application permitted under the amendment made by subsection (a) of this section must be filed with the Secretary of the Treasury during the first calendar year beginning after the date of the enactment of this Act.

SEC. 2115. AMENDMENTS TO RULES RELATING TO LIMITATION ON PER-CENTAGE DEPLETION IN CASE OF OIL AND GAS WELLS, TRANSFERS OF OIL AND GAS PROPERTY WITHIN THE SAME CONTROLLED GROUP OR FAMILY.

(a) RETAILER EXCLUSION.—Paragraph (2) of section 613A(d) (relating to the retailer exclusion) is amended by inserting “(excluding bulk sales of such items to commercial or industrial users)” after “natural gas” where it first appears, and by adding at the end thereof the following:

“Notwithstanding the preceding sentence this paragraph shall not apply in any case where the combined gross receipts from the sale of such oil, natural gas, or any product derived therefrom, for the taxable year of all retail outlets taken into account for purposes of this paragraph do not exceed $5,000,000. For purposes of this paragraph, sales of oil, natural gas, or any product derived from oil or natural gas shall not include sales made of such items outside the United States, if no domestic production of the taxpayer or a related person is exported during the taxable year or the immediately preceding taxable year.”

(b) Transfer Rule.—

26 USC 613A.

(1) In general.—Subparagraph (B) of section 613A(c)(9) (relating to exceptions to the transfer rule) is amended by striking out “or” at the end of clause (i), by striking out the period at the end of clause (ii) and inserting in lieu thereof “, or”, and by adding at the end thereof the following new clause:

“(iii) a change of beneficiaries of a trust by reason of the death, birth, or adoption of any vested beneficiary if the transferee was a beneficiary of such trust or is a lineal descendant of the settlor or any other vested beneficiary of such trust, except in the case of any trust where any beneficiary of such trust is a member of the family (as defined in section 267(c)(4)) of a settlor who created inter vivos and testamentary trusts for members of the family and such settlor died within the last six days of the fifth month in 1970, and the law in the jurisdiction in which such trust was created requires all or a portion of the gross or net proceeds of any royalty or other interest in oil, gas, or other mineral representing any percentage depletion allowance to be allocated to the principal of the trust.”

(2) Conforming amendments.—Paragraph (1) of section 613A(d) (relating to the limitation on percentage depletion based upon taxable income) is amended—

(A) by striking out subparagraph (A) and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

“(A) any depletion on production from an oil or gas property which is subject to the provisions of subsection (c),”;

(B) by striking out “and” at the end of subparagraph (B),

(C) by striking out the period at the end of subparagraph (C) and inserting in lieu thereof “, and”, and

(D) by adding at the end thereof the following new subparagraph:

“(D) in the case of a trust, any distributions to its beneficiaries, except in the case of any trust where any beneficiary of such trust is a member of the family (as defined in section 267(c)(4)) of a settlor who created inter vivos and testamentary trusts for members of the family and such settlor died within the last six days of the fifth month in 1970, and the law in the jurisdiction in which such trust was created requires all or a portion of the gross or net proceeds of any royalty or other interest in oil, gas, or other mineral representing any percentage depletion allowance to be allocated to the principal of the trust.”

(c) Partnership Rules.—

(1) Subparagraph (D) of section 613A(c)(7) (relating to the computation of depletion in the case of partnerships) is amended to read as follows:

“(D) Partnerships.—In the case of a partnership, the depletion allowance shall be computed separately by the partners and not by the partnership. The partnership shall allocate to each partner his proportionate share of the adjusted basis of each partnership oil or gas property. The allocation is to be made as of the later of the date of acquisition of the oil or gas property by the partnership, or January 1, 1975. A partner's proportionate share of the adjusted basis of partnership property shall be determined in accordance with his interest in partnership capital or income and, in the case of an agreement described in section 704(c)(2) (relating to effect of a partnership agreement on contributed property), such share shall be determined by taking such agreement into account. Each partner shall separately keep records of his share of the adjusted basis in each oil and gas property of the partnership, adjust such share of the adjusted basis for any depletion taken on such property, and use such adjusted basis each year in the computation of his cost depletion or in the computation of his gain or loss on the disposition of such property by the partnership. For purposes of section 732 (relating to basis of distributed property other than money), the partnership's adjusted basis in mineral property shall be an amount equal to the sum of the partners' adjusted basis in such property as determined under this paragraph.

(2) Subparagraph (G) of section 703(a)(2) (relating to deductions not allowed to a partnership) is amended by striking out "production subject to the provisions of section 613A(a)" and inserting in lieu thereof "wells".

(3) Subsection (a) of section 705 (relating to the determination of basis of a partner's interest in a partnership) is amended—

(A) by striking out "and" in paragraph (1)(C),

(B) by striking out the period at the end of paragraph (2) and inserting in lieu thereof "; and", and

(C) by adding at the end thereof the following:

"(3) decreased (but not below zero), by the amount of the partner's deduction for depletion under section 611 with respect to oil and gas wells."

(d) RELATED PERSON.—Paragraph (3) of section 613A(d) (relating to the definition of related person) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

"For purposes of determining a significant ownership interest, an interest owned by or for a corporation, partnership, trust, or estate shall be considered as owned directly both by itself and proportionately by its shareholders, partners, or beneficiaries, as the case may be."

(e) TRANSFERS OF OIL AND GAS PROPERTY WITHIN THE SAME CONTROLLED GROUP OR FAMILY.—Subparagraph (B) of section 613A(c)(9) (relating to transfer of oil or gas property), as amended by subsection (b)(1), is amended—

(1) by striking out "or" at the end of clause (ii),

(2) by striking out the period at the end of clause (iii) and inserting in lieu thereof a comma, and

(3) by adding at the end thereof the following:

"(iv) a transfer of property between corporations which are members of the same controlled group of corporations (as defined in paragraph (8)(D)(i)), or

"(v) a transfer of property between business entities which are under common control (within the meaning of paragraph (8)(B)) or between related persons in the same family (within the meaning of paragraph (8)(C)), or “(vi) a transfer of property between a trust and related persons in the same family (within the meaning of paragraph (8) (C)) to the extent that the beneficiaries of that trust are and continue to be related persons in the family that transferred the property, and to the extent that the tentative oil quantity is allocated among the members of the family (within the meaning of paragraph (8) (C)).

Clause (iv) or (v) shall apply only so long as the tentative oil quantity determined under the table contained in paragraph (3) (B) is allocated under paragraph (8) between the transferor and transferee.”

26 USC 613A note.

(f) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendments made by this section shall take effect on January 1, 1975, and shall apply to taxable years ending after December 31, 1974.

(a) ELECTION BY STATES TO PARTICIPATE.—Section 204(b) (2) of the Federal-State Tax Collection Act of 1972 is amended to read as follows:

“(2) the first January 1 which is more than one year after the first date on which at least one State has notified the Secretary of the Treasury or his delegate of an election to enter into an agreement under section 6363 of such Code.”

(b) ADJUSTMENTS TO QUALIFIED RESIDENT TAXES FOR PURPOSES OF FEDERAL COLLECTION OF STATE INDIVIDUAL INCOME TAXES.—

(1) QUALIFIED RESIDENT TAX BASED ON TAXABLE INCOME.—

(A) REQUIRED ADJUSTMENTS.—Section 6362(b) (1) (relating to required adjustments) is amended—

(i) by striking out “and” at the end of subparagraph (B),

(ii) by striking out the period at the end of subparagraph (C) and inserting in lieu thereof “; and”, and

(iii) by adding at the end thereof the following new subparagraph:

“(D) if a credit is allowed against such tax for State or local sales tax in accordance with paragraph (2) (C), by adding an amount equal to the amount of his deduction under section 164 (a) (4) for such sales tax.”

(B) PERMITTED ADJUSTMENTS.—Section 6362(b) (2) (relating to permitted adjustments) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subparagraph:

“(C) A credit is allowed against such tax for all or a portion of any general sales tax imposed by the same State or a political subdivision thereof with respect to sales to the taxpayer or his dependents.”

(2) QUALIFIED RESIDENT TAX WHICH IS A PERCENTAGE OF THE FEDERAL TAX—

(A) PERMITTED ADJUSTMENTS.—Section 6362(c) (3) (relating to permitted adjustments) is amended—

(i) by striking out “both” and inserting in lieu thereof “all”,

(ii) by striking out “and” at the end of subparagraph (A),
(iii) by striking out the period at the end of subparagraph (B) and inserting in lieu thereof "and", and
(iv) by adding at the end thereof the following new subparagraph:
"(C) if a credit is allowed against such tax for State or local sales tax in accordance with paragraph (4)(B), the liability for tax is increased by the increase in such liability which would result from including as an item of income an amount equal to the amount of his deduction under section 164(a)(4) for such sales tax."

(B) FURTHER PERMITTED ADJUSTMENTS.—Section 6362(c)

(4) (relating to further permitted adjustments) is amended to read as follows:
"(4) FURTHER PERMITTED ADJUSTMENTS.—A tax which otherwise meets the requirements of paragraphs (1) and (2) shall not be deemed to fail to meet such requirements solely because it provides for one or both of the following adjustments:
   "(A) A credit determined under rules prescribed by the Secretary is allowed against such tax for income tax paid to another State or a political subdivision thereof.
   "(B) A credit is allowed against such tax for all or a portion of any general sales tax imposed by the same State or a political subdivision thereof with respect to sales to the taxpayer or his dependents."

(c) PROHIBITION ON CHARGES FOR FEDERAL COLLECTION OF STATE INCOME TAXES.—Section 6361(a) (relating to general rules for Federal collection and administration of State individual income taxes) is amended by inserting, after the first sentence thereof, the following: "No fee or other charge shall be imposed upon any State for the collection or administration of the qualified State individual income taxes of such State or any other State."

(d) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendments made by this section shall take effect on the date of the enactment of this Act.

SEC. 2117. CANCELLATION OF CERTAIN STUDENT LOANS.

(a) IN GENERAL.—In the case of an individual, no amount shall be included in gross income for purposes of section 61 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 by reason of the discharge of all or part of the indebtedness of the individual under a student loan if such discharge was pursuant to a provision of such loan under which all or part of the indebtedness of the individual would be discharged if the individual worked for a certain period of time in certain geographical areas or for certain classes of employers.

(b) STUDENT LOAN.—For purposes of this section the term "student loan" means any loan to an individual to assist the individual in attending an educational organization described in section 170(b)(1) of such Code—

(A) (i) by the United States, or an instrumentality or agency thereof, or a State, territory, or possession of the United States, or any political subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia, or

(ii) by any other such educational organization pursuant to an agreement with the United States, or an instrumentality or agency thereof, or a State, territory, or possession of the United States, or any political subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia under which the funds from which the loan was made were provided to such educational organization.
SEC. 2118. TREATMENT OF GAIN OR LOSS ON SALES OR EXCHANGES IN CONNECTION WITH SIMULTANEOUS LIQUIDATION OF A PARENT AND SUBSIDIARY CORPORATION.

26 USC 337.

(a) In General.—Section 337 (relating to gain or loss on sales or exchanges in connection with certain liquidations) is amended by adding the following sentence at the end of subsection (c) (2) thereof:

"This paragraph shall not apply to a sale or exchange by a member of an affiliated group of corporations, as defined in section 1504(a) (but without regard to the exceptions contained in section 1504(b)), if each member of such group (including the common parent corporation) which receives, within the 12-month period beginning on the date of the adoption of a plan of complete liquidation by the corporation which made the sale or exchange, a distribution in complete liquidation from any other member of such group is itself completely liquidated within such 12-month period."

(b) Effective Date.—The amendment made by subsection (a) shall apply to sales or exchanges made pursuant to a plan of complete liquidation adopted after December 31, 1975.

SEC. 2119. REGULATIONS RELATING TO TAX TREATMENT OF CERTAIN PREPUBLICATION EXPENDITURES OF PUBLISHERS.

(a) General Rule.—With respect to taxable years beginning on or before the date on which regulations dealing with prepublication expenditures are issued after the date of the enactment of this Act, the application of sections 61 (as it relates to cost of goods sold), 162, 174, 263, and 471 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 to any prepublication expenditure shall be administered—

(1) without regard to Revenue Ruling 73–395, and

(2) in the manner in which such sections were applied consistently by the taxpayer to such expenditures before the date of the issuance of such revenue ruling.

(b) Regulations To Be Prospective Only.—Any regulations issued after the date of the enactment of this Act which deal with the application of sections 61 (as it relates to cost of goods sold), 162, 174, 263, and 471 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 to prepublication expenditures shall apply only with respect to taxable years beginning after the date on which such regulations are issued.

(c) Prepublication Expenditures Defined.—For purposes of this section, the term "prepublication expenditures" means expenditures paid or incurred by the taxpayer (in connection with his trade or business of publishing) for the writing, editing, compiling, illustrating, designing, or other development or improvement of a book, teaching aid, or similar product.

SEC. 2120. CONTRIBUTIONS IN AID OF CONSTRUCTION FOR CERTAIN UTILITIES.

26 USC 118.

(a) In General.—Section 118 (relating to contributions to the capital of a corporation) is amended by redesignating subsection (b) as subsection (c) and inserting immediately after subsection (a) the following new subsection:

"(b) CONTRIBUTIONS IN AID OF CONSTRUCTION.—

"(1) General rule.—For purposes of this section, the term 'contribution to the capital of the taxpayer' includes any amount of money or other property received from any person (whether or not a shareholder) by a regulated public utility which provides water or sewerage disposal services if—

"(A) such amount is a contribution in aid of construction,

"(B) where the contribution is in property which is other than water or sewerage disposal facilities, such amount meets the requirements of the expenditure rule of paragraph (2), and

"(C) such amounts (or any property acquired or constructed with such amounts) are not included in the taxpayer's rate base for rate-making purposes.

"(2) EXPENDITURE RULE.—An amount meets the requirements of this paragraph if—

"(A) an amount equal to such amount is expended for the acquisition or construction of tangible property described in section 1231(b)—

"(i) which was the purpose motivating the contribution, and

"(ii) which is used predominantly in the trade or business of furnishing water or sewerage disposal services,

"(B) the expenditure referred to in subparagraph (A) occurs before the end of the second taxable year after the year in which such amount was received, and

"(C) accurate records are kept of the amounts contributed and expenditures made on the basis of the project for which the contribution was made and on the basis of the year of contribution or expenditure.

"(3) DEFINITIONS.—For purposes of this section—

"(A) CONTRIBUTION IN AID OF CONSTRUCTION.—The term
'contribution in aid of construction' shall be defined by regulations prescribed by the Secretary; except that such term shall not include amounts paid as customer connection fees (including amounts paid to connect the customer's property to a main water or sewer line and amounts paid as service charges for starting or stopping services).

"(B) PREDOMINANTLY.—The term 'predominantly' means 80 percent or more.

"(C) REGULATED PUBLIC UTILITY.—The term 'regulated public utility' has the meaning given such term by section 7701(a) (33); except that such term shall not include any such utility which is not required to provide water or sewerage disposal services to members of the general public in its service area.

"(4) DISALLOWANCE OF DEDUCTIONS AND INVESTMENT CREDIT; ADJUSTED BASIS.—Notwithstanding any other provision of this subtitle, no deduction or credit shall be allowed for, or by reason of, the expenditure which constitutes a contribution in aid of construction to which this subsection applies. The adjusted basis of any property acquired with contributions in aid of construction to which this subsection applies shall be zero.”

(b) CONFORMING AMENDMENT.—Section 362 (c) (relating to special rule for contributions to capital) is amended by adding the following new paragraph immediately after paragraph (2):

"(3) EXCEPTION FOR CONTRIBUTIONS IN AID OF CONSTRUCTION.—
The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to contributions in aid of construction to which section 118(b) applies.”

(c) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendments made by this section apply to contributions made after January 31, 1976.
SEC. 2121. PROHIBITION OF DISCRIMINATORY STATE TAXES ON PRODUCTION AND CONSUMPTION OF ELECTRICITY.

(a) IN GENERAL.—The Act entitled “An Act relating to the power of the States to impose net income taxes on income derived from interstate commerce, and authorizing studies by congressional committees of matters pertaining thereto”, approved September 14, 1959 (73 Stat. 555; 15 U.S.C. 381 et seq.) is amended by striking out title II (relating to studies) and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

“TITLE II—DISCRIMINATORY TAXES

15 USC 391.

Sec. 201. No State, or political subdivision thereof, may impose or assess a tax on or with respect to the generation or transmission of electricity which discriminates against out-of-State manufacturers, producers, wholesalers, retailers, or consumers of that electricity. For purposes of this section a tax is discriminatory if it results, either directly or indirectly, in a greater tax burden on electricity which is generated and transmitted in interstate commerce than on electricity which is generated and transmitted in intrastate commerce.”

15 USC 391

(b) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendment made by subsection (a) shall take effect beginning June 30, 1974.

SEC. 2122. ALLOWANCE OF DEDUCTION FOR ELIMINATING ARCHITECTURAL AND TRANSPORTATION BARRIERS FOR THE HANDICAPPED.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Part VI of subchapter B of chapter 1 (relating to itemized deductions for individuals and corporations) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

26 USC 190.

“SEC. 190. EXPENDITURES TO REMOVE ARCHITECTURAL AND TRANSPORTATION BARRIERS TO THE HANDICAPPED AND ELDERLY.

“(a) TREATMENT AS EXPENSES.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—A taxpayer may elect to treat qualified architectural and transportation barrier removal expenses which are paid or incurred by him during the taxable year as expenses which are not chargeable to capital account. The expenditures so treated shall be allowed as a deduction.

“(2) ELECTION.—An election under paragraph (1) shall be made at such time and in such manner as the Secretary prescribes by regulations.

“(b) DEFINITIONS.—For purposes of this section—

“(1) ARCHITECTURAL AND TRANSPORTATION BARRIER REMOVAL EXPENSES.—The term ‘architectural and transportation barrier removal expenses’ means an expenditure for the purpose of making any facility or public transportation vehicle owned or leased by the taxpayer for use in connection with his trade or business more accessible to, and usable by, handicapped and elderly individuals.

“(2) QUALIFIED ARCHITECTURAL AND TRANSPORTATION BARRIER REMOVAL EXPENSE.—The term ‘qualified architectural and transportation barrier removal expense’ means, with respect to any such facility or public transportation vehicle, an architectural or transportation barrier removal expense with respect to which the taxpayer establishes, to the satisfaction of the Secretary, that the resulting removal of any such barrier meets the standards promulgated by the Secretary with the concurrence of the Architectural and Transportation Barriers Compliance Board and set forth in regulations prescribed by the Secretary.

“(3) HANDICAPPED INDIVIDUAL.—The term ‘handicapped individual’ means any individual who has a physical or mental disability (including, but not limited to, blindness or deafness) which for such individual constitutes or results in a functional limitation to employment, or who has any physical or mental impairment (including, but not limited to, a sight or hearing impairment) which substantially limits one or more major life activities of such individual.

“(c) LIMITATION.—The deduction allowed by subsection (a) for any taxable year shall not exceed $25,000.

“(d) REGULATIONS.—The Secretary shall prescribe such regulations as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this section within 180 days after the date of the enactment of the Tax Reform Act of 1976.”

(b) TECHNICAL AND CONFORMING AMENDMENTS.—

(1) The table of sections for such part VI is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new item:

“Sec. 190. Expenditures to remove architectural and transportation barriers to the handicapped and elderly.”

(2) Section 263 (a) (1) (relating to capital expenditures) is amended—

(A) by striking out “or” at the end of subparagraph (D) thereof,

(B) by striking out the period at the end of subsection (E) thereof and inserting in lieu thereof a comma and the word “or”, and

(C) by adding at the end thereof the following new subparagraph:

“(F) expenditures for removal of architectural and transportation barriers to the handicapped and elderly which the taxpayer elects to deduct under section 190.”

(3) Section 1245 (a) (relating to gain from dispositions of certain depreciable property) is amended—

(A) by striking out “or 188” each place it appears in paragraphs (2) and (3) (D) and inserting in lieu thereof “188, or 190”,

(B) by striking out “or 185” in paragraph (2) (D) and inserting in lieu thereof “185, or 190”; and

(C) by adding at the end of paragraph (2) the following new sentence: “For purposes of this section, any deduction allowable under section 190 shall be treated as if it were a deduction allowable for amortization.”

(4) Section 1250 (b) (3) (relating to depreciation adjustments) is amended by striking out “or 188” and inserting in lieu thereof “188, or 190”.

(c) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendments made by this section shall apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1976, and before January 1, 1980.

SEC. 2123. HIGH INCOME TAXPAYER REPORT.

The Secretary of the Treasury shall publish annually information on the amount of tax paid by individual taxpayers with high total incomes. Total income for this purpose is to be calculated and set forth in three ways:
(1) by adding to adjusted gross income any items of tax preference excluded from, or deducted in arriving at, adjusted gross income,
(2) by subtracting any investment expenses incurred in the production of such income to the extent of the investment income, and
(3) by making both of the adjustments referred to in paragraphs (1) and (2).

In any event these data are to include the number of such individuals with total income over $200,000 who owe no Federal income tax (after credits) and the deductions, exclusions or credits used by them to avoid tax.

SEC. 2124. TAX INCENTIVES TO ENCOURAGE THE PRESERVATION OF HISTORIC STRUCTURES.

(a) AMORTIZATION OF REHABILITATION EXPENDITURES.—

(1) ALLOWANCE OF DEDUCTION.—Part VI of subchapter B of chapter 1 (relating to itemized deductions) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

26 USC 191.

"SEC. 191. AMORTIZATION OF CERTAIN REHABILITATION EXPENDITURES FOR CERTIFIED HISTORIC STRUCTURES.

"(a) ALLOWANCE OF DEDUCTION.—Every person, at his election, shall be entitled to a deduction with respect to the amortization of the amortizable basis of any certified historic structure (as defined in subsection (d)) based on a period of 60 months. Such amortization deduction shall be an amount, with respect to each month of such period within the taxable year, equal to the amortizable basis at the end of such month divided by the number of months (including the month for which the deduction is computed) remaining in the period. Such amortizable basis at the end of the month shall be computed without regard to the amortization deduction for such month. The amortization deduction provided by this section with respect to any month shall be in lieu of the depreciation deduction with respect to such basis for such month provided by section 167. The 60-month period shall begin, as to any historic structure, at the election of the taxpayer, with the month following the month in which the basis is acquired, or with the succeeding taxable year.

"(b) ELECTION OF AMORTIZATION.—The election of the taxpayer to take the amortization deduction and to begin the 60-month period with the month following the month in which the basis is acquired, or with the taxable year succeeding the taxable year in which such basis is acquired, shall be made by filing with the Secretary, in such manner, in such form, and within such time as the Secretary may by regulations prescribe, a statement of such election.

"(c) TERMINATION OF AMORTIZATION DEDUCTION.—A taxpayer who has elected under subsection (b) to take the amortization deduction provided in subsection (a) may, at any time after making such election, discontinue the amortization deduction with respect to the remainder of the amortization period, such discontinuance to begin as of the beginning of any month specified by the taxpayer in a notice in writing filed with the Secretary before the beginning of such month. The depreciation deduction provided under section 167 shall be allowed, beginning with the first month as to which the amortization deduction does not apply, and the taxpayer shall not be entitled to any further amortization deduction under this section with respect to such certified historic structure."
"(d) Definitions.—For purposes of this section—

"(1) Certified Historic Structure.—The term 'certified historic structure' means a building or structure which is of a character subject to the allowance for depreciation provided in section 167 which—

"(A) is listed in the National Register,
"(B) is located in a Registered Historic District and is certified by the Secretary of the Interior as being of historic significance to the district, or
"(C) is located in an historic district designated under a statute of the appropriate State or local government if such statute is certified by the Secretary of the Interior to the Secretary as containing criteria which will substantially achieve the purpose of preserving and rehabilitating buildings of historic significance to the district.

"(2) Amortizable Basis.—The term 'amortizable basis' means the portion of the basis attributable to amounts expended in connection with certified rehabilitation.

"(3) Certified Rehabilitation.—The term 'certified rehabilitation' means any rehabilitation of a certified historic structure which the Secretary of the Interior has certified to the Secretary as being consistent with the historic character of such property or the district in which such property is located.

"(e) Depreciation Deduction.—The depreciation deduction provided by section 167 shall, despite the provisions of subsection (a), be allowed with respect to the portion of the adjusted basis which is not the amortizable basis.

"(f) Life Tenant and Remainderman.—In the case of property held by one person for life with remainder to another person, the deduction under this section shall be computed as if the life tenant were the absolute owner of the property and shall be allowable to the life tenant.

"(g) Cross References.—

"(1) For rules relating to the listing of buildings and structures in the National Register and for definitions of 'National Register' and 'Registered Historic District', see section 470 et seq. of title 16 of the United States Code.

"(2) For special rule with respect to certain gain derived from the disposition of property the adjusted basis of which is determined with regard to this section, see section 1245.

"(2) Gain on Disposition.—Section 1245(a) (relating to gain from dispositions of certain depreciable property) is amended by striking out "or 190" each place it appears and inserting in lieu thereof "190, or 191".

"(3) Conforming Amendments.—

(A) The table of sections for part VI of subchapter B of chapter 1 is amended by inserting at the end thereof the following new item:

"Sec. 191. Amortization of certain rehabilitation expenditures for certified historic structures."

(B) Section 642(f) (relating to amortization deductions of estates and trust) is amended by striking out "and 188" and inserting in lieu thereof "188, and 191".

(C) Section 1082(a)(2)(B) (relating to basis for determining gain or loss) is amended by striking out "or 188" and inserting in lieu thereof "188, or 191".
(D) Section 1250(b)(3) (relating to depreciation adjustments) is amended by striking out "or 190" and inserting in lieu thereof "190 or 191".

(4) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendments made by this subsection shall apply with respect to additions to capital account made after June 14, 1976 and before June 15, 1981.

(b) DEMOLITION.—

(1) DISALLOWANCE OF DEDUCTIONS.—Part IX of subchapter B of chapter 1 (relating to items not deductible) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

"SEC. 280B. DEMOLITION OF CERTAIN HISTORIC STRUCTURES.

"(a) General Rule.—In the case of the demolition of a certified historic structure (as defined in section 191(d)(1))—

"(1) no deduction otherwise allowable under this chapter shall be allowed to the owner or lessee of such structure for—

"(A) any amount expended for such demolition, or

"(B) any loss sustained on account of such demolition; and

"(2) amounts described in paragraph (1) shall be treated as properly chargeable to capital account with respect to the land on which the demolished structure was located.

"(b) Special Rule for Registered Historic Districts.—For purposes of this section, any building or other structure located in a Registered Historic District shall be treated as a certified historic structure unless the Secretary of the Interior has certified, prior to the demolition of such structure, that such structure is not of historic significance to the district.

"(2) Clerical Amendment.—The table of sections for part IX of subchapter B of chapter 1 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new item:

"Sec. 280B. Demolition of certain historic structures."

(3) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendments made by this subsection shall apply with respect to demolitions commencing after June 30, 1976, and before January 1, 1981.

(c) DEPRECIATION OF IMPROVEMENTS.—

(1) Method of Depreciation.—Section 167 (relating to depreciation) is amended by redesignating subsection (n) as (p), and by inserting after subsection (m) the following new subsection:

"(n) Straight Line Method in Certain Cases.—

"(1) In General.—In the case of any property in whole or in part constructed, reconstructed, erected, or used on a site which was, on or after June 30, 1976, occupied by a certified historic structure (as defined in section 191(d)(1)) which is demolished or substantially altered (other than by virtue of a certified rehabilitation as defined in section 191(d)(3)) after such date—

"(A) subsections (b), (j), (k), and (l) shall not apply,

"(B) the term 'reasonable allowance' as used in subsection (a) shall mean only an allowance computed under the straight line method.

"(2) Exception.—The limitations imposed by this subsection shall not apply to personal property.

(2) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendment made by this subsection shall apply to that portion of the basis which is attributable to construction, reconstruction, or erection after December 31, 1975, and before January 1, 1981.

(d) Substantially Rehabilitated Property.—

(1) Section 167 (relating to depreciation) is amended by inserting after subsection (n) (as added by subsection (c) of this section) the following new subsection:

"(o) Substantially Rehabilitated Historic Property.—

"(1) General Rule.—Pursuant to regulations prescribed by the Secretary, the taxpayer may elect to compute the depreciation deduction attributable to substantially rehabilitated historic property as though the original use of such property commenced with him. The election shall be effective with respect to the taxable year referred to in paragraph (2) and all succeeding taxable years.

"(2) Substantially rehabilitated property.—For purposes of paragraph (1), the term 'substantially rehabilitated historic property' means any certified historic structure (as defined in section 191(d)(1)) with respect to which the additions to capital account for any certified rehabilitation (as defined in section 191(d)(3)) during the 24-month period ending on the last day of any taxable year, reduced by any amounts allowed or allowable as depreciation or amortization with respect thereto, exceeds the greater of—

"(A) the adjusted basis of such property, or

"(B) $5,000.

The adjusted basis of the property shall be determined as of the beginning of the first day of such 24-month period, or of the holding period of the property (within the meaning of section 1250 (e)), whichever is later."

"(2) Effective Date.—The amendment made by this subsection shall apply with respect to additions to capital account occurring after June 30, 1976, and before July 1, 1981.

(e) Transfers of Partial Interests in Property for Conservation Purposes.—

(1) Income Tax Dedications for Charitable Contributions of Partial Interests in Property for Conservation Purposes.—Section 170(f)(3) (relating to charitable contributions) is amended—

(A) by striking out "or" at the end of subparagraph (B)(i),

(B) by striking out "property.", at the end of subparagraph (B)(ii) and inserting in lieu thereof "property.",

(C) by adding after clause (ii) of subparagraph (B) the following new clauses:

"(iii) a lease on, option to purchase, or easement with respect to real property of not less than 30 years' duration granted to an organization described in subsection (b)(1)(A) exclusively for conservation purposes, or

"(iv) a remainder interest in real property which is granted to an organization described in subsection (b)(1)(A) exclusively for conservation purposes.", and

(D) by adding at the end thereof the following new subparagraph:

"(C) Conservation Purposes Defined.—For purposes of subparagraph (B), the term 'conservation purposes' means—

"(i) the preservation of land areas for public outdoor recreation or education, or scenic enjoyment;

"(ii) the preservation of historically important land areas or structures; or

"(iii) the protection of natural environmental systems.".

(2) Estate Tax Deduction for Transfer of Partial Interests in Property for Conservation Purposes.—Section 2055(e)(2)
(relating to deductions from gross estate) is amended by striking out "(other than a remainder interest in a personal residence or farm or an undivided portion of the decedent's entire interest in property)" and inserting in lieu thereof "(other than an interest described in section 170(f)(3)(B))".

(3) GIFT TAX DEDUCTION FOR TRANSFERS OF PARTIAL INTERESTS IN PROPERTY FOR CONSERVATION PURPOSES.—Section 2522(c)(2) (relating to deductions from taxable gifts) is amended by striking out "(other than a remainder interest in a personal residence or farm or an undivided portion of the donor's entire interest in property)" and inserting in lieu thereof "(other than an interest described in section 170(f)(3)(B))".

(4) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendments made by this subsection shall apply with respect to contributions or transfers made after June 13, 1976, and before June 14, 1977.

SEC. 2125. AMENDMENT TO SUPPLEMENTAL SECURITY INCOME PROGRAM.

Section 1612(a)(2)(A)(iii) of the Social Security Act is amended by striking out "fifth month" and inserting in lieu thereof "seventeenth month".

SEC. 2126. EXTENSION OF CARRY-OVER PERIOD FOR CUBAN EXPROPRIATION LOSSES

Subparagraph (D) of section 172(b)(1) (relating to years to which loss may be carried) is amended by striking out "15" and inserting in lieu thereof "20".

SEC. 2127. OUTDOOR ADVERTISING DISPLAYS.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Section 1033(g) (relating to condemnation of real property held for productive use in trade or business or for investment) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

"(3) ELECTION TO TREAT OUTDOOR ADVERTISING DISPLAYS AS REAL PROPERTY.—

"(A) IN GENERAL.—A taxpayer may elect, at such time and in such manner as the Secretary may prescribe, to treat property which constitutes an outdoor advertising display as real property for purposes of this chapter. The election provided by this subparagraph may not be made with respect to any property with respect to which the credit allowed by section 38 (relating to investment in certain depreciable property) is or has been claimed or with respect to which an election under section 179(a) (relating to additional first-year depreciation allowance for small business) is in effect.

"(B) ELECTION.—An election made under subparagraph (A) may not be revoked without the consent of the Secretary.

"(C) OUTDOOR ADVERTISING DISPLAY.—For purposes of this paragraph, the term 'outdoor advertising display' means a rigidly assembled sign, display, or device permanently affixed to the ground or permanently attached to a building or other inherently permanent structure constituting, or used for the display of, a commercial or other advertisement to the public.

"(D) CHARACTER OF REPLACEMENT PROPERTY.—For purposes of this subsection, an interest in real property purchased as replacement property for a compulsorily or involuntarily converted outdoor advertising display defined in subparagraph (C) (and treated by the taxpayer as real property) shall be considered property of a like kind as the property converted without regard to whether the taxpayer's interest in the replacement property is the same kind of interest the taxpayer held in the converted property.

(b) Effective Date.—The amendment made by this section shall apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1970.

SEC. 2128. TAX TREATMENT OF LARGE CIGARS.

(a) In General.—So much of section 5701(a) (relating to the manner of taxation and the rates of tax on cigars) as follows paragraph (1) is amended to read as follows:

"(2) LARGE CIGARS.—On cigars weighing more than 3 pounds per thousand, a tax equal to 8 1/2 percent of the wholesale price, but not more than $20 per thousand.

Cigars not exempt from tax under this chapter which are removed but not intended for sale shall be taxed at the same rate as similar cigars removed for sale."

(b) Definition of Wholesale Price.—Section 5702 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

"(m) WHOLESALE PRICE.—`Wholesale price' means the manufacturer's, or importer's, suggested delivered price at which the cigars are to be sold to retailers, inclusive of the tax imposed by this chapter or section 7652, but exclusive of any State or local taxes imposed on cigars as a commodity, and before any trade, cash, or other discounts, or any promotion, advertising, display, or similar allowances. Where the manufacturer's or importer's suggested delivered price to retailers is not adequately supported by bona fide arm's length sales, or where the manufacturer or importer has no suggested delivered price to retailers, the wholesale price shall be the price for which cigars of comparable retail price are sold to retailers in the ordinary course of trade as determined by the Secretary."

(c) Recordkeeping Requirement.—Section 5741 is amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 5741. RECORDS TO BE MAINTAINED.

"Every manufacturer of tobacco products or cigarette papers and tubes, every importer, and every export warehouse proprietor shall keep such records in such manner as the Secretary shall by regulation prescribe. The records required under this section shall be available for inspection by any internal revenue officer during business hours."

(d) Clerical Amendments—

(1) The heading of subchapter D of chapter 52 is amended to read as follows:

"Subchapter D—Records of Manufacturers and Importers of Tobacco Products and Cigarette Papers and Tubes, and Export Warehouse Proprietors."

(2) The table of subchapters for chapter 52 is amended by striking out the item relating to subchapter D and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"Subchapter D. Records of manufacturers and importers of tobacco products and cigarette papers and tubes, and export warehouse proprietors."

(e) Effective Date.—The amendments made by this section shall take effect on the first month which begins more than 90 days after the date of the enactment of this Act.
SEC. 2129. TREATMENT OF GAIN FROM SALES OR EXCHANGES BETWEEN RELATED PARTIES.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Section 1239 (relating to gain from sale of certain property between spouses or between an individual and a controlled corporation) is amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 1239. GAIN FROM SALE OF DEPRECIABLE PROPERTY BETWEEN CERTAIN RELATED TAXPAYERS.

"(a) TREATMENT OF GAIN AS ORDINARY INCOME.—In the case of a sale or exchange of property, directly or indirectly, between related persons, any gain recognized to the transferor shall be treated as ordinary income if such property is, in the hands of the transferee, subject to the allowance for depreciation provided in section 167.

"(b) RELATED PERSONS.—For purposes of subsection (a), the term 'related persons' means—

"(1) a husband and wife,

"(2) an individual and a corporation 80 percent or more in value of the outstanding stock of which is owned, directly or indirectly, by or for such individual, or

"(3) two or more corporations 80 percent or more in value of the outstanding stock of each of which is owned, directly or indirectly, by or for the same individual.

"(c) CONSTRUCTIVE OWNERSHIP OF STOCK.—Section 318 shall apply in determining the ownership of stock for purposes of this section, except that sections 318 (a) (2) (C) and 318 (a) (3) (C) shall be applied without regard to the 50-percent limitation contained therein."

(b) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendment made by this section shall apply to sales or exchanges after the date of the enactment of this Act. For purposes of the preceding sentence, a sale or exchange is considered to have occurred on or before such date of enactment if such sale or exchange is made pursuant to a binding contract entered into on or before that date.

SEC. 2130. APPLICATION OF SECTION 117 TO CERTAIN EDUCATION PROGRAMS FOR MEMBERS OF THE UNIFORMED SERVICES.

Subsection (c) of section 4 of the Act entitled an Act to suspend until the close of June 30, 1975, the duty on certain carboxymethyl cellulose salts, and for other purposes, approved October 26, 1974 (88 Stat. 1457; Public Law 93-483), is amended by striking out "and 1975" and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "and 1975, and, in the case of a member of a uniformed service receiving training in programs described in subsection (a) during calendar year 1976, with respect to amounts received during calendar years 1976, 1977, 1978, and 1979."

SEC. 2131. EXCHANGE FUNDS.

(a) CORPORATE REORGANIZATIONS.—Paragraph (2) of section 368(a) (special rules relating to definition of reorganization) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subparagraph:

"(F) CERTAIN TRANSACTIONS INVOLVING 2 OR MORE INVESTMENT COMPANIES.—

"(i) If immediately before a transaction described in paragraph (1) (other than subparagraph (E) thereof), 2 or more parties to the transaction were investment companies, then the transaction shall not be considered to be a reorganization with respect to any such investment company (and its shareholders and security holders) unless it was a regulated investment company, a real estate investment trust, or a corporation which meets the requirements of clause (ii).

"(ii) A corporation meets the requirements of this clause if not more than 25 percent of the value of its total assets is invested in the stock and securities of any one issuer, and not more than 50 percent of the value of its total assets is invested in the stock and securities of 5 or fewer issuers. For purposes of this clause, all members of a controlled group of corporations (within the meaning of section 1563(a)) shall be treated as one issuer.

"(iii) For purposes of this subparagraph the term 'investment company' means a regulated investment company, a real estate investment trust, or a corporation more than 50 percent of the value of whose total assets are stock and securities and more than 80 percent of the value of whose total assets are stock and securities held for investment.
In making the 50-percent and 80-percent determinations under the preceding sentence, stock and securities in any subsidiary corporation shall be disregarded and the parent corporation shall be deemed to own its ratable share of the subsidiary's assets, and a corporation shall be considered a subsidiary if the parent owns 50 percent or more of the combined voting power of all classes of stock entitled to vote, or 50 percent or more of the total value of shares of all classes of stock outstanding.

"(iv) For purposes of this subparagraph, in determining total assets there shall be excluded cash and cash items (including receivables). Government securities, and, under regulations prescribed by the Secretary, assets acquired (through incurring indebtedness or otherwise for purposes of meeting the requirements of clause (ii) or ceasing to be an investment company.

"(v) This subparagraph shall not apply if the stock of each investment company is owned substantially by the same persons in the same proportions.

"(vi) If an investment company which is not diversiied within the meaning of clause (ii) acquires assets of another corporation, clause (i) shall be applied to such investment company and its shareholders and security holders as though its assets had been acquired by such other corporation. If such investment company acquires stock of another corporation in a reorganization described in section 368(a)(1)(B) (hereafter referred to as the 'actual acquisition'), clause (i) shall be applied to the shareholders and security holders of such investment company as though they had exchanged with such other corporation all of their stock in such investment company for a percentage of the value of the total outstanding stock of the other corporation equal to the percentage of the value of the total outstanding stock of such investment company which such shareholders own immediately after the actual acquisition. For purposes of section 1001, the deemed acquisition or exchange referred to in the two preceding sentences shall be treated as a sale or exchange of property by the corporation and by the shareholders and security holders to which clause (i) is applied."
26 USC 721.

(b) PARTNERSHIPS.—Section 721 (relating to nonrecognition of gain or loss on transfers to partnerships) is amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 721. NONRECOGNITION OF GAIN OR LOSS ON CONTRIBUTION.

"(a) GENERAL RULE.—No gain or loss shall be recognized to a partnership or to any of its partners in the case of a contribution of property to the partnership in exchange for an interest in the partnership.

"(b) SPECIAL RULE.—Subsection (a) shall not apply to gain realized on a transfer of property to a partnership which would be treated as an investment company (within the meaning of section 351) if the partnership were incorporated."

26 USC 722, 723.

(c) CONFORMING AMENDMENT.—Sections 722 and 723 (relating to tax basis) are each amended by striking out "contribution." and inserting in lieu thereof "contribution increased by the amount (if any) of gain recognized to the contributing partner at such time."

26 USC 584.

(d) COMMON TRUST FUNDS.—Subsection (e) of section 584 (relating to admission to and withdrawal from a common trust fund) is amended by inserting after the first sentence the following new sentence: "The admission of a participant shall be treated with respect to the participant as the purchase of, or an exchange for, the participating interest."

26 USC 683.

(e) TRUSTS.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Section 683 (relating to applicability of provisions) is amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 683. USE OF TRUST AS AN EXCHANGE FUND.

"(a) GENERAL RULE.—Except as provided in subsection (b), if property is transferred to a trust in exchange for an interest in other trust property and if the trust would be an investment company (within the meaning of section 351) if it were a corporation, then gain shall be recognized to the transferor.

"(b) EXCEPTION FOR POOLED INCOME FUNDS.—Subsection (a) shall not apply to any transfer to a pooled income fund (within the meaning of section 642(c)(5))."

(2) CONFORMING AMENDMENT.—The table of sections for subpart F of part I of subchapter J of chapter 1 is amended by striking out the item relating to section 683 and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"Sec. 683. Use of trust as an exchange fund."

(f) EFFECTIVE DATES.—

(1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), the amendment made by subsection (a) shall apply to transfers made after February 17, 1976, in taxable years ending after such date.

(2) The amendment made by subsection (a) shall not apply to transfers made in accordance with a ruling issued by the Internal Revenue Service before February 18, 1976, holding that a proposed transaction would be a reorganization described in paragraph (1) of section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

(3) Except as provided in paragraph (4), the amendments made by subsections (b) and (c) shall apply to transfers made after February 17, 1976, in taxable years ending after such date.

(4) The amendments made by subsections (b) and (c) shall not apply to transfers to a partnership made on or before the 90th day after the date of the enactment of this Act if—

(A) either—
(i) a ruling request with respect to such transfers was filed with the Internal Revenue Service before March 27, 1976, or
(ii) a registration statement with respect to such transfers was filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission before March 27, 1976,
(B) the securities transferred were deposited on or before the 60th day after the date of the enactment of this Act, and
(C) either—
(i) the aggregate value (determined as of the close of the 60th day referred to in subparagraph (B), or, if earlier, the close of the deposit period) of the securities so transferred does not exceed $100,000,000, or
(ii) the securities transferred were all on deposit on February 29, 1976, pursuant to a registration statement referred to in subparagraph (A) (ii).

(5) If no registration statement was required to be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission with respect to the transfer of securities to any partnership, then paragraph (4) shall be applied to such transfers—
(A) as if paragraph (4) did not contain subparagraph (A) (ii) thereof,
(B) by substituting "$25,000,000" for "$100,000,000" in subparagraph (C) (i) thereof.

(6) The amendments made by subsections (d) and (e) shall take effect on April 8, 1976, in taxable years ending on or after such date.

SEC. 2132. CONTRIBUTIONS OF CERTAIN GOVERNMENT PUBLICATIONS.
(a) In General.—Section 1221 (relating to definition of capital asset) is amended by—
(1) striking out "or" at the end of paragraph (4);
(2) striking out the period at the end of paragraph (5) and inserting in lieu thereof "; or";
(3) adding after paragraph (5) the following new paragraph:
"(6) a publication of the United States Government (including the Congressional Record) which is received from the United States Government or any agency thereof, other than by purchase at the price at which it is offered for sale to the public, and which is held by—
"(A) a taxpayer who so received such publication, or
"(B) a taxpayer in whose hands the basis of such publication is determined, for purposes of determining gain from a sale or exchange, in whole or in part by reference to the basis of such publication in the hands of a taxpayer described in subparagraph (A)."

(b) Effective Date.—The amendment made by subsection (a) shall apply to sales, exchanges, and contributions made after the date of enactment of this Act.

SEC. 2133. TAX INCENTIVES STUDY.
(a) Study.—The Joint Committee on Taxation, in consultation with the Treasury, shall make a full and complete study and comparative analysis of the cost effectiveness of different kinds of tax incentives, including an analysis and study of the most effective way to use tax cuts in a period of business recession to provide a stimulus to the economy.
(b) Report.—The Joint Committee on Taxation shall submit to the Committee on Finance of the Senate and to the Committee on Ways and Means of the House of Representatives a final report of its study and investigation together with its recommendations, including recommendations for legislation, as it deems advisable.

(c) Reporting Date.—The final report called for in subsection (b) of this section shall be submitted no later than September 30, 1977.

SEC. 2134. PREPAID LEGAL EXPENSES.

(a) Exclusion.—Part III of subchapter B of chapter 1 is amended by inserting after section 119 the following new section:

“SEC. 120. AMOUNTS RECEIVED UNDER QUALIFIED GROUP LEGAL SERVICES PLANS.

“(a) Exclusion by Employee for Contributions and Legal Services Provided by Employer.—Gross income of an employee, his spouse, or his dependents, does not include—

“(1) amounts contributed by an employer on behalf of an employee, his spouse, or his dependents under a qualified group legal services plan (as defined in subsection (b)); or

“(2) the value of legal services provided, or amounts paid for legal services, under a qualified group legal services plan (as defined in subsection (b)) to, or with respect to, an employee, his spouse, or his dependents.

“(b) Qualified Group Legal Services Plan.—For purposes of this section, a qualified group legal services plan is a separate written plan of an employer for the exclusive benefit of his employees or their spouses or dependents to provide such employees, spouses, or dependents with specified benefits consisting of personal legal services through prepayment of, or provision in advance for, legal fees in whole or in part by the employer, if the plan meets the requirements of subsection (c).

“(c) Requirements.—

“(1) Discrimination.—The contributions or benefits provided under the plan shall not discriminate in favor of employees who are officers, shareholders, self-employed individuals, or highly compensated.

“(2) Eligibility.—The plan shall benefit employees who qualify under a classification set up by the employer and found by the Secretary not to be discriminatory in favor of employees who are described in paragraph (1). For purposes of this paragraph, there shall be excluded from consideration employees not included in the plan who are included in a unit of employees covered by an agreement which the Secretary of Labor finds to be a collective bargaining agreement between employee representatives and one or more employers, if there is evidence that group legal services plan benefits were the subject of good faith bargaining between such employee representatives and such employer or employers.

“(3) Contribution Limitation.—Not more than 25 percent of the amounts contributed under the plan during the year may be provided for the class of individuals who are shareholders or owners (or their spouses or dependents), each of whom (on any day of the year) owns more than 5 percent of the stock or of the capital or profits interest in the employer.

“(4) Notification.—The plan shall give notice to the Secretary, in such manner as the Secretary may by regulations prescribe, that it is applying for recognition of the status of a qualified group legal services plan.
(5) Contributions.—Amounts contributed under the plan shall be paid only (A) to insurance companies, or to organizations or persons that provide personal legal services, or indemnification against the cost of personal legal services, in exchange for a prepayment or payment of a premium, (B) to organizations or trusts described in section 501(c) (20), (C) to organizations described in section 501(c) which are permitted by that section to receive payments from an employer for support of one or more qualified group legal services plan or plans, except that such organizations shall pay or credit the contribution to an organization or trust described in section 501(c) (20), (D) as prepayments to providers of legal services under the plan, or (E) a combination of the above.

(d) Other Definitions and Special Rules.—For purposes of this section—

(1) Self-employed individual; employee.—The term 'self-employed individual' means, and the term 'employee' includes, for any year, an individual who is an employee within the meaning of section 401(c) (1) (relating to self-employed individuals).

(2) Employer.—An individual who owns the entire interest in an unincorporated trade or business shall be treated as his own employer. A partnership shall be treated as the employer of each partner who is an employee within the meaning of paragraph (1).

(3) Allocations.—Allocations of amounts contributed under the plan shall be made in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary and shall take into account the expected relative utilization of benefits to be provided from such contributions or plan assets and the manner in which any premium or other charge was developed.

(4) Dependent.—The term 'dependent' has the meaning given to it by section 152.

(5) Exclusive benefit.—In the case of a plan to which contributions are made by more than one employer, in determining whether the plan is for the exclusive benefit of an employer's employees or their spouses or dependents, the employees of any employer who maintains the plan shall be considered to be the employees of each employer who maintains the plan.

(6) Attribution rules.—For purposes of this section—

(A) ownership of stock in a corporation shall be determined in accordance with the rules provided under subsections (d) and (e) of section 1563 (without regard to section 1563 (e) (3) (C)), and

(B) the interest of an employee in a trade or business which is not incorporated shall be determined in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary, which shall be based on principles similar to the principles which apply in the case of subparagraph (A).

(7) Time of notice to Secretary.—A plan shall not be a qualified group legal services plan for any period prior to the time notification was provided to the Secretary in accordance with subsection (c) (4), if such notice is given after the time prescribed by the Secretary by regulations for giving such notice.

(b) Exempt Status.—Section 501(c) (relating to exempt organizations) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

(20) an organization or trust created or organized in the United States, the exclusive function of which is to form part of a qualified group legal services plan or plans, within the meaning of section 120. An organization or trust which receives contributions because of section 120(c) (5) (C) shall not be prevented from qualifying as an organization described in section 501(c)(20) merely because it provides legal services or indemnification against the cost of legal services unassociated with a qualified group legal services plan.”

(c) TECHNICAL AMENDMENT.—The table of sections for part III of subchapter B of chapter 1 is amended by inserting after the item relating to section 119 the following new item:

“Sec. 120. Amounts received under qualified group legal services plans.”

26 USC 120 note.

(d) STUDY AND REPORT BY SECRETARIES OF TREASURY AND LABOR.—

(1) A complete study and investigation with respect to the desirability and feasibility of continuing the exclusion from income of certain prepaid group legal services benefits under section 120 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 shall be made by the Secretary of Labor and by the Secretary of the Treasury.

(2) The Secretary of Labor and the Secretary of the Treasury shall report to the President and the Congress with respect to the study and investigation conducted under paragraph (1) not later than December 31, 1980.

26 USC 120 note.

(e) EFFECTIVE DATES.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in paragraph (2), the amendments made by this section shall apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1976, and ending before January 1, 1982.

(2) NOTICE REQUIREMENT.—For purposes of section 120(d) (6) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, the time prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury by regulations for giving the notice required by section 120(c) (4) of such Code shall not expire before the 90th day after the day on which regulations prescribed under such section 120(c) (4) first become final.

(3) EXISTING PLANS.—

(A) For purposes of section 120 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, a written group legal services plan which was in existence on June 4, 1976, shall be considered as satisfying the requirements of subsections (b) and (c) of such section 120 for the period ending with the compliance date (determined under subparagraph (B)).

(B) COMPLIANCE DATE.—For purposes of this paragraph, the term “compliance date” means—

(i) the date occurring 180 days after the date of the enactment of this Act, or

(ii) if later, in the case of a plan which is maintained pursuant to one or more agreements which the Secretary of Labor finds to be collective bargaining agreements, the earlier of December 31, 1981, or the date on which the last of the collective bargaining agreements relating to the plan terminates (determined without regard to any extension thereof agreed to after the date of the enactment of this Act).

SEC. 2135. SPECIAL RULE FOR CERTAIN CHARITABLE CONTRIBUTIONS OF INVENTORY AND OTHER PROPERTY.

26 USC 170.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Section 170(e) (relating to certain contributions of ordinary income and capital gain property) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:
“(3) Special rule for certain contributions of inventory and other property.—

“(A) Qualified contributions.—For purposes of this paragraph, a qualified contribution shall mean a charitable contribution of property described in paragraph (1) or (2) of section 1221, by a corporation (other than a corporation which is an electing small business corporation within the meaning of section 1371(b)) to an organization which is described in section 501(c)(3) and is exempt under section 501(a) (other than a private foundation, as defined in section 509(a), which is not an operating foundation, as defined in section 4942(j)(3)), but only if—

“(i) the use of the property by the donee is related to the purpose or function constituting the basis for its exemption under section 501 and the property is to be used by the donee solely for the care of the ill, the needy, or infants;

“(ii) the property is not transferred by the donee in exchange for money, other property, or services;

“(iii) the taxpayer receives from the donee a written statement representing that its use and disposition of the property will be in accordance with the provisions of clauses (i) and (ii); and

“(iv) in the case where the property is subject to regulation under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, as amended, such property must fully satisfy the applicable requirements of such Act and regulations promulgated thereunder on the date of transfer and for one hundred and eighty days prior thereto.

“(B) Amount of reduction.—The reduction under paragraph (1)(A) for any qualified contribution (as defined in subparagraph (A)) shall be no greater than the sum of—

“(i) one-half of the amount computed under paragraph (1)(A) (computed without regard to this paragraph), and

“(ii) the amount (if any) by which the charitable contribution deduction under this section for any qualified contribution (computed by taking into account the amount determined in clause (i), but without regard to this clause) exceeds twice the basis of such property.

“(C) This paragraph shall not apply to so much of the amount of the gain described in paragraph (1)(A) which would be long-term capital gain but for the application of sections 617, 1245, 1250, 1251, or 1252.”

(b) Effective Date.—The amendment made by this section applies to charitable contributions made after the date of enactment of this Act, in taxable years ending after such date.

SEC. 2136. TAX TREATMENT OF THE GRANTOR OF OPTIONS OF STOCK, SECURITIES, AND COMMODITIES.

(a) Section 1234 (relating to options to buy or sell) is amended to read as follows:

“SEC. 1234. OPTIONS TO BUY OR SELL.

“(a) Treatment of gain or loss in the case of the purchaser.—

“(1) General rule.—Gain or loss attributable to the sale or exchange of, or loss attributable to failure to exercise, an option to buy or sell property shall be considered gain or loss from the sale or exchange of property which has the same character as the property to which the option relates has in the hands of the taxpayer (or would have in the hands of the taxpayer if acquired by him).

“(2) Special rule for loss attributable to failure to exercise option.—For purposes of paragraph (1), if loss is attributable to failure to exercise an option, the option shall be deemed to have been sold or exchanged on the day it expired.

“(3) Nonapplication of subsection.—This subsection shall not apply to—

“(A) an option which constitutes property described in paragraph (1) of section 1221;

“(B) in the case of gain attributable to the sale or exchange of an option, any income derived in connection with such option which, without regard to this subsection, is treated as other than gain from the sale or exchange of a capital asset; and

“(C) a loss attributable to failure to exercise an option described in section 1233(c).

“(b) Treatment of Grantor of Option in the Case of Stock, Securities, or Commodities.—

“(1) General rule.—In the case of the grantor of the option, gain or loss from any closing transaction with respect to, and gain on lapse of, an option in property shall be treated as a gain or loss from the sale or exchange of a capital asset held not more than 6 months.

“(2)Definitions.—For purposes of this subsection—

“(A) Closing transaction.—The term ‘closing transaction’ means any termination of the taxpayer’s obligation under an option in property other than through the exercise or lapse of the option.

“(B) Property.—The term ‘property’ means stocks and securities (including stocks and securities dealt with on a ‘when issued’ basis), commodities, and commodity futures.

“(3)Nonapplication of subsection.—This subsection shall not apply to any option granted in the ordinary course of the tax-payer’s trade or business of granting options.”

26 USC 1234
note.

(b) Effective date.—The amendment made by subsection (a) shall apply to options granted after September 1, 1976.

SEC. 2137. EXEMPT-INTEREST DIVIDENDS OF REGULATED INVEST-MENT COMPANIES.

26 USC 852.

(a) General.—Section 852(a)(1) (relating to regulated investment companies) is amended to read as follows:

“(1) the deduction for dividends paid during the taxable year (as defined in section 561, but without regard to capital gain dividends) equals or exceeds the sum of—

“(A) 90 percent of its investment company taxable income for the taxable year determined without regard to subsection (b) (2) (D); and

“(B) 90 percent of the excess of (i) its interest income excludable from gross income under section 103(a)(1) over (ii) its deductions disallowed under sections 265, 171(a)(2),
and”.

(b) Dividends Paid Deduction.—Section 852(b)(3)(D) (relating to taxable income) is amended to read as follows:
“(D) the deduction for dividends paid (as defined in section 561) shall be allowed, but shall be computed without regard to capital gain dividends and exempt-interest dividends.”

(c) Exempt-Interest Dividends.—Section 852(b) (relating to method of taxation of regulated investment companies and shareholders) is amended by inserting after paragraph (4) the following new paragraph (5):

“(5) Exempt-Interest Dividends.—If, at the close of each quarter of its taxable year, at least 50 percent of the value (as defined in section 851(c)(4)) of the total assets of the regulated investment company consists of obligations described in section 103(a)(1), such company shall be qualified to pay exempt-interest dividends, as defined herein, to its shareholders.

“(A) Definition.—An exempt-interest dividend means any dividend or part thereof (other than a capital gain dividend) paid by a regulated investment company and designated by it as an exempt-interest dividend in a written notice mailed to its shareholders not later than 45 days after the close of its taxable year. If the aggregate amount so designated with respect to a taxable year of the company (including exempt-interest dividends paid after the close of the taxable year as described in section 855) is greater than the excess of—

“(i) the amount of interest excludable from gross income under section 103(a)(1), over

“(ii) the amounts disallowed as deductions under sections 265 and 171(a)(2), the portion of such distribution which shall constitute an exempt-interest dividend shall be only that proportion of the amount so designated as the amount of such excess for such taxable year bears to the amount so designated.

“(B) Treatment of Exempt-Interest Dividends by Shareholders.—An exempt-interest dividend shall be treated by the shareholders for all purposes of this subtitle as an item of interest excludable from gross income under section 108(a) (1). Such purposes include but are not limited to—

“(i) the determination of gross income and taxable income,

“(ii) the determination of distributable net income under subchapter J, “(iii) the allowance of, or calculation of the amount of, any credit or deduction, and

“(iv) the determination of the basis in the hands of any shareholder of any share of stock of the company.”

(d) Technical Amendment.—Section 103(g), as redesignated by section 1305 of this Act (relating to exclusions from gross income of interest on certain government obligations) is amended by inserting after paragraph (23) the following new paragraph:

“(24) Exempt-interest dividends.—For treatment of exempt-interest dividends, see section 852(b)(5)(B).”

(e) Disallowance of Deductions.—Section 265 (relating to non-allowance of deductions for expenses and interest relating to tax-exempt income) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraphs:

26 USC 852.

26 USC 103.

26 USC 265.
“(3) CERTAIN REGULATED INVESTMENT COMPANIES.—In the case of a regulated investment company which distributes during the taxable year an exempt-interest dividend (including exempt-interest dividends paid after the close of the taxable year as described in section 855), that portion of any amount otherwise allowable as a deduction which the amount of the income of such company wholly exempt from taxes under this subtitle bears to the total of such exempt income and its gross income (excluding from gross income, for this purpose, capital gain net income, as defined in section 1222(9)).

“(4) INTEREST RELATED TO EXEMPT-INTEREST DIVIDENDS.—Interest on indebtedness incurred or continued to purchase or carry shares of stock of a regulated investment company which during the taxable year of the holder thereof distributes exempt-interest dividends.”

26 USC 852 note.

(c) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendments made by this section shall apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1975.

SEC. 2138. COMMON TRUST FUND TREATMENT OF CERTAIN CUSTODIAL ACCOUNTS.

26 USC 584.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Section 584 (a) (1) (relating to definition of common trust fund) is amended to read as follows:

“(1) exclusively for the collective investment and reinvestment of moneys contributed thereto by the bank in its capacity—

“(A) as a trustee, executor, administrator, or guardian, or

“(B) as a custodian of accounts—

“(i) which the Secretary determines are established pursuant to a State law which is substantially similar to the Uniform Gifts to Minors Act as published by the American Law Institute, and

“(ii) with respect to which the bank establishes, to the satisfaction of the Secretary, that it has duties and responsibilities similar to duties and responsibilities of a trustee or guardian; and”.

SEC. 2139. SUPPORT TEST FOR DEPENDENT CHILDREN OF DIVORCED ETC., PARENTS.

26 USC 152.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Section 152 (relating to definition of dependents) is amended by striking the word “all” in subsection (e) (2) (B) (i) thereof and inserting in lieu thereof “each”.

26 USC 152 note.

(b) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendment made by this section shall apply to taxable years beginning after the date of the enactment of this Act.

SEC. 2140. INVOLUNTARY CONVERSION OF REAL PROPERTY.

26 USC 1033.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Section 1033(g) (relating to involuntary conversions), as amended by this Act, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

“(4) SPECIAL RULE.—In the case of a compulsory or involuntary conversion described in paragraph (1), subsection (a)(3) (B)(i) shall be applied by substituting ‘3 years’ for ‘2 years’.”

26 USC 1033 note.

(b) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendment made by this section shall apply with respect to any disposition of converted property (within the meaning of section 1033(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954) after December 31, 1974, unless a condemnation proceeding with respect to such property began before the date of the enactment of this Act.
SEC. 2141. LIVESTOCK SOLD ON ACCOUNT OF DROUGHT.

(a) In General.—Section 451 (relating to general rules for taxable year of inclusion) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

"(e) Special Rule for Proceeds From Livestock Sold on Account of Drought.—

"(1) In General.—In the case of income derived from the sale or exchange of livestock (other than livestock described in section 1231(b)(3)) in excess of the number the taxpayer would sell if he followed his usual business practices, a taxpayer reporting on the cash receipts and disbursements method of accounting may elect to include such income for the taxable year following the taxable year in which such sale or exchange occurs if he establishes that, under his usual business practices, the sale or exchange would not have occurred in the taxable year in which it occurred if it were not for drought conditions, and that these drought conditions had resulted in the area being designated as eligible for assistance by the Federal Government.

"(2) Limitation.—Paragraph (1) shall apply only to a taxpayer whose principal trade or business is farming (within the meaning of section 6420 (c) (8))."

(b) Effective Date.—The amendment made by this section applies to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1975.

WEEKLY COMPILATION OF PRESIDENTIAL DOCUMENTS:

Public Law 94–456
94th Congress

An Act

To amend the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act to provide for the withdrawal of lands for the village of Klukwan, Alaska, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, SECTION 1. (a) Section 16(a) of the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act (85 Stat. 688, 705, as amended; 43 U.S.C. 1604, 1613) is further amended by striking “Klukwan, Southeast.”.

(b) Section 16(d) of such Act is amended to read as follows:

“(d)(1) The Secretary is authorized and directed to withdraw seventy thousand acres of public lands, as defined in section 3 of this Act, in order that the Village Corporation for the village of Klukwan may select twenty-three thousand and forty acres of land. Such Corporation and the shareholders thereof shall otherwise participate fully in the benefits provided by this Act to the same extent as they would have participated had they not elected to acquire title to their former reserve as provided by section 19(b) of this Act: Provided, That nothing in this subsection shall affect the existing entitlement of any Regional Corporation to lands pursuant to section 14(h)(8) of this Act: Provided further, That no such lands shall be withdrawn from an area previously withdrawn as a forest reserve without prior consultation with the Secretary of Agriculture: Provided further, That the foregoing provisions of this subsection shall not become effective unless and until the Village Corporation for the village of Klukwan shall quitclaim to Chilkat Indian Village, organized under the provisions of the Act of June 18, 1934 (48 Stat. 984), as amended by the Act of May 1, 1936 (49 Stat. 1250), all its right, title, and interest in the lands of the reservation defined in and vested by the Act of September 2, 1957 (71 Stat. 596), which lands are hereby conveyed and confirmed to said Chilkat Indian Village in fee simple absolute, free of trust and all restrictions upon alienation, encumbrance, or otherwise: Provided further, That the United States and the Village Corporation for the village of Klukwan shall also quitclaim to said Chilkat Indian Village any right or interest they may have in and to income derived from the reservation lands defined in and vested by the Act of September 2, 1957 (71 Stat. 597), after December 18, 1971, and prior to January 2, 1976.

“(2) The lands withdrawn by the Secretary pursuant to paragraph (1) of this subsection shall be located in the southeastern Alaska region and shall be of similar character and comparable value, to the extent possible, to those of the Chilkat Valley surrounding the village of Klukwan. Such withdrawal shall be made within six months of the date of enactment of this paragraph and the Village Corporation for the village of Klukwan shall select, within one year from the time that the withdrawal is made, and be conveyed, twenty-three thousand and forty acres. None of the lands withdrawn by the Secretary for selection by the Village Corporation for the village of Klukwan shall have been selected by, or be subject to an outstanding nomination for selection by, any other Native Corporation organized pursuant to this Act, or located on Admiralty Island.”.
SEC. 2. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Secretary is hereby authorized and directed to convey immediately to the State of Alaska, subject to valid existing rights, the following described lands for park, recreation, airport, or other public purposes:

Seward Meridian, Alaska
T. 13 N., R. 4 W.
Section 28, E1/2W1/2, E1/2W1/2NW1/4, W1/2NW1/4NW1/4, E1/2NW1/4SW1/4, E1/2W1/2SW1/4, NE1/4SW1/4SW1/4, E1/2SE1/4SW1/4SW1/4.

Containing 265 acres, more or less.

SEC. 3. The first sentence of subsection 12(b) of the Act of January 2, 1976 (89 Stat. 1145, 1151), is amended by changing the matter preceding the first colon to read as follows:

"(b) The Secretary shall make the following conveyances to the Region, in accordance with the specific terms, conditions, procedures, covenants, reservations, and other restrictions set forth in the document entitled 'Terms and Conditions for Land Consolidation and Management in Cook Inlet Area', which was submitted to the House Committee on Interior and Insular Affairs on December 10, 1975, and clarified on August 31, 1976, the terms of which, as clarified, are hereby incorporated herein and ratified as to the duties and obligations of the United States and the Region, as a matter of Federal law."

SEC. 4. (a) The Secretary is authorized to convey lands under application for selection by Village Corporations within Cook Inlet Region to the Cook Inlet Region, Incorporated, for reconveyance by the Region to such Village Corporations. Such lands shall be conveyed as partial satisfaction of the statutory entitlement of such Village Corporations from lands withdrawn pursuant to section 11(a) (3) of the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act (hereinafter, "The Settlement Act"), and with the consent of the Region affected, as provided in section 12 of the Act of January 2, 1976 (89 Stat. 1145, 1150), from lands outside the boundaries of Cook Inlet Region. This authority shall not be employed to increase or decrease the statutory entitlement of any Village Corporation or Cook Inlet Region, Incorporated. For the purposes of counting acres received in computing statutory entitlement, the Secretary shall count the number of acres or acre selections surrendered by Village Corporations in any exchange for any other lands or selections.

(b) The Secretary shall not be required to survey any land conveyed pursuant to subsection 4(a) until the Village Corporation entitlement for all eligible Village Corporations has been conveyed. With respect to the conveyances made by the Secretary in the manner authorized by subsection 4(a), the Secretary shall survey the exterior boundaries of each entire area conveyed to Cook Inlet Region, Incorporated, pursuant to subsection 4(a) and monument to boundary lines at angle points and intervals of approximately two miles on straight lines. The Secretary shall not be required to provide ground survey or monumentation along meanderable water boundaries. Each township corner located within the exterior boundary of land conveyed shall be located and monumented. Any areas within such tracts

43 USC 1610.

Survey.
that are to be reconveyed pursuant to section 14(C) (1) and (2) of the Settlement Act shall also be surveyed pursuant to 43 C.F.R. 2650.

(c) Conveyances made under the authority of subsection (a) of this section shall be considered conveyances under the Settlement Act and subject to the provisions of that Act, except as provided by this Act.

Sec. 5. (a) The Secretary shall, within sixty days after the effective date of this Act, tender conveyance of the land described in subsection (b), subject to valid existing rights, to Cook Inlet Region, Incorporated. If the conveyance is accepted by the Region, such lands shall be considered 1,687.2 acre-equivalents within the meaning of paragraph I(C) (2) (e) (iii) of the Terms and Conditions as clarified August 31, 1976, and the Secretary's obligations under paragraph I(C) of those Terms and Conditions will be reduced accordingly. If, however, said section 12 of the Act of January 2, 1976, does not take effect then the entitlement of Cook Inlet Region, Incorporated, under section 12(c) shall be reduced by 8,346 acres.

(b) The land referred to in subsection (a) is described as a parcel of land located in section 7 of township 13 north, range 2 west of the Seward Meridian, Third Judicial District, State of Alaska; said parcel being all of Government lots 5 and 7 and that portion of the SE\(\frac{1}{4}\)NW\(\frac{1}{4}\) lying north of the north right-of-way line of the Glenn Highway, State of Alaska, Department of Highways Project No. F-042-1 (2), and more particularly described as follows:

"Commencing at the north quarter corner of said section 7;
"thence south 00 degrees 12 minutes east, a distance of 1,320.0 feet, more or less, to the northeast corner of said southeast quarter northwest quarter;
"thence west along the north line of southeast quarter northwest quarter a distance of 94.0 feet, more or less, to the north right-of-way line of the Glenn Highway and the true point of beginning;
"thence south 53 degrees 16 minutes 15 seconds west along said north right-of-way line, a distance of 1,415.0 feet, more or less, to a point of curve being at right angles to centerline Station 216 plus 51.35;
"thence continuing along said north right-of-way line along a curve to the right with a central angle of 12 degrees 51 minutes 34 seconds, having a radius of 5,595.58 feet for an arc distance of 105.0 feet, more or less, to a point of intersection of said north right-of-way line with the west line of said southeast quarter northwest quarter;
"thence north 00 degrees 12 minutes west along said west line, being common with the east line of Government lot 5, a distance of 910.0 feet, more or less, to the northwest corner of said southeast quarter northwest quarter;

"thence east along the north line of said southeast quarter northwest quarter, a distance of 1,225.0 feet, more or less, to the point of beginning; containing 56.24 acres, more or less."

94th Congress

An Act

To amend the Act approved August 18, 1970, providing for improvement in the administration of the National Park System by the Secretary of the Interior and clarifying authorities applicable to the National Park System, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section 3 of the Act approved August 18, 1970 (84 Stat. 825; 16 U.S.C. 1a–1 et seq.), is amended as follows:

(1) In subsection (e), after “within an area of the national park system,” insert “as long as such activity does not jeopardize or unduly interfere with the primary natural or historic resource of the area involved.”;

(2) At the end of subsection (g), change the period to a semicolon and add the following new subsections:

“(h) promulgate and enforce regulations concerning boating and other activities on or relating to waters located within areas of the National Park System, including waters subject to the jurisdiction of the United States: Provided, That any regulations adopted pursuant to this subsection shall be complementary to, and not in derogation of, the authority of the United States Coast Guard to regulate the use of waters subject to the jurisdiction of the United States;

“(i) provide meals and lodging, as the Secretary deems appropriate, for members of the United States Park Police and other employees of the National Park Service, as he may designate, serving temporarily on extended special duty in areas of the National Park System, and for this purpose he is authorized to use funds appropriated for the expenses of the Department of the Interior.”.

SEC. 2. Such Act of August 18, 1970, is further amended by adding the following new sections:

“Sec. 5. Section 11 of the Act of May 26, 1930 (46 Stat. 383; 16 U.S.C. 113), is amended to read as follows:

“Sec. 11. In the administration of the National Park System, the Secretary of the Interior is authorized, under regulations prescribed by him, to pay (a) the traveling expenses of employees, including the costs of packing, crating, and transporting (including draying) their personal property, upon permanent change of station of such employees and (b) the traveling expenses as aforesaid of dependents of deceased employees (i) to the nearest housing reasonably available and of a standard not less than that which is vacated, and to include compensation for not to exceed sixty days rental cost thereof, in the case of an employee who occupied Government housing and the death of such employee requires that housing to be promptly vacated, and (ii) to the nearest port of entry in the conterminous forty-eight States in the case of an employee whose last permanent station was outside the conterminous forty-eight States.

“Sec. 6. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Secretary of the Interior may relinquish to a State, or to a Commonwealth, territory, or possession of the United States, part of the legislative juris-

Provided, That prior to consummating any such relinquishment, the Secretary shall submit the proposed agreement to the Committees on Interior and Insular Affairs of the United States Congress, and shall not finalize such agreement until sixty calendar days after such submission shall have elapsed. Relinquishment of legislative jurisdiction under this section may be accomplished (1) by filing with the Governor (or, if none exists, with the chief executive officer) of the State, Commonwealth, territory, or possession concerned a notice of relinquishment to take effect upon acceptance thereof, or (2) as the laws of the State, Commonwealth, territory, or possession may otherwise provide. The Secretary shall diligently pursue the consummation of arrangements with each State, Commonwealth, territory, or possession within which a unit of the National Park System is located to the end that insofar as practicable the United States shall exercise concurrent legislative jurisdiction within units of the National Park System.

"SEC. 7. Notwithstanding subsection 5901 (a) of title 5, United States Code (80 Stat. 508), as amended, the uniform allowance for uniformed employees of the National Park Service may be up to $400 annually.

"SEC. 8. The Secretary of the Interior is directed to investigate, study, and continually monitor the welfare of areas whose resources exhibit qualities of national significance and which may have potential for inclusion in the National Park System. At the beginning of each fiscal year, the Secretary shall transmit to the Speaker of the House of Representatives and to the President of the Senate, comprehensive reports on each of those areas upon which studies have been completed. On this same date, and accompanying such reports, the Secretary shall transmit a listing, in generally descending order of importance or merit, of not less than twelve such areas which appear to be of national significance and which may have potential for inclusion in the National Park System. Threats to resource values, and cost escalation factors shall be considered in listing the order of importance or merit. Such listing may be comprised of any areas heretofore submitted under terms of this section, and which at the time of listing are not included in the National Park System. The Secretary is also directed to transmit annually to the Speaker of the House of Representatives and to the President of the Senate, at the beginning of each fiscal year, a complete and current list of all areas included on the Registry of Natural Landmarks and those areas of national significance listed on the National Register of Historic places which areas exhibit known or anticipated damage or threats to the integrity of their resources, along with notations as to the nature and severity of such damage or threats. Each report and annual listing shall be printed as a House document.

"SEC. 9. Section 3 of the Act of August 21, 1935 (49 Stat. 666, 667; 16 U.S.C. 461, 463), is amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 3. (a) A general advisory board to be known as the National Park System Advisory Board is hereby established, to be composed of not to exceed eleven persons, citizens of the United States, to include but not be limited to representatives competent in the fields of history, archaeology, architecture, and natural science, who shall be appointed by the Secretary for a term not to exceed four years. The Secretary shall take into consideration nominations for appointees from public and private, professional, civic, and educational societies, associations, and institutions. The members of such board shall receive no salary but may be paid expenses incidental to travel when engaged in discharging their duties as members. It shall be the duty of such board to advise the Secretary on matters relating to the National Park System, to other related areas, and to the administration of this Act, including but not limited to matters submitted to it for consideration by the Secretary, but it shall not be required to recommend as to the suitability or desirability of surplus real and related personal property for use as an historic monument.

"(b) The National Park System Advisory Board shall continue to exist until January 1, 1990. In all other respects, it shall be subject to the provisions of the Federal Advisory Committee Act."

"Sec. 10. (a) The arrest authority relating to the National Park Service is hereby amended in the following respects:

"(1) Section 3 of the Act of March 3, 1897 (29 Stat. 621; 16 U.S.C. 415), as supplemented; relating to certain arrest authority relative to national military parks, is hereby repealed;

"(2) The first paragraph of that portion designated 'GENERAL EXPENSES—FOREST SERVICE' of the Act of March 3, 1905 (33 Stat. 872; 16 U.S.C. 10, 559), as amended, relating in part to arrest authority relative to laws and regulations applicable to forest reserves and national parks, is amended by deleting the words 'and national park service', 'and national parks', and 'or national parks';

"(3) Section 2 of the Act of March 2, 1933 (47 Stat. 1420; 16 U.S.C. 10a), as amended, relating to certain arrest authority for certain employees of the National Park Service, is hereby repealed; and

"(4) The second paragraph of section 6 of the Act of October 8, 1964 (78 Stat. 1041; 16 U.S.C. 460m-5), as amended, relating to certain arrest authority relative to the Lake Mead National Recreation Area, is hereby repealed.

"(b) In addition to any other authority conferred by law, the Secretary of the Interior is authorized to designate, pursuant to standards prescribed in regulations by the Secretary, certain officers or employees of the Department of the Interior who shall maintain law and order and protect persons and property within areas of the National Park System. In the performance of such duties, the officers or employees, so designated, may—

"(1) carry firearms and make arrests without warrant for any offense against the United States committed in his presence, or for any felony cognizable under the laws of the United States if he has reasonable grounds to believe that the person to be arrested has committed or is committing such felony, provided such arrests occur within that system or the person to be arrested is fleeing therefrom to avoid arrest;

"(2) execute any warrant or other process issued by a court or officer of competent jurisdiction for the enforcement of the provisions of any Federal law or regulation issued pursuant to law arising out of an offense committed in that system or, where the person subject to the warrant or process is in that system, in connection with any Federal offense; and

"(3) conduct investigations of offenses against the United States committed in that system in the absence of investigation thereof by any other Federal law enforcement agency having investigative jurisdiction over the offense committed or with the concurrence of such other agency.
"(c) The Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized to—

"(1) designate officers and employees of any other Federal agency or law enforcement personnel of any State or political subdivision thereof, when deemed economical and in the public interest and with the concurrence of that agency or that State or subdivision, to act as special policemen in areas of the National Park System when supplemental law enforcement personnel may be needed, and to exercise the powers and authority provided by paragraphs (1), (2), and (3) of subsection (b) of this section;

"(2) cooperate, within the National Park System, with any State or political subdivision thereof in the enforcement of supervision of the laws or ordinances of that State or subdivision; and

"(3) provide limited reimbursement, to a State or its political subdivisions, in accordance with such regulations as he may prescribe, where the State has ceded concurrent legislative jurisdiction over the affected area of the system, for expenditures incurred in connection with its activities within that system which were rendered pursuant to paragraph (1) of this subsection.

"(4) the authorities provided by this subsection shall supplement the law enforcement responsibilities of the National Park Service, and shall not authorize the delegation of law enforcement responsibilities of the agency to State and local governments.

"(d) (1) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, a law enforcement officer of any State or political subdivision thereof designated to act as a special policeman under subsection (c) of this section shall not be deemed a Federal employee and shall not be subject to the provisions of law relating to Federal employment, including, but not limited to, those relating to hours of work, rates of compensation, leave, unemployment compensation, and Federal benefits.

"(2) For purposes of the tort claim provisions of title 28, United States Code, a law enforcement officer of any State or political subdivision thereof shall, when acting as a special policeman under subsection (c) of this section, be considered a Federal employee.

"(3) For purposes of subchapter I of chapter 81 of title 5, United States Code, a law enforcement officer of any State or political subdivision thereof shall, when acting as a special policeman under subsection (c) of this section, be deemed a civil service employee of the United States within the meaning of the term 'employee' as defined in section 8101 of title 5, and the provisions of that subchapter shall apply.

"(e) Nothing contained in this Act shall be construed or applied to limit or restrict the investigative jurisdiction of any Federal law enforcement agency other than the National Park Service, and nothing shall be construed or applied to affect any right of a State or a political subdivision thereof to exercise civil and criminal jurisdiction within the National Park System.

"Sec. 11. Section 101(a) of title I of Public Law 89-655 (80 Stat. 915; 16 U.S.C. 470a), is amended by adding thereto a new paragraph to read as follows:

"'(4) to withhold from disclosure to the public, information relating to the location of sites or objects listed on the National Register whenever he determines that the disclosure of specific information would create a risk of destruction or harm to such sites or objects.'.

"Sec. 12. (a) Not later than January 15 of each calendar year, the Secretary of the Interior shall transmit to the Committees on Interior and Insular Affairs a detailed program for the development of facilities, structures, or buildings for each unit of the National Park System consistent with the general management plans required in subsection (b) of this section.

"(b) General management plans for the development of each unit of the National Park System, including the areas within the national capital region, shall be prepared by the Director of the National Park Service and transmitted to the Committees on Interior and Insular Affairs. Such plans shall include:

"(1) the facilities which the Director finds necessary to accommodate the health, safety, and recreation needs of the visiting public, including such facilities as he may deem appropriate to provide in accordance with the provisions of the Act of October 9, 1965 (79 Stat. 969);

"(2) the location and estimated cost of all such facilities; and

"(3) the projected need for any additional facilities required for such unit.

"(c) The Secretary of the Interior shall hereafter transmit to the Committees on Interior and Insular Affairs all proposed awards of concession leases and contracts involving a gross annual business of $100,000 or more, or exceeding five years in duration (including renewals thereof), and all proposed rules and regulations relating thereto, sixty days before such awards are made or such rules and regulations are promulgated. The Act of July 14, 1956 (70 Stat. 543) is hereby repealed.

Approved October 7, 1976.

An Act

To amend title XIII of the Public Health Service Act to revise and extend the program for the establishment and expansion of health maintenance organizations.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SHORT TITLE; REFERENCE TO ACT

Section 1. (a) This Act may be cited as the "Health Maintenance Organization Amendments of 1976".

(b) Whenever in title I an amendment or repeal is expressed in terms of an amendment to, or repeal of, a section or other provision, the reference shall be considered to be made to a section or other provision of the Public Health Service Act.

TITLE I—AMENDMENTS TO TITLE XIII OF THE PUBLIC HEALTH SERVICE ACT

Supplemental Health Services

Section 101. (a) Section 1301(b)(1) is amended by adding at the end the following: "A health maintenance organization may include a health service, defined as a supplemental health service by section 1302(2), in the basic health services provided its members for a basic health services payment described in the first sentence."

(b) The first sentence of section 1301(b)(2) is amended by striking out "the organization shall provide" and all that follows in that sentence and substituting "the organization may provide to each of its members any of the health services which are included in supplemental health services (as defined in section 1302(2))."

(c) Section 1301(b)(4) is amended by striking out "and supplemental health services in the case of the members who have contracted therefor" and substituting "and only such supplemental health services as members have contracted for".

Staffing

Section 102. (a) (1) The first sentence of section 1301(b)(3) is amended (A) by striking out "or through" and by substituting "through", (B) by striking out "(or groups) or" and substituting "(or groups), through an", and (C) by inserting after "(or associations)" the following: "through health professionals who have contracted with the health maintenance organization for the provision of such services, or through any combination of such staff, medical group (or groups), individual practice association (or associations), or health professionals under contract with the organization".

(2) Section 1301(b)(8) is amended by adding after the first sentence the following: "A health maintenance organization may also, during the thirty-six month period beginning with the month follow-
42 USC 300e-9.ing the month in which the organization becomes a qualified health maintenance organization (within the meaning of section 1310(d)), provide basic and supplemental health services through an entity which but for the requirement of section 1302(4)(C)(i) would be a medical group for purposes of this title. After the expiration of such period, the organization may provide basic or supplemental health services through such an entity only if authorized by the Secretary in accordance with regulations which take into consideration the unusual circumstances of such entity. A health maintenance organization may not, in any of its fiscal years, enter into contracts with health professionals or entities other than medical groups or individual practice associations if the amounts paid under such contracts for basic and supplemental health services exceed fifteen percent of the total amount to be paid in such fiscal year by the health maintenance organization to physicians for the provision of basic and supplemental health services, or, if the health maintenance organization principally serves a rural area, thirty percent of such amount, except that this sentence does not apply to the entering into of contracts for the purchase of basic and supplemental health services through an entity which but for the requirements of section 1302(4)(C)(i) would be a medical group for purposes of this title. Contracts between a health maintenance organization and health professionals for the provision of basic and supplemental health services shall include such provisions as the Secretary may require (including provisions requiring appropriate continuing education).

42 USC 300e-1. (b) (1) Section 1302(4)(C) is amended (A) by striking out clause (iv), (B) by redesignating clause (v) as clause (iv), and (C) by inserting "and" at the end of clause (iii).

42 USC 300e. Sec. 103. (a) Section 1301(c) is amended by amending paragraph (4) to read as follows:

"(4) have an open enrollment period in accordance with the provisions of subsection (d);"

(b) Section 1301 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

"(d)(1) (A) A health maintenance organization which—

   "(i) has for at least 5 years provided comprehensive health services on a prepaid basis, or

   "(ii) has an enrollment of at least 50,000 members, shall have at least once during each fiscal year next following a fiscal year in which it did not have a financial deficit an open enrollment period (determined under subparagraph (B)) during which it shall accept individuals for membership in the order in which they apply for enrollment and, except as provided in paragraph (2), without regard to preexisting illness, medical condition, or degree of disability.

   "(B) An open enrollment period for a health maintenance organization shall be the lesser of—

   "(i) 30 days, or

   "(ii) the number of days in which the organization enrolls a number of individuals at least equal to 3 percent of its total net increase in enrollment (if any) in the fiscal year preceding the fiscal year in which such period is held.

OPEN ENROLLMENT
For the purpose of determining the total net increase in enrollment in a health maintenance organization, there shall not be included any individual who is enrolled in the organization through a group which had a contract for health care services with the health maintenance organization at the time that such health maintenance organization was determined to be a qualified health maintenance organization under section 1310.

"(2) Notwithstanding the requirements of paragraph (1) a health maintenance organization shall not be required to enroll individuals who are confined to an institution because of chronic illness, permanent injury, or other infirmity which would cause economic impairment to the health maintenance organization if such individual were enrolled.

"(3) A health maintenance organization may not be required to make the effective date of benefits for individuals enrolled under this subsection less than 90 days after the date of enrollment.

"(4) The Secretary may waive the requirements of this subsection for a health maintenance organization which demonstrates that compliance with the provisions of this subsection would jeopardize its economic viability in its service area.".

DEFINITION OF SERVICES

SEC. 104. (a) (1) Paragraph (1) (H) of section 1302 is amended to read as follows:

"(H) preventive health services (including (i) immunizations, (ii) well-child care from birth, (iii) periodic health evaluations for adults, (iv) voluntary family planning services, (v) infertility services, and (vi) children’s eye and ear examinations conducted to determine the need for vision and hearing correction)."

(2) Paragraph (1) of section 1302 is amended by striking out "or podiatrist" each place it occurs and substituting "podiatrist, or other health care personnel".

(b) Paragraph (2) of such section is amended—

(1) by striking out "under paragraph (1) (A) or (1) (H)" in subparagraphs (B) and (C);
(2) by striking out "and" at the end of subparagraph (F), by striking out the period at the end of subparagraph (F) and substituting "; and", and by adding after subparagraph (F) the following:

"(G) other health services which are not included as basic health services and which have been approved by the Secretary for delivery as supplemental health services.";

(1) striking "and" before "((iv))", and
(2) striking the period at the end of subparagraph (C) and substituting "; and (v) establish an arrangement whereby a member's enrollment status is not known to the health professional who provides health services to the member."

Sec. 107. (a) Section 1303(e) is amended by striking "$50,000" and substituting "$75,000".

(b) (1) Section 1304(f)(1)(A) is amended by striking "$125,000" and substituting "$200,000".

(2) Section 1304(f)(2)(A) is amended by inserting after "$1,000,000" the following: "or, in the case of a project for a health maintenance organization which will provide services to an additional service area (as defined by the Secretary) or which will provide services in one or more areas which are not contiguous, $1,600,000".

(c) Section 1305(a) is amended by striking out "first thirty-six months" each place it occurs and substituting "first sixty months".

LOAN GUARANTEES FOR PRIVATE ENTITIES

Sec. 108. (a) Section 1304(a)(2) is amended to read as follows:
“(2) guarantee to non-Federal lenders payment of the principal and the interest on loans made to—
“(A) nonprofit private entities for planning projects for the establishment or expansion of health maintenance organizations, or “(B) other private entities for such projects for health maintenance organizations which will serve medically underserved populations.”.

(b) Section 1304(b)(1)(B) is amended to read as follows:
“(B) guarantee to non-Federal lenders payment of the principal and the interest on loans made to—
“(i) nonprofit private entities for projects for the initial development of health maintenance organizations, or “(ii) other private entities for such projects for health maintenance organizations which will serve medically underserved populations.”.

EMPLOYEE HEALTH BENEFITS PLANS

Sec. 110. (a) Section 1310 is amended—
    (1) by amending subsection (a) to read as follows:
        "Sec. 1310. (a)(1) In accordance with regulations which the Secretary shall prescribe—
            (A) each employer—
                (i) which is now or hereafter required during any calendar quarter to pay its employees the minimum wage prescribed by section 6 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 (or would be required to pay its employees such wage but for section 13(a) of such Act), and “(ii) which during such calendar quarter employed an average number of employees of not less than 25, shall include in any health benefits plan, and “(B) any State and each political subdivision thereof which during any calendar quarter employed an average number of employees of not less than 25, as a condition of the payment to the State of funds under section 314(d), 317, 318, 1002, 1525, or 1613, shall include in any health benefits plan, offered to such employees in the calendar year beginning after such calendar quarter the option of membership in qualified health maintenance organizations which are engaged in the provision of basic health services in health maintenance organization service areas in which at least 25 of such employees reside.
“(2) If any of the employees of an employer or State or political subdivision thereof described in paragraph (1) are represented by a collective bargaining representative or other employee representative designated or selected under any law, offer of membership in a qualified health maintenance organization required by paragraph (1) to be made in a health benefits plan offered to such employees (A) shall first be made to such collective bargaining representative or other employee representative, and (B) if such offer is accepted by such representative, shall then be made to each such employee.”;
(2) by amending paragraphs (1) and (2) of subsection (b) to read as follows:
“(1) one or more of such organizations provides basic health services (A) without the use of an individual practice association and (B) without the use of contracts (except for contracts for unusual or infrequently used services) with health professionals,
and
“(2) one or more of such organizations provides basic health services through (A) an individual practice association (or associations), (B) health professionals who have contracted with the health maintenance organization for the provision of such services, or (C) a combination of such association (or associations) or health professionals under contract with the organization,”;
(3) by striking out the last sentence of subsection (c); and
(4) by adding after subsection (d) the following new subsections:
“(e) (1) Any employer who knowingly does not comply with one or more of the requirements of subsection (a) shall be subject to a civil penalty of not more than $10,000. If such noncompliance continues, a civil penalty may be assessed and collected under this subsection for each thirty-day period such noncompliance continues. Such penalty may be assessed by the Secretary and collected in a civil action brought by the United States in a United States district court.
“(2) In any proceeding by the Secretary to assess a civil penalty under this subsection, no penalty shall be assessed until the employer charged shall have been given notice and an opportunity to present its views on such charge. In determining the amount of the penalty, or the amount agreed upon in compromise, the Secretary shall consider the gravity of the noncompliance and the demonstrated good faith of the employer charged in attempting to achieve rapid compliance after notification by the Secretary of a noncompliance.
“(3) In any civil action brought to review the assessment of a civil penalty assessed under this subsection, the court shall, at the request of any party to such action, hold a trial de novo on the assessment of such civil penalty and in any civil action to collect such a civil penalty.
penalty, the court shall, at the request of any party to such action, hold a trial de novo on the assessment of such civil penalty unless in a prior civil action to review the assessment of such penalty the court held a trial de novo on such assessment.

“(f) For purposes of this section, the term ‘employer’ does not include (1) the Government of the United States, the government of the District of Columbia or any territory or possession of the United States, a State or any political subdivision thereof, or any agency or instrumentality (including the United States Postal Service and Postal Rate Commission) of any of the foregoing; or (2) a church, convention or association of churches, or any organization operated, supervised or controlled by a church, convention or association of churches which organization (A) is an organization described in section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, and (B) does not discriminate (i) in the employment, compensation, promotion, or termination of employment of any personnel, or (ii) in the extension of staff or other privileges to any physician or other health personnel, because such persons seek to obtain or obtained health care, or participate in providing health care, through a health maintenance organization.

“Employer.”

“(g) If the Secretary, after reasonable notice and opportunity for hearing to a State, finds that it or any of its political subdivisions has failed to comply with one or more of the requirements of subsection (a), the Secretary shall terminate payments to such State under sections 314(d), 317, 318, 1002, 1525, and 1613 and notify the Governor of such State that further payments under such sections will not be made to the State until the Secretary is satisfied that there will no longer be any such failure to comply.

“Employer.”

“(h) The duties and functions of the Secretary, insofar as they involve making determinations as to whether an organization is a qualified health maintenance organization within the meaning of subsection (d), shall be administered through the Assistant Secretary for Health and in the Office of the Assistant Secretary for Health, and the administration of such duties and functions shall be integrated with the administration of section 1312(a).”

TITLE II—AMENDMENTS TO SOCIAL SECURITY ACT

MEDICARE AMENDMENTS

Sec. 201. (a) Section 1876(b) of the Social Security Act is amended to read as follows:

"(b) (1) The term 'health maintenance organization' means a legal entity which provides health services on a prepayment basis to individuals enrolled with such organizations and which—

(A) provides to its enrollees who are insured for benefits under parts A and B of this title or for benefits under part B alone, through institutions, entities, and persons meeting the applicable requirements of section 1861, all of the services and benefits covered under such parts (to the extent applicable under subparagraph (A) or (B) of subsection (a)(1)) which are available to individuals residing in the geographic area served by the organization;

(B) provides such services in the manner prescribed by section 1301(b) of the Public Health Service Act, except that solely for the purposes of this section—

(i) the term 'basic health services' and references thereto shall be deemed to refer to the services and benefits included under parts A and B of this title;

(ii) the organization shall not be required to fix the basic health services payment under a community rating system;

(iii) the additional nominal payments authorized by section 1301(b)(1)(D) of such Act shall not exceed the limits applicable under subsection (g) of this section; and

(iv) payment for basic health services provided by the organization to its enrollees under this section or for services such enrollees receive other than through the organization shall be made as provided for by this title;

(C) is organized and operated in the manner prescribed by section 1301(c) of the Public Health Service Act, except that solely for the purposes of this section—

(i) the term 'basic health services' and references thereto shall be deemed to refer to the services and benefits included under parts A and B of this title;

(ii) the organization shall not be reimbursed for the cost of reinsurance except as permitted by subsection (i) of this section; and

(iii) the organization shall have an open enrollment period as provided for in subsection (k) of this section.

(2) (A) The duties and functions of the Secretary, insofar as they involve making determinations as to whether an organization is a 'health maintenance organization' within the meaning of paragraph (1), shall be administered through the Assistant Secretary for Health and in the Office of the Assistant Secretary for Health, and the admin-administration of such duties and functions shall be integrated with the administration of section 1312 (a) and (b) of the Public Health Service Act.

"(B) Except as provided in subparagraph (A), the Secretary shall administer the provisions of this section through the Commissioner of Social Security."

(b) Section 1876(h) of such Act is amended to read as follows:

"(h) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), each health maintenance organization with which the Secretary enters into a contract under this section shall have an enrolled membership at least half of which consists of individuals who have not attained age 65.

"(2) The Secretary may waive the requirement imposed in paragraph (1) for a period of not more than three years from the date a health maintenance organization first enters into an agreement with the Secretary pursuant to subsection (i), but only for so long as such organization demonstrates to the satisfaction of the Secretary by the submission of its plan for each year that it is making continuous efforts and progress toward compliance with the provisions of paragraph (1) within such three-year period."

(c) Section 1876(i)(6)(B) of such Act is amended by striking out "(other than those with respect to out-of-area services)" and inserting in lieu thereof "(other than costs with respect to out-of-area services)" and inserting in lien thereof "(other than costs with respect to out-of-area services and, in the case of an organization which has entered into a risk-sharing contract with the Secretary pursuant to paragraph (2)(A), the cost of providing any member with basic health services the aggregate value of which exceeds $5,000 in any year)"

(d) Section 1876 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following—

"(k) Each health maintenance organization with which the Secretary enters into a contract under this section shall have an open enrollment period at least every year under which it accepts up to the limits of its capacity and without restrictions, except as may be authorized in regulations, individuals who are eligible to enroll under subsection (d) in the order in which they apply for enrollment (unless to do so would result in failure to meet the requirements of subsection (h)) or would result in enrollment of enrollees substantially nonrepresentative, as determined in accordance with regulations of the Secretary, of the population in the geographic area served by such health maintenance organization."

(e) The amendments made by this section shall be effective with respect to contracts entered into between the Secretary and health maintenance organizations under section 1876 of the Social Security Act on and after the first day of the first calendar month which begins more than 30 days after the date of enactment of this Act.

MEDICAID AMENDMENTS

SEC. 202. (a) Section 1903 of the Social Security Act is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

"(m) (1) (A) The term 'health maintenance organization' means a legal entity which provides health services to individuals enrolled in such organization and which—

"(i) provides to its enrollees who are eligible for benefits under this title the services and benefits described in paragraphs (1), (2), (3), (4), (C), and (5) of section 1905, and, to the extent required by section 1902(a)(13)(A)(ii) to be provided under a State plan for medical assistance, the services and benefits described in paragraph (7) of section 1905(a);
"Basic health services."
42 USC 300e.

42 USC 1396d.
42 USC 1396a.

Administration.

42 USC 300e-11.

"(ii) provides such services and benefits in the manner prescribed in section 1301(b) of the Public Health Service Act (except that, solely for purposes of this paragraph, the term 'basic health services' and references thereto, when employed in such section, shall be deemed to refer to the services and benefits described in paragraphs (1), (2), (3), (4), (C), and (5) of section 1905(a), and, to the extent required by section 1902(a) (13) (A) (ii) to be provided under a State plan for medical assistance, the services and benefits described in paragraph (7) of section 1905 (a)); and

"(iii) is organized and operated in the manner prescribed by section 1301(c) of the Public Health Service Act (except that solely for purposes of this paragraph, the term 'basic health services' and references thereto, when employed in such section shall be deemed to refer to the services and benefits described in section 1905 (a) (1), (2), (3), (4), (C), and (5), and, to the extent required by section 1902(a) (13) (A) (ii) to be provided under a State plan for medical assistance, the services and benefits described in paragraph (7) of section 1905 (a))."

"(B) The duties and functions of the Secretary, insofar as they involve making determinations as to whether an organization is a health maintenance organization within the meaning of subparagraph (A), shall be administered through the Assistant Secretary for Health and in the Office of the Assistant Secretary for Health, and the administration of such duties and functions shall be integrated with the administration of section 1312 (a) and (b) of the Public Health Service Act.

"(2)(A) Except as provided in subparagraphs (B) and (C), no payment shall be made under this title to a State with respect to expenditures incurred by it for payment for services provided by any entity—

"(i) which is responsible for the provision of—

"(I) inpatient hospital services and any other service described in paragraph (2), (3), (4), (5), or (7) of section 1905(a), or

"(II) any three or more of the services described in such paragraphs, when payment for such services is determined under a prepaid capitation risk basis or under any other risk basis;

"(ii) which the Secretary (or the State as authorized by paragraph (3)) has not determined to be a health maintenance organization as defined in paragraph (1); and

"(iii) more than one-half of the membership of which consists of individuals who are insured under parts A and B of title XVIII or recipients of benefits under this title.

"(B) Subparagraph (A) does not apply with respect to payments under this title to a State with respect to expenditures incurred by it for payment for services provided by an entity which—

"(i) (I) received a grant of at least $100,000 in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1976, under section 319(d) (1) (A) or 330(d) (1) of the Public Health Service Act, and (II) for the period beginning July 1, 1976, and ending on the expiration of the period for which payments are to be made under this title has been the recipient of a grant under either such section; and
"(II) provides to its enrollees, on a prepaid capitation risk basis or on any other risk basis, all of the services and benefits described in paragraphs (1), (2), (3), (4)(C), and (5) of section 1905(a) and, to the extent required by section 1902(a)(13)(A) (ii) to be provided under a State plan for medical assistance, the services and benefits described in paragraph (7) of such section; or

"(ii) is a nonprofit primary health care entity located in a rural area (as defined by the Appalachian Regional Commission)—

"(I) which received in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1976, at least $100,000 (by grant, subgrant, or subcontract) under the Appalachian Regional Development Act of 1965, and

"(II) for the period beginning July 1, 1976, and ending on the expiration of the period for which payments are to be made under this title either has been the recipient of a grant, subgrant, or subcontract under such Act or has provided services under a contract (initially entered into during a year in which the entity was the recipient of such a grant, subgrant, or subcontract) with a State agency under this title on a prepaid capitation risk basis or on any other risk basis; or

"(iii) which has contracted with the single State agency for the provision of services (but not including inpatient hospital services) to persons eligible under this title on a prepaid risk basis prior to 1970.

"(C) Subparagraph (A)(iii) shall not apply with respect to payments under this title to a State with respect to expenditures incurred by it for payment for services by an entity during the three-year period beginning on the date of enactment of this subsection or beginning on the date the entity enters into a contract with the State under this title for the provision of health services on a prepaid risk basis, whichever occurs later, but only if the entity demonstrates to the satisfaction of the Secretary by the submission of plans for each year of such three-year period that it is making continuous efforts and progress toward achieving compliance with subparagraph (A)(iii).

"(3) A State may, in the case of an entity which has submitted an application to the Secretary for determination that it is a health maintenance organization within the meaning of paragraph (1) and for which no such determination has been made within 90 days of the submission of the application, make a provisional determination for the purposes of this title that such entity is such a health maintenance organization. Such provisional determination shall remain in force until such time as the Secretary makes a determination regarding the entity's qualification under paragraph (1)."

(b) The amendment made by subsection (a) shall apply with respect to payments under title XIX of the Social Security Act to States for services provided—

(1) after the date of enactment of subsection (a) under contracts under such title entered into or renegotiated after such date, or

(2) after the expiration of the 1-year period beginning on such date of enactment, whichever occurs first.
Sec. 301. Section 305(d)(1) of the Public Health Service Act is amended (1) by striking out “two national special emphasis centers” and substituting “three national special emphasis centers”, (2) by striking out “and one” and substituting “one”, and (3) by inserting before the last close parenthesis a semicolon and the following: “and one of which (to be designated as the Health Services Policy Analysis Center) shall focus on the development and evaluation of national policies with respect to health services, including the development of health maintenance organizations and other forms of group practice, with a view toward improving the efficiencies of the health services delivery system”.

An Act

To improve the national sea grant program and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That this Act may be cited as the “Sea Grant Program Improvement Act of 1976”.

SEC. 2. AMENDMENT TO THE NATIONAL SEA GRANT COLLEGE AND PROGRAM ACT OF 1966.

Title II of the Marine Resources and Engineering Development Act of 1966 (33 U.S.C. 1101 et seq.) is amended to read as follows:

“TITLE II—NATIONAL SEA GRANT PROGRAM

“SEC. 201. SHORT TITLE.
This title may be cited as the ‘National Sea Grant Program Act’.

“SEC. 202. DECLARATION OF POLICY.
“(a) Findings.—The Congress finds and declares the following:

“(1) The vitality of the Nation and the quality of life of its citizens depend increasingly on the understanding, assessment, development, utilization, and conservation of ocean and coastal resources. These resources supply food, energy, and minerals and contribute to human health, the quality of the environment, national security, and the enhancement of commerce.

“(2) The understanding, assessment, development, utilization, and conservation of such resources require a broad commitment and an intense involvement on the part of the Federal Government in continuing partnership with State and local governments, private industry, universities, organizations, and individuals concerned with or affected by ocean and coastal resources.

“(3) The National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, through the national sea grant program, offers the most suitable locus and means for such commitment and involvement through the promotion of activities that will result in greater such understanding, assessment, development, utilization, and conservation. Continued and increased Federal support of the establishment, development, and operation of programs and projects by sea grant colleges, sea grant regional consortia, institutions of higher education, institutes, laboratories, and other appropriate public and private entities is the most cost-effective way to promote such activities.

“(b) Objective.—The objective of this title is to increase the understanding, assessment, development, utilization, and conservation of the Nation’s ocean and coastal resources by providing assistance to promote a strong educational base, responsive research and training activities, and broad and prompt dissemination of knowledge and techniques.

“(c) Purpose.—It is the purpose of the Congress to achieve the objective of this title by extending and strengthening the national sea grant program, initially established in 1966, to promote research, education, training, and advisory service activities in fields related to ocean and coastal resources.

"SEC. 203. DEFINITIONS.

As used in this title—

(1) The term 'Administration' means the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration.

(2) The term 'Administrator' means the Administrator of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration.

(3) The term 'Director' means the Director of the national sea grant program, appointed pursuant to section 204(b).

(4) The term 'field related to ocean and coastal resources' means any discipline or field (including marine science (and the physical, natural, and biological sciences, and engineering, included therein), marine technology, education, economics, sociology, communications, planning, law, international affairs, and public administration) which is concerned with or likely to improve the understanding, assessment, development, utilization, or conservation of ocean and coastal resources.

(5) The term 'includes' and variants thereof should be read as if the phrase 'but is not limited to' were also set forth.

(6) The term 'marine environment' means the coastal zone, as defined in section 304(1) of the Coastal Zone Management Act of 1972 (16 U.S.C. 1453(1)); the seabed, subsoil, and waters of the territorial sea of the United States; the waters of any zone over which the United States asserts exclusive fishery management authority; the waters of the high seas; and the seabed and subsoil of and beyond the outer Continental Shelf.

(7) The term 'ocean and coastal resource' means any resource (whether living, nonliving, manmade, tangible, intangible, actual, or potential) which is located in, derived from, or traceable to, the marine environment. Such term includes the habitat of any such living resource, the coastal space, the ecosystems, the nutrient-rich areas, and the other components of the marine environment which contribute to or provide (or which are capable of contributing to or providing) recreational, scenic, esthetic, biological, habitational, commercial, economic, or conservation values. Living resources include natural and cultured plant life, fish, shellfish, marine mammals, and wildlife. Nonliving resources include energy sources, minerals, and chemical substances.

(8) The term 'panel' means the sea grant review panel established under section 209.

(9) The term 'person' means any individual; any public or private corporation, partnership, or other association or entity (including any sea grant college, sea grant regional consortium, institution of higher education, institute, or laboratory); or any State, political subdivision of a State, or agency or officer thereof.

(10) The term 'sea grant college' means any public or private institution of higher education which is designated as such by the Secretary under section 207.

(11) The term 'sea grant program' means any program which—

(A) is administered by any sea grant college, sea grant regional consortium, institution of higher education, institute, laboratory, or State or local agency; and

(B) includes two or more projects involving one or more of the following activities in fields related to ocean and coastal resources:

"(13) The term 'Secretary' means the Secretary of Commerce.

"(14) The term 'State' means any State of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, Guam, American Samoa, the Commonwealth of the Mariana Islands, or any other territory or possession of the United States.

"Sec. 204. National Sea Grant Program.

"(a) In general.—The Secretary shall maintain, within the Administration, a program to be known as the national sea grant program. The national sea grant program shall consist of the financial assistance and other activities provided for in this title. The Secretary shall establish long-range planning guidelines and priorities for, and adequately evaluate, this program.

"(b) Director.—(1) The Secretary shall appoint a Director of the national sea grant program who shall be a qualified individual who has—

"(A) knowledge or expertise in fields related to ocean and coastal resources; and

"(B) appropriate administrative experience.

"(2) The Director shall be appointed and compensated, without regard to the provisions of title 5, United States Code, governing appointments in the competitive service, at a rate not in excess of the maximum rate for GS-18 of the General Schedule under section 5332 of such title.

"(c) Duties.—The Director shall administer the national sea grant program subject to the supervision of the Secretary and the Administrator. In addition to any other duty prescribed by law or assigned by the Secretary, the Director shall—

"(1) apply the long-range planning guidelines and the priorities established by the Secretary under subsection (a);

"(2) advise the Administrator with respect to the expertise and capabilities which are available within or through the national sea grant program, and provide (as directed by the Administrator) those which are or could be of use to other offices and activities within the Administration;

"(3) evaluate activities conducted under grants and contracts awarded pursuant to sections 205 and 206 to assure that the objective set forth in section 202 (b) is implemented;

"(4) encourage other Federal departments, agencies, and instrumentalities to use and take advantage of the expertise and capabilities which are available through the national sea grant program, on a cooperative or other basis;

"(5) advise the Secretary on the designation of sea grant colleges and sea grant regional consortia and, in appropriate cases, if any, on the termination or suspension of any such designation; and

"(6) encourage the formation and growth of sea grant programs.

"(d) Powers.—To carry out the provisions of this title, the Secretary may—

33 USC 1123,
Planning guidelines and priorities.
5 USC 3301 et seq.
5 USC 5332 note.
"(1) appoint, assign the duties, transfer, and fix the compensation of such personnel as may be necessary, in accordance with the civil service laws; except that five positions may be established without regard to the provisions of title 5, United States Code, governing appointments in the competitive service, but the pay rates for such positions may not exceed the maximum rate for GS–18 of the General Schedule under section 5332 of such title;

"(2) make appointments with respect to temporary and intermittent services to the same extent as is authorized by section 3109 of title 5, United States Code;

"(3) publish or arrange for the publication of, and otherwise disseminate, in cooperation with other services, offices, and programs in the Administration, any information of research, educational, training, and other value in fields related to ocean and coastal resources and with respect to ocean and coastal resources, without regard to section 501 of title 44, United States Code;

"(4) enter into contracts, cooperative agreements, and other transactions without regard to section 3709 of the Revised Statutes of the United States (41 U.S.C. 5);

"(5) accept donations and voluntary and uncompensated services, notwithstanding section 3679 of the Revised Statutes of the United States (31 U.S.C. 665(b)); and

"(6) issue such rules and regulations as may be necessary and appropriate.

"SEC. 205. CONTRACTS AND GRANTS.

33 USC 1124.

"(a) In General.—The Secretary may make grants and enter into contracts under this subsection to assist any sea grant program or project if the Secretary finds that such program or project will—

"(1) implement the objective set forth in section 202(b); and

"(2) be responsive to the needs or problems of individual States or regions.

The total amount paid pursuant to any such grant or contract may equal 66 2/3 percent, or any lesser percent, of the total cost of the sea grant program or project involved.

"(b) Special Grants.—The Secretary may make special grants under this subsection to implement the objective set forth in section 202(b). The amount of any such grant may equal 100 percent, or any lesser percent, of the total cost of the project involved. No grant may be made under this subsection unless the Secretary finds that—

"(1) no reasonable means is available through which the applicant can meet the matching requirement for a grant under subsection (a);

"(2) the probable benefit of such project outweighs the public interest in such matching requirement; and

"(3) the same or equivalent benefit cannot be obtained through the award of a contract or grant under subsection (a) or section 206.

The total amount which may be provided for grants under this subsection during any fiscal year shall not exceed an amount equal to 1 percent of the total funds appropriated for such year pursuant to section 212.

"(c) Eligibility and Procedure.—Any person may apply to the Secretary for a grant or contract under this section. Application shall be made in such form and manner, and with such content and other submissions, as the Secretary shall by regulation prescribe. The Secretary shall act upon each such application within 6 months after the date on which all required information is received.
“(d) Terms and Conditions.—(1) Any grant made, or contract entered into, under this section shall be subject to the limitations and provisions set forth in paragraphs (2), (3), and (4) and to such other terms, conditions, and requirements as the Secretary deems necessary or appropriate.

“(2) No payment under any grant or contract under this section may be applied to—

“(A) the purchase or rental of any land; or

“(B) the purchase, rental, construction, preservation, or repair of any building, dock, or vessel:

except that payment under any such grant or contract may, if approved by the Secretary, be applied to the purchase, rental, construction, preservation, or repair of non-self-propelled habitats, buoys, platforms, and other similar devices or structures, or to the rental of any research vessel which is used in direct support of activities under any sea grant program or project.

“(3) The total amount which may be obligated for payment pursuant to grants made to, and contracts entered into with, persons under this section within any one State in any fiscal year shall not exceed an amount equal to 15 percent of the total funds appropriated for such year pursuant to section 212.

“(4) Any person who receives or utilizes any proceeds of any grant or contract under this section shall keep such records as the Secretary shall by regulation prescribe as being necessary and appropriate to facilitate effective audit and evaluation, including records which fully disclose the amount and disposition by such recipient of such proceeds, the total cost of the program or project in connection with which such proceeds were used, and the amount, if any, of such cost which was provided through other sources. Such records shall be maintained for 3 years after the completion of such a program or project. The Secretary and the Comptroller General of the United States, or any of their duly authorized representatives, shall have access, for the purpose of audit and evaluation, to any books, documents, papers, and records of receipts which, in the opinion of the Secretary or of the Comptroller General, may be related or pertinent to such grants and contracts.

“SEC. 206. NATIONAL PROJECTS.

“(a) In General.—The Secretary shall identify specific national needs and problems with respect to ocean and coastal resources. The Secretary may make grants or enter into contracts under this section with respect to such needs or problems. The amount of any such grant or contract may equal 100 percent, or any lesser percent, of the total cost of the project involved.

“(b) Eligibility and Procedure.—Any person may apply to the Secretary for a grant or contract under this section. In addition, the Secretary may invite applications with respect to specific national needs or problems identified under subsection (a). Application shall be made in such form and manner, and with such content and other submissions, as the Secretary shall by regulation prescribe. The Secretary shall act upon each such application within 6 months after the date on which all required information is received. Any grant made, or contract entered into, under this section shall be subject to the limitations and provisions set forth in section 205(d) (2) and (4) and to such other terms, conditions, and requirements as the Secretary deems necessary or appropriate.

“(c) Authorization for Appropriations.—There is authorized to be appropriated for purposes of carrying out this section not to exceed $5,000,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1977. Such sums as may be appropriated pursuant to this subsection shall remain available until expended. The amounts obligated to be expended for the purposes set forth in subsection (a) shall not, in any fiscal year, exceed an amount equal to 10 percent of the sums appropriated for such year pursuant to section 212.

"SEC. 207. SEA GRANT COLLEGES AND SEA GRANT REGIONAL CONSORTIA.

(a) DESIGNATION.—(1) The Secretary may designate—

"(A) any institution of higher education as a sea grant college; and

"(B) any association or other alliance of two or more persons (other than individuals) as a sea grant regional consortium.

(2) No institution of higher education may be designated as a sea grant college unless the Secretary finds that such institution—

"(A) is maintaining a balanced program of research, education, training, and advisory services in fields related to ocean and coastal resources and has received financial assistance under section 205 of this title or under section 204(c) of the National Sea Grant College and Program Act of 1966;

"(B) will act in accordance with such guidelines as are prescribed under subsection (b)(2); and

"(C) meets such other qualifications as the Secretary deems necessary or appropriate.

The designation of any institution as a sea grant college under the authority of such Act of 1966 shall, if such designation is in effect on the day before the date of the enactment of the Sea Grant Program Improvement Act of 1976, be considered to be a designation made under paragraph (1) so long as such institution complies with subparagraphs (B) and (C).

(3) No association or other alliance of two or more persons may be designated as a sea grant regional consortium unless the Secretary finds that such association or alliance—

"(A) is established for the purpose of sharing expertise, research, educational facilities, or training facilities, and other capabilities in order to facilitate research, education, training, and advisory services, in any field related to ocean and coastal resources;

"(B) will encourage and follow a regional approach to solving problems or meeting needs relating to ocean and coastal resources, in cooperation with appropriate sea grant colleges, sea grant programs, and other persons in the region;

"(C) will act in accordance with such guidelines as are prescribed under subsection (b)(2); and

"(D) meets such other qualifications as the Secretary deems necessary or appropriate.

(b) REGULATIONS.—The Secretary shall by regulation prescribe—

"(1) the qualifications required to be met under paragraphs (2)(C) and (3)(D) of subsection (a); and

"(2) guidelines relating to the activities and responsibilities of sea grant colleges and sea grant regional consortia.

(c) SUSPENSION OR TERMINATION OF DESIGNATION.—The Secretary may, for cause and after an opportunity for hearing, suspend or terminate any designation under subsection (a).

"SEC. 208. SEA GRANT FELLOWSHIPS.

(a) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary shall support a sea grant fellowship program to provide educational and training assistance to qualified individuals at the undergraduate and graduate levels of education in fields related to ocean and coastal resources. Such fellowships shall be awarded pursuant to guidelines established by the Secretary. Sea grant fellowships may only be awarded by sea grant colleges, sea grant regional consortia, institutions of higher education, and professional associations and institutes.

"(b) Limitation on Total Fellowship Grants.—The total amount which may be provided for grants under the sea grant fellowship program during any fiscal year shall not exceed an amount equal to 5 percent of the total funds appropriated for such year pursuant to section 212.

"SEC. 209. SEA GRANT REVIEW PANEL.

"(a) Establishment.—There shall be established an independent committee to be known as the sea grant review panel. The panel shall, on the 60th day after the date of the enactment of the Sea Grant Program Improvement Act of 1976, supersede the sea grant advisory panel in existence before such date of enactment.

"(b) Duties.—The panel shall take such steps as may be necessary to review, and shall advise the Secretary, the Administrator, and the Director with respect to—

"(1) applications or proposals for, and performance under, grants and contracts awarded under sections 205 and 206;

"(2) the sea grant fellowship program;

"(3) the designation and operation of sea grant colleges and sea grant regional consortia, and the operation of sea grant programs;

"(4) the formulation and application of the planning guidelines and priorities under section 204 (a) and (c) (1); and

"(5) such other matters as the Secretary refers to the panel for review and advice.

The Secretary shall make available to the panel such information, personnel, and administrative services and assistance as it may reasonably require to carry out its duties.

"(c) Membership, Terms, and Powers.—(1) The panel shall consist of 15 voting members who shall be appointed by the Secretary. The Director shall serve as a nonvoting member of the panel. Not less than five of the voting members of the panel shall be individuals who, by reason of knowledge, experience, or training, are especially qualified in one or more of the disciplines and fields included in marine science. The other voting members shall be individuals who, by reason of knowledge, experience, or training, are especially qualified in, or representative of, education, extension services, State government, industry, economies, planning, or any other activity which is appropriate to, and important for, any effort to enhance the understanding, assessment, development, utilization, or conservation of ocean and coastal resources. No individual is eligible to be a voting member of the panel if the individual is (A) the director of a sea grant college, sea grant regional consortium, or sea grant program; (B) an applicant for, or beneficiary (as determined by the Secretary) of, any grant or contract under section 205 or 206; or (C) a full-time officer or employee of the United States.

"(2) The term of office of a voting member of the panel shall be 3 years, except that of the original appointees, five shall be appointed for a term of 1 year, five shall be appointed for a term of 2 years, and five shall be appointed for a term of 3 years.

"(3) Any individual appointed to fill a vacancy occurring before the expiration of the term for which his or her predecessor was appointed shall be appointed only for the remainder of such term.
No individual may be appointed as a voting member after serving one full term as such a member. A voting member may serve after the date of the expiration of the term of office for which appointed until his or her successor has taken office, or until 90 days after such date, whichever is earlier.

"(4) The panel shall select one voting member to serve as the Chairman and another voting member to serve as the Vice Chairman. The Vice Chairman shall act as Chairman in the absence or incapacity of the Chairman.

"(5) Voting members of the panel shall—
   "(A) receive compensation at the daily rate for GS–18 of the General Schedule under section 5332 of title 5, United States Code, when actually engaged in the performance of duties for such panel; and
   "(B) be reimbursed for actual and reasonable expenses incurred in the performance of such duties.

"(6) The panel shall meet on a biannual basis and, at any other time, at the call of the Chairman or upon the request of a majority of the voting members or of the Director.

"(7) The panel may exercise such powers as are reasonably necessary in order to carry out its duties under subsection (b).

"SEC. 210. INTERAGENCY COOPERATION.

"Each department, agency, or other instrumentality of the Federal Government which is engaged in or concerned with, or which has authority over, matters relating to ocean and coastal resources—

"(1) may, upon a written request from the Secretary, make available, on a reimbursable basis or otherwise any personnel (with their consent and without prejudice to their position and rating), service, or facility which the Secretary deems necessary to carry out any provision of this title;

"(2) shall, upon a written request from the Secretary, furnish any available data or other information which the Secretary deems necessary to carry out any provision of this title; and

"(3) shall cooperate with the Administration and duly authorized officials thereof.

"SEC. 211. ANNUAL REPORT AND EVALUATION.

"(a) ANNUAL REPORT.—The Secretary shall submit to the Congress and the President, not later than February 15 of each year, a report on the activities of, and the outlook for, the national sea grant program.

"(b) EVALUATION.—The Director of the Office of Management and Budget and the Director of the Office of Science and Technology Policy, in the Executive Office of the President, shall have the opportunity to review each report prepared pursuant to subsection (a). Such Directors may submit, for inclusion in such report, comments and recommendations and an independent evaluation of the national sea grant program. Such material shall be transmitted to the Secretary not later than February 1 of each year, and the Secretary shall cause it to be published as a separate section in the annual report submitted pursuant to subsection (a).

"SEC. 212. AUTHORIZATION FOR APPROPRIATIONS.

"There is authorized to be appropriated for purposes of carrying out the provisions of this title (other than section 206) not to exceed $50,000,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1977. Such sums as may be appropriated under this section shall remain available until expended.”

SEC. 3. INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION ASSISTANCE.

(a) In General.—The Secretary of Commerce (hereafter in this section referred to as the “Secretary”) may enter into contracts and make grants under this section to—

(1) enhance the research and development capability of developing foreign nations with respect to ocean and coastal resources, as such term is defined in section 203 of the National Sea Grant Program Act; and

(2) promote the international exchange of information and data with respect to the assessment, development, utilization, and conservation of such resources.

(b) Eligibility and Procedure.—Any sea grant college and sea grant regional consortium (as defined in section 203 of the National Sea Grant Program Act) and any institution of higher education, laboratory, or institute (if such institution, laboratory, or institute is located within any State (as defined in such section 203)) may apply for and receive financial assistance under this section. Each grant or contract under this section shall be made pursuant to such requirements as the Secretary shall, after consultation with the Secretary of State, by regulation prescribe. Application shall be made in such form, and with such content and other submissions, as may be so required. Before approving any application for a grant or contract under this section, the Secretary shall consult with the Secretary of State. Any grant made, or contract entered into, under this section shall be subject to the limitations and provisions set forth in section 205(d) (2) and (4) of the National Sea Grant Program Act and to such other terms, conditions, and requirements as the Secretary deems necessary or appropriate.

(c) Authorization for Appropriations.—There is authorized to be appropriated for purposes of carrying out this section not to exceed $3,000,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1977. Such sums as may be appropriated under this section shall remain available until expended.

SEC. 4. CONFORMING AND MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

(a) Section 5314 of title 5, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

“(65) Administrator, National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration.”

(b) Section 5315 of title 5, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraphs:

“(109) Deputy Administrator, National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration.

“(110) Associate Administrator, National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration.”

(c) (1) Section 2(d) of Reorganization Plan Numbered 4 of 1970 (84 Stat. 2090) is amended by striking out “Level V” and “(5 U.S.C. 5316)” and inserting in lieu thereof “Level IV” and “(5 U.S.C. 5315)”, respectively.
(2) The individual serving as the Associate Administrator of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (pursuant to section 2(d) of Reorganization Plan Numbered 4 of 1970) on the date of the enactment of this Act shall continue as the Associate Administrator, notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (1).

An Act

To amend and extend the National Foundation on the Arts and Humanities Act of 1965, to provide for the improvement of museum services, to establish a challenge grant program, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That this Act may be cited as the “Arts, Humanities, and Cultural Affairs Act of 1976”.

TITLE I—ARTS AND HUMANITIES

SCOPE OF PROGRAMS CARRIED OUT BY CHAIRMAN OF NATIONAL ENDOWMENT FOR THE ARTS

Sec. 101. Section 5 (c) of the National Foundation on the Arts and the Humanities Act of 1965 is amended by striking out “in the United States”.

ALLOTMENTS FOR PROJECTS AND PRODUCTIONS RELATING TO THE ARTS

Sec. 102. Section 5(g) (4) (A) of the National Foundation on the Arts and the Humanities Act of 1965 is amended by inserting immediately after “(4) (A)” the following new sentence: “The amount of each allotment to a State for any fiscal year under this subsection shall be available to each State, which has a plan approved by the Chairman in effect on the first day of such fiscal year, to pay not more than 50 per centum of the total cost of any project or production described in paragraph (1).”.

APPOINTMENT OF MEMBERS OF NATIONAL COUNCIL ON ARTS AND NATIONAL COUNCIL ON HUMANITIES

Sec. 103. (a) The first sentence of section 6 (b) of the National Foundation on the Arts and the Humanities Act of 1965 is amended by inserting, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate,” immediately after “President”.

(b) The first sentence of section 8(b) of the National Foundation on the Arts and the Humanities Act of 1965 is amended by inserting “, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate,” immediately after “President”.

STATE HUMANITIES PROGRAM

Sec. 104. (a) Section 7 of the National Foundation on the Arts and the Humanities Act of 1965 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

“(f) (1) The Chairman, with the advice of the National Council on the Humanities, is authorized, in accordance with the provisions of this subsection, to establish and carry out a program of grants-in-aid in each of the several States in order to support not more than 50 per centum of the cost of existing activities which meet the standards enumerated in subsection (c) of this section, and in order to develop a program in the humanities in such a manner as will furnish adequate programs in the humanities in each of the several States.
Application and plan for financial assistance.

"(2) In order to receive Federal financial assistance under this subsection in any fiscal year, any appropriate entity desiring to receive such assistance shall submit an application for such grants at such time as shall be specified by the Chairman. Each such application shall be accompanied by a plan which the Chairman finds—

"(A) provides assurances that the grant recipient will comply with the requirements of paragraph (3) of this subsection;

"(B) provides that funds paid to the grant recipient will be expended solely on programs which carry out the objectives of subsection (c) of this section;

"(C) establishes a membership policy which is designed to assure broad public representation with respect to programs administered by such grant recipient;

"(D) provides a nomination process which assures opportunities for nomination to membership from various groups within the State involved and from a variety of segments of the population of such State, and including individuals who by reason of their achievement, scholarship, or creativity in the humanities, are especially qualified to serve;

"(E) provides for a membership rotation process which assures the regular rotation of the membership and officers of such grant recipient and which complies with the provisions of paragraph (3)(C) of this subsection;

"(F) establishes reporting procedures which are designed to inform the chief executive officer of the State involved, and other appropriate officers and agencies, of the activities of such grant recipient;

"(G) establishes procedures to assure public access to information relating to such activities; and

"(H) provides that such grant recipient shall make reports to the Chairman, in such form, at such times, and containing such information, as the Chairman may require.

"(3)(A) Whenever a State desires that an appropriate officer or agency of such State appoint 50 per centum of the membership of the governing body of the grant recipient involved, such State shall—

"(i) for the first fiscal year with respect to which such State desires to make such appointments, match, from State funds, 50 per centum of that portion of the Federal financial assistance received by such grant recipient under this subsection which exceeds $100,000;

"(ii) for the second fiscal year with respect to which such State desires to make such appointments, match, from State funds, that portion of the Federal financial assistance received by such grant recipient under this subsection which exceeds $100,000; and

"(iii) with respect to each fiscal year thereafter, match, from State funds, the total amount of Federal financial assistance received by such grant recipient under this subsection for the fiscal year involved.

"(B) In any State in which the State does not desire to comply with the requirements of subparagraph (A) of this paragraph, the grant recipient shall—

"(i) establish a procedure which assures that two members of the governing body of such grant recipient shall be appointed by an appropriate officer or agency of such State; and

"(ii) provide, from any source, an amount equal to the total amount of Federal financial assistance received by such grant recipient under this subsection in the fiscal year involved.
“(C) In any fiscal year in which a State fails to meet the matching requirement from State funds made by subparagraph (A) of this paragraph, the number of members on the governing body of the grant recipient who were appointed by an appropriate officer or agency of such State shall be reduced so that the governing body complies with the provisions of subparagraph (B) of this paragraph.

“(4) Of the sums available to carry out this subsection for any fiscal year, each grant recipient which has a plan approved by the Chairman shall be allotted at least $200,000. If the sums appropriated are insufficient to make the allotments under the preceding sentence in full, such sums shall be allotted among such grant recipients in equal amounts. In any case where the sums available to carry out this subsection for any fiscal year are in excess of the amount required to make the allotments under the first sentence of this paragraph—

“(A) the amount of such excess which is no greater than 25 per centum of the sums available to carry out this subsection for any fiscal year shall be available to the Chairman for making grants under this subsection to entities applying for such grants;

“(B) the amount of such excess, if any, which remains after reserving in full for the Chairman the amount required under subparagraph (A) shall be allotted among the grant recipients which have plans approved by the Chairman in equal amounts, but in no event shall any grant recipient be allotted less than $200,000.

“(5) (A) Whenever the provisions of paragraph (3) (B) of this subsection apply in any State, that part of any allotment made under paragraph (4) for any fiscal year—

“(i) which exceeds $125,000, but

“(ii) which does not exceed 20 per centum of such allotment, shall be available, at the discretion of the Chairman, to pay up to 100 per centum of the cost of programs under this subsection if such programs would otherwise be unavailable to the residents of that State.

“(B) Any amount allotted to a State under the first sentence of paragraph (4) for any fiscal year which is not obligated by the grant recipient prior to sixty days prior to the end of the fiscal year for which such sums are appropriated shall be available to the Chairman for making grants to regional groups.

“(C) Funds made available under this subsection shall not be used to supplant non-Federal funds.

“(D) For the purposes of this paragraph, the term ‘regional group’ means any multistate group, whether or not representative of contiguous States.

“(6) All amounts allotted or made available under paragraph (4) for a fiscal year which are not granted to any entity during such fiscal year shall be available to the National Endowment for the Humanities for the purpose of carrying out subsection (c).

“(7) Whenever the Chairman, after reasonable notice and opportunity for hearing, finds that—

“(A) a grant recipient is not complying substantially with the provisions of this subsection;

“(B) a grant recipient is not complying substantially with terms and conditions of its plan approved under this subsection; or

“(C) any funds granted to any grant recipient under this subsection have been diverted from the purposes for which they are allotted or paid, the Chairman shall immediately notify the Secretary of the Treasury and the grant recipient with respect to which such finding was made that no further grants will be made under this subsection to such grant recipient until there is no longer a default or failure to comply or the diversion has been corrected, or, if the compliance or correction is impossible, until such grant recipient repays or arranges the repayment of the Federal funds which have been improperly diverted or expended.

"(8) Except as provided in paragraphs (4), (5), and (6), the Chairman may not make grants under this subsection to more than one entity in any State."

(b) The amendment made by subsection (a) shall be effective with respect to fiscal year 1977 and succeeding fiscal years.

PAYMENT OF PERFORMERS AND SUPPORTING PERSONNEL

SEC. 105. Section 7 of the National Foundation on the Arts and the Humanities Act of 1965, as amended by section 104(a), is further amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

“(g) It shall be a condition of the receipt of any grant under this section that the group, individual, or State entity receiving such grant furnish adequate assurances to the Secretary of Labor that (1) all professional performers and related or supporting professional personnel employed on projects or productions which are financed in whole or in part under this section will be paid, without subsequent deduction or rebate on any account, not less than the minimum compensation as determined by the Secretary of Labor to be the prevailing minimum compensation for persons employed in similar activities; and (2) no part of any project or production which is financed in whole or in part under this section will be performed or engaged in under working conditions which are unsanitary or hazardous or dangerous to the health and safety of the employees engaged in such project or production. Compliance with the safety and sanitary laws of the State in which the performance or part thereof is to take place shall be prima facie evidence of compliance. The Secretary of Labor shall have the authority to prescribe standards, regulations, and procedures as he may deem necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this subsection.”

SEC. 106. (a) (1) (A) Section 11(a)(1)(A) of the National Foundation on the Arts and the Humanities Act of 1965 is amended to read as follows:

“Sec. 11. (a) (1) (A) For the purpose of carrying out section 5(c), there are authorized to be appropriated $93,500,000 for fiscal year 1977, $105,000,000 for fiscal year 1978, and such sums as may be necessary for fiscal years 1979 and 1980. Of the sums so appropriated for any fiscal year, not less than 20 per centum shall be for carrying out section 5 (g).”

(B) Section 11(a)(1)(B) of such Act is amended by striking out all that follows “Humanities” and inserting in lieu thereof the following: “$93,500,000 for fiscal year 1977, $105,000,000 for fiscal year 1978, and such sums as may be necessary for fiscal years 1979 and 1980. Of the sums so appropriated for any fiscal year, not less than 20 per centum shall be for carrying out section 7 (f).”.

(2) Section 11(a)(2) of such Act is amended (A) by striking out
"July 1, 1976" and inserting in lieu thereof "October 1, 1980"; and (B) by striking out all that follows "not exceed" and inserting in lieu thereof "$20,000,000 for fiscal year 1977, $25,000,000 for fiscal year 1978, and such sums as may be necessary for fiscal years 1979 and 1980."

(3) Section 11(c) of such Act is amended by inserting before the period a comma and the following: "or any other program for which the Chairman of the National Endowment for the Arts or the Chairman of the National Endowment for the Humanities is responsible".

(b) The amendments made by subsection (a) shall be effective with respect to fiscal year 1977 and succeeding fiscal years.

TITLE II—MUSEUM SERVICES

SHORT TITLE

Sec. 201. This title may be cited as the "Museum Services Act".

PURPOSE

Sec. 202. It is the purpose of this title to encourage and assist museums in their educational role, in conjunction with formal systems of elementary, secondary, and post-secondary education and with programs of nonformal education for all age groups; to assist museums in modernizing their methods and facilities so that they may be better able to conserve our cultural, historic, and scientific heritage; and to ease the financial burden borne by museums as a result of their increasing use by the public.

INSTITUTE OF MUSEUM SERVICES

Sec. 203. There is hereby established, within the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, an Institute of Museum Services. The Institute shall consist of a National Museum Services Board and a Director of the Institute.

NATIONAL MUSEUM SERVICES BOARD

Sec. 204. (a) (1) The Board shall consist of fifteen members appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. Such members shall be broadly representative of various museums, including museums relating to science, history, technology, art, zoos, and botanical gardens, of the curatorial, educational, and cultural resources of the United States, and of the general public.

(2) (A) In addition to members appointed by the President under paragraph (1), the following persons shall serve as members of the Board—

(i) the Chairman of the National Endowment for the Arts;
(ii) the Chairman of the National Endowment for the Humanities;
(iii) the Secretary of the Smithsonian Institution;
(iv) the Director of the National Science Foundation; and
(v) the Commissioner of Education.

(2) (B) The members of the Board listed in clause (i) through clause
(v) of subparagraph (A) shall be nonvoting members.

(b) The term of office of the appointed members of the Board shall be five years, except that—

Appointed members.
20 USC 963.

Additional nonvoting members.

Term.
(1) any such member appointed to fill a vacancy shall serve only such portion of a term as shall not have expired at the time of such appointment; and

(2) in the case of initial members, three shall serve for terms of five years, three shall serve for terms of four years, three shall serve for terms of three years, three shall serve for terms of two years, and three shall serve for terms of one year, as designated by the President at the time of nomination for appointment.

Any appointed member who has been a member of the Board for more than seven consecutive years shall thereafter be ineligible for reappointment to the Board during the three-year period following the expiration of the last such consecutive year.

Chairman.

(c) The Chairman of the Board shall be designated by the President from among the appointed members of the Board. Eight appointed members of the Board shall constitute a quorum.

Quorum.

(d) The Board shall meet at the call of the Chairman, except that—

(1) it shall meet not less than four times each year; and

(2) it shall meet whenever one-third of the appointed members request a meeting in writing, in which event eight of the appointed members shall constitute a quorum.

Compensation.

(e) Members of the Board who are not in the regular full-time employ of the United States shall receive, while engaged in the business of the Board, compensation for service at a rate to be fixed by the President, except that such rate shall not exceed the rate specified at the time of such service for grade GS-18 set forth in section 5332 of title 5, United States Code, including traveltime, and, while serving away from their homes or regular places of business, they may be allowed travel expenses, including per diem in lieu of subsistence, as authorized by section 5703 of title 5, United States Code, for persons employed in Government service.

General policies.

(f) The Board shall have the responsibility for the general policies with respect to the powers, duties, and authorities vested in the Institute under this title. The Director shall make available to the Board such information and assistance as may be necessary to enable the Board to carry out its functions.

(g) The Board shall, with the advice of the Director, take steps to assure that the policies and purposes of the Institute are coordinated with other activities of the Federal Government.

DIRECTOR OF THE INSTITUTE

Appointment.

SEC. 205. (a) (1) The Director of the Institute shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and shall serve at the pleasure of the President. The Director shall be compensated at the rate provided for level V of the Executive Schedule (5 U.S.C. 5316), and shall perform such duties and exercise such powers as the Board may prescribe.

Report to HEW Secretary.

(2) The Director shall report to the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare with respect to the activities of the Institute. The Director shall not delegate any of his functions to any other officer who is not directly responsible to the Director.

(b) The Director shall advise the Board regarding policies of the Institute to assure coordination of the Institute’s activities with other agencies and organizations of the Federal Government having interest in and responsibilities for the improvement of museums. Such Government agencies shall include the National Endowment for the Arts, the National Endowment for the Humanities, the National Science
Sect. 206. (a) The Director, subject to the policy direction of the Board, is authorized to make grants to museums to increase and improve museum services, through such activities as—

(1) programs to enable museums to construct or install displays, interpretations, and exhibitions in order to improve their services to the public;

(2) assisting them in developing and maintaining professionally-trained or otherwise experienced staff to meet their needs;

(3) assisting them to meet their administrative costs in preserving and maintaining their collections, exhibiting them to the public, and providing educational programs to the public through the use of their collections;

(4) assisting museums in cooperation with each other in the development of traveling exhibitions, meeting transportation costs, and identifying and locating collections available for loan;

(5) assisting them in conservation of artifacts and art objects; and

(6) developing and carrying out specialized programs for specific segments of the public, such as programs for urban neighborhoods, rural areas, Indian reservations, and penal and other State institutions.

(b) Grants under this section for any fiscal year may not exceed 50 per centum of the cost of the program for which the grant is made, except that not more than 20 per centum of the funds available under this section for any fiscal year may be available for grants in such fiscal year without regard to such limitation.

CONTRIBUTIONS

Sect. 207. The Institute shall have authority to accept in the name of the United States, grants, gifts, or bequests of money for immediate disbursement in furtherance of the functions of the Institute. Such grants, gifts, or bequests, after acceptance by the Institute, shall be paid by the donor or his representative to the Treasurer of the United States whose receipt shall be their acquittance. The Treasurer of the United States shall enter them in a special account to the credit of the Institute for the purposes in each case specified.

FUNCTIONS OF FEDERAL COUNCIL ON THE ARTS AND THE HUMANITIES

Sect. 208. Section 9(c) of the National Foundation on the Arts and the Humanities Act of 1965 is amended—

(1) by redesignating paragraph (2) through paragraph (4) as paragraph (3) through paragraph (5), respectively, and by inserting immediately after paragraph (1) the following new paragraph:

"(2) advise and consult with the National Museum Services Board and with the Director of the Institute of Museum Services on major problems arising in carrying out the purposes of such Institute;";
(2) in paragraph (3) thereof, as so redesignated by paragraph (1), by striking out "and" immediately after "Arts" and inserting in lieu thereof a comma, and by inserting "and the Institute of Museum Services," immediately after "Humanities"; and
(3) in paragraph (4) thereof, as so redesignated by paragraph (1), by inserting "and the Institute of Museum Services" immediately after "Foundation".

TITLE III—CHALLENGE GRANT PROGRAMS

ESTABLISHMENT OF PROGRAMS

20 USC 954.

SEC. 301. (a) Section 5 of the National Foundation of the Arts and the Humanities Act of 1965 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:
"(1) The Chairman of the National Endowment for the Arts, with the advice of the National Council on the Arts, is authorized, in accordance with the provisions of this subsection, to establish and carry out a program of contracts with, or grants-in-aid to, public agencies and private nonprofit organizations for the purpose of—
(A) enabling cultural organizations and institutions to increase the levels of continuing support and to increase the range of contributors to the programs of such organizations or institutions;
(B) providing administrative and management improvements for cultural organizations and institutions, particularly in the field of long-range financial planning;"
“(C) enabling cultural organizations and institutions to increase audience participation in, and appreciation of, programs sponsored by such organizations and institutions;

“(D) stimulating greater cooperation among cultural organizations and institutions especially designed to serve better the communities in which such organizations or institutions are located; and “(E) fostering greater citizen involvement in planning the cultural development of a community.

“(2) The total amount of any payment made under this subsection for a program or project may not exceed 50 per centum of the cost of such program or project.

“(3) In carrying out the program authorized by this subsection, the Chairman of the National Endowment for the Arts shall have the same authority as is established in section 5(e) and section 10.”.

(b) Section 7 of the National Foundation on the Arts and the Humanities Act of 1965, as amended by section 105, is further amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

“(h) (1) The Chairman of the National Endowment for the Humanities, with the advice of the National Council on the Humanities, is authorized, in accordance with the provisions of this subsection, to establish and carry out a program of contracts with, or grants-in-aid to, public agencies and private nonprofit organizations for the purpose of—

“(A) enabling cultural organizations and institutions to increase the levels of continuing support and to increase the range of contributors to the program of such organizations or institutions;

“(B) providing administrative and management improvements for cultural organizations and institutions, particularly in the field of long-range financial planning;

“(C) enabling cultural organizations and institutions to increase audience participation in, and appreciation of, programs sponsored by such organizations and institutions;

“(D) stimulating greater cooperation among cultural organizations and institutions especially designed to serve better the communities in which such organizations or institutions are located;

“(E) fostering greater citizen involvement in planning the cultural development of a community; and

“(F) for bicentennial programs, assessing where our society and Government stand in relation to the founding principles of the Republic, primarily focused on projects which will bring together the public and private citizen sectors in an effort to find new processes for solving problems facing our Nation in its third century.

“(2)(A) Except as provided in subparagraph (B) of this paragraph, the total amount of any payment made under this subsection for a program or project may not exceed 50 per centum of the cost of such program or project.

“(B) The Chairman, with the advice of the Council, may waive all or part of the requirement of matching funds provided in subparagraph (A) of this paragraph, but only for the purposes described in clause (F) of paragraph (1), whenever he determines that highly meritorious proposals for grants and contracts under such clause, could not otherwise be supported from non-Federal sources or from Federal sources other than funds authorized by section 11(a)(3), unless such matching requirement is waived. Such waiver may not exceed 15 per centum of the amount appropriated in any fiscal year.
and available to the National Endowment on the Humanities for the purpose of this subsection.

"(3) In carrying out the program authorized by this subsection, the Chairman of the National Endowment for the Humanities shall have the same authority as is established in section 7(c) and section 10."

AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS

SEC. 302. Section 11(a) of the National Foundation on the Arts and the Humanities Act of 1965 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

"(3)(A) There is authorized to be appropriated for each fiscal year ending before October 1, 1980, to the National Endowment for the Arts an amount equal to the total amounts received by such Endowment for the purposes set forth in section 5(1)(1) pursuant to the authority of section 10(a)(2), except that the amount so appropriated to such Endowment shall not exceed $12,000,000 for fiscal year 1977, and $18,000,000 for fiscal year 1978. Such sums as may be necessary are authorized to be appropriated for fiscal years 1979 and 1980.

"(B) There are authorized to be appropriated for each fiscal year ending before October 1, 1980, to the National Endowment for the Humanities an amount equal to the total amounts received by such Endowment for the purposes set forth in section 7(h)(1) pursuant to the authority of section 10(a)(2), except that the amount so appropriated to such Endowment shall not exceed $12,000,000 for fiscal year 1977, and $18,000,000 for fiscal year 1978. Such sums as may be necessary are authorized to be appropriated for fiscal years 1979 and 1980.

"(C) If either Chairman determines at the end of the ninth month of any fiscal year that funds which would otherwise be available under this paragraph to an Endowment cannot be used, he shall transfer such funds to the other Endowment for the purposes described in section 5(1)(1) or section 7(h)(1), as may be necessary.

"(D) Sums appropriated pursuant to subparagraph (A) and subparagraph (B) for any fiscal year shall remain available for obligation and expenditure until expended."

TITLE IV—AMERICAN BICENTENNIAL PHOTOGRAPHY AND FILM PROJECT

AMERICAN BICENTENNIAL PHOTOGRAPHY AND FILM PROJECT

SEC. 401. (a) Section 5 of the National Foundation on the Arts and the Humanities Act of 1965, as amended by section 301(a), is further amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

"(m) (1) From funds appropriated to the Endowment and apportioned to each State pursuant to section 11(a)(4), the Endowment is authorized to provide, by grant or contract, financial assistance to the State arts agency of each State, pursuant to such regulations and guidelines as the Endowment shall establish, to permit such State agency to support one or more photography or film projects meeting the purposes of this subsection. Such assistance shall also be available for acquiring essential supplies, and for administrative or supervisory personnel, and for processing and cataloging, and for the display (and related activities) of the photographs and films produced with assistance under this subsection.

"(2) (A) No financial assistance may be made under this subsection unless an application is made at such time, in such manner, and containing or accompanied by such information, as the Endowment determines is reasonably necessary.
“(B) In providing financial assistance under this subsection, each State shall give consideration to proposals which involve promising and qualified photographers or film makers who are unemployed or underemployed.

“(3) From funds allotted to the Endowment pursuant to section 11(a) (4), the Endowment shall pay the costs of administration, provide for collection and dissemination of a representative collection of photographs and films produced pursuant to this subsection, and provide direct assistance to applicants for photography or film projects of special merit which meet the purposes of this subsection. The Endowment shall assure that representative photographs and films (including, where appropriate, negatives) produced with assistance furnished under this subsection are made available for the permanent collection of the Library of Congress.”.

(b) Section 11(a) of the National Foundation on the Arts and the Humanities Act of 1965, as amended by section 302, is further amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

“(4) (A) For the purposes of carrying out section 5(m), there are authorized to be appropriated to the National Endowment for the Arts $4,000,000 for fiscal year 1977 and $2,000,000 for fiscal year 1978. Sums appropriated pursuant to this subparagraph shall remain available until expended.

“(B) Not more than 75 per centum of the amounts appropriated pursuant to subparagraph (A) shall be allocated among the States in equal amounts for fiscal year 1977, and not more than 50 per centum of the amounts appropriated pursuant to subparagraph (A) shall be allocated among the States in equal amounts for fiscal year 1978.”.

TITLE V—ARTS EDUCATION

AMENDMENT TO THE EDUCATION AMENDMENTS OF 1974

SEC. 501. Section 409 of the Education Amendments of 1974 is amended by inserting “(a)” after the section designation and by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

“(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 402(b) (3) (G) and section 402(b) (4) of this Act, and in addition to sums reserved under that section and made available under subsection (a) of this section, there are authorized to be appropriated $2,000,000 for fiscal year 1978 to carry out the purposes of this section.”.

An Act

To encourage the direct marketing of agricultural commodities from farmers to consumers.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That this Act may be cited as the "Farmer-to-Consumer Direct Marketing Act of 1976".

PURPOSE

Sec. 2. It is the purpose of this Act to promote, through appropriate means and on an economically sustainable basis, the development and expansion of direct marketing of agricultural commodities from farmers to consumers. To accomplish this objective, the Secretary of Agriculture (hereinafter referred to as the "Secretary") shall initiate and coordinate a program designed to facilitate direct marketing from farmers to consumers for the mutual benefit of consumers and farmers.

DEFINITION

Sec. 3. For purposes of this Act, the term "direct marketing from farmers to consumers" shall mean the marketing of agricultural commodities at any marketplace (including, but not limited to, roadside stands, city markets, and vehicles used for house-to-house marketing of agricultural commodities) established and maintained for the purpose of enabling farmers to sell (either individually or through a farmers' organization directly representing the farmers who produced the commodities being sold) their agricultural commodities directly to individual consumers, or organizations representing consumers, in a manner calculated to lower the cost and increase the quality of food to such consumers while providing increased financial returns to the farmers.

SURVEY

Sec. 4. The Secretary shall provide, through the Economic Research Service of the United States Department of Agriculture, or whatever agency or agencies the Secretary considers appropriate, a continuing survey of existing methods of direct marketing from farmers to consumers in each State. The initial survey, which shall be completed no later than one year following the date of enactment of this Act, shall include the number of types of such marketing methods in existence, the volume of business conducted through each such marketing method, and the impact of such marketing methods upon financial returns to farmers (including their impact upon improving the economic viability of small farmers) and food quality and costs to consumers.

DIRECT MARKETING ASSISTANCE WITHIN THE STATES

Sec. 5. (a) In order to promote the establishment and operation of direct marketing from farmers to consumers, the Secretary shall provide that funds appropriated to carry out this section be utilized by State departments of agriculture and the Extension Service of the United States Department of Agriculture for the purpose of conducting or facilitating activities which will initiate, encourage, develop, or coordinate methods of direct marketing from farmers to consumers within or among the States. Such funds shall be allocated to a State on the basis of the feasibility of direct marketing from farmers to consumers within that State as compared to other States and shall be allocated within a State to the State department of agriculture and to the Extension Service on the basis of the types of activities which are needed in the State and on the basis of which of these two agencies, or combination thereof, can best perform these activities. The activities shall include, but shall not be limited to—

(1) sponsoring conferences which are designed to facilitate the sharing of information (among farm producers, consumers, and other interested persons or groups) concerning the establishment and operation of direct marketing from farmers to consumers;

(2) compiling laws and regulations relevant to the conduct of the various methods of such direct marketing within the State, formulating drafts of enabling legislation needed to facilitate such direct marketing, determining feasible locations for additional facilities for such direct marketing, and preparing and disseminating practical information on the establishment and operation of such direct marketing; and

(3) providing technical assistance for the purpose of aiding interested individuals or groups in the establishment of arrangements for direct marketing from farmers to consumers.

(b) In the implementation of this section, the Secretary shall take into account consumer preferences and needs which may bear upon the establishment and operation of arrangements for direct marketing from farmers to consumers.

ANNUAL REPORT

Sec. 6. The Secretary shall periodically review the activities carried out under this Act and shall report to the Committee on Agriculture, United States House of Representatives, and the Committee on Agriculture and Forestry, United States Senate, within one year of the date of enactment of this Act, and annually thereafter, with respect to the effectiveness of this Act. The Secretary shall include in such report a State-by-State summary of the results of the survey conducted under this Act, and a summary of the activities and accomplishments of the Extension Service and the State departments of agriculture in the development of direct marketing from farmers to consumers during the previous year.

AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS

Sec. 7. (a) For purposes of carrying out the provisions of sections 4 and 6, there are authorized to be appropriated such sums as are necessary.

(b) For purposes of carrying out the provisions of section 5, there is authorized to be appropriated $1,500,000 for each of the fiscal years ending September 30, 1977, and September 30, 1978.

EMERGENCY HAY PROGRAM

Sec. 8. In carrying out any emergency hay program for farmers or ranchers in any area of the United States under section 303 of the Disaster Relief Act of 1974 because of an emergency or major disaster in such area, the President shall direct the Secretary of Agriculture to pay 80 percent of the cost of transporting hay (not to exceed $50 per ton) from areas in which hay is in plentiful supply to the area in which such farmers or ranchers are located. The provisions of this section shall expire on October 1, 1977, and shall become effective on October 1, 1976, or on the date of enactment of this Act, whichever is later.

Approved October 8, 1976.

An Act

To provide for an exclusive remedy against the United States in suits based upon medical malpractice on the part of medical personnel of the armed forces, the Defense Department, the Central Intelligence Agency, and the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That (a) chapter 55 of title 10, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end thereof a new section as follows:

§ 1089. Defense of certain suits arising out of medical malpractice

"(a) The remedy against the United States provided by sections 1346(b) and 2672 of title 28 for damages for personal injury, including death, caused by the negligent or wrongful act or omission of any physician, dentist, nurse, pharmacist, or paramedical or other supporting personnel (including medical and dental technicians, nursing assistants, and therapists) of the armed forces, the Department of Defense, or the Central Intelligence Agency in the performance of medical, dental, or related health care functions (including clinical studies and investigations) while acting within the scope of his duties or employment therein or therefor shall hereafter be exclusive of any other civil action or proceeding by reason of the same subject matter against such physician, dentist, nurse, pharmacist, or paramedical or other supporting personnel (or the estate of such person) whose act or omission gave rise to such action or proceeding.

(b) The Attorney General shall defend any civil action or proceeding brought in any court against any person referred to in subsection (a) of this section (or the estate of such person) for any such injury. Any such person against whom such civil action or proceeding is brought shall deliver within such time after date of service or knowledge of service as determined by the Attorney General, all process served upon such person or an attested true copy thereof to such person's immediate superior or to whomever was designated by the head of the agency concerned to receive such papers and such person shall promptly furnish copies of the pleading and process therein to the United States attorney for the district embracing the place wherein the action or proceeding is brought, to the Attorney General and to the head of the agency concerned.

(c) Upon a certification by the Attorney General that any person described in subsection (a) was acting in the scope of such person's duties or employment at the time of the incident out of which the suit arose, any such civil action or proceeding commenced in a State court shall be removed without bond at any time before trial by the Attorney General to the district court of the United States of the district and division embracing the place wherein it is pending and the proceeding deemed a tort action brought against the United States under the provisions of title 28 and all references thereto. Should a United States district court determine on a hearing on a motion to remand held before a trial on the merits that the case so removed is one in which a remedy by suit within the meaning of subsection (a) of this section is not available against the United States, the case shall be remanded to the State court.

"(d) The Attorney General may compromise or settle any claim asserted in such civil action or proceeding in the manner provided in section 2677 of title 28, and with the same effect.

"(e) For purposes of this section, the provisions of section 2680(h) of title 28 shall not apply to any cause of action arising out of a negligent or wrongful act or omission in the performance of medical, dental, or related health care functions (including clinical studies and investigations).

"(f) The head of the agency concerned or his designee may, to the extent that he or his designee deems appropriate, hold harmless or provide liability insurance for any person described in subsection (a) for damages for personal injury, including death, caused by such person's negligent or wrongful act or omission in the performance of medical, dental, or related health care functions (including clinical studies and investigations) while acting within the scope of such person's duties if such person is assigned to a foreign country or detailed for service with other than a Federal department, agency, or instrumentality or if the circumstances are such as are likely to preclude the remedies of third persons against the United States described in section 1346(b) of title 28, for such damage or injury.

"(g) In this section, 'head of the agency concerned' means—

"(1) the Director of Central Intelligence, in the case of an employee of the Central Intelligence Agency;

"(2) the Secretary of Transportation, in the case of a member or employee of the Coast Guard when it is not operating as a service in the Navy; and

"(3) the Secretary of Defense, in all other cases.

(b) The table of sections at the beginning of such chapter 55 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

"1089. Defense of certain suits arising out of medical malpractice.

32 USC 334

Note.

(a) The Congress finds—

(1) that the Army National Guard and the Air National Guard are critical components of the defense posture of the United States;

(2) that a medical capability is essential to the performance of the mission of the National Guard when in Federal service;

(3) that the current medical malpractice crisis poses a serious threat to the availability of sufficient medical personnel for the National Guard; and

(4) that in order to insure that such medical personnel will continue to be available to the National Guard, it is necessary for the Federal Government to assume responsibility for the payment of malpractice claims made against such personnel arising out of actions or omissions on the part of such personnel while they are performing certain training exercises.

(b) Chapter 3 of title 32, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end thereof a new section as follows:

§ 334. Payment of malpractice liability of National Guard Medical personnel

(a) Upon the final disposition of any claim for damages for personal injury, including death, caused by the negligent or wrongful act or omission of any medical personnel of the National Guard in furnishing medical care or treatment while acting within the scope of his duties for the National Guard during a training exercise, the liability of such medical personnel for any costs, settlement, or judgment shall become, subject to the provisions of this section, the liability of the United States and shall be payable under the provisions of section 1302 of the Act of July 27, 1956 (31 U.S.C. 724a), or out of funds appropriated for the payment of such liability.

(b) The liability for any claim for damages under this section against any medical personnel shall become the liability of the United States only to the extent that the liability of such medical personnel is not covered by insurance, and such liability shall not constitute coinsurance for any purpose.

(c) Liability of the United States for damages against any medical personnel referred to in subsection (a) shall be subject to the condition that the medical personnel against whom any claim for such damages is made shall—

1. promptly notify the Attorney General of the claim, and in case of any civil action or proceeding brought in any court against any such personnel, deliver all process served upon such personnel (or an attested true copy thereof) to the immediate superior of such personnel or to such other person designated by the appropriate Adjutant General to receive such papers, who shall promptly transmit such papers to the Attorney General.

2. furnish to the Attorney General such other information and documents as the Attorney General may request, and

3. comply with the instructions of the Attorney General relative to the final disposition of a claim for damages.

(d) The liability of the United States under this section shall also be subject to the condition that the settlement of any claim described in subsection (a) of this section be approved by the Attorney General prior to its finalization.

(e) The provisions of this section shall not apply in the case of any claim for damages against any medical personnel settled under the provisions of section 715 of title 32.

(f) As used in this section, the term—

1. `Medical personnel' means any physician, dentist, nurse, pharmacist, paramedical, or other supporting personnel (including medical and dental technicians, nursing assistants, and therapists) of the Army National Guard or the Air National Guard.

2. `Training exercise' means training or duty performed by medical personnel under section 316, 502, 503, 504, or 505 of this title or under any other provision of law for which such personnel are entitled to or has waived pay under section 206 of title 37.

3. `Final disposition' means—

(A) a final judgment of any court from which the Attorney General decides there will be no appeal,

(B) the settlement of any claim, or

(C) a determination at any stage of a claim for damages in favor of a medical personnel and from which determination no appeal can be made.

4. `Settlement' means any compromise of a claim for damages which is agreed to by the claimant and approved by the Attorney General prior to its finalization.

5. `Costs' includes any costs which are taxed by any court against any medical personnel, normal litigation expenses, attorney's fees incurred by any medical personnel, and such interest as any medical personnel may be obligated to pay by any court order or by statute.
“(6) ‘Claim for damages’ means any claim or any legal or administrative action in connection with any claim described in subsection (a) of this section.

“(7) ‘Attorney General’ means the Attorney General of the United States.”.

c) The table of sections at the beginning of such chapter 3 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

“334. Payment of malpractice liability of National Guard medical personnel.”.

42 USC 2459.

“DEFENSE OF CERTAIN MALPRACTICE AND NEGLIGENCE SUITS

42 USC 2458a.

“SEC. 307. (a) The remedy against the United States provided by sections 1346(b) and 2672 of title 28, United States Code, for damages for personal injury, including death, caused by the negligent or wrongful act or omission of any physician, dentist, nurse, pharmacist, or paramedical or other supporting personnel (including medical and dental technicians, nursing assistants, and therapists) of the Administration in the performance of medical, dental, or related health care functions (including clinical studies and investigations) while acting within the scope of his duties or employment therein or therefor shall hereafter be exclusive of any other civil action or proceeding by reason of the same subject matter against such physician, dentist, nurse, pharmacist, or paramedical or other supporting personnel (or the estate of such person) whose act or omission gave rise to such action or proceeding.

“(b) The Attorney General shall defend any civil action or proceeding brought in any court against any person referred to in subsection (a) of this section (or the estate of such person) for any such injury. Any such person against whom such civil action or proceeding is brought shall deliver within such time after date of service or knowledge of service as determined by the Attorney General, all process served upon such person or an attested true copy thereof to such person’s immediate superior or to whomever was designated by the Administrator to receive such papers and such person shall promptly furnish copies of the pleading and process therein to the United States Attorney for the district embracing the place wherein the proceeding is brought to the Attorney General and to the Administrator.

“(c) Upon a certification by the Attorney General that any person described in subsection (a) was acting in the scope of such person’s duties or employment at the time of the incident out of which the suit arose, any such civil action or proceeding commenced in a State court shall be removed without bond at any time before trial by the Attorney General to the district court of the United States of the district and division embracing the place wherein it is pending and the proceeding deemed a tort action brought against the United States under the provisions of title 28, United States Code, and all references thereto. Should a United States district court determine on a hearing on a motion to remand held before a trial on the merits that the case so removed is one in which a remedy by suit within the meaning of subsection (a) of this section is not available against the United States, the case shall be remanded to the State court.

“(d) The Attorney General may compromise or settle any claim asserted in such civil action or proceeding in the manner provided in section 2677 of title 28, United States Code, and with the same effect.
"(e) For purposes of this section, the provisions of section 2680(h) of title 28, United States Code, shall not apply to any cause of action arising out of a negligent or wrongful act of omission in the performance of medical, dental, or related health care functions (including clinical studies and investigations).

"(f) The Administrator or his designee may, to the extent that the Administrator or his designee deem appropriate, hold harmless or provide liability insurance for any person described in subsection (a) for damages for personal injury, including death, caused by such person's negligent or wrongful act or omission in the performance of medical, dental, or related health care functions (including clinical studies and investigations) while acting within the scope of such person's duties if such person is assigned to a foreign country or detailed for service with other than a Federal department, agency, or instrumentality or if the circumstances are such as are likely to preclude the remedies of third persons against the United States described in section 2679(b) of title 28, United States Code, for such damage or injury."

SEC. 4. This Act shall become effective on the date of its enactment and shall apply only to those claims accruing on or after such date of enactment.

Public Law 94–465
94th Congress

An Act

To authorize appropriations for the Indian Claims Commission for fiscal year 1977, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That there is authorized to be appropriated to carry out the provisions of the Indian Claims Commission Act (25 U.S.C. 70), during fiscal year 1977, not to exceed $1,650,000.

Sec. 2. Section 23 of the Act entitled “An Act to create an Indian Claims Commission, to provide for the powers, duties, and functions thereof, and for other purposes”, approved August 13, 1946 (60 Stat. 1049, 1055), as amended (86 Stat. 115; 25 U.S.C. 70v), is hereby amended by striking said section and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

“Dissolution of the Commission and Disposition of Pending Claims

“Sec. 23. The existence of the Commission shall terminate at the end of fiscal year 1978 on September 30, 1978, or at such earlier time as the Commission shall have made its final report to the Congress on all claims filed with it. Upon its dissolution, the records and files of the Commission in all cases in which a final determination has been entered shall be delivered to the Archivist of the United States. No later than December 31, 1976, the Indian Claims Commission may certify and transfer to the Court of Claims all cases which the Commission determines it cannot completely adjudicate by September 30, 1978. In addition, the Commission may, at any time prior to September 30, 1978, certify and transfer to the Court of Claims any case which it determines cannot be completely adjudicated prior to the dissolution of the Commission. Jurisdiction is hereby conferred upon the Court of Claims to adjudicate all such cases under the provisions of section 2 of the Indian Claims Commission Act: Provided, That section 2 of said Act shall not apply to any cases filed originally in the Court of Claims under section 1505 of title 28, United States Code. Upon dissolution of the Commission, all pending cases including those on appeal shall be transferred to the Court of Claims for adjudication on the same basis as those authorized to be transferred by this section.”.

Sec. 3. Section 28 of such Act of August 13, 1946, as amended (25 U.S.C. 70v–2), is amended by striking said section and inserting in lieu thereof the following:
"STATUS REPORT TO CONGRESS

"Sec. 28. The Commission shall, on the first day of the 95th Congress, submit a report to the Committees on Interior and Insular Affairs of the Senate and House of Representatives on those cases which it has transferred pursuant to section 23 of this Act, as amended. In addition, the Commission shall submit a report to said Committees at six month intervals thereafter showing the progress made and the work remaining to be completed by the Commission, as well as the status of each remaining case, along with the projected date for its completion."

Public Law 94–466
94th Congress

An Act

To provide for a national wildlife refuge in the Minnesota River Valley, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That this Act may be cited as the “Minnesota Valley National Wildlife Refuge Act”.

DECLARATION OF POLICY

SEC. 2. (a) FINDINGS.—The Congress finds and declares the following:

(1) The Lower Minnesota River Valley, which provides habitat for a large number of migratory waterfowl, fish, and other wildlife species, is a unique environmental resource.

(2) This valley is located close to a large metropolitan area and, accordingly, it is of great value as a source of environmental education, recreational opportunities, and interpretive programs for hundreds of thousands of urban dwellers.

(3) This valley is currently threatened with spoilation, removal from public access, and ecological downgrading, through commercial and industrial development.

(4) Despoilment of this valley and its flood plain will result in the permanent loss of unique social, educational, and environmental assets.

(b) POLICY.—It is therefore declared to be the policy of the Congress in this Act to preserve the Minnesota River Valley through the establishment of the Minnesota Valley National Wildlife Refuge.

DEFINITIONS

SEC. 3. As used in this Act:

(1) The terms “conserve” and “conservation” mean to use, and the use of, methods and procedures which are necessary to assure, to the maximum extent practicable, the continued existence of populations of fish and wildlife. Such methods and procedures may include, but are not limited to, all activities associated with scientific resource management, including research, census, law enforcement, habitat acquisition, and public information and education.

(2) The term “interests therein” means any property interest in lands and waters, including, but not limited to, a leasehold, an easement, a future interest, or an equitable use.

(3) The term “refuge” means the Minnesota Valley National Wildlife Refuge, established pursuant to section 4 of this Act.

(4) The term “Secretary” means the Secretary of the Interior, acting through the United States Fish and Wildlife Service.

(5) The term “State” means the State of Minnesota and any political subdivision thereof.

(6) The term “wildlife recreation area” means the wildlife recreation area established adjacent to the refuge, pursuant to section 5 of this Act.
THE REFUGE

SEC. 4. (a) ESTABLISHMENT.—The Secretary shall establish, in accordance with this section, the Minnesota Valley National Wildlife Refuge by publication of a notice to that effect in the Federal Register upon completion of the comprehensive plan pursuant to section 6 of this Act. The refuge shall consist of—

(1) approximately 9,500 acres of lands, marshes, submerged lands, and open waters in the lower Minnesota River Valley, which are depicted as a wildlife refuge on a map dated November 1975 and entitled “Official Map—Minnesota Valley National Wildlife Refuge-Recreation Area”, which shall be on file and available for public inspection in the offices of the United States Fish and Wildlife Service of the Department of the Interior; and

(2) any additional lands, waters, and interests therein, which the Secretary may acquire and designate for inclusion in the refuge.

(b) ACQUISITION AND ADMINISTRATION.—(1) The Secretary shall, within 6 years after the date of enactment of this Act, acquire lands, waters, and interests therein, within the boundaries of the refuge, by (A) donation; (B) purchase (with donated, transferred, or appropriated funds); or (C) exchange.

(2) With respect to the Black Dog Lake unit, as identified on the map referred to in subsection (a) (1) of this section, the Secretary may not acquire any lands, waters, or interests therein unless such acquisition is compatible with the continued operation of the electric power generation plant presently located within such unit. The Secretary may negotiate and enter into an agreement, with the owner of such powerplant, for the joint or cooperative conservation and management of such unit.

(3) The Secretary shall develop and administer the lands, waters, and interests therein, which are acquired for the refuge, in accordance with the National Wildlife Refuge System Administration Act of 1966, as amended (16 U.S.C. 668dd et seq.). The Secretary may also exercise any other authority available to him for the conservation and management of wildlife and natural resources, the development of wildlife recreational opportunities, wildlife interpretation, and environmental education, to the extent deemed by him to be appropriate to carry out the purposes of this Act.

(c) WILDLIFE INTERPRETATION AND EDUCATION CENTER.—The Secretary shall construct, administer, and maintain, at an appropriate site within the refuge, a wildlife interpretation and education center. Such center shall be designed and operated to promote environmental education and to provide an opportunity for the study and enjoyment of wildlife in its natural habitat.

(d) REVENUE SHARING.—Payments made, in accordance with the Refuge Revenue Sharing Act (16 U.S.C. 715s), to the counties in which units of the refuge are located shall be distributed by such counties to municipalities and townships on the same pro rata basis as is used in the distribution of real estate taxes.

THE WILDLIFE RECREATION AREA

SEC. 5. (a) GENERAL.—The Secretary shall establish, in cooperation with the State and in an area adjacent to the refuge, a wildlife recreation area by publication of a notice to that effect in the Federal Register upon completion of the comprehensive plan pursuant to sec 6 of this Act. Such area shall consist of the lands, waters, and interests therein which are depicted as a recreation area on the map referred to in section 4(a)(1) of this Act. The wildlife recreation area shall, in general, consist of—

(1) those portions of the Lower Minnesota River floodplain and which are necessary for one or more of the following: public access to such area; safety; the well-being of the visiting public; and the operation and maintenance of such area; and

(2) any additional areas which are adjacent to such floodplain and which are located between the city of Jordan, Minnesota, and Fort Snelling State Park, excluding the industrialized component thereof located in the municipalities of Savage, Chaska, Shakopee, and Burnsville, Minnesota.

(b) ACQUISITION AND ADMINISTRATION.—Lands, waters, and interests therein, which are within the boundaries of the wildlife recreation area, shall, with the agreement of the State, be acquired, developed, and administered by the State (in cooperation with the Secretary) in accordance with the provisions of the comprehensive plan developed under section 6 of this Act.

COMPREHENSIVE PLAN

16 USC 668oo.

Sec. 6. (a) General.—Within 3 years after the date of enactment of this Act, the Secretary shall, in cooperation with the State and political subdivisions thereof, develop a comprehensive plan for the conservation, protection, preservation, and interpretation of the Minnesota Valley National Wildlife Refuge and the adjacent wildlife recreation area.

(b) Management Categories.—The plan required by subsection (a) of this section shall delineate and provide appropriate management guidelines for the following two categories of property:

(1) Category I.—The Minnesota Valley National Wildlife Refuge, to be acquired and managed by the Secretary pursuant to section 4(b) of this Act.

(2) Category II.—Public nature-recreation areas, to be acquired (in fee or by lease, easement, donation, or other agreement) and managed by the State (in cooperation with the Secretary) pursuant to section 5(b) of this Act.

(c) Other Requirements.—The plan required by subsection (a) of this section shall—

(1) provide for the Minnesota Valley Trail Corridor, authorized by Minnesota Statute, 1969, section 85.198, as an integral part of the Minnesota Valley National Wildlife Refuge and the adjacent wildlife recreation area; and

(2) contain such other provisions relating to public use, law enforcement, wildlife conservation, environmental education and interpretation, and other matters as the Secretary and the State deem necessary to preserve, protect, and enhance the refuge-recreation area and to carry out the purposes of this Act.

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

16 USC 668pp.

Sec. 7. (a) Grants.—The Secretary shall provide sufficient financial assistance to the State to enable it to acquire and develop lands, waters, and interests therein in the wildlife recreation area. A grant made under this section shall only be used with respect to lands, waters, and interests therein which are acquired by the State after the establishment of the wildlife recreation area. The Secretary may reimburse the State for lands, waters, and interests therein which are acquired prior to the establishment of the wildlife recreation area if such lands, waters, and interests therein are contained within the area at the time of its establishment. Such grants shall be subject to such other terms and conditions as may be prescribed by the Secretary. Any grants made from the Land and Water Conservation Fund shall be subject to the provisions of section 6 of the Land and Water Conservation Fund Act, as amended (16 U.S.C. 4601-8).

(b) LIMITATIONS.—Any payment made by the Secretary under this section shall be subject to the following condition: The conversion, use, or disposal of any lands, waters, and interests therein which are required by the State, directly or indirectly, with Federal financial assistance provided under this section, for purposes contrary to the purposes of this Act (as determined by the Secretary), shall create in the United States a right to compensation from the State in an amount equal to the fair market value of the land at the time of conversion, use or disposal, or an amount equal to the Federal payment for acquisition and development of the land, whichever is greater.

SPOIL SITES

Sec. 8. The Secretary and the United States Corps of Engineers shall assist appropriate local authorities in the disposal of dredge material and in the designation of sites for deposit of dredge material, so as to minimize the disruption of wildlife and the reduction of scenic and recreational values and so as to assure the continuation of navigation on the riverway. The Secretary may acquire such alternative sites, outside the boundary of the refuge-recreation area, as may be necessary, in exchange for sites existing in the area on the date of enactment of this Act. The value of any properties so exchanged shall be approximately equal as determined by the Secretary or, if not, such value shall be equalized by the payment of cash, to the owners of the property within the refuge-recreation area or to the Secretary, as the circumstances require. The Secretary is authorized to expend not more than 20 per centum of the funds appropriated for acquisition of the refuge under section 10(a) of this Act to assist in the disposal of dredge material and to purchase alternative sites for deposit of dredge material as may be necessary outside the boundaries of the refuge and recreation area.

Sec. 9. Nothing contained in this Act shall be construed as prohibiting or preventing the provision of vital public services, including—

(1) the continuation of commercial navigation in the main navigation channel of the Minnesota River which lies within the refuge-recreation area;

(2) the construction, improvement, and replacement of highways and bridges, whether or not the highway is a Federal-aid highway; or

(3) any other activity which the Secretary determines to be necessary;

if the provision of such services is otherwise in accordance with law.

Any activity referred to in this section shall be carried out so as to minimize the disruption of the wildlife and the reduction of recreational and scenic values of the area, consistent with economic feasibility.
The legislative act as described in the document is as follows:

SEC. 10. (a) Acquisition.— There are authorized to be appropriated such amounts as may be necessary for acquisition of lands, waters, and interests therein in the refuge-recreation area, pursuant to sections 4(b)(1) and (7)(a) of this Act, except that such sums shall not exceed a total of $14,500,000 for the period beginning October 1, 1977, and ending September 30, 1983.

(b) Development.—There are authorized to be appropriated such amounts as may be necessary for the development of the refuge-recreation area, except that such sums shall not exceed $6,000,000 for the period beginning October 1, 1977, and ending September 30, 1986. Not more than $500,000 of such sums shall be used for the development of the comprehensive plan pursuant to section 6 of this Act.

Approved October 8, 1976.

HOUSE REPORT No. 94-1470 (Comm. on Merchant Marine and Fisheries).
SENATE REPORT No. 94-934 accompanying S. 2097 (Comm. on Commerce).
CONGRESSIONAL RECORD, Vol. 122 (1976):
- Sept. 20, considered and passed House.
- Sept. 24, considered and passed Senate.
An Act

To amend title 18, United States Code, to implement the "Convention To Prevent and Punish the Acts of Terrorism Taking the Form of Crimes Against Persons and Related Extortion That Are of International Significance" and the "Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of Crimes Against Internationally Protected Persons, Including Diplomatic Agents", and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That this Act may be cited as the "Act for the Prevention and Punishment of Crimes Against Internationally Protected Persons".

SEC. 2. Section 1116 of title 18, United States Code, is amended to read as follows:

"§ 1116. Murder or manslaughter of foreign officials, official guests, or internationally protected persons

"(a) Whoever kills or attempts to kill a foreign official, official guest, or internationally protected person shall be punished as provided under sections 1111, 1112, and 1113 of this title, except that any such person who is found guilty of murder in the first degree shall be sentenced to imprisonment for life, and any such person who is found guilty of attempted murder shall be imprisoned for not more than twenty years.

"(b) For the purposes of this section:

"(1) 'Family' includes (a) a spouse, parent, brother or sister, child, or person to whom the foreign official or internationally protected person stands in loco parentis, or (b) any other person living in his household and related to the foreign official or internationally protected person by blood or marriage.

"(2) 'Foreign government' means the government of a foreign country, irrespective of recognition by the United States.

"(3) 'Foreign official' means—

"(A) a Chief of State or the political equivalent, President, Vice President, Prime Minister, Ambassador, Foreign Minister, or other officer of Cabinet rank or above of a foreign government or the chief executive officer of an international organization, or any person who has previously served in such capacity, and any member of his family, while in the United States; and

"(B) any person of a foreign nationality who is duly notified to the United States as an officer or employee of a foreign government or international organization, and who is in the United States on official business, and any member of his family whose presence in the United States is in connection with the presence of such officer or employee.

"(4) 'Internationally protected person' means—

"(A) a Chief of State or the political equivalent, head of government, or Foreign Minister whenever such person is in a country other than his own and any member of his family accompanying him; or

"(B) any other representative, officer, employee, or agent of the United States Government, a foreign government, or..."
international organization who at the time and place concerned is entitled pursuant to international law to special protection against attack upon his person, freedom, or dignity, and any member of his family then forming part of his household.

“(5) ‘International organization’ means a public international organization designated as such pursuant to section 1 of the International Organizations Immunities Act (22 U.S.C. 288).

“(6) ‘Official guest’ means a citizen or national of a foreign country present in the United States as an official guest of the Government of the United States pursuant to designation as such by the Secretary of State.

“(c) If the victim of an offense under subsection (a) is an internationally protected person, the United States may exercise jurisdiction over the offense if the alleged offender is present within the United States, irrespective of the place where the offense was committed or the nationality of the victim or the alleged offender. As used in this subsection, the United States includes all areas under the jurisdiction of the United States including any of the places within the provisions of sections 5 and 7 of this title and section 101(34) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958, as amended (49 U.S.C. 1301(34)).

“(d) In the course of enforcement of this section and any other sections prohibiting a conspiracy or attempt to violate this section, the Attorney General may request assistance from any Federal, State, or local agency, including the Army, Navy, and Air Force, any statute, rule, or regulation to the contrary notwithstanding.”.

SEC. 3. The analysis at the beginning of chapter 51 of title 18, United States Code, relating to section 1116 is amended to read as follows:

“1116. Murder or manslaughter of foreign officials, official guests, or internationally protected persons.”.

SEC. 4. Section 1201 of title 18, United States Code, is amended as follows:

(a) by deleting subsection (a) (4) and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

“(4) the person is a foreign official, an internationally protected person, or an official guest as those terms are defined in section 1116(b) of this title,”; and

(b) by adding at the end thereof new subsections (d), (e), and (f) as follows:

“(d) Whoever attempts to violate subsection (a) (4) shall be punished by imprisonment for not more than twenty years.

“(e) If the victim of an offense under subsection (a) is an internationally protected person, the United States may exercise jurisdiction over the offense if the alleged offender is present within the United States, irrespective of the place where the offense was committed or the nationality of the victim or the alleged offender. As used in this subsection, the United States includes all areas under the jurisdiction of the United States including any of the places within the provisions of sections 5 and 7 of this title and section 101(34) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958, as amended (49 U.S.C. 1301(34)).

“(f) In the course of enforcement of subsection (a) (4) and any other sections prohibiting a conspiracy or attempt to violate subsection (a) (4), the Attorney General may request assistance from any Federal, State, or local agency, including the Army, Navy, and Air Force, any statute, rule, or regulation to the contrary notwithstanding.”.
Sec. 5. Section 112 of title 18, United States Code, is amended to read as follows:

"§ 112. Protection of foreign officials, official guests, and internationally protected persons"

"(a) Whoever assaults, strikes, wounds, imprisons, or offers violence to a foreign official, official guest, or internationally protected person or makes any other violent attack upon the person or liberty of such person, or, if likely to endanger his person or liberty, makes a violent attack upon his official premises, private accommodation, or means of transport or attempts to commit any of the foregoing shall be fined not more than $5,000 or imprisoned not more than three years, or both. Whoever in the commission of any such act uses a deadly or dangerous weapon shall be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned not more than ten years, or both.

"(b) Whoever willfully—

"(1) intimidates, coerces, threatens, or harasses a foreign official or an official guest or obstructs a foreign official in the performance of his duties;

"(2) attempts to intimidate, coerce, threaten, or harass a foreign official or an official guest or obstruct a foreign official in the performance of his duties; or

"(3) within the United States but outside the District of Columbia and within one hundred feet of any building or premises in whole or in part owned, used, or occupied for official business or for diplomatic, consular, or residential purposes by—

"(A) a foreign government, including such use as a mission to an international organization;

"(B) an international organization;

"(C) a foreign official; or

"(D) an official guest;

congregates with two or more other persons with intent to violate any other provision of this section;

shall be fined not more than $500 or imprisoned not more than six months, or both.

"(c) For the purpose of this section 'foreign government', 'foreign official', 'internationally protected person', 'international organization', and 'official guest' shall have the same meanings as those provided in section 1116(b) of this title.

"(d) Nothing contained in this section shall be construed or applied so as to abridge the exercise of rights guaranteed under the first amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

"(e) If the victim of an offense under subsection (a) is an internationally protected person, the United States may exercise jurisdiction over the offense if the alleged offender is present within the United States, irrespective of the place where the offense was committed or the nationality of the victim or the alleged offender. As used in this subsection, the United States includes all areas under the jurisdiction of the United States including any of the places within the provisions of sections 5 and 7 of this title and section 101(34) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958, as amended (49 U.S.C. 1301(34)).

"(f) In the course of enforcement of subsection (a) and any other sections prohibiting a conspiracy or attempt to violate subsection (a), the Attorney General may request assistance from any Federal, State, or local agency, including the Army, Navy, and Air Force, any statute, rule, or regulation to the contrary, notwithstanding."
SEC. 6. The analysis at the beginning of chapter 51 of title 18, United States Code, relating to section 112 is amended to read as follows:

"112. Protection of foreign officials, official guests, and internationally protected persons."

SEC. 7. Section 970 of title 18, United States Code, is amended:

(a) by relettering subsection "(b)" as subsection "(c)" and amending the subsection to read as follows:

"(c) For the purpose of this section ‘foreign government’, ‘foreign official’, ‘international organization’, and ‘official guest’ shall have the same meanings as those provided in section 1116(b) of this title.”;

and

(b) by inserting a new subsection "(b)" as follows:

"(b) Whoever, willfully with intent to intimidate, coerce, threaten, or harass—

"(1) forcibly thrusts any part of himself or any object within or upon that portion of any building or premises located within the United States, which portion is used or occupied for official business or for diplomatic, consular, or residential purposes by—

"(A) a foreign government, including such use as a mission to an international organization;

"(B) an international organization;

"(C) a foreign official; or

"(D) an official guest; or

"(2) refuses to depart from such portion of such building or premises after a request—

"(A) by an employee of a foreign government or of an international organization, if such employee is authorized to make such request by the senior official of the unit of such government or organization which occupies such portion of such building or premises;

"(B) by a foreign official or any member of the foreign official’s staff who is authorized by the foreign official to make such request;

"(C) by an official guest or any member of the official guest’s staff who is authorized by the official guest to make such request; or

"(D) by any person present having law enforcement powers;

shall be fined not more than $500 or imprisoned not more than six months, or both.”.

SEC. 8. Chapter 41 of title 18, United States Code, is amended by adding a new section 878 as follows:

18 USC 878.

"§ 878. Threats and extortion against foreign officials, official guests, or internationally protected persons

“(a) Whoever knowingly and willfully threatens to violate section 112, 1116, or 1201 by killing, kidnapping, or assaulting a foreign official, official guest, or internationally protected person shall be fined not more than $5,000 or imprisoned not more than five years, or both, except that imprisonment for a threatened assault shall not exceed three years.

“(b) Whoever in connection with any violation of subsection (a) or actual violation of section 112, 1116, or 1201 makes any extortionate demand shall be fined not more than $20,000 or imprisoned not more than twenty years, or both.
“(c) For the purpose of this section ‘foreign official’, ‘internationally protected person’, and ‘official guest’ shall have the same meanings as those provided in section 1116(a) of this title.

“(d) If the victim of an offense under subsection (a) is an internationally protected person, the United States may exercise jurisdiction over the offense if the alleged offender is present within the United States, irrespective of the place where the offense was committed or the nationality of the victim or the alleged offender. As used in this subsection, the United States includes all areas under the jurisdiction of the United States including any of the places within the provisions of sections 5 and 7 of this title and section 101(34) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958, as amended (49 U.S.C. 1301(34)).”

SEC. 9. The analysis of chapter 41 of title 18, United States Code, is amended by inserting at the end thereof the following new item:

“878. Threat and extortion against foreign officials, official guests, and internationally protected persons.”

SEC. 10. Nothing contained in this Act shall be construed to indicate an intent on the part of Congress to occupy the field in which its provisions operate to the exclusion of the laws of any State, Commonwealth, territory, possession, or the District of Columbia, on the same subject matter, nor to relieve any person of any obligation imposed by any law of any State, Commonwealth, territory, possession, or the District of Columbia, including the obligation of all persons having official law enforcement powers to take appropriate action, such as effecting arrests, for Federal as well as non-Federal violations.

SEC. 11. Section 11 of title 18, United States Code, is amended by inserting after the word “title” the words “except in sections 112, 878, 970, 1116, and 1201”.

94th Congress

An Act

Oct. 11, 1976
[H.R. 11407]

To amend title 14, United States Code, to authorize the admission of additional foreign nationals to the Coast Guard Academy.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section 195 of title 14, United States Code, is amended to read as follows:

"§ 195. Admission of foreign nationals for instruction;
restrictions; conditions

(a) A foreign national may not receive instruction at the Academy except as authorized by this section.

(b) The President may designate not more than 36 foreign nationals whom the Secretary may permit to receive instruction at the Academy.

(c) A person receiving instruction under this section is entitled to the same pay and allowances, to be paid from the same appropriations, as a cadet appointed pursuant to section 182 of this title. A person may receive instruction under this section only if his country agrees in advance to reimburse the United States, at a rate determined by the Secretary, for the cost of providing such instruction, including pay and allowances, unless a waiver therefrom has been granted to that country by the Secretary. Funds received by the Secretary for this purpose shall be credited to the appropriations bearing the cost thereof, and may be apportioned between fiscal years.

(d) A person receiving instruction under this section is—

(1) not entitled to any appointment in the Coast Guard by reason of his graduation from the Academy; and

(2) subject to those regulations applicable to the Academy governing admission, attendance, discipline, resignation, discharge, dismissal, and graduation, except as may otherwise be prescribed by the Secretary."

SEC. 2. FINDINGS, POLICY, AND INTENT.
(a) FINDINGS.—The Congress finds that—
(1) human beings and the environment are being exposed each year to a large number of chemical substances and mixtures;
(2) among the many chemical substances and mixtures which are constantly being developed and produced, there are some whose manufacture, processing, distribution in commerce, use, or disposal may present an unreasonable risk of injury to health or the environment; and
(3) the effective regulation of interstate commerce in such chemical substances and mixtures also necessitates the regulation of intrastate commerce in such chemical substances and mixtures.

(b) POLICY.—It is the policy of the United States that—
(1) adequate data should be developed with respect to the effect of chemical substances and mixtures on health and the environment and that the development of such data should be the responsibility of those who manufacture and those who process such chemical substances and mixtures;

(2) adequate authority should exist to regulate chemical substances and mixtures which present an unreasonable risk of injury to health or the environment, and to take action with respect to chemical substances and mixtures which are imminent hazards; and

(3) authority over chemical substances and mixtures should be exercised in such a manner as not to impede unduly or create unnecessary economic barriers to technological innovation while fulfilling the primary purpose of this Act to assure that such innovation and commerce in such chemical substances and mixtures do not present an unreasonable risk of injury to health or the environment.

(c) INTENT OF CONGRESS.—It is the intent of Congress that the Administrator shall carry out this Act in a reasonable and prudent manner, and that the Administrator shall consider the environmental, economic, and social impact of any action the Administrator takes or proposes to take under this Act.

SEC. 3. DEFINITIONS.

15 USC 2602. As used in this Act:

(1) the term "Administrator" means the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency.

(2) (A) Except as provided in subparagraph (B), the term "chemical substance" means any organic or inorganic substance of a particular molecular identity, including—

(i) any combination of such substances occurring in whole or in part as a result of a chemical reaction or occurring in nature, and

(ii) any element or uncombined radical.

(B) Such term does not include—

(i) any mixture,

(ii) any pesticide (as defined in the Federal Insecticide, Fungicide, and Rodenticide Act) when manufactured, processed, or distributed in commerce for use as a pesticide,

(iii) tobacco or any tobacco product,

(iv) any source material, special nuclear material, or byproduct material (as such terms are defined in the Atomic Energy Act of 1954 and regulations issued under such Act),

(v) any article the sale of which is subject to the tax imposed by section 4181 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (determined without regard to any exemptions from such tax provided by section 4182 or 4221 or any other provision of such Code), and

(vi) any food, food additive, drug, cosmetic, or device (as such terms are defined in section 201 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act) when manufactured, processed, or distributed in commerce for use as a food, food additive, drug, cosmetic, or device.

The term "food" as used in clause (vi) of this subparagraph includes poultry and poultry products (as defined in sections 4(e) and 4(f) of the Poultry Products Inspection Act), meat and meat food products (as defined in section 1(j) of the Federal Meat Inspection Act), and eggs and egg products (as defined in section 4 of the Egg Products Inspection Act).

(3) The term "commerce" means trade, traffic, transportation, or other commerce (A) between a place in a State and any place outside of such State, or (B) which affects trade, traffic, transportation, or commerce described in clause (A).

(4) The terms "distribute in commerce" and "distribution in commerce" when used to describe an action taken with respect to a chemical substance or mixture or article containing a substance or mixture mean to sell, or the sale of, the substance, mixture, or article in commerce; to introduce or deliver for introduction into commerce, or the introduction or delivery for introduction into commerce of, the substance, mixture, or article; or to hold, or the holding of, the substance, mixture, or article after its introduction into commerce.

(5) The term "environment" includes water, air, and land and the interrelationship which exists among and between water, air, and land and all living things.

(6) The term "health and safety study" means any study of any effect of a chemical substance or mixture on health or the environment or on both, including underlying data and epidemiological studies, studies of occupational exposure to a chemical substance or mixture, toxicological, clinical, and ecological studies of a chemical substance or mixture, and any test performed pursuant to this Act.

(7) The term "manufacture" means to import into the customs territory of the United States (as defined in general headnote 2 of the Tariff Schedules of the United States), produce, or manufacture.

(8) The term "mixture" means any combination of two or more chemical substances if the combination does not occur in nature and is not, in whole or in part, the result of a chemical reaction; except that such term does include any combination which occurs, in whole or in part, as a result of a chemical reaction if none of the chemical substances comprising the combination is a new chemical substance and if the combination could have been manufactured for commercial purposes without a chemical reaction at the time the chemical substances comprising the combination were combined.

(9) The term "new chemical substance" means any chemical substance which is not included in the chemical substance list compiled and published under section 8(b).

(10) The term "process" means the preparation of a chemical substance or mixture, after its manufacture, for distribution in commerce—

(A) in the same form or physical state as, or in a different form or physical state from, that in which it was received by the person so preparing such substance or mixture, or

(B) as part of an article containing the chemical substance or mixture.

(11) The term "processor" means any person who processes a chemical substance or mixture.

(12) The term "standards for the development of test data" means a prescription of—

(A) the—

(i) health and environmental effects, and

(ii) information relating to toxicity, persistence, and other characteristics which affect health and the environment, for which test data for a chemical substance or mixture are to be developed and any analysis that is to be performed on such data, and

(B) to the extent necessary to assure that data respecting such effects and characteristics are reliable and adequate—

(i) the manner in which such data are to be developed,

(ii) the specification of any test protocol or methodology to be employed in the development of such data, and
(iii) such other requirements as are necessary to provide such assurance.

(13) The term "State" means any State of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, Guam, the Canal Zone, American Samoa, the Northern Mariana Islands, or any other territory or possession of the United States.

(14) The term "United States", when used in the geographic sense, means all of the States.

SEC. 4. TESTING OF CHEMICAL SUBSTANCES AND MIXTURES.

15 USC 2603.

(a) Testing Requirements.—If the Administrator finds that—

(1) (A) (i) the manufacture, distribution in commerce, processing, use, or disposal of a chemical substance or mixture, or that any combination of such activities, may present an unreasonable risk of injury to health or the environment,

(ii) there are insufficient data and experience upon which the effects of such manufacture, distribution in commerce, processing, use, or disposal of such substance or mixture or of any combination of such activities on health or the environment can reasonably be determined or predicted, and

(iii) testing of such substance or mixture with respect to such effects is necessary to develop such data; or

(B) (i) a chemical substance or mixture is or will be produced in substantial quantities, and (I) it enters or may reasonably be anticipated to enter the environment in substantial quantities or (II) there is or may be significant or substantial human exposure to such substance or mixture,

(ii) there are insufficient data and experience upon which the effects of the manufacture, distribution in commerce, processing, use, or disposal of such substance or mixture or of any combination of such activities on health or the environment can reasonably be determined or predicted, and

(iii) testing of such substance or mixture with respect to such effects is necessary to develop such data; and

(2) in the case of a mixture, the effects which the mixture's manufacture, distribution in commerce, processing, use, or disposal or any combination of such activities may have on health or the environment may not be reasonably and more efficiently determined or predicted by testing the chemical substances which comprise the mixture;

the Administrator shall by rule require that testing be conducted on such substance or mixture to develop data with respect to the health and environmental effects for which there is an insufficiency of data and experience and which are relevant to a determination that the manufacture, distribution in commerce, processing, use, or disposal of such substance or mixture, or that any combination of such activities, does or does not present an unreasonable risk of injury to health or the environment.

(b) (1) Testing Requirement Rule.—A rule under subsection (a) shall include—

(A) identification of the chemical substance or mixture for which testing is required under the rule,

(B) standards for the development of test data for such substance or mixture, and

(C) with respect to chemical substances which are not new chemical substances and to mixtures, a specification of the period (which period may not be of unreasonable duration) within which the persons required to conduct the testing shall submit to the Administrator data developed in accordance with the standards referred to in subparagraph (B).

In determining the standards and period to be included, pursuant to subparagraphs (B) and (C), in a rule under subsection (a), the Administrator's considerations shall include the relative costs of the various test protocols and methodologies which may be required under the rule and the reasonably foreseeable availability of the facilities and personnel needed to perform the testing required under the rule.
Any such rule may require the submission to the Administrator of preliminary data during the period prescribed under subparagraph (C).

(2) (A) The health and environmental effects for which standards for the development of test data may be prescribed include carcinogenesis, mutagenesis, teratogenesis, behavioral disorders, cumulative or synergistic effects, and any other effect which may present an unreasonable risk of injury to health or the environment. The characteristics of chemical substances and mixtures for which such standards may be prescribed include persistence, acute toxicity, subacute toxicity, chronic toxicity, and any other characteristic which may present such a risk. The methodologies that may be prescribed in such standards include epidemiologic studies, serial or hierarchical tests, in vitro tests, and whole animal tests, except that before prescribing epidemiologic studies of employees, the Administrator shall consult with the Director of the National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health.

(B) From time to time, but not less than once each 12 months, the Administrator shall review the adequacy of the standards for development of data prescribed in rules under subsection (a) and shall, if necessary, institute proceedings to make appropriate revisions of such standards.

(3) (A) A rule under subsection (a) respecting a chemical substance or mixture shall require the persons described in subparagraph (B) to conduct tests and submit data to the Administrator on such substance or mixture, except that the Administrator may permit two or more of such persons to designate one such person or a qualified third party to conduct such tests and submit such data on behalf of the persons making the designation.

(B) The following persons shall be required to conduct tests and submit data on a chemical substance or mixture subject to a rule under subsection (a): (i) Each person who manufactures or intends to manufacture such substance or mixture if the Administrator makes a finding described in subsection (a) (1) (A) (ii) or (a) (1) (B) (ii) with respect to the manufacture of such substance or mixture.

(ii) Each person who processes or intends to process such substance or mixture if the Administrator makes a finding described in subsection (a) (1) (A) (ii) or (a) (1) (B) (ii) with respect to the processing of such substance or mixture.

(iii) Each person who manufactures or processes or intends to manufacture or process such substance or mixture if the Administrator makes a finding described in subsection (a) (1) (A) (ii) or
(a) (1) (B) (ii) with respect to the distribution in commerce, use, or disposal of such substance or mixture.

(4) Any rule under subsection (a) requiring the testing of and submission of data for a particular chemical substance or mixture shall expire at the end of the reimbursement period (as defined in subsection (c) (3) (B)) which is applicable to test data for such substance or mixture unless the Administrator repeals the rule before such date;
and a rule under subsection (a) requiring the testing of and submission of data for a category of chemical substances or mixtures shall expire with respect to a chemical substance or mixture included in the category at the end of the reimbursement period (as so defined) which is applicable to test data for such substance or mixture unless the Administrator before such date repeals the application of the rule to such substance or mixture or repeals the rule.

(5) Rules issued under subsection (a) (and any substantive amendment thereto or repeal thereof) shall be promulgated pursuant to section 553 of title 5, United States Code, except that (A) the Administrator shall give interested persons an opportunity for the oral presentation of data, views, or arguments, in addition to an opportunity to make written submissions; (B) a transcript shall be made of any oral presentation; and (C) the Administrator shall make and publish with the rule the findings described in paragraph (1) (A) or (1) (B) of subsection (a) and, in the case of a rule respecting a mixture, the finding described in paragraph (2) of such subsection.

(c) EXEMPTION.—(1) Any person required by a rule under subsection (a) to conduct tests and submit data on a chemical substance or mixture may apply to the Administrator (in such form and manner as the Administrator shall prescribe) for an exemption from such requirement.

(2) If, upon receipt of an application under paragraph (1), the Administrator determines that—

(A) the chemical substance or mixture with respect to which such application was submitted is equivalent to a chemical substance or mixture for which data has been submitted to the Administrator in accordance with a rule under subsection (a) or for which data is being developed pursuant to such a rule, and

(B) submission of data by the applicant on such substance or mixture would be duplicative of data which has been submitted to the Administrator in accordance with such rule or which is being developed pursuant to such rule, the Administrator shall exempt, in accordance with paragraph (3) or (4), the applicant from conducting tests and submitting data on such substance or mixture under the rule with respect to which such application was submitted.

(3) (A) If the exemption under paragraph (2) of any person from the requirement to conduct tests and submit test data on a chemical substance or mixture is granted on the basis of the existence of previously submitted test data and if such exemption is granted during the reimbursement period for such test data (as prescribed by subparagraph (B)), then (unless such person and the persons referred to in clauses (i) and (ii) agree on the amount and method of reimbursement) the Administrator shall order the person granted the exemption to provide fair and equitable reimbursement (in an amount determined under rules of the Administrator)—

(i) to the person who previously submitted such test data, for a portion of the costs incurred by such person in complying with the requirement to submit such data, and

(ii) to any other person who has been required under this subparagraph to contribute with respect to such costs, for a portion of the amount such person was required to contribute.

In promulgating rules for the determination of fair and equitable reimbursement to the persons described in clauses (i) and (ii) for costs incurred with respect to a chemical substance or mixture, the Administrator shall, after consultation with the Attorney General and the Federal Trade Commission, consider all relevant factors, including the effect on the competitive position of the person required to provide reimbursement in relation to the person to be reimbursed and the share of the market for such substance or mixture of the person required to provide reimbursement in relation to the share of such market of the persons to be reimbursed. An order under this subparagraph shall, for purposes of judicial review, be considered final agency action.

(B) For purposes of subparagraph (A), the reimbursement period for any test data for a chemical substance or mixture is a period—

(i) beginning on the date such data is submitted in accordance with a rule promulgated under subsection (a), and

(ii) ending—

(I) five years after the date referred to in clause (i), or

(II) at the expiration of a period which begins on the date referred to in clause (i) and which is equal to the period which the Administrator determines was necessary to develop such data, whichever is later.

(4) (A) If the exemption under paragraph (2) of any person from the requirement to conduct tests and submit test data on a chemical substance or mixture is granted on the basis of the fact that test data is being developed by one or more persons pursuant to a rule promulgated under subsection (a), then, unless such person and the persons referred to in clauses (i) and (ii) agree on the amount and method of reimbursement, the Administrator shall order the person granted the exemption to provide fair and equitable reimbursement (in an amount determined under rules of the Administrator)—

(i) to each such person who is developing such test data, for a portion of the costs incurred by each such person in complying with such rule, and

(ii) to any other person who has been required under this subparagraph to contribute with respect to the costs of complying with such rule, for a portion of the amount such person was required to contribute.

In promulgating rules for the determination of fair and equitable reimbursement to the persons described in clauses (i) and (ii) for costs incurred with respect to a chemical substance or mixture, the Administrator shall, after consultation with the Attorney General and the Federal Trade Commission, consider the factors described in the second sentence of paragraph (3)(A). An order under this subparagraph shall, for purposes of judicial review, be considered final agency action.

(B) If any exemption is granted under paragraph (2) on the basis of the fact that one or more persons are developing test data pursuant to a rule promulgated under subsection (a) and if after such exemption is granted the Administrator determines that no such person has complied with such rule, the Administrator shall (i) after providing written notice to the person who holds such exemption and an opportunity for a hearing, by order terminate such exemption, and (ii) notify in writing such person of the requirements of the rule with respect to which such exemption was granted.

(d) Notice.—Upon the receipt of any test data pursuant to a rule under subsection (a), the Administrator shall publish a notice of the receipt of such data in the Federal Register within 15 days of its receipt. Subject to section 14, each such notice shall (1) identify the chemical substance or mixture for which data have been received; (2) list the uses or intended uses of such substance or mixture and the publication in Federal Register.
Committee to make recommendations to Administrator.

Recommendations, list of chemical substances and mixtures.

Publication in Federal Register; transmittal to Administrator.

Publication in Federal Register.

Information required by the applicable standards for the development of test data; and (3) describe the nature of the test data developed. Except as otherwise provided in section 14, such data shall be made available by the Administrator for examination by any person.

(e) Priority List.—(1) (A) There is established a committee to make recommendations to the Administrator respecting the chemical substances and mixtures to which the Administrator should give priority consideration for the promulgation of a rule under subsection (a). In making such a recommendation with respect to any chemical substance or mixture, the committee shall consider all relevant factors, including—

(i) the quantities in which the substance or mixture is or will be manufactured,

(ii) the quantities in which the substance or mixture enters or will enter the environment,

(iii) the number of individuals who are or will be exposed to the substance or mixture in their places of employment and the duration of such exposure,

(iv) the extent to which human beings are or will be exposed to the substance or mixture,

(v) the extent to which the substance or mixture is closely related to a chemical substance or mixture which is known to present an unreasonable risk of injury to health or the environment,

(vi) the existence of data concerning the effects of the substance or mixture on health or the environment,

(vii) the extent to which testing of the substance or mixture may result in the development of data upon which the effects of the substance or mixture on health or the environment can reasonably be determined or predicted, and

(viii) the reasonably foreseeable availability of facilities and personnel for performing testing on the substance or mixture.

The recommendations of the committee shall be in the form of a list of chemical substances and mixtures which shall be set forth, either by individual substance or mixture or by groups of substances or mixtures, in the order in which the committee determines the Administrator should take action under subsection (a) with respect to the substances and mixtures. In establishing such list, the committee shall give priority attention to those chemical substances and mixtures which are known to cause or contribute to or which are suspected of causing or contributing to cancer, gene mutations, or birth defects. The committee shall designate chemical substances and mixtures on the list with respect to which the committee determines the Administrator should, within 12 months of the date on which such substances and mixtures are first designated, initiate a proceeding under subsection (a). The total number of chemical substances and mixtures on the list which are designated under the preceding sentence may not, at any time, exceed 50.

(B) As soon as practicable but not later than nine months after the effective date of this Act, the committee shall publish in the Federal Register and transmit to the Administrator the list and designations required by subparagraph (A) together with the reasons for the committee's inclusion of each chemical substance or mixture on the list. At least every six months after the date of the transmission to the Administrator of the list pursuant to the preceding sentence, the committee shall make such revisions in the list as it determines to be necessary and shall transmit them to the Administrator together with the committee's reasons for the revisions. Upon receipt of any such revision, the Administrator shall publish in the Federal Register the list with such revision, the reasons for such revision, and the designations made under subparagraph (A). The Administrator shall provide reasonable opportunity to any interested person to file with the Administrator written comments on the committee’s list, any revision of such list by the committee, and designations made by the committee, and shall make such comments available to the public. Within the 12-month period beginning on the date of the first inclusion on the list of a chemical substance or mixture designated by the committee under subparagraph (A) the Administrator shall with respect to such chemical substance or mixture either initiate a rulemaking proceeding under subsection (a) or if such a proceeding is not initiated within such period, publish in the Federal Register the Administrator’s reason for not initiating such a proceeding.

(2) (A) The committee established by paragraph (1) (A) shall consist of eight members as follows:

(i) One member appointed by the Administrator from the Environmental Protection Agency.

(ii) One member appointed by the Secretary of Labor from officers or employees of the Department of Labor engaged in the Secretary’s activities under the Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970.

(iii) One member appointed by the Chairman of the Council on Environmental Quality from the Council or its officers or employees.

(iv) One member appointed by the Director of the National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health from officers or employees of the Institute.

(v) One member appointed by the Director of the National Institute of Environmental Health Sciences from officers or employees of the Institute.

(vi) One member appointed by the Director of the National Cancer Institute from officers or employees of the Institute.

(vii) One member appointed by the Director of the National Science Foundation from officers or employees of the Foundation.

(viii) One member appointed by the Secretary of Commerce from officers or employees of the Department of Commerce.

(B) (i) An appointed member may designate an individual to serve on the committee on the member’s behalf. Such a designation may be made only with the approval of the applicable appointing authority and only if the individual is from the entity from which the member was appointed.

(ii) No individual may serve as a member of the committee for more than four years in the aggregate. If any member of the committee leaves the entity from which the member was appointed, such member may not continue as a member of the committee, and the member’s position shall be considered to be vacant. A vacancy in the committee shall be filled in the same manner in which the original appointment was made.

(iii) Initial appointments to the committee shall be made not later than the 60th day after the effective date of this Act. Not later than the 90th day after such date the members of the committee shall hold a meeting for the selection of a chairperson from among their number.

(C) (i) No member of the committee, or designee of such member, shall accept employment or compensation from any person subject to any requirement of this Act or of any rule promulgated or order issued thereunder, for a period of at least 12 months after termination of service on the committee.
(ii) No person, while serving as a member of the committee, or designee of such member, may own any stocks or bonds, or have any pecuniary interest, of substantial value in any person engaged in the manufacture, processing, or distribution in commerce of any chemical substance or mixture subject to any requirement of this Act or of any rule promulgated or order issued thereunder.

(iii) The Administrator, acting through attorneys of the Environmental Protection Agency, or the Attorney General may bring an action in the appropriate district court of the United States to restrain any violation of this subparagraph.

(D) The Administrator shall provide the committee such administrative support services as may be necessary to enable the committee to carry out its function under this subsection.

(f) Required Actions.—Upon the receipt of—

(1) any test data required to be submitted under this Act, or

(2) any other information available to the Administrator, which indicates to the Administrator that there may be a reasonable basis to conclude that a chemical substance or mixture presents or will present a significant risk of serious or widespread harm to human beings from cancer, gene mutations, or birth defects, the Administrator shall, within the 180-day period beginning on the date of the receipt of such data or information, initiate appropriate action under section 5, 6, or 7 to prevent or reduce to a sufficient extent such risk or publish in the Federal Register a finding that such risk is not unreasonable.

For good cause shown the Administrator may extend such period for an additional period of not more than 90 days. The Administrator shall publish in the Federal Register notice of any such extension and the reasons therefor. A finding by the Administrator that a risk is not unreasonable shall be considered agency action for purposes of judicial review under chapter 7 of title 5, United States Code. This subsection shall not take effect until two years after the effective date of this Act.

(g) Petition for Standards for the Development of Test Data.—A person intending to manufacture or process a chemical substance for which notice is required under section 5(a) and who is not required under a rule under subsection (a) to conduct tests and submit data on such substance may petition the Administrator to prescribe standards for the development of test data for such substance. The Administrator shall by order either grant or deny any such petition within 60 days of its receipt. If the petition is granted, the Administrator shall prescribe such standards for such substance within 75 days of the date the petition is granted. If the petition is denied, the Administrator shall publish, subject to section 14, in the Federal Register the reasons for such denial.

SEC. 5. MANUFACTURING AND PROCESSING NOTICES.

(a) In General.—(1) Except as provided in subsection (h), no person may—

(A) manufacture a new chemical substance on or after the 30th day after the date on which the Administrator first publishes the list required by section 8(b), or

(B) manufacture or process any chemical substance for a use which the Administrator has determined, in accordance with paragraph (2), is a significant new use, unless such person submits to the Administrator, at least 90 days before such manufacture or processing, a notice, in accordance with subsection (d), of such person’s intention to manufacture or process such substance and such person complies with any applicable requirement of subsection (b).

(2) A determination by the Administrator that a use of a chemical substance is a significant new use with respect to which notification is required under paragraph (1) shall be made by a rule promulgated after a consideration of all relevant factors, including—

(A) the projected volume of manufacturing and processing of a chemical substance,
(B) the extent to which a use changes the type or form of exposure of human beings or the environment to a chemical substance,
(C) the extent to which a use increases the magnitude and duration of exposure of human beings or the environment to a chemical substance, and
(D) the reasonably anticipated manner and methods of manufacturing, processing, distribution in commerce, and disposal of a chemical substance.

(b) Submission of Test Data.—(1) (A) If (i) a person is required by subsection (a) (1) to submit a notice to the Administrator before beginning the manufacture or processing of a chemical substance, and (ii) such person is required to submit test data for such substance pursuant to a rule promulgated under section 4 before the submission of such notice, such person shall submit to the Administrator such data in accordance with such rule at the time notice is submitted in accordance with subsection (a) (1).

(B) If—

(i) a person is required by subsection (a) (1) to submit a notice to the Administrator, and
(ii) such person has been granted an exemption under section 4 (c) from the requirements of a rule promulgated under section 4 before the submission of such notice, such person may not, before the expiration of the 90 day period which begins on the date of the submission in accordance with such rule of the test data the submission or development of which was the basis for the exemption, manufacture such substance if such person is subject to subsection (a) (1) (A) or manufacture or process such substance for a significant new use if the person is subject to subsection (a) (1) (B).

(2) (A) If a person—

(i) is required by subsection (a) (1) to submit a notice to the Administrator before beginning the manufacture or processing of a chemical substance listed under paragraph (4), and
(ii) is not required by a rule promulgated under section 4 before the submission of such notice to submit test data for such substance, such person shall submit to the Administrator data prescribed by subparagraph (B) at the time notice is submitted in accordance with subsection (a) (1).

(B) Data submitted pursuant to subparagraph (A) shall be data which the person submitting the data believes show that—

(i) in the case of a substance with respect to which notice is required under subsection (a) (1) (A), the manufacture, processing, distribution in commerce, use, and disposal of the chemical substance or any combination of such activities will not present an unreasonable risk of injury to health or the environment, or
(ii) in the case of a chemical substance with respect to which notice is required under subsection (a) (1) (B), the intended significant new use of the chemical substance will not present an unreasonable risk of injury to health or the environment.
(3) Data submitted under paragraph (1) or (2) shall be made available, subject to section 14, for examination by interested persons.

(4) (A) (i) The Administrator may, by rule, compile and keep current a list of chemical substances with respect to which the Administrator finds that the manufacture, processing, distribution in commerce, use, or disposal, or any combination of such activities, presents or may present an unreasonable risk of injury to health or the environment.

(ii) In making a finding under clause (i) that the manufacture, processing, distribution in commerce, use, or disposal of a chemical substance or any combination of such activities presents or may present an unreasonable risk of injury to health or the environment, the Administrator shall consider all relevant factors, including—

(I) the effects of the chemical substance on health and the magnitude of human exposure to such substance; and

(II) the effects of the chemical substance on the environment and the magnitude of environmental exposure to such substance.

(B) The Administrator shall, in prescribing a rule under subparagraph (A) which lists any chemical substance, identify those uses, if any, which the Administrator determines, by rule under subsection (a)(2), would constitute a significant new use of such substance.

(C) Any rule under subparagraph (A), and any substantive amendment or repeal of such a rule, shall be promulgated pursuant to the procedures specified in section 553 of title 5, United States Code, except that (i) the Administrator shall give interested persons an opportunity for the oral presentation of data, views, or arguments, in addition to an opportunity to make written submissions, (ii) a transcript shall be kept of any oral presentation, and (iii) the Administrator shall make and publish with the rule the finding described in subparagraph (A).

(c) EXTENSION OF NOTICE PERIOD.—The Administrator may for good cause extend for additional periods (not to exceed in the aggregate 90 days) the period, prescribed by subsection (a) or (b) before which the manufacturing or processing of a chemical substance subject to such subsection may begin. Subject to section 14, such an extension and the reasons therefor shall be published in the Federal Register and shall constitute a final agency action subject to judicial review.

(d) CONTENT OF NOTICE; PUBLICATIONS IN THE FEDERAL REGISTER.—

(1) The notice required by subsection (a) shall include—

(A) insofar as known to the person submitting the notice or insofar as reasonably ascertainable, the information described in subparagraphs (A), (B), (C), (D), (F), and (G) of section 8(a)(2), and

(B) in such form and manner as the Administrator may prescribe, any test data in the possession or control of the person giving such notice which are related to the effect of any manufacture, processing, distribution in commerce, use, or disposal of such substance or any article containing such substance, or of any combination of such activities, on health or the environment, and

(C) a description of any other data concerning the environmental and health effects of such substance, insofar as known to the person making the notice or insofar as reasonably ascertainable.

Such a notice shall be made available, subject to section 14, for examination by interested persons.

(2) Subject to section 14, not later than five days (excluding Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays) after the date of the receipt of a notice under subsection (a) or of data under subsection (b), the Administrator shall publish in the Federal Register a notice which—
(A) identifies the chemical substance for which notice or data has been received;
(B) lists the uses or intended uses of such substance; and
(C) in the case of the receipt of data under subsection (b), describes the nature of the tests performed on such substance and any data which was developed pursuant to subsection (b) or a rule under section 4.

A notice under this paragraph respecting a chemical substance shall identify the chemical substance by generic class unless the Administrator determines that more specific identification is required in the public interest.

(3) At the beginning of each month the Administrator shall publish a list in the Federal Register of (A) each chemical substance for which notice has been received under subsection (a) and for which the notification period prescribed by subsection (a), (b), or (c) has not expired, and (B) each chemical substance for which such notification period has expired since the last publication in the Federal Register of such list.

(e) Regulation Pending Development of Information.—(1) (A) If the Administrator determines that—
(i) the information available to the Administrator is insufficient to permit a reasoned evaluation of the health and environmental effects of a chemical substance with respect to which notice is required by subsection (a); and
(ii) (I) in the absence of sufficient information to permit the Administrator to make such an evaluation, the manufacture, processing, distribution in commerce, use, or disposal of such substance, or any combination of such activities, may present an unreasonable risk of injury to health or the environment, or
(II) such substance is or will be produced in substantial quantities, and such substance either enters or may reasonably be anticipated to enter the environment in substantial quantities or there is or may be significant or substantial human exposure to the substance,
the Administrator may issue a proposed order, to take effect on the expiration of the notification period applicable to the manufacturing or processing of such substance under subsection (a), (b), or (c), to prohibit or limit the manufacture, processing, distribution in commerce, use, or disposal of such substance or to prohibit or limit any combination of such activities.

(B) A proposed order may not be issued under subparagraph (A) respecting a chemical substance (i) later than 45 days before the expiration of the notification period applicable to the manufacture or processing of such substance under subsection (a), (b), or (c), and (ii) unless the Administrator has, on or before the issuance of the proposed order, notified, in writing, each manufacturer or processor, as the case may be, of such substance of the determination which underlies such order.

(C) If a manufacturer or processor of a chemical substance to be subject to a proposed order issued under subparagraph (A) files with the Administrator (within the 30-day period beginning on the date such manufacturer or processor received the notice required by subparagraph (B)(ii)) objections specifying with particularity the provisions of the order deemed objectionable and stating the grounds therefor, the proposed order shall not take effect.
Injunction, application.

(2) (A) (i) Except as provided in clause (ii), if with respect to a chemical substance with respect to which notice is required by subsection (a), the Administrator makes the determination described in paragraph (1) (A) and if—

(I) the Administrator does not issue a proposed order under paragraph (1) respecting such substance, or

(II) the Administrator issues such an order respecting such substance but such order does not take effect because objections were filed under paragraph (1) (C) with respect to it, the Administrator, through attorneys of the Environmental Protection Agency, shall apply to the United States District Court for the District of Columbia or the United States district court for the judicial district in which the manufacturer or processor, as the case may be, of such substance is found, resides, or transacts business for an injunction to prohibit or limit the manufacture, processing, distribution in commerce, use, or disposal of such substance (or to prohibit or limit any combination of such activities).

(ii) If the Administrator issues a proposed order under paragraph (1) (A) respecting a chemical substance but such order does not take effect because objections have been filed under paragraph (1) (C) with respect to it, the Administrator is not required to apply for an injunction under clause (i) respecting such substance if the Administrator determines, on the basis of such objections, that the determinations under paragraph (1) (A) may not be made.

(B) A district court of the United States which receives an application under subparagraph (A) (i) for an injunction respecting a chemical substance shall issue such injunction if the court finds that—

(I) the information available to the Administrator is insufficient to permit a reasoned evaluation of the health and environmental effects of a chemical substance with respect to which notice is required by subsection (a); and

(ii) (I) in the absence of sufficient information to permit the Administrator to make such an evaluation, the manufacture, processing, distribution in commerce, use, or disposal of such substance, or any combination of such activities, may present an unreasonable risk of injury to health or the environment, or

(II) such substance is or will be produced in substantial quantities, and such substance either enters or may reasonably be anticipated to enter the environment in substantial quantities or there is or may be significant or substantial human exposure to the substance.

(C) Pending the completion of a proceeding for the issuance of an injunction under subparagraph (B) respecting a chemical substance, the court may, upon application of the Administrator made through attorneys of the Environmental Protection Agency, issue a temporary restraining order or a preliminary injunction to prohibit the manufacture, processing, distribution in commerce, use, or disposal of such substance (or any combination of such activities) if the court finds that the notification period applicable under subsection (a), (b), or (c) to the manufacturing or processing of such substance may expire before such proceeding can be completed.

(D) After the submission to the Administrator of test data sufficient to evaluate the health and environmental effects of a chemical substance subject to an injunction issued under subparagraph (B) and the evaluation of such data by the Administrator, the district court of the United States which issued such injunction shall, upon petition, dissolve the injunction unless the Administrator has initiated a proceeding for the issuance of a rule under section 6(a) respecting the substance. If such a proceeding has been initiated, such court shall continue the injunction in effect until the effective date of the rule promulgated in such proceeding or, if such proceeding is terminated without the promulgation of a rule, upon the termination of the proceeding, whichever occurs first.

(f) Protection Against Unreasonable Risks.—(1) If the Administrator finds that there is a reasonable basis to conclude that the manufacture, processing, distribution in commerce, use, or disposal of a chemical substance with respect to which notice is required by subsection (a), or that any combination of such activities, presents or will present an unreasonable risk of injury to health or environment before a rule promulgated under section 6 can protect against such risk, the Administrator shall, before the expiration of the notification period applicable under subsection (a), (b), or (c) to the manufacturing or processing of such substance, take the action authorized by paragraph (2) or (3) to the extent necessary to protect against such risk.

(2) The Administrator may issue a proposed rule under section 6(a) to apply to a chemical substance with respect to which a finding was made under paragraph (1)—

(A) a requirement limiting the amount of such substance which may be manufactured, processed, or distributed in commerce,
(B) a requirement described in paragraph (2), (3), (4), (5), (6), or (7) of section 6(a), or
(C) any combination of the requirements referred to in subparagraph (B).

Such a proposed rule shall be effective upon its publication in the Federal Register. Section 6(d) (2) (B) shall apply with respect to such rule.

(3) (A) The Administrator may—

(i) issue a proposed order to prohibit the manufacture, processing, or distribution in commerce of a substance with respect to which a finding was made under paragraph (1), or
(ii) apply, through attorneys of the Environmental Protection Agency, to the United States District Court for the District of Columbia or the United States district court for the judicial district in which the manufacturer, or processor, as the case may be, of such substance, is found, resides, or transacts business for an injunction to prohibit the manufacture, processing, or distribution in commerce of such substance.

A proposed order issued under clause (i) respecting a chemical substance shall take effect on the expiration of the notification period applicable under subsection (a), (b), or (c) to the manufacture or processing of such substance.

(B) If the district court of the United States to which an application has been made under subparagraph (A) (ii) finds that there is a reasonable basis to conclude that the manufacture, processing, distribution in commerce, use, or disposal of the chemical substance with respect to which such application was made, or that any combination of such activities, presents or will present an unreasonable risk of injury to health or the environment before a rule promulgated under section 6 can protect against such risk, the court shall issue an injunction to prohibit the manufacture, processing, or distribution in commerce of such substance or to prohibit any combination of such activities.
(C) The provisions of subparagraphs (B) and (C) of subsection (e) (1) shall apply with respect to an order issued under clause (i) of subparagraph (A); and the provisions of subparagraph (C) of subsection (e) (2) shall apply with respect to an injunction issued under subparagraph (B).

(D) If the Administrator issues an order pursuant to subparagraph (A) (i) respecting a chemical substance and objections are filed in accordance with subsection (e) (1)(C), the Administrator shall seek an injunction under subparagraph (A) (ii) respecting such substance unless the Administrator determines, on the basis of such objections, that such substance does not or will not present an unreasonable risk of injury to health or the environment.

(g) Statement of Reasons for Not Taking Action.—If the Administrator has not initiated any action under this section or section 6 or 7 to prohibit or limit the manufacture, processing, distribution in commerce, use, or disposal of a chemical substance, with respect to which notification or data is required by subsection (a) (1)(B) or (b), before the expiration of the notification period applicable to the manufacturing or processing of such substance, the Administrator shall publish a statement of the Administrator’s reasons for not initiating such action. Such a statement shall be published in the Federal Register before the expiration of such period. Publication of such statement in accordance with the preceding sentence is not a prerequisite to the manufacturing or processing of the substance with respect to which the statement is to be published.

(h) Exemptions.—(1) The Administrator may, upon application, exempt any person from any requirement of subsection (a) or (b) to permit such person to manufacture or process a chemical substance for test marketing purposes—

(A) upon a showing by such person satisfactory to the Administrator that the manufacture, processing, distribution in commerce, use, and disposal of such substance, and that any combination of such activities, for such purposes will not present any unreasonable risk of injury to health or the environment, and

(B) under such restrictions as the Administrator considers appropriate.

(2) (A) The Administrator may, upon application, exempt any person from the requirement of subsection (b) (2) to submit data for a chemical substance. If, upon receipt of an application under the preceding sentence, the Administrator determines that—

(i) the chemical substance with respect to which such application was submitted is equivalent to a chemical substance for which data has been submitted to the Administrator as required by subsection (b) (2), and

(ii) submission of data by the applicant on such substance would be duplicative of data which has been submitted to the Administrator in accordance with such subsection.

the Administrator shall exempt the applicant from the requirement to submit such data on such substance. No exemption which is granted under this subparagraph with respect to the submission of data for a chemical substance may take effect before the beginning of the reimbursement period applicable to such data.

(B) If the Administrator exempts any person, under subparagraph (A), from submitting data required under subsection (b) (2) for a chemical substance because of the existence of previously submitted data and if such exemption is granted during the reimbursement period for such data, then (unless such person and the persons referred to in clauses (i) and (ii) agree on the amount and method of reimbursement, the Administrator shall order the person granted the exemption to provide fair and equitable reimbursement (in an amount determined under rules of the Administrator)—

(i) to the person who previously submitted the data on which the exemption was based, for a portion of the costs incurred by such person in complying with the requirement under subsection (b) (2) to submit such data, and

(ii) to any other person who has been required under this subparagraph to contribute with respect to such costs, for a portion of the amount such person was required to contribute. In promulgating rules for the determination of fair and equitable reimbursement to the persons described in clauses (i) and (ii) for costs incurred with respect to a chemical substance, the Administrator shall, after consultation with the Attorney General and the Federal Trade Commission, consider all relevant factors, including the effect on the competitive position of the person required to provide reimbursement in relation to the persons to be reimbursed and the share of the market for such substance of the person required to provide reimbursement in relation to the share of such market of the persons to be reimbursed. For purposes of judicial review, an order under this subparagraph shall be considered final agency action.

(C) For purposes of this paragraph, the reimbursement period for any previously submitted data for a chemical substance is a period—

(i) beginning on the date of the termination of the prohibition imposed under this section, on the manufacture or processing of such substance by the person who submitted such data to the Administrator, and

(ii) ending—

(I) five years after the date referred to in clause (i), or

(II) at the expiration of a period which begins on the date referred to in clause (i) and is equal to the period which the Administrator determines was necessary to develop such data, whichever is later.

(3) The requirements of subsections (a) and (b) do not apply with respect to the manufacturing or processing of any chemical substance which is manufactured or processed, or proposed to be manufactured or processed, only in small quantities (as defined by the Administrator by rule) solely for purposes of—

(A) scientific experimentation or analysis, or

(B) chemical research on, or analysis of such substance or another substance, including such research or analysis for the development of a product, if all persons engaged in such experimentation, research, or analysis for a manufacturer or processor are notified (in such form and manner as the Administrator may prescribe) of any risk to health which the manufacturer, processor, or the Administrator has reason to believe may be associated with such chemical substance.

(4) The Administrator may, upon application and by rule, exempt the manufacturer of any new chemical substance from all or part of the requirements of this section if the Administrator determines that the manufacture, processing, distribution in commerce, use, or disposal of such chemical substance, or that any combination of such activities, will not present an unreasonable risk of injury to health or the environment. A rule promulgated under this paragraph (and any substantive amendment to, or repeal of, such a rule) shall be promulgated in accordance with paragraphs (2) and (3) of section 6(c).
(5) The Administrator may, upon application, make the requirements of subsections (a) and (b) inapplicable with respect to the manufacturing or processing of any chemical substance (A) which exists temporarily as a result of a chemical reaction in the manufacturing or processing of a mixture or another chemical substance, and (B) to which there is no, and will not be, human or environmental exposure.

(6) Immediately upon receipt of an application under paragraph (1) or (5) the Administrator shall publish in the Federal Register notice of the receipt of such application. The Administrator shall give interested persons an opportunity to comment upon any such application and shall, within 45 days of its receipt, either approve or deny the application. The Administrator shall publish in the Federal Register notice of the approval or denial of such an application.

(i) DEFINITION.—For purposes of this section, the terms “manufacture” and “process” mean manufacturing or processing for commercial purposes.

SEC. 6. REGULATION OF HAZARDOUS CHEMICAL SUBSTANCES AND MIXTURES.

15 USC 2605. (a) SCOPE OF REGULATION.—If the Administrator finds that there is a reasonable basis to conclude that the manufacture, processing, distribution in commerce, use, or disposal of a chemical substance or mixture, or that any combination of such activities, presents or will present an unreasonable risk of injury to health or the environment, the Administrator shall by rule apply one or more of the following requirements to such substance or mixture to the extent necessary to protect adequately against such risk using the least burdensome requirements:

(1) A requirement (A) prohibiting the manufacturing, processing, or distribution in commerce of such substance or mixture, or (B) limiting the amount of such substance or mixture which may be manufactured, processed, or distributed in commerce.

(2) A requirement—

(A) prohibiting the manufacture, processing, or distribution in commerce of such substance or mixture for (i) a particular use or (ii) a particular use in a concentration in excess of a level specified by the Administrator in the rule imposing the requirement, or

(B) limiting the amount of such substance or mixture which may be manufactured, processed, or distributed in commerce for (i) a particular use or (ii) a particular use in a concentration in excess of a level specified by the Administrator in the rule imposing the requirement.

(3) A requirement that such substance or mixture or any article containing such substance or mixture be marked with or accompanied by clear and adequate warnings and instructions with respect to its use, distribution in commerce, or disposal or with respect to any combination of such activities. The form and content of such warnings and instructions shall be prescribed by the Administrator.

(4) A requirement that manufacturers and processors of such substance or mixture make and retain records of the processes used to manufacture or process such substance or mixture and monitor or conduct tests which are reasonable and necessary to assure compliance with the requirements of any rule applicable under this subsection.
(5) A requirement prohibiting or otherwise regulating any manner or method of commercial use of such substance or mixture.

(6) (A) A requirement prohibiting or otherwise regulating any manner or method of disposal of such substance or mixture, or of any article containing such substance or mixture, by its manufacturer or processor or by any other person who uses, or disposes of, it for commercial purposes.

(B) A requirement under subparagraph (A) may not require any person to take any action which would be in violation of any law or requirement of, or in effect for, a State or political subdivision, and shall require each person subject to it to notify each State and political subdivision in which a required disposal may occur of such disposal.

(7) A requirement directing manufacturers or processors of such substance or mixture (A) to give notice of such unreasonable risk of injury to distributors in commerce of such substance or mixture and, to the extent reasonably ascertainable, to other persons in possession of such substance or mixture or exposed to such substance or mixture, (B) to give public notice of such risk of injury, and (C) to replace or repurchase such substance or mixture as elected by the person to which the requirement is directed.

Any requirement (or combination of requirements) imposed under this subsection may be limited in application to specified geographic areas.

(b) Quality Control.—If the Administrator has a reasonable basis to conclude that a particular manufacturer or processor is manufacturing or processing a chemical substance or mixture in a manner which unintentionally causes the chemical substance or mixture to present or which will cause it to present an unreasonable risk of injury to health or the environment—

(1) the Administrator may by order require such manufacturer or processor to submit a description of the relevant quality control procedures followed in the manufacturing or processing of such chemical substance or mixture; and

(2) if the Administrator determines—

(A) that such quality control procedures are inadequate to prevent the chemical substance or mixture from presenting such risk of injury, the Administrator may order the manufacturer or processor to revise such quality control procedures to the extent necessary to remedy such inadequacy; or

(B) that the use of such quality control procedures has resulted in the distribution in commerce of chemical substances or mixtures which present an unreasonable risk of injury to health or the environment, the Administrator may order the manufacturer or processor to (i) give notice of such risk to processors or distributors in commerce of any such substance or mixture, or to both, and, to the extent reasonably ascertainable, to any other person in possession of or exposed to any such substance, (ii) to give public notice of such risk, and (iii) to provide such replacement or repurchase of any such substance or mixture as is necessary to adequately protect health or the environment.

A determination under subparagraph (A) or (B) of paragraph (2) shall be made on the record after opportunity for hearing in accordance with section 554 of title 5, United States Code. Any manufacturer or processor subject to a requirement to replace or repurchase a chemical substance or mixture may elect either to replace or repurchase the substance or mixture and shall take either such action in the manner prescribed by the Administrator.

(c) PROMULGATION OF SUBSECTION (a) RULES.—(1) In promulgating any rule under subsection (a) with respect to a chemical substance or mixture, the Administrator shall consider and publish a statement with respect to—

(A) the effects of such substance or mixture on health and the magnitude of the exposure of human beings to such substance or mixture,

(B) the effects of such substance or mixture on the environment and the magnitude of the exposure of the environment to such substance or mixture,

(C) the benefits of such substance or mixture for various uses and the availability of substitutes for such uses, and

(D) the reasonably ascertainable economic consequences of the rule, after consideration of the effect on the national economy, small business, technological innovation, the environment, and public health.

If the Administrator determines that a risk of injury to health or the environment could be eliminated or reduced to a sufficient extent by actions taken under another Federal law (or laws) administered in whole or in part by the Administrator, the Administrator may not promulgate a rule under subsection (a) to protect against such risk of injury unless the Administrator finds, in the Administrator’s discretion, that it is in the public interest to protect against such risk under this Act. In making such a finding the Administrator shall consider (i) all relevant aspects of the risk, as determined by the Administrator in the Administrator’s discretion, (ii) a comparison of the estimated costs of complying with actions taken under this Act and under such law (or laws), and (iii) the relative efficiency of actions under this Act and under such law (or laws) to protect against such risk of injury.

(2) When prescribing a rule under subsection (a) the Administrator shall proceed in accordance with section 553 of title 5, United States Code (without regard to any reference in such section to sections 556 and 557 of such title), and shall also (A) publish a notice of proposed rulemaking stating with particularity the reason for the proposed rule; (B) allow interested persons to submit written data, views, and arguments, and make all such submissions publicly available; (C) provide an opportunity for an informal hearing in accordance with paragraph (3); (D) promulgate, if appropriate, a final rule based on the matter in the rulemaking record (as defined in section 19(a)), and (E) make and publish with the rule the finding described in subsection (a).

(3) Informal hearings required by paragraph (2)(C) shall be conducted by the Administrator in accordance with the following requirements:

(A) Subject to subparagraph (B), an interested person is entitled—

(i) to present such person’s position orally or by documentary submissions (or both), and

(ii) if the Administrator determines that there are disputed issues of material fact it is necessary to resolve, to present such rebuttal submissions and to conduct (or have conducted under subparagraph (B)(ii)) such cross-examination of persons as the Administrator determines (I) to be appropriate, and (II) to be required for a full and true disclosure with respect to such issues.

(B) The Administrator may prescribe such rules and make such rulings concerning procedures in such hearings to avoid unnecessary costs or delay. Such rules or rulings may include (i) the imposition of reasonable time limits on each interested person’s oral presentations, and (ii) requirements that any cross-examination to which a person may be entitled under subparagraph (A) be conducted by the Administrator on behalf of that person in such manner as the Administrator determines (I) to be appropriate, and (II) to be required for a full and true disclosure with respect to disputed issues of material fact.

(C) (i) Except as provided in clause (ii), if a group of persons each of whom under subparagraphs (A) and (B) would be entitled to conduct (or have conducted) cross-examination and who are determined by the Administrator to have the same or similar interests in the proceeding cannot agree upon a single representative of such interests for purposes of cross-examination, the Administrator may make rules and rulings (I) limiting the representation of such interest for such purposes, and (II) governing the manner in which such cross-examination shall be limited.

(ii) When any person who is a member of a group with respect to which the Administrator has made a determination under clause (i) is unable to agree upon group representation with the other members of the group, then such person shall not be denied under the authority of clause (i) the opportunity to conduct (or have conducted) cross-examination as to issues affecting the person’s particular interests if (I) the person satisfies the Administrator that the person has made a reasonable and good faith effort to reach agreement upon group representation with the other members of the group and (II) the Administrator determines that there are substantial and relevant issues which are not adequately presented by the group representative.

(D) A verbatim transcript shall be taken of any oral presentation made, and cross-examination conducted in any informal hearing under this subsection. Such transcript shall be available to the public.

(4) (A) The Administrator may, pursuant to rules prescribed by the Administrator, provide compensation for reasonable attorneys’ fees, expert witness fees, and other costs of participating in a rulemaking proceeding for the promulgation of a rule under subsection (a) to any person—

(i) who represents an interest which would substantially contribute to a fair determination of the issues to be resolved in the proceeding, and

(ii) if—

(I) the economic interest of such person is small in comparison to the costs of effective participation in the proceeding by such person, or

(II) such person demonstrates to the satisfaction of the Administrator that such person does not have sufficient resources adequately to participate in the proceeding without compensation under this subparagraph.

In determining for purposes of clause (i) if an interest will substantially contribute to a fair determination of the issues to be resolved in a proceeding, the Administrator shall take into account the number and complexity of such issues and the extent to which representation of such interest will contribute to widespread public participation in the proceeding and representation of a fair balance of interests for the resolution of such issues.

(B) In determining whether compensation should be provided to a person under subparagraph (A) and the amount of such compensation, the Administrator shall take into account the financial burden which will be incurred by such person in participating in the rulemaking proceeding. The Administrator shall take such action as may be necessary to ensure that the aggregate amount of compensation paid under this paragraph in any fiscal year to all persons who, in rulemaking proceedings in which they receive compensation, are persons who either—

(i) would be regulated by the proposed rule, or
(ii) represent persons who would be so regulated, may not exceed 25 per centum of the aggregate amount paid as compensation under this paragraph to all persons in such fiscal year.

(5) Paragraph (1), (2), (3), and (4) of this subsection apply to the promulgation of a rule repealing, or making a substantive amendment to, a rule promulgated under subsection (a).

(d) EFFECTIVE DATE.—(1) The Administrator shall specify in any rule under subsection (a) the date on which it shall take effect, which date shall be as soon as feasible.

(2) (A) The Administrator may declare a proposed rule under subsection (a) to be effective upon its publication in the Federal Register and until the effective date of final action taken, in accordance with subparagraph (13), respecting such rule if—

(i) the Administrator determines that—

(I) the manufacture, processing, distribution in commerce, use, or disposal of the chemical substance or mixture subject to such proposed rule or any combination of such activities is likely to result in an unreasonable risk of serious or widespread injury to health or the environment before such effective date; and

(II) making such proposed rule so effective is necessary to protect the public interest; and

(ii) in the case of a proposed rule to prohibit the manufacture, processing, or distribution of a chemical substance or mixture because of the risk determined under clause (i)(I), a court has in an action under section 7 granted relief with respect to such risk associated with such substance or mixture.

Such a proposed rule which is made so effective shall not, for purposes of judicial review, be considered final agency action.

(B) If the Administrator makes a proposed rule effective upon its publication in the Federal Register, the Administrator shall, as expedtiously as possible, give interested persons prompt notice of such action, provide reasonable opportunity, in accordance with paragraphs
(2) and (3) of subsection (c), for a hearing on such rule, and either promulgate such rule (as proposed or with modifications) or revoke it; and if such a hearing is requested, the Administrator shall commence the hearing within five days from the date such request is made unless the Administrator and the person making the request agree upon a later date for the hearing to begin, and after the hearing is concluded the Administrator shall, within ten days of the conclusion of the hearing, either promulgate such rule (as proposed or with modifications) or revoke it.
(e) Polychlorinated Biphenyls.—(1) Within six months after the effective date of this Act the Administrator shall promulgate rules to—

(A) prescribe methods for the disposal of polychlorinated biphenyls, and

(B) require polychlorinated biphenyls to be marked with clear and adequate warnings, and instructions with respect to their processing, distribution in commerce, use, or disposal or with respect to any combination of such activities.

Requirements prescribed by rules under this paragraph shall be consistent with the requirements of paragraphs (2) and (3).

(2) (A) Except as provided under subparagraph (B), effective one year after the effective date of this Act no person may manufacture, process, or distribute in commerce or use any polychlorinated biphenyl in any manner other than in a totally enclosed manner.

(B) The Administrator may by rule authorize the manufacture, processing, distribution in commerce or use (or any combination of such activities) of any polychlorinated biphenyl in a manner other than in a totally enclosed manner if the Administrator finds that such manufacture, processing, distribution in commerce, or use (or combination of such activities) will not present an unreasonable risk of injury to health or the environment.

(C) For the purposes of this paragraph, the term "totally enclosed manner" means any manner which will ensure that any exposure of human beings or the environment to a polychlorinated biphenyl will be insignificant as determined by the Administrator by rule.

(3) (A) Except as provided in subparagraphs (B) and (C)—

(i) no person may manufacture any polychlorinated biphenyl after two years after the effective date of this Act, and

(ii) no person may process or distribute in commerce any polychlorinated biphenyl after two and one-half years after such date.

(B) Any person may petition the Administrator for an exemption from the requirements of subparagraph (A), and the Administrator may grant by rule such an exemption if the Administrator finds that—

(i) an unreasonable risk of injury to health or environment would not result, and

(ii) good faith efforts have been made to develop a chemical substance which does not present an unreasonable risk of injury to health or the environment and which may be substituted for such polychlorinated biphenyl.

An exemption granted under this subparagraph shall be subject to such terms and conditions as the Administrator may prescribe and shall be in effect for such period (but not more than one year from the date it is granted) as the Administrator may prescribe.

(C) Subparagraph (A) shall not apply to the distribution in commerce of any polychlorinated biphenyl if such polychlorinated biphenyl was sold for purposes other than resale before two and one-half years after the date of enactment of this Act.

(4) Any rule under paragraph (1), (2) (B), or (3) (B) shall be promulgated in accordance with paragraphs (2), (3), and (4) of subsection (c).

(5) This subsection does not limit the authority of the Administrator, under any other provision of this Act or any other Federal law, to take action respecting any polychlorinated biphenyl.
SEC. 7. IMMINENT HAZARDS.

(a) ACTIONS AUTHORIZED AND REQUIRED.—(1) The Administrator may commence a civil action in an appropriate district court of the United States—

(A) for seizure of an imminently hazardous chemical substance or mixture or any article containing such a substance or mixture,

(B) for relief (as authorized by subsection (b)) against any person who manufactures, processes, distributes in commerce, or uses, or disposes of, an imminently hazardous chemical substance or mixture or any article containing such a substance or mixture, or

(C) for both such seizure and relief.

A civil action may be commenced under this paragraph notwithstanding the existence of a rule under section 4, 5, or 6 or an order under section 5, and notwithstanding the pendency of any administrative or judicial proceeding under any provision of this Act.

(2) If the Administrator has not made a rule under section 6(a) immediately effective (as authorized by subsection 6(d)(2)(A)(i)) with respect to an imminently hazardous chemical substance or mixture, the Administrator shall commence in a district court of the United States with respect to such substance or mixture or article containing such substance or mixture a civil action described in subparagraph (A), (B), or (C) of paragraph (1).

(b) RELIEF AUTHORIZED.—(1) The district court of the United States in which an action under subsection (a) is brought shall have jurisdiction to grant such temporary or permanent relief as may be necessary to protect health or the environment from the unreasonable risk associated with the chemical substance, mixture, or article involved in such action.

(2) In the case of an action under subsection (a) brought against a person who manufactures, processes, or distributes in commerce a chemical substance or mixture or an article containing a chemical substance or mixture, the relief authorized by paragraph (1) may include the issuance of a mandatory order requiring (A) in the case of purchasers of such substance, mixture, or article known to the defendant, notification to such purchasers of the risk associated with it; (B) public notice of such risk; (C) recall; (D) the replacement or repurchase of such substance, mixture, or article; or (E) any combination of the actions described in the preceding clauses.

(3) In the case of an action under subsection (a) against a chemical substance, mixture, or article, such substance, mixture, or article may be proceeded against by process of libel for its seizure and condemnation. Proceedings in such an action shall conform as nearly as possible to proceedings in rem in admiralty.

(c) VENUE AND CONSOLIDATION.—(1) (A) An action under subsection (a) against a person who manufactures, processes, or distributes a chemical substance or mixture or an article containing a chemical substance or mixture may be brought in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia or for any judicial district in which any of the defendants is found, resides, or transacts business; and process in such an action may be served on a defendant in any other district in which such defendant resides or may be found. An action under subsection (a) against a chemical substance, mixture, or article may be brought in any United States district court within the jurisdiction of which the substance, mixture, or article is found.

(B) In determining the judicial district in which an action may be brought under subsection (a) in instances in which such action may be brought in more than one judicial district, the Administrator shall take into account the convenience of the parties.

(C) Subpoenas requiring attendance of witnesses in an action brought under subsection (a) may be served in any judicial district.

(2) Whenever proceedings under subsection (a) involving identical chemical substances, mixtures, or articles are pending in courts in two or more judicial districts, they shall be consolidated for trial by order of any such court upon application reasonably made by any party in interest, upon notice to all parties in interest.

(d) Action Under Section 6.—Where appropriate, concurrently with the filing of an action under subsection (a) or as soon thereafter as may be practicable, the Administrator shall initiate a proceeding for the promulgation of a rule under section 6(a).

(e) Representation.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in any action under subsection (a), the Administrator may direct attorneys of the Environmental Protection Agency to appear and represent the Administrator in such an action.

(f) Definition.—For the purposes of subsection (a), the term "imminently hazardous chemical substance or mixture" means a chemical substance or mixture which presents an imminent and unreasonable risk of serious or widespread injury to health or the environment. Such a risk to health or the environment shall be considered imminent if it is shown that the manufacture, processing, distribution in commerce, use, or disposal of the chemical substance or mixture, or that any combination of such activities, is likely to result in such injury to health or the environment before a final rule under section 6 can protect against such risk.

SEC. 8. REPORTING AND RETENTION OF INFORMATION.

(a) Reports.—(1) The Administrator shall promulgate rules under which—

(A) each person (other than a small manufacturer or processor) who manufactures or processes or proposes to manufacture or process a chemical substance (other than a chemical substance described in subparagraph (B)(ii)) shall maintain such records, and shall submit to the Administrator such reports, as the Administrator may reasonably require, and

(B) each person (other than a small manufacturer or processor) who manufactures or processes or proposes to manufacture or process—

(i) a mixture, or

(ii) a chemical substance in small quantities (as defined by the Administrator by rule) solely for purposes of scientific experimentation or analysis or chemical research on, or analysis of, such substance or another substance, including any such research or analysis for the development of a product, shall maintain records and submit to the Administrator reports but only to the extent the Administrator determines the maintenance of records or submission of reports, or both, is necessary for the effective enforcement of this Act.

The Administrator may not require in a rule promulgated under this paragraph the maintenance of records or the submission of reports with respect to changes in the proportions of the components of a mixture unless the Administrator finds that the maintenance of such records or the submission of such reports, or both, is necessary for the effective enforcement of this Act. For purposes of the compilation of the list of chemical substances required under subsection (b), the Administrator shall promulgate rules pursuant to this subsection not later than 180 days after the effective date of this Act.

Rules.

15 USC 2607.

(2) The Administrator may require under paragraph (1) maintenance of records and reporting with respect to the following insofar as known to the person making the report or insofar as reasonably ascertainable:

(A) The common or trade name, the chemical identity, and the molecular structure of each chemical substance or mixture for which such a report is required.

(B) The categories or proposed categories of use of each such substance or mixture.

(C) The total amount of each such substance and mixture manufactured or processed, reasonable estimates of the total amount to be manufactured or processed, the amount manufactured or processed for each of its categories of use, and reasonable estimates of the amount to be manufactured or processed for each of its categories of use or proposed categories of use.

(D) A description of the byproducts resulting from the manufacture, processing, use, or disposal of each such substance or mixture.

(E) All existing data concerning the environmental and health effects of such substance or mixture.

(F) The number of individuals exposed, and reasonable estimates of the number who will be exposed, to such substance or mixture in their places of employment and the duration of such exposure.

(G) In the initial report under paragraph (1) on such substance or mixture, the manner or method of its disposal, and in any subsequent report on such substance or mixture, any change in such manner or method.

To the extent feasible, the Administrator shall not require under paragraph (1), any reporting which is unnecessary or duplicative.

(3) (A) (i) The Administrator may by rule require a small manufacturer or processor of a chemical substance to submit to the Administrator such information respecting the chemical substance as the Administrator may require for publication of the first list of chemical substances required by subsection (b).

(ii) The Administrator may by rule require a small manufacturer or processor of a chemical substance or mixture—

(I) subject to a rule proposed or promulgated under section 4, 5(b)(4), or 6, or an order in effect under section 5(e), or

(II) with respect to which relief has been granted pursuant to a civil action brought under section 5 or 7, to maintain such records on such substance or mixture, and to submit to the Administrator such reports on such substance or mixture, as the Administrator may reasonably require. A rule under this clause requiring reporting may require reporting with respect to the matters referred to in paragraph (2).

(B) The Administrator, after consultation with the Administrator of the Small Business Administration, shall by rule prescribe standards for determining the manufacturers and processors which qualify as small manufacturers and processors for purposes of this paragraph and paragraph (1).

(b) INVENTORY.—(1) The Administrator shall compile, keep current, and publish a list of each chemical substance which is manufactured or processed in the United States. Such list shall at least include each chemical substance which any person reports, under section 5 or subsection (a) of this section, is manufactured or processed in the United States. Such list may not include any chemical substance which was not manufactured or processed in the United States within three years before the effective date of the rules promulgated pursuant to the last sentence of subsection (a) (1). In the case of a chemical substance for which a notice is submitted in accordance with section 5, such chemical substance shall be included in such list as of the earliest date (as determined by the Administrator) on which such substance was manufactured or processed in the United States. The Administrator shall first publish such a list not later than 315 days after the effective date of this Act. The Administrator shall not include in such list any chemical substance which is manufactured or processed only in small quantities (as defined by the Administrator by rule) solely for purposes of scientific experimentation or analysis or chemi-ical research on, or analysis of, such substance or another substance, including such research or analysis for the development of a product.

(2) To the extent consistent with the purposes of this Act, the Administrator may, in lieu of listing, pursuant to paragraph (1), a chemical substance individually, list a category of chemical substances in which such substance is included.

(c) RECORDS.—Any person who manufactures, processes, or distributes in commerce any chemical substance or mixture shall maintain records of significant adverse reactions to health or the environment, as determined by the Administrator by rule, alleged to have been caused by the substance or mixture. Records of such adverse reactions to the health of employees shall be retained for a period of 30 years from the date such reactions were first reported to or known by the person maintaining such records. Any other record of such adverse reactions shall be retained for a period of five years from the date the information contained in the record was first reported to or known by the person maintaining the record. Records required to be maintained under this subsection shall include records of consumer allegations of personal injury or harm to health, reports of occupational disease or injury, and reports or complaints of injury to the environment submitted to the manufacturer, processor, or distributor in commerce from any source. Upon request of any duly designated representative of the Administrator, each person who is required to maintain records under this subsection shall permit the inspection of such records and shall submit copies of such records.

(d) HEALTH AND SAFETY STUDIES.—The Administrator shall promulgate rules under which the Administrator shall require any person who manufactures, processes, or distributes in commerce or who proposes to manufacture, process, or distribute in commerce any chemical substance or mixture (or with respect to paragraph (2), any person who has possession of a study) to submit to the Administrator—

(1) lists of health and safety studies (A) conducted or initiated by or for such person with respect to such substance or mixture at any time, (B) known to such person, or (C) reasonably ascer-tainable by such person, except that the Administrator may exclude certain types or categories of studies from the requirements of this subsection if the Administrator finds that submission of lists of such studies are unnecessary to carry out the purposes of this Act;
and

(2) copies of any study contained on a list submitted pursuant to paragraph (1) or otherwise known by such person.

(e) NOTICE TO ADMINISTRATOR OF SUBSTANTIAL RISKS.—Any person who manufactures, processes, or distributes in commerce a chemical substance or mixture and who obtains information which reasonably

Rules.
supports the conclusion that such substance or mixture presents a substantial risk of injury to health or the environment shall immediately inform the Administrator of such information unless such person has actual knowledge that the Administrator has been adequately informed of such information.

(f) DEFINITIONS.—For purposes of this section, the terms “manufacture” and “process” mean manufacture or process for commercial purposes.

SEC. 9. RELATIONSHIP TO OTHER FEDERAL LAWS.

(a) LAWS NOT ADMINISTERED BY THE ADMINISTRATOR.—(1) If the Administrator has reasonable basis to conclude that the manufacture, processing, distribution in commerce, use, or disposal of a chemical substance or mixture, or that any combination of such activities, presents or will present an unreasonable risk of injury to health or the environment and determines, in the Administrator's discretion, that such risk may be prevented or reduced to a sufficient extent by action taken under a Federal law not administered by the Administrator, the Administrator shall submit to the agency which administers such law a report which describes such risk and includes in such description a specification of the activity or combination of activities which the Administrator has reason to believe so presents such risk. Such report shall also request such agency—

(A) (i) to determine if the risk described in such report may be prevented or reduced to a sufficient extent by action taken under such law, and

(ii) if the agency determines that such risk may be so prevented or reduced, to issue an order declaring whether or not the activity or combination of activities specified in the description of such risk presents such risk; and

(B) to respond to the Administrator with respect to the matters described in subparagraph (A).

Any report of the Administrator shall include a detailed statement of the information on which it is based and shall be published in the Federal Register. The agency receiving a request under such a report shall make the requested determination, issue the requested order, and make the requested response within such time as the Administrator specifies in the request, but such time specified may not be less than 90 days from the date the request was made. The response of an agency shall be accompanied by a detailed statement of the findings and conclusions of the agency and shall be published in the Federal Register.

(2) If the Administrator makes a report under paragraph (1) with respect to a chemical substance or mixture and the agency to which such report was made either—

(A) issues an order declaring that the activity or combination of activities specified in the description of the risk described in the report does not present the risk described in the report, or

(B) initiates, within 90 days of the publication in the Federal Register of the response of the agency under paragraph (1), action under the law (or laws) administered by such agency to protect against such risk associated with such activity or combination of activities, the Administrator may not take any action under section 6 or 7 with respect to such risk.

(3) If the Administrator has initiated action under section 6 or 7 with respect to a risk associated with a chemical substance or mixture which was the subject of a report made to an agency under paragraph (1), such agency shall before taking action under the law (or laws) administered by it to protect against such risk consult with the Administrator for the purpose of avoiding duplication of Federal action against such risk.

(b) LAWS ADMINISTERED BY THE ADMINISTRATOR.—The Administrator shall coordinate actions taken under this Act with actions taken under other Federal laws administered in whole or in part by the Administrator. If the Administrator determines that a risk to health or the environment associated with a chemical substance or mixture could be eliminated or reduced to a sufficient extent by actions taken under the authorities contained in such other Federal laws, the Administrator shall use such authorities to protect against such risk unless the Administrator determines, in the Administrator’s discretion, that it is in the public interest to protect against such risk by actions taken under this Act. This subsection shall not be construed to relieve the Administrator of any requirement imposed on the Administrator by such other Federal laws.

(c) OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY AND HEALTH.—In exercising any authority under this Act, the Administrator shall not, for purposes of section 4(b)(1) of the Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970, be deemed to be exercising statutory authority to prescribe or enforce standards or regulations affecting occupational safety and health.

(d) COORDINATION.—In administering this Act, the Administrator shall consult and coordinate with the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare and the heads of any other appropriate Federal executive department or agency, any relevant independent regulatory agency, and any other appropriate instrumentality of the Federal Government for the purpose of achieving the maximum enforcement of this Act while imposing the least burdens of duplicative requirements on those subject to the Act and for other purposes. The Administrator shall, in the report required by section 30, report annually to the Congress on actions taken to coordinate with such other Federal departments, agencies, or instrumentalities, and on actions taken to coordinate the authority under this Act with the authority granted under other Acts referred to in subsection (b).

SEC. 10. RESEARCH, DEVELOPMENT, COLLECTION, DISSEMINATION, AND UTILIZATION OF DATA.

(a) AUTHORITY.—The Administrator shall, in consultation and cooperation with the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare and with other heads of appropriate departments and agencies, conduct such research, development, and monitoring as is necessary to carry out the purposes of this Act. The Administrator may enter into contracts and may make grants for research, development, and monitoring under this subsection. Contracts may be entered into under this subsection without regard to sections 3648 and 3709 of the Revised Statutes (31 U.S.C. 529, 14 U.S.C. 5).

(b) DATA SYSTEMS.—(1) The Administrator shall establish, administer, and be responsible for the continuing activities of an interagency committee which shall design, establish, and coordinate an efficient and effective system, within the Environmental Protection Agency, for the collection, dissemination to other Federal departments and agencies, and use of data submitted to the Administrator under this Act.

(2) (A) The Administrator shall, in consultation and cooperation with the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare and other heads of appropriate departments and agencies design, establish, and coordinate an efficient and effective system for the retrieval of toxicological and other scientific data which could be useful to the Administrator in carrying out the purposes of this Act. Systematized retrieval shall be developed for use by all Federal and other departments and agencies with responsibilities in the area of regulation or study of chemical substances and mixtures and their effect on health or the environment.

(B) The Administrator, in consultation and cooperation with the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare, may make grants and enter into contracts for the development of a data retrieval system described in subparagraph (A). Contracts may be entered into under this subparagraph without regard to sections 3648 and 3709 of the Revised Statutes (31 U.S.C. 529, 41 U.S.C. 5).

(c) Screening Techniques.—The Administrator shall coordinate, with the Assistant Secretary for Health of the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, research undertaken by the Administrator and directed toward the development of rapid, reliable, and economical screening techniques for carcinogenic, mutagenic, teratogenic, and ecological effects of chemical substances and mixtures.

(d) Monitoring.—The Administrator shall, in consultation and cooperation with the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare, establish and be responsible for research aimed at the development, in cooperation with local, State, and Federal agencies, of monitoring techniques and instruments which may be used in the detection of toxic chemical substances and mixtures and which are reliable, economical, and capable of being implemented under a wide variety of conditions.

(e) Basic Research.—The Administrator shall, in consultation and cooperation with the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare, establish research programs to develop the fundamental scientific basis of the screening and monitoring techniques described in subsections (c) and (d), the bounds of the reliability of such techniques, and the opportunities for their improvement.

(f) Training.—The Administrator shall establish and promote programs and workshops to train or facilitate the training of Federal laboratory and technical personnel in existing or newly developed screening and monitoring techniques.

(g) Exchange of Research and Development Results.—The Administrator shall, in consultation with the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare and other heads of appropriate departments and agencies, establish and coordinate a system for exchange among Federal, State, and local authorities of research and development results respecting toxic chemical substances and mixtures, including a system to facilitate and promote the development of standard data format and analysis and consistent testing procedures.

SEC. 11. INSPECTIONS AND SUBPOENAS.

(a) In General.—For purposes of administering this Act, the Administrator, and any duly designated representative of the Administrator, may inspect any establishment, facility, or other premises in which chemical substances or mixtures are manufactured, processed, stored, or held before or after their distribution in commerce and any conveyance being used to transport chemical substances, mixtures, or such articles in connection with distribution in commerce. Such an inspection may only be made upon the presentation of appropriate credentials and of a written notice to the owner, operator, or agent in charge of the premises or conveyance to be inspected. A separate notice shall be given for each such inspection, but a notice shall not be required for each entry made during the period covered by the inspection. Each such inspection shall be commenced and completed with reasonable promptness and shall be conducted at reasonable times, within reasonable limits, and in a reasonable manner.

(b) Scope.—(1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), an inspection conducted under subsection (a) shall extend to all things within the premises or conveyance inspected (including records, files, papers, processes, controls, and facilities) bearing on whether the requirements of this Act applicable to the chemical substances or mixtures within such premises or conveyance have been complied with.

(2) No inspection under subsection (a) shall extend to—

(A) financial data,
(B) sales data (other than shipment data),
(C) pricing data,
(D) personnel data, or
(E) research data (other than data required by this Act or under a rule promulgated thereunder), unless the nature and extent of such data are described with reasonable specificity in the written notice required by subsection (a) for such inspection.

(c) Subpoenas.—In carrying out this Act, the Administrator may by subpoena require the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of reports, papers, documents, answers to questions, and other information that the Administrator deems necessary. Witnesses shall be paid the same fees and mileage that are paid witnesses in the courts of the United States. In the event of contumacy, failure, or refusal of any person to obey any such subpoena, any district court of the United States in which venue is proper shall have jurisdiction to order any such person to comply with such subpoena. Any failure to obey such an order of the court is punishable by the court as a contempt thereof.

SEC. 12. EXPORTS.

(a) In General.—(1) Except as provided in paragraph (2) and subsection (b), this Act (other than section 8) shall not apply to any chemical substance, mixture, or to an article containing a chemical substance or mixture, if—

(A) it can be shown that such substance, mixture, or article is being manufactured, processed, or distributed in commerce for export from the United States, unless such substance, mixture, or article was, in fact, manufactured, processed, or distributed in commerce, for use in the United States, and

(B) such substance, mixture, or article (when distributed in commerce), or any container in which it is enclosed (when so distributed), bears a stamp or label stating that such substance, mixture, or article is intended for export.

(2) Paragraph (1) shall not apply to any chemical substance, mixture, or article if the Administrator finds that the substance, mixture, or article will present an unreasonable risk of injury to health within the United States or to the environment of the United States. The Administrator may require, under section 4, testing of any chemical substance or mixture exempted from this Act by paragraph (1) for the purpose of determining whether or not such substance or mixture presents an unreasonable risk of injury to health within the United States or to the environment of the United States.

(b) Notice.—(1) If any person exports or intends to export to a foreign country a chemical substance or mixture for which the submission of data is required under section 4 or 5(b), such person shall notify the Administrator of such exportation or intent to export and the Administrator shall furnish to the government of such country notice of the availability of the data submitted to the Administrator under such section for such substance or mixture.

(2) If any person exports or intends to export to a foreign country a chemical substance or mixture for which an order has been issued under section 5 or a rule has been proposed or promulgated under section 5 or 6, or with respect to which an action is pending, or relief has been granted under section 5 or 7, such person shall notify the Administrator of such exportation or intent to export and the Administrator shall furnish to the government of such country notice of such rule, order, action, or relief.

SEC. 13. ENTRY INTO CUSTOMS TERRITORY OF THE UNITED STATES.

(a) In General.—(1) The Secretary of the Treasury shall refuse entry into the customs territory of the United States (as defined in general headnote 2 to the Tariff Schedules of the United States) of any chemical substance, mixture, or article containing a chemical substance or mixture offered for such entry if—

(A) it fails to comply with any rule in effect under this Act, or

(B) it is offered for entry in violation of section 5 or 6, a rule or order under section 5 or 6, or an order issued in a civil action brought under section 5 or 7.

(2) If a chemical substance, mixture, or article is refused entry under paragraph (1), the Secretary of the Treasury shall notify the consignee of such entry refusal, shall not release it to the consignee, and shall cause its disposal or storage (under such rules as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe) if it has not been exported by the consignee within 90 days from the date of receipt of notice of such refusal, except that the Secretary of the Treasury may, pending a review by the Administrator of the entry refusal, release to the consignee such substance, mixture, or article on execution of bond for the amount of the full invoice of such substance, mixture, or article (as such value is set forth in the customs entry), together with the duty thereon. On failure to return such substance, mixture, or article for any cause to the custody of the Secretary of the Treasury when demanded, such consignee shall be liable to the United States for liquidated damages equal to the full amount of such bond. All charges for storage, cartage, and labor on and for disposal of substances, mixtures, or articles which are refused entry or release under this section shall be paid by the owner or consignee, and in default of such payment shall constitute a lien against any future entry made by such owner or consignee.

(b) Rules.—The Secretary of the Treasury, after consultation with the Administrator, shall issue rules for the administration of subsection (a) of this section.

SEC. 14. DISCLOSURE OF DATA.

(a) In General.—Except as provided by subsection (b), any information reported to, or otherwise obtained by, the Administrator (or any representative of the Administrator) under this Act, which is exempt from disclosure pursuant to subsection (a) of section 552 of title 5, United States Code, by reason of subsection (b) (4) of such section, shall, notwithstanding the provisions of any other section of this Act, not be disclosed by the Administrator or by any officer or employee of the United States, except that such information—

(1) shall be disclosed to any officer or employee of the United States—

(A) in connection with the official duties of such officer or employee under any law for the protection of health or the environment, or

(B) for specific law enforcement purposes;

(2) shall be disclosed to contractors with the United States and employees of such contractors if in the opinion of the Administrator such disclosure is necessary for the satisfactory performance by the contractor of a contract with the United States entered into on or after the date of enactment of this Act for the performance of work in connection with this Act and under such conditions as the Administrator may specify;

(3) shall be disclosed if the Administrator determines it necessary to protect health or the environment against an unreasonable risk of injury to health or the environment; or

(4) may be disclosed when relevant in any proceeding under this Act, except that disclosure in such a proceeding shall be made in such manner as to preserve confidentiality to the extent practicable without impairing the proceeding.

In any proceeding under section 552(a) of title 5, United States Code, to obtain information the disclosure of which has been denied because of the provisions of this subsection, the Administrator may not rely on section 552(b)(3) of such title to sustain the Administrator's action.

(b) DATA FROM HEALTH AND SAFETY STUDIES.—(1) Subsection (a) does not prohibit the disclosure of—

(A) any health and safety study which is submitted under this Act with respect to—

(i) any chemical substance or mixture which, on the date on which such study is to be disclosed has been offered for commercial distribution, or

(ii) any chemical substance or mixture for which testing is required under section 4 or for which notification is required under section 5, and

(B) any data reported to, or otherwise obtained by, the Administrator from a health and safety study which relates to a chemical substance or mixture described in clause (i) or (ii) of subparagraph (A).

This paragraph does not authorize the release of any data which discloses processes used in the manufacturing or processing of a chemical substance or mixture or, in the case of a mixture, the release of data disclosing the portion of the mixture comprised by any of the chemical substances in the mixture.

(2) If a request is made to the Administrator under subsection (a) of section 552 of title 5, United States Code, for information which is described in the first sentence of paragraph (1) and which is not information described in the second sentence of such paragraph, the Administrator may not deny such request on the basis of subsection (b)(4) of such section.

(c) DESIGNATION AND RELEASE OF CONFIDENTIAL DATA.—(1) In submitting data under this Act, a manufacturer, processor, or distributor in commerce may (A) designate the data which such person believes is entitled to confidential treatment under subsection (a), and (B) submit such designated data separately from other data submitted under this Act. A designation under this paragraph shall be made in writing and in such manner as the Administrator may prescribe.

(2) (A) Except as provided by subparagraph (B), if the Administrator proposes to release for inspection data which has been designated under paragraph (1)(A), the Administrator shall notify, in writing and by certified mail, the manufacturer, processor, or distributor in commerce who submitted such data of the intent to release such data. If the release of such data is to be made pursuant to a request made under section 552(a) of title 5, United States Code, such notice shall be given immediately upon approval of such request by the Administrator. The Administrator may not release such data until the expiration of 30 days after the manufacturer, processor, or distributor in commerce submitting such data has received the notice required by this subparagraph.

(B) (1) Subparagraph (A) shall not apply to the release of information under paragraph (1), (2), (3), or (4) of subsection (a), except that the Administrator may not release data under paragraph (3) of subsection (a) unless the Administrator has notified each manufacturer, processor, and distributor in commerce who submitted such data of such release. Such notice shall be made in writing by certified mail at least 15 days before the release of such data, except that if the Administrator determines that the release of such data is necessary to protect against an imminent, unreasonable risk of injury to health or the environment, such notice may be made by such means as the Administrator determines will provide notice at least 24 hours before such release is made.

(ii) Subparagraph (A) shall not apply to the release of information described in subsection (b) (1) other than information described in the second sentence of such subsection.

(d) CRIMINAL PENALTY FOR WRONGFUL DISCLOSURE.—(1) Any officer or employee of the United States or former officer or employee of the United States, who by virtue of such employment or official position has obtained possession of, or has access to, material the disclosure of which is prohibited by subsection (a), and who knowing that disclosure of such material is prohibited by such subsection, willfully discloses the material in any manner to any person not entitled to receive it, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and fined not more than $5,000 or imprisoned for not more than one year, or both. Section 1905 of title 18, United States Code, does not apply with respect to the publishing, divulging, disclosure, or making known of, or making available, information reported or otherwise obtained under this Act.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1), any contractor with the United States who is furnished information as authorized by subsection (a) (2), and any employee of any such contractor, shall be considered to be an employee of the United States.

(e) ACCESS BY CONGRESS.—Notwithstanding any limitation contained in this section or any other provision of law, all information reported to or otherwise obtained by the Administrator (or any representative of the Administrator) under this Act shall be made available, upon written request of any duly authorized committee of the Congress, to such committee.

SEC. 15. PROHIBITED ACTS.

It shall be unlawful for any person to—

(1) fail or refuse to comply with (A) any rule promulgated or order issued under section 4, (B) any requirement prescribed by section 5 or 6, or (C) any rule promulgated or order issued under section 5 or 6;

(2) use for commercial purposes a chemical substance or mixture which such person knew or had reason to know was manufactured, processed, or distributed in commerce in violation of section 5 or 6, a rule or order under section 5 or 6, or an order issued in action brought under section 5 or 7;

(3) fail or refuse to (A) establish or maintain records, (B) submit reports, notices, or other information, or (C) permit access to or copying of records, as required by this Act or a rule thereunder; or

(4) fail or refuse to permit entry or inspection as required by section 11.
SEC. 16. PENALTIES.

(a) Civil.—(1) Any person who violates a provision of section 15 shall be liable to the United States for a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed $25,000 for each such violation. Each day such a violation continues shall, for purposes of this subsection, constitute a separate violation of section 15.

(2)(A) A civil penalty for a violation of section 15 shall be assessed by the Administrator by an order made on the record after opportunity (provided in accordance with this subparagraph) for a hearing in accordance with section 554 of title 5, United States Code. Before issuing such an order, the Administrator shall give written notice to the person to be assessed a civil penalty under such order and provide such person an opportunity to request, within 15 days of the date the notice is received by such person, such a hearing on the order.

(B) In determining the amount of a civil penalty, the Administrator shall take into account the nature, circumstances, extent, and gravity of the violation or violations and, with respect to the violator, ability to pay, effect on ability to continue to do business, any history of prior such violations, the degree of culpability, and such other matters as justice may require.

(C) The Administrator may compromise, modify, or remit, with or without conditions, any civil penalty which may be imposed under this subsection. The amount of such penalty, when finally determined, or the amount agreed upon in compromise, may be deducted from any sums owing by the United States to the person charged.

(3) Any person who requested in accordance with paragraph (2) a hearing respecting the assessment of a civil penalty and who is aggrieved by an order assessing a civil penalty may file a petition for judicial review of such order with the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit or for any other circuit in which such person resides or transacts business. Such a petition may only be filed within the 30-day period beginning on the date the order making such assessment was issued.

(4) If any person fails to pay an assessment of a civil penalty—

(A) after the order making the assessment has become a final order and if such person does not file a petition for judicial review of the order in accordance with paragraph (3), or

(B) after a court in an action brought under paragraph (3) has entered a final judgment in favor of the Administrator, the Attorney General shall recover the amount assessed (plus interest at currently prevailing rates from the date of the expiration of the 30-day period referred to in paragraph (3) or the date of such final judgment, as the case may be) in an action brought in any appropriate district court of the United States. In such an action, the validity, amount, and appropriateness of such penalty shall not be subject to review.

(b) Criminal.—Any person who knowingly or willfully violates any provision of section 15 shall, in addition to or in lieu of any civil penalty which may be imposed under subsection (a) of this section for such violation, be subject, upon conviction, to a fine of not more than $25,000 for each day of violation, or to imprisonment for not more than one year, or both.

SEC. 17. SPECIFIC ENFORCEMENT AND SEIZURE.

(a) Specific Enforcement.—(1) The district courts of the United States shall have jurisdiction over civil actions to—

(A) restrain any violation of section 15,
(B) restrain any person from taking any action prohibited by section 5 or 6 or by a rule or order under section 5 or 6,
(C) compel the taking of any action required by or under this Act, or
(D) direct any manufacturer or processor of a chemical substance or mixture manufactured or processed in violation of section 5 or 6 or a rule or order under section 5 or 6 and distributed in commerce, (i) to give notice of such fact to distributors in commerce of such substance or mixture and, to the extent reasonably ascertainable, to other persons in possession of such substance or mixture or exposed to such substance or mixture, (ii) to give public notice of such risk of injury, and (iii) to either replace or repurchase such substance or mixture, whichever the person to which the requirement is directed elects.

(2) A civil action described in paragraph (1) may be brought—
(A) in the case of a civil action described in subparagraph (A) of such paragraph, in the United States district court for the judicial district wherein any act, omission, or transaction constituting a violation of section 15 occurred or wherein the defendant is found or transacts business, or
(B) in the case of any other civil action described in such paragraph, in the United States district court for the judicial district wherein the defendant is found or transacts business.

In any such civil action process may be served on a defendant in any judicial district in which a defendant resides or may be found. Subpoenas requiring attendance of witnesses in any such action may be served in any judicial district.

(b) SEIZURE.—Any chemical substance or mixture which was manufactured, processed, or distributed in commerce in violation of this Act or any rule promulgated or order issued under this Act or any article containing such a substance or mixture shall be liable to be proceeded against, by process of libel for the seizure and condemnation of such substance, mixture, or article, in any district court of the United States within the jurisdiction of which such substance, mixture, or article is found. Such proceedings shall conform as nearly as possible to proceedings in rem in admiralty.

SEC. 18. PREEMPTION.

15 USC 2617.

(a) EFFECT ON STATE LAW.—(1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), nothing in this Act shall affect the authority of any State or political subdivision of a State to establish or continue in effect regulation of any chemical substance, mixture, or article containing a chemical substance or mixture.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (b)—

(A) if the Administrator requires by a rule promulgated under section 4 the testing of a chemical substance or mixture, no State or political subdivision may, after the effective date of such rule, establish or continue in effect a requirement for the testing of such substance or mixture for purposes similar to those for which testing is required under such rule; and

(B) if the Administrator prescribes a rule or order under section 5 or 6 (other than a rule imposing a requirement described in subsection (a) (6) of section 6) which is applicable to a chemical substance or mixture, and which is designed to protect against a risk of injury to health or the environment associated with such substance or mixture, no State or political subdivision of a State may, after the effective date of such requirement, establish or continue in effect, any requirement which is applicable to such substance or mixture, or an article containing such substance or mixture, and which is designed to protect against such risk unless such requirement (i) is identical to the requirement prescribed by the Administrator, (ii) is adopted under the authority of the Clean Air Act or any other Federal law, or (iii) prohibits the use of such substance or mixture in such State or political subdivision (other than its use in the manufacture or processing of other substances or mixtures).

(b) Exemption.—Upon application of a State or political subdivision of a State the Administrator may by rule exempt from subsection (a)(2), under such conditions as may be prescribed in such rule, a requirement of such State or political subdivision designed to protect against a risk of injury to health or the environment associated with a chemical substance, mixture, or article containing a chemical substance or mixture if—

(1) compliance with the requirement would not cause the manufacturing, processing, distribution in commerce, or use of the substance, mixture, or article to be in violation of the applicable requirement under this Act described in subsection (a)(2), and

(2) the State or political subdivision requirement (A) provides a significantly higher degree of protection from such risk than the requirement under this Act described in subsection (a)(2) and (B) does not, through difficulties in marketing, distribution, or other factors, unduly burden interstate commerce.

SEC. 19. JUDICIAL REVIEW.

(a) In General.—(1) (A) Not later than 60 days after the date of the promulgation of a rule under section 4(a), 5(a)(2), 5(b)(4), 6(a), 6(e), or 8, any person may file a petition for judicial review of such rule with the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit or for the circuit in which such person resides or in which such person’s principal place of business is located. Courts of appeals of the United States shall have exclusive jurisdiction of any action to obtain judicial review (other than in an enforcement proceeding) of such a rule if any district court of the United States would have had jurisdiction of such action but for this subparagraph.

(B) Courts of appeals of the United States shall have exclusive jurisdiction of any action to obtain judicial review (other than in an enforcement proceeding) of an order issued under subparagraph (A) or (B) of section 6(b)(1) if any district court of the United States would have had jurisdiction of such action but for this subparagraph.

(2) Copies of any petition filed under paragraph (1) (A) shall be transmitted forthwith to the Administrator and to the Attorney General by the clerk of the court with which such petition was filed. The provisions of section 2112 of title 28, United States Code, shall apply to the filing of the rulemaking record of proceedings on which the Administrator based the rule being reviewed under this section and to the transfer of proceedings between United States courts of appeals.

(3) For purposes of this section, the term “rulemaking record” means—

(A) the rule being reviewed under this section;

(B) in the case of a rule under section 4(a), the finding required by such section, in the case of a rule under section 5(b)(4), the finding required by such section, in the case of a rule under section 6(a) the finding required by section 5(f) or 6(a), as the case may be, in the case of a rule under section 6(a), the statement required by section 6(c)(1), and in the case of a rule under section 6(e), the findings required by paragraph (2) (B) or (3) (B) of such section, as the case may be;
(C) any transcript required to be made of oral presentations made in proceedings for the promulgation of such rule;

(D) any written submission of interested parties respecting the promulgation of such rule; and

(E) any other information which the Administrator considers to be relevant to such rule and which the Administrator identified, on or before the date of the promulgation of such rule, in a notice published in the Federal Register.

(b) ADDITIONAL SUBMISSIONS AND PRESENTATIONS; MODIFICATIONS.—If in an action under this section to review a rule the petitioner or the Administrator applies to the court for leave to make additional oral submissions or written presentations respecting such rule and shows to the satisfaction of the court that such submissions and presentations would be material and that there were reasonable grounds for the submissions and failure to make such submissions and presentations in the proceeding before the Administrator, the court may order the Administrator to provide additional opportunity to make such submissions and presentations. The Administrator may modify or set aside the rule being reviewed or make a new rule by reason of the additional submissions and presentations and shall file such modified or new rule with the return of such submissions and presentations. The court shall thereafter review such new or modified rule.

(c) STANDARD OF REVIEW.—(1)(A) Upon the filing of a petition under subsection (a)(1) for judicial review of a rule, the court shall have jurisdiction (i) to grant appropriate relief, including interim relief, as provided in chapter 7 of title 5, United States Code, and (ii) except as otherwise provided in subparagraph (B), to review such rule in accordance with chapter 7 of title 5, United States Code.

(B) Section 706 of title 5, United States Code, shall apply to review of a rule under this section, except that—

(i) in the case of review of a rule under section 4(a), 5(b)(4), 6(a), or 6(e), the standard for review prescribed by paragraph (2)(E) of such section 706 shall not apply and the court shall hold unlawful and set aside such rule if the court finds that the rule is not supported by substantial evidence in the rulemaking record (as defined in subsection (a)(3)) taken as a whole;

(ii) in the case of review of a rule under section 6(a), the court shall hold unlawful and set aside such rule if it finds that—

(I) a determination by the Administrator under section 6(c)(3) that the petitioner seeking review of such rule is not entitled to conduct (or have conducted) cross-examination or to present rebuttal submissions, or

(II) a rule of, or ruling by, the Administrator under section 6(c)(3) limiting such petitioner's cross-examination or oral presentations, has precluded disclosure of disputed material facts which was necessary to a fair determination by the Administrator of the rulemaking proceeding taken as a whole; and section 706(2)(D) shall not apply with respect to a determination, rule, or ruling referred to in subclause (I) or (II); and

(iii) the court may not review the contents and adequacy of—

(I) any statement required to be made pursuant to section 6(c)(1), or

(II) any statement of basis and purpose required by section 553(c) of title 5, United States Code, to be incorporated in the rule except as part of a review of the rulemaking record taken as a whole.
The term "evidence" as used in clause (i) means any matter in the rulemaking record.

(C) A determination, rule, or ruling of the Administrator described in subparagraph (B)(ii) may be reviewed only in an action under this section and only in accordance with such subparagraph.

(2) The judgment of the court affirming or setting aside, in whole or in part, any rule reviewed in accordance with this section shall be final, subject to review by the Supreme Court of the United States upon certiorari or certification, as provided in section 1254 of title 28, United States Code.

(d) Fees and Costs.—The decision of the court in an action commenced under subsection (a), or of the Supreme Court of the United States on review of such a decision, may include an award of costs of suit and reasonable fees for attorneys and expert witnesses if the court determines that such an award is appropriate.

(e) Other Remedies.—The remedies as provided in this section shall be in addition to and not in lieu of any other remedies provided by law.

SEC. 20. CITIZENS' CIVIL ACTIONS.

(a) In General.—Except as provided in subsection (b), any person may commence a civil action—

(1) against any person (including (A) the United States, and (B) any other governmental instrumentality or agency to the extent permitted by the eleventh amendment to the Constitution) who is alleged to be in violation of this Act or any rule promulgated under section 4, 5, or 6 or order issued under section 5 to restrain such violation, or

(2) against the Administrator to compel the Administrator to perform any act or duty under this Act which is not discretionary.

Any civil action under paragraph (1) shall be brought in the United States district court for the district in which the alleged violation occurred or in which the defendant resides or in which the defendant’s principal place of business is located. Any action brought under paragraph (2) shall be brought in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia, or the United States district court for the judicial district in which the plaintiff is domiciled. The district courts of the United States shall have jurisdiction over suits brought under this section, without regard to the amount in controversy or the citizenship of the parties. In any civil action under this subsection process may be served on a defendant in any judicial district in which the defendant resides or may be found and subpoenas for witnesses may be served in any judicial district.

(b) Limitation.—No civil action may be commenced—

(1) under subsection (a)(1) to restrain a violation of this Act or rule or order under this Act—

(A) before the expiration of 60 days after the plaintiff has given notice of such violation (i) to the Administrator, and (ii) to the person who is alleged to have committed such violation, or

(B) if the Administrator has commenced and is diligently prosecuting a proceeding for the issuance of an order under section 16(a)(2) to require compliance with this Act or with such rule or order or if the Attorney General has commenced and is diligently prosecuting a civil action in a court of the United States to require compliance with this Act or with such rule or order, but if such proceeding or civil action is commenced after the giving of notice, any person giving such notice may intervene as a matter of right in such proceeding or action; or
(2) under subsection (a) (2) before the expiration of 60 days after the plaintiff has given notice to the Administrator of the alleged failure of the Administrator to perform an act or duty which is the basis for such action or, in the case of an action under such subsection for the failure of the Administrator to file an action under section 7, before the expiration of ten days after such notification.

Rule.

Notice under this subsection shall be given in such manner as the Administrator shall prescribe by rule.

(c) General.—(1) In any action under this section, the Administrator, if not a party, may intervene as a matter of right.

(2) The court, in issuing any final order in any action brought pursuant to subsection (a), may award costs of suit and reasonable fees for attorneys and expert witnesses if the court determines that such an award is appropriate. Any court, in issuing its decision in an action brought to review such an order, may award costs of suit and reasonable fees for attorneys if the court determines that such an award is appropriate.

(3) Nothing in this section shall restrict any right which any person (or class of persons) may have under any statute or common law to seek enforcement of this Act or any rule or order under this Act or to seek any other relief.

(d) Consolidation.—When two or more civil actions brought under subsection (a) involving the same defendant and the same issues or violations are pending in two or more judicial districts, such pending actions, upon application of such defendants to such actions which is made to a court in which any such action is brought, may, if such court in its discretion so decides, be consolidated for trial by order (issued after giving all parties reasonable notice and opportunity to be heard) of such court and tried in—

(1) any district which is selected by such defendant and in which one of such actions is pending,

(2) a district which is agreed upon by stipulation between all the parties to such actions and in which one of such actions is pending, or

(3) a district which is selected by the court and in which one of such actions is pending.

The court issuing such an order shall give prompt notification of the order to the other courts in which the civil actions consolidated under the order are pending.

SEC. 21. CITIZENS' PETITIONS.

(a) In general.—Any person may petition the Administrator to initiate a proceeding for the issuance, amendment, or repeal of a rule under section 4, 6, or 8 or an order under section 5(e) or 6(b)(2).

(b) Procedures.—(1) Such petition shall be filed in the principal office of the Administrator and shall set forth the facts which it is claimed establish that it is necessary to issue, amend, or repeal a rule under section 4, 6, or 8 or an order under section 5(e), 6(b)(1)(A), or 6(b)(1)(B).

(2) The Administrator may hold a public hearing or may conduct such investigation or proceeding as the Administrator deems appropriate in order to determine whether or not such petition should be granted.

(3) Within 90 days after filing of a petition described in paragraph (1), the Administrator shall either grant or deny the petition. If the Administrator grants such petition, the Administrator shall promptly commence an appropriate proceeding in accordance with section 4, 5, 6, or 8. If the Administrator denies such petition, the Administrator shall publish in the Federal Register the Administrator’s reasons for such denial.

(4) (A) If the Administrator denies a petition filed under this section (or if the Administrator fails to grant or deny such petition within the 90-day period) the petitioner may commence a civil action in a district court of the United States to compel the Administrator to initiate a rulemaking proceeding as requested in the petition. Any such action shall be filed within 60 days after the Administrator’s denial of the petition or, if the Administrator fails to grant or deny the petition within 90 days after filing the petition, within 60 days after the expiration of the 90-day period.

(B) In an action under subparagraph (A) respecting a petition to initiate a proceeding to issue a rule under section 4, 6, or 8 or an order under section 5(e) or 6(b)(2), the petitioner shall be provided an opportunity to have such petition considered by the court in a de novo proceeding. If the petitioner demonstrates to the satisfaction of the court by a preponderance of the evidence that—

(i) in the case of a petition to initiate a proceeding for the issuance of a rule under section 4 or an order under section 5(e)—

(I) information available to the Administrator is insufficient to permit a reasoned evaluation of the health and environmental effects of the chemical substance to be subject to such rule or order; and

(II) in the absence of such information, the substance may present an unreasonable risk to health or the environment, or the substance is or will be produced in substantial quantities and it enters or may reasonably be anticipated to enter the environment in substantial quantities or there is or may be significant or substantial human exposure to it; or

(ii) in the case of a petition to initiate a proceeding for the issuance of a rule under section 6 or 8 or an order under section 6(b)(2), there is a reasonable basis to conclude that the issuance of such a rule or order is necessary to protect health or the environment against an unreasonable risk of injury to health or the environment.

the court shall order the Administrator to initiate the action requested by the petitioner. If the court finds that the extent of the risk to health or the environment alleged by the petitioner is less than the extent of risks to health or the environment with respect to which the Administrator is taking action under this Act and there are insufficient resources available to the Administrator to take the action requested by the petitioner, the court may permit the Administrator to defer initiating the action requested by the petitioner until such time as the court prescribes.

(C) The court in issuing any final order in any action brought pursuant to subparagraph (A) may award costs of suit and reasonable fees for attorneys and expert witnesses if the court determines that such an award is appropriate. Any court, in issuing its decision in an action brought to review such an order, may award costs of suit and reasonable fees for attorneys if the court determines that such an award is appropriate.

(5) The remedies under this section shall be in addition to, and not in lieu of, other remedies provided by law.
SEC. 22. NATIONAL DEFENSE WAIVER.

The Administrator shall waive compliance with any provision of this Act upon a request and determination by the President that the requested waiver is necessary in the interest of national defense. The Administrator shall maintain a written record of the basis upon which such waiver was granted and make such record available for in camera examination when relevant in a judicial proceeding under this Act. Upon the issuance of such a waiver, the Administrator shall publish in the Federal Register a notice that the waiver was granted for national defense purposes, unless, upon the request of the President, the Administrator determines to omit such publication because the publication itself would be contrary to the interests of national defense, in which event the Administrator shall submit notice thereof to the Armed Services Committees of the Senate and the House of Representatives.

SEC. 23. EMPLOYEE PROTECTION.

(a) In General.—No employer may discharge any employee or otherwise discriminate against any employee with respect to the employee's compensation, terms, conditions, or privileges of employment because the employee (or any person acting pursuant to a request of the employee) has—

(1) commenced, caused to be commenced, or is about to commence or cause to be commenced a proceeding under this Act;

(2) testified or is about to testify in any such proceeding; or

(3) assisted or participated or is about to assist or participate in any manner in such a proceeding or in any other action to carry out the purposes of this Act.

(b) Remedy.—(1) Any employee who believes that the employee has been discharged or otherwise discriminated against by any person in violation of subsection (a) of this section may, within 30 days after such alleged violation occurs, file (or have any person file on the employee's behalf) a complaint with the Secretary of Labor (hereinafter in this section referred to as the "Secretary") alleging such discharge or discrimination. Upon receipt of such a complaint, the Secretary shall notify the person named in the complaint of the filing of the complaint.

(2) (A) Upon receipt of a complaint filed under paragraph (1), the Secretary shall conduct an investigation of the violation alleged in the complaint. Within 30 days of the receipt of such complaint, the Secretary shall complete such investigation and shall notify in writing the complainant (and any person acting on behalf of the complainant) and the person alleged to have committed such violation of the results of the investigation conducted pursuant to this paragraph. Within ninety days of the receipt of such complaint the Secretary shall, unless the proceeding on the complaint is terminated by the Secretary on the basis of a settlement entered into by the Secretary and the person alleged to have committed such violation, issue an order either providing the relief prescribed by subparagraph (B) or denying the complaint. An order of the Secretary shall be made on the record after notice and opportunity for agency hearing. The Secretary may not enter into a settlement terminating a proceeding on a complaint without the participation and consent of the complainant.

(B) If in response to a complaint filed under paragraph (1) the Secretary determines that a violation of subsection (a) of this section has occurred, the Secretary shall order (i) the person who committed such violation to take affirmative action to abate the violation, (ii) such person to reinstate the complainant to the complainant's former position together with the compensation (including back pay), terms, conditions, and privileges of the complainant's employment, (iii) compensatory damages, and (iv) where appropriate, exemplary damages. If such an order issued, the Secretary, at the request of the complainant, shall assess against the person against whom the order is issued a sum equal to the aggregate amount of all costs and expenses (including attorney's fees) reasonably incurred, as determined by the Secretary, by the complainant for, or in connection with, the bringing of the complaint upon which the order was issued.

(c) Review.—(1) Any employee or employer adversely affected or aggrieved by an order issued under subsection (b) may obtain review of the order in the United States Court of Appeals for the circuit in which the violation, with respect to which the order was issued, allegedly occurred. The petition for review must be filed within sixty days from the issuance of the Secretary's order. Review shall conform to chapter 7 of title 5 of the United States Code.

(2) An order of the Secretary, with respect to which review could have been obtained under paragraph (1), shall not be subject to judicial review in any criminal or other civil proceeding.

(d) Enforcement.—Whenever a person has failed to comply with an order issued under subsection (b)(2), the Secretary shall file a civil action in the United States district court for the district in which the violation was found to occur to enforce such order. In actions brought under this subsection, the district courts shall have jurisdiction to grant all appropriate relief, including injunctive relief and compensatory and exemplary damages. Civil actions brought under this subsection shall be heard and decided expeditiously.

(e) Exclusion.—Subsection (a) of this section shall not apply with respect to any employee who, acting without direction from the employee's employer (or any agent of the employer), deliberately causes a violation of any requirement of this Act.

SEC. 24. EMPLOYMENT EFFECTS.

(a) In General.—The Administrator shall evaluate on a continuing basis the potential effects on employment (including reductions in employment or loss of employment from threatened plant closures) of—

(1) the issuance of a rule or order under section 4, 5, or 6, or
(2) a requirement of section 5 or 6.

(b) (1) Investigations.—Any employee (or any representative of an employee) may request the Administrator to make an investigation of—

(A) a discharge or layoff or threatened discharge or layoff of the employee, or
(B) adverse or threatened adverse effects on the employee's employment, allegedly resulting from a rule or order under section 4, 5, or 6 or a requirement of section 5 or 6. Any such request shall be made in writing, shall set forth with reasonable particularity the grounds for the request, and shall be signed by the employee, or representative of such employee, making the request.

(2) (A) Upon receipt of a request made in accordance with paragraph (1) the Administrator shall (i) conduct the investigation requested, and (ii) if requested by any interested person, hold public hearings on any matter involved in the investigation unless the Administrator, by order issued within 45 days of the date such hearings are requested, denies the request for the hearings because the Administrator determines there are no reasonable grounds for holding such hearings. If the Administrator makes such a determination, the Administrator shall notify in writing the person requesting the hearing of the determination and the reasons therefor and shall publish the determination and the reasons therefor in the Federal Register.

(B) If public hearings are to be held on any matter involved in an investigation conducted under this subsection—

(i) at least five days' notice shall be provided the person making the request for the investigation and any person identified in such request,
(ii) such hearings shall be held in accordance with section 6(c)(3), and
(iii) each employee who made or for whom was made a request for such hearings and the employer of such employee shall be required to present information respecting the applicable matter referred to in paragraph (1)(A) or (1)(B) together with the basis for such information.

Recommenda-

(3) Upon completion of an investigation under paragraph (2), the Administrator shall make findings of fact, shall make such recommendations as the Administrator deems appropriate, and shall make available to the public such findings and recommendations.

(4) This section shall not be construed to require the Administrator to amend or repeal any rule or order in effect under this Act.

SEC. 25. STUDIES.

15 USC 2624.

(a) INDEMNIFICATION STUDY.—The Administrator shall conduct a study of all Federal laws administered by the Administrator for the purpose of determining whether and under what conditions, if any, indemnification should be accorded any person as a result of any action taken by the Administrator under any such law. The study shall—

(1) include an estimate of the probable cost of any indemnification programs which may be recommended;
(2) include an examination of all viable means of financing the cost of any recommended indemnification; and
(3) be completed and submitted to Congress within two years from the effective date of enactment of this Act.

The General Accounting Office shall review the adequacy of the study submitted to Congress pursuant to paragraph (3) and shall report the results of its review to the Congress within six months of the date such study is submitted to Congress.

(b) CLASSIFICATION, STORAGE, AND RETRIEVAL STUDY.—The Council on Environmental Quality, in consultation with the Administrator, the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare, the Secretary of Commerce, and the heads of other appropriate Federal departments or agencies, shall coordinate a study of the feasibility of establishing (1) a standard classification system for chemical substances and related substances, and (2) a standard means for storing and for obtaining rapid access to information respecting such substances. A report on such study shall be completed and submitted to Congress not later than 18 months after the effective date of enactment of this Act.

SEC. 26. ADMINISTRATION OF THE ACT.

15 USC 2625.

(a) COOPERATION OF FEDERAL AGENCIES.—Upon request by the Administrator, each Federal department and agency is authorized—

(1) to make its services, personnel, and facilities available (with or without reimbursement) to the Administrator to assist the Administrator in the administration of this Act; and
(2) to furnish to the Administrator such information, data, estimates, and statistics, and to allow the Administrator access to all information in its possession as the Administrator may reasonably determine to be necessary for the administration of this Act.

(b) Fees.—(1) The Administrator may, by rule, require the payment of a reasonable fee from any person required to submit data under section 4 or 5 to defray the cost of administering this Act. Such rules shall not provide for any fee in excess of $2,500 or, in the case of a small business concern, any fee in excess of $100. In setting a fee under this paragraph, the Administrator shall take into account the ability to pay of the person required to submit the data and the cost to the Administrator of reviewing such data. Such rules may provide for sharing such a fee in any case in which the expenses of testing are shared under section 4 or 5.

(2) The Administrator, after consultation with the Administrator of the Small Business Administration, shall by rule prescribe standards for determining the persons which qualify as small business concerns for purposes of paragraph (1).

(c) Action With Respect to Categories.—(1) Any action authorized or required to be taken by the Administrator under any provision of this Act with respect to a chemical substance or mixture may be taken by the Administrator in accordance with that provision with respect to a category of chemical substances or mixtures. Whenever the Administrator takes action under a provision of this Act with respect to a category of chemical substances or mixtures, any reference in this Act to a chemical substance or mixture (insofar as it relates to such action) shall be deemed to be a reference to each chemical substance or mixture in such category.

(2) For purposes of paragraph (1):

(A) The term “category of chemical substances” means a group of chemical substances the members of which are similar in molecular structure, in physical, chemical, or biological properties, in use, or in mode of entrance into the human body or into the environment, or the members of which are in some other way suitable for classification as such for purposes of this Act, except that such term does not mean a group of chemical substances which are grouped together solely on the basis of their being new chemical substances.

(B) The term “category of mixtures” means a group of mixtures the members of which are similar in molecular structure, in physical, chemical, or biological properties, in use, or in the mode of entrance into the human body or into the environment, or the members of which are in some other way suitable for classification as such for purposes of this Act.

(d) Assistance Office.—The Administrator shall establish in the Environmental Protection Agency an identifiable office to provide technical and other nonfinancial assistance to manufacturers and processors of chemical substances and mixtures respecting the requirements of this Act applicable to such manufacturers and processors, the policy of the Agency respecting the application of such requirements to such manufacturers and processors, and the means and methods by which such manufacturers and processors may comply with such requirements.

(e) Financial Disclosures.—(1) Except as provided under paragraph (3), each officer or employee of the Environmental Protection Agency and the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare who—

(A) performs any function or duty under this Act, and
(B) has any known financial interest (i) in any person subject to this Act or any rule or order in effect under this Act, or (ii) in any person who applies for or receives any grant or contract under this Act, shall, on February 1, 1978, and on February 1 of each year thereafter, file with the Administrator or the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare (hereinafter in this subsection referred to as the "Secretary"), as appropriate, a written statement concerning all such interests held by such officer or employee during the preceding calendar year. Such statement shall be made available to the public.

(2) The Administrator and the Secretary shall—

(A) act within 90 days of the effective date of this Act—

(i) to define the term "known financial interests" for purposes of paragraph (1), and

(ii) to establish the methods by which the requirement to file written statements specified in paragraph (1) will be monitored and enforced, including appropriate provisions for review by the Administrator and the Secretary of such statements; and

(B) report to the Congress on June 1, 1978, and on June 1 of each year thereafter with respect to such statements and the actions taken in regard thereto during the preceding calendar year.

(3) The Administrator may by rule identify specific positions with the Environmental Protection Agency, and the Secretary may by rule identify specific positions with the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, which are of a nonregulatory or nonpolicymaking nature, and the Administrator and the Secretary may by rule provide that officers or employees occupying such positions shall be exempt from the requirements of paragraph (1).

(4) This subsection does not supersede any requirement of chapter 11 of title 18, United States Code.

(5) Any officer or employee who is subject to, and knowingly violates, this subsection or any rule issued thereunder, shall be fined not more than $2,500 or imprisoned not more than one year, or both.

(f) STATEMENT OF BASIS AND PURPOSE.—Any final order issued under this Act shall be accompanied by a statement of its basis and purpose. The contents and adequacy of any such statement shall not be subject to judicial review in any respect.

(g) ASSISTANT ADMINISTRATOR.—(1) The President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall appoint an Assistant Administrator for Toxic Substances of the Environmental Protection Agency. Such Assistant Administrator shall be a qualified individual who is, by reason of background and experience, especially qualified to direct a program concerning the effects of chemicals on human health and the environment. Such Assistant Administrator shall be responsible for (A) the collection of data, (B) the preparation of studies, (C) the making of recommendations to the Administrator for regulatory and other actions to carry out the purposes and to facilitate the administration of this Act, and (D) such other functions as the Administrator may assign or delegate.

(2) The Assistant Administrator to be appointed under paragraph (1) shall (A) be in addition to the Assistant Administrators of the Environmental Protection Agency authorized by section 1(d) of Reorganization Plan No. 3 of 1970, and (B) be compensated at the rate of pay authorized for such Assistant Administrators.
SEC. 27. DEVELOPMENT AND EVALUATION OF TEST METHODS.

(a) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare, in consultation with the Administrator and acting through the Assistant Secretary for Health, may conduct, and make grants to public and nonprofit private entities and enter into contracts with public and private entities for, projects for the development and evaluation of inexpensive and efficient methods (1) for determining and evaluating the health and environmental effects of chemical substances and mixtures, and their toxicity, persistence, and other characteristics which affect health and the environment, and (2) which may be used for the development of test data to meet the requirements of rules promulgated under section 4. The Administrator shall consider such methods in prescribing under section 4 standards for the development of test data.

(b) APPROVAL BY SECRETARY.—No grant may be made or contract entered into under subsection (a) unless an application therefor has been submitted to and approved by the Secretary. Such an application shall be submitted in such form and manner and contain such information as the Secretary may require. The Secretary may apply such conditions to grants and contracts under subsection (a) as the Secretary determines are necessary to carry out the purposes of such subsection. Contracts may be entered into under such subsection without regard to sections 3648 and 3709 of the Revised Statutes (31 U.S.C. 529; 41 U.S.C. 5).

(c) ANNUAL REPORTS.—(1) The Secretary shall prepare and submit to the President and the Congress on or before January 1 of each year a report of the number of grants made and contracts entered into under this section and the results of such grants and contracts.

(2) The Secretary shall periodically publish in the Federal Register reports describing the progress and results of any contract entered into or grant made under this section.

SEC. 28. STATE PROGRAMS.

(a) IN GENERAL.—For the purpose of complementing (but not reducing) the authority of, or actions taken by, the Administrator under this Act, the Administrator may make grants to States for the establishment and operation of programs to prevent or eliminate unreasonable risks within the States to health or the environment which are associated with a chemical substance or mixture and with respect to which the Administrator is unable or is not likely to take action under this Act for their prevention or elimination. The amount of a grant under this subsection shall be determined by the Administrator, except that no grant for any State program may exceed 75 per centum of the establishment and operation costs (as determined by the Administrator) of such program during the period for which the grant is made.

(b) APPROVAL BY ADMINISTRATOR.—(1) No grant may be made under subsection (a) unless an application therefor is submitted to and approved by the Administrator. Such an application shall be submitted in such form and manner as the Administrator may require and shall—

(A) set forth the need of the applicant for a grant under subsection (a),

(B) identify the agency or agencies of the State which shall establish or operate, or both, the program for which the application is submitted,

(C) describe the actions proposed to be taken under such program,
(D) contain or be supported by assurances satisfactory to the Administrator that such program shall, to the extent feasible, be integrated with other programs of the applicant for environmental and public health protection,
 (E) provide for the making of such reports and evaluations as the Administrator may require, and
 (F) contain such other information as the Administrator may prescribe.

Application, approval.

(2) The Administrator may approve an application submitted in accordance with paragraph (1) only if the applicant has established to the satisfaction of the Administrator a priority need, as determined under rules of the Administrator, for the grant for which the application has been submitted. Such rules shall take into consideration the seriousness of the health effects in a State which are associated with chemical substances or mixtures, including cancer, birth defects, and gene mutations, the extent of the exposure in a State of human beings and the environment to chemical substances and mixtures, and the extent to which chemical substances and mixtures are manufactured, processed, used, and disposed of in a State.

Report to Congress.

(c) Annual Reports.—Not later than six months after the end of each of the fiscal years 1979, 1980, and 1981, the Administrator shall submit to the Congress a report respecting the programs assisted by grants under subsection (a) in the preceding fiscal year and the extent to which the Administrator has disseminated information respecting such programs.

(d) Authorization.—For the purpose of making grants under subsection (a) there are authorized to be appropriated $1,500,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1977, $1,500,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1978, and $1,500,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1979. Sums appropriated under this subsection shall remain available until expended.

There are authorized to be appropriated to the Administrator for purposes of carrying out this Act (other than sections 27 and 28 and subsections (a) and (c) through (g) of section 10 thereof) $10,100,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1977, $12,625,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1978, $16,200,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1979. No part of the funds appropriated under this section may be used to construct any research laboratories.

The Administrator shall prepare and submit to the President and the Congress on or before January 1, 1978, and on or before January 1 of each succeeding year a comprehensive report on the administration of this Act during the preceding fiscal year. Such report shall include—
 (1) a list of the testing required under section 4 during the year for which the report is made and an estimate of the costs incurred during such year by the persons required to perform such tests;
 (2) the number of notices received during such year under section 5, the number of such notices received during such year under such section for chemical substances subject to a section 4 rule, and a summary of any action taken during such year under section 5(g);
 (3) a list of rules issued during such year under section 6;
 (4) a list, with a brief statement of the issues, of completed or pending judicial actions under this Act and administrative actions under section 16 during such year;
(5) a summary of major problems encountered in the administration of this Act; and
(6) such recommendations for additional legislation as the Administrator deems necessary to carry out the purposes of this Act.

SEC. 31. EFFECTIVE DATE.
Except as provided in section 4(f), this Act shall take effect on January 1, 1977.

Approved October 11, 1976.

An Act

Authorizing appropriations to the National Science Foundation for fiscal year 1977.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That this Act may be cited as the “National Science Foundation Authorization Act, 1977.”

AUTHORIZATION FOR ACTIVITIES OF THE NATIONAL SCIENCE FOUNDATION

SEC. 2. (a) There is authorized to be appropriated to the National Science Foundation for the fiscal year 1977, for the following categories:

1. Mathematical and Physical Sciences and Engineering, $231,525,000.
2. Astronomical, Atmospheric, Earth and Ocean Sciences, $244,850,000.
3. Biological, Behavioral, and Social Sciences, $130,425,000.
4. Science Education Programs, $69,400,000.
5. Research Applied to National Needs, $69,000,000.
6. Scientific, Technological, and International Affairs, $22,000,000.
7. Program Development and Management, $43,500,000.

(b) The National Science Foundation shall recommend and encourage the pursuit of national policies designed to foster research and education in science and engineering, and the application of scientific and technical knowledge to the solution of national and international problems.

(c) The National Science Foundation is authorized and directed to provide assistance to the Office of Science and Technology Policy established by the “Presidential Science and Technology Advisory Organization Act of 1976” (42 U.S.C. 6611).

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of this or any other Act not less than 10 per centum of the amount authorized for category (5) of subsection (a) of this section shall be expended to small business concerns.

(e)(1) The National Science Foundation shall establish uniform procedures for establishing the responsibility for material published with the assistance of or under the sponsorship of the Foundation. The Foundation shall also establish procedures for reporting on the utilization of research projects assisted under the program “Research Applied to National Needs.”

(2) The National Science Foundation shall arrange for the dissemination of all substantive technical reports through the National Technical Information Service of the Department of Commerce.

(f) In the conduct of the energy research and development activities under the “Research Applied to National Needs” category, the National Science Foundation shall coordinate all new energy research project awards with the Administrator of the Energy Research and Development Administration or his designee.

(g) The Director of the National Science Foundation is authorized and directed to conduct a feasibility study of operating the peer review system used in the evaluation of grant proposals within the Foundation so as to assure that the identity of the proposer is not known to the reviewers of the proposal. Any such system shall be considered to supplement and not to supplant the peer review system in operation in the Foundation on the date of enactment of this Act.

(g) No funds may be transferred from any particular category listed in section 2(a) to any other category or categories listed in such section if the total of the funds so transferred from that particular category would exceed 10 per centum thereof, and no funds may be transferred to any particular category listed in section 2(a) from any other category or categories listed in such section if the total of the funds so transferred to that particular category would exceed 10 per centum thereof unless—

(1) a period of thirty legislative days has passed after the Director or his designate has transmitted to the Speaker of the House of Representatives and to the President of the Senate and to the Committee on Science and Technology of the House of Representatives and to the Committee on Labor and Public Welfare of the Senate a written report containing a full and complete statement concerning the nature of the transfer and the reason thereof, or

(2) each such committee before the expiration of such period has transmitted to the Director written notice to the effect that such committee has no objection to the proposed action.

INTERNATIONAL SCIENTIFIC RESEARCH, EDUCATION, AND POLICY ANALYSIS

Sec. 3. The National Science Foundation is authorized and directed to support basic and applied research and education programs, and to conduct and support policy analysis, information dissemination, and international cooperative programs consistent with the Nation’s foreign policy objectives designed to make the results of scientific research conducted abroad more readily available to United States scientists, engineers, and technologists, to promote international cooperation in science and technology, to assist in the resolution of critical and emerging problems with significant scientific or technical components, such as world food and population problems, and to insure full coordination of these programs with related activities conducted by other Federal agencies and organizations. The Director of the National Science Foundation shall consult with the Secretary of State to assure that the programs authorized under this section are consistent with the foreign policy objectives of the United States.

INTERDISCIPLINARY RESEARCH

Sec. 4. The National Science Foundation is directed to encourage and promote the conduct of interdisciplinary research through broadly based undergraduate interdisciplinary education programs, interdisciplinary research projects which provide for apprenticeship training, interdisciplinary fellowship programs, and arrangements for degree training, including postgraduate degrees in more than one discipline, in institutions of higher education.

SCIENCE FOR CITIZENS

Sec. 5. (a) The National Science Foundation is authorized and directed to conduct an experimental “Science for Citizens Program” and an augmented Public Understanding of Science Program under which funds will be available for pilot projects to:
(1) improve public understanding of science, engineering and technology and their impact on public policy issues.
(2) facilitate the participation of experienced scientists and engineers as well as graduate and undergraduate students in helping the public understand science, engineering and technology and their impact on public policies; and
(3) assist nationally recognized professional societies and groups serving important public purposes in conducting a limited number of forums, conferences, and workshops to increase public understanding of science and technology, and of their impact on public policy issues, after consideration of the following eligibility factors:
(A) the extent to which the proposal of the society or group will contribute to the development of facts, issues, and arguments relevant to public policy issues having significant scientific and technical aspects, and
(B) the ability of the society or group, using its own resources, to conduct such forums, conferences, and workshops.

(b) One or more review panels shall be established for the purpose of evaluating applications for awards under this section. The membership of each review panel shall have balanced representation from the scientific and nonscientific communities and the public and private sectors.

(c) No contract, grant or other arrangement shall be made under this Section without the prior approval of the National Science Board.

(d) To assist the Congress in evaluating activities initiated pursuant to this Section, the Director of the National Science Foundation, in consultation with a review panel having a balanced representation from the scientific and nonscientific community and the public and private sectors, is directed to prepare a comprehensive analysis and assessment of such activities to be submitted to the House Committee on Science and Technology and the Senate Committee on Labor and Public Welfare, not later than October 31, 1977. An interim report is required no later than March 1, 1977.

CONTINUING EDUCATION IN SCIENCE AND ENGINEERING

Sec. 6. (a) The National Science Foundation shall develop a program plan for continuing education in science and engineering in order to enable scientists and engineers who have been engaged in their careers for at least five years to pursue courses of study designed to—
(1) provide them with new knowledge, techniques, and skills in their special fields; or
(2) acquire new knowledge, techniques, and skills in other fields which will enable them to render more valuable contributions to the Nation.

(b) The program plan developed under this section shall include, but not be limited to—
(1) the development of special curricula and educational techniques for continuing education in science and technology; and
(2) the award of fellowships to scientists and engineers to enable them to pursue courses of study which provide continuing education in science and engineering.

(c) The Foundation is directed to provide the House Committee on Science and Technology and the Senate Committee on Labor and Pub-lie Welfare, not later than March 1, 1977, with a detailed report on the program plan developed under this section, including recommendations for its implementation in fiscal year 1978.

MINORITIES, WOMEN, AND HANDICAPPED INDIVIDUALS

Sec. 7. (a) The Director of the National Science Foundation shall initiate an intensive search for qualified women, members of minority groups, and handicapped individuals to fill executive level positions in the National Science Foundation. In carrying out the requirement of this subsection, the Director shall work closely with organizations which have been active in seeking greater recognition and utilization of the scientific and technical capabilities of minorities, women, and handicapped individuals. The Director shall improve the representation of minorities, women, and handicapped individuals on advisory committees, review panels, and all other mechanisms by which the scientific community provides assistance to the Foundation. The Director of the National Science Foundation shall report quarterly to the Congress on the status of minorities, women, and handicapped individuals and activities undertaken pursuant to this section.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this or any other Act, the National Science Foundation shall, with funds available from the program “Minorities, Women, and Handicapped Individuals in Science” conduct experimental forums, conferences, workshops or other activities designed to improve scientific literacy and to encourage and assist minorities, women, and handicapped individuals to undertake and to advance in careers in scientific research and science education.

(c)(1) In order to promote increased participation by minorities in careers in science and engineering, the National Science Foundation is authorized and directed to make available planning and study grants for programs including, but not limited to, Minority Centers for Graduate Education in Science and Engineering in accordance with this subsection.

(2) The grants for Minority Centers for Graduate Education shall be used to determine the need for and feasibility of developing Centers to be established at geographically dispersed educational institutions which—

(A) have substantial minority student enrollment;

(B) are geographically located near minority population centers;

(C) demonstrate a commitment to encouraging and assisting minority students, researchers, and faculty;

(D) have an existing or developing capacity to offer doctoral programs in science and engineering;

(E) will support basic research and the acquisition of necessary research facilities and equipment;

(F) will serve as a regional resource in science and engineering for the minority community which the Center is designed to serve;

and

(G) will develop joint educational programs with nearby undergraduate institutions of higher education which have a substantial minority student enrollment.

(3) The Director, in consultation with groups which have been active in seeking greater recognition of the scientific and technical capabilities of minorities, shall establish criteria for the award of the grants, and shall report to the Committee on Science and Technology subsection, not later than March 1, 1977.

OFFICE OF SMALL BUSINESS RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT

SEC. 8. The National Science Foundation is authorized and directed to establish an Office of Small Business Research and Development.
The Foundation through the Office of Small Business Research and Development and in cooperation and consultation with the Small Business Administration shall—

(1) foster communication between the National Science Foundation and the small business community, and insure that the set-aside for small business concerns provided under this Act or any other Act authorizing appropriations for the National Science Foundation is fully and effectively utilized;

(2) collect, analyze, compile, and publish information concerning grants and contracts awarded to small business concerns by the Foundation, and the procedures for handling proposals submitted by small business concerns;

(3) assist individual small business concerns in obtaining information regarding programs, policies, and procedures of the Foundation, and assure the expeditious processing of proposals by small business concerns based on scientific and technical merit;

(4) recommend to the Director and to the National Science Board such changes in the procedures and practices of the Foundation as may be required to enable the Foundation to draw fully on the resources of the small business research and development community; and

(5) make quarterly reports to the Congress concerning the activities of the Office of Small Business Research and Development.

NATIONAL SCIENCE BOARD

SEC. 9. (a) Section 4 of the National Science Foundation Act of 1950 is amended by inserting before the period at the end of subsection
(a) a comma and the following: “within the framework of applicable national policies as set forth by the President and the Congress”.

(b) Section 4(g) of such Act as redesignated by this section is amended—

(1) by inserting after “the Director,” the following: “after consultation with the Chairman of the Board”; and

(2) by striking out “GS-15” and inserting in lieu thereof “GS-18”.

LIMITATION

SEC. 10. (a) In addition to such sums as are authorized by section 2, not to exceed $6,000,000 is authorized to be appropriated for fiscal year 1977, for expenses of the National Science Foundation incurred outside the United States to be paid for in foreign currencies which the Treasury Department determines to be excess to the normal requirements of the United States.

(b) Appropriations made pursuant to this Act may be used, but not to exceed $5,000 for official consultation, representation, or other extraordinary expenses upon the approval or authority of the Director of the National Science Foundation, and his determination shall be final and conclusive upon the accounting officers of the Government.
(c) Appropriations made pursuant to this Act shall remain available for obligation, for expenditure, or for obligation and expenditure, for such period or periods as may be specified in Acts making such appropriations.

INFORMATION REQUIREMENT

Sec. 11. Notwithstanding any other provision of this or any other Act, the Director of the National Science Foundation shall keep the Committee on Science and Technology of the House of Representatives and the Committee on Labor and Public Welfare of the Senate fully and currently informed with respect to all of the activities of the National Science Foundation.

Approved October 11, 1976.

LEGISLATIVE HISTORY:

HOUSE REPORTS: No. 94–930 (Comm. on Science and Technology) and No. 94–1689 (Comm. of Conference).

SENATE REPORTS: No. 94–888 accompanying S. 3202 and No. 94–890 (both from Comm. on Labor and Public Welfare).

CONGRESSIONAL RECORD, Vol. 122 (1976):
Mar. 24, 25, considered and passed House.
May 27, considered and passed Senate, amended, in lieu of S. 3202.
Sept. 24, Senate agreed to conference report.
Sept. 29, House agreed to conference report.
FINDINGS AND PURPOSE

SEC. 2. (a) The Congress finds and declares that—

1. the United States Government is presently authorized to collect limited amounts of information on United States investment abroad and foreign investment in the United States;
2. international investment has increased rapidly within recent years;
3. such investment significantly affects the economies of the United States and other nations;
4. international efforts to obtain information on the activities of multinational enterprises and other international investors have accelerated recently;
5. the potential consequences of international investment cannot be evaluated accurately because the United States Government lacks sufficient information on such investment and its actual or possible effects on the national security, commerce, employment, inflation, general welfare, and foreign policy of the United States;
6. accurate and comprehensive information on international investment is needed by the Congress to develop an informed United States policy on such investment; and
7. existing estimates of international investment, collected under existing legal authority, are limited in scope and are based on outdated statistical bases, reports, and information which are insufficient for policy formulation and decisionmaking.

(b) It is therefore the purpose of this Act to provide clear and unambiguous authority for the President to collect information on international investment and to provide analyses of such information to the Congress, the executive agencies, and the general public. It is the intent of the Congress that information which is collected from the public under this Act be obtained with a minimum burden on business and other respondents and with no unnecessary duplication of effort, consistent with the national interest in obtaining comprehensive and reliable information on international investment.
(c) Nothing in this Act is intended to restrain or deter foreign investment in the United States or United States investment abroad.
DEFINITIONS

SEC. 3. As used in this Act, the term—

(1) "United States", when used in a geographic sense, means the several States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the Canal Zone, and all territories and possessions of the United States;

(2) "foreign", when used in a geographic sense, means that which is situated outside the United States or which belongs to or is characteristic of a country other than the United States;

(3) "person" means any individual, branch, partnership, associated group, association, estate, trust, corporation, or other organization (whether or not organized under the laws of any State), and any government (including a foreign government, the United States Government, a State or local government, and any agency, corporation, financial institution, or other entity or instrumentality thereof, including a government-sponsored agency);

(4) "United States person" means any person resident in the United States or subject to the jurisdiction of the United States;

(5) "foreign person" means any person resident outside the United States or subject to the jurisdiction of a country other than the United States;

(6) "business enterprise" means any organization, association, branch, or venture which exists for profitmaking purposes or to otherwise secure economic advantage, and any ownership of any real estate;

(7) "parent" means a person of one country who, directly or indirectly, owns or controls 10 per centum or more of the voting stock of an incorporated business enterprise, or an equivalent ownership interest in an unincorporated business enterprise, which is located outside that country;

(8) "affiliate" means a business enterprise located in one country which is directly or indirectly owned or controlled by a person of another country to the extent of 10 per centum or more of its voting stock for an incorporated business or an equivalent interest for an unincorporated business, including a branch;

(9) "international investment" means (A) the ownership or control, directly or indirectly, by contractual commitment or otherwise, by foreign persons of any interest in property in the United States, or of stock, other securities, or short- and long-term debt obligations of a United States person, and (B) the ownership or control, directly or indirectly, by contractual commitment or otherwise, by United States persons of any interest in property outside the United States, or of stock, other securities, or short- and long-term debt obligations of a foreign person;

(10) "direct investment" means the ownership or control, directly or indirectly, by one person of 10 per centum or more of the voting securities of an incorporated business enterprise or an equivalent interest in an unincorporated business enterprise; and

(11) "portfolio investment" means any international investment which is not direct investment.

AUTHORITY AND DUTIES

SEC. 4. (a) The President shall, to the extent he deems necessary and feasible—

(1) conduct a regular data collection program to secure current information on international capital flows and other information related to international investment, including (but not limited to) such information as may be necessary for computing and analyzing the United States balance of payments, the employment and taxes of United States parents and affiliates, and the international investment position of the United States;

(2) conduct such studies and surveys as may be necessary to prepare reports in a timely manner on specific aspects of international investment which may have significant implications for the economic welfare and national security of the United States;

(3) study the adequacy of information, disclosure, and reporting requirements and procedures relating to international investment; recommend necessary improvements in information recording, collection, and retrieval and in statistical analysis and presentation relating to international investment; and report periodically to the Committees on Foreign Relations and Commerce of the Senate and the Committee on International Relations of the House of Representatives on national and international developments with respect to laws and regulations affecting international investment; and

(4) publish for the use of the general public and United States Government agencies periodic, regular, and comprehensive statistical information collected pursuant to this subsection and to the benchmark surveys conducted pursuant to subsections (b) and (c).

(b) With respect to the United States direct investment abroad and foreign direct investment in the United States, the President shall conduct a comprehensive benchmark survey at least once every five years and, for such purpose, shall, among other things and to the extent he determines necessary and feasible—

(1) identify the location, nature, and magnitude of, and changes in total investment by any parent in each of its affiliates and the financial transactions between any parent and each of its affiliates;

(2) obtain (A) information on the balance sheet of parents and affiliates and related financial data, (B) income statements, including the gross sales by primary line of business (with as much product line detail as is necessary and feasible) of parents and affiliates in each country in which they have significant operations, and (C) related information regarding trade between a parent and each of its affiliates and between each parent or affiliate and any other person;

(3) collect employment data showing both the number of United States and foreign employees of each parent and affiliate and the levels of compensation, by country, industry, and skill level;

(4) obtain information on tax payments by parents and affiliates by country; and

(5) determine, by industry and country, the total dollar amount of research and development expenditures by each parent and affiliate, payments or other compensation for the transfer of technology between parents and their affiliates, and payments or other compensation received by parents or affiliates from the transfer of technology to other persons.

(c) (1) The President shall conduct a comprehensive benchmark survey of foreign portfolio investment in the United States at least once every five years and, for such purposes, shall (among other things and to the extent he determines necessary and feasible) determine the magnitude and aggregate value of portfolio investment, form of investments, types of investors, nationality of investors and recorded residence of foreign private holders, diversification of holdings by economic sector, and holders of record.

(2) In addition to the benchmark surveys conducted pursuant to paragraph (1), the President shall conduct a benchmark survey of Studies and surveys.

Periodic report to congressional committees.

Statistical information, publication.

Benchmark survey.

Financial data.

Employment data.

Foreign portfolio investment, benchmark survey.

U.S. portfolio investment abroad, benchmark survey.
United States portfolio investment abroad and, for such purpose, shall (among other things and to the extent he determines necessary and feasible) determine the magnitude and aggregate value of portfolio investment, form of investments, types of investors, nationality of investors and recorded residence of private holders, diversification of holdings by economic sector, and holders of record. The President shall complete such survey not later than the end of the five-year period beginning on the date of enactment of this Act. After completion of such survey, the President shall report to the Congress on the feasibility and desirability of conducting, on a periodic basis, additional benchmark surveys of United States portfolio investment abroad. If he determines that such additional benchmark surveys are feasible and desirable, he may conduct such surveys.

(d) The President shall conduct a study of the feasibility of establishing a system to monitor foreign direct investment in agricultural, rural, and urban real property, including the feasibility of establishing a nationwide multipurpose land data system, and shall submit his findings and conclusions to the Congress not later than two years after the enactment of this Act.

(e) Activities shall be conducted so that information obtained pursuant to this Act shall be timely and useful in the development of policy with respect to international investment. Reporting and recordkeeping requirements imposed under this Act shall be designed in order to minimize costs to the extent feasible, consistent with effective enforcement and the compilation of information required by this Act. Reporting, recordkeeping, and documentation requirements shall be periodically reviewed and revised in the light of developments in the field of information technology.

(f) In collecting information under this Act, the President shall give due regard to the costs incurred by persons supplying such information, as well as to the costs incurred by the Government, and shall insure that the information collected is only in such detail as is necessary to fulfill the stated purposes for which the information is being gathered.

RULES AND REGULATIONS; ACCESS TO INFORMATION

22 USC 3104. Sec. 5. (a) The authorities and responsibilities under this Act may be exercised through such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this Act.

(b) Rules or regulations issued pursuant to this Act may require any person subject to the jurisdiction of the United States—

1. to maintain a complete record of any information (including journals or other books of original entry, minute books, stock transfer records, lists of shareholders, or financial statements) which is essential to carrying out the international investment surveys and studies to be conducted under this Act; and

2. to furnish, under oath, any report containing information which is determined to be necessary to carry out the international investment surveys and studies conducted under this Act.

(c) Access to information obtained under subsection (b) (2) of this section shall be available only to officials or employees designated to perform functions under this Act, including consultants and persons working on contracts awarded pursuant to this Act. Subject to the limitation of paragraph (1) of this subsection, the President may authorize the exchange between agencies or officials designated by him of information furnished by any person under this Act as he deems necessary to carry out the purposes of this Act. Nothing in this section shall be construed to require any Federal agency to disclose to any official exercising authority under this Act any information or report collected under legal authority other than this Act where disclosure is prohibited by law. Information collected pursuant to subsection (b) (2) may be used only—

(1) for analytical or statistical purposes within the United States Government; or

(2) for the purpose of a proceeding under subsection (d) of this section or under section 6 (b) or (c).

No official or employee designated to perform functions under this Act, including consultants and persons working on contracts awarded pursuant to this Act, may publish or make available to any other person any information collected pursuant to subsection (b) (2) in a manner that the person who furnished the information can be specifically identified except as provided in this section. No person can compel the submission or disclosure of any report or constituent part thereof collected pursuant to this Act, or any copy of such report or constituent part thereof, without the prior written consent of the person who maintained or furnished such report under subsection (b) and without prior written consent of the customer, where the person who maintained or furnished such report included information identifiable as being derived from the records of such customer.

(d) Any person who willfully violates subsection (c) shall, upon conviction, be fined not more than $10,000, in addition to any other penalty imposed by law.

ENFORCEMENT

Sec. 6. (a) Whoever fails to furnish any information required under this Act, whether required to be furnished in the form of a report or otherwise, or to comply with any rule, regulation, order, or instruction promulgated under this Act, may be subject to a civil penalty not exceeding $10,000 in a proceeding brought under subsection (b) of this section.

(b) Whenever it appears that any person has failed to furnish any information required under this Act, whether required to be furnished in the form of a report or otherwise, or has failed to comply with any rule, regulation, order, or instruction promulgated under this Act, a civil action may be brought in an appropriate district court of the United States, or the appropriate United States court of any territory or other place subject to the jurisdiction of the United States, and such court may enter a restraining order or a permanent or temporary injunction commanding such person to furnish such information or to comply with such rule, regulation, order, or instruction, as the case may be, or impose the civil penalty provided in subsection (a) of this section, or both.

(c) Whoever willfully fails to submit any information required under this Act, whether required to be furnished in the form of a report or otherwise, or willfully violates any rule, regulation, order, or instruction promulgated under this Act, upon conviction, shall be fined not more than $10,000 and, if an individual, may be imprisoned for not more than one year, or both, and any officer, director, employee, or agent of any corporation who knowingly participates in such violation, upon conviction, may be punished by a like fine, imprisonment, or both.
USE OF EXPERTS AND ADMINISTRATIVE SUPPORT SERVICES

SEC. 7. (a) Any official designated by the President to carry out this Act may procure the temporary or intermittent services of experts and consultants in accordance with the provisions of section 3109 of title 5, United States Code. Persons so employed shall receive compensation at a rate not in excess of the maximum amount payable under such section. While away from his home or regular place of business and engaged in the performance of services in conjunction with the provisions of this Act, any such person may be allowed travel expenses, including per diem in lieu of subsistence, as authorized by section 5703(b) of title 5, United States Code, for persons in the Government service employed intermittently.

(b) Any official designated by the President to carry out this Act may use, on a reimbursable basis when appropriate (as determined by the President), the available services, equipment, personnel, and facilities of any agency or instrumentality of the United States Government.

CONSULTATIONS AND REVIEWS

SEC. 8. (a) Officials performing functions pursuant to this Act shall secure balanced, diverse, and responsible views from qualified persons representing business, organized labor, and the academic community and may, where appropriate, create such independent public advisory committees as are necessary to carry out the purposes of this Act.

(b) It shall be the responsibility of the Council on International Economic Policy to review the results of any studies and surveys conducted pursuant to this Act and report annually to the Committee on International Relations of the House of Representatives and the appropriate committees of the Senate on any trends or developments which may have national policy implications and which in the Council’s opinion warrant the review of the respective committees.

AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS

SEC. 9. To carry out this Act, there is authorized to be appropriated $1,000,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1978, and $1,000,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1979.

Joint Resolution

Making continuing appropriations for the fiscal year 1977, and for other purposes.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the following sums are appropriated out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, and out of applicable corporate or other revenues, receipts, and funds, for the several departments, agencies, corporations, and other organizational units of the Government for the fiscal year 1977, namely:

Sec. 101. Such amounts as may be necessary for continuing the following activities, not otherwise provided for, which were conducted in the fiscal year 1976 or the period ending September 30, 1976, but at a rate for operations not in excess of the current rate:

activities under the Public Health Service Act; activities under the Comprehensive Alcohol Abuse and Alcoholism Prevention, Treatment, and Rehabilitation Act of 1970; activities under the District of Columbia Medical and Dental Manpower Act of 1970; activities under section 602 of Public Law 94–63;
activities under the Higher Education Act;
activities under the Vocational Education Act; activities under the National Defense Education Act; activities under the General Education Provisions Act; activities of the President’s Commission on Olympic Sports; activities under title VI of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act; and activities of the Commission on Federal Paperwork.

Sec. 102. Appropriations and funds made available and authority granted pursuant to this joint resolution shall be available from October 1, 1976, and shall remain available until (a) enactment into law of an appropriation for any project or activity provided for in this joint resolution, or (b) enactment of the applicable appropriation Act by both Houses without any provision for such project or activity, or (c) March 31, 1977, whichever first occurs.

Sec. 103. Appropriations and funds made available or authority granted pursuant to this joint resolution may be used without regard to the time limitations for submission and approval of apportionments set forth in 31 U.S.C. 665(d) (2), but nothing herein shall be construed to waive any other provision of law governing the apportionment of funds.

Sec. 104. Appropriations made and authority granted pursuant to this joint resolution shall cover all obligations or expenditures incurred for any project or activity during the period for which funds or authority for such project or activity are available under this joint resolution.

Oct. 11, 1976
[H.J. Res. 1105]
Continuing appropriations, 1977.
Sec. 105. Expenditures made pursuant to this joint resolution shall be charged to the applicable appropriation, fund, or authorization whenever a bill in which such applicable appropriation, fund, or authorization is contained is enacted into law.

Sec. 106. No appropriation or fund made available or authority granted pursuant to this joint resolution shall be used to initiate or resume any project or activity for which appropriations, funds, or other authority were not available during either the fiscal year 1976 or the transition period ending September 30, 1976.

Sec. 107. Any appropriation for the fiscal year 1977 required to be apportioned pursuant to 31 U.S.C. 665, may be apportioned on a basis indicating the need (to the extent any such increases cannot be absorbed within available appropriations) for a supplemental or deficiency estimate of appropriation to the extent necessary to permit payment of such pay increases as may be granted pursuant to law to civilian officers and employees and to active and retired military personnel. Each such appropriation shall otherwise be subject to the requirements of 31 U.S.C. 665.

Sec. 108. All obligations incurred in anticipation of the appropriations and authority provided in this joint resolution are hereby ratified and confirmed if otherwise in accordance with the provisions of this joint resolution.

Sec. 109. For an additional amount for the Soil Conservation Service for watershed and Flood Prevention Operations for emergency measures for runoff retardation and soil erosion prevention, as provided by section 216 of the Flood Control Act of 1950 (33 U.S.C. 701b–1) in addition to funds provided elsewhere, $12,000,000, to remain available until expended.

Sec. 110. Provisions in Public Law 94–355 and Public Law 94–373 which make the availability of appropriations therein for the Energy Research and Development Administration dependent upon the enactment of additional authorizing legislation shall not be effective until the date set forth in section 102(c) of this joint resolution or the enactment of such authorizing legislation, whichever first occurs.

Sec. 111. To enable the Secretary of the Treasury to subscribe and pay for capital stock of the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation, as provided in section 504 of the Federal Crop Insurance Act (7 U.S.C. 1504), $30,000,000.

Sec. 112. For payment of claims settled and determined by departments and agencies in accord with law and judgments rendered against the United States by the United States Court of Claims and United States district courts, as set forth in Senate Document Numbered 94–260, Ninety-fourth Congress, $5,147,921, together with such amounts as may be necessary to pay interest (as and when specified in such judgments or provided by law) and such additional sums due to increases in rates of exchange as may be necessary to pay claims in foreign currency: Provided, That no judgment herein appropriated for shall be paid until it shall become final and conclusive against the United States by failure of the parties to appeal or otherwise: Provided further, That unless otherwise specifically required by law or by judgment, payment of interest wherever appropriated for herein shall not continue for more than thirty days after the date of approval of the Act.

(1) Research, development, and demonstration under the Noise Control Act of 1972 (42 U.S.C. 4901 et seq.), not to exceed $2,110,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1976, and not to exceed $527,500 for the fiscal transitional period ending September 30, 1976.

(2) Research, development and demonstration under the Federal Insecticide, Fungicide, and Rodenticide Act (7 U.S.C. 136 et seq.), not to exceed $14,047,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1976, and not to exceed $3,511,975 for the fiscal transitional period ending September 30, 1976.

(3) Research, development, and demonstration under section 301 of the Public Health Service Act (42 U.S.C. 241), not to exceed $2,115,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1976, and not to exceed $528,750 for the fiscal transitional period ending September 30, 1976.

(4) Research, development, and demonstration under the Clean Air Act (42 U.S.C. 1857 et seq.), not to exceed $148,194,700 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1976, and not to exceed $37,048,675 for the fiscal transitional period ending September 30, 1976.

(5) Research, development, and demonstration under the Solid Waste Disposal Act (42 U.S.C. 3251 et seq.), not to exceed $13,534,300 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1976, and not to exceed $3,383,575 for the fiscal transitional period ending September 30, 1976.

(6) Research, development, and demonstration under the Federal Water Pollution Control Act Amendments of 1972, not to exceed $148,800,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1976, of which—

(A) $89,900,000 shall be for programs authorized by section 104(u)(1) thereof (33 U.S.C. 1254(u)(1)),

(B) $5,600,000 shall be for programs authorized by section 104(u)(4) thereof (33 U.S.C. 1254(u)(4)),

(C) $2,000,000 shall be for programs authorized by section 104(u)(5) thereof (33 U.S.C. 1254(u)(5)),

(D) $20,000,000 shall be for programs authorized by section 104(u)(6) thereof (33 U.S.C. 1254(u)(6)),

(E) $24,700,000 shall be for programs authorized by section 105(h) thereof (33 U.S.C. 1255(h)),

Oct. 11, 1976
[H.R. 7108]

(F) $4,600,000 shall be for programs authorized by section 107 thereof (33 U.S.C. 1257), and (G) $2,000,000 shall be for programs authorized by section 113 thereof (33 U.S.C. 1263) and not to exceed $37,200,000 for the fiscal transitional period ending September 30, 1976.

(b) No funds may be transferred from any particular category listed in subsection (a) of this section to any other category or categories listed in such subsection if the total of the funds so transferred from that particular category would exceed 10 percent thereof, and no funds may be transferred to any particular category listed in subsection (a) of this section from any other category or categories listed in such subsection if the total of the funds so transferred from that particular category would exceed 10 percent thereof, unless—

(1) a period of 30 legislative days has passed after the Administrator or his designee has transmitted to the Speaker of the House of Representatives and to the President of the Senate a written report containing a full and complete statement concerning the nature of the transfer and the reason therefor, or

(2) each committee of the House of Representatives and the Senate having jurisdiction over the subject matter involved, before the expiration of such period, has transmitted to the Administrator written notice to the effect that such committee has no objection to the proposed action.

(c) In addition to any transfers among the categories listed in subsection (a) of this section which are authorized by subsection (b) of this section, not to exceed 10 percent of the total amount appropriated pursuant to such subsection (a) may be transferred to other authorized activities of the Environmental Protection Agency (except construction grants for waste treatment works and scientific activities overseas), and not to exceed 10 percent of the total amount appropriated for such other authorized activities may be transferred to any category or categories listed in such subsection (a).

Sec. 3. Appropriations made pursuant to the authority provided in section 2 of this Act shall remain available for obligation for expenditure, or for obligation and expenditure, for such period or periods as may be specified in the Acts making such appropriations.

Sec. 4. No appropriation may be made to the Environmental Protection Agency for environmental research, development, or demonstration, for any period beginning after September 30, 1976, unless previously authorized by legislation hereafter enacted by the Congress.
Sec. 5. The Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency shall transmit to the Congress, within 6 months after the date of enactment of this Act, a comprehensive 5-year plan for environmental research, development, and demonstration. This plan shall be appropriately revised annually, and such revisions shall be transmitted to the Congress no later than two weeks after the President submits his annual budget to the Congress in such year.

An Act

To amend the Natural Gas Pipeline Safety Act of 1968 to authorize additional appropriations, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That this Act may be cited as the “Natural Gas Pipeline Safety Act Amendments of 1976”.

Sec. 2. Section 15 of the Natural Gas Pipeline Safety Act of 1968 is amended—

(1) in subsection (a) thereof, by striking out “and” after “June 30, 1975,” and by inserting “$500,000 for the period beginning July 1, 1976, and ending September 30, 1976, $4,664,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1977, and $5,000,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1978,” after “June 30, 1976,”; and

(2) in subsection (b) thereof, by striking out “5 (c)” and inserting in lieu thereof “5 (c) and (f)”, and by striking out “and” after “June 30, 1975,” and by inserting “, $2,500,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1977, and $4,500,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1978” after “June 30, 1976”.

Sec. 3. Section 2 of the Natural Gas Pipeline Safety Act of 1968 is amended—

(1) by striking out “; and” at the end of paragraph (8) and inserting in lieu thereof “, except that it shall not include any pipeline facilities within a State which transport gas from an interstate gas pipeline to a direct sales customer within such State purchasing gas for its own consumption;”; and

(2) by redesignating paragraph (9) as paragraph (10), and inserting after paragraph (8) the following new paragraph:

“9 'Intrastate pipeline transportation' means pipeline facilities and transportation of gas within a State which are not subject to the jurisdiction of the Federal Power Commission under the Natural Gas Act, except that it shall include pipeline facilities within a State which transport gas from an interstate gas pipeline to a direct sales customer within such State purchasing gas for its own consumption; and”.

Sec. 4. Section 3 (b) of the Natural Gas Pipeline Safety Act of 1968 is amended—

(1) by inserting “emergency plans and procedures,” after “inspection,” in the second sentence thereof; and

(2) by amending the last sentence thereof to read as follows:

“Any State agency may adopt additional or more stringent standards for intrastate pipeline transportation if such standards are compatible with the Federal minimum standards. No State agency may adopt or continue in force any such standards applicable to interstate transmission facilities, after the Federal minimum standards become effective.”.

Sec. 5. (a) Section 5 (a) of the Natural Gas Pipeline Safety Act of 1968 is amended—
(1) in the first sentence thereof, by striking out “pipeline facilities and the transportation of gas (not subject to the jurisdiction of the Federal Power Commission under the Natural Gas Act) within a State” and inserting in lieu thereof “intrastate pipeline transportation”;

(2) in clause (1) thereof, by striking out “pipeline facilities and transportation of gas” and inserting in lieu thereof “transportation”;

(3) by striking out “(2) has adopted each Federal safety standard applicable to such pipeline facilities and transportation of gas established under this Act as of the date of the certification;” and inserting in lieu thereof “(2) has adopted, as of the date of the certification, each Federal safety standard established under this Act which is applicable to such transportation or, with respect to each such Federal safety standard established within one hundred and twenty days before the date of the certification, is taking steps pursuant to State law to adopt such standard;”; and

(4) by striking out “and (4)” and inserting in lieu thereof “(4) is encouraging and promoting programs designed to prevent damage to pipeline facilities as a consequence of excavation activity; and (5)”.

(b) Section 5(b) of such Act is amended by striking out “With respect to” and all that follows down through “actions to—” and by inserting in lieu thereof the following: “With respect to any intrastate pipeline transportation for which the Secretary does not receive an annual certification under subsection (a) of this section, the Secretary may, by agreement with a State agency (including a municipality) authorize such agency to assume responsibility for, and carry out on behalf of the Secretary as it relates to intrastate pipeline transportation the necessary actions to—”.

(c) The first sentence of section 5(d) of such Act is amended to read as follows: “A certification which is in effect under subsection (a) of this section shall not apply with respect to any new or amended Federal safety standard established for intrastate pipeline transportation pursuant to this Act after the date of such certification.”

(d) Section 5 of such Act is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection (f):

“(f) (1) During the fiscal year ending September 30, 1978, the Secretary shall, in accordance with regulations issued by the Secretary taking into account the needs of the respective States, pay to each State agency out of funds appropriated or otherwise made available one hundred percent of the cost (not to exceed $60,000 for each State agency) of not more than three full-time natural gas pipeline safety inspectors in addition to, and not in lieu of, the number of natural gas pipeline safety inspectors maintained by such State agency in calendar year 1977.

“(2) Not later than September 30, 1977, any State may apply to receive funds under paragraph (1) for the calendar year 1978.

“(3) Each State agency which receives funds under paragraph (1) shall continue to maintain during calendar years 1979 and 1980 not less than the number of full-time natural gas pipeline safety inspectors which were maintained by such State agency in calendar year 1977.

“(4) Any State in which the State agency fails to meet its obligations under paragraph (3) shall reimburse the Secretary for a sum equal to 50 percent of the funds received by such State under this subsection in proportion to which such State agency has failed to meet its obligations.”
Sec. 6. The first sentence of section 11 of the Natural Gas Pipeline Safety Act of 1968 is amended to read as follows: "Each person who engages in the transportation of gas or who owns or operates intrastate pipeline transportation facilities shall file with the Secretary or, if a certification or an agreement pursuant to section 5 of this Act is in effect, with the appropriate State agency, a plan for inspection and maintenance of each facility used in such transportation and owned or operated by such person, and any changes in such plan, in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary or appropriate State agency."

Sec. 7. Section 11(a)(1) of the Natural Gas Pipeline Safety Act of 1968 is amended by striking out "accidents" and inserting in lieu thereof "leak repairs, accidents."

Sec. 8. The Natural Gas Pipeline Safety Act of 1968 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

"CONSUMER EDUCATION"

"Sec. 16. Each person who engages in the transportation of gas shall, in accordance with the regulations prescribed by the Secretary, conduct a program to educate the public on the possible hazards associated with gas leaks and on the importance of reporting gas odors and leaks to appropriate authorities. The Secretary may develop materials suitable for use in such education programs."

"CITIZEN'S CIVIL ACTION"

"Sec. 17. (a) Except as provided in subsection (b), any person may commence a civil action for mandatory or prohibitive injunctive relief, including interim equitable relief, against any other person (including any State, municipality, or other governmental entity to the extent permitted by the eleventh amendment to the Constitution, and the United States) who is alleged to be in violation of this Act or of any order or regulation issued under this Act. The district courts of the United States shall have jurisdiction over actions brought under this section, without regard to the amount in controversy or the citizenship of the parties.

"(b) No civil action may be commenced under subsection (a) with respect to any alleged violation of this Act or any order or regulation issued under this Act—

"(1) prior to the expiration of 60 days after the plaintiff has given notice of such alleged violation to the Secretary (or to the applicable State agency in the case of a State which has been certified under section 5(a) and in which the violation is alleged to have occurred), and to any person who is alleged to have committed such violation; or

"(2) if the Secretary (or such State agency) has commenced and is diligently pursuing administrative proceedings or the Attorney General of the United States (or the chief law enforcement officer of such State) has commenced and is diligently pursuing judicial proceedings with respect to such alleged violation. Notice under this subsection shall be given in such manner as the Secretary shall prescribe by regulation.

"(c) In any action under subsection (a), the Secretary (with the concurrence of the Attorney General) or the Attorney General may intervene as a matter of right."
“(d) Nothing in this section shall restrict any right which any person (or class of persons) may have under any statute or at common law to seek enforcement of this Act or any order or regulation under this Act or to seek any other relief.

“(e) In any action under this section the court may, in the interest of justice, award the costs of suit, including reasonable attorney’s fees and reasonable expert witnesses fees, to a prevailing plaintiff. Such court may, in the interest of justice, award such costs to a prevailing defendant whenever such action is unreasonable, frivolous, or meritless. For purposes of this subsection a reasonable attorney’s fee is a fee (1) which is based upon (A) the actual time expended by an attorney in providing advice and other legal services in connection with representing a person in an action brought under this section, and (B) such reasonable expenses as may be incurred by the attorney in the provision of such services, and (2) which is computed at the rate prevailing for the provision of similar services with respect to actions brought in the court which is awarding such fee.

“(f) For purposes of this section, a violation of any safety standard or practice of any State shall be deemed to be a violation of this Act or of any order or regulation under this Act only to the extent that such standard or practice is not more stringent than the comparable Federal minimum safety standard.”

Approved October 11, 1976.

Joint Resolution

Oct. 11, 1976
[H.J. Res. 519]

To provide for the appointment of George Washington to the grade of General of the Armies of the United States.

Whereas Lieutenant General George Washington of Virginia commanded our armies throughout and to the successful termination of our Revolutionary War;
Whereas Lieutenant General George Washington presided over the convention that formulated our Constitution;
Whereas Lieutenant General George Washington twice served as President of the United States of America; and
Whereas it is considered fitting and proper that no officer of the United States Army should outrank Lieutenant General George Washington on the Army list: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That (a) for purposes of subsection (b) of this section only, the grade of General of the Armies of the United States is established, such grade to have rank and precedence over all other grades of the Army, past or present.

(b) The President is authorized and requested to appoint George Washington posthumously to the grade of General of the Armies of the United States, such appointment to take effect on July 4, 1976.

Approved October 11, 1976.

Joint Resolution

Authorizing the President to proclaim the week beginning October 3, 1976, and ending October 9, 1976, as "National Volunteer Firemen Week".

Whereas volunteer firemen have played an essential role in this country all throughout its history;
Whereas one million of the country's one million two hundred thousand firefighters are volunteer firemen;
Whereas, because of their skills in applying life-supporting techniques and their awareness of fire safety precautions, volunteer firemen play an important role at their regular places of employment, especially in industrial plants, large office buildings, hospitals, and other places where there are heavy concentrations of people; and
Whereas volunteer firemen provide a lifesaving service to the communities in which they live: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the President is authorized and requested to issue a proclamation designating the week beginning October 3, 1976, and ending October 9, 1976, as "National Volunteer Firemen Week", and calling upon the people of the United States to observe such week with appropriate ceremonies and activities.

PART A—COMMUNITY SERVICES AND CONTINUING EDUCATION

EXTENSION AND REVISION OF PROGRAM

Sec. 101. (a) Section 101 of the Higher Education Act of 1965 (hereafter in this title referred to as “the Act”) is amended to read as follows:

"APPROPRIATIONS AUTHORIZED"

"Sec. 101. (a) For the purpose of (1) assisting the people of the United States in the solution of community problems such as housing, poverty, government, recreation, employment, youth opportunities, transportation, health, and land use by enabling the Commissioner to make grants under this title to strengthen community service programs of colleges and universities, (2) supporting the expansion of continuing education in colleges and universities and (3) supporting resource materials sharing programs, there are authorized to be appropriated $40,000,000 for the fiscal years 1977, 1978, and 1979.

"(b) For the purpose of carrying out a program for the promotion of lifelong learning in accordance with the provisions of part B, there are authorized to be appropriated, $20,000,000 for fiscal year 1977, $30,000,000 for fiscal year 1978, and $40,000,000 for fiscal year 1979."

(b) Title I of such Act is amended—
(1) (A) by amending the heading of section 102 to read as follows:

"DEFINITION OF COMMUNITY SERVICE PROGRAM AND CONTINUING EDUCATION PROGRAM";

(B) by inserting “(a)” after the section designation of such section 102; and
(C) by inserting at the end thereof the following new subsections:

"(b) For purposes of this title the term ‘continuing education program’ means postsecondary instruction designed to meet the educational needs and interests of adults, including the expansion of available learning opportunities for adults who are not adequately served by current educational offerings in their communities."
“(c) For purposes of this title, the term ‘resource materials sharing programs’ means planning for the improved use of existing community learning resources by finding ways that combinations of agencies, institutions, and organizations can make better use of existing educational materials, communications technology, local facilities, and such human resources as will expand learning opportunities for adults in the area being served.”;

(2) by amending section 103 (a) to read as follows:

“SEC. 103. (a) From the sums appropriated pursuant to section 101 (a) for any fiscal year which are not reserved under section 106 (a), the Commissioner shall allot to each State an amount which bears the same ratio to such sums as the population of such State bears to the population of all the States, except that, for any fiscal year beginning on or after October 1, 1976, no State shall be allotted from such sums less than the amount which such State received during the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1975.

20 USC 1004.

(3) by striking out “community service programs” in section 104 and inserting in lieu thereof “community service and continuing education programs, including resource material sharing programs”;

(4) by striking out so much of section 105 (a) as precedes paragraph (1) and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

“SEC. 105. (a) Any State desiring to receive its allotment of funds under this part for use in community service and continuing education programs, including resource material sharing programs, shall designate or create a State agency or institution which has special qualifications with respect to solving community problems and which is broadly representative of institutions of higher education in the State which are competent to offer community service and continuing education programs, including resource material sharing programs, and shall submit to the Commissioner a State plan. If a State desires to designate for the purpose of this section an existing State agency or institution which does not meet these requirements, it may do so if the agency or institution takes such action as may be necessary to acquire such qualifications and assure participation of such institutions, or if it designates or creates a State advisory council which meets the requirements not met by the designated agency or institution to consult with the designated agency or institution in the preparation of the State plan. A State plan submitted under this part shall—”;

(5) (A) by inserting “or combination” after “and institution” in section 105 (a) (2); and

(B) by striking out “community service programs” each place it appears in such section and inserting in lieu thereof “community service and continuing education programs, including resource materials sharing programs”;

(6) (A) by inserting “and combinations thereof” immediately after “institution of higher education” each place it appears in section 105 (a) (3);

(B) by striking out “community service programs” each place it appears in such section and inserting in lieu thereof “community service and continuing education programs, including resource materials sharing programs”; and

(C) by striking out “in the light of information regarding current and anticipated community problems in the State” in subparagraph (C) of such section;

(7) by striking out “community service programs” in section
105 (a) (4) and inserting in lieu thereof "community service and continuing education programs, including resource materials sharing programs.";

(8) by inserting "or combinations thereof" after "institutions of higher education" in section 105 (a) (5);

(9) by striking section 105 (a) (6) and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"(6) assurances that all institutions of higher education in the State have been given the opportunity to participate in the development of the State plan."; and

(10) by inserting immediately after section 105 (b) the following new subsection:

"(c) The Commissioner shall not by standard, rule, regulation, guideline, or any other means, either formal or informal, require a State to make any agreement or submit any data which is not specifically required by this part.

(c) Section 107 (a) of the Act is amended by striking out "$25,000" and inserting in lieu thereof "$40,000".

(d) Section 109 of the Act is amended to read as follows:

"JUDICIAL REVIEW"

"Sec. 109. If a State's plan is not approved under section 105 (b) or a State's eligibility to participate in the program is suspended as a result of the Commissioner's action under section 108 (b), the State may within sixty days after notice of the Commissioner's decision institute a civil action in an appropriate United States district court. In such an action, the court shall determine the matter de novo.".

(e) Title I of the Act is further amended by redesignating sections 111, 112, and 113, and any references thereto, as sections 112, 113, and 114, respectively, and inserting immediately after section 110 the following new section:

"TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE AND ADMINISTRATION"

"Sec. 111. (a) The Commissioner is authorized to reserve not to exceed 10 per centum of the amount appropriated for any fiscal year pursuant to section 101 (a) in excess of $14,500,000 for the purpose of this section.

(b) From funds reserved under subsection (a) of this section, the Commissioner shall provide technical assistance to the States and to institutions of higher education. Such technical assistance shall —

"(1) provide a national diffusion network to help assure that effective programs are known among such States and institutions;

"(2) assist with the improvement of planning and evaluation procedures; and

"(3) provide information about the changing enrollment patterns in postsecondary institutions, and provide assistance to such States and institutions in their efforts to understand these changing patterns and to accommodate them.".

"(c) The Commissioner shall provide for coordination between community service and continuing education programs (including resource materials sharing programs) conducted by him with all other appropriate offices and agencies, including such offices and agencies which administer vocational education programs, adult education programs, career education programs, and student and institutional assistance programs.".

20 USC 1008b.
20 USC 1001.
Ante, p. 2085. (f) (1) Section 112 of the Act (as redesignated by subsection (e)) is amended—

(A) by striking out "the Commissioner, who shall be Chairman," in subsection (a); and

(B) by striking out "through June 30, 1975" in subsection (f) and inserting in lieu thereof "until the programs authorized by this part are terminated".

Ante, p. 2085. (2) The text of section 113 of the Act (as redesignated by subsection (e)) is amended to read as follows: "Nothing in this section shall modify any authority under the Act of May 8, 1914 (Smith-Lever Act), as amended (7 U.S.C. 341-348).".

(g) Title I of the Act is further amended—

(1) by inserting before the section heading of section 101 the following:

"PART A—COMMUNITY SERVICE AND CONTINUING EDUCATION PROGRAMS";

(2) by striking out "this title" each time it appears in section 102 through section 112 of such title, and inserting in lieu thereof "this part"; and

(3) by adding at the end thereof the following new part:

"PART B—LIFELONG LEARNING"

"FINDINGS"

20 USC 1002-1009.

"Sec. 131. The Congress finds that—

"(1) accelerating social and technological change have had impact on the duration and quality of life;

"(2) the American people need lifelong learning to enable them to adjust to social, technological, political and economic changes;

"(3) lifelong learning has a role in developing the potential of all persons including improvement of their personal well-being, upgrading their workplace skills, and preparing them to participate in the civic, cultural, and political life of the Nation;

"(4) lifelong learning is important in meeting the needs of the growing number of older and retired persons;

"(5) learning takes place through formal and informal instruction, through educational programs conducted by public and private educational and other institutions and organizations, through independent study, and through the efforts of business, industry, and labor;

"(6) planning is necessary at the national, State, and local levels to assure effective use of existing resources in the light of changing characteristics and learning needs of the population;

"(7) more effective use should be made of the resources of the Nation's educational institutions in order to assist the people of the United States in the solution of community problems in areas such as housing, poverty, government, recreation, employment, youth opportunities, transportation, health, and land use; and

"(8) American society should have as a goal the availability of appropriate opportunities for lifelong learning for all its citizens without regard to restrictions of previous education or training, sex, age, handicapping condition, social or ethnic background, or economic circumstance."
"SCOPE OF LIFELONG LEARNING"

"SEC. 132. Lifelong learning includes, but is not limited to, adult basic education, continuing education, independent study, agricultural education, business education and labor education, occupational education and job training programs, parent education, postsecondary education, preretirement and education for older and retired people, remedial education, special educational programs for groups or for individuals with special needs, and also educational activities designed to upgrade occupational and professional skills, to assist business, public agencies, and other organizations in the use or innovation and research results, and to serve family needs and personal development.

20 USC 1015a.

"LIFELONG LEARNING ACTIVITIES"

"SEC. 133. (a) The Assistant Secretary shall carry out, from funds appropriated pursuant to section 101(b), a program of planning, assessing, and coordinating projects related to lifelong learning. In carrying out the provisions of this section, the Assistant Secretary shall-

(1) foster improved coordination of Federal support for lifelong learning programs;
(2) act as a clearinghouse for information regarding lifelong learning, including the identification, collection, and dissemination to educators and the public of existing and new information regarding lifelong learning programs which are or may be carried out and supported by any department or agency of the Federal Government;
(3) review present and proposed methods of financing and administering lifelong learning, to determine—
   (A) the extent to which each promotes lifelong learning,
   (B) program and administrative features of each that contribute to serving lifelong learning,
   (C) the need for additional Federal support for lifelong learning, and
   (D) procedures by which Federal assistance to lifelong learning may be better applied and coordinated to achieve the purposes of this title;
(4) review the lifelong learning opportunities provided through employers, unions, the media, libraries and museums, secondary schools and postsecondary educational institutions, and other public and private organizations to determine means by which the enhancement of their effectiveness and coordination may be facilitated;
(5) review existing major foreign lifelong learning programs and related programs in order to determine the applicability of such programs in this country;
(6) identify existing barriers to lifelong learning and evaluate programs designed to eliminate such barriers; and
(7) to the extent practicable, seek the advice and assistance of the agencies of the Education Division (including the Office of Education, the National Institute of Education, the Fund for the Improvement of Postsecondary Education, and the National Center for Education Statistics), other agencies of the Federal Government, public advisory groups (including the National Advisory Councils on Extension and Continuing Education, Adult Education, Career Education, Community Education, and Vocational Education), Commissions (including the National Commission on Education) participating in the development of the lifelong learning program established under section 101.
on Libraries and Information Sciences and the National Commission on Manpower Policy), State agencies, and such other persons or organizations as may be appropriate, in carrying out the Commissioner's responsibilities, and make maximum use of information and studies already available.

The review required by clause (3) of this subsection shall include—

"(i) a comparative assessment of domestic and foreign tax and other incentives to encourage increased commitment of business and labor;

"(ii) a study of alternatives such as lifelong learning entitlement programs or educational vouchers designed to assist adults to undertake education or training in conjunction with, or in periods alternative to employment;

"(iii) review of possible modifications to existing Federal and State student assistance programs necessary to increase their relevance to the lifelong learning needs of all adults;

"(iv) the organization and design of funding for pre- and post-retirement training and education for the elderly; and

"(v) modifications to Federal and State manpower training, public employment, unemployment compensation, and similar funding programs so as to better facilitate lifelong education and training and retraining, for employment.

"(b) After consultation with appropriate State agencies, the Assistant Secretary is authorized—

"(1) to assist in the planning and assessment, to determine whether in each State there is an equitable distribution of lifelong learning services to all segments of the adult population;

"(2) to assist in assessing the appropriate roles for the Federal, State, and local governments, educational institutions and community organizations; and

"(3) to assist in considering alternative methods of financing and delivering lifelong learning opportunities, including—

"(A) identification of State agencies, institutions, and groups that plan and provide programs of lifelong learning,

"(B) determination of the extent to which programs are available geographically,

"(C) a description of demographic characteristics of the population served,

"(D) analysis of reasons for attendance in programs of lifelong learning, and

"(E) analysis of sources of funds for the conduct of lifelong learning programs, and the financial support of persons attending programs of lifelong learning.

"(c) The Assistant Secretary is authorized, with respect to lifelong learning, to assess, evaluate the need for, demonstrate, and develop alternative methods to improve—

"(1) research and development activities;

"(2) training and retraining people to become educators of adults;

"(3) development of curricula and delivery systems appropriate to the needs of any such programs;

"(4) development of techniques and systems for guidance and counseling of adults and for training and retraining of counselors;

"(5) development and dissemination of instructional materials appropriate to adults;
“(6) assessment of the educational needs and goals of older and retired persons and their unique contributions to lifelong learning programs;
“(7) use of employer and union tuition assistance and other educational programs, educational and cultural trust funds and other similar educational benefits resulting from collective bargaining agreements, and other private funds for the support of lifelong learning;
“(8) integration of public and private educational funds which encourage participation in lifelong learning, including support of guidance and counseling of workers in order that they can make best use of funds available to them for lifelong learning opportunities; and
“(9) coordination within communities among educators, employers, labor organizations, and other appropriate individuals and entities to assure that lifelong learning opportunities are designed to meet projected career and occupational needs of the community, after consideration of the availability of guidance and counseling, the availability of information regarding occupational and career opportunities, and the availability of appropriate educational and other resources to meet the career and occupational needs of the community.
“(d) In carrying out the provisions of this section the Assistant Secretary is authorized to enter into agreements with, and to make grants to, appropriate State agencies, institutions of higher education, and public and private nonprofit organizations.
“(e) In carrying out the provisions of this section, the Assistant Secretary shall issue reports summarizing research and analysis conducted pursuant to this section, and shall develop the resources and capability to analyze and make recommendations regarding specific legislative or administrative proposals which may be considered by the President or by the Congress.

"REPORTS"

"Sec. 134. The Assistant Secretary shall transmit to the President and to the Congress a report on such results from the activities conducted pursuant to this part as may be completed by January 1, 1978, together with such legislative recommendations as he may deem appropriate. The Assistant Secretary shall similarly report annually thereafter."

Sec. 106. The first sentence of section 201(b) of the Act is amended by striking out all that follows “authorized to be appropriated” and inserting in lieu thereof “$110,000,000 for fiscal year 1977, $115,000,000 for fiscal year 1978, and $120,000,000 for fiscal year 1979.”
REVISION OF RESEARCH LIBRARY RESOURCES

Sec. 107. Part C of title II of the Act is amended to read as follows:

"PART C—STRENGTHENING RESEARCH LIBRARY RESOURCES

"FINDINGS AND PURPOSE

20 USC 1041. "Sec. 231. (a) The Congress finds that—

"(1) education, scholarship, and research are significant to the scientific, economic, and cultural development of the Nation, and that steady advances in the social and natural sciences are essential to solve the problems of a complex society;"

"(2) the Nation's major research libraries are often an essential element in undergraduate education, and are essential to advanced and professional education and research; and"

"(3) the expansion in the scope of educational and research programs and the rapid increase in the worldwide production of recorded knowledge have placed unprecedented demands upon major research libraries, requiring programs and services that strain the capabilities of cooperative action and are beyond the financial competence of individual or collective library budgets."

"(b) It is the purpose of this part to promote research and education of higher quality throughout the United States by providing financial assistance to major research libraries.

"APPROPRIATIONS AUTHORIZED

20 USC 1042. "Sec. 232. There are authorized to be appropriated $10,000,000 for the fiscal year 1977, $15,000,000 for fiscal year 1978, and $20,000,000 for fiscal year 1979.

"ELIGIBILITY FOR ASSISTANCE

"Sec. 233. For the purposes of this part, the term 'major research library' means a public or private nonprofit institution, including the library resources of an institution of higher education, an independent research library, or a State or other public library, having library collections which are available to qualified users and which—

"(1) make a significant contribution to higher education and research;

"(2) are broadly based and are recognized as having national or international significance for scholarly research;

"(3) are of a unique nature, and contain material not widely available; and

"(4) are in substantial demand by researchers and scholars not connected with that institution.

"(b) No institution receiving a grant under this part for any fiscal year may be eligible to receive a basic grant under section 202 of this title for that year.

"EQUITABLE DISTRIBUTION OF ASSISTANCE

20 USC 1044. "Sec. 234. The Commissioner shall establish criteria designed to achieve regional balance in the allocation of funds under this part which is reasonable in light of the requirements of section 233.
"LIMITATIONS"

"Sec. 235. (a) No grant may be made under this part for books, periodicals, documents, or other related materials to be used for sectarian instruction or religious worship, or primarily in connection with any part of the program of a school or department of divinity."

"(b) Not more than 150 institutions may receive a grant under this part."

"CONSULTATION WITH STATE AGENCY"

"Sec. 236. Each institution receiving a grant under this part shall periodically inform the State Library administrative agency and the State agency, if any, concerned with the educational activities of all institutions of higher education in the State in which such institution is located, of its activities under this part."

PART C—STRENGTHENING DEVELOPING INSTITUTIONS

EXTENSION OF AUTHORIZATION

Sec. 111. Section 301(b) of the Higher Education Act of 1965 is amended by striking out "July 1, 1975" and inserting in lieu thereof "October 1, 1979".

REMOVAL OF RESTRICTIONS ON WAIVERS

Sec. 112. Section 302(a)(2) of the Act is amended by striking out "", except that such grants may not involve an expenditure of funds in excess of 1.4 per centum of the sums appropriated pursuant to this title for any fiscal year".".

PART D—STUDENT ASSISTANCE

BASIC EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITY GRANTS

Sec. 121. (a) Section 411(a)(1) of the Act is amended by striking out "June 30, 1975" and inserting in lieu thereof "September 30, 1979".

(b)(1) Section 411(a)(2)(A)(i) of the Act is amended by striking out "$1,400" and inserting in lieu thereof "$1,800".

(2) The amendment made by paragraph (1) of this subsection shall be effective for academic year 1978-1979 and thereafter.

(c) Divisions (i) and (ii) of section 411(a)(2)(A) of the Act are amended to read as follows:

"(3)(A) (i) Not later than July 1 of each calendar year, the Commissioner shall publish in the Federal Register a schedule of expected family contributions for the academic year which begins after July 1 of the calendar year which succeeds such calendar year for various levels of family income, which, except as is otherwise provided in division (ii), together with any amendments thereto, shall become effective July 1 of the calendar year which succeeds such calendar year. During the thirty-day period following such publication the Commissioner shall provide interested parties with an opportunity to present their views and make recommendations with respect to such schedule.

(ii) The schedule of expected family contributions required by division (i) for each academic year shall be submitted to the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives not later than the time of its publication in the Federal Register. If either the Senate or the House of Representatives adopts, prior to the first day of October next following the submission of said schedule as required by this division, a resolution of disapproval of such schedule, the Commissioner shall publish a new schedule of expected family contributions in the Federal Register not later than fifteen days after the adoption of such resolution of disapproval. Such new schedule shall take into consideration such recommendations as may be made in either House in connection with such resolution and shall become effective, together with any amendments thereto, with respect to grants to be made on or after the first day of July next following. The Commissioner shall publish together with such new schedule, a statement identifying the recommendations made in either House in connection with such resolution of disapproval and explaining his reasons for the new schedule.”.

20 USC 1070a. (d) Section 411(a) (3) (B) of the Act is amended—
(1) by inserting at the end of division (ii) the following new subdivision:
“(VI) Any educational expenses of other dependent children in the family.”.
(2) by inserting immediately after “student)” in division (iii) the following: “, and including any amount paid under the Social Security Act to, or on account of, the student which would not be paid if he were not a student and one-half any amount paid the student under chapters 34 and 35 of title 38, United States Code,”; and
(3) by striking out division (iv).
(e) Section 411(b) of the Act is amended by striking division (ii) of paragraph (3) (B) and redesignating subsequent divisions accordingly, and by redesignating paragraph (4) and any references thereto as paragraph (5) and inserting after paragraph (3) a new paragraph as follows:
“(4)(A) If the funds available for making payments under this subpart exceed the amount necessary to make the payments required under this subpart to eligible students by 15 per centum or less, then all of excess funds shall remain available for making payments under this subpart during the next succeeding fiscal year.
“(B) If the funds available for making payments under this subpart exceed the amount necessary to make the payments required under this subpart to eligible students by more than 15 per centum, then all of such funds shall remain available for making such payments but payments may be made under this division only with respect to entitlements for that fiscal year.”.
(f) Section 411(b) (3) (C) of the Act is repealed.
(g) Section 411(b) (5) of the Act (as redesignated by subsection (e)) is amended by striking out “July 1, 1975” and inserting in lieu thereof “October 1, 1979”.
(h) Section 411 of the Act is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:
“(d) (1) In addition to payments made with respect to entitlements under this subpart, each institution of higher education shall be eligible to receive from the Commissioner the payment of $10 per academic year for each student enrolled in that institution who is receiving a basic grant under this subpart for that year. Payment received by an institution under this subsection shall be used first to carry out the provisions of section 493A of this Act and then for such additional administrative costs as the institution of higher education determines necessary.
“(2) There are authorized to be appropriated such sums as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this subsection. If the sums appropriated for any fiscal year for making payments under this subsection are not sufficient to pay in full the amounts provided for in paragraph (1), then such amount will be ratably reduced. In case additional funds become available for making payments for any fiscal year during which the preceding sentence has been applied, such reduced amounts shall be increased on the same basis as they were reduced.”

(i) Section 411 of the Act is further amended by adding at the end thereof the following additional subsection:

“(e)(1) The Commissioner shall enter into agreements with not less than two nor more than five States for the processing by such States of all applications of their residents (through an instrumentality or agent selected by such State) for grants made under this subpart for the academic year beginning after July 1, 1977, on condition that any State grants which are subsidized in part by Federal funds, during the period for which State processing of basic education opportunity grant applications is carried out by the State, will be available to eligible State residents for use at the majority of educational institutions outside that State which are eligible institutions under subpart 1 of this part. No later than ninety days after termination of the agreements, the Commissioner shall report to the Congress on the experience with multiple State processing, including its impact on the delivery of student aid to students, and including recommendations concerning whether the option of processing applications for grants under this subpart should be made available to all States having the capacity to do so.

“(2) Any State entering into an agreement with the Commissioner shall—

“(A) not be required, without the State’s consent, to perform services in excess of those required of any private agency or organization with whom the Commissioner has a contract to perform similar application processing, except such additional services as may be necessary to produce processing services of a type and quality equivalent to those produced, through the same or other means; and

“(B) be required to determine student eligibility for awards under this subpart solely on the basis of criteria set forth in this subpart and regulations promulgated by the Commissioner pursuant thereto.

“(3) The Commissioner shall promulgate such regulations as may be necessary—

“(A) to determine a fair per unit fee for application processing which, if the Commissioner has a contract with an agency or organization to perform similar application processing, shall be no more than the amount paid by the Commissioner per application for the same academic year to any such agency or organization; and

“(B) to otherwise carry out the purposes of this subsection.

“(4) Nothing contained in this section or other enactments of law shall be construed to prohibit any eligible State under subsection (c) of this section from—

“(A) employing student application forms that solicit information required for both the determination of eligibility under this subpart and for the determination of eligibility under the postsecondary educational grant programs of such State; and

89-194 O—78—pt. 2—40
“(B) coordinating the eligibility announcements of State post-secondary educational grants and grants under this subpart.
“(5) No State which enters into an agreement with the Commissioner may impose any fee or other charge upon a student for processing of the student’s application for a grant under this subpart.”.

SUPPLEMENTAL EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITY GRANTS

20 USC 1070b.  Sec. 122. (a) Section 413A(b)(1) of the Act is amended by striking out “July 1, 1975” and inserting in lieu thereof “October 1, 1979”.

“(3) Sums appropriated pursuant to paragraphs (1) and (2) for any fiscal year shall remain available for payments to States for the award of student grants under this subpart until the end of the fiscal year succeeding the fiscal year for which such sums were appropriated.”.

20 USC 1070c-2.  (b) Section 415C(b) of the Act is amended by redesignating clauses (4) and (5) of such section, and all references thereto, as clauses (5) and (6), respectively, and by inserting after clause (3) thereof the following new clause:
“(4) provides that, effective with respect to any academic year beginning on or after July 1, 1977, all nonprofit institutions of higher education in the State are eligible to participate in the State program.”.

(c) (1) Section 415A(b)(2) of the Act is amended by inserting before the period a comma and the following: “and to make bonus allotments to States pursuant to section 415E”.

20 USC 1070c-1.  (2) Section 415B(b) is amended by striking out the word “Sums” and inserting in lieu thereof the following: “Subject to the provisions of section 415E, sums”.

(3) Subpart 3 of part A of title IV of the Act is amended by inserting at the end thereof the following new section:

“BONUS ALLOTMENTS FOR STATE STUDENT INCENTIVE GRANT PROGRAMS

20 USC 1070c-4.  “Sec. 415E. Whenever the sum appropriated pursuant to this subpart for any fiscal year is in excess of $75,000,000 the Commissioner shall allot, from 33 1/3 per centum of such excess sums, to each State having an agreement under section 428(b) an amount which bears the same ratio to such sum as the number of students in attendance at institutions of higher education in such State bears to the total number of students in such attendance in all such States.”.

SPECIAL PROGRAMS FOR STUDENTS FROM DISADVANTAGED BACKGROUNDS

20 USC 1070d.  Sec. 124. (a) Section 417A(b) of the Act is amended by inserting before the period a comma and the following: “and $200,000,000 for each of the fiscal years ending prior to October 1, 1979”.

20 USC 1070d-1.  (b) (1) Section 417B(a) of the Act is amended by striking out “section 417A(a)” and inserting in lieu thereof “subsection (b) of this section”.
(2) The matter preceding paragraph (1) of section 417B(b) of the Act is amended to read as follows:

"(b) Services provided through grants and contracts under this subpart shall be specifically designed to assist in enabling youths from low-income families who have academic potential, but who may lack adequate secondary school preparation, who may be physically handicapped, or who may be disadvantaged because of severe rural isolation, to enter, continue, or resume programs of postsecondary education, including—”.

(3) Section 417B(b)(1)(A) of the Act is amended by inserting after the comma the following: “especially such youths who have delayed pursuing postsecondary educational training.”.

(4) The first sentence of section 417B(b) of the Act is amended by—

(A) striking out “and” at the end of clause (3) of such sentence,

(B) striking out the period at the end of clause (4) of such sentence and inserting in lieu thereof a semicolon and the word “and”;

(C) adding at the end thereof the following new clause:

“(5) a program of paying up to 90 per centum of the cost of establishing and operating or expanding service learning centers at institutions of higher education and other postsecondary educational institutions serving a substantial number of disadvantaged students which—

“(A) will provide remedial and other special services for students who are enrolled or accepted for enrollment at that institution, and

“(B) will serve, as a concentrated effort, to coordinate and supplement the ability of that institution to furnish such services to such students.”.

(5) Section 417B(b) of the Act is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new sentence: “Before making a grant or entering into a contract under clause (5) of the first sentence of this subsection the Commissioner may require any institution subject to such a contract or grant to submit an application containing or accompanied by such information, including the ability of that institution to pay the non-Federal share of the costs of the project to be assisted, as is essential to carry out the requirements of that clause.”.

(c) Section 417B of the Act is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsections:

“(e) In making grants or entering into contracts under clause (1) or (5) of subsection (b) of this section the Commissioner may permit students or youths from other than low-income families, not to exceed one-third of the total served, to benefit by the projects to be assisted pursuant to that grant or contract.

“(f)(1) The Commissioner is authorized to enter into contracts with institutions of higher education and other appropriate public agencies and nonprofit private organizations to provide training for staff and leadership personnel who will specialize in improving the delivery of services to students assisted under this subpart.

“(2) Financial assistance under this subsection may be used for

(A) the operation of short-term training institutes designed to improve the skills of participants in such institutes, and (B) the development of inservice training programs for such personnel.”.

“(g) The Commissioner shall not make grants to programs authorized under clause (5) of subsection (b) of this section in any fiscal year in which the amount appropriated for carrying out this subpart is less than $70,331,000.
“(h) It is the intention of the Congress to encourage, whenever feasible, the development of individualized programs for disadvantaged students assisted under this subpart.”.

EDUCATIONAL INFORMATION PROGRAM

SEC. 125. Part A of title IV of the Act is amended by redesignating subpart 5, and all references thereto, as subpart 6, and by inserting immediately after subpart 4 the following new subpart:

“Subpart 5—Educational Information

PROGRAM AUTHORIZATION

Federal share.

SEC. 418A. (a) The Commissioner shall, in accordance with the provisions of this subpart, make grants to States to pay the Federal share of the cost of planning, establishing, and operating Educational Information Centers to provide educational information, guidance, counseling, and referral services for all individuals, including individuals residing in rural areas.

“(b)(1) For the purpose of enabling the Commissioner to carry out this subpart, there are authorized to be appropriated $20,000,000 for fiscal year 1977, $30,000,000 for fiscal year 1978, and $40,000,000 for fiscal year 1979.

“(2) The Commissioner shall allocate funds appropriated in each year under this subpart to each State submitting a plan approved under section 418B an amount which bears the same ratio to such funds as the population of such State bears to the population of all the States, except that for each fiscal year no State which submitted an approved plan shall receive from such funds less than $50,000 for that year. In making allocations under this paragraph, the Commissioner shall use the latest available actual data, including data on previous participation, which is satisfactory to him.

“(c) The Federal share of the cost of planning, establishing, and operating Educational Information Centers for any fiscal year under this subpart shall be 66⅔% per centum, and the non-Federal share may be in cash or in kind.

“(d) For the purposes of this subpart, the term ‘Educational Information Center’ means an institution or agency, or combination of institutions or agencies, organized to provide services to a population in a geographical area no greater than that which will afford all persons within the area reasonable access to the services of the Center. Such services shall include—

“(1) information and talent search services designed to seek out and encourage participation in full-time and part-time post-secondary education or training of persons who could benefit from such education or training if it were not for cultural or financial barriers, physical handicap, deficiencies in secondary education, or lack of information about available programs or financial assistance;

“(2) information and referral services to persons within the area served by the Center, including such services with regard to—

“(A) postsecondary education and training programs in the region and procedures and requirements for applying and gaining acceptance to such programs;

“(B) available Federal, State, and other financial assistance, including information on procedures to be followed in applying for such assistance;
“(C) available assistance for job placement or gaining admission to postsecondary education institutions including, but not limited to, such institutions offering professional, occupational, technical, vocational, work-study, cooperative education, or other education programs designed to prepare persons for careers, or for retraining, continuing education, or upgrading of skills;
“(D) competency-based learning opportunities, including opportunities for testing of existing competencies for the purpose of certification, awarding of credit, or advance placement in postsecondary education programs;
“(E) guidance and counseling services designed to assist persons from the area served by the Center to identify postsecondary education or training opportunities, including part-time opportunities for individuals who are employed, appropriate to their needs and in relationship to each individual’s career plans; and “(F) remedial or tutorial services designed to prepare persons for postsecondary education opportunities or training programs, including such services provided to persons enrolled in postsecondary education institutions within the area served by the Center.

Services may be provided by a Center either directly or by way of contract or other agreement with agencies and institutions within the area to be served by the Center.

“(e) Nothing in this subpart shall be construed to affect funds allocated to the establishment and operation of Educational Opportunity Centers for the disadvantaged pursuant to section 417 (B) (b) (4) of this part.

“ADMINISTRATION OF STATE PROGRAMS

“SEC. 418B. (a) Each State receiving a grant under this part is authorized in accordance with its State plan submitted pursuant to subsection (b) of this section, to make grants to, and contracts with, institutions of higher education, including institutions with vocational and career education programs, and combinations of such institutions, public and private agencies and organizations, and local education agencies in combination with any institution of higher education, for planning, establishing, and operating Educational Information Centers within the State.

“(b) Any State desiring to receive a grant under this subpart shall submit for the approval of the Commissioner a State plan, which shall include—

“(1) a comprehensive strategy for establishment or expansion of Educational Information Centers, designed to achieve the goal, within a reasonable period of time, of making available within reasonable distance to all residents of the State the services of an Educational Information Center;
“(2) assurances concerning the source and availability of State, local, and private funds to meet the non-Federal share of the cost of the State plan required by section 418A(c) ; and Grants and contracts, authorization.

20 USC 1070d-3.

State plan, submittal.
20 USC 1070d-1.
“(3) such other provisions as are essential to carry out the provisions of this subpart.”.

VEGETANS' COST-OF-INSTRUCTION PAYMENTS

SEC. 126. (a) (1) Section 420(a) (1) of the Act is amended by striking out “June 30, 1975” and inserting in lieu thereof “September 30, 1979”.

(2) Section 420(a) of the Act is amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

“(3) During the period beginning July 1, 1976, and ending September 30, 1977, each institution which has qualified for payment under this section for the preceding year shall be entitled during such period, notwithstanding paragraph (1), to a payment under this section, if the number of persons referred to in such paragraph (1), equals whichever is the lesser of (A) at least the number of such persons who were in attendance at such institution during the preceding academic year less the number of such persons whose eligibility for educational assistance under chapter 34 of title 38, United States Code, expired on May 31, 1976, by virtue of section 1662(c) of such title, or (B) at least the minimum number of such persons necessary to establish eligibility to entitlement under paragraph (1) during the preceding academic year less the number of such persons whose eligibility for educational assistance under chapter 34 of title 38, United States Code, expired on May 31, 1976, by virtue of section 1662(c) of such title.”.

(b) Section 420(c) (1) (B) (iii) of the Act is amended by inserting “(with special emphasis on educationally disadvantaged veterans)” after “outreach”, and by inserting “(with special emphasis on the veteran-student services program under section 1685 of such title 38)” after “programs”.

(c) Section 420 of the Act is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsections:

“(f) The Commissioner, in carrying out the provisions of this section, shall seek to assure the coordination of programs assisted under this section with programs carried out by the Veterans' Administration pursuant to title 38 of the United States Code, and the Administrator of Veterans' Affairs shall provide all assistance, technical consultation, and information otherwise authorized by law as necessary to promote the maximum effectiveness of the activities and programs assisted under this section.

“(g) The program provided for in this section shall be administered by an identifiable administrative unit in the Office of Education.”.

(d) Not later than ninety days after the enactment of this Act, the Commissioner shall prepare and submit to the Congress a report containing a summary of the activities and programs (including the number and characteristics of veterans served) at institutions of higher education receiving assistance under section 420 of the Higher Education Act of 1965 (relating to veterans' cost-of-instruction payments) and a description of the steps taken (and the results thereof) to carry out his responsibility under subsection (c) (1) of that section to monitor and determine the adequacy of efforts by such institutions.
FEDERAL AND STATE INSURED LOAN PROGRAMS

SEC. 127. (a) Part B of title IV of the Act is amended to read as follows:

"PART B—FEDERAL, STATE, AND PRIVATE PROGRAMS OF LOW-INTEREST INSURED LOANS TO STUDENTS IN INSTITUTIONS OF HIGHER EDUCATION

"STATEMENT OF PURPOSE AND APPROPRIATIONS AUTHORIZED

"Sec. 421. (a) The purpose of this part is to enable the Commissioner (1) to encourage States and nonprofit private institutions and organizations to establish adequate loan insurance programs for students in eligible institutions (as defined in section 435), (2) to provide a Federal program of student loan insurance for students or lenders who do not have reasonable access to a State or private nonprofit program of student loan insurance covered by an agreement under section 428(b), (3) to pay a portion of the interest on loans to qualified students which are made by a State under a direct loan program meeting the requirements of section 428(a)(1)(B), or which are insured under this part or under a program of a State or of a nonprofit private institution or organization which meets the requirements of section 428(c)(1)(A), and (4) to guarantee a portion of each loan insured under a program of a State or of a nonprofit private institution or organization which meets the requirements of section 428(a)(1)(C).

"(b) For the purpose of carrying out this part—

"(1) there are authorized to be appropriated to the student loan insurance fund (established by section 431) (A) the sum of $1,000,000, and (B) such further sums, if any, as may become necessary for the adequacy of the student loan insurance fund,

"(2) there are authorized to be appropriated, for payments under section 428 with respect to interest on student loans and for payments under section 437, such sums for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1966, and succeeding fiscal years, as may be required therefor,

"(3) there is authorized to be appropriated the sum of $17,500,000 for making advances pursuant to section 422 for the reserve funds of State and nonprofit private student loan insurance programs.

"(4) there are authorized to be appropriated (A) the sum of $12,500,000 for making advances after June 30, 1968, pursuant to sections 422(a) and (b), and (B) such sums as may be necessary for making advances pursuant to section 422(c), for the reserve funds of State and nonprofit private student loan insurance programs, and

"(5) there are authorized to be appropriated such sums as may be necessary for the purpose of paying an administrative cost allowance in accordance with section 428(f) to State and nonprofit institutions and organizations with which the Commissioner has an agreement under section 428(b).

Sums appropriated under clauses (1), (2), (4), and (5) of this subsection shall remain available until expended, and sums appropriated under clause (3) of this subsection shall remain available for advances under section 422 until the close of the fiscal year ending June 30, 1968.
“(c) For purposes of carrying out this part—

“(1) the Commissioner shall develop and execute a plan designed to encourage the establishment of student loan insurance program by each State which does not have such a program covered by an agreement pursuant to section 428(b);

“(2) the Commissioner shall make a report to the Congress within 180 days after the enactment of the Education Amendments of 1976, containing a description of the plan developed according to paragraph (1) accompanied by a timetable for the execution of such plan; and

“(3) the Commissioner shall make a report to the Congress before June 30, 1977, which shall include—

“(A) a description of the activities the Commissioner and his designees have undertaken pursuant to paragraph (1), “(B) a description of such State's plans to establish a program meeting the requirements of section 428(b), and “(C) the Commissioner’s recommendations to the Congress as to what changes in law, or policy would encourage the establishment of such a program in all States without such programs.

"ADVANCES FOR RESERVE FUNDS OF STATE AND NONPROFIT PRIVATE LOAN INSURANCE PROGRAMS"

"SEC. 422. (a) (1) From the sums appropriated pursuant to clauses (3) and (4) (A) of section 421(b), the Commissioner is authorized to make advances to any State with which he has made an agreement pursuant to section 428(b) for the purpose of helping or strengthen the reserve fund of the student loan insurance program covered by that agreement. If for any fiscal year a State does not have a student loan insurance program covered by an agreement made pursuant to section 428(b), and the Commissioner determines after consultation with the chief executive officer of that State that there is no reasonable likelihood that the State will have such a student loan insurance program for such year, the Commissioner may make advances for such year for the same purpose to one or more nonprofit private institutions or organizations with which he has made an agreement pursuant to section 428(b) in order to enable students in the State to participate in a program of student loan insurance covered by such an agreement. The Commissioner may make advances under this subsection both to a State program (with which he has such an agreement) and to one or more nonprofit private institutions or organizations (with which he has such an agreement) in that State if he determines that such advances are necessary in order that students in each eligible institution have access through such institution to a student loan insurance program which meets the requirement of section 428 (b)(1).

“(2) No advance shall be made after June 30, 1968, unless matched by an equal amount from non-Federal sources. Such equal amount may include the unencumbered non-Federal portion of a reserve fund. As used in the preceding sentence, the term 'unencumbered non-Federal portion' means the amount (determined as of the time immediately preceding the making of the advance) of the reserve fund less the greater of (A) the sum of (i) advances made under this section prior to July 1, 1968, (ii) an amount equal to twice the amount of advances made under this section after June 30, 1968, and before the advance for purposes of which the determination is made, and (iii) the proceeds of earnings on advances made under this section, or (B) any amount which is required to be maintained in such fund pursuant to to State law or regulation, or by agreement with lenders, as a reserve against the insurance of outstanding loans.

"(3) Advances pursuant to this subsection shall be upon such terms and conditions (including conditions relating to the time or times of payment) consistent with the requirements of section 428(b) as the Commissioner determines will best carry out the purposes of this section. Advances made by the Commissioner under this subsection shall be repaid within such period as the Commissioner may deem to be appropriate in each case in the light of the maturity and solvency of the reserve fund for which the advance was made.

"(b)(1) The total of the advances to any State prior to July 1, 1968, pursuant to subsection (a) may not exceed an amount which bears the same ratio to 2½ per centum of $700,000,000 as the population of that State aged eighteen to twenty-two, inclusive, bears to the total population of all the States aged eighteen to twenty-two inclusive. The amount available, however, for advances to any State for each fiscal year ending prior to July 1, 1968, shall not be less than $25,000, and any additional funds needed to meet this requirement shall be derived by proportionately reducing (but not below $25,000 per year) the amount available for advances to each of the remaining States. Advances to nonprofit private institutions and organizations prior to July 1, 1968, pursuant to subsection (a) may be in such amounts as the Commissioner determines will best achieve the purposes for which they are made, except that the sum of (1) advances to such institutions and organizations for the benefit of students in any State plus (2) the amounts advanced to such State, may not exceed the maximum amount which may be advanced to that State pursuant to the first two sentences of this subsection.

"(2) The total of the advances from the sums appropriated pursuant to clause (4) (A) of section 421(b) to nonprofit private institutions and organizations for the benefit of students in any State and (B) to such State may not exceed an amount which bears the same ratio to such sums as the population of such State aged eighteen to twenty-two, inclusive, bears to the population of all the States aged eighteen to twenty-two, inclusive, but such advances may otherwise be in such amounts as the Commissioner determines will best achieve the purposes for which they are made. The amount available, however, for advances to any State shall not be less than $25,000, and any additional funds needed to meet this requirement shall be derived by proportionately reducing (but not below $25,000) the amount available for advances to each of the remaining States.

"(3) For the purposes of this subsection, the population aged eighteen to twenty-two, inclusive, of each State and of all the States shall be determined by the Commissioner on the basis of the most recent satisfactory data available to him.

"(c)(1) From sums appropriated pursuant to section 421(b) (4) (B), the Commissioner shall advance to each State which has an agreement with the Commissioner under section 428(c) with respect to a student loan insurance program, an amount determined in accordance with paragraph (2) of this subsection to be used for the purpose of making payments under the State's insurance obligations under such program.

"(2)(A) Except as provided in subparagraph (B), the amount to be advanced to each such State shall be equal to the greater of (i) $50,000, or (ii) 10 per centum of the principal amount insured by such agency on those loans on which the first payment of principal became due during the fiscal year immediately preceding the fiscal year in which the advance is made.
"(B) The amount of any advance determined according to subparagraph (A) of this paragraph shall be reduced by (i) the amount of any advance or advances made to such State pursuant to this subsection at an earlier date, and (ii) the amount of the unspent balance of the advances made to a State pursuant to subsection (a).

"(C) For purposes of subparagraph (B) the unspent balance of the advances made to a State pursuant to subsection (a) shall be that portion of the balance of the State's reserve fund (remaining at the time of the State's first request for an advance pursuant to this subsection) which bears the same ratio to such balance as the Federal advances made and not returned by such State, pursuant to subsection (a), bears to the total of all past contributions to such reserve fund from all sources (other than interest on investment of any portion of the reserve fund) contributed since the date such State executed an agreement pursuant to section 428(b).

"(3) The earnings, if any, on any investments of advances received pursuant to this subsection must be used for making payments under the State's insurance obligations.

"(4) (A) No repayment of any advances made pursuant to this subsection shall be required until such time as the sum of the advances under this subsection exceeds 20 per centum of the State's outstanding insurance obligation determined in accordance with subparagraph (B) of this paragraph.

"(B) For purposes of this paragraph, a State's outstanding insurance obligation shall be determined by subtracting from the total principal amount of loans insured by the State since it entered into an agreement pursuant to section 428(b), the total principal amount of loans insured by such State which have been fully repaid by the borrower, the State itself, or the Commissioner, and loans which have been canceled.

"(C) At such time as advances pursuant to this subsection reach the level indicated in subparagraph (A) of this paragraph, the amount of any excess shall be paid over to the Commissioner in a lump sum at the beginning of each fiscal year for deposit in the fund established by section 431.

"(5) Advances pursuant to this subsection shall be made to a State—

"(A) in the case of a State which is actively carrying on a program under an agreement pursuant to section 428(b) which was entered into before the effective date of this subsection, upon such date as such State may request, but not before October 1, 1977, and on the same day of each of the two succeeding calendar years after the date so requested; and

"(B) in the case of a State which enters into an agreement pursuant to section 428(b) on or after the effective date of this subsection, upon such date as such State may request, but not before October 1, 1977, and on the same day of each of the four succeeding calendar years after the date so requested of the advance.

"(6)(A) If for any fiscal year a State does not have a student loan insurance program covered by an agreement made pursuant to section 428(b), and the Commissioner determines after consultation with the chief executive officer of that State that there is no reasonable likelihood that the State will have such a student loan insurance program for such year, the Commissioner may make advances pursuant to this subsection for such year for the same purpose to one or more nonprofit private institutions or organizations with which he has made an agreement pursuant to subsection (c), as well as subsection (b), of section 428 and subparagraph (B) of this paragraph in order to enable students in that State to participate in a program of student loan insurance covered by such agreements.

"(B) The Commissioner may enter into an agreement with a private nonprofit institution or organization for purposes of this paragraph under which such institution or organization—

"(i) agrees to establish within such State at least one office with sufficient staff to handle written and telephone inquiries from students, eligible lenders, and other persons in the State, to encourage maximum commercial lender participation within the State, and to conduct periodic visits to at least the major eligible lenders within the State,

"(ii) agrees that its insurance will not be denied any student because of his choice of eligible institutions or the student's lack of need, and

"(iii) certifies that it is neither an institution, nor has any substantial affiliation with an institution.

"EFFECTS OF ADEQUATE NON-FEDERAL PROGRAMS"

"Sec. 423. (a) Except as provided in subsections (b) and (c), the Commissioner shall not issue certificates of insurance under section 429 to lenders in a State if he determines that every eligible institution has reasonable access in that State to a State or private nonprofit student loan insurance program which is covered by an agreement under section 428(b).

"(b) The Commissioner may issue certificates of insurance under section 429 to a lender in a State—

"(1) for insurance of a loan made to a student borrower who does not, by reason of his residence, have access to loan insurance under the loan insurance program of such State (or under any private nonprofit loan insurance program which has received an advance under section 422 for the benefit of students in such State), or

"(2) for insurance of all of the loans made to student borrowers by a lender who satisfies the Commissioner that, by reason of the residence of such borrowers, such lender will not have access to any single State or nonprofit private loan insurance program which will insure substantially all of the loans such lender intends to make to such student borrowers.

"(c) The Commissioner shall not deny, because of any provision of this section, a certificate of insurance under section 429 to any eligible lender which is an eligible institution if such lender has previously executed an agreement with the Commissioner pursuant to section 433 of this part, unless the Commissioner determines, based upon studies and surveys satisfactory to him, that access to a loan by all eligible students who make an active and diligent effort to obtain a loan under this part will be otherwise available. In order to carry out the provisions of the preceding sentence the Commissioner shall periodically assess the availability of loans to eligible students through studies and surveys undertaken by him and through review of properly conducted studies and surveys made available to him.

"SCOPE AND DURATION OF FEDERAL LOAN INSURANCE PROGRAM"

"Sec. 424. (a) The total principal amount of new loans made and installments paid pursuant to lines of credit (as defined in section 435) to students covered by Federal loan insurance under this part..."
shall not exceed $1,400,000,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1972, $1,600,000,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1973, $1,800,000,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1974, $2,000,000,000 for each of the fiscal years ending June 30, 1975, and 1976, and $2,000,000,000 for the period from July 1, 1976, to September 30, 1976, and for each of the succeeding fiscal years ending prior to October 1, 1981. Thereafter, Federal loan insurance pursuant to this part may be granted only for loans made (or for loan installments paid pursuant to lines of credit) to enable students, who have obtained prior loans insured under this part, to continue or complete their educational program; but no insurance may be granted for any loan made or installment paid after September 30, 1985.

(b) The Commissioner may, if he finds it necessary to do so in order to assure an equitable distribution of the benefits of this part, assign, within the maximum amounts specified in subsection (a), Federal loan insurance quotas applicable to eligible lenders, or to States or areas, and may from time to time reassign unused portions of these quotas.

LIMITATIONS ON INDIVIDUAL FEDERALLY INSURED LOANS AND ON FEDERAL LOAN INSURANCE

20 USC 1075.

"Sec. 425. (a) (1) The total of loans made to a student in any academic year or its equivalent (as determined by the Commissioner) which may be covered by Federal loan insurance under this part may not exceed $2,500 in the case of a student who has not successfully completed a program of undergraduate education, or $5,000 in the case of a graduate or professional student (as defined in regulations of the Commissioner), except—

(A) that in the case of a loan to a student who is or will be in his first year of a program of undergraduate education, and who has not previously enrolled in such a program which is made by an eligible lender as described in section 425(g) (1) (D) or which is made or originated (as defined in section 433(b)) by an eligible institution, the loan may not exceed the lesser of $2,500 or 50 per centum of the estimated cost of attendance (calculated in accordance with the provisions of section 428(a) (2) (C) (i)),

(B) that in the case of a loan made or originated (as defined in section 433(b)) by an eligible institution which is made to a student for his first academic year of postsecondary education, the loan may exceed $1,500 only if it is to be disbursed in two or more installments none of which exceeds one-half of the loan, with the interval between the first and second of such installments being not less than one-third of the period of enrollment for which the student received the loan, and

(C) in cases where the Commissioner determines, pursuant to regulations prescribed by him, that a higher amount is warranted in order to carry out the purposes of this part with respect to students engaged in specialized training requiring exceptionally high cost of education.

The annual insurable limit per student shall not be deemed to be exceeded by a line of credit under which actual payments by the lender to the borrower will not be made in any year in excess of the annual limit.

(2) The aggregate insured unpaid principal amount for all such insured loans made to any student shall not at any time exceed $7,500, in the case of any student who has not successfully completed a program of undergraduate education, and $15,000 in the case of any graduate or professional student (as defined by regulations of the Commissioner and including any loans which are insured by the Commissioner under this part, or by a State or nonprofit institution or organization with which the Commissioner has an agreement under section 428(b), made to such person before he became a graduate or professional student).

"(b) (1) (A) Except as provided in subparagraph (B), the insurance liability on any loan insured by the Commissioner under this part shall be 100 per centum of the unpaid balance of the principal amount of the loan plus interest, except that—"(i) if, for any fiscal year, the total amount of payments under section 430 by the Commissioner to any eligible lender as described in section 435(g) (1) (D) exceeds 5 per centum of the sum of the loans made by such lender which are insured by the Commissioner and which were in repayment at the end of the preceding fiscal year, the insurance liability under this subsection for that portion of such excess which represents loans insured after the applicable date with respect to such loans, as determined under subparagraph (C), shall be equal to 90 per centum of the amount of such portion;

"(ii) if, for any fiscal year, the total amount of such payments to such a lender exceeds 9 per centum of such sum, the insurance liability under this subsection for that portion of such excess which represents loans insured after the applicable date with respect to such loans, as determined under subparagraph (c), shall be equal to 80 per centum of the amount of such portion.

"(B) Notwithstanding subparagraph (A), the provisions of clauses (i) and (ii) shall not apply to an eligible lender as described in section 435(g) (1) (D) for the fiscal year in which such lender begins to carry on a loan program insured by the Commissioner, or for any of the four succeeding fiscal years.

"(C) The applicable date with respect to a loan made by an eligible lender as described in section 435(g) (1) (D) shall be—

"(i) the 90th day after the adjournment of the next regular session of the appropriate State legislature which convenes after the date of enactment of the Education Amendments of 1976, or

"(ii) if the primary source of lending capital for such lender is derived from the sale of bonds, and the constitution of the appropriate State prohibits a pledge of such State's credit as security against such bonds, the day which is one year after such 90th day.

"(2) For the purposes of this subsection, the sum of the loans made by a lender which are insured by the Commissioner and which are in repayment shall be the original principal amount of loans made by such lender which are insured by the Commissioner reduced by—

(A) the amount the Commissioner has been required to pay to discharge his insurance obligations under this part, (B) the original principal amount of loans insured by the Commissioner which have been fully repaid, (C) the original principal amount insured on those loans for which payment of first installment of principal has not become due pursuant to section 427 (a) (2) (B) or such first installment need not be paid pursuant to section 427 (a) (2) (C), and (D) the original principal amount of loans repaid by the Commissioner under section 437.

"(3) For the purposes of this subsection, payments by the Commissioner under section 430 to an assignee of the lender with respect to a loan shall be deemed payments made to such lender.

"(4) The full faith and credit of the United States is pledged to the payment of all amounts which may be required to be paid under the provisions of section 430 or 437 of this part."
"SOURCES OF FUNDS

20 USC 1076. "Sec. 426. Loans made by eligible lenders in accordance with this part shall be insurable by the Commissioner whether made from funds fully owned by the lender or from funds held by the lender in a trust or similar capacity and available for such loans.

"ELIGIBILITY OF STUDENT BORROWERS AND TERMS OF FEDERALLY INSURED STUDENT LOANS

20 USC 1077. "Sec. 427. (a) A loan by an eligible lender shall be insurable by the Commissioner under the provisions of this part only if—

"(1) made to a student who (A) has been accepted for enrollment at an eligible institution or, in the case of a student already attending such institution, is in good standing there as determined by the institution, (B) is carrying at least one-half of the normal fulltime workload as determined by the institution, and (C) has agreed to notify promptly the holder of the loan concerning any change of address; and

"(2) evidenced by a note or other written agreement which—

"(A) is made without security and without endorsement, except that if the borrower is a minor and such note or other written agreement executed by him would not, under the applicable law, create a binding obligation, endorsement may be required,

"(B) provides for repayment (except as provided in subsection (c)) of the principal amount of the loan in installments over a period of not less than five years (unless sooner repaid or unless the student, during the nine- to twelve-month period preceding the start of the repayment period, specifically requests that repayment be made over a shorter period) nor more than ten years beginning not earlier than nine months nor later than one year after the date on which the student ceases to carry at an eligible institution at least one-half the normal full-time academic workload as determined by the institution, except—

"(i) as provided in clause (C) below,

"(ii) that the period of the loan may not exceed fifteen years from the execution of the note or written agreement evidencing it,

"(iii) that the note or other written instrument may contain such provisions relating to repayment in the event of default in the payment of interest or in the payment of the cost of insurance premiums, or other default by the borrower, as may be authorized by regulations of the Commissioner in effect at the time the loan is made, and

"(iv) that the lender and the student, after the student ceases to carry at an eligible institution at least one-half the normal full-time academic workload as determined by the institution, may agree to a repayment schedule which begins earlier, or is of shorter duration, than required by this subparagraph, except that in the event a student has requested and obtained a repayment period of less than five years, he may at any time prior to the total repayment of the loan, have the repayment period extended so that the total repayment period is not less than five years,
"(C) provides that periodic installments of principal need not be paid, but interest shall accrue and be paid, during any period (i) during which the borrower is pursuing a full-time course of study at an 'eligible institution', or is pursuing a course of study pursuant to a graduate fellowship program approved by the Commissioner, (ii) not in excess of three years during which the borrower is a member of the Armed Forces of the United States, (iii) not in excess of three years during which the borrower is in service as a volunteer under the Peace Corps Act, (iv) not in excess of three years during which the borrower is in service as a volunteer under the Domestic Volunteer Service Act of 1973, or (v) during a single period, not in excess of twelve months, at the request of the borrower, during which the borrower is seeking and unable to find full-time employment, and any such period shall not be included in determining the ten-year period or the fifteen-year period provided in clause (B) above,

"(D) provides for interest on the unpaid principal balance of the loan at a yearly rate, not exceeding the applicable maximum rate prescribed and defined by the Secretary (within the limits set forth in subsection (b)) on a national, regional, or other appropriate basis, which interest shall be payable in installments over the period of the loan except that, if provided in the note or other written agreement, any interest payable by the student may be deferred until not later than the date upon which repayment of the first installment of principal falls due, in which case interest that has so accrued during that period may be added on that date to the principal,

"(E) provides that the lender will not collect or attempt to collect from the borrower any portion of the interest on the note which is payable by the Commissioner under this part, and that the lender will enter into such agreements with the Commissioner as may be necessary for the purposes of section 437.

"(F) entitles the student borrower to accelerate without penalty repayment of the whole or any part of the loan,

"(G) provides that, in the case of each loan insured by the program, the eligible institution attended by the borrower at the time of the loan will be notified of such insurance and the name of the lender making the loan, and such notification will be made either by (i) the prompt transmittal of such information to the institution by the insurer or the lender, or (ii) a requirement of the insurer, as a condition of its insurance, that the lender shall transmit any checks for the proceeds of such loan directly to the eligible institution for delivery to the borrower;

"(H) the funds borrowed by a student are disbursed by check payable to the order and requiring the endorsement of such student, and

"(I) contains such other terms and conditions, consistent with the provisions of this part and with the regulations issued by the Commissioner pursuant to this part, as may be agreed upon by the parties to such loan, including, if agreed upon, a provision requiring the borrower to pay the lender, in addition to principal and interest, amounts equal to the insurance premiums payable by the lender to the Commissioner with respect to such loan.
"(b) No maximum rate of interest prescribed and defined by the Secretary for the purposes of clause (2)(D) of subsection (a) may exceed 7 per centum per annum on the unpaid principal balance of the loan.

"(c) The total of the payments by a borrower during any year of any repayment period with respect to the aggregate amount of all loans to that borrower which are insured under this part shall not unless the borrower and the lender otherwise agree, be less than $360 or the balance of all of such loans (together with interest thereon), whichever amount is less, except that in the case of a husband and wife, both of whom have such loans outstanding, the total of the combined payments for such a couple during any year shall not be less than $360 or the balance of all such loans, whichever is less.

"FEDERAL PAYMENTS TO REDUCE STUDENT INTEREST COSTS

20 USC 1078. "Sec. 428. (a)(1) Each student who has received a loan for study at an eligible institution—

(A) which is insured by the Commissioner under this part;

(B) which was made under a State student loan program (meeting criteria prescribed by the Commissioner), and which was contracted for, and paid to the student, within the period specified by paragraph (5); or

(C) which is insured under a program of a State or of a non-profit private institution or organization which was contracted for, and paid to the student, within the period specified in paragraph (5), and which—

(i) in the case of a loan insured prior to July 1, 1967, was made by an eligible lender and is insured under a program which meets the requirements of subparagraph (E) of subsection (b)(1) and provides that repayment of such loan shall be in installments beginning not earlier than sixty days after the student ceases to pursue a course of study (as described in subparagraph (D) of subsection (b)(1)) at an eligible institution, or

(ii) in the case of a loan insured after June 30, 1967, is insured under a program covered by an agreement made pursuant to subsection (b), shall be entitled to have paid on his behalf and for his account to the holder of the loan a portion of the interest on such loan under circumstances described in paragraph (2).

(2) (A) Each student qualifying for a portion of an interest payment under paragraph (1) shall—

(i) have provided to the lender a statement from the eligible institution, at which the student has been accepted for enrollment, or at which he is in attendance in good standing (as determined by such institution), which—

(I) sets forth such student's estimated costs of attendance and

(II) sets forth such student's estimated financial assistance; and

(ii) meet the requirements of subparagraph (B).

(B) For the purposes of clause (ii) of subparagraph (A), a student shall qualify for a portion of an interest payment under paragraph (1) if such student's adjusted family income at the time of execution of the note or written agreement evidencing such loan—

(i) is less than $25,000; or
“(ii) is equal to or greater than $25,000 and the eligible institution has provided the lender with a statement evidencing a determination of need and recommending a loan in the amount of such need.

“(C) For the purposes of paragraph (1) and this paragraph—

“(i) a student's estimated cost of attendance means, for the period for which the loan is sought, the tuition and fees applicable to such student together with the institution's estimate of other expenses reasonably related to attendance at such institution, including, but not limited to, the cost of room and board, reasonable commuting costs, and costs for books;

“(ii) a student's estimated financial assistance means, for the period for which the loan is sought, the amount of assistance such student will receive under parts A, C, and E of this title, plus other scholarship, grant, or loan assistance;

“(iii) the term 'eligible institution' when used with respect to a student is the eligible institution at which the student has been accepted for enrollment or, in the case of a student who is in attendance at such an institution, at which the student is in good standing (as determined by such institution);

“(iv) the determination of need and the amount of a loan recommended by an eligible institution under subparagraph (B)(ii) with respect to a student shall be determined by subtracting from the estimated cost of attendance at such institution the total of the expected family contribution with respect to such student (as determined by means other than one formulated by the Commissioner under subpart I of part A of this title) plus any other resources or student financial assistance reasonably available to such student.

“(D) For the purposes of this paragraph, the adjusted family income of a student shall be determined pursuant to regulations of the Commissioner in effect at the time of the execution of the note or written agreement evidencing the loan. Such regulations shall provide for taking into account such factors, including family size, as the Commissioner deems appropriate. In the absence of fraud by the lender, such determination of the need of a student under this paragraph shall be final insofar as it concerns the obligation of the Commissioner to pay the holder of a loan a portion of the interest on the loan.

“(3) (A) Except as provided in paragraph (8), the portion of the interest on a loan which a student is entitled to have paid on his behalf and for his account to the holder of the loan pursuant to paragraph (1) of this subsection shall be equal to the total amount of the interest on the unpaid principal amount of the loan which accrues prior to the beginning of the repayment period of the loan, or which accrues during a period in which principal need not be paid (whether or not such principal is in fact paid) by reason of a provision described in subsection (b)(1)(M) of this section or in section 427(a)(2)(C); but, except as provided in paragraph (8) of this subsection, such portion of the interest on a loan shall not exceed, for any period, the amount of the interest on that loan which is payable by the student after taking into consideration the amount of any interest on that loan which the student is entitled to have paid on his behalf for that period under any State or private loan insurance program. The holder of a loan with respect to which payments are required to be made under this section shall be deemed to have a contractual right, as against the United States, to receive from the Commissioner the portion of interest which has been so determined. The Commissioner shall pay this portion of the interest to the holder of the loan on behalf of and for the account of the borrower at such times as may be specified in regulations in force when the applicable agreement entered into pursuant to subsection (b) was made, or, if the loan was made by a State or is insured under a program which is not covered by such an agreement, at such times as may be specified in regulations in force at the time the loan was paid to the student.

"(B) If (i) a State student loan insurance program is covered by an agreement under subsection (b), (ii) a statute of such State limits the interest rate on loans insured by such program to a rate which is less than 7 per centum per annum on the unpaid principal balance, and (iii) the Commissioner determines that section 428(d) does not make such statutory limitation inapplicable and that such statutory limitation threatens to impede the carrying out of the purposes of this part, then he may pay an administrative cost allowance to the holder of each loan which is insured under such program and which is made during the period beginning on the sixtieth day after the date of enactment of the Higher Education Amendments of 1968 and ending 120 days after the adjournment of such State's first regular legislative session which adjourns after January 1, 1969. Such administrative cost allowance shall be paid over the term of the loan in an amount per annum (determined by the Commissioner) which shall not exceed 1 per centum of the unpaid principal balance of the loan.

"(4) Each holder of a loan with respect to which payments of interest are required to be made by the Commissioner shall submit to the Commissioner, at such time or times and in such manner as he may prescribe, statements containing such information as may be required by or pursuant to regulation for the purpose of enabling the Commissioner to determine the amount of the payment which he must make with respect to that loan.

"(5) The period referred to in subparagraphs (B) and (C) of paragraph (1) of this subsection shall begin on the date of enactment of this Act and end at the close of September 30, 1981, except that, in the case of a loan made or insured under a student loan or loan insurance program to enable a student who has obtained a prior loan made or insured under such program to continue his educational program, such period shall end at the close of September 30, 1985.

"(6) No payment may be made under this section with respect to the interest on a loan made from a student loan fund established under title II of the National Defense Education Act of 1958 or part E of this title.

"(7) Nothing in this or any other Act shall be construed to prohibit or require, unless otherwise specifically provided by law, a lender to evaluate the total financial situation of a student making application for a loan under this part, or to counsel a student with respect to any such loan, or to make a decision based on such evaluation and counseling with respect to the dollar amount of any such loan.

"(8) (A) In the case of any eligible lender (other than an eligible institution or an agency or instrumentality of a State), which is approved by the Commissioner pursuant to subparagraph (B) of this paragraph for the purpose of authorizing multiple disbursements and which enters into a binding agreement with a student to make a loan—

"(i) for which the student is entitled to have a portion of the interest paid on his behalf under this section, and

"(ii) the proceeds of which loan are to be paid to the student in multiple disbursements over the period of enrollment for which the loan is made, but not to exceed twelve months, the amount of the interest payment and the amount of any special allowance payment to be paid under section 438 shall be determined as if the entire amount to be made available for that period of enrollment had been disbursed on the date on which the first installment thereof was disbursed, and any increase in the rate of interest on the loan attributable to such multiple disbursements shall not be deemed to violate any provision of this part relating to the maximum rate of interest on such loan. The provisions of this paragraph shall apply only in the case of loans paid in multiple disbursements, in accordance with regulations of the Commissioner, based on the need of the student for the proceeds of such loan over the course of the academic year.

"(B) The Commissioner may approve an eligible lender for the purposes of this paragraph if he determines—

"(i) that such lender is making or will be making a substantial volume of loans on which an interest subsidy is payable under this section, and

"(ii) that such lender has sufficient experience and administrative capability in processing such loans to enable the lender to make such multiple disbursements in accordance with regulations issued by the Commissioner under this subparagraph.

"(9) With respect to any loan for which a portion of the interest is payable under this section, in the case of a student attending an eligible institution which is located in other than a State, the determinations to be made (except determinations of good standing) and the statement to be provided by such institution under paragraph (2) (A) (i) and
(2) (B) (ii) of this subsection shall be made and provided by (A) the Commissioner in the case of a loan described by paragraph (1) (A),
(B) the State in the case of a loan described by paragraph (1) (B), or (C) the State or a nonprofit private institution or organization as the case may be, in the case of a loan described by paragraph
(1) (C).

"(b) (1) Any State or any nonprofit private institution or organization may enter into an agreement with the Commissioner for the purpose of entitling students who receive loans which are insured under a student loan insurance program of that State, institution, or organization to have made on their behalf the payments provided for in subsection (a) if the Commissioner determines that the student loan insurance program—

"(A) authorizes the insurance of not less than $1,000 nor more than $2,500 in the case of a student who has not successfully completed a program of undergraduate education, or $5,000 in the case of a graduate or professional student (as defined in regulations of the Commissioner), except—

"(i) that the program may not authorize the insurance of a loan which is made by an eligible lender as described in section 435(g) (1) (D) or which is made or originated (as defined in section 433(b)) by an eligible institution to a student who has not successfully completed a program of undergraduate education in an amount in excess of $2,500 or 50 per centum of the estimated cost of attendance (calculated in accordance with section 428 (a) (2) (C) (i)), "(ii) that the program may not authorize the insurance of a loan in excess of $1,500 for an academic year which is made or originated (as defined in section 433(b)) by an eligible institution, and is made to a student for his first academic year of postsecondary education, unless the loan is to be disbursed in two or more installments, none of which exceeds one-half of the loan, with the interval between the first and second of such installments being not less than one-third of the period of enrollment for which the student received the loan, and

“(iii) in cases where the Commissioner determines, pursuant to regulations prescribed by him, that a higher amount is warranted in order to carry out the purposes of this part with respect to students engaged in specialized training requiring exceptionally high costs of education, but the annual insurable limit per student shall not be deemed to be exceeded by a line of credit under which actual payments by the lender to the borrower will not be made in any years in excess of the annual limit;

“(B) provides that the aggregate insured unpaid principal amount for all such insured loans made to any student shall not at any time exceed $7,500, in the case of any student who has not successfully completed a program of undergraduate education, and $15,000 in the case of any graduate or professional student (as defined by regulations of the Commissioner and including any loans which are insured by the Commissioner under this part, or by a State or nonprofit institution or organization with which the Commissioner has an agreement under section 428(b), made to such person before he became a graduate or professional student);

“(C) authorizes the insurance of loans to any individual student for at least six academic years of study or their equivalent (as determined under regulations of the Commissioner);

“(D) provides that (i) the student borrower shall be entitled to accelerate without penalty the whole or any part of an insured loan, (ii) except as provided in subparagraph (M) of this paragraph, the period of any insured loan may not exceed fifteen years from the date of execution of the note or other written evidence of the loan, and (iii) the note or other written evidence of any loan, may contain such provisions relating to repayment in the event of default by the borrower as may be authorized by regulations of the Commissioner in effect at the time such note or written evidence was executed;

“(E) subject to subparagraphs (D) and (L) of this paragraph and except as provided by subparagraph (M) of this paragraph, provides that repayment of loans shall be in installments over a period of not less than five years (unless the student, during the nine- to twelve-month period preceding the start of the repayment period, specifically requests that repayment be made over a shorter period) nor more than ten years beginning not earlier than nine months nor later than one year after the student ceases to pursue a full-time course of study at an eligible institution, except—

“(i) that, if the program provides for the insurance of loans for part-time study at eligible institutions, the program shall provide that such repayment period shall begin not earlier than nine months nor later than one year after the student ceases to carry at an eligible institution at least one-half the normal full-time academic workload as determined by the institution;

“(ii) that the lender and the student, after the student ceases to carry at an eligible institution at least one-half the normal full-time academic workload, as determined by the institution, may agree to a repayment schedule which begins earlier, or is of shorter duration, than required by this sub-paragraph, except that in the event a student has requested and obtained a repayment period of less than five years, he may at any time prior to the total repayment of the loan have the repayment period extended so that the total repayment period is not less than five years;

"(F) authorizes interest on the unpaid balance of the loan at a yearly rate not in excess of 7 per centum per annum on the unpaid principal balance of the loan (exclusive of any premium for insurance which may be passed on to the borrower);

"(G) insures not less than 80 per centum of the unpaid principal of loans insured under the program;

"(H) does not provide for collection of an excessive insurance premium;

"(I) provides that the benefits of the loan insurance program will not be denied any student who is eligible for interest benefits under section 428(a) (1) and (2) except in the case of loans made by an instrumentality of a State or eligible institution;

"(J) provides that a student may obtain insurance under the program for a loan for any year of study at an eligible institution;

"(K) in the case of a State program, provides that such State program is administered by a single State agency, or by one or more nonprofit private institutions or organizations under supervision of a single State agency;

"(L) provides that the total of the payments by a borrower during any year of any repayment period with respect to the aggregate amount of all loans to that borrower which are insured under this part shall not be less than $360 or the balance of all such loans (together with interest thereon), whichever amount is less, unless the borrower and the lender otherwise agree, except that, in the case of a husband and wife, both of whom have such loans outstanding, the total of the combined payments for such a couple during any year shall not be less than $360 or the balance of all such loans, whichever is less;

"(M) provides that periodic installments of principal need not be paid, but interest shall accrue and be paid during any period (i) during which the borrower is pursuing a full-time course of study at an eligible institution, or is pursuing a course of study pursuant to a graduate fellowship program approved by the Commissioner, (ii) not in excess of three years during which the borrower is a member of the Armed Forces of the United States, (iii) not in excess of three years during which the borrower is in service as a volunteer under the Peace Corps Act, (iv) not in excess of three years during which the borrower is in service as a full-time volunteer under the Domestic Volunteer Service Act of 1973, or (v) during a single period, not in excess of twelve months, at the request of the borrower, during which the borrower is seeking and unable to find full-time employment;

"(N) provides that in the case of each loan insured by the program that the eligible institution attended by the borrower at the time of the loan will be notified of such insurance and the name of the lender making the loan, and such notification will be made either by (i) the prompt transmittal of such information to the institution by the insurer or the lender, or (ii) a requirement of the insurer, as a condition of its insurance, that the lender shall transmit any checks for the proceeds of such loan directly to the eligible institution for delivery to the borrower;
“(O) provides that funds borrowed by a student are disbursed by check payable to the order and requiring the endorsement of such student;

“(P) provides that the borrower shall, within four months after ceasing to carry at an eligible institution at least one-half the normal full-time academic workload as determined by the institution, contact the holder of his loan to negotiate the terms of his repayment obligations, and “(Q) requires the borrower to promptly notify the holder of the loan concerning any change of address.

“(2) Such an agreement shall—

“(A) provide that the holder of any such loan will be required to submit to the Commissioner, at such time or times and in such manner as he may prescribe, statements containing such information as may be required by or pursuant to regulation for the purpose of enabling the Commissioner to determine the amount of the payment which he must make with respect to that loan;

“(B) include such other provisions as may be necessary to protect the financial interests of the United States and promote the purposes of this part, including such provisions as may be necessary for the purpose of section 437, and as are agreed to by the Commissioner and the State or nonprofit private organization or institution, as the case may be; and

“(C) provide for making such reports, in such form and containing such information, as the Commissioner may reasonably require to carry out his function under this part, and for keeping such records and for affording such access thereto as the Commissioner may find necessary to assure the correctness and verification of such reports.

“(c)(1)(A) The Commissioner may enter into a guaranty agreement with any State or any nonprofit private institution or organization with which he has an agreement pursuant to subsection (b), whereby the Commissioner shall undertake to reimburse it, under such terms and conditions as he may establish, with respect to losses (resulting from the default of the student borrower) on the unpaid balance of the principal and accrued interest of any insured loan with respect to which a portion of the interest is payable by the Commissioner under subsection (a), or would be payable under such subsection but for the borrower's lack of need. Except as provided in subparagraph (B) of this paragraph and in paragraph (7), the amount to be paid a State or nonprofit private institution or organization as reimbursement under this subsection shall be equal to 80 per centum of the amount expended by it in discharge of its insurance obligation incurred under its loan insurance program.

“(B) Any State or any nonprofit private institution or organization which has entered into a supplementary agreement under section 428A of this Act whereby the Commissioner agrees to reimburse the State or nonprofit private institution or organization, under such terms and conditions as he may establish, with respect to losses (resulting from the default of the student borrower) on the unpaid balance of the principal and accrued interest of any such insured loan in an amount equal to 100 per centum of the amount expended by it in the discharge of its insurance obligation incurred under its loan insurance program, except that—

“(i) if, for any fiscal year, the amount of such reimbursement payments by the Commissioner under this subsection exceeds 5 per centum of the loans which are insured by such institution or organization under such program and which were in repayment at the end of the preceding fiscal year, the amount to be paid as reimbursement under this subsection for such excess shall be equal to 90 per centum of the amount of such excess; and “(ii) if, for any fiscal year, the amount of such reimbursement payments, exceed 9 per centum of such loans, the amount to be paid as reimbursement under this subsection for such excess shall be equal to 80 per centum of the amount of such excess.
“(C) For purposes of this subsection, the amount of loans of a State or nonprofit private institution or organization which are in repayment shall be the original principal amount of loans insured by it reduced by (i) the amount the insurer has been required to pay to discharge its insurance obligations under this part, (ii) the original principal amount of loans insured by it which have been fully repaid, (iii) the original principal amount insured on those loans for which payment of the first installment of principal has not become due pursuant to section 428(b)(1)(E) or such first installment need not be paid pursuant to section 428(b)(1)(M), and (iv) the original principal amount of loans repaid by the Commissioner under section 437.
“(2) The guaranty agreement—
“(A) shall set forth such administrative and fiscal procedures as may be necessary to protect the United States from the risk of unreasonable loss thereunder, to insure proper and efficient administration of the loan insurance program, and to assure that due diligence will be exercised in the collection of loans insured under the program;
“(B) shall provide for making such reports, in such form and containing such information, as the Commissioner may reasonably require to carry out his functions under this subsection, and for keeping such records and for affording such access thereto as the Commissioner may find necessary to assure the correctness and verification of such reports;
“(C) shall set forth adequate assurance that, with respect to so much of any loan insured under the loan insurance program as may be guaranteed by the Commissioner pursuant to this subsection, the undertaking of the Commissioner under the guaranty agreement is acceptable in full satisfaction of State law or regulation requiring the maintenance of a reserve;
“(D) shall provide that if, after the Commissioner has made payment under the guaranty agreement pursuant to paragraph (1) of this subsection with respect to any loan, any payments are made in discharge of the obligation incurred by the borrower with respect to such loan (including any payments of interest accruing on such loan after such payment by the Commissioner), there shall be paid over to the Commissioner (for deposit in the fund established by section 431) such proportion of the amounts of such payments as is determined (in accordance with paragraph (6)) to represent his equitable share thereof, but shall not otherwise provide for subrogation of the United States to rights of any insurance beneficiary: Provided, That, except as the Commissioner may otherwise by or pursuant to regulation provide, amounts so paid by a borrower on such a loan shall be first applied in reduction of principal owing on such loan;
“(E) shall set forth adequate assurance that an amount equal to each payment made under paragraph (1) will be promptly deposited in or credited to the accounts maintained for purposes of section 422(c); and “(F) may include such other provisions as may be necessary to promote the purposes of this part.
“(3) To the extent provided in regulations of the Commissioner, a guaranty agreement under this subsection may contain provisions which permit such forebearance for the benefit of the student borrower as may be agreed upon by the parties to an insured loan and approved by the insurer.

“(4) For purposes of this subsection, the terms ‘insurance beneficiary’ and ‘default’ shall have the meanings assigned to them by section 430(e).

“(5) In the case of any guaranty agreement entered into prior to September 1, 1969, with a State or nonprofit private institution or organization with which the Commissioner has in effect on that date an agreement pursuant to subsection (b) of this section, or section 20 USC 981 note. made prior to the date of enactment of this subsection, the Commissioner may, in accordance with the terms of this subsection, undertake to guarantee loans described in paragraph (1) which are insured by such State, institution, or organization and are outstanding on the date of execution of the guaranty agreement, but only with respect to defaults occurring after the execution of such guaranty agreement or, if later, after its effective date.

“(6)(A) For the purpose of paragraph (2)(D) the Commissioner’s equitable share of payments made by the borrower pursuant to such paragraph shall be that portion of the payments remaining after the State or the nonprofit private institution or organization with which the Commissioner has an agreement under this subsection has deducted from such payments (i) a percentage amount equal to the complement of the reinsurancr percentage in effect when payment under the guaranty agreement was made with respect to the loan and (ii) an amount equal to the administrative costs of collection of the loan and the administrative costs of preclaims assistance for default prevention (as such terms are defined in subparagraph (B) of this subsection) reimbursed pursuant to subsection (f), to the extent such costs do not exceed 30 per centum of such payments.

“(B) For the purpose of this paragraph, the term—

“Administrative costs of collection of the loan.”

“(i) ‘administrative costs of collection of the loan’ means any administrative costs incurred by a guaranty agency which are directly related to the collection of the loan on which a default claim has been paid to the participating lender, including the attributable compensation of collection personnel (and in the case of personnel who perform several functions for such an agency only the portion of compensation attributable to the collection activity), attorney’s fees, fees paid to collection agencies, postage, equipment, supplies, telephone and similar charges, but does not include the overhead costs of such agency whether or not attributable and

“Administrative costs of preclaim assistance for default prevention.”

“(ii) ‘administrative costs of preclaim assistance for default prevention’ means any administrative costs incurred by a guaranty agency which are directly related to providing collection assistance to the lender on a delinquent loan, prior to the loan’s being legally in a default status, including the attributable compensation of appropriate personnel (and in the case of personnel who perform several functions for such an agency only the portion of compensation attributable to the collection activity), fees paid to locate a missing borrower, postage, equipment, supplies, telephone and similar charges, but does not include the overhead costs of such agency whether or not attributable, subject to such additional criteria as the Commissioner may by regulation prescribe.

"(7)(A) Notwithstanding paragraph (1)(B), the amount to be paid a State or a nonprofit private institution or organization for any fiscal year—

"(i) which begins on or after the effective date of this paragraph; and

"(ii) which is either the fiscal year in which such State, institution, or organization begins to actively carry on a student loan insurance program which is subject to a guarantee agreement under this subsection, or is one of the four succeeding fiscal years, shall be 100 per centum of the amount expended by such State, organization, or institution in discharge of its insurance obligation insured under such program.

"(B) The Commissioner shall continuously monitor the operations of those States and nonprofit private institutions or organizations to which the provisions of subparagraph (A) are applicable and revoke the application of such subparagraph to any such State or nonprofit private institution or organization which he determines has not exercised reasonable prudence in the administration of such program.

"(d) No provision of any law of the United States (other than sections 427(a)(2)(D) and 427(b) of this Act) or of any State (other than a statute applicable principally to such State’s student loan insurance program) which limits the rate or amount of interest payable on loans shall apply to a loan—

"(1) which bears interest (exclusive of any premium for insurance) on the unpaid principal balance at a rate not in excess of 7 per centum per annum, and

"(2) which is insured (A) by the United States under this part, or (B) by a State or nonprofit private institution or organization under a program covered by an agreement made pursuant to subsection (b) of this section.
